Teacher: "So you say Johnny will not be able to attend school today?" Who is this speaking?"

Voice over phone: "My father."

Husband: "I locked the car up before we left it and now I can't find the key."

Wife: "Never mind, dear! It's a fine night and we can ride home in the rumble seat."

"You're all wet, where's your umbrella?"

"I forgot it."

"When did you find that out?"

"After the rain was over and I went to close it."

"You know they found the Scotchman who has been lost for three days?"

"Where was he?"

"Sitting in a Pay As You Leave Street Car."

"Well, it's just like we've always said: 'Give a man an inch and he'll park his Austin'."

"Did you hear about the young lady being hurt in an explosion the other night?"

"No, how come?"

"Well, a smile lit up her face and the powder went off."

"Happy": "What's the idea of the luggage? Going away?"

Jane: "No, the sorority is going to have a rummage sale and I'm sending my clothese homes until its over."

"City": "Gee, Dot, I just dreamed I had a job!"

Dot: "Yeah? You look tired."

"I suppose this is another of those horrible futuristic paintings?"

"Pardon me, madam, but that's a mirror."

. . . "When you're old and grey, deah,
An when your teeth decay, deah,
I'll order soup, Sonny Boy."

"Is this a second-hand store?"

"Yes."

"Well, I want one for my watch."

"I wish I were a cake of yeast,
Not all the time, you know—
Just when I've wrecked the monthly check
And knead to raise the dough."

"Is this dance formal, or can I wear my own clothes?"

Lady Driver (after collision): "But I insist it was all my fault."

Gentleman Driver: "No, it was my fault. I could see your car was being driven by a lady at least forty rods away and I could easily have driven over into that field and avoided this."

SOPHOMORES ARE SCHOOL CHAMPIONS IN SERIES OF VOLLEY BALL GAMES

Final Game Played Last Evening In Gymnasium Before Good Crowd

Yells—who could have been near the gym Monday and Tuesday nights without hearing them! The volley ball games this year afforded much excitement. Monday night at 6:45, the Sophomores and Freshmen played the first game. The line-up was a follows:

Freshmen	Sophomores
Elizabeth Burger	Duvahl Ridgeway
Mary Fraser	Lucille Crute
Ruth Wright	Laurie Bousch
Nell Dickinson	Mary Gregory
Sue Yeaman	Dorothy Ritchie
Nannie Ruth Cooper	Martha Gunter
Doreen S mith	Margaret Massey
Alma Foster	Elizabeth Walthall

The first game was very close and at the first, the Freshmen kept the lead. Suddenly the Sophomores seemed to gain spirit and energy for their score quickly rose— the first game was 17-21 in favor of Sophomores; the second game was very slow for the Freshmen lost their spirit and the Sophomores were victorious 18-1.

The Junior-Senior game was not quite so exciting. Their line-ups were:

Juniors	Seniors
Frances Edwards	Laura N. Smith
Cleo Quisenberry	Margaret Nuthall
Ethel Boswell	Emily Simpson
Easter Souders	Edith Coleman
Nell Clingenpeel	Allie Oliver
Elsie Stables	Elizabeth Hunter
Kathleen Hundley
Louise Clayton

The first game was 33 to 3 the second 22-9.

The finals were played Tuesday night. Excitement, yells, cheers! The classes were well supported in cheers.

When the whistle first blew, both of the teams, Sophomores and Juniors were both tense with excitement ready to do their best. The first game was very close, 21-7 in favor of the Sophomores.

The second game caused quite a change for the Juniors held the Sophomores down so closely hardy allowing them to make a point. The teamwork was very good. The score was 27 to 5 in favor of the Juniors. Then the excitement was at its highest point for that meant that they would have to play another game. This third game was the most exciting of all and when the last whistle blew, the score was 12-11 in favor of the Sophs, therefore giving them another 10 points to their credit.

According to the Nebraska English Department, the word "It," besides having the Clara Bow connection, has been found to possess three other meanings. The first "it" is commonly used to denote a "big shot" or important person. The second "it" still has the hide-and-go-seek and tag connection, while the third one refers to a stupid person as "Such as it."

Ticklers

A reader in New Jersey submits the following electrical plan:

If she talks too long—Interrupter
If she will meet you halfway—Receiver.
If she gets too excited—Controller.
If she goes up in the air—Condenser
If she wants chocolates—Feeder
If she sings inharmoniously—Tuner.
If she is out of town—Telegrapher
If she is a poor cook—Discharger
If she is too fat—Reducer.
If she is wrong—Rectifier.
If she gossips too much—Regulator
If she becomes upset—Reverser.

C. E. CHAPPELL COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, cigarettes and soda

Main Street

FARMVILLE VIRGINIA

BUFFALO TEACHERS COLLEGE STUDENT WINS

Continued from page one

lege, New York, chairman of the committee on award. This is the second time a student in a Buffalo school has won the first prize in a League of Nations contest. Esther Lawrence of Buffalo, having won the Association's high school contest last year.

Miss Hedin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nils A. Hedin, of Delavan, N. Y., 33 miles south of Buffalo. She is an honor student, has won a state scolarhip, and is particularly interested in history, sociology and government. As winner of this third national contest, Miss Hedin will travel in Europe this summer, spending part of the time at Geneva to study the League of Nations first hand. Previous winners of the first and second normal school contets were Edith Garrison of the State Teachers College at Trenton, N. J., and Edward Helman of Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti.

The second prize of $100 went to Margaret Flaherty of Norwalk, Conn., seventeen-year-old student at the Connecticut State Normal School in Danbury.

Stella Josephine Clough, Montclair, N. J., and a student at Teachers College at Columbia University received the third prize of $50.

Walter S. Crewson, Jr. ,of Sebring, Ohio, received honorable mention.

SENIOR CLASS OF '32 ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

Continued from page one

years here. A girl, known and likd by everybody. Ruth can ably fill the office. She is always ready to help in any way she can. She will preside with ease and readiness.

As secretary, Nancy Shaner will hold a responsible position. She is a girl who accepts responsibility and succeeds with it. She attends class meetings regularly, is always interested in the work of the class, and will next year be given an opportunity to show how well a class office can be filled. In nothing she attempts does she shirk.

Cleo Quisenberry, treasurer, has all the trustworthiness, interest, and originality of method necessary in a class treasurer. She will serve efficiently.

To represent the class on the Student Council, Virginia Bledsoe and Elizabeth McCauley were chosen. Virginia Bledsoe represented the class this past year. She has strength of character and purpose. Elizabeth McCauley will serve on this council of the Student Body excellently.

For the Students Standard Committee, to which every big movement of the school comes, or in which it originates, Nan Mears and Louise Johnson were elected. Both are efficient, outspoken in their wel-rounded, clearly thought-out opinions and are capable of representing the class.

Gwendolyn Daniel was chosen to serve with the class president on the Class Council. Gwendolyn is dependable, has splendid original ideas, and does all the work given her, quickly and well.

MODEL ASSEMBLY LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Continued from page one

bers of the council were elected. The president of the Assembly gave the closing speech and the meeting adjourned.

Fifty-four countries were represented. The Smith Memorial auditorium, the scene of the Model Assembly, held a large audience on April 17 at 8:15 which had come to see this miniature League.

A banquet was given before the Assembly and afterwards for the members of the Assembly.

Bryce Kood, of Reed College won the first prize of $50 offered by the National Student Federation of America for the best editorial favoring the entrance of the United States into the World Court.

Syracuse, N. Y. (AP)—The cause of illness among Syracuse co-eds has been discovered. It is lack of enough beauty sleep. And so the dean is recommending eight hours.

One of the most interesting spectators at the Washington and Lee-North Carolina University game was none other than a scout for the New York Giants who happened to be making a tour of the southern colleges looking for talent for John McGraw.

At the Eaco Theatre Week Apr. 27-May 2

MON. and TUES.—Buddy Rogers and Nancy Carroll in "Follow Thru." Together again! Buddy and Nancy, the screen's perfect pair, in a lively story of love and laughter, and all in beautiful Technicolor. Here is a pert and peppy outdoor love story. Nancy, with ambitions to win a championship on the golf links, diverts her attention from golf to the handsome club professional, Buddy Rogers, and lets her rival, Thelma Todd, hole out first. Buddy, however, has an eye for golf champions, so that Nancy, to win her sweetie, has first to win a golf crown. Here's golf, girls, and giggles in a show that goes straight down the fairway into your heart. Also "The Itching Hour."

WEDNESDAY—"Three Lost Girls," with Loretta Young and John Wayne. This story deals with three girls from small towns who go to Chicago in search of a livlier existence. One slaves for fame, another digs for fortune, and the third craves romance. What happens to them and their dreams constitutes a drama that will grip every youngster adult. It sizzles with action and packs one walolping situation after another. Small town beauties out to do big things. It is a vivid drama of today's girls who hunger for bright lights . Also chapter 10 of the "Lone Defender, with Rin-Tin-Tin, the dog wonder, and a Cartoon Comedy.

THURS. and FRI.—Norma Shearer and Robert Montgomery in "Strangers May Kiss." Here is the picture you have been waiting for. We are playing it even with Richmond. Miss Shearer returns to the screen more gorgeous than ever in a dramatic love story even greater than "The Divorcee." It is daring, truthful, gay and sophisticated. She traveled the path of love and freedom to many lands, but her heart always stayed with one man. New loves, new fortunes, new places—but always in the heart of this beautiful girl with courage to live her own life was the yearning for the love she could not have. Yet in the end true love finds a way and the result is happiness. We predict this picture will make the best showing of any in Farmville this year. Also two-reel comedy, "Expensive Kisses."

SATURDAY — "Common Clay," with Constance Bennett and Lew Ayres. Brought back by repeated requests, this picture still remains one of the outstanding of the year. They took her name away. Then they denied her baby's rights to a name, and she fought them—fought their money and their power—and she conquered them, and held their hearts in the hollow of her hand. The most powerful, gripping drama yet screened that goes directly to your heart, and you never forget it. Constance Bennett's strongest role. Also Fox News and Terytown Comedy.

Double matinee every Saturday, at 2 and 4 p. m.; one show each night at 8 p. m. Daily matinee, 4 p. m.

Admission, adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees; children under 12, 15c to each show.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency

(Fresh Films)

Let Us Develop

YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete Line GREETING CARDS

Just One Block from Campus

Dressmaking

Dressmaking, Tailoring, Attiring and Remodeling. Prices reasonable. Work guaranteed.

MRS. SCHWARTZ

306 Pine Street.

FOR THE LATEST IN

Sheet Music, Costume Jewelry, Watches, Watch Bracelets and Musical Instruments

GO TO

Lynn's Jewelry Store

MAIN STREET

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We're Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE!

McIntosh Drug Store

Farmville, Va.

"Drugs and Drinks"

DOWNTOWN SECTION

G. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

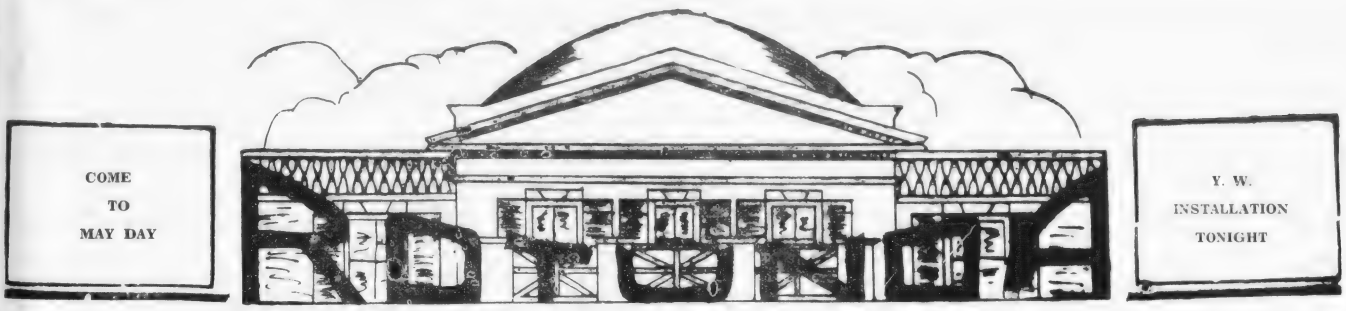
FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

WE INVITE

CHARGE ACCOUNTS



of the

STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE STUDENTS

NEW YORK DRESS STORE

MAIN STREET

Next to Southside Drug Co.

Vol. XI. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1931 No. 27

Conservatory Presents Musical Radio Program

A Number of S. T. C. Students Takes Part in Program Put on At Richmond

MISS WILLIS IS THE DIRECTOR

The Schemmel Conservatory presented a musical program over station WRVA Saturday afternoon. Several S. T. C. students participated in this broadcast which was very favorably received. The program was under the direction of Miss Mattie S. Willis and Miss Moss, and consisted of vocal and piano selections. The following numbers were presented:

Vocal Ensemble
Gaily We're Tripping ..... Veazie
Stars Brightly Shining ..... Bronte
Miss Lucile O'Brien and Beryle Young
Prelude op. 28, no. 15 ..... Chopin
Piano solo—Mildred Cralle
Je suis Titania ..... Thomas
Florence Cralle
Whre Are You Going My Pretty Maid? ..... Smith
Mrs. E. C. Simkins and Edwin Cralle
Waltz op. 64 No. 2 ..... Chopin
Piano solo—Lucie Ann Lane
An Open Secret ..... Woodman
Morning ..... Speaks
Miss Lucille O'Brien
Turkish March Beethoven-Rubinstein
Piano solo—Mildred Maddrey

(Continued an last page)

Officers of Ruffner Society Are Elected

The Ruffner Literary Society met April 24, for the purpose of electing officers for the year 1931-'32. They are:

President ..... Margaret Fisher
Vice-President ..... Margaret Massey
Secretary ..... Kathleen Hundley
Treasurer ..... Hildegarde Ross
Asst. Treasurer ..... Nell Dickenson
Reporter ..... Chrystie Stokes

Margaret Hix was in charge of a very interesting program which included jokes told by the new members as an initiation stunt.

The installation of the above officers will take place May 8.

MISS ELLA CARROLL

Maid of Honor of May Day Festival

Debate Club Holds Business Meeting

The Debate Club held a very important business meeting Thursday, April 23, in the little auditorium when the officers for the year 1931-'32 were elected. The following are the officers for the coming year.

President ..... Jane Witt
Vice-President .... Virginia Hamilton
Secretary ..... Margaret Hunter
Treasurer ..... Margaret Hix
Rep. of Council ..... Carrie DeShazo
Council—Margaret Fisher, Virginia Petty

Monday, April 27, at 8 o'clock the interclass debates were held in the little auditorium. The subject for debate was "Resolved, That Uncle Sam Needs a Wife". The final interclass debate will be held at a later date during chapel exercises.

PRINCESSES IN APPLE BLOSSOM FESTIVAL

Misses Martha Anne Laing of Lewisburg, West Virginia, and Frances Coleman of Culpeper, Virginia, have been appointed princesses in the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester, Virginia.

Martha Anne will represent West Virginia as princess and Frances Coleman, Piedmont section of Virginia.

The Festival will be held on the 5th and 6th of May. A number of S. T. C. girls are expecting to attend the festival.

May Day Festival Will be Held At Longwood

Theme Taken From Spenser's Fairy Queen—Costumes Typical of Queen Elizabeth's Time

LOULIE MILLNER IS QUEEN

The May Day Festival will be held at Longwood, May 2, at 4 p. m. The theme of May Day is taken from Spenser's Fairy Queen. The story is as follows:

Prologue

Let us sit upon the magic carpet and float on through time and space till we find ourselves in fairyland on May eve of long ago. The fairies are singing, dancing and making merry for tomorrow is the annual feast of Glorianna, the fairy queen. There is an old legend that if some one asks a boon during this feast, it shall be granted, provided they can wear the magic armor.

As we watch the fairies frolic we see them place a shining crystal ball in the pathway and then flit away and hide behind trees. A star, larger and more beautiful than the rest, shines down upon the crystal ball.

Lo! who should be strolling along the fairy path but Princess Britemartis. She pauses, for the crystal ball shines clear and bright in the starlight, like a fairy jewel.

She kneels before the crystal ball

Continued on page three

Y. W. C. A. Gives Purposes for Year

The purpose of the Y. W. C. A. at S. T. C. for the past year has been:

1. To create a Christian attitude in college.

2. To broaden the girl through cooperation and influence spiritually, mentally, and socially.

This work has been carried on through different committees. The activities being many and varied. These so-called committees make up the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet.

Each of these committees has had as its goal the thought of playing a vital part in correlating the varied student activities.

The prayers committee has provided a leader for devotional services on week nights after supper in the auditorium, morning watch each Sunday, and vesper services each Sunday night.

The music committee has arranged special music, when desired, for these services.

The sing committee has planned entertainment for each Saturday night.

Through the World Fellowship Committee we have been benefitted by conferences and visits of well known speakers.

The publictiy committee has given us a reminder of prayers each night by attractive posters on the bulletin board. It also kept us in touch with special programs.

The service committee has proved very helpful in cheering those in the infirmary. It has also sent a word of love and sympathy to those in distress..

Four girls will be chosen from the

Continued on page three

MISS LOULIE MILLNER

Queen of Festival, May 2

Alpha Phi Sigma Has New Members

Alpha Phi Sigma held its regular meeting Tuesday night, April 21 in Room 21. Nominations for officers in the year to come were discussed, but election was postponed until the next regular meeting. Names of eligible girls were brought up and the following were bid:

To the Masters Degree—Virginia Brinkley and Edith Shanks; to the Appentice Degree—Nancy B. Baylor, Martha Brothers, Margaret Eley, Virginia Ann Huntsberry, Velma Quarles, Anne Frances Traylor, Elsie Wright, Ruth Wright, Laura Chapin, Mrs. Edith Wall, and Clara McKensie.

INSTALLATION SERVICE OF Y. W. C. A. TONIGHT

The installation service of the Y. W. C. A. will be held tonight at 6:30 p. m. The service will be brief but impressive. Each year these services are held, and they have taken an important place in the life of this college. Dr. Jarman, the faculty and home department have been invited to attend the service tonight. Every member of the student body is invited to see new officers and members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet installed for service in the Y. W. work of this campus.

Student Council Installation in Auditorium

Both Outgoing and Incoming Presidents Make Talks to the Student Body

DR. J. L. JARMAN ALSO SPOKE

The new members of the Student Council were sworn into active membership of the Student Government Association, in the impressive ceremony which was held Monday night at six forty-five.

After the invocation by Dr. Diehl, the oath of office was given to Grace Virginia Woodhouse, the new student government president, by Adele Hutchinson, the out-going president. The new council members were then sworn into office.

The new council is as follows:

President Grace Virginia Woodhouse
Vice-President ..... Hanna Crawley
Secretary ..... Jane Royall
Treasurer ..... Hattie Gilliam
Campus League Chm.—Betty Watts
Class Reps.: Virginia Bledsoe, Elizabeth McCauley, Helen Cover, Harriettt Moomaw, Helen Rose Sunningham and Dorothy Prescott.
Ex-officiol members: Louise Woodson, Frances Edwards, and A. J. Scott.

Dr. Jarman expressed his sincere appreciation of what the retiring council had done for the school. In

Continued on last page

Primary Council Met on April 24

The Primary Council held a most enjoyable professional meeting, Friday afternoon in the Student Building auditorium. Several projects were presented by members who had done recent practice teaching in the primary grades and an interesting report was given on personality problems. The program was concluded by the reading of one of Margaret Fisher's delightful poems. Plans are being made for the annual spring banquet to be held sometime in the near future.

Dramatic Club Elects Officers For School Year of 1931-32

Dramatic Club elections were held Thursday, April 24, 1931. The following girls were chosen to hold offices for 1931-'32:

President ..... Jenilee Knight
Vice-President, Margaret Armstrong
Secretary ..... Sally Russell
Treasurer ..... Easter Souders

Jenilee Knight has worked in the Dramatic Club since her freshman year in 1929. This year she proved to be a capable and reliable secretary. Jenilee is very dependable in all that she does. These factors combined with with her personality will bring out her efficiency as president of the club for next year.

Margaret Armstrong has worked well in the Dramatic Club this, her freshman year. As vice-president for next year she will have a responsible position.

Efficiency and accuracy are the two main essentials of a secretary. Sally Russell has proved that she is worthy of holding this office.

The treasurer of the Dramatic Club also acts as business manager. With her lies the responsibilities of tickets for each play, and also the other duties of a treasurer. Punctuality an da business-like ability is essential for the fulfillment of such an offce. Easter Souders is characteristic of possessing these traits.

Those who will be head of the various departments are:

Asst. Bus. Mgr. .... Frances Coleman
Stage Manager .... Elizabeth Drewry
Costume Mgr. ..... Lelia Lovelace
Make-up Mgr. ..... Ruth Ford
Property Mgr. ..... Evelyn Jones
Lighting Mgr. ..... Mary T. Rawls

State Latin Tournament Was Held Here Saturday, April 25

On Saturday, April 25, representatives from the Blackstone High School, Rustburg High School, and the College High School met at S. T. C. to participate in the State Latin Tournament for high school pupils sponsored yearly by the Virginia Classical Association under the direction of Dr. Wagener of the College of William and Mary. This contest has been held at appointed centers in the state for three years, its object being to select the outstanding pupils of Latin on the basis of the examination given and to promote interest in the study of Latin. The number of contestants has increased from 44 the first year to 90 at present.

Following the examination the contestants, guests and visitors were entertained at lunch in the banquet room of the tea room after which a short and interesting program was given. Miss Rice, head of the College Latin department, gave an interesting account of the purpose and value of thse tournaments to the study of Latin in the State.

In keeping with the present day interest in Latin Evelyn Williams read an account of a recent radio message of the Pope in Latin to the Catholic people all over the world.

Sara Hubard read an article from the Latin magazine of the Curdsville High School of the recent revival of old custom of sending a poem in Latin each year to the Governor of Virginia—a provision of the first charter granted to the College by the King of England in 1693. The last poem sent was to Governor Dinwiddie.

The program was concluded by a poem, "Goshen," read by Lois Cox, a tribute to the classics.

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

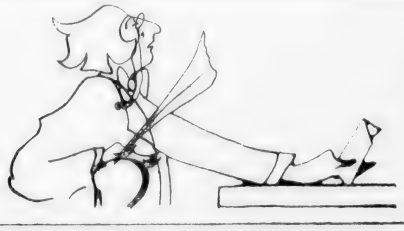
Editor-in-Chief ..... JESSIE SMITH, '31
Associate Editor ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARTHA MOORE, '33
Literary Editor ..... MARTHA ANN LAING, '31
Athletic Editor ..... FRANCES EDWARDS, '32
World News Editor ..... SARA BAKER, '31
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Social Editor ..... JANE ROYALL, '33
Art Editor ..... SARAH WILLS, '33
Feature Editor ..... LOULIE MILNER, '32
Humorous Editor ..... VIRGINIA WITT, '33
Aumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters

ANNIE DENIT, '31 — ANNE JOHNSON, '33
ISABELLE JONES, '33 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
CLARA McALLISTER, '31 — HAZEL HALLOWAY, '32
DOREEN SMITH, '34



Proof Reader ..... WINSTON COBB, '33
Associate Proof Reader ..... MARY THOMAS RAWLS, '33

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOT GOODLOE, '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... HENRIETTA CORNWELL, '32
Circulation Manager ..... ELLA CAROLL, '31
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... MILDRED MADDREY, '31

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Changes

"The old order changeth yielding place to the new."

—Tennyson

Our President, the highest official of our Nation, begins his work in the spring. We think of him as carrying on the work begun by his predecessors, and also as bringing in new strength, vigor, and ideas to further the life of our people. Likewise our officials here begin their work in the spring. They seek not to undo the work of the past but to enlarge and change it to fit the needs of the coming year.

The old has served and given of its best. Each new order comes to meet the challenge we give to them. They, as our mouthpieces, our condensed opinions, seek to lift higher the prestige and name of our school. We place them in their office, we give to them the sometimes unpalatable job of deciding between the right and wrong. They judge not for it is not theirs to judge; they only uphold the name of the profession of our school. Do we then dare criticize? We should not for all things change. The traffic law of 1900 does not take care of the great onrush of motor vehicles of 1931. No more do we expect the student government of 1900 to fit the needs of the student body of 1931.

"The old order changeth yielding place to the new." So may we, in this great revolution of the modern age, support our new order as it steps into place full of hope, ambition, and faith in those who placed them there. Their privilege it is to serve, ours to cooperate and support.

JUST TO LET YOU KNOW WE CARE

There are so many people at S. T. C., who mean so much to us that it is hard to number them, but we, as outgoing officers, know we express the opinion of the student body when we address these four people who mean so much to us. There are many others, but certainly Dr. Jarman, Miss Mary White Cox, Miss Jennie M. Tabb and Miss Maude K. Taliaferro, have our attention focussed on them. They have given us so much—so very much of their time, thoughts, and ever since we've known them.

It is needless for us to even attempt to express in words the gratitude and love we feel for Dr. Jarman. Without his help and cooperation this year's accomplishments would have been impossible.

We knew we loved him, but not until the hint of his leaving reached us did we realize the void his going would leave. However, he didn't go and each day his value to us has increased one hundred fold.

And now our work in school with you, Dr. Jarman, is nearly over, but we'll have to tell you that it will be quite often that you will hear from us again because we will never forget.

What's the matter with Jarman?
He's all right!
What's the matter with Jarman
For him we'll fight
We're very proud of the Faculty
But J. L. J. is the man for me
Oh—what's the matter with Jarman
He's all right

An organization is indeed fortunate in having for an advisor one who stands ready at all times to lend a helping hand in time of trouble and play. Our student body is doubly fortunate in having someone who is interested in every organization on campus and in each member of the student body. She advises us, helps us to straighten out our various tangled affairs, entertains groups of us weekly at dinner, and last but not least gives us permissions that mean fun and pleasure to us.

Miss Mary, the outgoing officers want to take this, a small and inadequate means to express sincere appreciation for the splendid things you've done for us and the countless numbers of times you've helped us. We've enjoyed this year's work immensely.

Seeming, to a casual observer, to be an unusually efficient registrar, the name, "Miss Jennie", has come to mean a great deal more to us than just Dr. Jarman's secretary, although that would, in itself be no mean position. Miss Jennie has come to be that person who is always helping peJople, whether it be looking up records, giving good advice, arranging schedules, giving a needed fussing at, or just a cheery "good morning"', or rather, "hey-oh". (How does she say it?) Then there is the other lovely side of her, the one you'd never expect the efficient, business-like person to have, that is, the idealistic one which writes those perfectly tender little lyrics. May we take the liberty of changing one of them to make it fit the occasion?

For there are not in the world around
Nor yet in the heaven above you,
More expressive words that we can find
That the simple ones, "We love you."

There has always been something about a person, who always does her work on time, who is ready to cooperate, who is always thoughtful, and even works overtime to make things more pleasant that we admire more than we can say. Miss Maude K. Taliaferro has proved that she is one person who possesses all of the above characteristics.

She has helped us to form habits of promptness, exactness and efficiency which will serve us greatly when we go out into the state to teach.

Miss Taliaferro, we the outgoing officers, wish to show a little of our appreciation by these words, but we cannot tell you how much we appreciate your cooperation and thoughtful help through our four years of school life.

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

Cheer up girls! What's a dance or two in your young lives? There's always V. P. I., W. & L., and Virginia.

Love at first sight is often cured by a second look. (Could Duke stand a second look?).

Horses! Horses! Nope, just the Martin sisters and their mules.

The dear old college is being changed into a dancing school. Broadway, here we come!

What's Margaret Gathright's excuse?

What is this "snooping" we've been hearing about recently?

Is "Kitty" Cogbill going to buy a new suit to match her pocketbook?

Is it true that some people borrow money and don't pay it back? (Maybe they have a convenient memory.)

Seriously, though, Helen Cover is a fine girl. Her many friends are surely for her.

Some people say that you can't appreciate school until you're out of it, but its really what you yourself make it. Let's make it the best and appreciate it now.

We're all looking forward to the box lunches Saturday. Isn't it fun?

Of course every one will go to Longwood for May Day. Let's have a 100 per cent attendance. Come on.

Wouldn't it be nice if we could all go to Winchester to the Apple Blossom Festival? We'r'e proud of our two girls who will be princesses there. Who are they? Why Martha Anne Laing and Frances Coleman. Isn't that fine?

Oh, yes! Have you heard that new song, "When Your Hair Has Turned to Silver."?

THREE YEARS AGO TODAY

Louise McCormick was announced valedictorian of the degree class and Virginia Rice was announced as salutatorian from the certificate class.

The Dramatic Club presented Barrie's "A Kiss for Cinderella," starring Mabel Fitzpatrick.

Louise Foster was elected president of the senior class for the coming year.

The new student council, with "Pannie"' Willis as president, was installed.

S. T. C. students enjoyed the attractive May Day program given by the elementary grades of the Training School.

Mr. Alfred Kreymborg, noted poet and playwright, addressed the student body and town people in the S. T. C. auditorium.

ARE COLLEGIANS PEOPLE?

An excellent editorial entitled "Are Collegians People?" recently appeared in the New York City Daily News. It deplored discrimination against college students by the United States Prohibition Department and cited several instances including the padlocking of five fraternity houses at the University of Michigan, the expulsion for drinking of two co-eds and three men students from the University of Oregon, and the suspension of seventeen students from the University of Minnesota for the same purpose.

THE BLIND MAN

Life,
He holds in his grasping hand,
He lives in his slightless way,
He knows in his infinite mind,
He feels in each passing day.
Light,
He feels on his bending back,
He sees in the shadowy past,
He holds out the tip of his tongue,
He knows he must find at last.
Love
He holds in his tender heart,
He feels in music and song,
He gives to each wandering soul,
He knows as he moves along.

L. M., '32

A PRAYER

To the lover of Nature, who loves me too
I offer up this prayer,
To the one who loves things by worlds unknown
I call upon him to care.
To care for the bird who beats his wing
Upon a cage of wire,
And though he chokes, he tries to sing
With the sound of a broken lyre.
To care for the child who wants to see
The things his mind's eye sees
But is withheld by another from
That world of ecstacies
To care for the one who tries so hard
To do the things he would
To care for the one who don't get the chance
To do the things he would
Oh, Lover of Nature, I know not why they need this extra care
I only know that thru them all
This one great need is there.

ON BLINDNESS

It hurts to think how many of us are blind—not physically, but spiritually and mentally. Here before our very eyes are the loveliest things in the world, the greatest and the most worthwhile. What are those things? You do not see them? No, you are blind; your eyes are shut fast, and you know not what you are missing. First of all, one of the greatest things in life that we see and come into contact with, is personality—the inner-force that makes a man what he is. Think of the personalities you could cultivate, know, feel, and enjoy if you would but open your eyes, reach our your hand and grasp. Each man is a study all his own. You have variety, you have color, life and music, always, all around you. Have you ever seen a person you want to really know, that you felt you must talk to and be near? Well, there are personalities around you, perhaps at this minute, that can give you colorful pictures of life that you have never seen before, and pictures that will give you pleasure. Try to find them! There's a challenge for your restless spirit.

The second of the wonders around us is nature. Of course, perhaps, once a day, you comment on the beautiful sunset or the pretty flowers— But do you open your eyes to the delicate structure of the flower, the thrilling sweetness that they live and breathe just as you do? Do you see beneath their beauty the work of the Master who gives life and nourishment, who put into this great ball—the earth—the materials that make glass and build bridges? Why go elsewhere to live, to see life, to experience beauty and plasure? There's not a living thing without some trace of beauty. Evn th alley cats have grace. Open your eyes, for to know, you must look without, within—with a mind that sees.

SOCIALS

Grace Virginia Woodhouse was at er home in Portsmouth this week-nd.

Martha Moore had as her guests in exington this week-end, Elsie Bur-ess, Anna Knox, and Sarah Baker.

Margaret Banks spent the week-nd in Orange.

Mary Nelson spent the week-end at er home in Hampton.

Louise Munt, Mary Harrison, Vir-nia Lamb, and Hamozelle Darden ere in Petersburg this week-end.

The following girls were in Lynch-urg this week-end: Loulie Millner, athryn Royster, Sarah Saunders, nn Davis, Katherine Waters, Elean-Thomas, Jo Sneed, Betsy Wilkin-on, Corrinne Mosby, Jacque Lee, erry Lee, Mary Clare Booth, harlotte Hutchins, and Virginia itt.

Virginia Bledsoe was in Baltimore is week-end.

Sarah Russell was the guest of Sue rbert of Sweet Briar this week-end.

Frances and Julia Martin were in anville this week-end.

Virginia Sargeant was at her home Louisa this week-end.

Dorothy Goodloe, Courtney Neale, ary Elizabeth Mayo and Mary Vir-nia Hill were in Charlottesville.

Margaret Parker and Martha rothers were at their homes in Suf-lk this week-end.

"Teeny" Myers Elsie Bolton were the Roanoke College dances this eek-end.

Mary Arthur Billups was in Nor-lk this wek-end.

Sarah Wills was in Roanoke this eek-end.

Jessie Smith and A. J. Scott were Richmond Sunday.

A MODERNISTIC COLUMN

Lately I have often heard announc-d that such and such a dance will will not practice tonight. Does this ean that we have added another ourse in our school? Ouch! what a am I got then— So it's all for May ay. Here's a secret I'll let slide out! omeone said that she knew someone ho's best friend got direct informa-on from a girl who has seen every ance, say that the dance this year ere more graceful and aesthetic han ever before. We'll just go to see r ourselves. How 'bout it?

Rain—and I signed up for a tennis ourt. I bet you know exactly what m thinking. Wonder if I'll ever gain get up early enough to sign for court. Do you know, that I've prov-d that I'm just out for a little fun y registering to play doubles in the ournament. Can you feature it? Be-eve I'll put in some work to see if y partner and I can't win. High am-ition you say?—granted. But all ennis fans would like that honor, o why not admit it?

To go to the Apple Blossom Fes-ival would delight me to the nth egree. I have never been. How for-unate. those are who will go from ere. Say—aren't we proud of a ouple of our girls who will be prin-esses in the festival. Now just a ord for the ingoing officers. We are roud to have you lead us. May ever rogressive enthusiasm be character-stic of our future success!

MEMBERS OF FACULTY TAKE PART IN PROGRAM

Three members of our faculty were n the program for the district A neeting, held at Warsaw Friday, April 24. Miss Alice Carter read a paper on the unit plan of teaching history.

Miss Lila London talked on the eaching of aritthmetic in the upper rades.

Miss Mary B. Haynes gave a dem-nstration lesson in teaching primary reading.

The student body wishes to extend ts sympathy to Virginia Robertson, Hattie Gilliam, and Mae Davis in heir recent bereavements.

MAY DAY FESTIVAL WILL BE HELD AT HISTORIC LONGWOOD

Continued from page one

and gazes in then clasps her hands in wonder and joy for she sees therein a noble knight Antegal (Justice) who is a vision of her ideal. With the dream still in her eyes, she gathers the crystal ball in her arms and returns to her father's earth.

When morning comes we again see her approach the fairy court. This time she kneels before the fairy Queen and begs that she may go in search of Antegal. The fairies bring the magic arms and dress her in it. Lo! it fits. She kneels before the fairy Queen who grants the boon and knights her. The fairies wave her farewell as she mounts her horse and rides away.

Part I.—As she journeys on her adventure we see her ever victorious.

She chances upon the Red Cross Knight, who is being overcome by several other knights. She joins him and his enemies flee before her charmed spear (Virtue).

As they stand conversing, the mistress of the earth, of Joyousness, and her followers come out of their castle and try to allure them, but the noble knights hold themselves aloof, and the dancing maids flee before the magic spear.

Part II.—The Red Cross Knight bids farewell and Britomantis sits by the seashore, dreaming of the prince whom she seeks. Jewels among the waves sparkle and dance before her eyes. The jealous Marinel to whom they belong strides arrogantly in and challenges her to fight. She rises, and with one thrust of her spear, wounds him. The sea nymphs rise out of the waves and take him away in their chariot.

Part III.—A pair of lovers, Scudamore and Amonel are strolling along the path. Suddenly we see a mighty giant and an enchanter leap from a tree behind them. The giant strikes Scudamore a blow which sends him to the ground and the enchanter carries Amonel into his castle. Britomantis entering forest, sees Scudamore and helps him to his feet. Scudamore seeks her aid in rescuing Amonel and together they try to enter the castle. Flames leap in their path and bar the way. They make several attempts to enter and finally Britomantis with shield before her face passes through the flames into the castle. Scudamone unable to follow her walks dazedly in the opposite direction.

A trumpet sounds in the distance and the door swings open and Fancy and her court pass through the castle hall. Amonel is held by Cruelty and Cupid dances about her laughing joyfully as his arrow strikes her heart.

As Britomantis approaches Cruelty, he looses his prisoner and flees. The enchanter, sensing a hostile presence in his castle, enters and seeing Amonel being taken away strides forward to seize her. Britomantis touches him with her spear and he crumples to the ground. She is about to drive the spear through his heart when she sees that Amonel has fallen to the ground, too. Realizing that as long as Amonel is enchanted she will suffer the enchanters fate, she pulls him to his feet and demands that he take the spell away. He does so and as soon as the spell is broken, he flees into the forest.

As they leave the castle Britomantis and Amonel pause to watch the coming Dawn, then continue their journey.

Part IV.—Scudamore searches in vain for Amonel and believing that Britomantis is a knight fears that she is taken her for himself. Dismayed and heartsick he falls upon the ground. Coves dance about him and prick him with their spears. Antegal, entering, drives the Coves away and listens to Scudamore's story. Together, they go in search of Amonel. When these foes meet, Scudamone strides forward and challenges Britomantis to fight, but with one full blow she sends him breathless to the

Continued on last page

AMONG OUR CAPS AND GOWNS

EVELYN SIMPSON

When we turn to look among our caps and gowns we find one that gets things done in a quiet most unassuming way. Evelyn is one that we don't hear much from but we are always hearing about and seeing the effects of her work.

She has served her class for two years as secretary and most capably. She has helped to hold the ideals of her class to the highest standards to be obtained.

She was editor of the Senior issue of the Rotunda and that issue won the prize among the class issues.

At present we see Evelyn carrying any number of pretty costumes around on her arm. Yes, she is chairman of the costume committee for May Day.

So you see Evelyn has served her Alma Mater in many more ways, but then you already knew that.

EMILY SIMPSON

"Laugh and the world laughs with you." This has evidently been the motto of Emily Simpson, better known as "Jim". She carries a laugh and a good time with her wherever she goes.

Jim has wel lserved her Alma Mater for four years. When a Junior, she represented her class on the class council. Her special interest, however has been along athletic lines. The student body recognized her ability when they elected her to be vice-president of the Athletic Association. And the Monogram Club has found her a more valuable and interested member. She has been on varsity as well as class teams ever since she entered S. T. C.

Our word of advic to Jim is—keep that good disposition and that happy smile, and success is assured you!

An official of the Standard Oil Company lists the following points by which a personnel man judges the college man: 1. health; 2 scholastic record; 3. extra-curruiular activity; 4. did the college man work his way through college; 5. General personality; 6. Self expression—is he at ease while expressing himself publicly? 7. general standing among his fellow students.

We would like to have your orders
—for—
DRUGS, STATIONERY, BEAUTY PREPARATIONS
Canada Drug Co.
Farmville, Virginia
Phone 17 Next to Baldwin's

Y. W. C. A. GIVES PURPOSES FOR YEAR

Continued from page one

cabinet to go to the Blue Ridge Conference, where they will receive further training in Y. W. C. A. work.

Many splendid suggestions were offered for next year in the yearly reports given at open cabinet meetings Saturday and we are expecting great things of the incoming cabinet.

The freshmen, and new girls that came in during the year, were made to feel at home by the membership committee. They were given parties that enabled them to meet girls and form friendships.

Three very interesting letters were sent out during the year by the Alumnae Committee. In this way we are able to keep in touch with the old girls, and let them know the things we are doing.

The church cooperation committee serves as a link between the Y. W. C. A. and the town churches. Through this committee many girls have become members of Sunday school classes, that otherwise wouldn't have been interested.

Two of the cabinet members, our president, Rena Robertson, and our secretary, Henrietta Cornwell attended the National-Faculty - Student Conference in Detroit. Many new ideas and suggestions were brought back to us.

Quarter Mile High Skyscraper Can Defy Any Force in Nature

Neither an earthquake nor a gale nor the pull of a tethered dirigible can topple over the world's tallest skyscraper, unless the force exceeds any hereabouts hitherto unknown by man.

This Goliath of architecture and engineering, the Empire State building, has been built stronger than the ordinary Davids of the elements.—The New York Times.

It will require five or six years of work to complete the Atlas, which is to be developed under the auspices of the American Council of Learned Societies.

All girls who walk are not pedestrians, some are contrary.

COMING FOR FESTIVAL

DR. JAMES FRANCIS COOKE, president of the Presser Music Company, and one of America's greatest authorities on music, who will attend the Junior Festival of Music at Longwood on May 9.

Early Mastodon Study Credited to Jefferson

Bones of one of the first mastodons found in the United States are believed by paleontologists to have been collected by Thomas Jefferson.

Jaw bones of a mastodon at the University of Virginia, which Jefferson founded, are believed to have been given to the University by him. One of Jefferson's letters tells of bones which have been dug up and sent to him by Gen. George Rogers Clarke.

Jefferson was one of the first Americans to study paleontology, the science dealing with the life of past geologic ages.—The Washington Post.

C. E. CHAPPELL COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, cigarettes and soda
Main Street
FARMVILLE VIRGINIA

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP AND LEATHER USED

SCHEMMEL Conservatory of Music
Piano, vocal, violin, theory, harmony, aesthetics, etc.
REASONABLE TUITION RATES

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
WHERE QUALITY MEETS PRICE
Farmville's
Best Department Store

Kerami Coats Reduced to $5.85
Lovely Spring Coats priced $9.95 to $19.50
New snow flecked suits $5.95 and $9.95
lapin trimmed
$1.50 full fashion hose, special 98c
THE HUB DEPARTMENT STORE

I had a girl named Nina
Her father's name was Klock
So every time I had a date
It was for Nina Klock.

Anne: "I know a boy that swallows swords."

Rawlings: "That's nothing—I know one that inhales Camels."

Dr. Simkins: "What is the best known date in Roman history?"

Mutt Armstrong: "Mark Antony's He sees in the shadowy past. with Cleopatra."

Alice S.: "Clara, go shoo those flies."

Clara: "Aw, let them walk around barefooted till I finish this game."

Lost: An umbrella by a man with six bent ribs and an ivory dome.

"My girl is like a hotel", says I. C. Sparks. "room for everybody."

Did you know: That Thomas B. Still lives in Moonshine Creek? Well, neither did I.

Teacher: "If you are not true to your teeth, what will become of them?"

Pupil: "They would become false."

Happy: "I notice you're wearing your stockings wrong side out?"

Jane: "Yes, my feet got warm and I turned the hose on them."

College does to girls what brandy does to hard sauce; it spoils the taste without adding a kick.

Another impossible thing is for two cross-eyed men to look each other in the eye.

Budsey Carter (in curiosity shop): "I suppose this is another of those horrible futuristic paintings which you call art?"

Shopkeeper: "Excuse me, madam, but that is a mirror."

Mother: "I'll teach you to kiss my daughter."

Billy: "Too late, I've learned already."

Frances Parker: "Every time I see you do that it makes me fly off the handle."

Martha Higgins: "Flying off the handle usually indicates a loose screw."

Dot Goodloe says Ciddy Cogbill is so lazy that she gets up earlier than anyone so she'll have a longer time to loaf.

Martha: "Who is Mary?"

Mary Alice: "Oh, don't you know her? Why, she lives in the same square with you."

Martha: "Yes, but she's not in the same circle."

And with only a casual study of the census figures, it's quite easy to see what the country's coming to. It's coming to the city.

Boy (parading the red "tin can"): "Now, you're a real nice intelligent looking girl. Just hop in and I'll take you anywhere you want to go."

Wise Dame: "Nix on that stuff. I'm just as intelligent as I look."

MAY DAY FESTIVAL WILL BE HELD AT HISTORIC LONGWOOD

Continued from page three

ground.

Antegal takes up the fight, driving which his spear cleaves her helmet and her hair falls about her shoulders. He falls back in wonder and admiration before her beauty. He kneels and kisses her hand, begging her forgivness. Together the lovers set out for the journey and the court of the fairy Queen.

Coronation

Britemartis and Antegall are betrothed at the court of the fairy Queen. She crowns Britemartis and calls the fairies to dance for her The flowers awakened by fairy lullabies blossom for her, and the stars shine down upon them.

STUDENT COUNCIL INSTALLATION HELD

Continued from page one

addressing the new council he emphasized their obligations, and asked the cooperation of the student body in helping them to live up to these obligations.

BROADCAST BY THE SCHEMMEL CONSERVAT'Y

Continued from page one

Blue Danube Waltz ..... Straus
Mildred Varner, Miss Lucille O'brien, Virginia Bailey, Mrs. E. C. Simkins
In Old Virginia ..... Mattie S. Willis
Sextette
Accompanists—Misses Willis, Mary Moss and Evelyn Smith.

Personnel of vocal ensemble: Florence Cralle, Mildred Varner, Mildred Cralle, Mary McCarn, Anne Woodson, Louise Ripberger, Alice Hardaway, Florence Gregory, Miss Lucille O'Brien, Mrs. Simkins, Virginia Bailey, Mary V. Cralle, Mary Bruce, Helen Fry.

TRY YOUR HAND!

Come on out for archery! You don't have to be an athlete. Anybody can shoot. It doesn't even require much strength. And if you win, it will mean ten points for your side. If you are Green and White, you want to keep your record clear. If you are Red and White, well—! You've just got to get those points. Besides archery is fast becoming popular along with golf. You don't want not to know how, so come out for archery. Practice twice every week so you can enter the tournament.

SENIOR SONG

Here"s to our school days
Hours of work and play
Ever we'll hold them in our hearts
Spirit of friendship, loyalty honor,
These will we cherish altho' we part
Guiding up upward, onward to service
Oh Alma Mater, we look to thee
Mother of wisdom, leading with vision
Loving they name, we live true to thee
Oh, Alma Mater, guide us forever
Leading us on to love, on thru life's sea.

SOPHOMORE SONG

Sophomores!
Sophomores!
Striving ever, yielding never,
Seeking to do our best.
We'll never stop till we've reached the top
And made our better best.
Onward and upward go
Striving to ever show
The classes of old S. T. C.
That we'll true and loyal be
To the Green and White of '33.

Millsaps College, Jackson, Miss., has adopted a new plan for determining tuition expenses for the individual. According to their new system the fees demanded are proportionate to the students' scholastic standing.

S. T. C. Debaters

Miss Margaret Hix (above), of Wise, Va., and Miss Carrie DeShazo (below), of Sutherland, Va., are members of the Farmville State Teachers' College debating team.

WHAT HO, LASSIES!

Strike one! Come on; let's have a home run! Sock, strikes the bat and the ball shoots through the air, avoiding all hands. Away runs the batter—first, second, on, on, third; shall she hold it—no! With a swift backward glance and a last forward charge, she rushes on to home base and makes it.

Run out to the baseball diamond every afternon at four o'clock and learn the art of baseball. It's a grand life! There will be regular baseball practices every afternoon. So, come on out and learn how to "knock" a ball, hold a ball, and throw a ball. Work for your class team and see what success it will have in interclass finals. Your suport and interest is very necessary for the success of your class team. One must come to practice three times a week.

Baseball is great fun, and you'll enjoy every minute that you are out playing it. Although, you'll get many a spill, you'll also get many a thrill. Come on! Let's go! All make clear the way to the baseball diamond. It's fun; it's joy; it's health.

Red and white charge for the bat
Green and white play in the field,
And by friendly combat
True fellowship will be sealed.

COME OUT FOR FIELD AND TRACK

Have you done anything athletic this year? Have you made any points for your color? Well, come out and practice for field and track three time a week and make yourself eligible for Field Day. Can you run, jump, throw? Who cannot? But be a champion among your friends and learn to hurdle, throw a javelin, shot put; and train your mind to work with your body so that you can do the hop-tep-jump—and hop-step-jump at the right time.

At the Eaco Theatre Week of May 4 to 9

MON. and TUES.—"Trader Horn" with Edwina Booth, Harry Carey and Duncan Renaldo. Here is the most talked-of picture of the year It is being road-showed in the larger cities at high prices and creating a sensation. One year in production. Filmed in the wilds of Africa; from the best seller of the same name. The coast of Africa, the jungles; the white orphan girl regarded as a goddess; a ruby worth a king's ransom: love's awakening for this girl and her English lover; their thrilling escape from the natives and the jungles. Thrills, spectacle and romance that will amaze you. Nothing ever like it on the screen before. It depicts some of the most realistic wild animal shots ever filmed. A picture that has everything and one you cannot afford to miss. No advance in prices. Owing to the length of this spectacle no comedy will be shown.

WEDNESDAY — Gary Cooper in "Fighting Caravans," supported by Lily Damiti and Ernest Torrence. Out of the past it comes to thrill you. Breath-taking adventure. Romantic love. An untamed girl in an untamed land. A thrilling drama in the great outdoors. A love story that surges from the past and lives. A tremendous adventure romance from Zane Grey's smashing best-seller. Gary Cooper at his very best and beautiful Lily Damita, the peppiest heroine you ever saw. Also the 11th chapter of "The Lone Defender," with the wonder dog, Rin-Tin-Tin, and Cartoon Fable.

THURSDAY—Moran and Mack, the "Two Black Crows," in "Anybody's War," supported by Neil Hamilton. Here are the funniest of all black-face comedians in a roaring comedy of the funny side of war. You've heard them on the radio, now prepare to see them and get a laugh of a lifetime. White horses eat more than black horses—everybody knows that; but do you know why a blue-eyed fish looks so sad? Let Mack tell you. Those tired funny men are here to entertain you and send you home laughing. A great show that will be enjoyed by all. Also comedy, "Don't Leave Home."

FRI. and SAT.—"Skippy," with Jackie Coogan, Robert Coogan, and Mitzi Green. Here is a worthy successor to "Tom Sawyer." The old grown young and the young grow frisky, laughing and loving with America's most lovable boy hero. A picture every kid and all parents should see. The most human, most charming story the screen has ever presented. "Skippy," followed by millions every day in the papers. You'll laugh with a tear in your eye as this splendid story of boyhood unfolds for you the real thrills of youth. It reaches down deep into your heart, and stirs long-forgotten memories. This picture is creating more favorable comments from parents and critics than even "Tom Sawyer." Also Fox News and Silly Symphony Cartoon.

Double matinee Saturday, at 2 and 4 p. m. One show each night, at 8. Daily matinees, 4 p. m.

Adults 35c at nights and 25c at matinees; children under 12, 15c to each show.

TRANSPORTATION TO LONGWOOD

Mr. John Irving will have his taxi in front of the Weyanoke Hotel, Saturday afternoon, May 2—and will take passengers to or from Longwood for 25 cents.

It would take a student eighteen years to complete all the courses now offered by the College of Liberal Arts of American University, carrying the normal fifteen hours each semester.

Southside DrugStore
Direct Eastman Kodak Agency
(Fresh Films)
Let Us Develop
YOUR FILMS
ONE DAY SERVICE
Complete Line GREETING CARDS
Just One Block from Campus

Dressmaking
Dressmaking, Tailoring, Attiring and Remodeling. Prices reasonable.
Work guaranteed.
MRS. SCHWARTZ
306 Pine Street.

FOR THE LATEST IN
Sheet Music, Costume Jewelry,
Watches, Watch Bracelets and Musical Instruments
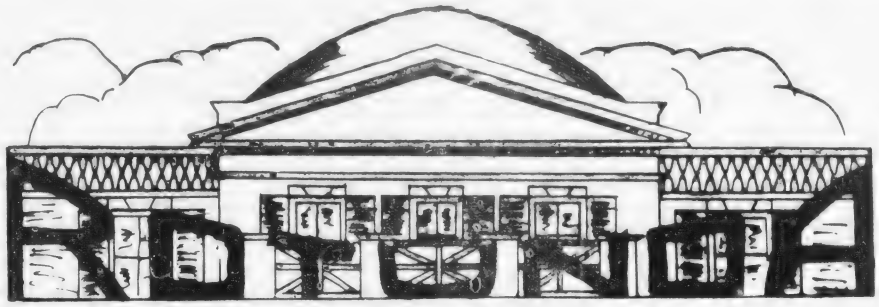
GO TO
Lynn's Jewelry Store
MAIN STREET

Gray's Drug Store
QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE
Come in and Get Acquainted
We're Glad to Have You With Us
Farmville, Virginia



Shannon's
is Headquarters for the Best
SANDWICHES
—and—
DRINKS
—in—
FARMVILLE!

McIntosh Drug Store
Farmville, Va.
"Drugs and Drinks"
DOWNTOWN SECTION

G. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

WE INVITE CHARGE ACCOUNTS
of the
STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
STUDENTS
NEW YORK DRESS STORE
MAIN STREET
Next to Southside Drug Co.

COME TO JUNIOR FESTIVAL SATURDAY

DON'T MISS ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY NIGHT

Vol. XI. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1931 No. 28

Junior Festival To Be In Talking Movies and On Air

Program Begins on Saturday Morning—Festival in the Afternoon

THOUSAND VOICES IN CHORUS

Plans are going forward for the Junior Festival of Music to be held in Farmville, Saturday May 9. A welcome will be extended the distinguished guests at 10 o'clock, followed by a concert. The Junior program at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon will include a thousand voices in the chorus. This program will be broadcast from Longwood amphitheatre over WRVA. Various social functions have been planned for the guests, who include Mrs. Elmer J. Ottaway, national president of the Federation of Music Clubs.

"The Junior Festival of Music," said Alfred H. Strick, the director, in an interview last night, "is attracting not only state but national publicity. The program which was printed by a local concern, has attracted attention for its artistic design and splendid workmanship, and is being sent all over America. It is doubtful if anything has attracted as much attention as the Junior Festival of Music, and every organization in Farmville is back of this effort to give music its rightful place in the Old Dominion.

"No greater gathering of national musicians has ever collected in any city in Virginia as will be in attendance at the State Teachers College on Saturady morning, May 9, at 10 o'clock, when President Joseph Leonard Jarman will welcome the distinguished guests in behalf of

Continued on last page

FIRST CABINET MEETING OF NEW MEMBERS HELD

The new Y. W. C. A. cabinet held its first meeting at 10 p. m. Monday, May 4. A. J. Scott, the recently elected president, explained the purpose and aims of the Y. W. C. A. She also gave suggestions to the chairman of various committees, how they might carry on their work. Blue Ridge week was talked about, but the date was not definitely set.

Miss Draper Gives Talk on France

Miss Draper spoke to a group of students in the little auditorium last Wednesday evening at 6:15 on France and the customs of the French people. Especially was her lecture appealing and helpful to the geography students since they have been studying France in connection with their geographical course.

Miss Draper gave an insight into the life of every class of French people, telling about their old and modern customs. She also showed them pictures taken in France. Some pictured the old historical France with its castles and court yards, while others illustrated the new and modern France with its up-to-date hotels and government buildings. So interesting and entertaining was the illustrated lecture that the students felt that they had really taken a trip to France.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET FOR COMING YEAR IS INSTALLED

The Y. W. C. A. Cabinet for the coming year was installed Wednesday at 6:45 p. m. at a very impressive service held in the large auditorium.

At a given chord singing issued from back of the auditorium. An impressive hush fell over the assembled student body as the old and new officers marched slowly into the candle-lit auditorium to the song "Father of Light". In the hands of the old officers were candles burning brightly; in the hands of the new were ones yet to be lighted. They took their places on the stage and devotional services were led by Margaret Faris after which the new officers were installed. The following girls received their lights from the girl whose office they were to hold:

President	A. J. Scott
Vice-President	Jane Witt
Secretary	Hazel Halloway
Treasurer	Frances Crawford
Conf.Conventions	Louise Johnson
Church Cooperative, Gladys Mathews
Service Com.	Virginia Hamilton
Alumnae	Edith Shanks
Reporter	Nan Mears
Town Rep.	Myra McIntosh
Publicity Com.	Catherine Cogbill
Sing Com.	Sue Yeaman
Music Com.	Mary A. Danner
Social Com.	Ruth Hunt
World Fellowship	Grace Rowell
Prayer Com.	Ellen Jones
Ex-Officio	Grace V. Woodhouse

The words of Adele Hutchinson as she lighted the candle of her successor were simple and direct in their forcefulness. "Grace Virginia, actions speak louder than words."

Softly singing "Follow the Gleam", they marched off the stage and out of the auditorium—the old and new, together.

CUNNINGHAM SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

The Cunningham Literary Society had a business meeting on Monday night, and the new officers were elected. They are:

President	Margaret Young
Vice-Pres.	Lucie Anne Lane
Secretary	Lucile Ingram
Treasurer	Nancy Shaner
Reporter	Doris Robertson
Historian	Mildred Shelton

Installation services will be held in the Y. W. C. A. reception room at the next regular meeting.

AN ENTIRE SENIOR CLASS SENDS APPLICATION IN AT ONE TIME

The registrar's office often had all girls who graduate in a high school class but this week, for the first time, a whole class has registered at one time. The superintendent of Warwick and York counties has sent all together, the applications of the six girls of the June 1931 Class of the Poquoson High School—the first class to register "in a body."

JESSIE SMITH

Former Editor-in-chief

DEDICATION

To Jessie Smith, whose thorough, constructive work as editor-in-chief for the past year challenges us to carry it on and up, we, the staff of '31 and '32, as an expression of our love and sincere wishes, dedicate our first issue of the Rotunda.

Virginia Social Science Associat'n Meets Here

"Industrialism and Rural Life" is the Theme of Discussion at Conference

The Virginia Social Science Association held its fifth annual meeting at the State Teachers College and Hampden-Sydney College on May 1 and 2. The general theme about which discussion centered was "Industrialism and Rural Life."

The organization was the guest of the State Teachers College on May 1. The morning program which began at ten-thirty was composed of five sectional meetings as follows:

Economics section with R. B. Pinchbeck of the Univeristy of Virginia as chairman.

Geography section with R. M. Hanson of State Teachers College, Harrisburg as chairman.

Political Science section with J. F. Peake of Randolph-Macon Woman's College as chairman.

Sociology section with J. P. Guild of Richmond Extension as chairman.

History section with Joseph Ecker of the College of William and Mary as chairman.

The sectional meetings were followed by luncheon in the college tea room. The association reconvened at two-thirty for a general session, the subject of which was "The Relationship between Agriculture and Industry". At six o'clock the college entertained the members of the association at dinner at Longwood.

The evening assembly was held in the college auditorium with the following program:

Music by the Hampden-Sydney College and the State Teachers College Glee Clubs.

Address of Welcome, Dr. Jarman.

Response—Presidential address: A Newspaper View of Virginia in the 1850's—Richard L. Morton, College of William and Mary.

Address by visiting speaker: "Obstacles to Clear Thinikng on Social

Continued on page three

May Day Held in New Amphitheatre at Longwood

Loulie Millner of Lynchburg, Va., Is Crowned Queen of the May

NEW SETTING IS BENEFICIAL

A tinkle of fairy music heralded the approach of the characters, in "The Legend of Britomart — The Lady Knight," as they assembled on the green in the new amphitheatre at Longwood to participate in the May Festival which was held on Saturday, May 2, at 4:30 p. m.

As the story wove itself to a close the Lady Knight, Loulie Millner, entered with her court, and was crowned Queen of the May.

This was the first May Day to be held in the amphitheatre. It proved to be a splendid setting.

The girls taking part in the production, and the members of the committee were as follows:

Characters in order of appearance:

Faerie Court:
Dot Prescott, Jessie Smith, Catherine Jones, Margaretta Brady, Frances Martin, Elizabeth Taylor, Myra McIntosh, Alma Garlick, Sally Russell, Alice Marshall, Jessie Watkins, Eleanor Thomas.

Star:
Mary Clare Booth

Britomart (Chastity):
Loulie Millner

Artegall (Justice):
Adele Hutchinson

Jesters:
Grace and Alice Rowell

Faerie Queen:
Mary Ellen Cato

Red Cross Knight (Holiness):
Dot Snedegar.

Knights:
Martha von Schilling, Helen War-

Continued on page three

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY GLEE CLUB-JONGLEURS TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Two of the outstanding organizations on the nearby Hampden-Sydney campus—the Glee Club and the Dramatic Club—will present an entertainment at S. T. C., May 8 at 8 p. m.

The boys in the Glee Club are presenting good enjoyable songs that every one will love—boat songs, college songs, negro songs—all done informally but in good, polished form.

The dramatic club is presenting one of Lord Dunsany's best one-act plays, "A Night at an Inn."

Much hard work has been done in making this program worthwhile. Boys are backing each other enthusiastically and on the whole a large crowd is expected.

The entire program (with perhaps a few insertions musically) is as follows:

Part I.

A Night in an Inn—One-act play:
The "Toff" ..... Eddie Bell
Three Merchant Sailors:
Bill ..... Frank Paulley
Albert ..... Sandy Greenless
Sniggers ..... George Wall
First Priest of Klesh .... Tex Carroll
Second Priest of Klesh .... John Piggot
Third Priest of Klesh .... Ed Botkin
Glesh. The Idol ..... Theo Hammack

Part II

The Song of the Deep Blue Sea
The Winter Song
What Do You Think of That?
Glee Club
Out of the Night
Moonlight and Dreams of You
Quartet
Little Brown Baby
Deep River
Lord, I Want to be a Christian

Continued on page three

HONOR GRADUATES FOR YEAR ANNOUNCED

The honor graduates, students receiving first and second places in the degree class and diploma class, were announced in chapel this morning.

They are as follows:

Degree Class: 1st place—Elizabeth Temple; second place—Elizabeth Taylor.

Diploma Class: first place— Esther Kutz; second place—Dorothy Helen Ford.

The one receiving first place in the degree class will be valedictorian, the first in the diploma class, salutatorian.

HOUSE COUNCIL FOR '31-'32 GOES INTO OFFICE ON FRIDAY NIGHT

The curtain which had been drawn to reveal the installation of many new officers during this past week, was drawn to reveal the last, Friday night, as the House Council for 1931-'32 was installed.

The old House Council president gave the new one, Louise Woodson, the oath of office, and wished her every success that with service as the keynote she should have. The new president installed the secretary, the hall presidents, and promised to do her best to live up to the confidence placed in her by the student body.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS ELECTS OFFICERS

At the regular meeting of Le Cercle Francais, Thursday, April 30, the following officers were elected for next year:

President	Anne Rice
Vice-President,	Martha von Schilling
Secretary	Bessie Lynch
Treasure	Jennie Wheeler
Reporter	Virginia Gee

A. A. Installation Services Are Held

The officers of the Athletic Association were installed Thursday evening, April 30. As the curtain was drawn both the old and new officials were on the platform. In only a few but very impressive, words Laura N. Smith told the student body what they, the outgoing officers, had used as their goal. She thanked the girls for their hearty spirit of cooperation which had been shown throughout the year. Then she wished the new president the same joy and pleasure in serving her Alma Mater, that she had experienced. Laura met Frances Edwards, the new president, in the center of the platform and placed across her shoulder the blue and white colors of S. T. C., thus signifying that Frances now held that very responsible position. The new president thanked the student body for the opportunity of working with

Continued on page three

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

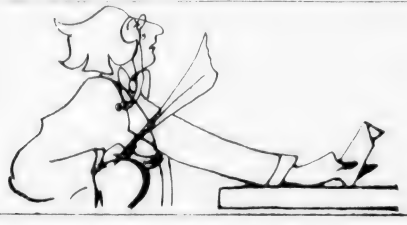
Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA MOORE, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34



Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOT RITCHIE, '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

"Ere the Golden Bowl Be Broken"

Ever keeping before us the beautiful example of that great and infinitely rich Spirit which has so recently passed from the portals of this life into the mansions of the "Great Friend and Preserver of All Mankind", let us live each day, each hour as perfectly as if it is to be our last. When we resign our tasks to other hands may our work be so well done that only inspiration, courage, strength may be derived from the example we have set.

As we pass through the portals of our Alma Mater into the world may we through the influence of such noble Spirits attain the heights of better living so:

"When our work is done,
Our course on earth is run
May it be said, "Well done"
Be thou at peace."

—West Point Alma Mater

"A Thing of Beauty Is a Joy Forever"

We find ourselves standing off at some distance surveying upon the field of memory one of the most enchanting scenes that ever a vivid imagination was capable of creating.

Malory's Knight, Queen Bess' Courtiers grace Mother Nature's Throne Room while attending upon Her Most Gracious Majesty, Our Queen who dazzles her subjects with her charm and beauty. Shakespeare's fairies and Barrie's elves "trip on light fantastic toe" and dance with glee over the glen and down the glen led by their ethereal Queen appareled in gossamer webs of pearl and crowned with Flora's diadem. Neptune sends his fairest daughters to do homage to the most impeccable Knight abroad in search of truth. Pluto's wives faint at the sight of one possessing a soul so clear and bright. The court jester seems to bear a mirror at his side which reflects his Stairs to the delight of the happy Queen.
mimicry, and the stars slide down the balustrade of the Golden

The beauty of the Festival of May, exceeding all others, will often "flash upon the inward eye."

OVER THE TEACUPS

Isn't it hard to realize that May Day is really over and the Shannon season is in full swing! Yeah, Spring has got us in her "feverish" clutches and Summer is almost upon us! What a team for study—encumbered college girls to pull against! I'm betting on our bunch to win in the long run though—we'll show that swell new president of ours what we're made of and she'll learn what she has got to count on for next year Yep, May Day is over. For months we've been looking forward to the big event of the season, some with fear 'n trembling, may I suggest. In fact, I believe some of us were relieved to find it raining on Friday and what suspense did they suffer on Saturday! But Ole Man Sol did his best not to let Rain drown the spirits of the rest of us. The funny thing is Ole Sol won out and those who had had fears had them without grounds 'cause everything went off beautifully. Not to mention names or anything like that, our May Day quite tops the list off all the other all-Southern colleges, as to Beauty, Grace and honest-to-goodness all-round goodness! Speaking of all-round goodness there is nothing about this school that isn't all-round good—especially those honey coated buns out Longwood—are they honeys? Since I got in the habit of them practicing for May Day I've become an insatiable addict—gee! isn't it beautiful out there (I add this for the benefit of anyone who might overhear me and think I let my appetite over-rule my aesthetic soul, I never could spell that word but it means something or other like back to nature, I think).

Look a-here! I'm doing all the talking and you haven't opened your mouth—you're not even listening. What are you thinking about to look so far away? What? Moons and frat houses and male voices warbling harmoniously? What? Oh! you're talking about that program the H. S. Glee Club is putting on this Friday night? And so that's the setting. Would you mind sending somebody to see if Billy would be interested in a couple of tickets? I wish it were leap year. Say, a girl doesn't get a chance but once in every four years does she and even then she's afraid to take it. But, nothing risked, nothing gained is my motto! And I'd risk that Glee Club anytime! They give you that funny feeling that makes you think of father, mother, home and the boys—oh, yes, the boys! But I know Mother will predominate this week-end. Why, it's her very own week-end. I get kinda teary around the eyes thinking about Mothers' Day and that big red rose I ordered. Just let me say before I turn out the light to hide my un-collegiate emotion that if it weren't for our dear Mothers we wouldn't be where we are to day!

A PHOTO CELL IS PERFECTED IN BERLIN

Dr. Bruno Lauge of the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute at Berlin has just perfected there a photo-cell which converts sunlight into electric current more completely than before "thus making posible" an expansion of human engineering activties to a new scale similar to what happened after the invention of the steam engine and doing this by a method which may prove successful in putting the sun to work for man throughout the future history of the world. Already linked up with the project are several American technicians and industrialists, the Westinghouse Electric Company included, and the "Wizard of Menlo Park" has just invited the inventor for a sojourn at the Edison laboratory.

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

The sun wanted to see May Day Saturday so it came out just in time.

Some people in school are wondering if "Liz" Taylor is still on the government.

Speaking of people being "snooty"—Loulie can give you a few pointers.

Do you like to get sweet talked? Well, let people at S. T. C. know you can and we'll work.

We can understand why there were so many people at government installation Tuesday night.

Is that "slouch" of Nellie Green's natural?

I wonder why Hampden-Sydney boys took snap shots of May Day?

He runs the race best who gets a good start. If this be true Frances Edwards has all points in her favor

The appearance of families at S. T. C. made for social progress—rooms were cleaned.

If sunshine is a cure for rickets, then S. T. C. will have no cases—take a look on the roof.

Are you familiar with the use of abbreviations on Gym Hall? If not, become educated immediately.

Hilarious laughter, 12:30 escapades and late chats are a thing of the past on Gym Hall.

OUR MOTHERS

Whistler, whose immortal portrayal of his beautiful Mother, will make us honor and rever him forever, is only different from the rest of us in that he could give to the world his picture, but we keep them, just as lovely in our hearts as miniatures—as heart pictures. Everyone of us even to a girl has in her heart a picture similar to his. Changed perhaps in form, changed perhaps in gesture, but always unchanged in spirit, that undying mother spirit of unselfish love.

Sunday each of these miniatures will be honored with a flower, such as a tiny token to mean all that it means, yet as beautiful as the thought it conveys. And unseen though it may be by that loved one, be it red rose for the mother on earth, or white one for her in Heaven, the message of love will go straight to her heart and there find a final resting place—treasured and cherished.

May the path of all our earthly Mothers be strewn with roses red for vibrant life and the paths of the Mothers who have turned at the inevitable great cros-road, may they be made beautiful by the white roses that have unaskedly given their life color to those further back and kept sacred to themselves their purity.

THREE YEARS AGO TODAY

The new Y. W. C. A. Cabinet was installed.

The Cromatic Club went to Danville to compete with five other Virginia colleges in a musical contest.

It is stated that although they did not win they did exceptionally well.

The Rotunda staff had a banquet in the tea room.

'Pannie" Willis held her first student body meeting.

A noted Rusisan lecturer, Baron Alphonse Heyking spoke in the student building on "The Riddle of the Russian Government."

TO MOTHER

In this world of trial and troubles
God has given a light divine
One to guide us, never failing
It is you, dear Mother Mine.
When the way seems dark and dreary,
We go on though tired and weary
Knowing you are waiting there.
Shining as a light from heaven
Lighting paths so dark and drear
Making light the heavy burden
It is you, our Mother dear.

F. A. R., '33

A ROYAL VISITOR

King Sol left his castle
In the hills,
And rode down to the plains
In pomp and glory
When news reached him
Of our Masjesty, the Queen
Who was to hold her court
On yon green
Not far from woodlands fair
Where fairies and enchanting flowers
Peep and dance from out their bowers

V. P. L.

LADY-IN-WAITING

Slender, graceful, regal Lady
Robed in flowing gown of coral,
Crowned with golden waving tresses
Shod in soft silvern slippers,
Bearing dainty star-like flowers . . . .
Where could we on land or sea
Find one lovelier than Thee?

V. P. L.

SEA SONG

I was alone by the rocky crags
Where the wild sea waves are crying
Where the up-flung spray damps my hair
And the fishermen's nets lie drying.

Hark to the voice of the angry gull
As he swoops to the crest of a wave
And gleams in the sun when he soars again
With his brine-covered prey—the knave!

King Neptune robed in tawny sea weed
Emerged as the setting sun grew red
His dancing nymphs rose out of the deep
And bid me farewell as I, awe-stricken, fled.

M. von S., '32

LINES

At noon I found
A violet on the sand
Fainting with parched throat,
Down-trodden head.
I bathed its aching limbs
With water cool from out
A near-by spring . . . . .
If I could not restore it
Back to life
At least I could make
Death a pleasing thing.

V. P. L.

APPEAL OF EXTREMES

'Tis a wonderful thing to be lonely
And a marvelous thing to be blue,
For think of the joy in gladness
And happiness when they come to you
And thus life wanders onward
Sadness making for you
Even much greater the other
Which helps to carry you through

And thus life wanders onward
Disappointment making you blue
But magnified find the things you have won
And inspired the things you have just begun
For after the rain—
Bright shines the sun
And all the world glistens, too.

M. F., '32

SOCIALS

Mary Lou Fritts, Martha Scott Watkins, Henrietta Cornwell and Virginia Ann Huntsberry are in Winchester attending the Aple Blossom Festival.

The following girls were in Lynchburg this week-end: Loulie Milner, Josie Spencer, Jerry Lee, Corrinne Mosby, Jacque Lee, Frances Rawlings, Catherine Marchant, Margaret Barber, Katherine Royster, Frances Edwards, Rena Robertson, and Dot Goodloe.

Caroline Cogbill spent the week-end in Petersburg.

Mary Ellen Cato and Martha Walters were in Richmond this week-end.

Margaret Eley and Mary Arthur Bilups were in Richmond Friday.

Dot Ritchie was at her home in Petersburg Sunday.

Mary Brightwell spent the week-end in Pamplin.

Those who were visiting in Kenbridge this week-end are: Retta Hardy, Elizabeth Kelly, Bernice May Love, Dorothy Prescott and Gazelle Ware.

Hanna Crawley was in Leesburg this week-end.

Nancy DeBerry and Jane Grey Irby visited in Blackstone this week-end.

Doris Walton and Frances Ratcliffe were in Danville this week-end.

Gamma Theta wishes to announce the following new pledges:

Vernie Oden
Kathryn Waters
Susan Pugh.

SIGMA PI RHO SOCIETY ENTERTAINS AT SUPPER

After a formal initiation of its new members, Sigma Pi Rho, honor society in Latin, gave them an informal one at a supper in the tea room at six o'clock, Tuesday. It was a group of Roman senators who gathered to hear the pleas of the nine new members in the banquet room.

"Hear ye! hear ye!," said the president of Sigma Pi Rho, "You have come tonight to hear their pleas, O noble Roman senators. To sustain you in your ponderous task, I have ordered a feast to be prepared."

A most delightful supper was served and the senators proceeded to their task, assenting to pleas with thumbs up, disapproving with thumbs down.

ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA HAS NEW MEMBERS

The Joan Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma announces the following new members:

Mary Nichols
Charlotte Hutchins
Frances Edwards

NEW CABINET HAS MORNING WATCH

The new cabinet held morning watch at 7:30 a. m. on Thursday, April 30. Winston Cobb conducted the devotionals for the morning. Her topic was based on the value of prayer and of living close to God through prayer. She applied it to school life at S. T. C.

Morning watch has been a custom of the Y. W. C. A. cabinets here for many years, but it is the aim and hope of this new cabinet to make it really mean more than it ever has.

LAWN FETE TO BE HELD ON SATURDAY

The yearly lawn fete given by the Freshman Commission is to be held Saturday from 4:00 p. m. to 7:00 p. m. at Longwood.

Those who attend the Junior Music Festival will be able to secure immediately after it, a delightful plate supper for a small sum. The plate will consist of two sandwiches, potato salad, ham, pickle and iced tea. Ice cream, lollies, dopes and nabs will be sold also.

MAY DAY HELD IN NEW AMPHITHEATRE AT LONGWOOD

Continued from page one

ren, Ellen Twitty, Virginia Lanier
Slaves:
Martha Higgins, Anne McGann
Court of Joyousness:
Vanity—Julia Faris
Pride—Dot Leonard
Slothfulness—Nellie Green
Luxury—Evelyn Jones
Sorrow—Henrietta Cornwell
Joyousness—Mary Alice Young
Waves:
Virginia Lamb, Frank Smoot, Mary Custis, Homoizelle Darden, Mary B. Frasier, Ellen Earle Jones, Margaret Priest, Susan Pugh, Stuart Quaintance, Nannie Ruth Cooper, Mary Diehl, Hazel Halloway, Lydia Harrell, Velma Petty, Alice Ribble, Louise Spracher, Mary West Terry, Jane Witt, Helen R. Cunningham.
Jewels:
Sarah James, Mildred Gwaltney, Marjorie Yancey, Frances Lewis, Mary Lou Fritts, Katherine Claude, Myra Costen, Nannie Gilbert, Louise Van Lear, Martha Stuart, Catherine Jones, Jane Brown.
Sea Prince:
Rene Greaves.
Nymphs:
Elsie Hardy, Betsy Wilkerson, Martha Scott Watkins, French Hutt.
Amoret (Love):
Ella Carroll
Scudamre (Knight of Love):
Doris Walton
Giant:
Mary Gregory
Enchanter:
Martha Ann Laing
Flames:
A. J. Scott, Elsie McLaughlin, Mary Alice Young, Henrietta Cornwell, Dot Snedegar, Mary Alice Bristow, Esther Kutz, Katherine Marchant, Velma Petty, Janice Wilkerson, Lydia Harrell, Elizabeth Drewry, Mary Winston, Hazel Halloway, Jane Witt, Eloise Paulette, Courtney Godsey, Lucy Anne Lane, Gwen Daniel, Louise Spracher, Cleo Quisenberry, Mary West Terry, Martha von Schilling, Alice Ribble, Frances Stephenson.
Fancy and Court:
Ruth Floyd, Martha Brothers, Betty Watts, Emeline Abernathy, Nell Dickenson, Mary Ellen Johnson, Lorene Cox, Mary Elizabeth Mayo.
Sun Goddesses and Sun Rays:
Ann Minter, Virginia Ann Huntsbury, Dot Ritchie, Evelyn Stephenson, Polly Brock, Anne Johnson, Elizabeth Levick, Helen Shawen, Edrie Holland, Betty Morris, Josie Spencer "Happy" Hughes, Laura Darlington, Grayson Pratt, Annie Hall, Nellie Worrell, Mary Howard Dorothy Wingfield, Henrietta Taylor, Lorene Cox, Alice Abernathy.
Blacksmith and Cares:
Martha Walters, Frances Armistead, Elizabeth Doyne, Laura Boush, Anna Traylor, Virginia Cornick, Elizabeth Walthall, Cora Lee Briggs, Sarah Pittman, Mary Baylor.
Cupid:
Betty Hardy
Evening Star:
Ida Trolan

May Queen's Court

Knights:
Laura Smith, Emily Simpson, Polly Sheffield, Virginia Robertson, Virginia Hamilton, Jane Royall, Grace Virginia Woodhouse, Gazelle Ware, Sarah Baker, Mary Shelton, Doris Walton, Adele Hutchinson.
Ladies:
Helen Cover, Virginia Sargeant, Ruth and Ruby Hunt, Nancy Harrison, Jenilee Knight, Mary Brightwell, Medora Ford, Mary Page White, Frances Parker.
AMORET, Maid of Honor:
Ella Carroll
BRITOMART—Queen:
Loulie Millner.
Flowers:
Mary Winston, Ruth Cecil, Thelma Stephens, Fannie Moody, Norma Franklin, Nancy Shaner, Margaret Young, Ethel Kirkland, Marie Bentley, Elsie Hardy, Margaret

Continued on last page

AMONG OUR CAPS AND GOWNS

MILDRED MADDREY

Mildred Maddrey—the very name rings true. S. T. C. is proud and will forever be proud to have counted Mildred as one of her own. For four year she has served her Alma Mater faithfully, but in an inconspicous manner. Her paths of endeavor have been along both academic and extra-curricula lines. The Dean's List has included her name for the entire year; she is very musical and has served the Choral Club as president; she is a member of the Monogram Club; she represented her Junior Class on th Student Council, and when a senior served as treasurer of that organization; she is also an active member of the Debate Club. Her true value has been recognized by the several honor societies to which she belongs.

It is with regret that we see one whose influence, clear thinking, and wholesome sense of humor have been so deeply felt, leave the portals of Alma Mater. Our best wishes for success that true merit deserves, go with you, Mildred.

ELIZABETH TEMPLE

In looking among our caps and gowns, we find our "mathematics star." Although mathematics is her major interest, Elizabeth has served her Alma Mater along literary lines, too. She was editor of her Sophomore and Junior class issues of the Rotunda, and in 1929-'30 she was associate editor of the Voice. She was an active worker on the Cabinet for two years; first, as chairman of the alumnae committee, and during the past year, as treasurer. Elizabeth has also achieved scholastic success. She has been an active member of Kappa Delta Pi for two years, and as a charter member of both Sigma Pi Rho, and the Master's degree of Alpha Phi Sigma.

In addition to this Elizabeth wears a cheery smile and always has a word of encouragement for those she meets. Though usually quiet, she always expresses her opinion when asked for it, and it always proves to be practical. How could we have travelled our four years without her! We wish you the best luck in your teaching, Elizabeth and we hope your Math clubs will all be great successes!

Freshman: I don't know.
Sophomore: I am not prepared.
Junior: I do not remember.
Senior: I don't believe I can add anything to what has been said.

VIRGINIA SOCIAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION MEETS

Continued from page one

Questions", Dr. D. D. Carroll, dean of the school of commerce, University of North Carolina.

The association met at Hampden-Sydney College on May 2. Saturday morning they held their regular business meeting and a general session following which the members were entertained at luncheon by Hampden-Sydney College.

Among those from S. T. C. whose special contributions toward making the meeting a success are: Miss Florence H. Stubbs as local chairman, Miss Myrtle Cash with a paper on "As a Middle Westerner Sees Virginia." Mr. C. Gordon Moss with a paper on "Labor in 18th Century Virginia", and Dr. J. E. Walmsley as Chairman of publicity.

The Virginia Social Science Association is an organization of over two hundred members, among whom are teachers, doctors, lawyers, newspaper men and others interested in social science. Such a meeting may be materially advantageous to the college and to the organization. In this way there may be some exchange of ideas between college professional students and those doing research, and thus a closer link may be formed in the future btween the association and the teachers in the high schools. Dr. Jarman expressed the attitude of the college when he said "We wish you could meet with us every year."

A. A. INSTALLATION SERVICES ARE HELD

Continued from page one

them next year, and promised her best.

In this same manner and with wishes for even greater success than they had had in the past each officer of the old council installed the girl who was to take her place. The other officers were as follows:

Vice President:	"Jim" Simpson, old Dot Snedegar, new
Secretary	Easter Souders, old Hildegarde Ross, new
Treasurer	Frances Edwards, old Lucille Crute, new

At the close of the installation services the student body sang "Onward Farmville."

Intercollegiate

"If all the piccolo players in the world were placed end to end in the deepest part of the Atlantic Ocean (that's where they belong) and if the combined ages of this year's senior medical class at the Medical College of Virginia are added together, the result is exactly two thousand five hundred and seventy years". The average age is 26 years 6 months, the youngest member of the class being only 22, while oldest is supposed to be 70.

The oldest state university in America is the University of North Carolina. It was chartered 142 years ago and began operating six years later.

"Student Successful in Examination"—Head in the B. C. Bee. We always knew it was possible!

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY GLEE CLUB TO ENTERTAIN

Continued from page one

Glee Club
Trees
There Was a Man in Our Town
Quartet
A Glass of the Finest
The New School Song
Alma Mater
Glee Club

We would like to have your orders —for— DRUGS, STATIONERY, BEAUTY PREPARATIONS

Canada Drug Co.

Farmville, Virginia

Phone 17 Next to Baldwin's

C. E. CHAPPELL COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, cigarettes and soda

Main Street

FARMVILLE VIRGINIA

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP AND LEATHER USED

SCHEMMEL Conservatory of Music

Piano, vocal, violin, theory, harmony, aesthetics, etc.

REASONABLE TUITION RATES

Davidson's

HOUSE OF QUALITY

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

WHERE QUALITY MEETS PRICE

Farmville's Best Department Store

Kerami Coats Reduced to $5.85

Lovely Spring Coats priced $9.95 to $19.50

New snow flecked suits $5.95 and $9.95

lapin trimmed

$1.50 full fashion hose, special 98c

THE HUB DEPARTMENT STORE

A Letter Home

Dear Mother: My roommate's laundry came today. You won't have to send mine until next week. Your loving daughter, Rene.

Jane Royall (entering dining room) "Adele, may I come in I've been out."

Mother: "Why don't you wear that beautiful underwear you got for Christmas?"

Daughter: "Oh, I'm saving that for a windy day."

How do mothers learn things they tell their daughters to avoid?

Cop: "Don't you know you can't turn around in the middle of the block?"

Dot Goodloe: "Oh, I think I can make it. Thank you, so much."

This morning I saw two red brick buildings walking over this way.

One: "What are these traditions you all time hear about?"

Another: "They're something that used to be, but aren't anymore, and are still trying to be."

"I feel tired. I've been getting along on only two hours of sleep a day."

"Only two hours a day? How do you manage?"

"I take the rest at night."

As the end of the term nears, the the real theme song is heard: "Three Thousand Words."

Moreover, the old fashioned man who kissed his sweetheart's hand didn't have to watch which one the cigarette was in.—Literary Digest.

Did you ever stop to think what might have happened to American history if the British soldiers had had bloodshot eyes?

She: "Where do you think I'd be if had a million dollars?"

He: "On my honeymoon."

He: "What do you say to a litle kiss, honey?"

She: "Well, uh—I never spoke to one."

To the reducing S. T. C. girl—You can't eat your cake and have "it," too.

He: "I'll be frank with you. You're not the first girl I've kissed."

She: "I'll be equally frank with you. You've got a lot to learn."

He: "Where were you all my life?"

She: "Where I should be now."

"Oh, cherie, je t'adore."

"Aw, shut the door yourself—you opened it."

Absence makes the marks grow rounder.

Voices in the dead of the night:

"Wake up! Wake up!"

"Can't."

"Why not?"

"Ain't sleeping."

College is the place where one spends several thousand dollars for an education and then prays for a holiday to come on a school-day.

THE COURT

From left to right—Emily Simpson, Virginia Sargeant, Sara Baker, Mary Brightwell, Polly Sheffield, Helen Cover, Virginia Robertson, Ruth Hunt, Gazelle Ware, Polly White, Adele Hutchinson, Loulie Millner, Ella Carrol, Doris Walton, Jenilee Knight, Jane Royall, Ruby Hunt, Laura Smith, Virginia Hamilton, Nancy Harrison, Medora Ford, Mary Shelton, Frances Parker, Grace Virginia Woodhouse.

Junior Festival To be in Talking Movies and on Air

Continued from page one

the college. The formal welcome will be made in Richmond by Mayor Sanford at the John Marshall Hotel, at which time all the distinguished musicians of Richmond, together with our local entertainment committee, will greet the visitors.

"Rain insurance has been taken out, which we hope will not be used, and the contract for broadcasting has been signed and placed with W. R. Bishop, program director of WRVA, Richmond.

"The various representatives of each county interested in the Festival visited Longwood last Saturday and were amazed at its natural beauty. The town management of Farmville, under the direction of Mr. Catlin, has accepted its responsibility and will display streamers, bunting and cards in and around the city. The State Teachers College, through the different organizations, is working as a unit and much interest is in evidence.

"The business men of the city have shown their fidelity to the cause, and the funds needed for broadcasting has been brought down to $29. We would earnestly suggest that any friend of music, and of this Festival, who would care to contribute, however small the amount, to send his check payable to Mrs. Robertta H. Large, Farmville, Va.

"A pretty scene will take place Saturday morning in the State Teachers College auditorium during the regular program, when ten little flower girls, under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Bugg, will present to the ten distinguished guests corsages. They will be led to the steps of the stage by ten selected students of the college and the presentetion made. This delightful ceremony will add a note of harmony and color to the Festival. Farmville will be dresed up and given a fine day. It is estimated that five to six thousand people will witness the ceremonies at Longwood."

"Everything has been done to insure success, and the eleven committees are working as a unit to make the Festival one that will go down in history. The Longwood amphitheatre, under the management of Supt. Graham, is taking on fresh beauty every day, and the people of Southside Virginia will see one of the most beautiful natural amphitheatres anywhere.

"Another signficant matter is the moving pictures that will be taken of the Festival, and two companies are arranging to send machines to Farmville for that purpose.

HONORARY VOLLEY BALL VARSITY IS CHOSEN

The honorary volley ball varsity, which consists of the eight most outstanding players from the class teams, has been chosen. The red and white scored ten points here, there being four juniors and one freshman on this team. The members are:

Laurie Boush
Ethel Boswell
Lucille Crute
Frances Edwards
Cleo Quisenberry
Easter Souders
Elizabeth Walthall
Ruth Wright

BURGER, DICKINSON AND ROSS HEAD SPORTS

Elizabeth Burger has been chosen manager of field and track; Nell Dickinson, manager of baseball; and Hildegarde Ross, manager of archery for this season.

Elizabeth has shown her interest and ability in sports all this year. She has played on all of her class teams and on the varsity baseball and hockey squads. She was captain of the freshman basket ball team. Nell Dickinson, another member of the freshman class has also shown her interest in athletics. She is always on time and willing to do her best. Hildegarde Ross proved an unusual manager of volley ball last year, and she will be even better for archery.

With three such able managers, the spring sports promise to be a huge success. (If you are not already coming out, start now and point the fun!)

MAY DAY HELD AT LONGWOOD

Continued from page three

Eley, Mary Arthur Billups, Frances Graham, Gloria Mann, aJnet Harris.

Play ..... Mary Ellen Cato
Business Manager ..... Ella Carroll
Dances:
Mary Winston, Ruth Floyd, Elizabeth Drewry, Elizabeth Levick, French Hutt, Elizabeth Taylor, Jane Brown, Martha Walters, Mary Alice Young, Dot Snedegar.
Music:
Sue Yeaman, Josephine Smith, Doreen Smith, Elizabeth Taylor, Lucie Anne Lane, Mary Elizabeth Mayo, Marietta Wilson.
Costumes:
Evelyn Simpson, Chairman; Gwen Daniel, Elizabeth Drewry, Annie Denit.
Properties ..... Allie Oliver
Program ..... Jessie Smith
Transportation—Laura Smith, Hildegarde Ross.
Usher—Chairman ..... Martha Faris
Advisors:
Members of Physical Education, Dramatic Art, English, and Home Economics Departments.

At the Eaco Theatre Week of May 11-16

MON. and TUES.—Ramon Navarro in "Daybreak," supported by Helen Chandler and a great cast. Considered Navarro's greatest talkie. All night long he gambled in vain. At daybreak he returned to say goodbye. Handsome officer, pretty girl, languid night in Vienna—and love's old story flames anew. But the carefree officer finds that he has found a new love. And now he must fight tremendous odds to win back this girl. Here is a gay love story of Vienna with Ramon Navarro at his best. A picture that will grip your heart. It is not, however ,a picture for the youngsters. Also Our Gang Comedy.

WEDNESDAY Only—"Tom Sawyer," with Jackie Coogan and Mitzi Green. There have been so many requests for the return of this great picture that we are bringing it back for a one-day showing. No finer picture has been made this year than Mark Twain's classic, and Jackie Coogan and Mitzi Green fit their parts perfectly. A treat for young and old. Also Terrytown Cartoon Comedy. Final chapter of "The Lone Defender," with Rin-Tin-Tin, the wonder dog.

THURS. and FRI.—Harold Lloyd in "Feet First." The king of comedy in a rollicking, hilarious, thrilling comedy of the adventures of a foot-loose shoe clerk who was down at his heels but up on his toes. Not since "Safety Last" has a Harold Lloyd production been so rich in hair-raising, sky-scraper stunts. Barbara Kent is again Harold's leading lady, and she leads him a merry pace in this high and dizzy romance that will send chills up and down your spine. Here is a picture the whole family will thoroughly enjoy and talk about; so come and bring the kiddies for a whale of a time. Also comedy, "Crashing Hollywood."

SATURDAY—"Men Call it Love," with Adolph Menjou, Lelia Hyams, and Norman Foster. It's easy to say what you'd do if you found your husband in the arms of another woman. But when you know you cannot live without him, when you know it is you he truly loves, isn't it better to forgive and forget? What a dramatic situation is here! Whether you agree with this forgiving wife or not, you will enjoy one of the most entertaining talkies of the year. Dedicated to the wives who rebel against one code of morals for their husbands and another for themselves. Here is a daring but honest picture of modern marriage you'll talk about. Also Fox News and Boy Friend comedy, "Let's Do Things."

One show each night at 8 o'clock. Daily matinees, 4 p. m.

Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees; children under 12, 15c to each show.

Southside DrugStore
Direct Eastman Kodak Agency
(Fresh Films)
Let Us Develop
YOUR FILMS
ONE DAY SERVICE
Complete Line GREETING CARDS
Just One Block from Campus

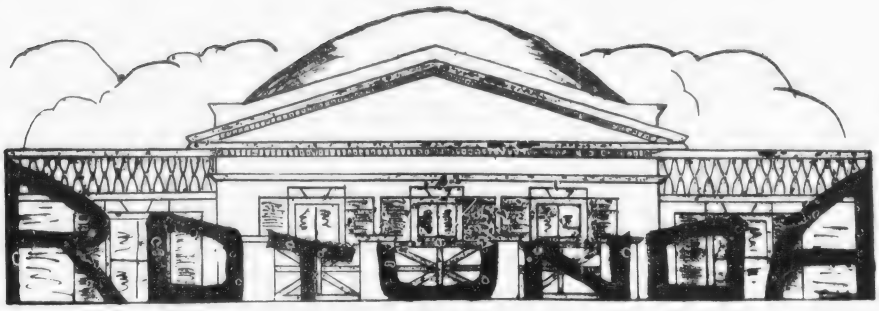
Dressmaking
Dressmaking, Tailoring, Attiring and Remodeling. Prices reasonable. Work guaranteed.
MRS. SCHWARTZ
306 Pine Street.

FOR THE LATEST IN
Sheet Music, Costume Jewelry, Watches, Watch Bracelets and Musical Instruments
GO TO
Lynn's Jewelry Store
MAIN STREET

Gray's Drug Store
QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE
Come in and Get Acquainted
We're Glad to Have You With Us
Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's
Is Headquarters for the Best
SANDWICHES
—and—
DRINKS
—in—
FARMVILLE!

McIntosh Drug Store
Farmville, Va.
"Drugs and Drinks"
DOWNTOWN SECTION



G. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

WE INVITE CHARGE ACCOUNTS
of the
STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE STUDENTS
NEW YORK DRESS STORE
MAIN STREET
Next to Southside Drug Co.

Rotunda -- 10-13.
Sept.25,1929-
May 24, 1933.
USE RESERVE ONLY.

DATE ~~DUE~~ AND TIME OUT	BORROWER'S NAME	~~BOOK~~ NUMBER BOX
	Cunningham Parsons	811
11-7	Karen Hollinger	555

COME TO FOLLIES OF 1931

PAY FOR "VIRGINIAN"

Vol. XI. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1931 No. 29

JUNIOR FESTIVAL OF MUSIC IS HELD HERE

H. S. Glee Club-Jongleurs Entertainment is a Success

One Act Play by Dunsany and Popular Songs Included in Production

LIGHTING HEIGHTENS EFFECT

The Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs and Glee Club rendered a delightful program in the S. T. C. auditorium Friday evening.

During the first part of the program, a one act play "A Night in an Inn" by Lord Dunsany, the audience was taken back to the days of bold bad men and roving seamen who even dared to steal the ruby eye of the jade idol. An atmosphere of fear and suspense prevailed. Each time the door silently and mysteriously opened it was met by breath-holding stillness. When the climax was reached with the entrance of the jade idol in search of his eye, a shriek went up. The curtain closed with appalling finality leaving the crowd speechless.

On Friday night time passed rapidly and when the curtains reopened it was on a twentieth century scene with boys in white singing underneath the moon. The program which included sea songs, comic songs, negro spirituals, and such ever popular favorites as "The World is Waiting for the Sun Rise" was well suited to the varying tastes of the audience.

The entertainment was a creditable production which evidenced the expenditure of time, toil, and talent. The director and accompanist, and the tenor soloist deserve special commendation.

The general impression which was decidedly favorable was heightened by the lighting effects, the harmonizing linen dresses of the ushers and the fitting finale of "The Tiger Medley."

Advisors Selected For Y.W.C.A. Board

The committe chairman advisors for '31 and '32 were selected at cabinet meeting as follows:

Service: Honey Hamilton—Miss Camper.

Membership: Jane Witt—Miss Bedford.

Church cooperation—Gladys Mathews—Mr. Holton.

World Fellowship—Grace Rowell—Dr. Walmsley.

Prayers—Ellen Jones—Miss Hiner.

Conference and conventions—Louise Johnson—Miss Iler.

Alumnae—Edith Shanks — Miss Nichols.

Music—Mary Artis Danner—Miss Purdom.

Sing—Sue Yeaman—Miss Jennings.

Social—Ruth Hunt—Miss Grenels

Publicity—Catherine Cogbill—Miss Coulling.

Town girls—Myra McIntosh—Miss Rice.

Undergraduate representative — Winston Cobb—Miss Bedford.

Reporter—Nan Mears—Miss Coulling.

KINDERGARTEN MAY DAY HELD IN JOAN COURT FRIDAY, MAY 8TH

The kindergarten of the S. T. C. Training School held its annual May Day, on Friday, May 8 at 10:20 a. m. in front of Joan Court, below the colonnade. It was very simple and informal, suited to the age of the little children, some of whom are not yet six years old.

Anne Martin was the May Queen, and she was selected by the children themselves for that office. The bearer of the crown who preceded the Queen as the children marched in, was Dorothy Butler. Sarah Jo Crawford and Dolly Wilkerson carried the Queen's train.

The children danced a number of dances which they had originated themselves. The dancers were Dolly Wilkerson, Dorothy Butler, Catherine Lindsey Hankins, Walter Scott Overton, Lewis Graham, Robert Newman, Howard Jones and George Davis.

The general color scheme was yellow and white, the boys wearing sashes of yellow and white. The Queen's crown was also of yellow and white flowers. The little girls wore necklaces of flower petals of delicate pink or blue.

After the crowning of the Queen the children marched in procession back to the Training School.

This May Day was in charge of the student teachers, Marie Bentley, Vera Abbott, and Mary Frances Carter, who was also accompanist.

RUFFNER SOCIETY INSTALLS OFFICERS

Officers were installed for the coming year at the Ruffner Literary Society meeting Friday at 7 p. m.

Easter Souders, the old president, expressed her thanks for the cooperation of the members during the year. She installed Margaret Fisher as the new president—wishing her success in the coming year. She, in turn installed the other officers which were: vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and reporter.

Everyone at the meeting was in favor of having a picnic which will be given soon.

WRITING CERTIFICATES WON BY 33 STUDENTS

Thirty-three students in Applied Arts 101 and 102 were successful in meeting the requirements for the Locker Writing Certificates last quarter. They are as follows:

Nancy Baylor
Mary Louise Blick
Kalypso Costan
Ethel Y. Creedle
Gladys L. Dorset
Frances Edwards
Norma Franklin
Dorothy M. Franklin
Louise Hartness
Elva Ruth Hunt
Mary Sue Jacob
Catherine Jones

Continued on page three

Junior Follies of 1931 to be Given On Friday Night

Show Sponsored By Class of 1932 Promises to be Unusually Good

Plans are going forward and being completed for the Junior Follies of 1931 to be held in the S. T. C. auditorium, Friday night, May 15.

The Junior Class is sponsoring another one of its unique entertainments similar to the one given last year, and the one that went over so big. With Martha Walters, Louise Munt, Nancy Putney, Ruth Floyd and A. J. Scott as end men, this year's performance promises to be even better than last year's. In addition to the minstrel show, the Juniors are putting on the Follies of 1931. The second part represents a clock shop. There will be a dance to represent, many different clocks and here's the good part—there will be a contest. Everyone has an equal chance to win. Each person will be given a slip of paper and as each dance is given he is to decide what clock that represents. The person getting the most right will win a very attractive gift.

All the latest songs will go on the air from the minstrel. Some were in "Sing" Saturday night. There are many more better than the samples.

It is said you'll laugh like you've never laughed before because Martha Walters is funny.

Two Choral Clubs Are Organized

The Choral Club had its election of officers for next year at a special meeting called last Tuesday night. Next year, the school will have two choral clubs—a senior one, and a junior one.

The officers for next year are as follows:

Senior Choral Club

President	Irene Leake
Vice-President	Louise Clayton
Secretary	Virginia Bailey
Treasurer	Lindsay White
Librarian	Lucy Ann Lane

Junior Choral Club

President	Sue Yeaman
Vice-President	Woodruth Towler
Secretary	Sarah Thomas
Treasurer	Mary Artis Danner

DRAMATIC CLUB INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

The installation of the new officers of the Dramatic Club took place Thursday night, May 7 in the small auditorium. The entire dramatic club was present. The officers for next year are: Jenilee Knight, president; Margaret Armstrong, vice-president; Sarah Russell, secretary; Easter Souders, treasurer and business manager.

Three new members were initiated: Margaret Gathright, Sue Yeaman and Lindsay White.

All of Southside Virginia Joins in the Musical Program

National Importance Given to Realization of Long Dreamed of Plan

MUCH ENTHUSIASM IS SHOWN

Not in many many years has there been such a demonstration of interest and enthusiasm as that which attended the Junior Festival of Music. Interest from the town of Farmville, S. T. C., from all Southside Virginia, and Virginia herself. Nor did it stop there, for National importance was given this Junior Festival of Music the like of which, according to the National Junior Counselor, Mrs. Grace Godard, has not been afforded in a Junior Festival in America.

Virginia and the weather man gave the festival a glorious reception. Starting with the Richmond reception in which many distinguished musicians from that city in behalf of the Richmond Music Clubs, entertained our guests at the John Marshall Hotel, to the closing of the Junior program everything was truly magnificent.

The significant thing growing out of the Junior Festival is what Mr. Strick has been trying to do since coming to Farmville, namely, "create a love for beauty in music and interest in the children of Virginia." This has been done in a way that was believed impossible and no public performance of any kind has received such comment as the Junior Festival in history.

It would be futile to discuss the many and varied matters which were brought out at the Festival, but Miss Julia Fuqua, state president of the Federation of Music Clubs of Virginia said "we want this Festival to be the Junior Festival of Virginia and take in every county—that is what we want". When such important officers as our state president sees the significance of this festival and wishes it to spread itself throughout the state it must be truly heartening

Continued on page three

DR. J. FRANCIS COOKE IN LECTURE TAKES "HORIZONS" AS SUBJECT

Dr. James Francis Cooke, in his lecture on Saturday morning in the auditorium took as his subject "Horizons." In it he stated:

Neo-negroid pathos, not the real emotional reflex of the black man, and Jazz have overwhelmed the greatest romantic asset of America, which is the charm of the spirit of chivalry of the South. Our ancient frontier of chivalry found its boundaries on a line running from Baltimore, through Louisville, to San Antonio; and the soul of romance of the poetic land to the southward captured its strongest admirers in the North. The courtliness of the gentle folk of Baltimore, Annapolis, Richmond, Fredericksburg, Charleston and Savannah, combined with the sparkling sensuous fascination of the Andalusian senors and senoritas of St. Augustine and the Parisian beaux and bells of New Orleans, made artistic soil which, alas, save for Gottschalk, Lanier, Cable and a few others has been handed over to the Negro. Here was a rare civilization with a wholly inadequate expression. John Powell, pianist, philosopher and composer, has been pointing to it in his splendid works and should be enthusiastically supported.

No one can belittle the beautiful and intensely moving Negro spirituals; but after all, they are for the most part but modifications of the

Continued on page three

MOTHERS' DAY PROGRAM IS VERY IMPRESSIVE

A very impressive Mothers' Day program was given in the Student Building auditorium Sunday night at ten o'clock. The soft glow of candles lent a touch of sacredness to the occasion as a small group gathered there. Adele's talk on the part which mothers play in our lives was ended by an appropriately beautiful poem. "Mother Machree" was sung by Irene Leake as the curtain of the stage was parted showing a living framed portrait of "Mother" posed by Miss Grenels. The program was ended by repeating the Y. W. C. A. motto.

FRESHMAN CLASS LEADS WEEKLY PRAYERS

Prayers were led by members of the Freshman Class during the past week. The most popular themes were love and service and their application to college life.

On Tuesday evening Dorothy Leonard had as her topic, "Service for the Living". She brought out the need of helping people when they are alive when they can enjoy one's help and be benefited by it.

Virginia Hamilton also talked on "Service". She said that here at school there are many opportunities for students to render services to others. No matter how small, these may be, they go a long way in mak-

Continued on page three

Sodalitas Latina Issues Magazine

The following girls were elected to hold office next year at the meeting of Sodalitas Latina Wednesday night, May 6:

President	Lucy Fitzgerald
Vice-President	Joyce Sturn
Secretary	Josephine Smith
Treasurer	Evelyn Williams
Reporter	Mary Connolley
Historian	Ann Wingo

Those elected as members of the staff of the club magazine, Tributum, were:

Editor-in-Chief .... Frances Crawford
Business Manager .... Irwin Staples

The other members of the staff will be chosen by the editor next year.

Sodalitas Latina is proud to announce that the third issue of Tributum is ready for distribution. This will be the last issue this year, and all members of the club are asked to claim their copies.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

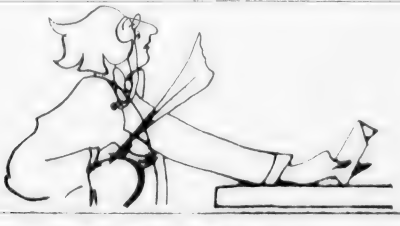
Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA MOORE, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34



Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOT RITCHIE, '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

"Music Exalts Life"

Dr. Cooke tells us that through the knowledge and use of music we may acquire a high degree of alertness and efficiency of mind as well as a broader horizon, the width and depth of which is beyond human estimation.

Centuries past the young blood of ancient civilizations was trained in the art of music as the child of today is grounded in the essentials of his mother tongue.

This May we have witnessed the first Junior Music Festival . . . . . the final realization of a dream long nurtured within the heart of a noble woman, and we have experienced a keen sensation of joy and appreciation towards the promoters of such a beneficial enterprise.

May Youth never be denied the Guardianship and later the Companionship of so resourceful a Muse for it is through her that he may find as the Greek youth before him, the Exalted Life.

Be Ye Ants Or Grasshoppers?

If you are a member of the "Royal Society of Indolent Grasshoppers" take heed for in less than nineteen days we shall be thrown into a maddening maelstrom of mental hazards; the platform of which shall stand for "The survival of the fittest." Your contemporaries being affiliated with "The Diligent Society of Industrious Ants" shall find it of little use to lend an ear to the warning since they have constructed their house of knowledge upon a solid foundation which shall outlast the fury of whatever turmoil the near future might hold. Grasshoppers, learn to profit by the Ants' philosophy of industry for after all you shall never find peace of mind and happiness while living in such a precarious state.

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

Expecting a more or less profesional treatise on elementary teaching, the Seniors and Sophomores met over tea and cakes only to hear a most amazing discusion of matrimony.

We hope that Budsey and Citty don't have the same straying characteristics that their luggage seems to have.

It's a shame there aren't more topics for conversation around school—perhaps some people wouldn't harp on one certain thing too much.

As for being tactful, ask Alice Stiedman how she does it.

Nancy St. Clair says there is a place in the world for everything. There's a place for love 'n a place for love, 'n another place for love.

We often wonder what the people in Annex would do on Tuesday nite if it weren't for trunks.

My idea of a person who is slightly off the track is one who would call Frank Smoot "quiet and retiring."

Along with white gardenias on hats this season, we're beginning to wonder about yellow linen suits.

Some people thought we were having a music festival last week. Others thought we were inaugurating the President of the United States.

Instead of S. T. C., it should be S .M. C.—"State Matrimonial College." Ask Mary Brightwell.

The government's going to get you if you don't look out!

Mary Alice Young sez it is not that pleasure and study can't be mixed, but who wants to mix it with any study?

BEAUTY

Meredity? Environment? Is either of these the controlling factor in the development of character and personality?

Having never been answered conclusively, this question is still an open one—but it is generally inferred by those who cannot tip the scales either way that the influence is very well divided between the two.

Taking for granted that one's heredities are of the very best, the administration and preceding administrations have done their utmost to provide for us a delightfully inspiring environment, seemingly with the idea that beauty of surroundings should bring with it beauty of character.

With this as their goal splendid minds have worked together to create around their Alma Mater the air of refinement and cultural beauty which emanate from the classic calm of her colonnade, which covers, as do the vines the walls of her majestic buildings and which enrobes the stateliness of her many famous statues.

CAMPUS TAX PASSED AT WASHINGTON & LEE

Freshmen at Washington and Lee are punished by paddling at the hands of the Vigilance Committee, a group of husky sophomores appointed by the executive committee. The president of the committee is an outstanding members of the senior class.

When a frosh is sent before the committee, he reports at Newcomb Hall at 7:30 o'clock. His two paddles are collected by a member of the committee, and, after waiting on the second floor till his turn comes, he is conducted to the third floor by one of the smaller members of the committee. There the executive committee officers try his case, dismiss him if he pleads not guilty, and turn him over to the president of the "V. C." if he pleads guilty.

OVER THE ROTUNDA

Got a date tonight, Frances? Who? Joe! S'funny—imagine your dating Joe. Have I got one? Well, you see it's this way—Oh, in a hurry? Have a good time. Tell Joe hello for me.

Hello Greaves where are you going all slicked up? Oh, date? Why no I haven't tonight—its like this— Oh, all right—have a good time! Going to the show? I know it will be good. Can I walk around to the Rotunda with you? Guess I'll take a look at the dates, they're usually a right ill-assorted bunch—Those Follies are going to be a knockout and I would like to go.

Hello Antrim, haven't you got a date either? Fine! You know Antrim, it's awfully irksome to have to dress for dates isn't it and then to have to fish for conversation for several hours.

Oh, there's a boy from home—Bill Jones. Pity the girl he is sending up for is such a mess. Wonder who she is?

Say, who is that with Greaves, with the dark fringe on the Shakesperian brow and the merry twinkle of the practical jokester in his eye?

And who is that girl dressed like Greta? That Lois would certainly distract any young man's intentions.

Say girl, what are you telling me to stand back for can't I look down if I want to. I want to see! Get outa my way!

Here come some more girls down, looking like they mighta dressed in five mintes in the dark! Hello girls, look mighty good.

There's that little prune Bill Jones still in a swivet. He's sent up for fifty girls, I know. Wish he'd find himself a date and get out of here. Guess he's signing up the last straw now.

Here comes Aunt Lucy with a slip, hope I've got a long distance call. Why she is headed for me! Hello, Lucy, what! What! Gentleman to see me? Which one Lucy, which one quick! That one!

No, Lucy, don't you all try to revive me—just let me take the count. Good night.

ALUMNAE NEWS

The Richmond Times-Dispatch of May 10 contained a picture of Mrs. Gilbert Howell Parker of Petersburg, one of the spring brides. Before her marriage to Mr. Parker on March 30 she was Miss Margaret Elizabeth Mackasey of Petersburg.

After receiving her degree from Farmville S. T. C., Miss Ella Walton Hammock of Crewe entered St. Elizabeth's Hospital Training School. She was a member of the class which received its diplomas Tuesday evening, May 12.

In April Mrs. William Cabell Flournoy of Lexington spoke at South Boston to a large gathering of the members of the South Boston, Halifax, Virgilina and Clover Woman's Club. The meeting was followed by an informal reception given in honor of Mrs. Flournoy by the South Boston Club. Mrs. Flournoy is a former historian of the Virginia Division of the U. D. C., present chairman of the Jefferson Davis Memorial Foundation and vice-president of the Virginia Federation of Woman's Clubs.

THREE YEARS AGO TODAY

Farmville S. T. C. won the debate with Harrisonburg S. T. C.

Athletic Association installation services were held.

The folk lore of various nations assembled upon the campus, which was transformed into a village "green", and celebrated their May Day in accordance with their own customs.

The "Voice," unable to get out a spring issue of the magazine, will edit this column for the rest of the year.

MAX DOES HIS STUFF

It was a warm day in early September. The campus was still very green and pretty. There was a bustle and stir in the buildings which the old halls had not re-echoed for a good three months. Old friends were greeting each other happily; Freshmen slipped shyly by glad to be unseen. The co-eds had on their brightest smiles.

The College Drug was certainly being rushed on such a hot day and after the tiresome ride. Dick Gordon drifted nonchalantly into the Drug.

"Hi, Dick, how's the ole fellow?" Ken slapped him on the shoulder.

"Fine, ole boy. How's yourself?"

In a few minutes he was surrounded. Was he not the football hero of last year? Yes, and quite popular, too.

A bunch of co-eds came gaily into the Drug. The old parrot in the cage squawked as they were seated very near him and one almost overturned his cage.

"Oh, Dot, have you heard the latest?"

"No, what?" she asked, all excitement.

"They say there's a new fellow here who will walk off and make Dick think he is a amateur. He's from another College and enters as a Junior. Polly told the other girls, their heads close together. She sat back, "Boy, he's good looking. He's a hum-dinger! I've seen him." she added with an important air.

"Well, what do you think about that?" exclaimed Ann.

"I can't wait to see the games" added another and so the general hub-bub continued.

About that time the young man under discussion entered the Drug escorting Bev. Walsh to a booth near the rear of the room.

"Oh,' sighed Polly, "Isn't he good-looking, but he's already got 'im a girl."

The others laughed at her comedy, but agreed that he was handsome.

Thus was the entrance of Max Comtois, our hero!

Time just flew, as it always does in good times. The Freshmen were given a good introduction into College life and everything else ran very smoothly.

The day arrived, as they usually do, for the first great game between the classes. Max had been placed on the opposite team to Dick. He stood his six feet well, in his football togs. Looking up into the bleachers he noted two large deep blue eyes filled with anxiety over his part of the game. He knew for they loved each other. He would fight doubly hard for her and to have her with him that night. He and Dick had almost come to blows over who would take Bev. to the dance. She had decided by saying the one whose side won should take her. Ah, how he——

The pistol shot—he bolted by Dick, grabbed the ball and carried it thirty five yards. The game was on and what a game! It seemed to Bev to be a fight between Max and Dick. At the end of the first half the score was 13-6 in favor of Dick's team. My how he gloated and smiled his "I-told-you-so" smiles at Bev. There was a frown between her pretty brows. She was anxious.

The boys came running out. The second half was beginning.

Max received the ball at the beginning. Dick spilled him. Again, he made a high jump for the ball. Dick caught his as before, but Max shook him off and went like a streak of lightning by the others, jumping, dodging, and shaking them off until he reached the goal. A touchdown!

Continued next week

SOCIALS

Martha von Schilling and Rene Greaves attended the dances in Lexington this week-end.

Loulie Milliner, Josie Spencer and Toodles Booth spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

The following girls were guests in the Faris home in Red Hill this week-end: Jo Snead, Betsy Wilkinson, Miss Potts, Chub Denit, Betty Watts Mary Custis Burrell, Harriett and Sue Moomaw, Margaret Banks and Janet Harris.

Catherine Marchant attended the dances at V. P. I. this week-end.

Helen Shawen spent the week-end at her home in Newport News.

Annie Denit was vistiing in Salem this week-end.

Anne Guy was in Hampton for the week-end.

Jessie Watkins and Nancy Boykins spent the week-end in Emporia.

Martha Sanders, Dot Ritchie, Mary Harrison and Virginia Lamb were in Petersburg this week-end.

Mary Brightwell spent the week-end in Pamplin.

Margaret Gathright was in Richmond this week-end.

Nancy Harrison, Julia Faris and Margaret Banks attended a dance in Fork Union Friday night.

Rebekah Ogburn was in Sunny Side for the week-end.

Martha Kello spent the week-end with her parents in Ivor.

Charlotte Hutchins spent the week-end with Katherine Claud in Drewryville.

Happy Hughes attended the dances at Duke this week-end.

Laura Smith was at her home in London Bridge this week-end.

Meg Herndon attended the dance in Fork Union Saturday night.

Nancy DeBerry spent the week-end in Portsmouth.

Martha Anne Laing was in Washington this week-end.

The Zeta Tau Sorority had a dinner party in the banquet room on Monday night, May 11. Covers were laid for twenty, the honor guests being Mrs. von Schilling of Hampton, Virginia, and Miss Mary Nichols of Farmville, Va.

E. T. C. SENIORS ENTERTAIN SOPHOMORES

The Senior Elementary Teachers Club was hostess on Monday evening at an informal party for the Sophomore elementary teachers. From 6:45 to nearly eight o'clock the Student Building lounge was the scene of much gaiety.

Miss Pierce talked to those present about the advantages of a degree. Her attitude seems to be that it is a great aid to matrimony as well as to getting a good job. Dr. Jarman made a short talk on the same subject, that of getting a degree, and added that knowing each other also meant a lot. From what Dr. Wynne said, he does not think people are much good unless they come back for a degree.

Delightful refreshments were served. After Dr. aJrman sang the "End of a Perfect Day" and several other songs everybody joined in "Good Night Ladies" and the party was over.

WRITING CERTIFICATES

Continued from page one

Emily McAllister
Ruby Owen
Addie Leigh Parker
Susan Pugh
Velma Quarles
Sarah Lee Scott
Virginia Thornton
Edith L. Wall
Helen Warren
Mary F. Cannaday
Isabel Jones
Janie Dodson
Audine S. Neblett
Dorothy H. Ford
Louise Brame
Annie E. McKenney
Martha C. Godsey

JUNIOR FESTIVAL GRAND SUCCESS

Continued from page one

to those who planned it.

Program, Saturday, May 9: S. T. C., 10 o'clock:

Opening hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King"'; invocation, Dr. Frederick Diehl; address of welcome, Dr. J. L. Jarman; introduction of guests, Alfred H. Strick; presentation of flowers; lecture of music, Dr. James Francis Cooke; recital, Major C. T. Tittmann; piano solo, Miss Olive Ralston; group of songs, Harrison Christian.

1:00 p. m.—Buffet luncheon at Longwood complimentary to guests, courtesy Orchestra and Choral Club of S. T. C.

Opening Ceremonies

America

Greeting—Dr. Asa D. Watkins, president Junior Music Festival.

Welcome—Dr. J. L. Jarman, president State Teachers College.

Response: Mrs. Elmer J. Ottaway, National president Federation of Music Clubs; Mrs. Grace Godard, National Junior Counselor Federation Music Clubs; Miss Julia E. Williams, editor National Junior Bulletin Federation of Music Clubs; Mrs. Cora Cox Lucas, National Chairman Choir Extension; Mrs. J. Norman Wills, National Chairman Junior Orchestras and Bands; Mrs. Kathryn R. McClelland, National Chairman Junior Contests; Mrs. Joseph P. Byron, State President Federation Music Clubs of Maryland; Miss Julia Fuqua, State President Federation Music Clubs of Virginia; Mrs. James P. Buchanan, National Chairman Music in the Home; Mrs. Sidney F. Small, National Choral Chairman, Junior Division; Dr. James Francis Cooke, President Presser Music Company, etc.

Prologue

Freshman Class, S. T. C., Miss Mary Frances Hatchett, leader.

Introducing theme "Music Exalts Life": Trumpeters, heralds, standard bearers, English courtiers, French troubadours, German minnesingers, Spanish dancers, Italian singers, Russian peasants, pilgrims.

Three hundred voices enter amphitheatre singing "God of Our Fathers"

Vested choir under direction of Miss Louise McCormick.

Program Festival Chorus

1. ..... "Morning Prayer
"Dring to Me Only With Thine Eyes"
3 ..... "Santa Lucia"
4 .... "March of the Men of Harlech"
5 ..... "The Loreley"

Training School, S. T. C.: Alfred H. Strick Music Club in presentation of "folk songs", Miss Ida W. Penny director; Harmonica Band in presentation of "folk melodies", Miss Georgia Norris, director.

6 .... "Many Flags in Many Lands"
7 ..... "Cradle Song"
8 ..... "All Through the Night"

Toy Symphonies Charlotte County and Lynchburg.

9 .... "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny"
10 ..... "Sing! Young America, Sing"

Choral Club S. T. C. and Hampden-Sydney Glee Club, "Pilgrim's Chorus."

Massed chorus .... "Now Thank We All Our God."

Orchestra accompaniment, Miss Lizabeth Purdom, director; piano—Miss Elizabeth Taylor and Miss Josephine Smith.

COTILLION CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The Cotillion Club met recently and elected the following officers for 1931 and 1932:

President ..... Helen Cover
Leader ..... Martha Sanders
Secretary ..... Martha Walters
Reporter ..... Martha Moore

Margaret C. Varner
Lydia D. Harrell
Mary McKissick
Hazel Finch

AMONG OUR CAPS AND GOWNS

JESSIE CARR SMITH

"A perfect woman, nobly planned
To warn, to comfort and command"

This is our Jessie. Always ready to help and serve, even willing to comfort in time of trouble and stress and a leader always. A member of Alpha Kappa Gamma for leadership and Alpha Phi Sigma for scholarship, she combines the two for perfect citizenship in school life.

This year she held editorship of the Rotunda and gave the school the best paper it has ever had, and as a member of the Student Standards Committee she has helped to make the standards of the whole school higher.

When Jessie leaves school this year her classmates will miss a sincere friend and a jolly good companion. The school will miss a willing worker and a true leader.

To her we extend the best wishes for a successful and happy life and hope she will never forget the school to which she has meant so much.

ELLA CARROLL

There are people who can work well—and others who can play well, but when you find the ability for both—then you have a rare combination. When we think back that Ella was elected the most intellectual girl in school, and a little later was elected maid-of-honor in May Day, we realize how well Ella can adjust herself to her work and to her play. She also held the honor of being business manager of May Day.

Ella's talent has been recognized by two honor societies, and it was with great success that she served the Rotunda staff of '31 as circulation manager.

So Ella—we hail thee—not only a Senior—but one of our ideal Seniors.

DANCERS INSTRUCTED BY CHALK AND BOARD

Turkey, the land of veils and harems is undergoing a style revolution. According to Mustapha Kemal, the Turks will be "fools and ignoramuses" if they hesitate to wear morning coats or lounge suits. Have you ever heard of a ruler giving a ball and interrupting it to call for chalk and blackboard to instruct the dancers in reading and writing, or styles? Prizes are offered by the ruler to the lady who dances the best, or talks without stuttering.

SPORTING EVENTS AND MEET NOT FAR OFF

Next Monday and Tuesday four great baseball teams will clash in two of the most exciting baseball games on record. A Harvard and Yale game would be boring in camparison. On Monday the freshmen will meet the sophomores with such determination that the sophs must have to look to their colors to keep up courage. The juniors and seniors will meet in friendly rivalry on Tuesday, each determined to win. All of the teams are in good form, and each girl is determined to hit "Prince Edward on the head." Don't miss Mary B. Fraser's home runs or Henrietta Taylor's "bunts". Come out and support your colors!

On Wednesday the track meet will be held. If you have been practicing, be sure to sign up for those events you wish to enter. If you are not entering, come out to see the ease and skill with which the "jumpers, hurdlers" and "throwers" perform. You'll be proud of your class; be sure to back them up. After the track meet a baseball game between the faculty and a team chosen from the students will play. Don't fail to see your favorite teacher play ball.

The championship base ball game will be played Thursday. What class will be victorious and add ten points to her cup?

Friday the archery tournament will be held. There will be not one Robin Hood, but many. They may all hit the bulls eye, but it's hard to tell who will hit it most.

Saturday morning in chapel awards will be given. Come to the athletic field every day next week and see if you can guess who will win them.

FRESHMAN CLASS LEADS IN WEEKLY PRAYERS

Continued from page one

ing the life of others, as well as the life of the one who renders them, happier and more pleasant.

On Thursday evening Elizabeth Kelly talked on "The Demonstration of Love". She said that our love is shown mainly through kind and loving thoughts, words, and deeds.

Freshman prayers ended with a discussion on "Beauty" led by Adeline Parker. She particularly emphasized the beauty that we see in Nature about us everyday.

"Love-making is the same as it always was."

"How can you tell?"

"I've just read of a Greek maiden who was sitting listening to a lyre in the moonlight."

DR. COOKE LECTURES AT THE FESTIVAL

Continued from page one

European and American hymn types. As for Jazz, we have here an Africanization of Irish Jigs and Scotch Strathspreys, combined with the slop and slime of Western honkey-tonks and served up by the amazingly clever graduates of Kiev and Odessa who make the musical background for the post-Hammerstein Tin Pan Alley of New York City. This reached its apothesis when the talented and amusing "black-face" son of a Jewish rabbi frantically bellowed paeans to "mammy" before delighted Broadway audiences apparently wholly incapable of realizing the artistic incongruity of such a performance. This was no more the South than Atlanta is Leningrad. Aren't we funny? Of course such an anchronism should have been resented by Southerners of both white and black. Instead it became the sensation of a short-lived day and earned all of the interest ed parties vast sums of money.

Pray and pray hard that new writ- rs and composers of real understanding and sympathy will arise in the South with the genius and calibre to voice the wondrous charm of the land before it is ground under the wheels of modern industrialism. That rare and elegant civilization should be an unceasing inspiration to American creative workers.

We would like to have your orders —for—

DRUGS, STATIONERY, BEAUTY PREPARATIONS

Canada Drug Co.

Farmville, Virginia
Phone 17 Next to Baldwin's

C. E. CHAPPELL COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, cigarettes and soda

Main Street

FARMVILLE VIRGINIA

SCHEMMEL Conservatory of Music

Piano, vocal, violin, theory, harmony, aesthetics, etc.

REASONABLE TUITION RATES

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

WHERE QUALITY MEETS PRICE

Farmville's Best Department Store

Kerami Coats Reduced to $5.85

Lovely Spring Coats priced $9.95 to $19.50

New snow flecked suits $5.95 and $9.95

lapin trimmed

$1.50 full fashion hose, special 98c

THE HUB DEPARTMENT STORE

"Did you know Jim was a magician?"

"No! Is he?"

"Yes, only this morning he turned his car into a lamp post."

"Ah, my boy you must have used much patience and equanimity to capture such a fine fish."

"No sir; I used worms."

Jeff: "What is more beautiful than pretty girls to behold!"

John: "Such grammar! You mean to be held."

Jane: "How did you happen to fail on your history exam?"

"Happy": "Why, that crazy prof asked me about things that happened before I was born!"

"Never mind my order, waiter. I can't eat where there's a smell of paint."

"If you'll wait just a minute, sir, those two young ladies will be going."

"You're too conceited about your looks."

"Not at all. I don't think I'm half as good-looking as I really am."

"Meet me at the corner tonight at seven."

"All right, what time will you be there?"

"I caught my husband flirting!"

"Yeh, that's how I got mine, too."

"I've just swallowed a bottle of ink!"

"Things certainly do look black for you!"

"There goes a man who cheated me out of fifty grand."

"Yeah?"

"Yeah! He wouldn't let his daughter marry me."

After all, you know, the best jokes aren't printed; no indeed! They're running around all over school!

"Have any of your family connections been traced?"

"Yes, an uncle of mine was traced as far as Canada once."

Martha: "How can a girl keep her youth?"

Frances: "Get him young, treat him rough, and never introduce him to another girl."

"I'd like a present for my son."

"How old is he?"

"He's a Junior in college."

"Sorry, you'll have to get a prescription."

"Did you fill your date last nite?"

"I think so. She ate everything in sight."

What every college girls needs is an unbreakable father.

How to tell a professor from a student: Ask him what "it" is. If he says it's a pronoun he's a professor.

Teacher: "You missed my class the other day."

Doris Walton: "Not in the least I assure you."

At the Eaco Theatre Week of May 18-23

MONDAY—Robert Mongomery in "Shipmates," supported by Dorothy Jordan and Cliff Edwards. Here is Montgomery's first starring picture, and what a picture! There is no resisting him in this one—the handsome, popular idol of the screen. He is only a gob, but he picked the admiral's daughter and showed the whole navy he had the stuff to win her—a fighting lover whether on the sea or on a ballroom floor. Just grand entertainment. One day only. Don't miss it! Also Laurel and Hardy's latest comedy, "Laughing Gravy."

TUESDAY — "The Lady of the Lake," from Sir Walter Scott's classical poem, with specially selected cast. Here is a picture for the entire family and one that will especially appeal to lovers of literature. Bagpipes peal and harps resound in this epic filmed on the banks of Loch Lamond. The film recaptures romantic beauty, is splendidly acted; the scenery is beautiful, and the vocal and musical synchronization of a 60-voice chorus combined with Shilkret's Victor Concert orchestra, playing typical Scotch melodies, mark this an outstanding production. An evening of high class entertainment not to be missed. Appropriate short subjects will also be shown.

WEDNESDAY — "Stepping Out" with Charlotte Greenwood, Lelia Hyams, Cliff Edwards and a great cast of fun-makers. Here is one of the best comedies of the season. It centers around Hollywood and two husbands who are producing a picture. Their wives, finding them making merry with two actresses, set out with two college boys to do likewise, and the screaming situations that follow will keep you in high glee until the very last scene. A great picture for the fun-loving fan. Also Aesop Fable, "Office Boy."

Special added attraction—On this night there will be a Style Show of the very latest afternoon and sports frocks for spring, and modeled by young ladies from State Teachers College. The Style Show will immediately follow the feature picture at about 9:15 p. m.

THURS. and FRI. — Constance Bennett and Robert Montgomery in "The Easiest Way," supported by Anita Page and Adolphe Menjou. Get ready for the thrill of a lifetime, for the great stage play that caused world-wide discussion is here as the wonder picture of the year with a cast of the screen's finest players. It is the frank story of a girl who sinned—who was torn between love and luxury's lure. Which did she choose? She had charm—he had money—but real love can't be bought. The ending will amaze you; in fact, the whole picture will give you a grand treat. Also comedy, "Just a Bear."

SATURDAY—"Ladies' Man" with William Powell, Kay Francis and Carole Lombard. Out of nowhere comes this stranger to win a fortune and a spot in the smart set—to use women as stepping stones for his sinister purpose—until he meets the one woman. A hundred women adore him. A hundred powerful men hate him, because of his power over their women. Yet one woman is more dangerous to him than dynamite. A fascinating, sophisticated story with William Powell at the height of his career. Also Fox News and comedy.

Note—Saturday morning at 10 o'clock we will show "Rain or Shine" with Joe Cook. This will be a benefit show for the Farmville High School Patrons League. A really great show for old and young alike and one that merits your support because the money will be turned over to the league.

One show each night at 8 o'clock. Daily matinees, 4 p. m.

Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees; children under 12, 15c to each show.

Down at Birmingham-Southern College they have a May Day festival that is respectable.

Styles Towards Commencement

Graduates of the College and High Schools eagerly await the hour when they will receive their diploma.

For this occasion, you will want to look your best.

Dresses especially styled for the graduates, have been purchased, and are now on display at our store.

A dress for every type and in two price groups that deserve "honorable mention."

$4.88 and $7.88

We are graduates in the art of making choice style selections.

The New York Dress Store

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

Next Door to Southside Drug Store

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency

(Fresh Films)

Let Us Develop

YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete Line GREETING CARDS

Just One Block from Campus

Dressmaking

Dressmaking, Tailoring, Attiring and Remodeling. Prices reasonable. Work guaranteed.

MRS. SCHWARTZ

306 Pine Street.

FOR THE LATEST IN

Sheet Music, Costume Jewelry, Watches, Watch Bracelets and Musical Instruments

GO TO

Lynn's Jewelry Store

MAIN STREET

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We're Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE!

McIntosh Drug Store

Farmville, Va.

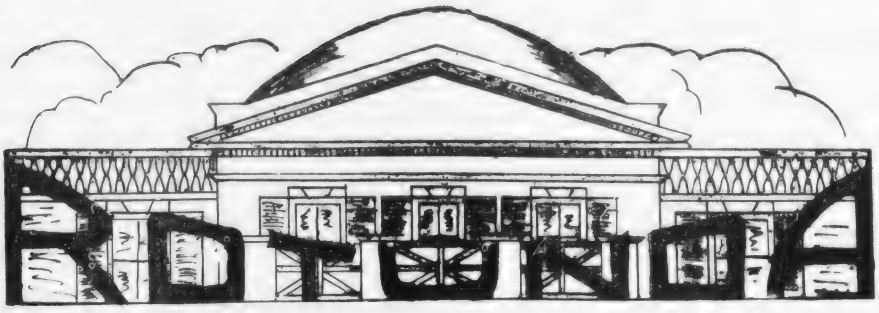
"Drugs and Drinks"

DOWNTOWN SECTION

TRUNKS SHIPPED

All girls who wish trunks shipped by bus to Lynchburg or Richmond, to the bus terminal $1.00. Delivered anywhere in the city for $1.50. Good to make connections to other points fro Lynchburg or Richmond. Call

G. F. BUTCHER



"The Convenient Store"

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP AND LEATHER USED

TRY-OUT FOR CHORAL CLUBS

COME TO TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Vol. XI. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 20, 1931 No. 30

Local Chapter of Beta Pi Theta Wins Loving Cup

Pi Zeta Has Functioned Most Efficiently According to Judges of the Contest

REWARD PRESENTED AT FINALS

The Pi Zeta chapter of Beta Pi Theta, national French fraternity, which was founded at S. T. C. last spring has been awarded a silver loving cup in the Efficiency Contest conducted by the national organization. Every year a loving cup, the gift of the L. G. Balfour Co., is presented to the chapter judged to have functioned most efficiently from May 1 to May 1. All chapters of the fraternity may enter the contest. "The decision is made from the records of the chapter as found in the files of the Executive Office, from the financial record of the chapter and from an efficiency report, together with a Scrapbook turned in by the chapters not later than May 1, and signed by the chapter president and faculty adviser. No chapter in financial arrears will be considered."

A recent letter from the Grand Counsellor and Executive Secretary, Mrs. Josef de Feher, announced the decision in favor of our chapter. The following is an extract from this letter:

"It gives me great pleasure to announce to you that your chapter, Pi Zeta, has been awarded the loving cup in the Efficiency Contest this year. I have informed Balfour of the decision and promised to let them know the date of your commencement in order that they may have the cup there for presentation along with the other cups, honors, etc.

"My heartiest congratulations on the winning. It was steady, regular pulling together that did it rather than any big spectacular event in your year's program."

Dr. Jarman Talks to Alpha Phi Sigma

The local chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma held its regular meeting on Tuesday night at which Dr. Jarman spoke to the fraternity on "Scholarship."

In his speech, Dr. Jarman told the members that the fraternity was purely scholastic. He said that the purpose of it was to foster and promote high scholarship among all students regardless of class. It was to emphasize scholarship in general education as well as departmental. To inspire freshmen to a higher scholarship at the very beginning of their college year was also a very definite purpose of the organization. In conclusion he stated the great value of a scholastic fraternity which created among all students a desire for higher scholarship.

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM

Saturday, June 6

9:00 ..... Reception

Sunday, June 7

8:00 ..... Baccalaureate Sermon

Monday, June 8

10:00 a. m. Sophomore Class Day Exercises

4:00 p. m., Senior Class Day Exercises

8:00 p. m. Senior-Sophomore Play "Maker of Dreams" Four Adventures in Spain

10:00 p. m. ..... Lantern Parade

Tuesday, June 9

10:30 a. m. Commencement Exercises.

1931 'Virginian' Has Come From the Press

With its theme from a sea legend, the 1931 "Virginian" has appeared. Copies have been going out to subscribers since Friday noon.

Around the story of Clytie, a sea nymph, who longed to see the great light above the sea and who awoke one dawn on a wooded isle where her sea horses had taken her, and beheld the dazzling light, the theme of this year's annual is centered.

Neptune, God of the Sea, adorns the cover of brown. Pictures of the sea, Clytie, her cave in pearls—all the art work is in green and carries out the sea theme.

Among the features in which this latest annual differs from annuals of the past years besides its theme are the slightly different arrangement of athletic pictures and the use of movie titles for the Junior write-ups.

TRY-OUTS BEING HELD FOR TWO CHORAL CLUBS

Mr. Alfred H. Strick has begun to hold try-outs for the Junior and Senior Choral Clubs next year. These try-outs will be held at intervals until the end of school.

Mr. Strick promises these clubs to be two of the largest and most wide-awake in school next year. The aim of the Junior Club will be to aid in various programs and school activities. The main objective of the Senior Club will be to give recitals in a number of cities throughout the State.

Y.W.C.A. Conference To be Held at Blue Ridge on June 5-15

A. J. Scott, Frances Crawford and Winston Cobb to Represent S. T. C.

The annual Y. W. C. A. conference will be held at Blue Ridge, N. C. from June 5 through June 15. A. J. Scott and Frances Crawford will represent the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet of S. T. C. Farmville at Blue Ridge, and Winston Cobb will be the undergraduate representative there.

Blue Ridge is situated on Black Mountain, twenty miles east of Asheville, North Carolina. Girls from colleges all over the south as well as noted speakers meet at Blue Ridge and discuss problems in their respective colleges. Interesting discussion groups are held at which different phases of a problem are studied. Wonderful help or hints are given, which are carried back home to the various colleges.

There is a social side to the conference also. Hikes to Lake Junaluska and other interesting points are looked forward to. Step-sings in the twilight, parties and entertainments in the evening are joined in with much enthusiasm on the part of the girls attending the conference.

In the winter Blue Ridge is the Robert E. Lee School for boys, but in the summer it becomes a veritable outing-place for Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. workers.

"THE VOICE" UNABLE TO PUBLISH LAST ISSUE

The staff of "The Voice" regrets to announce to its subscribers and contributors that, due to the prevalent financial depression which has not failed to effect S. T. C., it will be unable to publish the last issue of the magazine. However, in order to carry out its obligation to the fullest under the circumstances the literary column of the Rotunda is being edited by the V oice for the last month of school. In it are being published the stories and poems which would have gone into the last issue of the magazine had it been published. The staff wishes to express to its supporters its hearty and sincere appreciation of the splendid cooperation it has received this year and, again, its regret in being unable to publish the last issue which promised to be the crowning achievement of the year's work.

MISS IRENE LEAKE

Miss Irene Leake to Give Recital Friday

The Freshman Class is sponsoring a recital by Miss Irene Leake to be given in the auditorium on Friday, evening, May 22, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Leake has won three times in the State Atwater Kent Audition. Her singing is being widely and enthusiastically received.

She will give the following selections Friday evening:

A Pastoral ..... Veracini
Care Selve ..... Handel
Lo Here the Gentle Lark ..... Bishop
The Hills of Gruzia .....
..... Nicolai Mednikoff
Tell Me Oh Blue Sky .... V. Giannini
Fulfillment ..... Woodman
Prelude ..... Ronald
Yesterday and Today ..... Spross
The Second Minuet ..... Besley
Homing ..... Teresa Del Riego

Reserved seats go on sale at White Drug Co., Thursday and Friday.

THE MATH CLUB HOLDS QUARTERLY MEET

The Mathematics Club held its quarterly meeting Tuesday, May 12. Officers were elected for the coming year as follows:

President ..... Margaret Addleman
Vice-President ..... Doris Robertson
Sec.-Treas. ..... Marguerite Massey

These officers promise to be as successful as the ones for the preceding year. The Mathematics Club has been highly successful in stimulating interest in the higher branches of mathematics.

Junior Follies of 1931 Scores a Great Success

Dances, Representing Clocks, and Solo Dances Are Well Portrayed

MUCH ORIGINALITY IS SHOWN

The students of S. T. C. and Hampden-Sydney as well as townspeople had the chance Friday evening, May 15, of seeing the Follies of 1931, presented by the Junior Class of S. T. C.

Red lights in front of the auditorium, as on Broadway, announced: "See the Junior Follies." A red and white ticket booth held a charming ticket girl ready to sell tickets to attracted passers-by. Ushers in white stood waiting to show them to seats.

The curtain went up at eight, revealing a chorus of girls dressed in white with red jackets.

Martha Walters, Nancy Putney, Louise Munt and A. J. Scott proved to be the best "black-faces" possible; their jokes were thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. The chorus was well trained and won much applause, for their latest song hits.

The dances were unsually good, each representing a clock. Among these dances were two solo ones, one given by Miss Robertson and the other by little Betty Jane Jones of Petersburg.

The dance of the sun-dial marvelously portrayed by Miss Robertson, was lovely in shadows. The audience appreciating its beauty and lost in it, encored. Little Betty Jane Jones made those who saw her dance wonder if there were not really pixies or fairies still alive.

Nine people guessed correctly the clocks that the dances represented. Their answers were shuffled together and one was drawn. Jane Brown's answer was drawn. She received a clock as a prize.

In the grand finale, all the girls in the Follies were arranged as a clock and very enthusiastically sang, "It's Over."

Miss Ella Gardner Gives Lecture Here

Miss Ella Gardner, a national recreational leader, under the auspices of the physical education department, gave lectures here last Friday. Miss Gardner travels throughout the country teaching sources of recreation to be used especially for the school children.

From 2 p. m. until three-thirty she taught students of the college and teachers of the surrounding schools some very amusing and interesting recreational games. These included both active and singing games at four o'clock she talked to this group and other students of the physical education classes on ways of recreation. The audience was free to ask questions on any point which troubled them.

Students who attended were greatly benefited and received much valuable information. The work Miss Gardner is doing is appreciated. There is a hope that she will visit here again.

Senior Class Is Granted Request Made for Extension of Privileges at the College Here

Last week was the scene of much rejoicing on the part of the members of the Senior Class when Miss Mary and Dr. Jarman granted them the requests made. The Senior Class realizes that these privileges are not to be abused and for that reason they have agreed to see that no underclassmen makes use of them and that no senior abuses them. The underclassmen, realizing that some day they will be seniors, respect these privileges. They are as follows, (the old ones and the new ones):

1. Have choice of rooms in senior building.
2. Have permission to keep lights in until 11:00 p. m.
3. Have permission to go down town any time during the day on business.
4. Have permission to go to the down town post office when necessary.
5. Have permission to go to the show on week nights with dates. (Understood that not dates except out of town friends passing through town on business.)
6. Have permission to go to the drug store after night show (movie) provided they are on campus by 10:30 p. m. and provided they do not make a "loafing place" of the drug store.
7. That the Senior parlor in the main building be used for senior dates only.
8. That a committee of ten seniors be elected by the class to act as chaperones to games for underclassmen.

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virgina

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

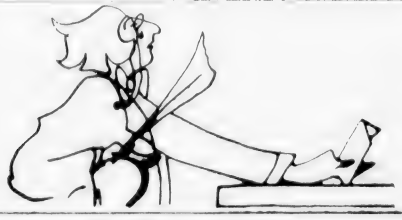
Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA MOORE, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34



Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOT RITCHIE, '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

The Privileged Few

To the privileged few, not aristocratic nobles in the rule of a monarch, but Seniors of 1931 who have become one of the privileged class in the last month of their reign, we wish to express our gladness that they have come into their birthright.

E'en as peasants of a far distant day recognized the right of the cultured to advantage, so do we. We are glad for the present seniors and, selfishly, for the future ones..

Should there be those of the bourgeoise who would usurp this recent power of the nobility it would lead to tirades against them. This is not a society in which the bottom rail can be on top. It is a gradually elevating, educating one in which by hard work a peasant, a bourgeoise, may climb step by step to the top. Democratic, systematic, liberal, it allows the best for each individual.

"To him who hath, it shall be given; from him who hath not, it shall be taken away."

The Seniors, rich in their lore of accumulated wealth, deserve the fair and the good. We wish for them all the beauty in the world as in ending they begin.

Ones of the lower classes, let us stop and take account of the wealth of character, ideals, personality, knowledge we have accumulated. Let us see if we will be worthy of wearing the vestments of the nobility. Will the College present the best to the world as it does this year when we receive our degree? Let us all make it so by faithfully promoting these ideals of this whole college societ y.

OVER THE TEACUPS

Don't talk to me! I've just written one term paper and I'm in the thick of another one! The next person who says movie to me I'm going to shoot! How about a dope and sandwich, you say? No! get out! Wait a minute! Will it take over ten minutes? I've got to get this in tonight; it was due this morning! Okay! Count me in.

Say, we've been down here an hour and I've got to get that paper! Well, hurry up, drink it quick, I'll wait! Hurry!

Gee, those movie pictures certainly do look swell, don't they? Got any money? Let's go. I love Robert Montgomery and Dorothy Jordan is precious. No, I've got to write that paper. Guess I can do it at supper time and catch a bite in the tea room later! Okay!

I have never been so hungry in my life. I'll have to go to supper and rush that term paper down in a jiffy right afterwards. I can leave out part of it anyway. It'll never be missed.

Stuck! If I could only get an inspiration now, I could finish this in a minute. Jane, how do you spell consternation?—that's what I'm in now. I'll spell it s-w-i-v-e-t. Do you guess they'll know what I mean? Tell me something to put willya? You're good at this! Shucks, I'm not in the mood to do this. Let's go out on the campus for a while it's so hot. Think while we're out there, can't we?

Aren't those stars lovely? Look at that big red moon coming up will you. I wish it were summer and I was at home! Let's stay out a while longer, Starlight, star-bright, first star I've seen tonight. I wish that paper were done and I'd got B on it. Oh well, I'll do it up right tonight and hand it in the first thing in the morning. Let's go to see that show again that moon makes me feel sentimental.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Miss Virginia Updike and Miss Thelma Maddox, who are teaching in Blackstone High School this year, spent several days in Farmville last week recuperating from an automobile accident which occurred near Worsham.

• • •

Miss Sally Guy Davis, district agent of Lynchburg was in Prince Edward County Wednesday and Thursday to score thirty-five porches which had been entered in an improvement contest, running until September 1.

• • •

Miss Mary Fielding Taliaferro was one of the two butterfly escorts of "Queen Shenandoah VIII" at the recent Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester.

• • •

Miss Katherine Pannill was a member of the committee on "Design" for the costumes for the Apple Blossom Festival.

• • •

The engagement of Miss Celeste Bennett to Thomas Chambliss Williams of Chester has been announced.

• • •

Miss Erma West and O. O. Atto of Shipman were married May 9 at the home of the bride at Floyd. Mrs. Atto taught for eight years at Oak Ridge and Shipman. The groom is assistant principal of the Lovingston High School.

• • •

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mary B. Gray to Roland Foster, both of Cartersville, in Lexington May 5. Mrs. Foster has been a teacher for many years in the Rockbridge county schools.

• • •

Mrs. Ruth Richardson Pugh died May 14 in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Richmond. She is survived by her husband, her parents and two brothers.

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

In this ole world
Of goodness and guile
A smile beast a frown
By many a mile

When Jeff—chief catcher for H.-S. baseball team—asked A. . to sign up for a life's game—she had to go and ruin it Jby asking "where is the diamond?"

In spite of Prohibition:
Cucumbers get pickled
Golf balls get teed-up,
Hinges get oiled,
Lamps get lit,
Walls get plastered,
Sponges get soaked,
Prunes get stewed.

Mary Alice Young says that even if we are denied the privilege of going without hose, it shows we were winning to face bare facts.

What ho—? it has been said that it should be called the "Apple Brandy Festival."

There are many of us who are wondering if the S. T. C. girl who wrote to W. & L. craving publicity for her alma mater—and incidently for herself has been satisfied.

As she "popped" her chewing gum we suddenly realized that some of our neighbors wer en't civilized.

Who said that the faculty meeting is just a little forget-to-gether?

MAX DOES HIS STUFF

(Continued from last week)

The greatest in the history of the school. The score began to rise — steadily—13-6; 13-12; 13-13; then 19-13; favoring Max—20-13; and on—the final score being 34-13 in Max's favor. Bev's frown exchanged with a smile as she ran to congratulate Max with "Oh, Max, you surely did do your stuff in this game." Then turning, she went over to speak to Dick before going out with Max.

Everything was perfect for a lovely garden dance, even the bright moon was at a dangerously, beautiful height. Max and Bev. glided out on the veranda to the strains of a waltz, "The Song of the Islands", her favorite.

Just then—all lights went out! Someone knocked Max in the head Although she clutched for him, Bev. was carried away.

The lights were gotten on as soon as possible and Max was gotten to his room. When he came to, an hour later, he jumped to his feet, shaking his head and ordered his coat. They tried to get him to lie down, again, but he told them he must find Bev. Others were already in the search, but he would go, so several of the other boys went with him.

In the meantime, Bev. had been put in a car and off they drove, although she struggled hard to release herself. Just outside of town the bandage was taken from her eyes and she saw that the other occupant of the car was Dick.

"Pretty little joke to play on cousin Max, wasn't it?"

She sat stubbornly silent not even answering his questions. He laughed and joked, but she only looked straight ahead. He seemed to enjoy his jokes immensely.

Finally—

"Dick, you have kept this up long enough, now. Take me back to school."

"Ah-ha, so the little girl wants to go back to school so early, eh? Well, not now, I brought you here to talk to myself."

"Well, I don't mind telling you right now that you are the bumest sport I ever met. Oh, yes (sarcastically) you could be a good one as long as you carried off all the banners, but just lose one and the—well, I've never seen such a bum loser in my life."

Dick flinched, but laughed.

"Silence is golden, but when she does speak—oo-o-oh!"

"Dick, do you realize how silly you have acted a swell as——"

But Bev. I wanted to be with you."

"Yeah!"

"Besides, Bev., think I have both of those disappointments."

"Oh, I know, but why not take 'em like a man. Look hoy you have messed things up. Can't you see how silly you've been; and you may have injured Max,too. Oh, if you have I can never forgive you, I'm afraid. Please, take me back."

"I'm sorry—I see now."

"Yes, this lovely night has been ruined for more than one."

As they turned to go back a car spun by and stopped in a double car length. The boys ran back.

"I'll settle with you for this, Dick."

"Max, honest, I'm awfully sorry. Honest, I'm sorry."

"Yes, I really believe he is. Are you hurt?"

"No. Just my feelings."

"Ha-ha-ha. Then, accept his apology this time, won't you?"

"If it wasn't for you, Bev.—"

As Bev. stepped from the car, Max caught her hands and led her to his car. Then, Max repeated his love for her and they were very happy.

One night later, the moon shone, again, on happy faces. Max called at Bev's sorority house early the following evening.

"Bev, how about having dinner at the Ritz this evening?"

"De-lighted," emphasized the young lady.

About an hour later a striking young couple walked through the portals of the hotel. They were so engaged in their own conversation that they did not notice the knowing glances and smiles of ones who had themselves been in love.

THE RAVIN'

(Voice Staff with no apologies to Poe —nor anyone else)

Every Tuesday night so dreary, Voice staff ponders weak and weary,
Over money that it doesn't have,— and how to get some more;
No one's nodding; no one's napping,— ideas often come a-tapping
(Ideas always overlapping things the girls have done before)
And that only keeps us poor.

Ah, distinctly I'll remember, it was always bleak December
For the Voice Staff; how we trembled as the bills began to pour
In upon us; to our sorrow vainly we had sought to borrow
Funds enough to keep the wolf from coming to our office-door—
To the brown, dull-finished portal, publication office door—
Too much named there evermore.

There were times our souls grew stronger, then we'd hesitate no longer;
We would plunge in shaggy gambles that seemed naught but golden are:—
After that when we were teary and the way was dark and dreary
And no one was bright and cheery; no one smiling faces wore—
Then,—to show you we had backbone —all we sweet young ladies swore
Just to even up the score,
20 years after)
Back into that darkness peering, now no longer am I fearing
For the bills that have been running maybe twenty years, or more—
All are paid, for our chief Annie
Wrote a Scotchy, wise and canny
Doctor's dissertation on those fearful dreadful times of yore—
Sold it for a million dollars—for she'd filled it up with lore
Of the time that we got sore—
Left as high and dry as Noah
By societies (that bore
Us a grudge for being poor
Useless then—and evermore.

SOCIALS

The following girls spent the week-end in Richmond: Meg Herndon, Louise Borum, Ruth Peery, Dot Leonard, Norma Franklin and Helen Rose Cunningham.

Those who attended the V. M. I. dances this week-end were: Alice Steidtman, Jerry Lee, Mary Arthur Billups, Jac Lee, aMrtha Moore and Rene Greaves.

Irwin Staples and Polly Sheffield spent the week-end in their home at Burkeville.

Ida Mason Miller was the guest of her parents in Newport News this week-end.

Budsie Carter and Citty Cogbill were in Boydton this week-end.

Evelyn Jones spent the week-end at her home in Clarksville.

Frances Graham, Mary Howard, Lucille Owens and Sue Moomaw were in Roanoke this week-end.

Nancy Harrison and Honey Hamilton were guests of their parents in Petersburg this week-end.

Martha Brothers, Margaret Parker, and Katherine Logan spent this week-end in Salem.

Julia and Frances Martin and Virginia Witt were in Charlotte this week-end.

The following girls were in Blackstone: Louise Hartless, Eloise Perkins, Jane Grey Irby, Catherine Jones and Alice Marshall.

Katherine Royster, A. J. Scott, Frances Parker, Margaret Stiff, Charlotte Parish, Loulie Milner and Dolly Reed were in Lynchburg.

The following girls attended the dances in Charlottesville this week-end: Gazelle Ware, Patty Ellison and Tootsie Marchant.

Teel and Martha Faris and Polly White spent the week-end in Red Hill.

Mary Trimyer and Frances Rawlings spent the week-end in Norfolk.

Clara MacKenzie, Sue Pugh and Vay Abbitt were in Portsmouth this week-end.

Ruth Floyd spent the week-end in Covington.

BETA PI THETA HAS BANQUET

Beta Pi Theta fraternity had a banquet Saturday evening which the members hope will be the initial custom of the Zeta chapter at S. T. C.

The banquet table was lighted with yellow candles. A large center bowl of fleur-de-lis completed the color scheme in the colors of Beta Pi Theta. The menus were printed in French, and place cards were also the fleur-de-lis. The favors were silver bracelets with the Beta Pi Theta seal on them.

French was spoken altogether during the banquet, and the outgoing president, Mildred Maddrey made a short talk which was responded to by the new president, Eleanor Davis. Everyone joined in singing French songs which gave a bit of fun to all.

As the chapter here was only established last spring there are very few alumnae, but the chapter was glad to have one of them, Ruth Owen, back.

Those present were: Mlle. Smithey, Draper, Mildred Maddrey, Eleanor Davis, Ruth Owen, Pauline Gibb, Alma Garlick, Alice Harrison, Sara Hubard, Louise Woodson, Mildred Steere, Virginia Gee, Alice Ribble, Bessie Lynch, Anne Rice and Martha von Schilling.

GRANDDAUGHTERS' CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR '32

The Granddaughters' Club at its meeting on Thursday, May 14 elected the following officers for the coming year:

Alice Rowell ..... President
Agnes Smith ..... Vice-President
Lucille Crute ..... Secretary
Nell Thomas ..... Treasurer

The club is planning and looking forward to a delightful and prosperous year.

VIRGINIAN STAFF HAS BANQUET IN TEA ROOM

The old Virginian staff had its annual banquet for the new staff in the tea room, May 19, at six o'clock.

The table was beautifully decorated with candles and flowers. Each one present found something there as a reminder of the years' work on the staff for the favors were odd things with a verse on them, supposed to represent the position each held on the staff. Loulie Millner very fittingly gave a toast to Elizabeth Taylor, the editor-in-chief of this year's annual. Different members of the old staff expressed the pleasure they had had working on the annual during the year.

Those present were the old and new staff, Miss Lucille Jennings, and Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle.

CUNNINGHAM LITERARY SOCIETY MEETS

The Cunningham Literary Society held its regular meeting Monday night in the Y. W. reception room. At this meeting the new officers for next year, which were elected at the preceding meeting were installed.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

Last week in one of our classes a learned instructor asked the cadets to come up and sit in the front seats and said that he would like to know why it is that no one wants to sit in the front of the room. Here are the reasons for it as printed in The Diamonback:

The "Why" of the Back Seat Student

1. Students take back seats because, by sitting in back seats the professor is led to believe that they are trying to avoid recitation and because of that suspicion, calls upon them for recitations, thereby affording them an opportunity of recitation, which, being students, they realized was a logical sequence and therefore occupied back seats.

2. Back seat students may enjoy greater comfort during hours of repose.

3. During quizzes, there is greater possibility of getting a bigger and better outlook on life.

4. Time consumed in walking to back of room shortens class hour.

5. Conversation may be carried on more successfully and "good" jokes can be pictorially demonstrated.

6. "Distance lends enchantment."

7. Unnecessary noises made by professor are less disturbing to contemplation.

8. In case of fire, one may laugh at other people while one is diving through rear windows.

9. Also, in case of fire, people in rear may toast marshmallows for greater length of time over coals created by burning bodies of friends.

10. In a number of classes, one sits in back seats because all front seats are taken.

11. Far-sighted students sit in back of room in order to maintain sanity.

12. Near-sighted students sit in back of room in order to maintain sanity.

13. Someone has to sit in back of room or else there wouldn't be any back of room—everything would be front of room.—The Diamonback.

The student members of the Radio Society at M. I. T. broadcasted the triangular crew race between Tech, Harvard and Princeton held Saturday.

Dozens of ambitious professors at various and sundry colleges have been staging "fake" shooting and assault scenes in classrooms to "prove and demonstrate the fallibility of evidence in criminal cases." The last one to try the plan was a professor of chemistry & toxicology at Temple who had himself shot at a scientific society meeting. Unfortunately, a cap pistol was used.

Rather than violate tradition, the manager of the hockey team at Harvard wears a derby to all hockey games.

JUNIOR WIN OVER SENIORS IN GOOD BASEBALL GAME

An intensely interesting baseball game was held Tuesday, May 19, when the Juniors and Seniors battled for the victory. Being their last game at S. T. C. the Seniors came in mourning with a black band around the arm. It was very sad. The Juniors were at bat first and scored 4 points. When the Seniors were at bat, Kathleen Hundley did such excellent and straight pitching that three outs were soon called on the Seniors.

The Juniors held the Seniors to a zero score through the second inning, but then the Seniors started adding to their score. With a rapid increase in scoring the Seniors added up a great many points to their credit before the end of the seventh inning. But, also, the Juniors added up their score and that more rapidly than the Seniors. Thus the score came to an end in favor of the Juniors, being 18 to 13.

The line-up was as follows:

Seniors		Juniors
Smith	c	Edwards
Simpson	p	Hundley
Hunter	1 b	Boswell
Maddrey	2 b	Quisenberry
Coleman	3 b	Clayton
Oliver	s s	Clingenpeel
Nuttall	r f
Hutchinson	l f

The last fight of the Seniors was a grand one and if they enjoyed it half as much as the onlookers did, they surely had a grand time. Here's hoping they bat the round world like they did that round baseball.

WESTINGHOUSE HAS PAYLESS VACATIONS

Employees of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company are being placed on vacation without pay for periods varying from two weeks to one month, company officers have disclosed.

The length of the vacation is determined by the salaries. The plan, to affect all departments, was effective May 1.

FIRST COLLEGE COURSE ON PROHIBITION

The first college course on prohibition is to be offered next autumn as an elective to Juniors and Seniors of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. Both the wet and dry side of the subject will be studied and representatives from the major political parties will be invited to present their views.

STUDENTS GIVE A ROLLER SKATING PARTY

At Augusta College the students are planning a roller skating party which will be held in their gym from 7:30 until 12 o'clock. The committee in charge has already procured 300 pairs of fibre-roller skates. A novel program has been arranged, and popular music will be played throughout the evening. Gee! We know they'll have loads of fun! Wouldn't it be great if some kind-hearted individual would sponsor such a party on the L .R. campus! We've heard many of the fair co-eds are very proficient in the art of roller-skating.

President Hoover sent his 13 year old guest, Bryan Untiedt, back to Colorado, in the custody of Secret Service men. They arrived with no fanfare. None of the Untiedt family met them. They drove the 12 miles to the Untiedt farm, and there Bryan, before going back to his work feeding the pigs, distributed gifts he had brought.

One was a tableloth for Mrs. Untiedt from Mrs. Hoover. Another was a cigar for Mr. Untiedt "from President Hoover himself". It was a rubber one.

The Duke University Medical School at Durham, N. C., has just dedicated its $4,000,000 set of new buildings.

FRESHMEN DOWN THE SOPHS IN BASEBALL

Rah! Sophomore!
Rah! Freshmen!

The Freshmen start warming up with Nelson in the box. "Batter up!" yells Mr. Holton, the umpire, and the game starts with Sanford at the bat. She, being a hard hitter, knocked a "2 baser." Beacham knocked a fly, and Foster and Rucker, the red and white fielders collided in a struggle to catch it.

Three outs! Freshmen at bat! Three out for the freshmen! First inning over, and the score 4-0 in favor of Sophs! But then the freshmen got on their feet! 1-2-3-4 runs, and the score is 5-4 with two innings gone, and the sophs just one ahead with the freshmen continually improving.

The freshmen found their pep! Soon the score stood 11-8 in favor of the red and whites. At the end of the last inning, the Sophs had surrendered to the Freshmen with the score 18-9.

Walthall did some star playing in the field, catching several good flies. Sanford pitched a pretty game. Nelson and Fraser filled the box for the Red and White, with Burger behind the home plate. Fraser pitched an unusually good game.

Three cheers for the Freshmen! They've half won 10 points for the old color cup! Good luck!

The line-up:

Fresmen	Pos.	Soph
Nelson	P	Sanford (c)
Burger	C	Beacham
Boggs (c)	1 b	Gregory
Parker	2 b	Gunter
Fraser	3 b	Ritchie
Crews	s. s.	Massey
Dickenson	l f	Boush
Foster	c f	Walthall
Rucker	r f	Crute

Sub: M. Rucker for Parker.

PLAY PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN BY LOWER GRADES

The Elementary Grades of the Thursday , May 21 at eleven o'clock. Training School will have a play program on the College Athletic field.

The upper grades will have a field and track athletic meet while the lower grades are having relays and games of low organization. Every college student not having a class at that hour Thursday is invited to observe the children in organized group activity.

Guy Lombardo, and his Royal Canadians, "admittedly the best dance orchestra in America", will again preside at the final dance of the University of Virginia.

WORLD NEWS

Houdon's Statue of Washington

Dedicating the Houdon statue of George Washington, Virginia's first memorial to Virginia's first citizen, in Richmond, Virginia, May 14, Dr. Albert Bushnell Hart, emeritus professor of history of Harvard, moved back the pages of history 135 years by a surprise appearance in the costume of 1796 and an address from the viewpoint of a contemporary of the first President.

Governor John Garland Pollard presided at the colemn ceremony in the old hall of the house of Delegates in the Capitol. John Stewart Bryan introduced Dr. Hart to an audience including two-score descendants of the Washington family, many distinguished citizens, and a million or more radio listeners throughout the United States.

The Houdon portrait statue of Washington is the most famous statue in America. It has stood in the Rotunda of the Capitol for 135 years, but so far as is known, was never formally dedicated.

Here's a way to get results from that eight o'clock class: require students to sleep in class and try to determine the most effective pitch for the alarm clock bell. A psychology professor at Colgate is doing that, and, we understand, after some months of work he has come to no conclusion.

We would like to have your orders —for— DRUGS, STATIONERY, BEAUTY PREPARATIONS

Canada Drug Co.

Farmville, Virginia
Phone 17 Next to Baldwin's

C. E. CHAPPELL COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, cigarettes and soda

Main Street

FARMVILLE VIRGINIA

SCHEMMEL Conservatory of Music

Piano, vocal, violin, theory, harmony, aesthetics, etc.

REASONABLE TUITION RATES

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
WHERE QUALITY MEETS PRICE
Farmville's Best Department Store

Graduation and commencement dresses in white and pastel colors, the loveliest and largest assortment in town $4.85 and $7.85

Two piece Linen Suits, Special .. $3.79

TRAVEL DRESSES—Flannels, knitted jerseys and dark silk, two piece suit effects .. $4.50 and $7.50

$1.95 Allen A Hosiery, special until school closes $1.

THE HUB DEPARTMENT STORE

Dumb: "This match won't light!"
Dumber: "Well, that's funny. It lit all right a minute ago."

"Where have you been for the last four years?"
"At school taking medicine."
"And did you finally get well?"

I suppose you've heard about the man who took a Packard straight-eight and an Austin for a chaser.

Jessie: "What are you going to do with last year's bathing suit?"
Ella: "Use it for a book mark."

We call our bathtub Diamond because it's the setting for a ring!

Ida: "Define an airplane."
Elsie: "It's poison."
Ida: "How's that?"
Elsie: "Well, one drop will kill you."

John: "My sweetheart gave me a rainbow kiss."
Charlie: "What's that?"
John: "The one that comes after the storm."

It's the little things that bother us. You can sit on a mountain, but not on a tack.

Salesman: "Now, this is a real epoch making sausage machine."
"Budsie": "All right, start it up and let's see you make some epochs.

"What did the preacher preach about?"
"Oh, about an hour and a half."

Teacher: "What would you say if I were to tell you that in a very short time all the rivers in this country would dry up?"
Mary Alice: "I would say 'Go thou and do likewise'."

"My father was a great Western politician in his day."
"What did he run for?"
"The border."

"Here's a story about a man who hasn't spoken to his wife in ten years."
"Just give him time. He may get a chance yet."

The first time a Scotchman used the free air at the garage, he blew out all four tires!

"Why don't chickens lay eggs at night?"
"Because at night they are all roosters."

"I guess this let's me out," said the man as he pushed open the door marked "exit."

"No girl has ever made a fool of me yet."
"Who did then?"

"Darling, am I the only man you ever loved."
"Yes, Mike, all the others were fraternity boys."

She: "You remind me of the ocean."
He: "Wild, romantic, restless—"
She: "No, you just make me sick."

Customer: "Murads, please."
Clerk: "Is there anything wrong, sir?"

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

What's all the exictement? Why the tennis tournament, of course. Everywhere you look you see a girl with a tennis racket making for the tennis courts. Not only the students are participating in this tournament, but the faculty, too. And are we excited about that last game—the one between the student champions and the faculty champions?

Most of the matches here have been played off. The final game will be played the first of the week—then for the big game with the faculty! Watch the bulletin board for the announcement of the games.

At the Eaco Theatre Week of May 25-30

MON. and TUES.—"The Birth of a Nation" in sound. Here we have D. W. Griffith's immortal spectacle, the most famous picture ever made, now brought to you with rejuvenated majesty, through the miracle of the modern screen. Greater—far greater—more thrilling than ever before, this colossal epic is again electrifying America's millions. After 16 years we will again suffer with Little Sister, be estastic with Lillian Gish, proud with the Little Colonel, fierce and determined with the Ku Kluxers as they ride. And the same great cast—Henry Walthal, Mae Marsh, Ralph Lewis, Lillian Gish, Robert Herron, Wallace Reid and all the others. To miss this masterpiece is missing the eighth wonder of the world.

Note—Prices for the "Birth of a Nation" will be adults 50c at nights and 35c at matinees; children under 12, 25c to each show.

WEDNESDAY—"With Byrd at the South Pole," for one day only. The only official picture of Admiral Byrd's great feat. The greatest romantic adventure of modern times. A story of thrills, action, suspense; in a land which no woman and few men have ever trod. Actually filmed at the "bottom of the world." You actually fight and fly with Dick Byrd—and right over the south pole! All described by that famous radio announcer, Floyd Gibbons. A rare treat for every man, woman and child in Farmville. Also Colortone Comedy.

THURS. and FRI. — Tallulah Bankhead and Clive Brooks in "Tarnished Lady." An Alabama girl, Tallulah Bankhead for eight years has been the idol of London. She is a composite of Garbo, Landi and Dietrich. She is ultra smart and knows it. She makes her brazenness. Her attitude toward life is a charming and electrifying go-to-hell. This is her first picture, and Clive Brooks is teamed with her. In this picture her future belonged to her husband. Her past belongs to herself. But her past catches up with her future—then what? One man offers her luxury, but not love. Another offers love, but not luxury. Which does she choose? See for yourself and witness a new kind of "It." Also 2-reel comedy.

SATURDAY—"Charlie Chan Carries On," with Warner Oland and a splendid cast. Taken from the best seller by Earl Der Biggers. Here is a well developed murder mystery, with the finger of suspicion continually pointing to various characters, leaving the solution or any suggestion of it, to the very end. Charlie Chan is more than a detective—he is a witty philosopher who will give you a great evening's entertainment and at the same time the picture will mystify you. Thrills, suspense, love interest and a smashing finish. Come and see if you can pick the murderer before the picture ends. Also Fox News and a comedy, "Ants in the Pants."

One show each night at 8 o'clock. Daily matinees at 4 p. m.

Admission, except Monday and Tuesday, adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees; children under 12, 15c to each show.

There Is Dance Rythm In These Frocks

$4.88

After the Baccalaureate sermon . . . . . then the glorious holiday festivilies begins. "On with the Dance" and if you are dressed in the lovely creations as sketched here, you will be correctly attired for the occasion. We invite you to see these adorable dresses just unpacked from their soft tissues. Everyone decidedly new and different

$7.88

The New York Dress Store

Next door to Southside Drug Store — FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency

(Fresh Films)

Let Us Develop

YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete Line GREETING CARDS
Just One Block from Campus

Dressmaking

Dressmaking, Tailoring, Attiring and Remodeling. Prices reasonable. Work guaranteed.

MRS. SCHWARTZ

306 Pine Street.

FOR THE LATEST IN

Sheet Music, Costume Jewelry, Watches, Watch Bracelets and Musical Instruments

GO TO

Lynn's Jewelry Store

MAIN STREET

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We're Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE!

McIntosh Drug Store

Farmville, Va.

"Drugs and Drinks"

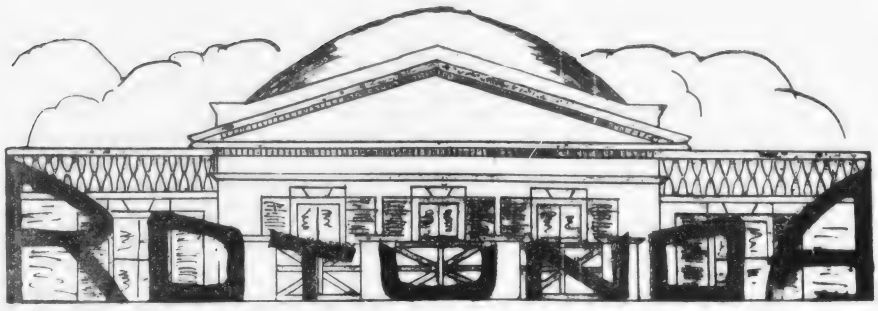
DOWNTOWN SECTION

TRUNKS SHIPPED

All Rits who wish trunks shipped by bus to Lynchburg or Richmond, to the bus terminal $1.00. Delivered anywhere in the city for $1.50. Good to make connections to other points fro Lynchburg or Richmond. Call

G. F. BUTCHER

"The Convenient Store"



Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP

AND LEATHER USED

EXAMS BEGIN JUNE 2

FINAL ISSUE OF THE ROTUNDA

Commencement Plans for 1931 Near Completion

Dr. J. W. Smith and Dr. Elmer E. Jones Will Deliver Final Addresses

SENIOR BUFFET SUPPER JUNE 4

With commencement so near and the plans for it nearly complete, the Seniors and Sophomores are looking forward to the time with great interest.

On June 4, the Seniors are having a buffet supper at Longwood. The event is always a happy one, but sad too, in the fact that it is the last time the Seniors meet together.

The official commencement begins on Saturday, June 6, at 9 p. m., with the reception in the Student Building Lounge. It is given for the graduates and their guests.

On Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, the Senior Class holds its vesper service. Following this, at 8 p. m., is the baccalaureate sermon. It is to be delivered this year by Dr. John William Smith, pastor of Centenary Methodist church, Lynchburg.

Monday, June 8, at 10 a. m., the Sophomore Class will hold its Class Day exercises in the auditorium. At 4 p. m., the Seniors will hold their Class Day exercises at Longwood in the amphitheatre. The Senior-Sophomore plays are at 8:15 p. m., and the Lantern Parade of the Seniors and their little sisters at 10:30 p. m.

Tuesday, June 9, the graduating exercises will begin at 10:30 a. m. in the auditorium. The speaker for the occasion is Dr. Elmer E. Jones, of Northwestern University.

The attention of both classes is centered on commencement, which will mark the closing of the school year.

Faculty Downs Pick-Up Team

The Faculty baseball team turned on the Pick-ups in a five inning game last Friday afternoon, and came out on the big end of a 11-9 score.

The game started in the midst of a slight drizzle with the Faculty at bat. The Pick-Ups showed superior plays and proved to be a little too much for the Faculty in the first part of the game.

It was during the fourth inning that the Faculty turned on their opponents and brought in seven runs. One time during the game, the rain came down in torrents, but the players showed real spirit and refused to let the weather break up their match. When the game ended Hatchett as pitcher and Holton as catcher, with the help of their team-mates were still holding the Pick-Ups.

Line-up:

Faculty		Pick-Ups
Hatchett	c	Burger
Coyner	p	Boggs
Bell	1b	Gregory
Cash	2b	Snedegar
Iler	3b	Oliver
Graham	ss	Ross
Holton	rf	Walthall

Juniors Win in Baseball for Year

With Only Six Players They Defeated Freshmen in Hard-Fought Game

Six strong juniors and nine determined freshmen walked to the baseball diamond Friday afternoon amid the cheers of many on-lookers. Everyone guessed, but no one knew which of the sister red and white teams would be victorious.

With Fraser in the box first it seemed almost impossible for the juniors to score. But neither could the freshmen, for Hundley struck out one after another of the Freshmen.

The audience gave a grand yell! The freshmen had scored! More determined than ever, each team scored. Freshmen knocked the ball over the heads of the juniors and scored again. Three men out and the juniors were at bat! Frances Edwards almost succeeded in knocking a home run, and the juniors took the lead. With only six players, they fought the game well and won the title for their class with a score of 7-3. Hundley succeeded in striking out player after player which prevented the freshmen scoring. Crews played a pretty game as short stop for the freshmen.

The game was well attended by students as well as faculty. Everyone seemed to enjoy the game immensely. This was the last event of the athletic year which has been more successful than ever before.

HONOR STUDENTS FOR YEAR ANNOUNCED

To graduate with honors a student must be on the dean's list her senior year and work up a paper or project through the year to be presented before the faculty and passed by it.

The students who will graduate with honors were announced in chapel, Saturday morning. They are: Lida Jane Brown, Mary Ellen Cato, Mildred DeHart, Pauline Gibb, Alice St. Ables Harrison, Minifred Howell, Mildred Maddrey, Elizabeth Temple, and Evelyn West.

Jane Brown prepared a paper on "Application of General Method to the Descriptive Unit" taking the study of Japan. She will graduate with honors in Elementary Education.

Mary Ellen Cato took as her study mythology ending with a study of Spenser's Faerie Queene from which she wrote the theme and story of the May Day Festival this year. She receives honors in English.

Continued on last page

SPRING SPORT LEADERS DO GOOD WORK

Hildegarde Ross as head of archery this season exhibited her ability in many ways. She was always on time to have the targets ready, and kept the targets sewed to perfection. Not everyone is an athlete and a seamstress too. Elizabeth Burger knew not only exactly what to do and how to do it, but she did everything that needed to be done for field and track. No one could draw straighter lines or have bats and balls in place any better than Nell Dickinson for baseball.

All three girls are to be congratulated on their good work.

MISS OLIVE T. ILER

DEDICATION

To Miss Iler whose patient instruction has led us down the field, whose trust and faith have gained for us the goal and whose high ideals have led us on to victory, we dedicate this our athletic issue of the Rotunda.

Sophomores Take First Place in The Track Meet

In spite of the rainy weather the Field and Track meet was held Wednesday, May 20. Green and White came out with 64 points while the Red and Whites followed up with 39. The Sophomores still take the lead, having won the meet with 45 points.

The individual high scorers were Mary Gregory, first, 10 1-2 points; Laura Smith, scored 10 points; Cleo Quisenberry, third, 8 points; Kathleen Hundley, fourth, 7 points.

Cleo Quisenberry won again first place in running high jump. Her record was 4 ft. 4 inches. Mary Gregory and Marguerite Massey tied for second place with 4 feet 3 inches, and Nannie Ruth Cooper took fourth place with 4 feet 2 inches.

In hop-step-jump Easter Souders still holds first place and the college record. She jumped 29 feet 5 inches, taking first place; Martha Gunter followed closely 28' 8 1-2" second place; Duvall Ridgeway, 27' 10", third place, and Elizabeth Walthall, 27' 2 1-2", fourth.

Theodocia Beacham took first place in running broad jump, 13' 7"; Ridge-

Continued on page three

JUNIOR FESTIVAL HIGHLY HONORED

Word has just been received that Dr. James Francis Cook, president of the Presser Music Company, and editor of the Etude has accepted the honorary presidency of the Junior Festival of Music. This significant matter lends added interest to the Festival and gives it a national flavor.

Miss Irene Leake is Presented in Recital

Miss Leake's Talent As a Vocalist Known to Entire State of Virginia

A concert of more than usual interest took place in the auditorium Friday, May 22, when Miss Irene Leake was presented in a vocal recital by the Freshman Class.

Miss Leake's talents as a vocalist have been known, not only to the student body, but to the entire state, through her many successes in contest work. Those who were fortunate enough to attend the recital realized that hers was a voice of unusual sweetness and charm, added to which was an attractive personality and a program replete with good things musically.

Her instructor and accompanist, Mr. Alfred H. Strick, added to the pleasure of the program by his sympathetic accompanying.

The program:

A Pastoral	Verocinio
Care Selve	Handel
Lo, Here the Gentle Lark	Bishop
The Hills of Gregia	Mednikoff
Tell Me Oh Blue Sky	Giannini
Fulfillment	Woodman
Prelude	Donald
Yesterday and Today	Besley
The Second Minuet	Besley
Homing	Teresa Del Riego

As encores: Tick Tock, Little Bit of a Fellow, The Last Rose of Summer, and Sing Me to Sleep.

COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL FINALS NEXT WEEK

The Senior Class of College High School will have their baccalaureate sermon at the Baptist Church Sunday night, May 31. The Rev. C. V. Cook will be the preacher.

Wednesday, June 3, a most delightful and attractive mother-daughter banquet has been planned. This banquet is to be held at Longwood and promises to be a most enjoyable event.

Friday the commencement will close with the graduation exercises. Mr. Davis of the Methodist church will give the invocation. The salutatory will be given by Mary Wicker, second honor graduate of the class of '31; this will be followed by the address by Miss Mix. The valedictory will be given by Anne Putney, first honor graduate after which Mr. Holton, principal of C. H. S. will award the diplomas.

The College High School Glee Club will have charge of the singing and they will sing many beautiful selections.

EDWARDS WINS FIRST PLACE IN ARCHERY

The Archery Tournament was held Friday, May 22, 1931. It was a class race between the "Robin Hoods" of the Green and White and those of the Red and White. Laurie Boush representing the former and Frances Edwards representing the latter tied for first place. When they shot again Frances won by a narrow margin. Allie Oliver got third place.

This is the third tournament ever held here. Archery is in its infancy at S. T. C. but next year, we hope to have more equipment and so you'd better watch for next year's tournament.

Blazers Awarded To 17 Girls at Chapel Sat'y

Green and White Wins Color Cup In Final Count of Points

EDWARDS STANDS THE HIGHEST

Blazers were awarded in chapel, Saturday, by Frances Edwards, new Athletic Assn president to those who had proven their loyalty, ability and sportsmanship in various sports and had the required grades.

The awards were:

Green and White

E. Walthall	755
E. Hunter	780
H. Hutchinson	780
LL. Boush	815
M. Massey	820
L. Crute	890
M. Gunter	1030
M. Maddrey	1040
D. Ridgeway	1045
E. Coleman	1355
E. Simpson	1075

Red and White

K. Hundley	1450

Navy Blue with S. T. C.

F. Edwards	1825
L. Smith	1630
E. Souders	1725
A. Oliver	1750
C. Quisenberry	1600

Awards—Blazers

Class colors with Old English F	700
Class colors with numerals	1000
Class colors with S. T. C.	1300
Navy blue with S. T. C.	1600
Navy blue with college seal	2000

After the blazer awards Virginia Robertson was called forward and was presented the color cup. She unwrapped it and the green and white colors were revealed. Good work, Green and White.

New Coun'l Changes A. A. Constitution

The A. A. Council since going into office has revised the Constitution of the Athletic Association. The changes are as follows:

Article I

Section 4—No girl shall make a team unless she has an average of "D" for the preceeding quarter; but she must have an average of "C" for the two preceeding quarters before she may receive an award.

Article III—Officers

Section 1—The officers of the Association shall be a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer. These officers compose the Athletic Council of which the president is chairman. There shall also be a manager and assistant manager of each interclass sport. The manager of baseball, hockey and archery shall be chosen at the end of the spring term, and their assistants with the managers and assistants of the remaining sports shall be chosen at the first of the fall term.

Article IV—Duties of the Officers

Section 1—Pres.—It shall be the executive board, and the council. She duty of the president to call and preside at all meetings of the association, shall appoint all committees and be ex-officio member of each; notify members of board and council meet-

Continued on last page

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — Columbia Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA MOORE, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34

Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOT RITCHIE, '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Sportsmanship

Sportsmanship is that intangible thing that cannot be explained, but which makes itself evident at once if the person concerned possesses it. Sportsmanship comes from within, and brings with it such virtues as truthfulness, honesty, good-will and generosity. It makes us a good loser, a good winner—and a good sport.

We cannot all have the great opportunity that General Grant had to manifest sportsmanship, but we can all live up to that idea of sportsmanship so that our friends will ask "which is the winner, the 'green and white' or the 'red and white'?"; and we will always answer, 'the Blue and White'."

Before a game we hear the words, "girls, play fair, and if you can, win." A spirit here says, "If you lose, be glad there is some one who could play the game better than you or who could jump a little farther." To bring this spirit requires just such a leader as we find in Miss Iler. Miss Hatihett who fought on the field for us four years worked with Miss Iler to lead us to success. Miss Barlow too, is ready to offer a friendly word of advice. All thre develop that sportsmanship that is always the winner.

"Taps"

Seniors, you are about to meet with the end which is only the beginning. Your Alma Mater has equipped you for the fuller life: may you one and all take advantage of it.

We are indebted to you for invaluable friendships, meritorious services, and the excellent example you have set up for the remaining classes. You have unconsciously exerted an influence of such a superior quality that you have inspired others to strive more arduously towards a higher standard of living.

We shall be reminded of you at every turn in the years to come, and we trust that you shall not become too engrossed in living to remember us. Return to your second home whenever the opportunity presents itself and we shall take great pleasure in welcoming you back as one sister would to another.

You shall remain a bright spot in the hearts of those who have so patiently and earnestly toiled with you and for you through the years. After you have received the benediction, the tears, the farewell handclasps of your foster mother may you go forth to bring her honor. No matter how small a place you might fill or how humble your task, may you ever remember that she takes great pride in each and everyone of her children and that her eyes are ever filled with faith, trust, and hope.

OVER THE TEACUPS

Mary, please don't put the light out yet, let's gum a while—if you put out the light you'll go straight to sleep and leave me holding the bag while you knock off the roof. Do you know if you get to sleep before I do my chances for a little shut-eye are practically lost. I'll tell you what. Let's go and hunt up a couple of dopes and some nabs. Aw you're such a flat Mary—everytime somebody thinks up a good idea you go and get sleepy. I can't hand those sleepy girls much anyhow. Guess I'll have to talk to myself.

By the way, what did you do at home last week-end. How about it's getting so cold—I declare I went geeting so cold—I declare I went away all trapped out for a gloriously warm week-end and did I wish for my good ole reds that I'd just put in my trunk for the summer! Today has gotten warm though—went up on the roof today and the violet rays nearly fried me to a cinder—and last time I went up it poured down before we could get our shoes and-er-our shoes on! The sun and rain is surely making the campus look beautiful isn't it? I just love this place in the spring time—of course I love it all the year round but my spring love is so much more vital. Maybe it's the thoughts of absence making the heart grow fonder. Anyhow the campus is beautiful and now that Mrs. Warren has planted flowers in the Joan Court boxes, the view from the annex is grand. Three cheers, Mrs. Warren.

I noticed that Mr. Jeffers is back Saw him down the tea room the other day. Everybody will be mighty glad to se him won't they? That reminds me, my biology note book is due tomorrow! I'll have to sit and start on it anyhow! Doesn't this ole cat feel good though and there's not another one like it in school! Say, Mary, when did you put the light out! It is so dark in here! Mary, are you asleep? Yes, I hear you! Gosh it sounds scary! Guess I'll feel better if I put the covers over my head! M-m-m-m!—Silence.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Miss Emily Sinclair Calcott, of the S. T. C. degree class of 1924, has received the honor of election to Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Virginia. Her initiation will take place with seven University alumni and thirty-four other students on the evening of June 15 during the University finals.

Mrs. Grace Virginia Woodhouse Hopkins, who was at S. T .C. in 1928,, conducted the massed chorus at the Musical Festival of six counties held recently at Fredericksburg S. T. C. Mrs. Hopkins has the distinction of being chairman of the education department of the Virginia Federation of Music.

Announcement has been received of the engagement of Miss Annie Lisle Tucker, of the degree class of 1925, to Burgess Harrison Hamlet of South Hill, Virginia. The wedding will take place in the early summer.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the family of Miss Marjorie P. Bonifant who died recently in a Richmond hospital. Miss Bonifant of Pawhatan was an S. T. C. student in 1928.

The Portsmouth Alumnae Chapter has been reorganized. Best wishes are extended for its success under Miss Annie Virginia Hanrahan, president.

The Student Body wishes to extend its sympathy to Dot Goodloe in her recent bereavement.

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

Some people are good sports, some are good workers, some are good friends—Jessie is all three.

Many people in this old world laugh when somebody else tries to do something, but have they ever stopped to think how they looked doing the same thing?

Things often look right black while we're here but it's a good old place when we're leaving it!

You know down in the bottom of our hearts we are wondering what in the world we are going to do next year without Del and all those other girls.

A freshman is very much perturbed because so many students seem to be getting industrious carrying round books all the time—great big books with a brown cover.

Then there is the girl who wants to know why it is the Bonnie Wee Golf Course doesn't give a prize for the highest score instead of the lowest.

The difference in two girls we know is shown in answer to the question, "What's on next week?". One says, Ronald Coleman in "The Devil to Pay"; the other, "exams."

Some Rumors can be believed, others can not—how about what we hear has been announced about a certain member of the faulcty in North Carolina papers?

FLIES

Small creatures
That crawl lazily in the sun,
Stopping now and then
To stretch their glist'ning wings
To the warmth of the yellow rays.
Then suddenly
Creatures of light and movement
Darting here and there
To find some new place of rest.
And settling down with a shimmer
Of irridescent wings on black dusted feet—
Small creatures
With black velvet bodies and
Green bulging eyes in the light
Darting and crawling, glist'ning and shining
Murmuring and buzzing in the still of the night.
Just creatures!

L. Millner, '32

BRUXELLES

Knotted scarred fingers
Of you dear old Belgium women;
How dexterously you go about
Your task of weaving
Into intricate patterns cob-web lace
Of Duchess and Rose-point design
Hour by hour you bend
Over your task
Threading your very life blood
Into the tiny inches
Which grow by months and years
Into the yards which go to make
Her majesty's wedding gown.

V. P. L.

THE FRAT PIN

"He wore his college frat pin
Just southward from his heart,
And vowed that from its resting place
That pin should ne'er depart.
Years passed and still found him
Firm, and standing pat,
Still wearing his college frat pin
In honor of his frat.
One day brown eyes confused him,
His high resolve took chase,
A soft voice coaxed the frat pin
From its old abiding place.
They're now in a little bungalow
With "welcome" on the mat,
And the frat pin fastens baby clothes
In honor of his frat."

SPRINGTIME DREAMINGS

Halcyon days are filled with dreams
Of yesterday. Again the moon beams
As hand in hand we stroll
By the singing creeks which onward roll
Caring not how our mortal lives
Begin or cease; while time and streams flow on Gaily in peaceful oblivion.

Dreams of two hearts filled with happiness
Beating together as two drums of peace
Cupid picks the melody from his harp
Piercing our souls with his arrows sharp
Draining sorrow from the world and life
Making us children—ignoring all strife.

Spring is come again this year
But its joy is gone: it brings no cheer
Flowers have bloomed but me they hate
For I trample them down to the grave of my mate.

M. von S. '32

ON PARTING

"Parting is such sweet sorrow," so Shakespeare tells us. I wonder—?

Three years ago I came a Freshman to S. T. C. I don't know why I came, I just came. And now I am about to leave never to return as a student. These walls that stand around me hold the secrets of the friendships that cling and twine about my heart just as they hold the secrets of the vines that creep and cling to their worn surface. The friendships have formed and grown throughout the years just as the vines upon the walls. What echoes of laughter and silly, delightful prattle the rough bricks hold; what tears and squabbles they try to hide away; what scenes of work and toil they boast of. Ah—vine-covered walls, I'd like to read the stories in your red-brown faces. Stories of work and play and love; tragic stories, comic stories, happy stories. I feel sometimes that I must stretch my arms upon you and kiss you ere you crumble all away. To leave you is to tear away the vines of a light, beautiful and strong, that has come into being these last three years. A life, to be remembered as a wonderful dream, but ne'er to be lived o'er.

But I forget, there is a stronger tie yet. Thou vine-covered walls hold more for me than memories and secrets. You hold within your shelter the forces, the spirit, and personalities that have guided my footsteps and made my path the roadway to success.

What truths I've gathered day by day. What delight I've had in learning and living with men and women who know more of life and want to give to me the benefit of that knowledge. T'is this association with noble hearts and minds that makes me sad at parting.

Yes, perhaps Shakespeare was right. Parting is sad, but parting is sweet, for before me lies an open door. And to you, vine-covered walls, I dedicate my tears, for without your shelter these many, many years, I could not have tasted this life that opens the door.

No tongue can tell the treasures I have stored away, to be taken out in after years, as a precious jewel. Little things, that have made the vines of friendship and life, as leaf by leaf, they came into being. These treasures I carry with me through the open door. Beyond I see a vine-covered wall against a golden sunset. "Parting is such sweet sorrow."

L. M., '32

SOCIALS

The following girls spent the week-end in Richmond: Elsie Bolton, Teeny Myers, Sarah Wills, Catherine Marchant, Elizabeth Morris, and Catherine McIntyre.

Irwin Staples vistied her home in Burkeville this week-end.

Toodles Booth, Evelyn West, Mary Oliver and Virginia Witt were in Lynchburg this week-end.

Mary Arthur Billups Nancy St. Clair and Margaret Eley attended the dances at B. M. A. Friday and Saturday nights.

Irene Leake spent the week-end in Orange.

Virginia Hamilton and Helen Westmoreland were in Petersburg this week-end.

Retta Hardy, Bernie May Love, Elizabeth Kelley and Dorothy Prescott vistied in Kenbridge this week-end.

Blanche Murrell and Caroline Reed were guests in school for the week-end.

Miss Ethel LaBoyteaux of Richmond was the week-end guest of Miss Mary White Cox.

Louise Borum was in Roanoke this week-end.

Hannah Crawley and Harriet Branch spent the week-end in Cumberland.

Gertrude Sudgen was the week-end guest of Margaret Robertson in Orange.

Mary McDearman spent the week-end in Pamplin.

ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA BANQUET AT LONGWOOD

The annual banquet of the Joan Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma was held at Longwood Saturday May 23. The theme of the banquet was "Bon Voyage" to the Seniors.

Dr. J. L. Jarman was honor guest and speaker of the evening.

The alumnae who returned for the banquet were: Virginia Raine, Anne Ferree and Greenhow Parker.

COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL HAS DELIGHTFUL JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION

The College High School had its Junior-Senior reception in the banquet room of the tea room Saturday May 23 at one o'clock. The room was beautifully decorated in white and yellow columbine, the senior class flower. The theme of the banquet was flowers. About forty people were preesnt; Misses London and Peck and Mr. Holton being the honorary guests. It was a most delightful occasion.

BETA PI THETA HELD THURSDAY

The members of Beta Pi Theta will have a farewell get-together party in the Y. W. social room Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. French games will be played, French songs sung, and delicious refreshments served.

The prizes of the French essay contest will be awarded at this time to the winners of the contest that was open to the Sophomores and Freshmen taking French. The essays were written in French and appropriate and delightful prizes have been selected.

The winner in the Sophomore group was Dorothy Snedegar and of the Freshman group, Elizabeth Burger.

PI KAPPA SIGMA BANQUET HELD

In candle light surrounded by lovely flowers the Pi Kappa Sigmas enjoyed their spring banquet. The general theme was Mother Goose, and a more charming modern Mother Goose scene could not have been portrayed. The place cards, toasts and individual bouquets made the informal dinner a wholly delightful affair.

UNDEFEATED BASKETBALL VARSITY

Standing: Miss M. F. Hatchett, assistant coach; Elizabeth Burger; Cleo Quisenberry; Mary Gregory, center; Easter Souders, guard; Miss Olive T. Iler, coach. Second row: Dot Ritchie; Dot Snedegar, forward; Laura Smith, forward; Edith Coleman, guard; Frances Edwards, side center. Bottom row: Sue Yeaman; Martha Gunter; Lucille Crute; M. B. Fraser.

MISS MARY ENTERTAINS OLD AND NEW COUNCILS

Miss Mary entertained the old and new councils at Longwood on Wednesday afternoon, May 20, with one of the jolliest and most charming parties of the year. Her plan had been to have the affair on the lawn, but the weather decreed otherwise; so the group of girls was led into the warmth, brightness and spacious security of the beautiful rooms of Longwood, where everyone had a feeling of gay, happy excitement. The rain outside emphasized the coziness within. There were rainbows on each table in the colors of the bright May baskets which held the beautiful and delicious refreshments.

Oliver Wendell Holmes once said that all parties for the fair sex could be described by four words, "Go, gobble, gabble, get." Taking that quotation apart, we must confess that the "git" part was hard to bring about. It was such a lovely party, but Miss Mary always gives lovely parties.

1930 HOCKEY SEASON CLOSES WITH SUCCESS

This year's hockey season was one of the most successful seasons that hockey has seen since it has been a sport in this college. This year the hockey team had the opportunity of attending the State Hockey Tournament held at William and Mary. While there they saw an All-American team play, by which they were greatly benefited. In the game with Harrisonburg, Farmville won by a score of 2-1. In the game against an et cetera team Farmville won by a score of 1-0.

Then there was the game with Westhampton here which was the most exciting game. Westhampton won by a score of 1-0.

The hockey season was brought to an end on Thanksgiving day when there was so much noise at six o'clock in the morning with the hanging of the colors. The Juniors won from the Seniors in a hard fought game. The Sophomores won from the freshmen with a close score. At the close of the season, Sophomores had their colors flying high, being champions of the season.

In the afternoon on Thanksgiving Day an alumnae team played a "pick-up" team with the "pick-ups" having the winning score.

Allie Oliver did good work as manager of the sport and also as captain of the varsity teams.

SOPHOMORES WIN CHAMPIONSHIP IN VOLLEY BALL

Laughs, excitement, fun—volley ball season successfully presented these. "Hit it"—"Get it out of the net"—a shriek and the ball flies over the net only to have another person shriek "hit it", again. Anyone who came out for volley ball will say that it was fun as well as work.

The climax was reached when the green and red clashed for championship. The Sophomores met the Freshmen in a nerve racking game but in the last few minutes of play the Sophomores gained and green and white came out on top. The following night the Seniors and Juniors clashed for honors. Here the red and whites were victorious. Then came the game of games. The score in the last game ran a tie—then a Soph served, scored twice in succession, the whistle blew, the Sophs had won their third championship.

The captains were: Ruth Wright, Freshmen; Lucille Crute, Sophomores; Cleo Quisenberry, Juniors; Margaret Nuthall, Seniors.

At the end of the season an honorary varsity was chosen. They are as follows:

Ethel Boswell
Laurie Boush
Lucille Crute
E. Frances Edwards
Easter Souders
Cleo Quisenberry
Elizabeth Walthall
Ruth Wright

MONOGRAM CLUB INITIATION IS HELD

The Monogram Club held initiation of new members and election of officers Monday, May 25. The following new members were taken in:

Theodocia Beacham
Elizabeth Burger
Elizabeth Walthall

These girls are eligible since they have passed their physical efficiency test, have 400 points, have a C average, and have their sportsmanship passed by the club.

Officers for the coming year were elected:

President	Cleo Quisenberry
Vice-President	Hildegarde Ross
Secretary	Martha Gunter
Treasurer	Elizabeth Burger

Cleo showed her ability as president last year and the club wishes her as much success as she had last year.

SOPHOMORES TAKE FIRST IN TRACK MEET

Continued from page one

way, second, 13' 5"; Wright, third, 13' 2 1-2"; Edwards, fourth, 13' 1".

Kathleen Hundley again took first place in baseball throw, 184' 1"; Goldie Boggs followed with 183' 5", while Elizabeth Walthall took third with 134' 1" and Theodocia Beacham, fourth with 130' 7".

In shot put, Laura Smith took first place with 28' 5"; Gregory, second with 27' 4 1-2"; Cooper, third with 26' 4'4"; Edwards and Burger tied for fourth with 62' 2".

Laura Smith also was first in javelin, 60' 11"; Oliver came in second with 51' 7"; Hundley, third with 51' 5", and Burger fourth, with 51' 4".

Gregory took the lead in the dash fololwed up with Edwards second, Gunter third, and Coleman fourth.

Edith Coleman came in first with hurdles; Quisenberry, second; and Crute, third.

The Sophomores won the class relay, the Juniors winning second place. The first and second relay teams were:

Sophomores—Crute, Gunter, Gregory, and Massey.

Juniors — Edwards, Quisenberry, Souders, Hundley.

No college records were broken, but the Field and Track Meet was very sucessful.

THE CHORAL CLUBS HAVE NEW MEMBERS

As the result of the Choral Club try-outs there are a few new girls who are to be placed later in the Senior or Junior Club. They number:

Dorothy Franklin
Dorothy Leonard
Helen Fry
Martha Scott Watkins
Norma Franklin
Emily McAllister
Lucille Owen
Margaret Armstrong
Lucile Kellam
Virginia Thornton
Helen Warren
Lucille Ingram
Margaret Bell
Clara Meister
Mary Diehl
Ruth Wright
Nan Gilbert

There will probably be another try-out before school is over.

NEW OFFICERS OF LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

The new officers of the Cercle Francais were installed May 21. Eleanor Davis expressed the pleasure she had experienced during the past year as president. Then she gave a little bow and Anne Rice, the new president was introduced. Miss Rice then installed the other officers for the coming year.

We would like to have your orders
—for—
DRUGS, STATIONERY, BEAUTY PREPARATIONS

Canada Drug Co.

Farmville, Virginia
Phone 17 Next to Baldwin's

C. E. CHAPPELL COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, cigarettes and soda

Main Street

FARMVILLE VIRGINIA

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
WHERE QUALITY MEETS PRICE
Farmville's Best Department Store

Graduation and commencement dresses in white and pastel colors, the loveliest and largest assortment in town ..... $4.85 and $7.85

Two piece Linen Suits, Special $3.79

TRAVEL DRESSES—Flannels, knitted jerseys and dark silk, two piece suit effects ..... $4.50 and $7.50

$1.95 Allen A Hosiery, special until school closes $1.

THE HUB DEPARTMENT STORE

"Poor John, he didn't graduate from W. & L."

"Why not?"

"Because he went to Hampden-Sydney."

"Can you act?"

Act? Why, on the stage the other night, I died so naturally that a man in the audience fainted. He was my life insurance agent."

The only thing around this school now that is getting daily attention is the calendar.

"You used to say that there was something about me you loved."

"Yes, but it's all spent now."

Notice

"Trespassers on this farm will be prosecuted to the extent of one double-barrel shot-gun and two hound dogs what don't like strangers."

"Budsie: "Looks like you're wearing your stockings inside out."

"Citty": "Yeah, my feet got hot and I turned the hose on them."

Teacher: "England once passed a law that everyone should be buried in wool."

Mary Alice: "But suppose you were going to the wrong climate?"

First Crook: "How long did your sentence last?"

Second Ditto: "Three years."

First Crook: "But I thought the judge gave you four years."

Second Ditto: "He did but I made up one year in summer school."

She: "Darling, you won't ever stop loving me, will you?"

He: "Well, I have an 8 o'clock class Monday morning."

Jimmie: "Who gave the bride away, John?"

John: "I could have, but I kept my mouth shut."

Abie: "So you play golf mit knickers?"

Ikey: "No, only mit white peoples."

Father: "Are there half-fares for children?"

Conductor: "Yes under fourteen."

Father: "That's all right, then. I've only five."

Jessie: "Your boy friend dances like a poem."

Ella: "Really."

Jessie: "Yes—like free verse—the feet all mixed up."

Lady "This meat has a peculiar taste."

Cook: "That's funny. I burnt it and then put Unguentine on it right away."

"That Smith girl doesn't seem to be so intelligent."

"No, she won't pay any attention to me, either."

Liz: "You sure have a short nose."

Vernie: "That's so I won't poke it into other people's business."

Work for the Posture Committee

The art teacher was drawing on the board. Turning to the class she said, "If anyone wants to see an arched bow look at me."

BLAZER WINNER AND WINNERS OF FIELD AND TRACK MEET

From left to right: E. Edwards, blue blazer and archery champ; A. Oliver, blue blazer; E. Souders, blue blazer and 1st place in hop-step-jump; L. Smith, blue blazer and 1st place in shot put and javelin; C. Quisenberry, blue blazer and 1st place in high jump; A. Hutchinson, green blazer; K. Hundley, "S. T. C." numerals and 1st place in baseball distance; D. Ridgeway, green blazer and numerals; M. Massey, green blazer; M. Maddrey, numerals; E. Simpson, numerals; E. Hunter, green blazer; M. Gregory, winner of "Meet" and 1st place in dash; T. Beacham, 1st place in running broad jump; L. Crute, green blazer; L. Boush, green blazer; E. Coleman, "S. T. C." and 1st place in hurdles; M. Gnuter, green blazer and numerals; E. Walthall, green blazer.

HONOR STUDENTS ARE ANNOUNCED

Continued from page one

Mildred DeHart studied French short stories. She has her honors in French.

Pauline Gibb taking the study of the vitalizing of first year Latin in the schools will graduate with honor in Latin.

Alice Harrison prepared a paper as a result of intensive study on Horace and his works. She will also receive her honors in Latin.

Winifred Howell took a study in social sciences and will graduate with honors in social science.

Mildred Maddrey wrote a life of Pasteur in French, which it is hoped may become a part of textbooks for beginners in French. She receives her degree with honors in French.

Elizabeth Temple organized a Math Club in the college this year, making this with a paper on the "Organizing and Conducting a math club in S. T. C." her project. Mathematics receives an honor graduate.

Evelyn West taking a study in Elementary Education will have her honors in that.

Each girl had a committee to advise her headed by the head of the department in which she received her honors.

NEW COUNCIL CHANGES A. A. CONSTITUTION

Continued from page one

ings in ample time; and to notify persons of their appointment to committees, election, and eligibility.

Section 5—Heads of sports—Duties: sports to met with the coach and It shall be the duty of the heads of council, to discuss schedule for each sport; to see that there are referees and other officials for all games played; to take charge of and care for all equipment used; to attend to publicity regarding that sport and keep articles in the Rotunda; interest students in her sport; to help the coach select teams and squads and to keep a record of all attendances at practices.

Article V—Election of Officers

Section 2—The council, athletic adviser and coach shall select two persons for each officer from nominations made by all the members of the association. The following officers shall be elected: Pres, V-Pres., Sec. and Treas.

Article VIII. Section 2—Teams having participated in 60 per cent of games played.

Section3—Field Day: 6 Breaking a college record, 25; 8, first place in meet, 50.

Section 4—Tournament: 1. Championship, a. singles, 50; b. doubles, 25. 2. Runners up—a. singles 25; b. doubles, 15. 3. Those in after first match, 5.

Section 5—Scholarship: 1. "C" av., no failures, 25; 2. "B" av., no failures, 50; 3. "A" av., no failures, 75.

Article XI—Sport Season

Hockey, Sept, Dec.; Basketball, Dec. March 1; Volleyball, Feb. 20, March 20; Baseball, March 20, May 10; Field and Track, April 5, May 15; Archery, all year; Tennis, all year.

Article XII

This constitution may be amended by the council with the approval of the department.

At the Eaco Theatre Week of June 1 to 6

MON. and TUES.—Ronald Colman in "The Devil to Pay," supported by Loretta Young and a great cast. Here is the smartest of all modern comedy romances. The talking screen's most fascinating romancer in a captivating heart escapade written by a past master of smart, sophisticated comedy. An audacious gallant laughs his way out of trouble, turns society topsy-turvy with his pranks and woos and wins the heart of a lovely beauty. He spent his last penny on a dog—and a girl; and the dog proved faithful. Here is the best lover on the screen—and you will love Loretta Young. Also excellent comedy.

WED. and THURS.—"Whoopee," with Eddie Cantor and a bevy of gorgeous beauties. The entire production in Technicolor. Florenz Ziegfeld's greatest Broadway spectacle with the ace of comedians, Eddie Cantor, who will keep you in high glee from beginning to end. You will gasp, admire, rock with laughter, and come back to see "Whoopee" the second time. A glittering, colorful ,melodic, humorous, dramatic, spectacular and stupendous screen triumph that marks a new entertainment altitude in the swift, superdynamic history of the sound screen. A $6.60 show at regular prices. The most amazing picture ever produced with the most beautiful collection of girls ever seen in one picture. Regular prices. Also Charlie Chase Comedy.

FRI. and SAT.—Belle Bennett and Leon Janney in "Courage." A vital, human story with an appeal for all. A picture you will never forget. A picture that makes everyone a kid again. Never before has a picture so realistically expressed the spirit of the American home. A great human story of a mother and the innocent heart of a boy whose love overcomes barriers of hatred and turned a losing fight into a triumphant victory. Should she keep silent and save the fragments of her own happiness, or reveal her heart's secret and blight her daughter's future? A fascinating mother of seven children who faces a terrific problem. You will be sorry if you miss this story of mother and child love. Also Fox News and Laurel & Hardy comedy.

Admission, adults 35c at nights and 25c at matinees; children under 12, 15c to each show.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency

(Fresh Films)

Let Us Develop

YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete Line GREETING CARDS
Just One Block from Campus

Dressmaking

Dressmaking, Tailoring, Attiring and Remodeling. Prices reasonable. Work guaranteed.

MRS. SCHWARTZ

306 Pine Street.

FOR THE LATEST IN

Sheet Music, Costume Jewelry, Watches, Watch Bracelets and Musical Instruments

GO TO

Lynn's Jewelry Store

MAIN STREET

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We're Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE!

McIntosh Drug Store

Farmville, Va.

"Drugs and Drinks"

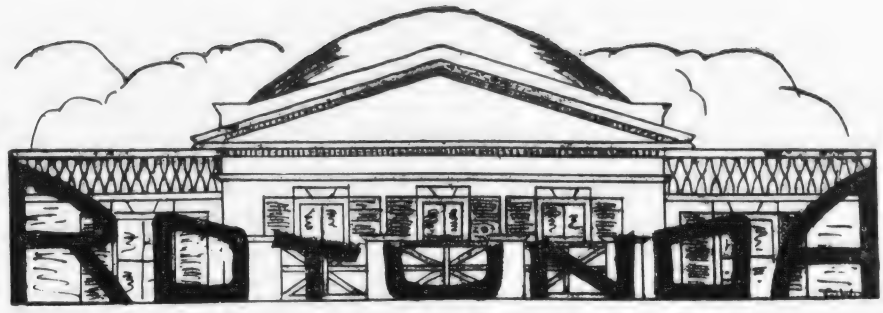
DOWNTOWN SECTION

TRUNKS SHIPPED

All girls who wish trunks shipped by bus to Lynchburg or Richmond, to the bus terminal $1.00. Delivered anywhere in the city for $1.50. Good to make connections to other points fro Lynchburg or Richmond. Call

G. F. BUTCHER

"The Convenient Store"



Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP

AND LEATHER USED

COME OUT FOR ATHLETICS

WELCOME NEW STUDENTS

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1931 Number 1

Senior Class Meets for First Time Tuesday

Privileges Granted to Seniors Last Spring Cause Much Discussion

CHAPERONES OF YEAR ELECTED

The Senior Class, with Henrietta Cornwell as president, held a most important meeting last night. They are planning to make this the best senior year yet and from the enthusiasm manifested, one is led to believe that each girl is going to do her part to make this true. The president urged everyone to attend chapel regularly. Installation will be held in about a week and then the Seniors will be in line for Saturday morning's chapel. There is no keener school spirit felt than when Seniors march into chapel on Saturday mornings in their caps and gowns, especially is the spirit felt by the Seniors themselves.

Senior privileges caused quite a long discussion. Every detail that was not clear was made so by Grace Virginia Woodhouse. The question of what should happen to the Senior who would allow an under classman to go with her to the drug store after the movies, was well discussed. eniors should respect their privileges; they must if they expect to keep them. The class decided that if a Senior did not have enough respect for her own rights, she should be punished. Her punishment will be the denial of her privileges for one month.

Following last year's plan, Seniors still act as chaperones for under classmen. The class unanimously elected Grace Virginia Woodhouse, A. J. Scott and Henrietta Cornwall as the first three Senior chaperones. Wednesday night the other seven were elected out of eleven girls nominated from the class. These were: Nancy Boykins, Ellen Jones, Frances Crawford, Ruth Hunt, Nancy Shaner, Charlotte Hutchins, and Jane Witt. This group of ten girls will act as chaperones for all under-classmen to games and other social functions.

Athletic Point System Changed By the Council

The basis of athletic activities is he point system. Some changes have een made since last year. As it now tands, the point system is as follows:

.—Physical efficiency test

1. 9 events with 4 stunts and 4 field and track events 75 pts.
2. —9 events with 7 stunts and 7 field and track events 100 pts.

I.—Teams

1.—1st class team in any sport 50 pts.

2.—2nd class team in any sport, 25 pts.

3.—Attendance at 50 per cent practices of each sport 25

4—Championship team 50

5.—Runner-up 25

6.—Honorary varsity 25

7.—Varsity team 50

8.—Varsity squad 25

9—Manager of sport 10

II.—Hiking

6 five-mile hikes per year ..... 5 pts

V.—Field Day

1st place in any individual event 14 pts.

2nd place in any individual event, 10 pats.

Continued on page three

S. T. C. BEGINS ITS FORTY-EIGHTH SESSION

Despite excessive heat on the first day, the forty-eighth session of State Teachers College began most auspiciously; the students reported with usual promptness—over six hundred matriculating the first day.

Classes began on Friday morning and everything is running with machinelike smoothness.

The number of old students returning is unusually fine: the Senior Class numbers just fourteen less than the Junior Class of last fall, while the present Junior Class outnumbers it.

In the enrollment seventy-eight of Virginia's hundred counties are represented and fifteen of her twenty cities; eleven States have also sent students.

Sophomore Classmen Elected at Meeting Thurs.

At a call meeting held last Thursday night in the small auditorium, Miss Virginia Potts was unanimously elected as the Sopohmore Classman for the coming year. The Sophomores plan great things for their "reigning year," and are indeed grateful for the competent hand which they feel sure will guide them onward and upward in just the right way.

A letter from Miss Mary Frances Hatchett was read aloud, in which she expressed her sorrow at not being able to be with them again this year. Miss Hatchett was their classman during the year of 30-31, and was much beloved by all the class.

Although the Sophomores regret giving up Miss Hatchett, they indeed feel fortunate in having Miss Potts, and with every hand to the wheel in co-operation they go steadily on toward their goal.

FALL SEASON FOR TENNIS OPENS HERE THIS WEEK

The fall season for tennis is opening this week and it is hoped that many girls—both old and new—will come out. If the new girls have not found out yet where the courts are, any of the old girls will tell them where to go.

The annual singles tournament will be one of the outstanding sport events of the Fall, and everyone who so desires is eligible for participation. Watch for further announcement concerning the tournament. Don't forget that tennis is one of the major sports and let us have your support and cooperation to make this year a big success.

THREE NEW HALL PRESIDENTS ELECTED

Three new hall presidents have been elected: Mary Elizabeth Norman for Library Hall; Cecil Talley for Whitehouse Hall, and Irwin Staples for West Main. The girls elected for these halls last spring did not return.

Here's a novel subscription dance held at Butler University: Each young lady was weighed at the door and her escort paid so much per pound. Guess who stayed at home?—Exchange.

Hockey Season Opens for the Upper Classmen

Eight Varsity Players Are Back for Season of 1931-32—Good Team Expected

FRESHMAN PRACTICE BEGINS

The hockey season at S. T. C. opened for upper classmen, Thursday afternoon, September 24. Miss Iler, coach, sent out the call to all upper classmen and a great number responded.

After a hot vacation of tennis, golf, swimming, and other sports the old girls are in fine trim for a hard fall practice. Because of long grass on the field, practice was made up of stick-work, dribbling and drives. Miss Iler reminded the girls of the fact, that good stick-work and brain work were fundamentals to good hockey. "You must play hockey with your minds; you must always be looking ahead and you must be fast," she said in part.

Eighth members of last year's varsity are back and the season promises to be an excellent one. Last year the team lost Pearl Edwards and Elizabeth Hunter, both goal keepers. Allie Oliver, captain in 1930 and our lef in-side, and Emily Simpson, left full-back, were also graduated in the class of 1931. These places are thus left vacant for some other varsity squad member or freshman to fill. S. T. C. still has strong material, however, in her varsity squad of 1930—eleven of whom are back.

Opportunity for freshmen to learn the game will be given this week. Hockey is a sport that only a few high schools can boast of, and therefore the majority of new students here know very little about it. It is not difficult to learn, though, and S. T. C. is expecting a strong freshman team.

Dorothy Snedegar Heads Hockey Varsity Team

The Athletic Council has appointed Dot Snedegar as head of the 1931 hockey season. She is a junior, a varsity player and vice-president of the Athletic Association. She knows her sport well, she is efficient, reliable, and a hard worker. Her position on the team is center forward. Last year she showed up well both in speed and pass-work.

The schedule for this season will be completed soon and S. T. C. will probably enter another hockey tournament.

Dot Snedegar took part in the tournament at William and Mary, last Novemer, in which eight other colleges participated.

200 Deported From U. S. As Jobless Return to England and Doel.

Last week England received tangible evidence of America's unemployment problem. Almost 200 men, women and children lands from the United States from which they had been returned at the expense of the American government because there was no work for them.

They comprised about fifty families and they had emigrated in the last ten years. Seemingly they had prospered for a time, but when they became jobless the United States decided to pay their expenses back rather than to keep them as public burdens.

FEW CHANGES IN THE FACULTY THIS YEAR

Few changes in the faculty were made here for the year 1931-1932. There are two new additions and three returning from leaves of absence. The new instructors are Miss Sybil Henry, A. B., of the University of North Carolina; M. A., of Duke University, who will have charge of the second grade of thhe campus training school; Miss Rosan Palmer, B. A., University of Iowa, M. A., University of Chicago who will be in charge of the student teachers at Curdsville rural training school. Those who are returning from leaves of absence are Miss Helen Barnes, Miss Fleeta Cooper and Miss Virginia Bedford.

Instructors who are not back this year have been heard from, and are still interested in the affairs of S. T. C.

Student Governm't Have Coach Classes For New Students

The Student Government Association is conducting a series of orientation classes this week to familiarize the freshmen and new students with the customs and regulations of S. T. C. By a thorough study of the Student Handbook in these classes, puzzling questions will be eliminated concerning regulations and the honor code.

What citizenship means at S. T. C. will be explained. The Association wishes to establish in the hearts of the new students the spirit of the Honor Code and respect for it.

On Monday and Tuesday evening the Student Handbook was studied. On Wednesday evening the Honor Code is to be explained, and on Thursday a general review with explanations of any misunderstood points will be held. Friday the examination will be given. It is hoped that as a result, love for the Alma Mater, loyalty to her will grow as the new students catch the spirit of cooperation and of honor which exists here.

FIRST FARMVILLE "GOOD WILL DAY," OCTOBER 2ND

The first Farmville "Good Will Day" will be October 2nd. Led in the movement by the Retail Merchants Association, Farmville citizens will welcome people from five surrounding counties on that day. Mayor E. W. Sanford has issued a proclamation inviting everybody to Farmville on "Good Will Day."

Early in the morning the program will begin with public speaking, talking pictures, prize contest, sawing contest, airplane flights, caliope music, and the annual Dahlia Show.

Sixty merchants are taking part in "Good Will Day" and offering special attractions at their place of business.

TRY-OUTS FOR CHORAL CLUBS BEING HELD

The Senior and Junior Choral Clubs have begun a series of try-outs for new girls. Any freshmen or upper classmen interested will please listen for announcements for the time of these try-outs.

The faculty of the University of Rochester recently voted to do away with all eight o'clock classes, having decided it was better for students to sleep in their own rooms than in the class rooms. —Ex.

Four S. T. C. Students Attend Blue Ridge

Theme of Conference of 1931 Is "Spiritual Adventuring" In Life

SOCIAL SIDE NOT NEGLECTED

Among the representatives from the southern colleges who convened at Blue Ridge this past spring were four from S. T. C., A. J. Scott, president of the Y. W. C. A. at S. T. C., Winston Cobb, undergraduate representative, Frances Crawford, a member of the cabinet, and Miss Mary Nichols, a member of the Advisory Board

The opening address of the conference was made by Mr. F. P. Miller, who is chairman of the Executive Committee of the World's Student Christian Federation. A series of inspiring devotional services was conducted by Rev. Ted Evans. These services spoke of Mr. Evans' deep spirituality and lent an air of reverence to the day's work.

The theme of the conference was "Spiritual Adventuring." Each day the conference went adventuring with Miss Winifred Wygal, of the National Student Council of Y. W. C. A., in a series of delightful lectures on Spiritual Adventuring. She took her audience through "modern thickets and modern frontiers"; she showed Jesus Christ as an Adventurer. She said that in our adventure through life, we have three assets—ourselves, the other person and God.

One of the most interesting features of the program was the discussion groups held during Informal Hour. Dr. Sylvanus Duvall was splendid in his treatment of "Successful Living"—most helpful and interesting.

Foreign Student Movements were represented at Blue Ridge. Miss Marianne Mills, a member of the British Student Movement and now on the world staff of Y. W. C. A., is visiting student camps in various parts of United States and Canada. In Oct. she will return to her headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland. Miss Mary

Continued on page three

Y.W.C.A. Welcomes The Freshmen At a Reception

The Y. W. C. A. reception for the freshmen was held Friday night, Sept. 25, at 8 o'clock in the student building lounge and the gymnasium. As the students entered the lounge, they were met by Dr. Jarman, Miss Mary, Miss Potts, Miss Tabb, Miss Camper, Grace Virginia Woodhouse, A. J. Scott, and others. After meeting the receiving line, the big sisters took their little sisters to the gymnasium, where they danced.

A very entertaining program was rendered by Delia Grant who recited two pieces; Garnett Hodges, who played some numbers on the piano; and Margaret Banks, who sang very ludicrously some popular songs. Then the freshmen played a "get-acquainted" game and the prize was won by Frances Dorin.

Miss Camper and A. J. Scott led the grand march around the gymnasium, and then by the table where delicious ice cream and cakes were served.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

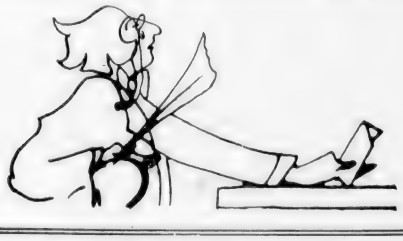
Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34



Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '33
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting an dtreating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Welcome To New Students

Into the spirit of the blue and white we welcome the new students.

Back in the home of the blue and white the old students are glad to help you in any possible way. The truth of the blue, the purity of the white, the gallant spirit of our patron saint, Joan of Arc we will show you. In your hearts, we would build the fire of the onward spirit of Farmville, the fire that will carry you to the top through the years. We wlil teach you to love the things we love—"the trees, and the arcades, the vine-covered walls."

The knowledge of the ages will be taught you in class. Varied experience in any field—athletics, dramatics, music, literary activities, social organizations—we will give you.

Traditions grown through the years we will explain to you The spirit of cooperation and "togetherness," the spirit of our honor code, the spirit of Lincoln, "I am not bound to be win, but I am bound to be true; I am not bound to succeed but I am bound to live up to the light I have"—this we would instill in you that you will cherish the ideals and standards of S. T. C., as we do.

We welcome you, new students. Sing with us:

All Hail, Alma Mater.
Dear Mother To Thee
Thy daughters true, faithful
And loyal will be.

Over The Rotunda

Have you ever seen so many people? Look down there. Celia! Wait a minute, do you guess we're supposed to be at another meeting tonight? Oh, I forgot, it is Sunday night. Look, Celia, I believe there are boys down there! I declare, way up here on the third floor we can't see a thing, much less hear!

Say, this is better, isn't it? I wish we lived down here on second. It's a lot handier, isn't it?

Look, there's Sanders Gash, who'll be dating her? Say, Celia, there's some hope for us yet, isn't it? Maybe she'll tell us how she does it.

Boy, look at that man down there. Isn't he swell? Who? Captain of the Hampden-Sydney football team, you say? Gosh, that's a darling girl he's talking to. Guess I could beat her time. Watch me!

Oh! see that one who just came in? You mean that Greek god standing down there by the captain? Ain't he grand? Haven't I seen him down town somewhere? Those heavenly blue eyes and that wave! Gosh, what a build! Gee, Celia, you and me are going to be sewed up with those two in no time! Doesn't the Greek god look nervous? If he's in love with somebody up hehre, I'll die. Cap doesn't look so scared, does he? I bet it would take plenty to upset him anyhow!

Look coming in the door, Celia. It's Loulie Millner. You know she was May Queen here last year—sure, look at everybody giving her the glad hand. Do you guess people will be glad like that to see us come back, five years from now? Look, she knows Cap and the Greek god! Let's go down and tell her we saw her picture in the papers, and maybe she'll give us a knock-down!

Who's this person coming over here to us? What? Stop hanging over the railing? What? Do you mean these boys didn't come to see us? What? Oh, yessum.

Celia, I guess we had better start out on Hampden-Sydney freshmen, don't you? Maybe we can work up to these big fish down stairs.

PRAYERS

"Pray evermore the Apostle said
I try, but I am hard bested,
I cannot pray all day,
There are so many things to do
So many things I must pursue
Which draw my thoughts away."

That expresses our feelings — we rush all day—and when evening comes we want to walk—to get out in the open. But, after all, shouldn't we give a few moments to communion with God—in prayers? After supper, if we go to prayers it gives us reassurance of God's aid—and his nearness. We invite you all to prayers.

WELCOME! FRESHMEN!

The Y. W. C. A. extends to you the right hand of friendship and bids you a hearty welcome. Forty-eight times have the arms of S. T. C. been thrown around an incoming Freshman class, but never has the embrace been more tender and loving than this year.

We welcome you to every phase of our college life. We need your service, your interest and your suggestions. As the Freshman Class, you are one of the most important factors of our student body. We recognize you as such and open our hearts and bid you enter.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS

The report on scholarship just released by Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, shows that the women increased their traditional hold on first place in scholarship standing by making better grades the last semester than the men in the institution. The average for scholarship as a whole was practically the same as that for the preceding year.

A course called "The Art of Making Love" has been installed at Rollins College. Credit for five hours work a week is given. We would like the course, of course, if it were at all practical. It could be taken during "leisure" hours by those who can't go on leave.—Citadel "Bulldog."—Exchange|

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

Dan Cupid wasn't idle this summer around Ruby Hunt and Frances Parker.

Football Bill said that miniatures may be going out of style with short skirts, but he still prefers girls brief in size!

I wonder who started the idea that every year the Freshmen are greener?

That reminds me that there is a precious group of new girls here from Richmond! No foolin'!

Have you heard the "Blues Croner" from Buena Vista? If you haven't, you've missed the biggest, saddest moment in your life!

It's funny how a person in love goes around with someone else with the same affliction! Have you seen Gathright and Catherine Royster pass?

The freshmen seem to be a talented lot considering how many came out for Choral Club and Dramatic Club.

ALUMNAE NEWS

With the ending of the winter session it sometimes hahppens that the teacher closes the door of the classroom and immediately opens the door of matrimony. One of the first of the June brides was Miss Frances V. Newman of Farmville, who married Kenneth Wallace, a student at Richmond Medical College. They will spend this winter in that city.

Miss Elva Gray Humphries o fDeltaville and Lloyd Pinckney Parrott, of Painter, were married in Richmond on Saturday, June 20, at the home of the bride's cousin, the Rev. L. B. Taylor, who performed the wedding ceremony. Both Mr. and Mrs. Parrott have been teaching in Northampton public schools for several years.

Miss Gilberta Knight of Big Stone Gap became the bride of William W. Davis of Clarksville on July 20. They are residing in Mullins, S. C.

The marriage of Miss Isabel G. Crowder of "Kensington", Jeffress, Va., and Samuel K. Callender of Harrisonburg took place July 25 in St. John's Episcopal church, Richmond. Immediately after the ceremoney Mr. and Mrs. Callender left for Yellowstone National Park. They are now at home at "Willow Springs" in Rockingham, Va.

A wedding of much interest in this neighborhood was that of Miss Isabel Allen of Prospect to Thomas Cecil Ligon of Lynchburg which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents July 17. Mr. and Mrs. Ligon are living in Lynchburg.

Miss Alice Cabell Gannaway of Draper, has held for two years a position with the City National Bank, New York. She was married on July 18, in The Little Church Around the Corner, New York City, to Walter L. Giles, Jr., formerly of Roanoke, now general manager of the New York office of Patrick Carr & Co., cotton and wool merchants.

Miss Alice Lee Schenk of Roanoke and Thomas Anderson Hubbard of Farmville were married in Roanoke June 17. Their address is 376 Washington Avenue, S. W., Roanoke.

Miss Annie Alivs, former principal of John Randolph High School, who has been doing graduate work at Teachers College, New York, will teach next session at the State Teachers College, Richmond, Ky.

Miss Emily Clarke of Farmville received her B. S. degree at Johns Hopkins University last June. She spent the summer teaching at Peabody Conservatory, where she is an instructor in winter, also.

Miss Mary Finch of Chase City, who has been home on a furlough of one year from her missionary work in Japan, left in September to resume her work there.

SONNET I

A world that's bathed in the silver and the blue
A place that's just for love and love's own planning,
I find my thoughts go wandering back
to you
As over clearest waters my eyes are scanning
The mountains and a background for the scene
Here also is the constancy of things
The ocean, as upon my back I lean,
Seems never made for conquering ships of kings.
There is a realness in the feeling here
Blue skies, silver ships sailing far at sea.
An everlasting feeling lingers near
And if my mind a wandering always be
I hope sometimes your thoughts will meet with me.

Margaret Fisher

NATURE, A MODISTE

Zinnias
Everywhere
Standing tall
In tailored fashions
Against my garden wall.

Zinnias
Resembling smart women
Parading down the boulevards
In blending color combinations.

Zinnias
Bathed
In sprays of golden light,
Clothed with stardust
By the frosty night.

Zinnias
Everywhere
This Indian Summer
Standing tall
In beaten brasses
Supplying color
For a tardy fall.

V. P. L.

JINGLE

I would swing on the point of a star.
Leap to the edge of the moon,
Go for a walk on the milky way
Not come to earth too soon.

I'd take a drink from the little dipper,
See if on Mars they do fight;
Tiring of skies I'd then go to stay
With seven sister the rest of the night.

When dark comes again to the land of the stars,
For the big and little bears I'd be jockey.
Then in a while I'd tire of all this . . .
And come back to earth to play
hockey.

Easter M. Souders

DEATH GOES BY

Around the corner
Death . . . .
A wind, leaves blown
No longer
Breath,
A coldness, haunted feeling
Around the corner
Death
Comes stealing . . . .
It passed me by . . . and
Life
A fresh breeze blows the hair
A sweet rain kisses cheeks so fair
A calmness, ecstacy in life.

Margaret Fisher

LIGHT AT NIGHT

Father in heaven
I see your tall pines
Lying straight
Against a starlit sky.

I see the lanterns
Of the fireflies,
I can hear the cricket's
Gentle lullabys,
And through the night
The virgin breezes' sighs.

How can I help but know
That your presence
Is all about?
Without it, life to me
Would resemble a candle gone out.

V. P. L.

SOCIALS

Those who attended the opening dances at V. M. I. were: Katherine Marchant, Jerry Lee, "Chick" Mosby, Frances Rawlings, Thelma Walsh "Roo" Barker and Frances Dillon.

Virginia Fox spent the week-end in Richmond.

Alice Covington, Dolly Reed, and Elsie Burgess spent the week-end visiting in school.

Loulie Millner is spending a few days in S. T. C.

Teel Faris was visiting in school this week-end.

Mary Frances Hatchett who is teaching in Petersburg, was a visitor in school this week.

Miss Mary, Miss Potts and Frances Potts motored to Lynchburg Sunday afternoon.

Elizabeth Kelly and Dorothy Prescott went to Kenbridge Sunday.

MARRIAGES AMONG THE STUDENTS AND FACULTY

Some of the members of the student body and faculty who have fallen victims to Cupid's dart

Miss Robertson to Mr. Cabell Fitzpatrick.

Miss McCormick to Mr. Dale Brown.

Miss Petit to Mr. Carpenter.

Mr. Holton to Miss Mary Goldsmith Little.

Polly White to Mr. "Boots" Teel.

Frances Parker to Mr. Joe Bradford.

Ruby Hunt to Mr. Ed Santrock.

ENTERTAINS FOR MRS. BRADFORD

Miss Iler, adviser of Pi Kappa Sigma Sorority was hostess at an informal luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Joe Bradford, the former Miss Frances Parker of S. T. C.

The tea was held in the tea room on Friday, September 25. Miss Iler had as her guests members of the sorority.

A bowl of brightly colored zinias adorned the center of the table. A course luncheon was served.

Members of the chapter presented Mrs. Bradford with a lovely gift at the conclusion of the luncheon.

NEW MEMBERS OF "14"

Betty Shields
Mary Gilmer
Nedra Bait
Mae Mabe
Virginia Lowe
Mary Easley Hill
Ida Miller
Judith Taylor
Henrietta Cornwell
Polly MacMurden
Mary Mustard
Frances Dillon
Helen Harris
Kitty Maclemore
Martha Cross
Lucille Tillar
Evelyn Knaub
Barbara Winston
Jean Maclure
Katherine Davis
Sally Russell
Katherine Young
Virginia Fox
Eilzabeth Fields
Bernely Brockenbrough
Ruth Perkins
Gladys Mathews
Grace Virginia Woodhouse
Margaret Young
Mildred Hope
Emma Littleton

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ENTERTAINS S. T. C. GIRLS

The ladies of the Farmville Presbyterian church gave a delightful reception to the Presbyterian girls of the college in the Lounge of the Student Building on Saturday evening, September 26, at seven-thirty o'clock.

Miss Irene Leake sang "From the Land of Sky-blue Water" and "Only a Rose." Fruit punch was served. The students met the minister and members of the congregation. A feeling of fellowship and of being-at-home in the Farmville Presbyterian church was established.

MUSICAL CLUBS ENTERTAIN FRESHMEN

The Junior and Senior Choral Clubs and the Orchestra entertained at a reception Tuesday from 4:30 to 6:00 p. m. in the lounge in honor of the freshman class. Dr. Jarman, Miss Cox, Miss Tabb, Miss Purdom, Mr. and Mrs. Strick, Miss Potts and officers of the three clubs received the guests.

An informal program was opened by Dr. Jarman who made a short talk Mr. Strick sopke on the subject of music and its place in the school and its influence. He then enterpreted "The Rosary."

Everyone sang "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginny" and "When You Come to the End of a Perfect Day." Light refreshments were served.

NEW N. B. B. O. GIRLS

Mildred Lipscomb
Katherine LeLe Young
Elizabeth McCauley
Martha Putney
Antionette Jones
Nancy Burgwin
Dot Long
Lorena Bland
Helen Smith
Justine Cutshall
Inez Martin
Frances Dorin
Frances Crawford
Mary Hood
Margaret Gilmer
Broks Wheeler
Bessie Mae White
Lucille Owen
Mary Howard
Mamie Barnes
Dot Waywick
Mary Winston
Freda Shields
Libby Mason
Charlotte Oakey
Barney Barnes
Dot Thomas
Garnet Hodges
Mary Diehl
Martha Higgins
Celia Jones
Thelma Walsh
Belle Lovelace
Lucille Rocke
Cecil Talley
Judy Hardy
Ruth Showalter
Iola McIntyre
Kathryn Claud
Homozelle Darden
Mildred Scott
Alice Blankinship
Margaret McClure
Dorothy Legare
Sarah Hyde Thomas
Alice McKay
Mildred Mountcastle
Christine Childrey
Mary Thomas Rawls
Winston Cobb
Louise Clodfeller
Martha Kello
Mary Lou Fritts
Sara Sanders
Loeta Barham
Margaret Copenhaver
Sara Beck
Mary Conway
Ella Mallory
Berkley Nelson
Sarah Ford
Fannie Mae Colonna
Wic Scott
Thelma Steven
Elizabeth Duke
Virginia Lanier
Virginia Young
Virginia Guy
Virginia Gee
Janet Harris
Mary Custis Burwell
Doreen Smith
Mildred Gwaltney
Harriet Moomaw
Billie Reid
Virginia Thornhill
Winifred Pugh
Isabell Allegree
Mary Kathryn Taylor
Ruth Hunt
"Chub" Denit.

FIRST SING IS A GREAT SUCCESS

In the large auditorium last Saturday night much enthusiasm was shown as the first Sing of the new school year was held. The lights went out, and Sue Yeaman, chairman of the Sing committee, came to the front of the platform. Imagine, everyone's surprise when she called on Lucy Zizzler (really Jane Witt) to stand up and sing! Jane sang "Lilacs" after which Garnet Hodges played the piano, then the curtains were drawn. A roar of glee went up from the assembled student body as Henrietta Cornwell and A. J. Scott began taking the parts of the new girls at college, just fresh from home. The mistakes they made, typical of all Freshmen, were very humorous but everyone was glad to see them come into their own in the capacity of cheer leader like they'd been at home. Amid a burst of applause the curtains came together and Sing was over for another week.

WORLD NEWS

The Jews of America gave $56,-200,870 to Jewish and non-Jewish philanthropies during the year which ended August 31.

Gifts specifically for Jewish philanthropies included one of $1,000,-000 and fourteen of $100,000 or more, while those for non-Jewish included one of $10,000,000, five of $1,000,-000, and fourteen of $100,000 or more.

In proportion to their numbers, this wholesale philanthropy of the Jews, believes the Boston Post, "Constitutes a record in the noble art of giving." And the Post wonders whether it is generally realized how much the Jews give for charity.

All the great basic changes in war material and equipment have been due to civilians, says Joseph Rossman, of the U. S. Patent Office, writing in "The American Journal of Sociology," Chicago.

It is a strange fact, he finds, that these inventions are rarely made by Army and Navy officers. And furthermore, inventions stimulated by a war usually do not find their way into general use much before the next one.

"John Erickson, for instance, who invented the screw-propeller of the warship Princeton in 1841, was not a naval officer. This invention led to the installation of engines and boilers below the water line, bringing about the development of modern naval construction.

"Colt, who invented the Colt gun, was an Amberican who worked in his father's textile mill.

"Fulton, Bushnell, Holland and Lake, who made various submarine inventions, were outside the Navy."

Three hitherto unknown suburbs of Havana have been discovered by the census takers, who report that their entire inhabitants consist of unemployed who have constructed makeshift houses from stones and tin cans and are living in a very primitive manner.

Each suburb boasts a name. One located alongside the fortress of Principe, now occupied as a city jail, has been christened "Siberia."

The inhabitants of these newly created "suburbs" will be regarded as residents and are being listed.

FOUR S. T. C. STUDENTS ATTEND BLUE RIDGE

Continued from page one

Van Citters, chairman of the Dutch Student Movement, was in America to attend the W. S. . F. retreat in Williamston, Mass.

Nor was the social side neglected. There were trips to Chimney Rock, Mount Mitchell and to Asheville to see Grove Park Inn and the Biltmore estates.

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK

BUSINESS MANAGER
THE ROTUNDA,
Dear Madam:

Enclosed you will find $1.50 for which please send me THE ROTUNDA for the year 1931-1932.

Name _____

Address _____ State _____

ATHLETIC POINT SYSTEM CHANGED BY COUNCIL

Continued from page one

Participating in meet ..... 5 pts.
V.—Tournament (tennis & archery)
1.—Championship
a—singles ..... 50 pts.
b—doubles ..... 25 pts.
2—Runners-up
a—singles ..... 25 pts.
b—doubles 15
3—Those in after first match, 5 pts.
VI.—Scholarship.
"C" average ..... 25 pts.
"B" average ..... 50 pts.
"A" average ..... 75 pts.
1st place in relay ..... 10 pts.
2nd place in relay ..... 5 pts.
3rd place in any individual event, 5 pts.
Breaking college record ..... 25 pts

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

Willis .... Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Martin the Jeweler
Gifts of Lasting Remembrance
317 Main Street
Farmville, Virginia.

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
Welcomes the College Girls
WATCH THIS SPACE EACH WEEK FOR
College Specials
FARMVILLE'S
Best Department Store

THE HUB
Welcomes S. T. C. Girls!
SPECIAL FOR OPENING WEEK!
Allan "A" Sheer Chiffon Pure Silk Hose, $1.19 value for 79c
All the New Fall Shades
THE NEWEST VOGUE!
Polo Coats, long lengths, French Model, size 14 to 20 ..... $9.85
The Hub Department Store
FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

College is largely a matter of give and take—yeh, give money and take examinations.

"If Minnie in Indian means water, what does Minnesota mean?"
"Aw, don't be dumb all your life, you poor goof—it means sota water."

A divinity student named Tweedle
Once wouldn't accept his degree,
'Cause it's tough enough to be called Tweedle,
Without being Tweedle, D. D.

We call our math prof. North Pole, because no one has ever passed under him.

"The man I refused before I married you is now rich."
"But, remember, dear, he didn't marry you."

"Does your little boy always stick out his tongue at visitors that way?"
"Yes, he never forgets a face."

Prof.: "Will you please stop passing notes in the back of the room?"
Stude: "Them ain't notes. Them's dollar bills. We're shooting craps."
Prof.: "Oh, pardon me."

The fraternity song: My Coat Belongs to the Pants that Belong to Somebody Else.

"Hey, Pa, that new neighbor is coming tomorrow."
"You mean to borrow."

ARCHERY

We've started! Robin Hood is in our midst once again! Heretofore he has not arrived until spring, but due to the fact that the spring quarter passes so quickly, he is going to stay with us all year.

Archery began Monday. Come out and join the fun. None of us is as sharp a shooter as Robin Hood, so come out, Freshmen, and someone will instruct you in the art of the bow and arrow.

"If I only could get some sleep! I have insomnia, you know."
"Why don't you try counting sheep?"
"Oh, I tried that—and the sheep fell asleep!"

"How did you like the banquet last night?"
"Not at all!"
"Wasn't the foo dgood?"
"Yes, very good—but I sat next to a lady who squinted and she ate off my plate all the time."

"It's very hard to drive a bargain," said the old fellow, who bought a flivver for $10.

"I wonder how anyone could say absence makes the heart grow fonder'."
"I guess that means the absence of a third party."

"I disapprove of all brutal sports, prize fighting, fishing—"
"Good heavens! How can you name those two sports in the same breath?"
"Why not? Isn't it the object of both boxer and angler to land a hook in the jaw?"

"It is lovely. You have tuned in excellently."
"But, granny, that's the vacuum-cleaner."

EACO THEATRE
Program Sept. 30 to Oct. 6

WED. & THURS—"THE SMILING LIEUTENANT" with Maurice Chevalier and Claudette Colbert. Here's the Prince of Personality singing and winking his merry way—in and out of love. A delightful, charming, sophisticated, daintily risque cinema this; it offers more entertainment than you can imagine. A smile— a wink—and Maurice is off on a two-barrelled love affair that changes him from a carefree bachelor to a careless husband. "The Smiling Lieutenant" packed them in at $2 in New York and ran for months. You get it at regular prices, with gayety, lovely clothes, songs and a great cast with Claudette Colbert, Miriam Hopkins and Charles Ruggles. Don't miss one of the finest pictures yet produced! Added attraction, BOBBY JONES in "How I Play Golf."

Note—Farmville Good Will Day Matinee Friday, October 2 at 2 p. m. Adults, 20c; children under 12, 10c for this show only.

FRI.-SAT.—JOAN CRAWFORD in "THIS MODERN AGE" supported by Neil Hamilton, Pauline Frederick and Monroe Owsley. Against a background of gay, sophisticated Paris, this story of two lovers will thrill you to the core. With beautiful Joan as a daughter of today coming face to face with the stern realities of life and love for the first time. They whispered things that she could not believe. They linked her mother's name brazenly with scandal. he must make a decision—she does and you'll enjoy the happy ending. A story of modern girls; modern love, with Joan Crawford in her liveliest role to date; and beautiful clothes—you'll get an eye full.

NEXT MON. & TUES.—"HUCKLEBERRY FINN" with JACKIE COOGAN, JUNIOR DURKIN,, MITZI GREEN and JACKIE SEARL. Mark Twain's lovable heroes on the greatest adventure of their famous careers. Set sail down the Mississippi with Huck, Becky, The Duke and all the rest in search of boyhood's greatest thrill. Come to the land of heart's desire with Mark Twain's lovable boy heroes. A real story with the thrill of romance, breath-taking suspense, and a good hearty laugh woven into its heart-tingling adventure. Jackie Coogan and Junior Durkin will take you back to your childhood by their splendid performances. A real treat for grownups and children alike.

Daily matinees at 4 p. m. Every night at 8 o'clock.

Admission—Adults 25c at matinees and 35c at night; children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

WELCOME, GIRLS!

To Farmville's only exclusive dress store.
New arrivals daily in the latest Eugenie styles.
Featuring every style that the college girls demand.

At Two Prices—$4.88 & $7.88

New York Dress Stores

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

Modernistic Dorothy May Stores

FARMVILLE NEWEST WOMEN'S STORE INVITES YOU
S. T. C. STUDENTS MAKE THIS STORE YOUR STORE

DRESSES
$3.45
$4.45
$5.45
$7.45
$9.45
$14.45

COATS
$9.45
$14.45
$24.45
$29.45
TO $57.45

Accessories
KID GLOVES
$1.88 & $2.48
POCKET BOOKS HAND BAGS
88c $1.88 $2.88
HOSIERY
68c 94c $1.25

"LOVELY" DRESSES
Empress Eugenie and Patois Versions

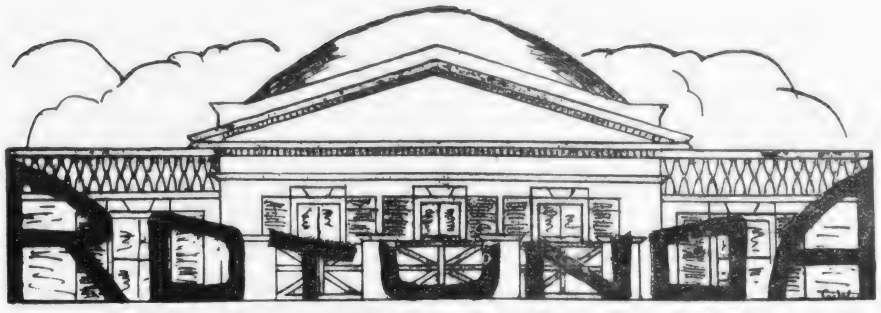
Note Our $4.45 Dress Dept. offers values that are really unusual. Compare them with other $7.85 dresses



Note Our Prices—
$3.45, $4.45, $5.45, $7.45, $9.45

Charge Accounts For Convenience

Dorothy May Stores
Farmville's Store Beautiful
Member Associated Dept. Stores
Miss L. Schiller, Mgr. Mrs. M. M. Morgan, Asst. Mgr.

Charge Accounts For Convenience

FRESHMEN OBSERVING "RAT" WEEK

BEGINNING INFORMATIONAL ISSUES

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1931 No. 2

Honor Graduates To Begin Work

Must have General Average of "C" and "B" Average on Major Subjects.

REQUIREMENTS ARE DIFFERENT

The honors courses which were instituted at S. T. C. two years ago are to be given again this year. These courses enable Seniors to do research work, so that, upon satisfactory completion, they become candidates for graduation "with honors" in their special work.

This year the requirements for honors work are slightly changed. Heertofore, in order to do honors work, a girl had to make the Dean's list the first quarter of her senior year, and remain on this list for the remaining school year. This year, however, one does not have to make the Dean's list, but, instead, one must have a good general average of "C" on all subjects and a "B" average on her major subject. This year a girl gets also three hours credit for doing honors work.

Each girl taking honors work has a special faculty committee to advise with her and help her in her research work. After the completion of this work, it must be approved by all of the faculty members on her committee in order that she may graduate "with honors."

The purpose of these courses is to give the student a chance to reach out into broader fields and to do therein the kind of work in which she is particularly interested. Work in the honors courses not only gives students a chance to show their individual ability in these fields but also gives them honorable recognition for its successful completion.

'31 Graduate News Is Obtained

State Teachers College at Farmville had 316 graduates in 1931: Degrees, 121; diplomas, 195. The college has information as follows concerning the members of this class.

Teaching in Virginia	203
Teaching in West Virginia	8
Teaching in North Carolina	7
Teaching in South Carolina	1
Teaching in Maryland	1
Teaching in Florida	2
Teaching in Kentucky	1
Teaching in New Jersey	1
Student at S. T. C., Farmville	13
Student at Pennsylavnia College	1
Graduate student, Columbia U.	2
Graduate student, University Va.	1
Graduate student, Duke U.	1
Graduate student, Univ. of N. C.	1
Graduate student, Geo. Wash'n	1
In training, dietician	1
At home	3
Married	5

THE "VIRGINIAN" ASKS FOR STUDENT'S AID

"The Virginian," the college annual, wishes that the whole student body support it by giving subscriptions. The staff is canvassing on every hall. The table in the hall will be kept on certain days.

The staff has begun active work toward producing the Annual. The theme is to be an attractive one.

Pictures for the Annual will be taken beginning October 19. Without the pictures of nearly the entire student body, the Annual will not be representative of it. The Annual is the students' book of their year at

Continued on page three

R. E. Burson Gives Course in Landscape Work

R. E. Burson, landscape engineer, from Virginia's State Commission on Conservation and Development delivered the first of a series of twelve lectures here Thursday, October 1 at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Burson's first lecture was primarily an introduction to his subject.

He says that one should "be personal" in arranging his garden, for it should be a place in which the own personal emotions can find satisfaction. All factors in gardens should be in harmony in order to make it a place of perfect rest.

Mr. Burson's eleven succeeding lecture will be delivered in the Little Auditorium on Thursdays at 3:45 p. m.

Senior Installation To be Thurs. Night

Henrietta Cornwell, president of the Senior Class, announced at a call meeting of the class that installation services would be October 8. Each Senior was urged to be ready so that the class would have one hundred per cent in caps and gowns.

The exact time of the installation will be made before Thursday.

Dr. Diehl, of the Episcopal church will deliver the invocation.

ROTUNDA TO PUBLISH INFORMATIONAL ISSUES

Due to a request that the Rotunda publish information about the various organizations at S. T. C., beginning with this issue information concerning organizations will be published.

This is primarily for the benefit of the freshmen and new students but may prove helpful to old students.

The plan as originally started was to have just one informational issue but due to a lac kof space this was found impossible.

In the write-ups of the organizations the heads of each are given so that students may know to whom to refer for further details. The general purpose and anything of interest concerning the society or club are included.

Information about organizations not already given to the Rotunda will be published when sent in to the office.

JOAN OF ARC

The Ever Guiding Spirit—that will lead new students as it has led the old ones!

SOPHOMORE ORCHESTRA ORGANIZES WITH 9 PIECES

The Sophomores are proud to boast a nine-piece orchestra which has recently been organized. It is being efficiently directed by Margaret Banks during the time that the regular leader, Margaret Ely, is teaching. Three practices have been held, and it is reported that the orchestra will be ready to play in the gymnasium next Saturday night. The orchestra is composed of talented musicians of the class and much is expected of it this year.

COLLEGE ORCHESTRA TO RECEIVE CREDIT FOR WORK

Anyone living in Student Building or Annex can probably vouch for the fact that the Orchestra has really begun its work. The members of the orchestra will receive one hours credit each term. There have only been two practices, but to those the new as well as the old members have responded wonderfully. Tentative programs and concerts, among which is a Christmas program, have been worked out, each giving a varied field of composition and composers. Although several of the old members are not with us this year, there are many new ones and the Orchestra is hoping for a successful year.

The officers of this organization are:

President ..... Mildred Steere....
Secretary ..... (To be elected)
Treasurer ..... Virginia Williams
Librarian ..... Josephine Smith

The members:

First Violin—Mildred Steere, Jane Royall Gwendolyn Royall, Mildred Lancaster, Alice Blankenship, Robert Fallwell, Gertrude Manness, Eloise Perkins.

Second Violin — Christian Reynolds, Nelle Davis, William Putney.

Flute—Alice Grainger.

Cello—Virginia Williams, Dorothy Fields.

Xylophone—Sally Jo Kent.

String Bass—Mary L. Gregory.

Drums—Bessie Lynch.

Pianist—Josephine Smith.

Director—Miss Lisbeth Purdom.

JUNIOR CHORAL CLUB ANNOUNCES MEMBERS

New members of the Junior Choral Club as follows:

Agee, Estelle
Anthony, Helen
Blankenship, Alice
Bosworth, Fannie
Cutshall, Jestine
Davis, Catherine
Davis, Dorothy
DeShazo, Margaret
Dixon, Lottie
Epperly, Mildred
Floyd, Ruth
Graybill, Bessie
Grant, Frances
Gravely, Lula
Hamilton, Lucille
Harvey, Hilda
Harry, Mary Louise
Haskins, Ruth
Haskins, Esther
Hood, Mary
Jones, Catherine
Littleton, Emma
Morris, Gertrude
Mattox, Lillian
Mattox, Audrey
Martin, Inez
McManners, Maggie
McDaniel, Frances
McIntire, Iola
Norman, Mary
Perdue, Mildred
Pritchard, Ann
Ranson, Elizabeth
Rhodes, Lois
Rock, Lucille
Showalter, Ruth
Smith, Helen
Thomas Dorothy
Tuttle, Viola
Vassar, Elizabeth
Washer, Florence (Mrs.)
Weaver, Nell

((Continued on page 2)

Freshmen Receive Rules for Week

Class of 1935 Seems to Have Caught Already The Spirit Of S. T. C.

"RAT WEEK"—TUES. UNTIL SAT.

Monday night the Freshmen assembled in the large auditorium and received from the Sophomores the final decree about rat week. Miss Potts read each rule and made all necessary explanations. From the general impression given the Freshmen Class this year has already caught the spirit of S. T. C., and the Sophomores have thrown out a challenge for the Freshmen to show good sportsmanship.

The student body is watching and backing the Freshmen and it is the general belief that "rat week" will be a complete success. Although to some of the Freshmen the week may seem unusually long, in the end it will be a week memorable in every Freshman's diary.

The following are the rules drawn up by the Sophomore Class:

There shall be one week known as RAT WEEK, at which time all Freshmen will be asked and urged to make beds, carry and bring laundry, say, "Yes, ma'am" and "No, ma'am" to all upperclassmen, (except on Thursday at meals), shall not enter front door of the Rotunda and must let upperclassmen enter doors before they do. In the dining room, it will be necessary for Freshmen to stack dishes and pour water at their respective tables. No Freshman will be allowed to go down town during the week unless chaperoned by an upperclassman and she can not go but twice during the week. Freshmen must not cut across the campus and must not go down town without sign-

(Continued on page 3)

Tryouts for Ruffner Society to be Held

The Ruffner Literary Society is giving the Freshmen and any of the upperclassmen girls who are not members, a chance to try-out for their society. If anyone is particularly interested in belonging to this society, she must submit a paper of literary quality on any subject. It may be a short story, an essay, a poem or any piece of literary writing.

These try-outs for the Ruffner Literary Society will continue for two weeks, beginning October 7 and ending October 21. If a pper is written and put in Margaret Fisher's Senior mail box, the society will be glad to consider the try-out as an application for membership. Announcement of those who are eligible for membership to the Ruffner Society will be made as soon as the papers are judged.

DE HO EC CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

At the regular monthly meeting, October 1 the De-Ho-Ec Club elected the following officers:

President ..... Frances Ratcliffe
Vice-Pres. ..... Nancy Burgwin
Secretary ..... Nancy St. Clair
Treasurer ..... Mary E. Scales
Reporter ..... Velma Petty

This club consists of all girls who are majoring or minoring in Home Economics. The big feature of the year is a bazaar just before the Christmas holidays. Christmas candies and snappy presents will be sold. Fruit cakes will be baked by the club on order.

THE ROTUNDA

Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34

Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '33
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting an dtreating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

To the Head of Our Home

"A perfect woman nobly planned"—Tennyson.

She is a living symbol of Service and Love. For many years our students have been guided and uplifted by her unselfish Christian influence. A gentle woman of the old South, possessing prescience and sound judgment in the handling of modern situations with a mind freed from "prejudice, intolerance and can't." One who is thoroughly competent, diplomatic and democratic, dedicating her life to the welfare of others.

Through her as through our Joan you may find, feel and live the Spirit of our Alma Mater.

Our Joan

The first object which meets our gaze upon entering the main doorway is Chapu's statue of Joan D'Arc. What an inspiration she proves to many an enthusiastic idealist and beauty seeker. She serves as a medium through which the spirit of our Alma Mater may be caught if only we that have eyes can see. In the colonnade is found Miss Hyatt's gift, her equestrian statue of Saint Joan, which has for several years past enriched our environment with beauty and inspiration.

ACROSS THE CAMPUS

M-m-m, doesn't this sun feel great? Hope it brings out the latent golden glint in my hair! By the way, remind me to wash my hair right after lunch, it's the only time I have today. Whoever put these benches out here certainly had foresight about the sun cure. Maybe he had an eye to wall-sitting cure, too, huh? I declare you have got the best brown, you might not believe it to look at me now but I was almost brown as Aunt Lucy this summer, only I fade so quick, honest. What time is it, I've got a class at eleven but I've got a vacant at twelve. You have, too? well, we'll come back out here. Remind me to tell you of something cute. I've got to get my books now.

Whew! That class nearly drove me to drink! Sorry I was late, but he kept us. Nub! Feels good to be back out here, doesn't it 'cept that class counteracted all the sun cure I took last period. Cute? You say I had something cute to tell you? Well, I've forgotten it now. Must not have been so cute, anyhow!

Look! Who is that hick with that green hair ribbon? And that hair! Curls! Look! Let's tip that poor sap off that Janice Meredith is dead and even if people are wearing derbies she can't revive curls!

Ah! Freshman Week! That's right! Gosh, and that was Virginia Fox! I thought she looked at us no kind of queerly! And she usually looks darling, doesn't she? Those legs! Look, and that must be Nancy Burgwyn catching up with her. Now! You'd recognize those eyes anywhere even if she did have to leave the rest of her face upstairs in the drawer I hear that those eyes have caused the downfall of many a good man. Saw one fall the other day, myself. Out at the Hampden-Sydney-Bridgewater game, you know—not much game but gave you a chance to meet a few of our co-eds comes in handy some time, you know. A little time on the side never hurt anybody, you know. Saw ole Jean McClure out there with 'What a Man" Smith, how does she rate such power? Oh, I see.

It's' not such a bad freshman class this year, is it? Lots of dynamic talent, did you see Sing last Saturday night? Heard the Juniors gave them a big blow-out the other night. Kid party, huh? Bet Alice Moore was in her element! Wouldn't have minded being there myself! Ain't it a heck of a life being a Senior?

Dinner bell? I didn't hear it. Talking too much? None o' your lip, big girl. Takes two to stir up a little gossip!

How about meeting me at Shannon's after lunch. Hair? Oh, anytime will do!

Abysinia!

Intercollegiate

The subscription campaign is on for the annual. This year the Virginian staff hopes to put out a book that will make the non-subscribers sorry they haven't a copy. Subscribe to your annual when the girls come to you because after all it is your book and without your cooperation it won't be a success.

Smith College has placed a ban on automobiles and as a result there are now over 200 bicycles being used by students on the campus.—Ex.

The demon depression, about which many, many perfectly good tons of paper have been wasted, seems to be a total flop in the South, if college enrolments have anything to do with it. Nearly every school we exchange with reports an enrolment larger than last year's.

MISTAKE IN HEADLINE

The Rotunda wishes to correct a mistake which appeared in last week's issue. Dot Snedgar is sport manager of hockey and not head of the Varsity team as was printed. The entire varsity squad took part in the hockey tournament at William and Mary last fall.

The Student Body wishes to extend sympathy to Chappell Wisegar, Ruth and Margaret Rucker, and Betsy Ross.

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

Did we hear somebody say that green was restful to the eyes?

Seems to me a good theme song for this college would be Lohengrin's "Wedding March."

Wonder if Freshmen are as dumb as they seem—let us hope not for the sake of the old Alma Mater if nothing else.

Who but a Senior would say that Seniors are "dignified."

You should live in the Senior building! Excitement always! If it's not some playful darling chasing another down the halls and screaming to tops of bot hof their voices in the middle of the night, it's water running at five-thirty in the morning 'til eleven at night. We do very well on two or three hours sleep. Really it is remarkable.

There seem to be so many unnecessary things around this school. You guessed it—Freshmen! But of course we have been Freshmen ourselves!

The only thing unusual about Senior installation is the Senior class—I believe "unusual" is the right word, or is it "funny"?

Then, there is the Freshman who thought "Rat Week'" was a holiday for the cats. Maybe it is!

ALUMNAE NEWS

Miss Ruby L. Venable, a graduate of the Children's Hospital, Washington, and in charge first of the Richmond later of the Roanoke receiving home of the Children's Home Society of Virginia, has been appointed superintendent of the Lynchburg Female Orphan Asylum.

The Virginia Conference Board of Christian Education has planned for the month of October a series of meetings and an educational program with emphasis on the study of the child and the responsibility of the church and the home for the nurture of religious attitudes in the child. Miss Elizabeth Jarratt, director of the children's division for the conference, is in charge of the program.

Miss Virginia Wall, Miss Elizabeth Bugg, Miss Agnes Watkins and Mrs. Charles Rodgers (Elise Anderson) spent five weeks traveling in California, Vancouver, Seattle, Yellowstone Park and Chicago by motor. The trip of 9000 miles was made without mishap.

Miss Catherine Brooking of Orange who has been employed in the Virginia Forestry Extension Service at the University of Virginia for the last year and a half, has become secretary to Dr. Cousins, pastor of the Second Baptist church in Richmond. Miss Brooking was for several years secretary to the treasurer of Orange county.

Miss Edith Marshall of Lynchburg received her M. A. degree from Columbia University last June, and holds a position this winter in Pittsfield, N. H. high school. Besides teaching classes in English and history, Miss Marshall is dean of girls. While studying in New York, she was an assistant in Teachers College library, remaining there through the summer.

Miss Annie Lee Bowden of Saluda, who has been teaching in Gloucester since her graduation from Farmville S. T. C., was married in August to Aubrey A. Lillaston of Norfolk.

One of the opening events of the fall season in Hopewell was a tea and shower given September 12 for Mrs. Stanley Ward Knapp, who before her marriage on August 15 was Miss Elizabeth Cocks of Lewisburg, W. Va., and Newport News. During the hours 3 to 5 a linen shower was held and 5 to 6 a silver shower. Mrs. Knapp has been a member of the Hopewell faculty for several years.

NEW MEMBERS OF JUNIOR CHORAL CLUB

Continued from page one

Wheeler, Brooks
White, Janice
White, Bessie Mae
Whitlock, Margaret

SONNET 2

Frail as the frailest flower that ever grew
She lies there with the pillows all around,
As lovely as the purest rose I knew
Her tapering fingers swinging 'gainst the ground.
The sunflecked eyes which ever sadness held
The graceful curve of throat against a chair,
All made for beauty ne'er before beheld,
As in this quiet chamber, Solemn Lair,
I walked, I sought, I found her there alone.
Tho in her eyes, the bluest blue they were
There was a mighty strength which you would own.
The tapering fingers also were for her
A way to show her strong but frail always
To make me love her strength and frailness, too.

Margaret Fisher

MY ALMA MATER

Unknown faces
Like stars
From out the blue
Change old places
From the old into the new.

But even then
The constant spirit
Of the old regime
Changes not with faces
But follows still the gleam.

Comforting we find it
To see the old so true
Changing not with faces
Like Stars
From out the blue.
By an old grad—

Loulie Millner

TO SIR THOMAS LIPTON 1850-1931

Born in the squalor of a tenement house,
Errand boy at the age of nine . . .
He soon became a merchant prince
Known for his shrewdness
And good common sense.

Barred from the Royal Yatching Club
Because he was not nobly born,
At last they learned, "the man's the gowd"
Nobility of character
Has no bonds.

Ever a sportsman of highest rank,
That "elusive old mug" he never won,
But with Shamrock the Fifth
He fought to the end
Ever to be known as the world's "Best Loser."

Easter Souders

I BELIEVE IN YOU

They tell me that the world is rotten through,
That marriage is a farce: a hollow shell,
The pieces held by words and looks untrue.
Faithfulness is gone (or so they tell)
As many another pretty word will go-
Like "chaste," and "pure," and "good" and "brave" and "strong".
Resistance to temptation rates below
A brand-new thrill. But I believe they're wrong.
Because I know that you are not an adept
At telling lies; (your blue eyes are true)
That your word given means it will be kept;
Because you're clean and fine and noble, too,
I'd rather measure the whole wide world by you,
Than judge you by a wretched rotten few.

Easter M. Souders

SOCIALS

Those who attended the opening dances at V. P. I. are: Catherine Marchant, Mary Arthur Billups, Catherine McLemore, Martha Cross, Dot Waynick, Martha von Schilling, and Fannie Mae Colonna.

Nancy Burgwin and Catherine Cogbill spent the week-end in Boydton.

Margaret Parker and Martha Brothers attended the Randolph-Macon dances in Ashland.

Jessie Smith, Rena Robertson and Elizabeth Hunter spent the week-end visiting in school.

Those visiting in Richmond the past week-end are: Kitty Waters, Anne Davis, Kitty McIntyre, Connie Quarles, Mary Catherine Taylor, Virginia Daughtrey, and Catherine Rogers.

Josie Spencer, Katherine Royster, Margaret Jack, Lucille Rocke and Jerry Lee spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

Margaret Hix and Martha Reed were in Roanoke this week-end.

Lelia Lovelace spent the week-end at her home in Halifax.

Irwin Staples spent the week-end in Burkeville.

arah Beck spent the week-end at home.

Agnes Lee Grigg visited in Amelia the past week-end.

Evelyn Jones spent the week-end in Clarksville.

Margaret Stiff was in Norfolk this week-end.

SORORITIES ANNOUNCE NEW MEMBERS

Sigma Sigma Sigma wishes to announce Frances Potts as a new member.

Delta Sigma Chi wishes to announce Gladys Matthews as a new member.

Zeta Tau wishes to announce Ellen Jones as a new member.

DRAMATIC CLUB

President—JENILEE KNIGHT

The Dramatic Club has as its primary purpose, training in the production of plays, from the standpoint of costumes, lighting, makeup, scenery, stage effects, properties, and business, as well as acting. At the beginning of each school year apprentice classes in each of these departments are trained by the best talent from the old members of the Club. At the end of the apprentice period, the first term those apprentices who have worked the hardest and shown the greatest ability are taken into the club.

The Dramatic Club is, of course, one of the intellectual centers of the school, since it not only studies the drama technically, but gives its members practical experience in how plays should be given.

In the fall, collaborating with the Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs, the club presents one play. In the spring they present another by themselves. For these two plays the members of the different departments plan and carry into effect all the business, the lights, costumes, properties, scenery, and so forth.

In addition, the acting group presents several one act plays in the fall, the other group cooperating. Last year they gave two; this year they are planning at least three.

Miss Wheeler, head of the reading department, is faculty advisor and dramatic coach. In the past, the success of the Dramatic Club plays has been, in great part, due to her.

DEBATE CLUB

President—JANE WITT

The purpose of the Debate Club is to encourage public speaking and debating, to train girls for leadership, and through debating and public speaking to create a feeling of cooperation with other colleges.

Requirements for entrance: Prepart three minute argument on question previously decided by the Debate Club. The argument may be on either affirmative or negative side.

The Debate Club is the first step toward membership in Pi Kappa Delta, a national honorary fraternity that recognizes achievement in forensic activities.

Junior Entertain Freshman Class

The spirit of Peter Pan reigned supreme in green and white bedecked Recreation Hall Friday night when the classes of '35 and '33 met and danced to the syncopated music furnished by Jenilee Knight and her "Heronians"

The party was a happy return to childhood. Short dresses, socks, hair-ribbons and other childish regalia transformed this group of dignified school teachers to a crowd of hilarious kids.

....In the midst of the dance Peter Pan materialized in the form of Helen Cover who delighted her audience with a youthful tap dance.

The most outstanding of the youthful guests present was Dr. Jarman who consented to be the judge in the selection of the cutest and funniest couples. His selections were loudly applauded when he announced the cutest Hattie Gilliam and "Pee Wee" Adams and the funniest, Alice Moore and Margaret Gathright.

The two best dancers on the floor were freshmen, Evelyn Knaub and Frances Dorin, who modestly retired on discovering themselves the only couple left dancing.

The Red and White Classes were both represented by their presidents, Henrietta Cornwell and Martha Kello, and the student body and Y. W. C. A. by Grace Virginia Woodhouse, and A. J. Scott.

Green and White Peter Pan hats and pistachio-nut ice cream cones added the final note of youth and color, before the orchestra's "Good Night Kiddies" announced bed-time.

STUDENT STANDARDS COMMITTEE

Chairman—NAN MEARS

About ten or more years ago the Student Standards Committee was ing in school. This committee was organized to deal with problems arisbetween the students and faculty by expected to act as a clearing house solving any problem that might present itself. Some of the problems heretofore handled are the working out of a point system, the arrangement of a schedule of meetings, and general order in the dining room and chapel.

This committee is composed of five faculty members appointed by Dr. Jarman, the head of the major organizations, two members from each class, elected by the class, and one town girls representative, elected by the town girls. The officers consist of a chairman and a secretary.

Refer your problems to Nan Mears, chairman of the Student Standards Committee for the current year 1931-1932.

CUNNINGHAM LITERARY SOCIETY

President—MARGARET YOUNG

The Cunningham Literary Society was organized to interest girls along literary lines. Twice a year try-outs are held at which time girls contribute articles of literary merit. These articles are judged and those deemed worthy are entitled to membership. The try-outs held in the fall are only for upperclassmen but the one after Christmas is particularly for freshmen, though it includes upperclassmen.

Meetings are held twice a month at which time interesting programs are rendered as well as special studies made of different types of literary work.

The officers consist of a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, reporter, and keeper of memory book. Margaret Young is president for the current year, 1931-'32.

RUFFNER LITERARY SOCIETY

The Ruffner Literary Society has primarily as its purpose the encouragement of productions of literary value. It is also interested in keeping before the public contributions from its members. This society accepts a part of the responsibility for the publications of "The Voice", to which each member is required to subscribe.

Any student is eligible to membership of the Ruffner Literary Society who submits a piece of writing which the officers and a committee consider of sufficient literary value.

FRESHMEN RECEIVE RULES FOR THE WEEK

Continued from page one

ing up. Sophomores may take Freshmen down town, but cannot embarrass them in any way financially. A meeting will be called on Friday night by the Sophomores. All names of obstinate and unruly Freshmen will be read and these Freshmen will be dealt with accordingly. No costumes or any form of decoration can be taken down town. No make-up shall be worn during Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

Tuesday—A big bow of wide green ribbon (or green crepe paper), preferably ribbon, is to be worn on hair, like the Freshmen used to wear it when they were little. If hair is long, it must be worn down and curled. Freshmen must wear black hose and light shoes.

Wednesday—At ten o'clock on this (Wed.) night all Freshmen must come to the gym and have an "Empress Eugenie" parade. Hats made out of last years' models are to be done up into the proper style. Since Eugenie was Napoleon's wife, dresses must be worn accordingly. If Freshmen do not have skirts appropriate, they shall make them out of Green and White crepe paper. The best dressed person will receive as a prize a rat cap free.

Thursday—Odd shoes and hose are to be worn. Freshmen cannot speak to upperclassmen at meals. Gloves must be worn, but taken off before entering classroom.

Friday—People who have long hair must wear it on top of their heads. Those who have bobbed hair must struggle some way or other to put it up, and wear a green sash around their waist.

Saturday—Freshmen are to wear white all day and at ten o'clock are to meet in the gym for a pep meeting. At this meeting each rat will be presented with a rat cap. After this meeting they must parade through the halls singing,

"How green I am, how green I am,
The Sophomores know how green I am."

Every Freshman must wear her rat cap to the show every Saturday night until Thanksgiving and every afternoon from two (2) o'clock until six (6) o'clock. No rat caps are to be worn in chapel.

Pep Meeting—All grievances abolished.

THE "VIRGINIAN" ASKS AID OF STUDENTS

Continued from page one

college. The staff is asking that everybody has her picture taken.

Elections for Vanity Fair will be held before the 19th. The staff wishes the students to be thinking about the most outstanding girls who are representative of the entire college.

SENIOR CHORAL CLUB
President—JANE WITT

The purpose of the Senior Choral Club is to present outstanding artists and give programs in Farmville and elsewhere.

Y. W. C. A. ENTERTAINS THE FRESHMEN

The Y. W. C. A. delightfully entertained the freshmen and new girls at a pajama party in the Student Building Lounge at 10 o'clock, Monday, October 5.

The freshmen and members of the cabinet in gaily colored pajamas, gathered around an open fire and played games such as "gossip" and "murder". "Murder" particularly, afforded much amusement, when the detective by careful questioning tried to convict the supposed murderer. Several dances, readings and duets were given also.

Delicious hot chocolate and cheese toast were served in the attempt to appease revenous appetites. Before retiring for the night many favorite songs were sung by the girls by the light of an open fire which always lends enchantment.

TICKETS FOR H. S. GAME TO BE SOLD HERE SAT.

Tickets for the Hampden-Sydney American University football game to be held at Hampden-Sydney, 3:30 Saturday, Oct. 10 will be on sale in the S. T. C. Saturday morning from 9 a. m. to 10:45 a. m. They will be sold for fifty cents and chaperones will be given complimentary tickets upon application at that time.

The reason that this is being done is that many of the girls complained that the regular admission price was too expensive. If this ticket sale is a success it will be continued for the remainder of the home games. Fifty cent tickets can be purchased only at the stated time and will be one dollar at all other times.

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

Willis.... Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Martin the Jeweler
Gifts of Lasting Remembrance
317 Main Street
Farmville, Virginia.

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
Welcomes the College Girls
WATCH THIS SPACE EACH WEEK FOR
College Specials
FARMVILLE'S
Best Department Store

THE HUB
Welcomes S. T. C. Girls!
SPECIAL FOR OPENING WEEK!
Allan "A" Sheer Chiffon Pure Silk Hose, $1.19 value for 79c
All the New Fall Shades
THE NEWEST VOGUE!
Polo Coats, long lengths, French Model, size 14 to 20 ..... $9.85
The Hub Department Store
FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

"Now boys," said the Scotch professor, "if you'll just pull a few crazy answers in your exams, I can sell them to a magazines for a hundred dollars each."

Chicago was settled in 1833 and at rare intervals since them.

'Tis better to have loved and lost than never to have attended college at all.

"Gee, I'd hate to be in your shoes."
"Why?"
"You just stepped on a nail."

"Have you anything good for mosquitoes?"
"Well, you might let them bite you, they might enjoy that."

Yes, Algernon, Chaucer must have had a secretary. Just look at that spelling.

"I had a date with a lady mind-reader."
"Well, how did she enjoy her rest?"

They call it "Merry England" because the people are laughing now at the jokes they heard before the depression.

"See if you can laugh that off" said the fat man's wife as she wired on a button.

Famous Americans
Herbertoover
Beb Ruth
Rudy Valley
Jimmywocker
Gritta Garbo
Owl Capony

He had always described his girl as being an exact double for one of the biggest movie actresses in Hollywood. But that one was Marie Dressler.

She was so dumb she thought bacteria was the back door to a cafeteria.

We would like to remind all lecturers that the longer the spoke the greater the tire.

Girl: "I should think you'd be happy as a king when you're in the air."
Aviator: "Happier, I'm an ace."

Son: "Dad, buy me a drum."
Father: "But if I do you'll disturb me."
Son: "Oh, no sir, I'll only beat it when you're asleep."

Some folks like Shakespeare more than me.
The reason for this is
My stuff just doesn't seem to be Quite as good as his.

"What's your son's average income?"
"From three to three-thiry A. M."

A Scotchman was once run over by a beer wagon and for the first time in his life the drinks were on him.

His Crowning Adventure—Alfred Aloysius Horn, the celebrated "Trader Horn" of adventurous career, died in England at 328 years.—New Orleans State.—Parley Voo.

According to the "Parley Voo", of Converse, the Texas Technological College, at Lubbock, Texas, accepted a truck load of beans from a student in exchange for three months' room and board. Although nothing is said about it, it is understood that he was lynched by the other students who have to eat at the commons.

BOUSH AND NELSON HEAD MINOR SPORTS

Laurie Boush has been chosen head of archery for this season. She is a junior and has been active in athletics since her entrance to S. T. C. She won second place in the archery tournament last spring. Laurie is a girl with plenty of pep who plays for the joy of play. She should be an excellent manager of archery.

Mary Nelson showed a good deal of interest and skill in tennis last year. She is competent and dependable. Under her leadership S. T. C. is hoping for a more successful year in tennis than ever before.

Watch the A. A. bulletin board and listen for notices about practices.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

President ... FRANCES EDWARDS

The Athletic Association for 1931-32 is headed by Frances Edwards, a senior who was treasurer her junior year. Furthermore, she is active in all forms of athletics, and has been a member of the varsity teams for three years.

The purpose of the Athletic Association is to promote athletics, create friendly competition, and promote good sportsmanship.

Every girl in the student body who pays her campus fee automatically becomes a member of the Athletic Association. Her success in this field depends upon herself and her loyalty to the Blue and White. True sportsmanship means loyalty at all times to the Blue and White, our school colors. To obtain class loyalty, one must lend a helping hand to support the Green and White, or the Red and White.

It is the custom of the Athletic Association to present awards at the end of each year to those who have shown their eligibility from the standpoint of athletic ability, sportsmanship, and scholarship. Awards consist of colored blazers, numerals, color monograms, blue blazers, and college seals. Competition consists of individual, class and varsity. Individual competition is found in archery and tennis tournaments and in field and track meets. There are class teams in hockey, basket ball, volley ball and base ball. There are varsity teams in hockey and basketball.

With the cooperation of the student body, the Athletic Association is hoping to sing "Onward Farmville" with such force that we can really "keep all S. T. C. on top""

ALPHA PHI SIGMA

President—VIRGINIA BRINKLEY

Alpha Phi Sigma is a national honorary fraternity for scholarship. The Delta chapter was founded at Farmville in June, 1930. The purpose of this organization is to instill within each member a love for learning by association with others who have won high scholastic honors and who strive continually to maintain them.

Requirements for entrance to this fraternity are based upon scholastic standing. Valedictorians and salutatorians of high schools are, upon their entrance at S. T. C. eligible to became members of this organization. Other students who have been in college for not less than two quarters, and who have maintained high scholastic standing, are also eligible for membership.

SODALITAS LATINA

President—LUCY FITZGERALD

The Sodalitas Latina has for its purpose the promotion of interest and the encouragement of the study of the classics. Any one taking Latin, or who has taken Latin in college may become a member. Each quarter a magazine, "The Tributum," is issued.

The editor-in-chief of Tributum is Frances Crawford.

VARSITY TRY-OUTS TO BE HELD

The athletic program Thursday and Friday of this week will be given to varsity try-outs for hockey. Everyone who has been attending practices is expected to try for varsity. Freshmen are especially invited. S. T. C. needs your help. Come and help to make her team the best in the State. The schedule for this week is:

Tuesday and Wednesday, Freshmen; Thursday and Friday, varsity tryouts; Tuesday and Wednesday, Upper Classmen.

MONOGRAM CLUB

President—CLEO QUISENBERRY

The Monogram Club is a Club which gives recognition to girls who successfullly pass a list of requirements in athletics, stunts and sportsmanship.

To be a member of this club, you must have four hundred points and your sportsmanship must be passed by every member in the club. Points may be obtained by coming out for athletics, making hikes, and passing the Monogram tests in field and track events, physical efficiency, etc.

After a girl passes all the requirements laid down by the club, she is admitted as a member and in recognition of this, she receives a blue and white monogram. Only Monogram Club members are permitted to wear the college monogram.

Miss Iler, who is coach of athletics, is adviser to the club.

ASSOCIATION OF CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

Advisor—MISS HAYNES

Formerly known as the Primary Council, this organization was founded for the purpose of furthering educational interest among the primary teacher (1st to 4th grades).

Members are admitted at the end of each term after they have done practice teaching and on the basis of grade average and interest shown in the profession. Educational methods are discussed, projects presented, and it affords a means of bringing together a group with common interests. There is also a social program carried out through the year.

THE VOICE

Editor—RUTH FLOYD

...."The Voice" is our "wee, small" magazine which heretofore has been published quarterly by literary students of the school. However, due to financial conditions (a reiteration of the much mooted and depressing depression) efforts will be concentrated on one issue. This promises to excell in quantity and quality, those which have gone before.

All literary students, and especially freshmen, are urged to make contributions in the form of poetry, short stories, criticisms, etc. The staff will gladly consider anything offered by the students.

EACO THEATRE

Program—Oct. 7 to 13, 1931

WED. & THURS.—"AN AMERICAN TRAGEDY" with PHILLIPS HOLMES and SYLVIA SIDNEY. Based on the great novel by Theodore Dreiser, that stark, brutal, powerful giant of the pen, who pinions human hearts, naked and quivering, upon his electrifying pages. The story of a weak, ambitious likable boy; a lonely "good" girl and the girl's rich, beautiful feminine rival. The glamor of life blinds the boys and girl to a great love. One step plunges them from the heights of ecstacy to the depths of despair. A picture that lifts its leading players to unassailable stardom, and that will live for a long time as one of the greatest accomplishments of the screen. It pounds at you like a steam-hammer and leaves you awed, exhausted, profoundly moved. The most discussed picture of the year—don't miss it. Also excellent comedy!

FRI. & SAT.—WILL ROGERS in "YOUNG AS YOU FEEL". The nation's jester greater than ever—dressed up and pepped up to the highest hilarious pitch in George Ade's uproarious comedy. If you thiught Will was funny in baggy trousers or in his galvanized derby, wait until you see him in spats. See him change overnight from an old duck of the stock yards to a modern playboy of the night clubs. He traded his carpet slippers for dancing pumps and waltzed his way back to youth. One little wink from Fifi Dorsay and Will dropped all the years that separated him from his sons, and then showed them his heels as he hit the high spots. If you are a Rogers fan (and who isn't) you'll enjoy this picture more than any he has appeared in. A new type of Rogers picture bubling over with youth, jazz and pep. Also Fox News and comedy "What Price Pants."

NEXT MON. & TUES.—THE 4 MARX BROTHERS in "MONKEY BUSINESS." There's not much plot to this but who expects a plot when these four super comedians wise crack all over the screen and make audiences howl with boisterous laughter? Here's just plain hilarious nonsense. These boys cross and double-cross the Atlantic in a hurricane of laughs. If you want to forget the depression, hard times, blues and what have you, just see the 4 Marx Brothers in "Monkey Business" and you'll leave the theatre happier than you have been for many a day. All of Farmville will be talking about this show. There's Groucho with a brand new flock of wise cracks. Harpo playing "Hello" with the blondes. Chico being funny, on and off the piano. Zeppo trying to be romantic in the fury of the gales of laughter. We promised you a treat and here it is. Miss it and you'll regret it, for here's the laughingest picture ever made. Also Flip the Frog Cartoon and Comedy.

Daily matinee at 4 p. m. Every night at 8 o'clock.

Admission—Adults 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

THE JUNIOR CHORAL CLUB

President—SUE YEAMAN

The purpose of the Junior Choral Club is to help in Chapel singing which is an important part of our college to assist in Y. W. C. A. and to give added strength to the different organizations of this institution. Everybody can try-out for this club.

WELCOME, GIRLS!

To Farmville's only exclusive dress store.
New arrivals daily in the latest Eugenie styles.
Featuring every style that the college girls demand.

At Two Prices—$4.88 & $7.88

New York Dress Stores

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

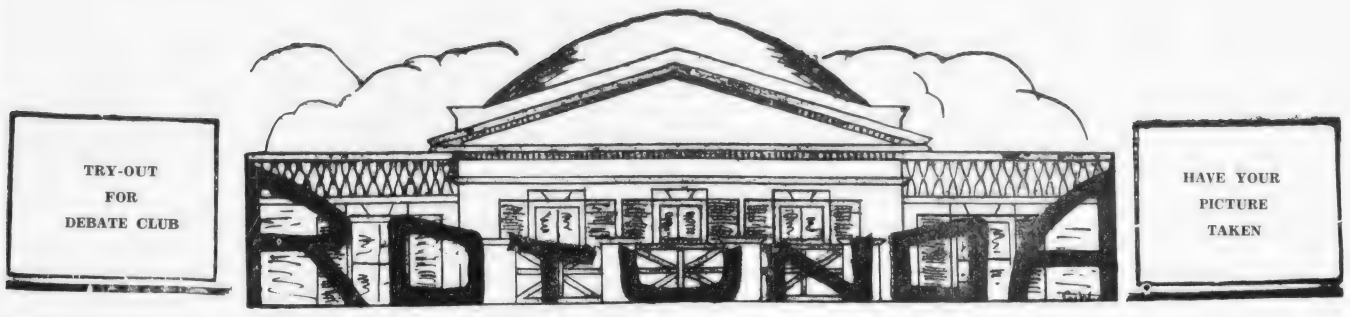
QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments



Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING
CLEANING
AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1931 No. 3

Freshman Class Now Ready to Act as a Class

Miss Moran Is Chosen For Class-Man; Lita Barham Is President

OTHER OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

The freshman class is ready to take its place in the wheel of activities at S. T. C., and function. On Monday night they chose as their class man, Miss Moran, who graciously accepted this honor and pledged her best efforts to the freshmen and the Green and White.

Tuesday night, the class spirit rose to a peak with the election of class officers. Lita Barham was elected president. The meeting was immediately turned over to the new president who conducted the rest of the election. The following officers were elected:

President ..... Lita Barham
V. Pres. ..... Jestine Cutshall
Secretary ..... Virginia Fox
Treasurer ..... Doorthy Davis

At their next meeting representatives to the Student Council, Class Council and Student Standards Committee will be elected and nominations for Freshman Commission members will take place.

The faculty and upperclassmen are expecting great things from "35 and wish them all the success in the world in every undertaking.

Alpha Phi Sigma Takes in Students

The Delta Chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma announces the following salutatorians who are new members of the novice degree: Frances Holmes Elder, Pauline Elcan Jones, Ruth Haskins, Jessica Ann Jones, Marguerite Manning Rollins, Mary Elizabeth Newcomb, Mary Wicker, Ella B. Mallory, Lucy B. Read, Lila Jacob, Ella Marie Jones, Janice Roper White, Beulah Mae Brinkley, Lena MacDonald Gardner, Louise Coleman.

The following valedictorians are members of both the Novice and Apprentice degrees: Margaret Poole, Lelia R. Mattox, Anna Elizabeth Vassar, Elizabeth Wainwright Showell, Carmen Ercell Clark, Katherine Burruss Coleman, Lorena Bland, Katherine Lee Young, Pela Martha Kutz, Alice Brooking Guthrie, Katie Mayo Kidd, Esther Haskins, Fannie Bosworth, Mary Tugg Gannaway, Lois O. Thorrington, Winifred J. Pugh, Lucy Powell, Elizabeth Hardy, Nell Ryan Oakey, Katherine Walton, Katherine Adams, Anne Putney, Birdie O. Wooding.

MONEY LEFT TO SMALLER SCHOOL BY MACFARLANE

Five hundred thousand dollars which he had in his original will bequeathed to Yale University, will go to Leigh University instead, under a codicil discovered in the will of the late Dr. Charles W. MacFarlane, economist and engineer, who died last May.

The bequest will enable Leigh to complete an economic history of the Roman Empire started by Dr. MacFarlane, who was engaged for many years in the preparation of the history and who gathered many thousand excerpts and references to sources, which he partly catalogued.

REPRESENTATIVE OF TOWN GIRLS IS ELECTED

In order that a closer relationship might be maintained between students boarding in college and those living in town, it was decided at the last regular meeting of the Students Standards Committee that the town girls should have a representative on that committee. In this way the work of the Student Standards Committee would reach out and touch the trisided interests of the students in school, of those in town, and of the faculty. Those interests are taken care of as nearly as possible by those who are elected to be on the committee.

A meeting of the town girls was held. Kitty Watkins was elected by them to serve as their representative on the Student Standards Committee for the year 1931-1932.

College Orchestra To Present Miss Mary Jackson

The College Orchestra will present Miss Mary Jackson in a costume program of mammy tales on next Friday night at 8 o"clock in the College auditorium. Miss Jackson will be assisted by Mrs. Waverly Putney who plays the mouth harp. The tap dancers, Misses Mildred Stiff and Ruth Floyd, will also appear on the program. There will be special numbers by Miss Betty Hardy, Miss Birdie Mae Neff and Master Marshall Neff. The Baskerville Trio from Worsham will be an added attraction.

NEW MEMBERS OF PI GAMMA MU

The Virginia Gamma chapter of Pi Gamma Mu wishes to announce the following new members:

Gwendolyn Daniel
Margaret Fisher
Charlotte Hutchins
Miss Mary Nichols as honorary member.

The following associate members were elected to active membership.

Miss Tucker
Mr. Holton

MUD PIES COULD BE EATEN SAYS DR, LAUFER

The mud pies that children often make could be eaten with enjoyment by many adults in various parts of the world according to fact reevaled in "Geophagy", a book published recently by Dr. Berthold Laufer, curator at the Fild Museum of Natural History.

Dr. Laufer has made extensive research in geophagy, which is the practice of eating clay, loam and other types of soil, and has published the results of his studies throughout many countries in both ancient and modern times. His investigations began with records of earth eating in China.

Traces of the custom have been found in Indo-China, Malayasia, Polynesia, Melanesia, Australia, India, Burma, Siam, Central Asia, Siberia, Persia, Arabia Africa, Europe, North America, Mexico, Central America and South America.

Asa rule not every kind of earth is eaten, acording to Dr. Laufer, but only those kinds which recommend themselves through certain qualities of color, odor, flavor, softness and plasticity.

Geophagy occurs among the most civilized nations as well as among

Continued on page four

Y.W.C.A. Installs New Students Monday Eve

Lighted Candles and Symbolic Blue Triangle Give Air of Beautiful Reverence

SCRIPTURE ON LOVE READ

To the strains of soft music the new students, dressed in white, assembled in the auditorium on Monday evening at seven to be installed by the Y. W. C. A.

Lighted candles and the symbolic Blue Triangle gave the scene an air of reverence and peace. The Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, in white, bearing torches marched slowly to the front, ready to light the paths of the new students.

Jane Witt read the Scripture—the incomparable thirteenth chapter of Corinthians withh love for its theme. The spirit of the Y. W. C. A. may be said to be found in this chapter.

After the Scripture, A. J. Scott, president of the Y. W. C. A., gave some inspiring thoughts as she invited the new students to light their candles and march forth, "Following the Gleam."

The Cabinet marched out singing "Follow the Gleam" with the new girls following in their footsteps.

The student body and members of the faculty were present at this impressive service.

DEAN'S LIST FOR FALL QUARTER ANNOUNCED

The Dean's List for the fall quarter has been announced. Only Seniors quality for this honor. To make the Dean's List a Senior has to make "A" or "B" on all her work for the preceding term, with the exception of floor work in Physical Education, on which she may make "C", and an average for the previous three terms of not lower than "C". Whenever any grade falls below B, the senior's name is dropped from the list.

Any senior whose name is on the Dean's List has the priivlege of deciding for herself, whe nshe needs to attend or be absent from a class, provided she does not miss a class in which an assigned written lesson or test is to be given.

Harriet B. Branch
Nell Louise Clingenpeel
Henrietta E. Cornwell
Gwendolyn Daniel
Mary Eleanor Davis
Mary Louise Elliott
Margaret Ruth Fisher
Lucy Eldridge Fitzgerald
Susie Vann Floyd
Virginia M. Fultz
Sarah Kimbrough Hubard
Ruth Dudley Hunt
Lucie Anne Lane
Mary Elizabeth McCauley
Nannie Gwendolyn Mears
Elizabeth Painter
Mary McMinn Pearson
Anne Watkins Rice
Doris V. Robertson
Nancy Kathryn Rogers
Easter M. Souders
Mildred White Steere
Annie Laurie Stone
Louise Upton Woodson
Hazel Elizabeth Halloway

MARTHA GUNTER IS ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Due to the fact that the associate editor, Martha Moore, elected last spring, did not return, an election was necessary this fall. Martha Gunter was elected from the nominations of the student body.

DR. JARMAN INSTALLED SENIOR CLASS THURSDAY

In a very impressive ceremony Thursday night, Dr. Jarman installed the 1932 Class of Seniors. As Miss Potts played the Alma Mater each Senior with her little sister marched into the auditorium.

The invocation was delivered by Dr. Diehl, of the Episcopal church, after which Jane Witt, Louise Clayton and Ruth Hunt sang a beautiful selection; both the invocation and musical selection added much to the impressiveness of the occasion.

After Dr. Jarman had installed the entire Senior Class Thursday night, he made a short talk to them, and in the end expressed the hope that he would have the chance to turn each tassel on each senior cap in the spring when he conferred the degrees.

Library To Be Opened Sunday Afternoons

Every Sunday afternoon from now on the reading room of the library will be kept open from two to four p. m. This is only for recreational purposes. No studying may be done, or books taken out. The same rules of quietness, consideration for others, and respect for the library must be observed.

It is hoped that by keeping the library open many students will be benefited. The Monogram Club has charge of this work again and they ask for the cooperation of the student body in making the undertaking a success.

DEBATE TRY-OUTS FOR FRESHMEN TO BE HELD

There will be try-outs in the Debate Club for freshmen Thursday night at seven o'clock. The question for debate is Resolved: "That Rat Week Should be Abolished." A three minute speech and a minute and half rebuttal are required for those who wish to try.

Since this is the regular time for meeting of the club all members are suposed to be present.

GOOD POINTS OF A SCHOLAR GIVEN

CLEVELAND, O.—A noted psychologist has given the following requirements of a scholar:

Understanding and appreciaton of other races and cultures contemporary or remote.

Ability and disposition to weigh evidence in controversial matters.

Ability and disposition to mentally project an undertaking through its successive steps before undertaking it.

Skill in explanation and prediction.

Ability and disposition to look beneath the surface of things before passing judgment.

Ability to do reflective thinking.

Disposition toward continued study and intellectual cultivation.

Critical and questioning attitude toward traditional sanctions.

Clarity in definition.

Discrimination in values in reacting to environment, social and physical.

Analytical approach to propositions leading to the detection of fallacies and contradictions.

Ability and disposition to observe accurately and systematically.

Understanding and skill in the use of processes of induction, deduction

Continued on page four

Faculty Members And Students Go To Yorktown

Anniversary of Seige of Yorktown Will Draw Thousands of People

PRESIDENT HOOVER TO SPEAK

Many members of the faculty and of the student body here are planning to attend the Sesquicentennial at Yorktown, beginning Friday, Oct. 16, and lasting through Monday, Oct. 19.

The program of the celebration of the siege of Yorktown will feature pageantry, spectacular army and navy maneuvers and addresses by distinguished citizens from the United States and other countries. President Hoover and members of his cabinet, the governors of the original thirteen states, other distinguished citizens of the United States, Marshal Henri Petain, of France, descendants or countrymen of European officers, will be present.

On Friday, known as Colonial Day, the State of Virginia will play the role of host to the thousands with Governor Pollard presiding at the exercises.

On Saturday, "Revolutionary Day," many tablets will be unveiled and various exhibitions given.

Religious services in the churches of historic Yorktown will be held on Sunday, "God and the Nation Day."

Continued on page three

Freshman Week-Ends in Pep Meet

In high, gleeful mood with a pep meeting, Freshman Week was ended Saturday night.

Singing, the Freshmen entered the gaily decorated, green and white, red and white gymnasium. The Juniors and Seniors were lined up behind their respective banners while the Sophomores were lined up in the center of the gym. In the hands of the Sophomores were rat caps. The Freshmen marched around and stood before the Sophomores, kneeled and received their rat caps as they said, "High and mighty, Sophomore, I am but a worm."

Speeches were made by Martha Kello, Margaret Gathright, Henrietta Cornwell and Grace Virginia Woodhouse.

The Freshmen joined the Juniors. The Sophomores united with the Seniors. Yells were led by Lindsay White and Alice Moore. Each group had its yells and songs.

With the Seniors leading, everyone joined in the snake dance around the campus, singing heartily, "Onward Farmville. Everybody returned to the gymnasium and ended Rat Week and, the year's first pep meeting with "Alma Mater."

NEW MEMBERS OF ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA

The Joan Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma announces the following new members:

Miss Olive T. Iler
Jane Royall
Winston Cobb
Frances Crawford
Cleo Quisenberry
Easter Souders

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

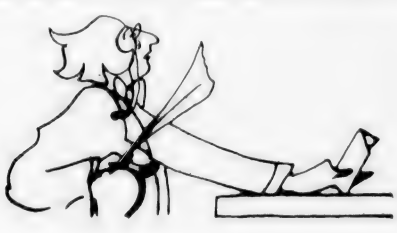
Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32

Board of Editors

Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '34
News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34



Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '33
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting an dtreating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Following the Road

"All Roads Lead" to Yorktown where the glory that was hers one hundred and fifty years ago will be revived in a four day anniversary celebration of international significance. All thoughts turned back for a while Monday to three ships, an adventurer and high blue seas. Many eyes turned toward the present English leader on his birthday. Battle scars, hazards, risks, undertakings—history made and in the making, this holds our attention.

Decisions made; momentous in their result; beliefs held and investigated; success attained through perseverance; all these make us wary of what we as makers of future history do.. When we realize the significance of our decisions, our plans, we would like as the ostrich does to go stick our heads under the sand. We would go backin a dark corner and watch others decide for us the course we shall follow. We would give up our belief in a half-hearted way before the world of skepticalness.

Though a Columbus, a noted victorious general, a gallant defeated one, the leader in a nation, we could never be, we can stick, as they, to our convictions, changing only whehn we have proven and realize that others are better. Though it be but a tiny part, each one of us is making history. What we want the generations of tomorrow to say of us is that we had the courage to test our beliefs discarding those unworthy, upholding and carrying out those true. Following the roads back to the Yorktown of 150 years ago, we realize that that is the best we can be said.

AROUND THE TABLE

Setting: Head Table, dining room S. T. C.
Time: Meal time.

Cast

Jane Royall
Grace Virginia Woodhouse
Frances Edwards
Jenilee Knight
Hanna Crawley
A. J. Scott
Catherine Jones
Margaret Copenhaver
Henrietta Cornwell
Mary Berkley Nelson

ACT I—Scene I.

Jane Royall: Listen here, Grace Virginia Woodhouse, if you don't stop snatching the corner roll while I'm serving, I'll snatch your wig off!

Mary Berkley Nelson: There, there, Jane calm yourself

Jane R.: Take your lip out of this Mary Berkley Nelson.

A. J. Scott: You better wipe your lip off, Mary Nelson, before you put it anywhere the hash is an inch thick.

Berk: Oh yeah? What is that you've gotten clean behind your ear?

A. J. Scott: That's my rubber gum. What's you got to say about it?

Grace Virginia Woodhouse: Girls, Miss Mary's looking over this way.

Frances Edwards: She can't phase me when I'm eating with my knife. Once I get the urge a cyclone couldn't stop me!

Grace Virginia: Maybe a cyclone couldn't!

Jane Royall (in a burst of fine feeling odd for one so care-free): Girls, everybody is trying to talk at once; I shall write a constitution to better the eating conditions of this, institution.

(Loud racuous bell is heard after which Head Table scrambles out of door).

Intermission

ACT II—Scene I

Jane Royall: (Reads constitution she has as a matter of self-appointed committee of one, drawn up).

Constitution

Preamble

When in the course of a daily meal it becomes necessary for the breakers-of-bread to draw up a constitution to protect the life and pursuit of food of the partakers, the hostess of that table shall draw up a constitution in order to protect her own constitution.

ARTICLE 1—Name

The persons indulging in the food of the fatted calves and the weak beverages of the Governor's cellar shall call themselves Head Table because they have more sense than the motley crew that eats the stew of S. T. C. for normal women, Farmville, Virginia, United States of the Milk Cow.

ARTICLE II.—Purpose

The purpose of this said Head Table is to unite the members in an effort of maintaining etiquettorial manners, eating reasonable amounts in order to make the skinny ones fat and the fat ones skinny.

ARTICLE III—Membership

Anyone who is invited by the official hostess (who is appointed by the Secretary of the Stake of the Kitchen Cabinet) shall be entitled to the full rights and privileges of Table 4—this means at least one helping of any dish on the table.

ARTICLE IV—Advisory Board

There shall be an advisory board composed of the maid, Sally, who shall advise when to shop early, when we are to have "Jim-mange," and when we are to have oranges or grapefruit (so we can bring our umbrellas).

By-Laws

1. When any member of Table 4 is absent for any such good reason as reducing, sleeping, riding, headache, or hiccoughs, some one else may take her place and has all the privileges of any member and may listen and laugh at all the funny things that are said.

2. The game of Pig can be played only once a meal unless on rare occasions (when the meat isn't done or such things as that). The penalty for being the pig is scraping the plates (if there is desert); if we do not have desert, she must do any little thing that the table moves she shall do, such as read over the notices, etc. Any person being the pig as many as three times in a week must bring something to each member of her table within 48 hours after the third time—anything, such as a piece of candy or a life-saver a sugar-coated pill, toothpick, etc. (It is better to use your originality in bringing things as such things as named might strain the pig-skin purses of the persons living such fateful and unlucky lives.

3. Each person of Table 4 or Head Table is expected to entertain the other members of Head Table at some little ditty having food as the main object.

4. Each member is expected to give something to Sally at least once a term, such has worn-out hose, underwear, ear rings, garters, shoe strings, or money not exceeding $25.00.

5. The Bread-breakers of this table must not:

(a) Break the dishes, knives, forks, spoons;

(b) drink more than a pint of vinegar a day;

(c) reach out half-way across the table;

(d) stick chewing gum under the table, chairs, on the vinegar bottle, or on salt and pepper shakers;

(e) must not kick each other under the table or pinch one another;

(f) must not laugh louder than 210 degrees laughing height.

(g) talk about anything unpleasant, such as supervisors, observers, family deaths, bankruptcys, meetings, etc.

(h) steal rolls for one another;

(i) Ask for more than 4 helpings;

(j) smoke cigarettes between the courses except in extremely cold weather;

(k) come to breakfast barefooted;

(l) pour coffee out in saucers to cool;

(m) eat peas, beans, and such beaded foods on knife, as they make such a clatter when they fall off.

6. Each person is expected to say at least one cute or clever thing during the day (at a meal of course).

7. These By-Laws make be a-mended provided thehre is a needle and thread handy.

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

Hasn't the barber done worlds for Connie Quarles? She looks ten years younger at least, and prettier than ever. Congratulations, Connie.

Speaking of folks who are to re-receive due felicitations, Frances Coleman heads our list this time. How about last Saturday when the "Governor" invited her to go to Culpeper in the official car (yawn that off). Just the next best thing to being a princess at the Apple Blossom Festival, that's all. Some folks have all the luck.

We've added a new member to our Tazewell collection, and how she can drawl. We would rather listen to her talk than eat. Margaret Copenhaver is the name, so if you haven't met her get acquainted or you'll miss the dialect of your life.

If you would like to dance with someone who can waltz divinely just get Nellie Green to lead. We think that Nellie missed her calling when she gave up her ambition for stage dancing. Just a good "sub" for Irene Castle gone to waste.

If you ever need a chaperone allow us to recommend the truest sport as yet, Mrs. Laing is the number. Why she'd even ride on the "P. K .A." running board for you.

If you want to invest a nickel wisely but not too well buy pop-corn at Shannon's. It's permeated with butter, and that's more than you can say for the average product.

All you who desire to see two people as much alike as two peas in a pod drop into "Ye Old Hang Out" at Shannon's and catch a gimpse of Martha Sanders with the kid brother.

Lastly we would like to ask Martha Ann what "Dartmouth" is going to say about all this air mail from "Iowa State."

IF

If I were a doctor
Do you know what I'd do?
I wouldn't heal humans
In the manner you do.

I'd bind up the wounds
Of the butterflies,
And save dying moths
From untimely sighs.

I'd rescue caterpillars
Down trodden by men;
I'd help all spiders
Build their webs back again.

And last but not least
I'd save beetles from pain,
And let live all insects
Through sunshine and rain.

Virginia Lowe

BEGINNING

Halls again resound with voices
And rush of hurried feet
Along the narrow thoroughfares
Where old and new all meet
In passing by . . . . .

Incased in walls . . . .
Traditions sweet,
Close held by bonds
By memory's blessed vows
Of constant love
We link our lives and vow
In deep accord with faith.

Ruth C. Floyd

THE LAME MARTYR

Sadly he stood on the very outside,
And watched his comrades marching by,
They seemed too hapy with heads held high,
And he so sickly and lowly and blue,
Crippled and maimed! Just what could he do?
Must he stand back and give aid,
And watch his own land's colors fade?
For the surgeon kind, had said to him,
"No, my lad, you must stay at home,
For you are too weak and lame to roam."
So with his friends he was forced to part,
Left far behind with a heavy heart.
His life's ambition had been denied,
He limped away with a wounded pride.
From a child it had been just this way,
Never able to romp and play,
He, always alone, at home must stay.
Then, one day, as he sat thinking,
When the glowing sun was slowly sinking,
He heard a cry, sound wild and hoarse;
Hobbling out to seek its source,
He found a soldier, wounded, dying,
Who weakly whispered a message, and sighing,
Went to his home in Paradise.
A moment the boy made a thoughtful stand,
Reviewing news, which could save his land,
If he reached by dawn the one in command.
Could he ride with a furious speed,
And do at last a patriot's deed,
Though death its should be his meed?
Only a moment he stood and thought,
A moment when duty and weakness fought,
Then on the dead man's horse he leapt
Forgetting himself and all except
His county and what he must ride to gain.
Twice he almost fainted with pain,
Then, remembering his task he faster rode,
Reaching camp as the dawn first showed,
Delivered his message at the door,
Then weary and faint fell to the floor,
When they tried to revive this hero true,
He weakly said: "Nothing's left for me to do,
I've done my deed and saved the day."
And with a contented sigh, he passed away.

Catherine Marchant

SOCIALS

Miss Virginia Potts, Frances Potts, and Mary Burgess Frasier motored to Petersburg with Miss Iler Sunday.

* * *

"Chick" Mosby, Margaret Anne Moreland and Vernie Oden attended the dances in Lexington this week-end.

* * *

Margaret Banks spent the week-end in Roanoke.

* * *

Bernie May Love and Judith Hardy spent Saturday night and Sunday in Kenbridge.

* * *

Anne Davis and Kitty Walters spent the week-end in Keysville.

* * *

Those who spent the week-end in Richmond are: Nancy Burgwin, Frances Dovin, Virginia Fox, Lucille Tiller, Evelyn Knaub, Elizabeth Field, Iola McIntyre, and Martha Walters.

* * *

Jessie Watkins and Martha Barber spent the week-end in Emporia.

* * *

Those visiting in Roanoke this week-end are: Martha Reed, Mamie Barns and Margaret Banks.

* * *

"Chub" Denit and Katherine Logan spent the week-end in Salem.

* * *

Cecil Talley, Catherine McIntyre and Margaret Parker spent the week-end in Blackstone.

* * *

Gazelle Ware spent Sunday in Lynchburg.

* * *

Katherine Royster and Margaret Barker spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

* * *

Mary Winston spent the week-end in Hopewell.

* * *

Mary Harrison and Virginia Lamb spent the week-end in Petersburg.

GRANDDAUGHTERS CLUB GIVES FORMAL TEA

The Granddaughters Club gave a formal tea on Wednesday afternoon in honor of the new granddaughters in college. The guests were reecived in the Y. W. C. A. lounge by Alice Rowell, the president of the club. Miss Jennie Tabb, the honorary member of the group poured tea. "Mother's wafers" were served while the granddaughters thought wistfully of mothers' charms.

ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA

President—RUTH HUNT

Alpha Kappa Gamma is a national honorary fraternity for leadership. The name of the chapter here is Joan Circle.

The purpose of the organization is to recognize and to foster these qualities and give service to the school in every way possible.

Any Junior or Senior is eligible. Scholarship, recognized leadership, and service to the school are the requirements for membership.

SIGMA PI RHO

President—BESSIE LYNCH

Sigma Pi Rho, honor society for students of Latin, is one of the youngest honor fraternities in the college.

It was established in 1929 for the girls in school who had done unusually well in Latin and who had shown a deep interest in the language.

Sigma Pi Rho desires to do all that it can to promote a further interest in the classics among the students of this college.

The requirements for entrance into Sigma Pi Rho are:

The student must have had five terms of Latin and must be taking her sixth term. She must have an average of over B on her Latin, and an average of C on all other work.

Sigma Pi Rho is not as yet a national honor fraternity, but it is growing, and in the very near future it hopes to be national.

Klans Curtius, 25-year-old son of the German minister of Foreign Affairs is a student of civil law at Columbia University. He has come here on a graduate visiting scholarship.

EPISCOPAL GIRLS ENTERTAINED SATURDAY

The Episcopal girls and Hampden-Sydney boys were entertained from six-thirty to ten Saturday night, Oct. 10 at "Edgewood" the home of Mrs. J. J. Marshall.

A delicious buffet supper was served, after which everyone danced or played cards.

PI KAPPA DELTA

President—WINSTON COBB

The purpose of this organization is to stimulate progress in, and to promote the interests of intercollegiate oratory, debate, and public speaking by encouraging a spirit of intercollegiate fellowship, of brotherly co-operation and interest, and by conferring upon deserving candidates a badge of distinction, proficiency, and honor, varied and graduated according to merit and achievement.

A person to be eligible for Pi Kappa Delta shall be a regular collegiate student in good standing or graduate of an institution of college rank, and shall have represented his college in intercollegiate oratorical contests or debates, or shall be an instructor in public speaking, or a coach of oratory or debate in a recognized college. A person, to enter Pi Kappa Delta in the field of oratory must represent his college in a recognized intercollegiate oratorical contest. If he is a debater, he must participate in two decision debates; or in three no-decision debates, provided that a decision debate may be substituted for a no-decision debate.

Each province holds a regular convention every second year. The Provincial Convention year is that in which national convention is held.

From March 28-April 1, 1932 the National Convention will convene in Tulsa, Oklohoma. Extensive planning has been made for this event.

"The Forensic" is the national Pi Kappa Delta paper which every member of the fraternity receives. The various chapters are kept in touch with each other through this medium.

Girls, especially freshmen, try-out in debating or oratory this year. You may be better than you think you are.

KAPPA DELTA PI

President—SUSIE V. FLOYD

Kappa Delta Pi is an honor society in education. In 1928 the local honor society of Pi Kappa Omega was merged with the national honor society of Kappa Delta Pi, and Epsilon chapter was installed in this college.

The purpose of the society is to recognize and encourage high standards in professional scholarship, and to contribute by definite forms of service to the intellectual and social life of the college. It also fosters fellowship and achievement.

Students who have attained full junior standing and exhibited high educational ideals, worthy personal qualifications, sound scholarship, and have rendered service to the school are selected for membership. There are two kinds of members, active and honorary.

To further the purpose of the society each year a reception is given to the freshmen and sophomores who, by attaining excellence, of scholarship, are placed in the upper quartile of the student body. Each year the society also undertakes to carry out a project which will be of permanent value to the school.

BETA PI THETA

President—ELEANOR DAVIS

The Pi Zeta chapter of Beta Pi Theta was installed in the spring of 1930 in S. T. C. Beta Pi Theta is a national honor society in French. Our purpose is to increase interest in the French langauge and literature and to give recognition to those students who have high scholastic standing in their French courses. Those students must be of junior standing, must have studied French for two years in college, and must have a high average on French, as well as a good general average. Every year a prize is given in both the Freshman and Sophomore classes, as an award in contests which Beta Pi Theta conducts.

Last year the Pi Zeta chapter won the national cup for efficiency and the chapter is hoping to make as great a success of this year.

Intercollegiate

In a vote held at Louisiana State University recently, students picked football as the sport they preferred to watch and swimming as the sport they preferred to participate in.—Plainsman.

Ohio leads all the states in the number of colleegs. It has 41. New York has 40, Pennsylvania 38, and Illinois 23.

According to a ruling of the sophomore co-eds, the 75 entering freshman women of the business school in City College, New York, are prohibited from wearing lipstick, jewelry, or similar refinements. They are also ordered to wear bows of lavender and black ribbon on their left shoulders for six weeks, and must know every college song and cheer.—Spectator, M S. C. W.

In the future there will be no stags at dances of the Kansas City College. This step was decided upon so that programs could be employed and thus give the coeds a greater opportunity for popularity.

On October 10, all the freshmen at M. I. T. will be served a free turkey dinner at the All-Technology Smoker. "Movies, music, gymnastics, and smokes will be the order of the evening."

A's

(With profuse apologies to Mr. Kilmer. May he rest in peace and never know the foolish parodies written on his poem.)

I know that I shall never say,
"Oh, look! He really gave me "A"!

An A in red or purple ink—
(They come in crayon, too, I think.)

An A with comments underneath
That are a victor's laurel wreath.

An A that merits bended knees
From E's and F's and I. N. C.'s.

Upon whose earning honor comes
Whose absence is a shock—to some.

Poems are made by fools, they say,
But only brains can make an A.
—Alabamian

Duke has "the only theological school in the South organized and carried out solely for the benefit of those who aspire to the Methodist ministry." The formal opening of this year's session of the school took place last Tuesday.

FACULTY AND STUDENTS TO ATTEND CENTENNIAL

Continued from page one

On Monday, "Anniversary Day," President Hoover will deliver the sesquicentennial address in the morning, a brilliant pageant will be depicted, and tablets to soldiers unvield.

Of international significance, the celebration at battle-scarred Yorktown will be brilliantly spectacular.

PALETTE

President—KATHRYN ROYSTER

The Palette Club of Farmville State Teachers College will hold its first meteing October 15 in Miss Bedford's classroom.

The purpose of the Palette is to promote interest in art in the colleeg and to offer its members the opportunity of artistic self-expression. The members of the Palette are students who have shown not only a special interest in art but also some degree of ability along this line.

This year the club has as its president Kathryn Roberts, and as its adviser, Miss Bedford. Under their leadership the club hopes to attain new heights in artistic expression.

Intramural football has been discontinued at the University of Kentucky, and volleyball has been substituted for it this year. The reasons given for the change are injuries, due to lack of time for training, lack of equipment, and lack of playing space.

HOSIERY BY MAIL

NEW FALL SHADES
FULL FASHIONED
ALL PURE SILK
CHIFFON WEIGHT
PICOT TOP
CRADLE FOOT
FRENCH HEELS

A real value at $1.50—our price $1.00 per pair postage paid—your money back if not satisfied.

Color card on request

ALTAVISTA TEXTILE CO., Inc.

ALTAVISTA, VIRGINIA

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

Willis.... Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt

W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

Welcomes the College Girls

WATCH THIS SPACE EACH WEEK FOR

College Specials

FARMVILLE'S

Best Department Store

THE HUB

Welcomes S. T. C. Girls!

SPECIAL FOR OPENING WEEK!

Allan "A" Sheer Chiffon Pure Silk Hose, $1.19 value for 79c
All the New Fall Shades

THE NEWEST VOGUE!
Polo Coats, long lengths, French Model, size 14 to 20 ..... $9.85

The Hub Department Store

FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

Maidens tall and maidens teeny
Each one wears a hat Eugenie.

Damsels dumb, damsels brainy
They each sport a new Eugenie.

How I wish there weren't so many
Girls who wore and said "Eugenie."

Wife: "There's a report in the paper of your death."

Absent-minded Prof.: "Is that so? We must remember to send a wreath."

"That girl across the street has a singular voice."

"Thank heavens it's not plural."

"I hear my son has owed you for a suit for three years?"

"Yes, sir! Have you called to settle the account?"

"Oh, no, I'd like a suit for myself on the same terms."

Miss Mary: "What is that berry that you make pies out of? It starts with a "q".

Miss Potts: "h, yes, gooseberry!"

The Empress Eugenie
Was certainly a meanie
Her hats cover only
3-4's of the beanie.

Men will wear brown this winter, says a stylist.

They will if they did last winter.

An American in England was boasting of the size of our country.

"You can board a train in the State of Kentucky and twenty-four hours later you'll still be in Kentucky."

"Yes," said an Englishman, "We have trains like that here, too."

"I'm afraid you're ignoring our efficiency system, Jones."

"Yes, sir, but somebody has to get the work done."

A man left a hundred clocks to his son in his will, when he died. Quite an estate to wind up.

Visitor: "Do you really like to recite, dear?"

Child: "Oh, no, I hate it really, but mother makes me do it when she wants people to go."

Convicts should be allowed to go in for all kinds of athletics—with the possible exception of cross-country running.

"Traveled all over the world, eh? Went up the Rhine, I suppose?"

"Climbed it to the top."

"Saw the Lion of St. Mark?"

"Fed it."

"And visited the Black Sea?"

"Filled my fountain pen there."

Freshmen: "Guess I'd better read up on "The Rotunda". Let's see, I'll find out who the sculptor was, when he lived and what his outstanding contribution was?"

Senior: "What do you mean? That is a statue of Joan of Arc."

Freshman: "Uh, I thought that statue was "The Rotunda. I'll be seein' ya!"

F. E. B. and M. L. M., '35

NEW YORK.—A lowering of the economic standards in the teaching profession has been caused by "overfeminization and a lack of adequate publicity in the school system," Dr. Willard S. Elsbree, associate professor of education at Teachers College, Columbia University, said in a survey on "Teachers' Salaries," released by the Columbian Bureau of Publications.

GIRLS SELECTED FOR VARSITY HOCKEY SQUAD

From try-outs, the following girls were selected for the Varsity Hockey Squad:

Easter Souders
Cleo Quisenberry
Frances Edwards
Lucille Crute
Duvahl Ridgeway
Martha Gunter
Marguerite Massey
Grayson Pratt
N. R. Cooper
Martha Putney
Martha Kello
Elizabeth Walthall
Ethel Boswell
Clentis Mattox
Leila Mattox
Ruth Wright
Frances McDaniel
Nell Dickinson
Gertrude Sugden
Mary Gregory
Mary Frasier
Hildegarde Ross
Alma Foster
Libby Burger
Jennie Hurt
Elizabeth Burnap

5c CHARGED FOR ARTICLES LEFT IN GYMNASIUM

After today five cents will be charged for all articles left in the gymnasium after six o'clock. Articles will be kept in Miss Iler's office until fine is paid. Be careful or pay for your carelessness.

ARCHERY

"Who'll hit the bull's-eye first?" That has been the question among the upperclassmen for the past few days. They are eagerly awaiting their chance to try their luck. Freshmen you may not know what it is all about, but we urge you especially to come out on the athletic field and you'll soon find out. Come out and learn to be real Robin Hoods!

Practices will be from 5 to 6 on Mondays and Wednesdays.

MUD PIES CAN BE EATEN SAYS DR. LAFER

Continued from page one

primitive tribes. It bears no relation to climate, race, creed or culture. It is a habit that occurs among individuals and not among any particular tribal or social group.

The women of Spain, says Dr. Laufer, once believed the eating of earth was an aid to a delicate complexion and the ladies of the Spanish aristocarcy in the 17th Century had such a passion for geophagy that the ecclesiatic and secular authorities took steps to combat the evil.

GOOD POINTS OF A SCHOLAR GIVEN

Continued from page one

and generalization.

The ability to see relationships and accuracy in their interpretation.

A freshness of interest with respect to the developments of knowledge.

AS CUSTODIAN OF SHIP CAT AND DOG REMAIN

A cat and dog were recently left the only living custodians of $850,000 of gold bullion. They were left behind by the captain as the legal guardians when the Panama mail liner Columbia went on the rocks off San Pedro, Lower California. Under Mexican law a ship is not "abandoned" until every living thing is taken off it. Accordingly the cat and dog were posted as guardians in the storm until a salvage boat could come to retrieve the treasure.

ASSISTANT HEAD OF HOCKEY IS CHOSEN

Nannie Ruth Cooper has been appointed assistant manager of hockey for this year. Last year she was a member of the varsity squad and captain of the freshman team. She is also a member of this years varsity squad. Quiet, but competent Nannie Ruth is very interested in athletics and we are sure that Dot nedegar will find in her an efficient assistant.

HIKES—FUN AND LONGWOOD BUNS

Perhaps you heard the notice on Saturday morning, "five mile hike this afternoon, leaving from the back of the auditorium at 2 o'clock." The Monogram Club leads these hikes every Saturday afternoon, and besides winning points for them there is lots of fun. Everyone who goes once is ready to go again. Usually the hikes go by Longwood, and whoever isn't acquainted with Longwood buns should become so this Saturday. Freshmen are especially invited to go.

WRITE A SONG AND WIN A PRIZE

The Athletic Association is offering a prize next week to the class which writes the best song or yell. Think this week and present your contribution next week. Try for you may win the prize.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

President—MARGARET ADDLEMAN

The object of the Mathematics Club is to stimulate among the members a spirit of inquiring interest in mathematics which will reveal to them more perfectly the cultural value of that science, and to promote a spirit of cooperation and friendship.

The membership is limited to the mathematics classes of the upper three years of Course III, with faculty advisers selected from the mathematics department. All freshmen taking mathematics courses are invited to the program meetings, which are held twice each term.

The programs are varied including historical topics, applied and pure mathematics, and recreations.

The Club was reorganized in the fall of 1930 by Elizabeth Temple as her Honors Course work for the year.

Paris has banished street cars. Since 1926 the French Capital has discontinued 24 of its two hundred car lines and the company operating the lines has now decided to substitute buses for the remainder as rapidly as possible.

Senorita Victoria Kent, a lawyer, has been placed in official charge of the 170 State, National and minor prisons of the Republic of Spain. Her position is perhaps the most important in the world held by a woman at the present time.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM OCT. 14 TO 20

WED. & THURSDAY—"MERELY MARY ANN" with JANET GAYNOR and CHARLES FARRELL. Here is the supreme triumph of these two stars in the struggles of youth—its triumphs and fears; its laughter and tears. Never a more wistful Janet—never a more attractive Charles—and never a more heart-stirring story. A brief but heavenly happiness after a life of toil and misery. Love without riches, and then riches without love—and finally and ending as delightful as it is surprising. A love story of a maid and a musician. As a penniless waif he loved her—as a lady of wealth he shunned her—until romance found its way. Your screen favorites in a tender and joyous picture. You'll adore them more than ever. Also BOBBY JONES in "The Driver."

FRI. & SAT.—CONSTANCE BENNETT in "THE COMMON LAW" Supported by Joel McCrea and a great cast. Love wrote this story for all who love—or hoped for it. The romance of an artist and his model who urged him to climb to fame on the fragments of her shattered heart. An unconventional story of an unconventional girl who said: "I don't care what people say—as long as you say you love me. She made his reputation but lost her own. Constance Bennett wears gorgeous clothes. She poses as a model. The sequence of the Four Arts Ball alone is worth the price of admission. "The Common Law" has done phenomenal business in the large cities and Farmville is getting it new. It's the biggest picture Miss Bennett has yet made, and it has everything. Dont' miss the treat of the season. Do not confuse this picture with "Common Clay". Also Paramount song, "You're Driving Me Crazy" and Fox News.

NEXT MON. & TUES. — "BAD GIRL with James Dunn and Sally Eilers. Well, here it is, folks — the screen sensation said to be the greatest human interest picture ever made. Every critic without exception, has picked it as the outstanding production of the year. Here's a stirring glowing story—a drama that shakes the emotions like a jolt from life. You'll like it because its human. You will applaud because it's true. You'll cherish it because it's beautifully acted and directed. Youth—impulsive, high-strung, daring, groping its unconscious way through frivolous flirtations, risque romances, seeking for itself the secret of life and true happiness, and not recognizing it until it has again almost slipped away. From Vina Delmar's sensational novel. A picture you'll always remember. Also Flip the Frog cartoon. Not—Owing to the high cost of this picture the prices will be: Adults, 50c at nights and 35c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 20c at matinees and 25c at nights.

Daily matinees at 4 p. m. Every night at 8 o'clock.

Regular admission—Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

PRINCETON, N. J.—Princeton this fall will dedicate a new scientific building erected in memory of Dean Henry Burchard Fine, former Princeton mathematician. One of the features of the structure is the mathematical equations and geometric figures which appear in the stained-glass windows.

NEW IN STYLE.....

....NEW IN PRICE

Again, we score another triumph. We now offer you the newest Fall and Winter Dresses at three interesting low prices. And the quality is simply unmatchable at our three price range.

$2.88 $4.88 $7.88

Nothing lower Nothing higher

WE INVITE YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT

New York Dress Stores

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

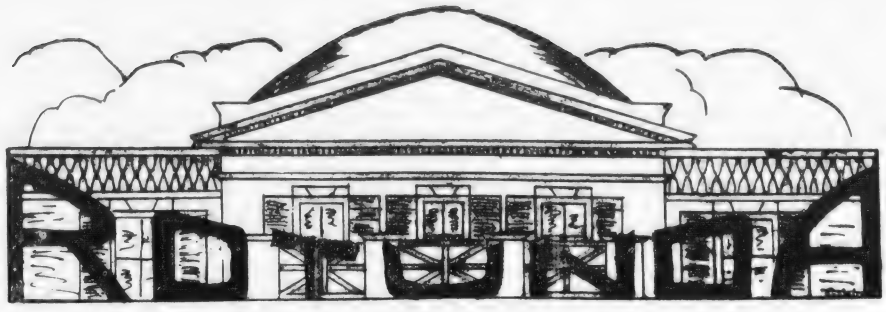
The Style Shop For College Girls

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling



Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING CLEANING AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

HAVE YOUR PICTURE TAKEN

WRITE A VARSITY SONG

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1931 No. 4

Farmville Represented at Yorktown

Special Bus Chartered for Monday To Take Students to the Celebration

OTHERS GO ON SATURDAY

Among the 100,000 guests of the nation and the State of Virginia at Yorktown on October 19 was a large delegation from the faculty and student body of State Teachers College. A special bus was chartered for that day so that transportation might be provided for girls desiring to go.

Those attending the sesquicentennial on Monday, anniversary day, had Mr. Hoover as well as to see the colorful pageant of the surrender ofCornwallis, the masque portraying the progress of the nation in the years intervening between 1781 and 1931, and the review of the Army and Navy by the President.

Sunday was religious day and was celebrated by a union religious service and a program suited to the spirit of the day.

A military and naval pageant depicting through historical scenes the planning and execution of the Yorktown campaign, including preliminary battles held a major place on the program for Saturday, Revolutionary day.

The Pageant for the opening day of the celebration fittingly portrayed the history and character of the original Thirteen Colonies with events from the landing at Jamestown in 1607 to the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Truly it may be said that from October 16-19 all roads led to Yorktown. Those who had an opportunity to attend this great celebration feel a renewed spirit of thanksgiving and gratitude to the valiant forefathers and the gallant leader who made independence an actuality.

SOPHOMORES TO MEET EVERY TWO WEEKS

It was decided at the regular Sophomore class meeting on Tuesday night that they hold their regular meetings once every two weeks instead of every week. The results of this is expected to be favorable. It also means that every sophomore is expected to be present at every meeting. This plan was made especially for teachers and -girls who participate in extra curricular activities. It does not mean to lessen responsibility but it tends toward a better organized and more efficient class.

Urges Students To Have Pictures Taken

The Virginian staff wishes to impress upon the student body the importance of having their pictures in the annual. It.. is recognized that pictures make an annual. It is believed that the pictures will be better than ever this year. Thursday, October 22 will be the last day. Everybody is urged by the staff to make their appointments before that day.

"MAMMY'S SCRAPBOOK" WINS HEARTY APPLAUSE

"Mammy's Scrapbook," sponsored by the College Orchestra this past Friday evening, was a delightfully arranged program which won hearty applause.

The entertainment began with a piano solo by Helen Wiley Hardy. Stories and poems told by Mrs. Wallace Gould nee Miss Mary Jackson followed. Next Mrs. Waverly Putney played the harmonica and guitar. The Baskerville Trio sang several selections, accompanied by the banjo One very special number was "The Spanish Cavalier" sung by the Neff children, dressed in costume. Adding another note of variety and spice were the tap dances by Ruth Floyd and Margaret Stiff and by little Jane Hardy.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS MEETS FOR FIRST TIME THIS SEMESTER

The first meeting of the year of Le Cercle Francais was held October 15. The club wishes to extend to each student who is taking French a cordial invitation to become one of its members.

Le Cercle Francais promises interesting and enjoyable, as well as instructive programs, this year. It will meet once each month, that is—three times each term, two of the meetings with formal programs, the other being entirely social.

If anyone is taking French and is not a member of the French Club, she should see Bessie Lynch, the secretary, immediately. New members will be installed Thursday night, November 5.

New Teacher Training at Columbia

To create an entirely new type of teacher for our civilization, to make in short the pedagogue more of a person, seems to be the major aim of the new undergraduate training institution recently announced for next year by Teachers College of Columbia University. The purpose of this plan is to train promising young college students to become super-teachers in the face of the present oversupply of mediocre teachers.

Those who qualify, fulfill the high requirements of this new institution, will be given an extraordinary training in life experience as well as in the classroom. The chosen students will spend part of their time in the shop, the factory, will go to the opera, to an outdoor camp, will be provided with parties, daily contact with philosophers. They will also study for a year abroad and do social work in the homes of the poor. Credit and course hours will be eliminated, whole emphasis will be placed on the seminars and directed reading.

This forward step is significant of a new trend in education that has been gaining ground in America. More and more are colleges realizing that to provide an adequate training, a student must have a well-rounded well-balanced education. The value of such a comprehensive training is inestimable.

MAJOR TITTMANN TO BE AT S. T. C. IN NOVEMBER

The Junior Choral Club is pleased to announce the coming of Chas. A. Tittmann, November 19. Major Tittmann will be assisted by the Farmville Silver Band and the Senior Choral Club.

The Dramatic Club Begins Its Work

Has Started on First Series Of One-Act Plays To Be Given This Fall

DEPARTMENT MEETINGS HELD

On the list of school organizations that really do accomplish things, the Dramatic Club comes among the first A very definite program is planned in the fall and is carried out through the year. Work has already started on the first of a series of one act plays to be given by the acting group, assisted by the other groups.

The different departments, with their heads, are:

Acting ..... Henrietta Cornwell
Makeup ..... Ruth Ford
Costume ..... Lelia Lovelace
Properties ..... Evelyn Jones
Lighting ..... M. T. Rawls
Staging ..... Elizabeth Drewry
Business ..... Easter Souders

The officers of the club, to whom anyone may go for information, are:

President ..... Jenilee Knight
Vice-Pres. ..... Margaret Armstrong
Secretary ..... Sallie Russell
Business Mgr. ..... Easter Souders

The most tangible contribution the Dramatic Club makes to the school is its donation every year on Founders Day. The amount usually given is two hundred and fifty dollars, although it has been as much as five hundred dollars.

Last year, instead of giving the money, they gave the new velvet curtain for the stage. In the spring they had installed a new seven hundred dollar lighting system, which they bought for the school.

Departmental meetings are held once each week. The entire Dramatic Club meets once each month on the first Friday at seven o'clock.

Plans are now being made for the fall play to be given with Hampden-Sydney.

CHAPEL PROGRAM CONSISTS OF TWO CELLO SELECTIONS

A very interesting program was rendered in chapel Saturday morning by Dorothy Fields, who played two numbers on the cello. The selections were "Going Home" and "Somewhere a Voice is Calling."

Mr. Strick announced the program for the following two weeks. The student body and faculty is looking forward to hear the College Orchestra next Saturday, and, the boys' choir accompanied by Dr. C. V. Cook in two weeks.

COLLEGE SENIOR FARES WORSE THAN FRESHMEN

NEW YORK.—The college senior fares more badly than the college freshman in a report issued this past summer by the Carnegie Foundation for the advancement of teaching.

According to the report, based on tests given more than 10,000 students in Pennsylvania colleges and unversities, the"ravages of forgetting" caused the senior to lose, even before getting his sheepskin, much of the knowledge he had acquired during four years at school.

"The college senior recognizes only 61 out of 100 words in familiar use by educated persons," the report said. "The effect of college on the word supply of the ordinary student appears to be almost negligible and in some cases positively injurious."

"The school and college curriculum," the report added, "consists of

Continued on page three

OUTSTANDING GIRLS FOR 1932 VANITY FAIR

The election of representative girls from the student body for Vanity Fair of the 1932 Virginian was held yesterday.

The following were elected:

Most Athletic ..... Frances Edwards
Most Versatile ..... Ruth Hunt
Most Popular ..... Grace Woodhouse
Most Beautiful ..... Medora Ford
Most Intellectual ..... Louise Elliott
Most Stylish .... Frances P. Bradford
Most Attractive ..... Helen Cover
Most Cultured ..... Jane Royall

REPRESENTATIVES OF FRESHMAN CLASS CHOSEN

At a meeting of the Freshman Class last night the freshman representatives to the student council and to the Student Standards Committee were elected. The representatives to the council represent the Freshman Class on our Student Council. It is one of the greatest honors that can be given to a freshman, for only girls of outstanding character are chosen. Representatives to the student committee are chosen for leadership, ability and are girls who can keep the standards of the school.

The following girls were elected:

Student Government
Peela Kutz
Isabelle Allegree

Student Standards Committee
Mary Kathryn Taylor
Christine Childrey

Foreign Dabaters to Start College Tour

The 1931 international collegiate debating season opens on October 21 when the English Universities team, one of the three brought to this country this year by the National Student Federation, debates a Hamilton College team at Clinton, New York, on whether or not "the dole provides a better method of solving the unemployment problem than does the charity system," with the British team taking the affirmative.

The N. F. S. A. has been handling all of the international debating in the United States for the past three years. Four teams, representing Germany, Scotland, the English National Union of Students and Cambridge University, were brought over last fall, and the experiment of sponsoring an English-speaking continental team (the German one) was so successful that it was decided to repeat it this year. The Turkish team has been brought over in cooperation with the American Friends of Turkey, the Turkish Embassy in Washington, and Robert College in Constantinople. A Dutch team was arranged for as well, but was obliged to cancel its tour at the last minute.

The Turkish team will debate first on Monday, October 26 at the State University of Iowa, Iowa City, on the resolution that "Compulsory unemployment insurance should be adopt-

Continued on page four

SUNBURNING LUNGS CURE FOR TUBERCULOSIS

Sunburning the inside of one's lungs to cure tuberculosis is a procedure introduced in Vienna by Dr. Alexander Cemach, inventor of many devices for medicals use of ultra-violet rays.

Y. W. C. A. Meets At "Longwood"

Plans Are Discussed And Formulated For the Entire Year of 1931-1932

CABINET REMAINS FOR NIGHT

The Y. W. C. A. of State Teachers College, Farmville, held a set-up conference at Longwood Saturday, October 17. The object of the conference was to discuss and formulate plans for the entire year.

The Cabinet, with Mr. Redhead as a guest, had lunch at Longwood at 1:30 Saturday, after which Mr. Redhead led the devotional services of the meeting. The thought covered was "My Father worketh even up to this minute."

A. J. Scott, president, opened the Cabinet meeting by explaining the part the Y. W. C. A. at State Teachers College has in the national Y. W. C. A. and what the national Y. W. C. A. may mean on the campus here. The entire afternoon was devoted to sifting and weighing many problems of vital importance that confront the Y. W. C. A. With the help of Miss Nichols, the faculty adviser to the Cabinet, much was accomplished. The various committees were asked to report their plans for the year. These reports were worked out in detail as far as possible. General plans were made for bringing interesting speakers to the college campus throughout the year.

At 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon the Advisory Board of the Cabinet met at Longwood with the Cabinet. Plans were further discussed with the members of the board.

At 6:30, the Cabinet and Advisory Board were served dinner, after which a "Sing" was put on in addition to a social hour afterward.

The Cabinet and Miss Nichols, Miss Camper and Miss Bedford remained at Longwood for the night. Early Sunday morning before breakfast Miss Nichols conducted morning watch. The theme of her talk may be stated, "Placing Values Where They Rightly Belong." '

After breakfast the conference was considered adjourned. A feeling of something accomplished as well as a get-to-gether pervaded the whole group.

DR. WYNNE TO SPEAK AT WINSTON-SALEM

Members of the western section of the North Carolina Education Association, in session at Winston-Salem, N. C., next Friday and Saturday, Oct. 23-24, will hear Dr. J. P. Wynne, head of the department of education at Farmville State Teachers College, in a series of addresses on curriculum construction.

Dr. Wynne will make four addresses on different aspects of the problem. Such an invitation comes in consequence of the recognition of Dr. Wynne's long study and investigation of curriculum-making.

Burson Will Speak In Science Hall

Mr. Burson's lectures on landscape gardening will be given in the chemistry lecture room in the Science Hall, instead of in the Student Building auditorium as formerly. The lectures will be given at the same time on Thursdays, 3:45 P. M. The change in place is made to facilitate the showing of lantern slides.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

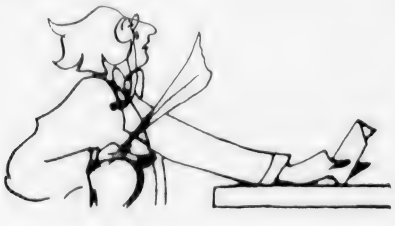
Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '34



Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting an dtreating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Thomas A. Edison

Today, on the 52nd anniversary of his perfection of the incandescent light, Thomas Alva Edison, mourned by the world, is to be buried. Homage to the great inventor is world-wide.

The foremost figure in an age of invention, Edison needs no ecomium. His genius has done so and will continue to literally light the world through the coming ages. Brooding over a world which, at nightfall, was plunged into darkness, pierced only by kerosene lamps, gas lights, or arc lights, the brilliant inventive mind of Edison evoked the incandescent light. The cylinder phonograph made by Edison brought music to the music lovers. In the perfection of the radio found in most of our homes this inventor had a hand. The first motion picture camera was made by him. Inventions conceived and inventions perfected which have caused a great advancement in our civilization were due to his genius.

He dreamed of great things and by the sweat of toil brought them to pass. He leaves an inspiration, an encouragement for dreamers. It is not only possible to dream of great things but if we are willing, as he was by hard work, we can make them come true.

In passing, Thomas A. Edison leaves a world-wide consciousness that one of the earth's great spirits has left us.

'FESSIONS OF A FRESHMAN

Despite the fact that I originated in a small Virginia town, Richmond, I believe it was I who grew up with an ever present conviction that some day there would be bigger and better things in store for me with college—a real college with hard beds and rotten food—as an ultimate.

And here I am! Just as bright as a new penny and ready to try anything once although I am getting over that after a few initiations that included getting my face lifted and ruining a pair of brand new pajama pants by wearing them thin at the back.

The first few mornings I was here, my roommmates didn't awaken me until I just had time to race into my new school outfit and dash down to breakfast at the end of the crowd. But one morning I heard none of them and so I dressed and leaving the roommate to miss breakfast, set out for the dining room. Imagine my surprise to find the crowd already gone. You should have seen me tear down those halls in nothing flat, taking the steps three at a time. The halls were as quiet as the grave and I just knew I was going to be locked out of the dining room. Just as I had thought when I arrived at the door breathless and dishevelled they were closed and locked. As I turned to retrace my steps I happened to get a glimpse of the hall clock. The time was ten minutes past six. It was then that my first spell of home-sickness set in—at least it was some kind of sickness.

The first Sunday night I made a big hit with Miss Mary, I class it as my biggest success so far. You see a boy friend of mine came up from down the country to see me and as neither one of us felt especially inclined to go to church that evening, I went in and asked Miss Mary if it wouldn't be all right if we went driving and she just laughed and laughed and I kind of laughed too but I didn't think it was so funny. Finally, I edged out, and Jim and I we went down the "rec."

The first week I went in the home office to sign up on a shopping card and Miss Shelton said, "I can't find your card, haven't you been shopping before?" And I told her "Yessum, I went down town once before and when I got back I took my card off the file and tore it up.

After I've been here longer, I'll have a lot more to add because I believe I'm making a success of college and you all will do well by following my example.

SOME OF THE FRESHMAN SONG HITS

Just a Blue-eyed Blond— Margaret Gilmer
Sweet and Lovely ..... Frances Dorin
It's the Girl ..... Barney Barnes
Without the Gal ..... Loeta Barham
Black Eyes ..... Nancy Burgwin
Little Girl ..... Libby Mason
Sunny Southern Smile, Belle Lovelace
Happy Feet ..... Nubby Knaub
Jigg Time ..... Garnet Hodges
A New Kind of Old Fashion Girl— Dot Waynick
The Cute Little Things You Do— Kitty McLemore
Sweet Music ..... Virginia Fox
Help Yourself to Happiness— Catherine Lee Young

ON THE DEAN'S LIST

(From The Roanoke Times)

Five out of twenty-five students on the Dean's List at the State Teachers College at Farmville for the fall quarter were from Roanoke and Southwest Virginia. The dean's list is the highest scholastic honor that can come to a student at Farmville. Only seniors are eligible. It must be exceedingly gratifying to the families represented in this select list and they have a perfect right to the pardonable pride that they undoubtedly feel in the achievement of the daughter or sister who has won for herself a place among the outstanding few at the very top.

To be on the dean's list does not represent social popularity. It does not typify athletic prowess. Nor does it stand for personality. It means scholarship and that, translated, means hard work conscientiously performed and successfully carried out. It means that the girl in question is succeeding in her school work in a notable way—and that, after all, ought to be the aim and ambition of every girl who goes to college. To be on the dean's list is no mean distinction and it is a source of no little satisfaction to The Times to note that five out of twenty-five on the dean's list at Farmville are from this part of the State.

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

Just another episode on Gym Hall—if it isn't a red and green color scheme it's a pet alligator.

Do you really think that the persons who took part in Sing Saturday evening expect to return to the old style or was it just for a night?

Did you hear someone say that this stuff is all bunkum. Then they certainly have the point to some of these Ed classes.

Someone attempted to be industrious over the week-end and as a result we have two newly painted hockey goals.

A meeting was called of all the girls whose mothers had been to S. T. C. Evidently the Grand-daughter's Club was looking for new material. Each girl was asked when her mother was here and one replied, "Oh, my mother was here last Tuesday!"

Then there was the girl who had a cat named Naomi. As it grew older, she found it to be of the opposite sex, and so she changed its name to Nero; then it was drowned, and so she called the poor cat Pharoah.

ALUMNAE NEWS

The Farmville Alumnae extend a cordial welcome to Mrs. Henry Logan Newbill (Miss Martha King Bugg), Mr. Newbill and their young son, Henry Logan, Jr., upon their return to Farmville after several years spent in Richmond.

The Farmvilel Alumnae regret that the town and State have lost Miss Mary Elizabeth Bugg who on October 5 became the bride of Gordon Munroe Hughes of Kingsport, Tenn. Mrs. Hughes has been president of the local chapter and was always interested in alumnae affairs.

Another Farmville bride of the month was Miss Mary Garnett Jackson whose marriage to Wallace Gould formerly of Lewiston, Maine, now of Farmville, took place on October 4 at Gravel Hill, Charlotte County, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott Chamberlayne. Mr. Gould has written one book, "Aphrodite and Other Poems," and numerous other poems. Mrs. Gould has varied talents, and cleverly impersonated an old negro "Mammy" in a recent entertainment sponsored by the S. T. C. Orchestra.

The wedding of Miss Evelyn Smith of Petersburg to E. E. Thomas of Lynchburg, was solemnized October 17 at Smith's Grove Church, near Petersburg. Mrs. Thomas is connected with the firm of Watkins and Brock, and Mr. Thomas with the Newman Chevrolet Sales Corporation in Farmville.

Miss Bessie Louise Cook and Lewis Arthur Durfee both of Prospect, were married at the Presbyterian manse near Farmville September 12. Mrs. Durfee has been teaching in schools of Bath and Amherst counties the past five years. Mr. Durfee is a graduate of V. P. I. and is engaged in business at Prospect.

Miss Louise Bondurant has accepted a position on the faculty of a school near Charlotte Court House.

Miss Emilie Holladay leaves this week for Covington where she will teach in one of the city schools.

Miss Stella Cheatham of Green Bay has a position in Richmond this session.

JOY OF LIVING

Have you ever been filled with the joy of life,
Too happy to breathe or sing?
When nothing particular has happened to you,
Just happiness that living does bring?
No one seems sorry and no one is sad;
Everybody's laughing and gay.
O God! What have we done,
To deserve such joy today?

Easter Souders

THINGS

Aline Kilmer

Sometimes when I am at tea with you I catch my breath
At a thought that is old as the world is old
And more bitter than death.

It is that the spoon that you just laid down
And the cup that you hold
May be here shining and insolent
When you are still and cold.

Your careless note that I laid away
May leap to my eyes like flame,
When the world has almost forgotten your voice
Or the sound of your name.

The golden Virginia da Vinci drew
May smile on over my head,
And daffodils nod in the silver vase
When you are dead.

So let moth and dust corrupt and theives
Break through and I shall be glad,
Because of the hatred I bear to things,
Instead of the love I had.

For lip seems only a shuddering breath,
A smothered, desperate cry
And things have a terrible permanence
When people die.

CONFIDENCE

Silent, steady and sure
A ship glides
Through the sea
By night.

Silent, steady sure
A pilot Takes to His flight.

Thus may we near
Our goal,
Be it through
Sorrow or strife.

For after all
It's one of the things
Which we must learn
In this life.

V. L.

RENDEZ-VOUS (de l'esprit)

My thought leapt out into quivering space,
To go and fall at your feet;
I found out what an eon was:
Time skipped a long heart beat.
Past red-pointed maples, ahead of the wind,
Rushing faster than things that be,
My soul went out to meet with yours,
For I knew yours would meet with me.

Easter Souders

LINES

You are here
But there is
A fleeting gesture
In your presence
As a lovely thing,
Within my fingers,
But alas
How easily
It slips
Through into
A world of blue
Uncharted and unknown
To me!

SOCIALS

Vernie Oden, Chick Mosby and Clara Mackenzie spent the week-end at Chapel Hill.

• • •

Phyllis Denit visited Margaret Banks in Orange this week-end.

• • •

Those who spent the week-end in Richmond are: Frances Dorin, Burnly Brockenbrough, Margaret Eley, Elizabeth Field, Cottie Willis, Dot Leonard, Mary Shelton and Martha Saunders.

• • •

Louise Van Lear, Ruth Ford, and Jo Snead spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

• • •

Katherine Claude and Charlotte Hutchins spent the week-end in Drewyville.

• • •

Katherine Young and Lorena Bland were visitors in Boydton.

• • •

Mary Artis Danner went to Staunton Wednesday to attend her sister's wedding.

• • •

Lucie Scott, Eleanor Hogan, Elizabeth Antrim, Jane Brown, Annie Denit and Enza Evans were visitors in the school this week-end.

• • •

Martha Brothers and Martha Cross spent the week-end at their homes in Suffolk.

• • •

Lillian Hogan spent Sunday in Lynchburg.

• • •

Frances Dillon spent the week-end at Indian Roche.

• • •

Medora Ford spent the week-end in Lexington.

• • •

Ambler Lee and Polly McMurdo were visitors in Charlottesville this week-end.

• • •

May Maybe attended the West Virginia-W. & L. game in Charleston.

• • •

Mrs. Mary Randall spent the week-end with Frances Ratcliffe in Staunton.

• • •

Mildred Gwaltney spent the week-end in Windsor.

• • •

Helen Cover spent the week-end in Staunton.

• • •

Frances Potts, Mary Harrison and Virginia Lamb were in Petersburg this week-end.

• • •

Ella Mallory visited in her home in Lawrenceville this week-end.

• • •

Catherine McLemmon spent the week-end in Courtland.

• • •

Frances Rawlings spent the week-end in Norfolk.

Miss Jennie Tabb is visiting Mrs. Evans in Amelia. Mrs. Evans and Miss Tabb escaped serious injury last Sunday when their car collided with another car near Amelia C. H. Miss Tabb received minor cuts and bruises.

ANCIENT CASTLES FURNISH EMPLOYMENT

Ancient castles the length and breadth of England are furnishing work for hundreds of unemployed. Some 2,000 workers are clearing out moats, beautifying lawns, repairing walls, restoring ancient monuments under the direction of the Office of Works.

AMONG THOSE AT THE YORKTOWN FESTIVITIES

Among those who attended the Sesquicentennial in Yorktown are the following:

Annie Lee Jones
Sarah Beck
Bernie May Love
Helen Allen
Mary Custis Burwell
Virginia Bryan
Harriet Branch
Hanna Crawley
Christine Childrey
Virginia Brinkley
Nancy Burgwin
Virginia Cornish
Margaret Copenhaver
Nancy Boykin
Margaret Banks
Laurie Boush
Mary Berkley Nelson
Margaret McNamara
Anne McGann
Gloria Mann
Alice Marshall
Mary Pearson
Grace Virginia Woodhousee
Lillian Womack
Sara Perdue
Audrey Parker
Ann Wingo
Janice White
Stuart Quaintenance
Alice Rowell
Joyce Sturm
Gazelle Ware
Frances Daughtry
Margaret Hix
Margaret Gathright
Julia Faris
Evelyn Dryden
Nancy Harrison
Martha Higgins
Evelyn Jones
Sally Kent
Gwen Looney
Virginia Hamilton
Hilda Garret
Virginia Daughtry
Nancy DeBerry
Mildred Hope
Lila Jacob
Lucille Hunt
Sarah Hubard
Esther Haskins
Celia Jones
Evelyn Knaub
Virginia Lamb
Emma Littleton
Catherine Jones
Masil Falls
Jane Royall
Ann Rawls
Cycliff Scott
Elizabeth Strader
Mary Katherine Taylor
Helen Shawen
Nancy Ross
Alice Marshall
Catherine Royster
Sara Saunders
Lucille Rocke
Martha von Schilling
Lucille Tiller
Cecil Talley
Lillian Woodley
Kitty Waters
Jessie Watkins
Beverly Wilkerson
Helen Warren

STUDENTS FAIL TO GET ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

Owen D. Young, in a speech at Wesleyan University, during its centennial ceremonies, in criticism of American colleges, said that most students fail to get a broad economic outlook. Students are not gaining a knowledge of the complexities of our economic relations with the world.

He stated that economic and political organizations are over-reaching and to some extent paralyzing one another, and that, "We have been training men in the technique of production, distribution and finance, but not for that additional 'overhead' of economics which is necessary today."

NEW COTILLION CLUB MEMBERS ANNOUNCED

The Cotillion Club wishes to announce the following new members:

Winston Cobb
Joe Snead
Doreen Smith
Martha Brothers
Louise Clodfelter
Anna Knox
Ellen Jones
Margaret Stiff
Katheryn Waters
Anne Davis
Homazelle Darden
Catherine Claud
Martha Higgins
Mary Thomas Rawls
Laurine Billings
Elizabeth Jordon
Martha Kello
Connie Quarles
Gladys Mathews
Mary Elizabeth Scales
Elma Rawlings
Mary Howard
Harriet Moomaw
Norma Franklin
Dot Franklin
Lucille Owen
Myra McIntosh

DOG HAS ATTENDED MANY UNIVERSITIES

FRANKLIN, Neb.—Scottie, a well-trained Scotch collie, owned by W. R. Duckett, of this city, probably has attended more universities than any other dog. His "education" has been secured at the University of Chicago, the University of Kansas and Columbia University.

Scottie's master is blind, and the dog for the last three summers has guided Duckett to classes in the universities where he has been studying for his master of arts degree.

At the close of the past summer session at Columbia, when the students applauded at the close of the last lecture by Wm. C. Bagley, Scottie joined the applause with prolonged cheerful barking.

In Europe it is popular for the professors and students alike to ride bicycles. This would be a very economical fad or practice to be taken up by American colleges. Smith College has placed a ban on automobiles and now there are over 200 bicycles being used by students on the campus.

Norris Kellam, of Memphis, Tenn., who calls himself "the human cork" has completed a 227-mile non-stop swim, from Cairo, Ill., to Memphis, in 95 hours and 45 minutes. Now just what does that prove? The man was lifted from the water in a semi-conscious state.

COLLEGE SENIORS FARE WORSE THAN FRESHMEN

(Continued From Page 1)

little else but isolated packages of specific ideas, segregated for the time being in self-contained courses, elected semester-wise and cut off by examinations and credits from any other living conditions. The sacredness of such systems of credit coinage dominates both teacher and pupil. . . .

"The raw information which the courses had presented and which, with proper treatment, might have contributed to a fine body of intellectual equipment, was dumped outright at the close of the successive terms, and when the student came out of college his effective knowledge amounted to a little more than when as a freshman he entered the institution."

Seventy per cent of the men in Who's Who in America are college men, and only one person in a hundred goes to college. Thus one college man out of every forty achieves distinction, while one non-college man in ten thousand achieves distinction.

According to statistics published in the Duke "Chronicle," the average time it takes a "bull session" to start on the subject of women is six minutes. This fact was determined by two students majoring in psychology, who went to twenty-five rooms and started twenty-five bull sessions with any subject but that of women or anything which pertained to them.

HOSIERY BY MAIL

NEW FALL SHADES
FULL FASHIONED
ALL PURE SILK
CHIFFON WEIGHT
PICOT TOP
CRADLE FOOT
FRENCH HEELS

A real value at $1.50—our price $1.00 per pair postage paid—your money back if not satisfied.

Color card on request

ALTAVISTA TEXTILE CO., Inc.

ALTAVISTA, VIRGINIA

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

Willis.... Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Manageemnt

W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

NOTEBOOK FILLERS

3 for 20c

These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.

Get them at

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Valuable News!

DOROTHY MAY STORES

Add New Department

Farmville's most beautiful store offers lovely new dresses of Jersey, Tweed, Knit and Wool Crepe. These dresses were originally sold at $488. Our tremendous buying power enable us to offer you these great savings. Come, see for yourself the marvelous value at $2.74

THE HUB

Welcomes S. T. C. Girls!

SPECIAL FOR OPENING WEEK!

Allan "A" Sheer Chiffon Pure Silk Hose, $1.19 value for 79c
All the New Fall Shades

THE NEWEST VOGUE!
Polo Coats, long lengths, French Model, size 14 to 20 ..... $9.85

The Hub Department Store

FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

Professor: "Someone has stolen my watch."
Wife: "Didn't you feel a hand in your pocket?"
Prof.: "Yes, but I thought it was my own."

"Surgeons ought, above all things, to have an iron nerve," says a writer. Judging by the bills they send in, most of 'em have.

"Have you heard that Smith, the millionaire, is dead?"
"Yes, I'm awfully distressed."
"Why, was he a relative of yours?"
"No—that's why I'm sorry."

Bachelor: "Sometimes I yearn for the peace and quiet of married life."
Married Friend: "Well, you haven't a thing on me!"

"Is your dog intelligent?"
"Oh, yes. When I say 'Come here or don't come here, just as you please, he comes or doesn't come, just as he pleases."

Liza (looking at zebra): "Rastus, what kind of animal is dat?"
Rastus: "Why, Liza, dat's a sports model mule."

"Henry, who helped you with this map?"
"Nobody, ma'am."
"Tell the truth now Henry, didn't your brother help you with this map?"
"No, ma'a'm. He done it all."

"Tommy aren't you afraid you'll be late for supper?"
"Nope, I've got the meat."

Bell: "I hear the midshipmen are fed lots of carrots."
Cecil: "In soup?"
Belle: "No, sap, in the mess hall."

A girl may love you from the bottom of her heart, but there's always room at the top for some other guy.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead . . .
Who never to himself hath said . . .
"Would that the Navy were co-ed".

"What's the matter with you?"
"I'm a little stiff from scrimmage."
"I don't care where you're from."

Mother: "Another bite like that one, and you'll leave the table."
Sonny: "Yeh, another bite like that one and I'll be finished."

Ruth: "I must be getting insomnia."
Stiff: "Why?"
Ruth: "I woke up twice in history, yesterday."

"Halt, who goes there?"
"That's all right, you wouldn't know me."

S. T. C.: "I believe that that college boy is the idol of his family."
H. S. C.: "Yes, he's been idle ever since he got here."

And anyway, who is this woman doctor, Anna Polis, M. D.

Said a greedy young man from Pawtucket,
"A juicy green apple—I'll plucket"
But long before dark
He was heard to remark,
"Ge whiz, ain't I sorry I Isnucket!"

FOREIGN DEBATE TEAMS START COLLEGE TOUR

Continued from page one

ed by the sovereign states as public protection against the vicissitudes of the machine age," with the Turks in the affirmative.

Tthe third team brought over this year, which repreesnts Oxford University, will have as opening broadside a tentative engagement with Pembroke College, Brown University, at Providence. On November 22, they will attempt to convince the University of Indiana's debaters that "the press is Democracy's greatest danger."

Each of the teams has two members, and each will visit about thirty colleges and universities here on a tour of approximately seven weeks. In order to provide the opportunity of meeting these students to as many American colleges as possible, the teams' itineraries have been distributed fairly evenly over the country—the Turkish team travelling through the far western states, the Oxford team through the Middle West and the South, and the English Universities students through the East.

WIN A MONOGRAM

Wouldn't you like to have a blue and white monogram for your very own? Athletic ability, sportsmanship, and physical efficiency will help you to win one. Every Friday afternoon monogram practices will be held in the gym to pass the physical efficiency tests. Freshmen are especially urged to come to these practices and start work on their monogram. If you don't know what it is all about, come to the gym Friday afternoon and have fun with the Monogram Club girls.

Intercollegiate

The story of an Alaskan youth who travelled seventeen hundred miles from Sitka in a sixteen foot dory in order to attend school at University of Oregon, rather puts to shame the tales of our grandfathers who boasted of travelling twenty miles for an education in the good old days.

Professor Charles G. Shaw, of N. Y. U., who proclaimed whistlers to be morons, has been subjected to ruthless, multilateral criticism from all over the country. Disregarding his purpose in his statements, and all this adverse criticism, there is nothing like a radical idea to give people food for thought. He has lightened the load about our hearts by giving us quaint ideas to think about.

Some of his unusual ideas are that: "Pants are a sign of patriotism: avoid knickers or Democracy will go to the bow-wows"; "A million dollar prize should be given to the man who can invent a reason for living"; "Women alone have culture in America.'" "We have no men of culture, they are all women"; "The Phi Beta Kappa key is useless'"; "Men are growing womanish and are losing their title to the name, 'he men.' "

The "Princess Eugenie" hats have scored another knockout! Up in one of the Northern colleges, there is being tried out a new project in college circles. As usual the Freshmen are the ones who are having to bear the brunt of the "experiment"—Freshmen caps have been abolished in favor of the Eugenie hats! Just see the cute little hats with their cocky-like feathers bobbing here and there . . . oh, well the girls—freshmen or no freshmen—have to wear them anyway—so there!

It has been estimated that it costs the average college student about nine dollars per day to remain in school. This alone should make students anxious to meet every class and get their money's worth; but the University of Maryland, fearing that some are prone to overlook the matter of class attendance, has inaugurated a three dollar fine for every class cut.

A new way to kill flies has been inaugurated recently down at U. N. C. at one of the cafeterias. The flies (and pests) attracted to the screens of the cafeteria by the tempting odors are greeted with an electric shock of one and one-half volts—enough to knock the props from under any ordinary- self-respecting fly.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM OCT. 21 TO 26

WED.—"MY SIN" with Frederic March and Tallulah Bankhead. If you are squeamish, pass this one up, for it is about a woman who knew more about men than they know about themselves—yet she could not get the man she wants without a terrific sacrifice. Miss Bankhead will arouse your sincere sympathy in this role of a hostess in a dive in Havana who is constantly confronted with her past, but who eventually redeems herself. And Fred March never did a better bit of acting as a lawyer who has lost his self respect and become a habitual drunkard. It requires a unique situation to awaken him to his real worth as a man, with the result that he fully redeems himself in the eyes of the woman who loves him. Yet no other woman in the world could live the life she'd live—and still get the one man. A strong story that will grip you, but not for children. Also cartoon and two reel comedy of exceptional merit.

THURS. & FRI.—Ann Harding and Leslie Howard in "DEVOTION". If you do not know Leslie Howard, please know that he is being fought over by big studios for his services as an actor. Critics say the love scenes between Leslie and Ann Harding are the best ever enacted since the advent of talking pictures. Here is the story of a woman cheated of romance who falls in love with a married man—who wanted to give this all her love but devotion was all the law would allow. She defied the law and so—Miss Harding plays a dual role and reaches the climax of her screen career in this superb picture taken from the story, "A Little Flat in the Temple". Lellie Howard was with Norma Shearer and Marion Davies in their latest pictures but scores an artistic triumph in "Devotion." Also Ford Sterling in a splendid comedy.

SAT.—Claudette Colbert in the "SECRETS OF A SECRETARY". She takes notes on the noteworthy,—the intimate doings, darings, frolics and fclies of America's smart set. An aristocrat of the aristocrats, yet as social secretary she finds that the code others gayly break is iron-bound for her. See how the social conventions work on the "inside". "Secrets of a secretary" leaves nothing untold. It opens in a boudoir, closes on a murder. It begins with a mad marriage and ends with a honeymoon. Don't miss glorious, glamorous Claudette Colbert in this, her best picture. Also Sceen Song, "Little Annie Rooney" and Fox News.

Note—Special 2 p. m. matinee this day when "Daddy Long Legs" will be shown for benefit of 4—H clubs.

NEXT MON. ONLY—Constance Bennett and Joel McCrea in "BORN TO LOVE". Here again is the most vibrant personality on the screen in a story inspired by her and written for her, in which she surpasses in charm and sheer power of passion anything she has ever done. Through the dreary years she remembered the one perfect hour of romance— it's joys and the aftermath of its heartbreak—the lover she lost and the child she could not claim. Then miraculously she captured her lost romance and everything dear to her Don't miss a love story you will never forget. The story of a beautiful woman who lived for love. Also excellent comedy.

Daily Matinees at 4 P. M.—Evening at 8 o'clock.

Admission—Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

WHICH COLORS WILL BE ON THE CUP?

Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors! Just five more weeks and Thanksgiving will be here. Are you ready to fight for your class and its colors. Surely you cannot and will not idle away your time and see your class go down in defeat. The team that wins Thanksgiving day will practice hard from now until that day. It isn't too late to come out for hockey. Your class needs you, and you need your class. Don't disappoint us.

PI GAMMA MU

President-HENRIETTA CORNWELL

Pi Gamma Mu is a national honorary fraternity in Social Science, the chapter in this college being the Virginia Gamma chapter.

The purpose of this organization is to promote a further interest in Social Science, and to give recognition to those students who have high scholastic standing in their Social Science courses, and who have shown special interest in these subjects.

Juniors and seniors who have taken a required number of courses in Social Science, who have had high academic standards, and who give proofs of considering the Social Science their predominant interest are eligible for membership.

A psychologist has discovered a means of "breaking the ice" which will make even the most reserved person anxious to discuss his private affairs. It is a small dose of sodium armytal which has been used for years as an anesthetic.

WORLD NEWS

Perfuming All Outdoors

Those who object to perfumery will hardly be pleased at the methods now employed at the Paris Exposition and elsewhere, to spread odors over vast spaces.

The objectors say that one can scarcely choose the sights he is to see or the sounds he is to hear. They are forced upon him whether he will or not. And now he must submit to smelling whatever odor someone desires to inflict upon him.

In Chicago a thief stole 350 shoes from the automobile of Mr. Charles Weiss, shoe salesman. All were for the left foot.

Divorce Law Is Placed in Spanish Constitution

The Spanish National Assembly voted recently 169 to 153 to authorize the granting of divorces to men and women on equal terms. The new provisions authorizes divorce "for just cause". Under the previous Spanish law divorces were not granted at all.

Whistlers are calling each other "morons" this week. Charles G. Shaw, professor of philosophy at New York University, recently said that most of them deserved the title, only to be greeted ever since with a growing list of geniuses — Einstein, Mussolini, Lincoln, Augustus, etc., who practiced the lowly art.

$5 IN GOLD

Will be presented to the best model appearing in the

FASHION SHOW

to be held at the EACO THEATRE
WEDNESDAY NIGHT, November 4th
In conjunction with the feature picture, "THE BELOVED BACHELOR" with Dorothy Jordan and Paul Lukas
LIVING MODELS WILL DISPLAY Dresses from the

New York Dress Stores

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)
LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS
ONE DAY SERVICE
Complete line Greeting Cards
Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"
We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty
BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP
323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE
Come in and Get Acquainted
We Are Glad to Have You With Us
Farmville, Virginia

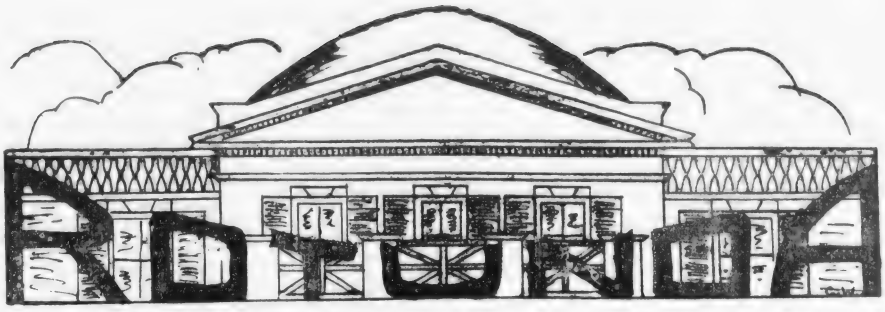
Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best
SANDWICHES
—and—
DRINKS
—in—
FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls



Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS
Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments
Special prices for cleaning and remodeling
Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING
CLEANING
AND PRESSING
Farmville, Va.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE ANNUAL

PAY YOUR CLASS DUES

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 28, 1931 No. 5

Red Cross Will Begin Membership Campaign Shortly

November 11th Will be the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Organization.

WILL CONTINUE HELPFULNESS

The annual enrollment of members which the American Red Cross will launch on Armistice Day, November 11, this year signalizes the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of that organization.

Anniversaries, particularly fiftieth anniversaries, whether of individuals or organizations, offer two temptations. One is to look back and the second is to look forward. The Red Cross, being at the half-way mark, so to speak, found that its ranks and the roll of its leaders could produce those able to do both.

The views of Dr. Livingston Farrand, president of Cornell, are distinctly in point here, because not only has he looked forward, but he has borne in mind how closely the future of all things now with us is allied with the forward- looking generation now in the country's educational institutions.

After detailing the trials of the post-war period of reorganization, with which he was closely identified in his years of association with the Red Cross and which he likened to the problems confronting it today, he told, not long ago, an audience of Red Cross leaders and representatives of all over the nation:

"I have to do, year in and year out, with American youth, and I hear a great many aspersions cast, particularly by the older generation, which never speaks the language of youth, upon the qualities of the present generation. Take my word for it, the present generation of youth is infinitely better than your and my generation. It is the best we have known.

"It is free from the misconceptions and prejudices and hyprocracies in which you and I were bred without protest on our part; and now there is a tendency to see clearly and, if we can inspire that group with this spirit which has made the Red Cross whta it is, there is no doubt as to the future.

"I do not look for any great, new, dramatic development in the program of the Red Cross. I don't think it needs it. The superb readiness which has developed during these last ten years in the face of emergent catastrophe, the readiness to act, and not only the readiness to act, the abiltiy to act effectively—no one can doubt that in the face of national peril, should it arise, the Red Cross would be again the expression of a patriotic spirit which was the finest thing that was aroused by the trial through which we passed in 1917."

Inasmuch as the Red Cross is asking a larger enrollment of members

Continued on page four

DEBATE CLUB TRY-OUTS TO BE HELD OCT 29

Try-outs for the Debate Club will be held in the little auditorium on Thursday, October 29 at 7 o'clock. Anyone interested may try out. The subject for debate is: Resolved, "That Graduating Sophomores Should Have the Same Privileges as Seniors." Persons trying out are expected to present a well organized speech of 3 to 5 minutes in length. Those not wishing to debate for try-out may orate or make a public speech. All who are interested in forensics are asked to try-out.

ARCHERY EXHIBITION GIVEN BY MR. DEAN

given on the athletic field here Thursday afternoon by Mr. Dean of Pinehurst, North Carolina.

It was an excellent exhibition. Those who saw Mr. Dean stand some distance from the target and hit the bull's eye every time were wondering why they could not do the same thing. With grace and ease the arrow flew straigt to the mark. Robin Hood, indeed, seemed to be in the midst of people aagin.

Mr. Dean showed some of the girls something of the art by instructing them, as they shot, in the way they should stand and how they should hold the bow and arrow.

Freshman Commis'n Elected Last Night

The following girls were elected at a meeting of the Freshman Class last night, from twenty-four nominations:

Garnet Hodges
Mary Hood
Belle Lovelace
Polly McMurdo
Lois Barnes
Mildred Lipscomb
Nell Weaver
Helen Smith
Burmley Brokenborough
Judith Taylor
Martha Putney

These girls will work under the leadership of Winston Cobb, undergraduate representative of Young Women's Christion Association. With Winston as their leader, the student body is expecting great work from the such a good group of girls, and with Freshman Commission this year.

SOUTHERN ENGLAND IS HOME OF EARLIEST MAN

Southern England was the home of the earliest known man and he lived about a million years ago. So Henry Fairfield Osborn of the Metropolitan Museum of Natural History confidently informed British scientists the other day. The "Heidelberg man" lived 920,000 years ago; the Ueauderthal man only 70,000 years ago; the Cromwaguon man 30,000 years ago and modern Nordic man came 12,000 years ago. Professor Osborn uses the teeth of the elephants whose remains are found associated with various early men as his best clue to their antiquity. The elephant he finds is man's oldest traveling companion.

CHAIRMAN FOR MAY DAY FESTIVAL IS SELECTED

Ruth Floyd has been selected as chairman of the May Day festival to be held this coming May. To her all suggestions and themes for May Day are to be submitted.

Committee Have Completed Plans For the Circus

Classes and Organizations Will Be Represented By Stunts and Other Features

DANCING WILL BE A FEATURE

The committees for the college circus have spent this past week in planning out their particular sunts for the circus, November 7, 1931. This year some of the organizations will be classed together and give only one stunt; this will add much more action to the circus. The committees are concentrating on better stunts rather than more of them.

The circus is one of the most important events that happens here at college. Alpha Kappa Gamma realizing that a circus is what everyone enjoys, has for years sponsored one here at S. T. C. The plan has been a successful one; this year every student is expected to come and enjoy herself as everyone else has in the past.

Besides stunts, which will be given by classes and organizations there will be extra features. Food will be sold, side shows will line the gymnasium and there will be dancing for extra amusement.

Saturday afternoon, November 7, there will be a grand parade up High Street. At this time, everyone will get a chance to look at all the animals and circus people.

JUNIOR CHORAL CLUB TO PRESENT TITTMANN

The Junior Choral Club will present Major Charles Tittmann in a recital, Thursday evening, November 19.

Associated with Major Tittmann will be the Farmville Silver Band and the Senior Choral Club.

This recital promises to be one of unusual merit and interest thus far shown, and argues well for a capacity crowd. The Woman's Club both literary and music divisions and members of Farmville Silver Band are behind this recital and are creating interest in nearby towns. The program will following next week's Rotunda.

RUFFNER LITERARY SOCIETY ANNOUNCES NEW MEMBERS

The Ruffner Literary Society announces the following new members:

Estelle Williamson
Marjorie O'Flaherty
Mary Elizabeth Glidewell
Addie Leigh Parker
Helen Smith
Rachel McDaniel
Hazel Halloway
Helen Ward
Dorothy Nuckols

SURVEY FINDS ONLY TEN NATIONAL COLLEGES

According to a survey made by C. R. Foster, assistant professor of education at Rutgers, and Paul F. Dyer, associate professor of education at Antioch, there are only ten colleges and universities in the United States which can truly be called national institutions, so far as the geographical distribution of their student body is concerned. Washingotn and Lee is among these. The other nine are Antioch Asbury, Sweet Briar, Wellesley, Georgetown, Smith, Yale, Dartmouth and Notre Dame.

SPEAKER HERE

MR. C. DOUGLAS BOOTH

Junior Class Wins First Place for Song

The two prizes awarded in Chapel Saturday morning to the two classes having the peppiest and most original varsity song, consisted of two dollars and a half; the first prize, which went to the Junior Class, and one dollar, the second prize, which went to the Freshman Class.

Mary Elizabeth Glidewell, the composer of the Junior class song, showed unusual originality in the composition of the winning song. The Freshman song showed that originality, pep, and school spirit are outstanding in the 1935 class.

The green and whites carried the day but the Seniors and Sophomores also deserve credit for their worthy productions. Though lacking in the forcefulness of the winning songs, the red and white classes' songs were excellent.

The song winning first prize is as follows:

We're gonna win
We're gonna win
We're going over the top
For blue and white
We'll ever fight
For dear old S. T. C.
We're out to win
We're bound to win
We'll fight with all our might
We'll do our best—to win the rest
For dear old S. T. C.

FAMOUS SCULPTOR DIES IN THE BERKSHIRES

Daniel Chester French, the sculptor who designed the Lincoln Memorial at Washington and other masterpieces, died at his home in the Berkshires in his eighty-second year. He was the dean of American sculptors and his work ranges from "The Minute Man" dedicated by resident Grant when the young sculptor was only 23, to an ideal marble figure "Andromeda" completed only a few weeks ago.

His work was typically American and specimens may be found in many cities and towns throughout the country. "Alma Mater" at Columbia University; Groups on the Custom House, St. Louis; A Lincoln figure at Lincoln, Nebraska, to name a few.

SIGMA PI RHO ANNOUNCES MEMBERS

Sigma Pi Rho announces the following new members:

Lucy Fitzgerald
Hattie Gilliam
Saro James

Noted English Lecturer to Speak at S.T.C.

"British Foreign Policy" Will Be The Topic of Mr. Booth's Lecture

WILL VISIT 40 INSTITUTIONS

C. Douglas Booth, well known English writer and lecturer, will speak at State Teachers College, October 28 in the Student Building Lounge, under the auspices of the Pi Gamma Mu of the College. His topic will be, "British Foreign Policy". Professor J. Elliott Walmsley will preside at the meeting.

Dr. Booth is well known in this country as well as Europe as an authority on international affairs. He has spent a number of years in the Near East and the Balkans collecting political and economic material for a new book. He is a member of the Royal Institute of International Affairs in England, to whom he submits fortnightly reports on his findings, and before whom he often delivers lectures upon international questions. He has also spent some time in study at the Academy of International Law at The Hague.

Among his articles is a paper on "The Political Situation in Southeastern Europe," presented before the Institute, and published in the Journal of the Royal Institute of International Affairs. "Italy's Aegean Posessions" published in 1928, is also well known in the United States, as are his articles for the American Peace Society of Washington, D. C., published in "The Advocate of Peace."

Mr. Booth was born in Canada and was educated at St. Andrews College, Toronto, and at Loyola University. During the war he held the rank of major in His Majesty's forces. He has devoted seven years to the study of Mediterranean and Balkan problems, and has resided or travelled in Morocco, Egypt, Rhodes, Patmos, Athens, and Gelgrade.

His lecturing experience is varied and includes considerable political work for the National Liberal Party of England, work in the United States for Liberty Loan and Red Cross drives while with H. M. forces during the war, and later experience lecturing in both England and the United States on international relations.

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under whose guidance 279 International Relations Clubs have been formed in as many colleges and universities in the United States, is responsible for Mr. Booth's visit to Farmville. Miss Amy Heminway Jones of the Carnegie Endowment, is National Executive

(Continued on page 3)

ART MASTERPIECES TO BE ON EXHIBITION HERE

Reproductions of works of artists of many generations will be on display at State Teachers College from November 9th to the 13th.

This collection consists of 750 masterpieces representing the French, Italian, Flemish, English, Dutch, Spanish, German and American schools of art. Most of these are the masterpieces studied by the schools. Famous portraits, landscapes, marines, and pastoral scenes in the colors of the original canvases are on display.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

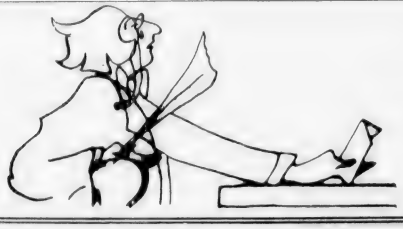
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting an dtreating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Varsity Songs: A Suggestion

Entirely fitting, just before the opening of the varsity hockey season, was the singing of new varsity songs in Chapel last Saturday. The Athletic Association, in sponsoring a contest for the best song, took a forward step, since we have been singing the same ones for years and years.

Congratulations go to the Junior and Freshman classes, especially for the way in which they sang their songs. The competitive spirit aroused in this "Blue and White" contest gave "Green and White" a good send-off in the friendly rivalry that is to last throughout the year between them and "Red and White."

Now that each class has a varsity song all its own, (and last Saturday proved that they all know their songs well) we feel sure that our varsity teams this year will not lack for enthusiastic support of all students.

We suggest that the classes not forget their songs, since the contest is over, but sing them at each class meeting, so that they will still know them when varsity hockey and later, varsity basket ball begins. It may be that the possession of each class of a varsity song will start something unique in cheering.

Since, by winning the first prize, the Junior song is "the" varsity song, it is given here, so that everyone can know it if she chooses. And we feel sure that she will choose.

"We're gonna win, we're gonna win;
We're going o'er the top.
For Blue and White we'll ever fight—
For dear old S. T. C.
We're out to win; we're bound to win;
We'll fight with all our might.
We'll do our best to win the test
For dear old S. T. C."

OVER THE BOOKS

Do you know, Jane, I've got three tests, tomorrow? Seems like all the tests come at the same time which happens to be the week all the good shows hit Farmville. Here, I've got sociology tomorrow and Constance Bennett beckons the tempting finger. Did you see those gorgeous pictures of her coming up the hill? Why? Oh, you've got government to study? Gosh, I peeped at that this morning; it's tough as whit-leather. Oh, S. T. C. beefstake, but to get serious, hasn't Constance Bennett the most beautiful hands you ever saw? And those eyes! That's right, I am forgetting Joel McCrea. What a man!

Don't you think tonight will be plenty of time to study, if I went to the show this afternoon? We could get dopes and things and keep awake. Come on let's go.

Jane, wasn't that the best show you ever saw? You look like you've been on a three-day jag—your eyes are all shriveled up and your nose looks like ye proverbial rose! As for myself, I feel all torn to pieces. I can't eat any supper after the show. Gosh, have we got to study tonight. Three tests apiece. I don't believe I can even live after that movie! Wouldn't you love to see it again, Jane? Just look at that moon over the Student Building. I couldn't study now anyway. We could do lots better later, and besides after seeing it once maybe we won't cry so much this time. Come on, its time to go now.

Jane, wake up, you've just got to study. Here is another dope for you. It's only two o'clock. How far have I gotten? I am on page ten now. Did you notice Joel McCrae's physique in that uniform? He's been reminding me of Joe all night. Here, you're sleepy, lend me your pen so I can write Joe. We'll get up early tomorrow. I've got to study!

PEOPLE'S ATTITUDE

The attitude of American people towards law and the men employed by the government to enforce the law is one of many things that is giving our government cause for alarm, for it is the attitude of the people that determines whether or not the law is kept. Laws are made for the protection and greater comfort of the people whom they govern. The majority of people realize this fact; at the same time, they are too selfish to abide by them. We have only to look at the Eighteenth Amendment to realize this fact.

On exactly the same general principle is this unfortunate attitude towards school regulations in our student body. We seem to forget that each rule made by either the Student Council or the Home Department was made only after careful deliberation and study of some problem. The new rule has always been the last possible solution called upon in working with these problems. Some of us forget why rules such as signing up meal absentees, signing up to go down town, and not going into the Post Office and railroad station were made. Sometimes these girls not only do not keep the rules themselves; they do worse: they laugh about their uselessness before Freshmen and encourage them to disregard the silly rules!

It is easy to see what the effect of this attitude of upperclassmen upon Freshmen and new girls will be. To the Freshman all rules are rules. She has no way of knowing that one rule is more strictly kept than another. Coming to this school, she is usually prepared to accept and abide by all rules. Some of our new girls had not been here a day before they were called "green" because they asked where they might sign up to go down town; consequently, they went without signing. Being thus influenced to disrespect a minor rule, a Freshman can hardly be expected to respect a major one. Sometimes by painful experience in the Student Government room and on the "campus bench" she learns that there are rules which must be kept, even though she has been told to disregard them.

Who is responsible for this? Upperclassmen, are we not guilty?

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

A knocker never wins and a winner never knocks.

A doctor who runs a syndicated advice column in a paper says: "The way to keep young is to live with young people." And the way to age quickly is to try to keep up with them.

An astronomer says that the earth is now running a fraction of a second ahead of its schedule daily. But even at that we don't seem to be getting any place.

Another thing there is an overproduction of is depression talk, and it's dirt cheap, too!

A famous authority says that a vacation builds you up physically. But how it tears you down financially!

The modern beret is nothing but an old fashioned tam o' shanter with a French accent.

THE NEW STUDENT

According to observers of American campus life, student irresponsibility has reached something of an end, and having achieved the vacuity of a raccoon coat, a private auto, and weekly gin parties as the apogee of college education, now turns in the direction taken by the medieval student who was content with a hair shirt, bean soup an da plank for a bed.

It appears that throughout American colleges the student of the rah-rah variety is rapidly disappearing and there comes to replace him the boy or girl with an eye to personal economics and to showing elders that even an American collegiate can be thrifty.

In the opinion of Richard P. Doherty, this change in the American student is one of the benign effects of national economic depression. College expenses have decreased very little. If a boy or girl wishes to remain in acadamic halls he or she must now make certain sacrifices: and instead of lamenting the old days of the twenties when college life was largely making whoopee and occasionally classes interrupting the festivities by reluctant attendance upon lectures, this contemporary student has shed his coonskin coat, sold his automobile, said no to the bootlegger and gotten a job somewhere about the campus.

This is good news it it is true. It is good news mainly because it reminds the older generation of the truism that youth can be depended on to adapt itself readily to hardship and self-denial. It also recalls an equally hoary observation that nothing is so destructive of educational processes than the possession by students of more money than is necessary.

Academic education in the United States has within the last decade had too little asceticism. Of course, such a word is still looked upon with suspicion by utilitarians and aesthetes alike, but wiser men than we have long known that the inner man somehow thrives on exterior deprivation so long as his mental life retains its enrichment. In the words of Havelock Ellis, whose expressed philosophy of life is at variance with his more inspired utterances, "asceticism is the antechamber of spiritual elevation."

If the American student is accepting his depressed economic condition with a good will and turning ever so slightly to the wealth of ideas lying within the smallset college library, parents can rest assured that even fashionable self denial will have a good effect. Who knows? It may even come about that the college student who knows something about Plato will be more highly esteemed than one who owns a sport model roadster. And Plato is available even in times of economic depression.

The New Haven Connecticut, commercial high school has inaugurated the custom of planting memorial trees dedicated to teachers.

THE HARP

I have a heart of many strings
But two are enough for me;
One is for love and one for death:
And what would the third one be?

Before I learn another note
I may forget and go,
So while my hand is light and sure
I play on the strings I know.

TO BE ATTAINED

There is glory to be gained,
There are great deeds to be done.
There are goals unattained,
Waiting some courageous one.

There are inventions to be made,
There are new lands to discover.
There are poems to be made,
And old nations to recover.

M. E. White

MY LOVE

I have loved—
The driving rain,
The crimson sunset,
The silvery moon,
The trailing vines,
The trees that
Sway in the wind;
All these things
I have loved, dear,
But most of all—
I have loved you.

"C", '35

TIME

I has been
Such a long,
Long time
Since
I saw you.
Weeks,
Months,
Years,
Time has lost
Its meaning,
Just a long
Stretch
Of waiting
For you.
But, ah, my dear,
I must remember
That
"Time is the tick of the clock,
Not the beat of the heart."

"C", '35

SESQUICENTENNIAL

Thousands vibrant with expectation
Eagerly pressed forward
Toward the last scene
Of the battle between a new
Nation and one old
With weighty experience.
And after the battle ended
The spectacular parade of Soldiers—
Marching—marching with
Never a miss-step.
Finally, the halt of them all,
And while spirited horses
Impatiently pawed the ground,
The bugler
Sounded retreat.
As the last rays of the Sun lighted
Our flag,
It slowly descended, and
The strains of the "Star Spangled Banner"
Thrilled every patriotic heart.

M. von S., '32

OLD IRONSIDES

Through the black of a night
While men and armies slept on,
Into the waters near Kecoughtan
Glided the Constitution.

The rays of approaching dawn
Lit in its rosy glow
The stars and stripes of a flag
That all Americans know.

Her sails and tow'ring cross-rig
Were welcomed with many cheers
From anxious women that prayed on shore
And the stricken pioneers.

For she brought their victory
Cached in her iron sides
And 'tis to her we freemen owe
Thanks that liberty now abides.

M. von S., '32

SOCIALS

Nancy Boykin spent the week-end in Emporia.

* * *

The following girls spent the week-end in Lynchburg: Katherine Royster, Louise Elliott, Janet Harris, Mary Custis Burwell, Chapelle Weisiger, Gazelle Ware, Betty Watts, Sally Russell and Betsy Wilkerson.

* * *

Charlotte Oakey and Freda Shields spent the week-end in Salem.

* * *

Those who attended the dances in Lexington are: Margaret Ann Moreland, Martha von Schilling, Jerry Lee, Thelma Walsh, and Margaretta Braidy.

* * *

"Codie" Neal, Teel Faris and Budsey Carter were among those visiting in school this week-end.

* * *

Judith Taylor and Josie Spencer were in Pamplin this week-end.

* * *

Lucy Read and Elizabeth Hendricks spent the week-end in Palmer Springs.

* * *

Belle Lovelace and Katherine Lee Young spent the week-end in South Boston.

* * *

The following girls attended the V. M. I.-Maryland game in Richmond Saturday: "Chick" Mosby, Margaret Barker, Vernie Oden, and Frances Rawlings.

* * *

Mary Burgess Fraser spent the week-end in Staunton.

* * *

Virginia Gee spent the week-end in Kenbridge.

* * *

Evelyn Jones spent the week-end in Clarksville.

* * *

Hanna Crawley was in Richmond this week-end.

* * *

Lelia Lovelace spent the week-end in Buckingham.

FRANCE HAS MOTOR CAR RUN ON RAILS

Depressed railroad companies have only themselves to blame, say many of their patrons. They haven't had a new idea since the days of the horse car. But from France comes a promise of a new era in rail transportation. For the latest in French motor cars is one which runs on rails. La Micheline, named for its inventor, Marcel Michelin (tire tycoon), is an autocar with rubber tires fitted to regulation steel rails, and is rapidly replacing interurban railroad trains in France. In addition to the extreme comfort and silence of the rubber tired locomotives, it is claimed that the speed and capacity may be considerably increased.

Because of the greater adherence of the pneumatic tires to steel rails it is possible to make an average speed of 90 kilometers (60 miles) and hour. A special device arranged on each wheel prevents a flattening of the tire in case of a puncture, and a tire may be changed in three minutes, it is said.

Another unusual advantage claimed for La Micheline is that it can slow up at cross roads. This is expected to eliminate the complicated system of signals now in use in France. And like the toonerville trolley the autotrain can be operated by one man.

S. T. C. GIRLS ATTENDING HAMPDEN-SYDNEY OPENING DANCES

Nancy Burgwin, Ben Franklin
Margaret Banks, Bill Young.
Nedora Bair, Harry Brown
Lois Barus, George Walters
Helen Cover, John Grant
Nancy DeBerry, J. H. Whitfield
Frances Dorin, Miles Cary
Patty Ellison, George Bowers
Margaret Eley, Rudy Young
Elma Foster, L. Yowell
Nancy Harrison, Allan Markham
Honey Hamilton, Marion Humphries
Ruth Hunt, Morris Hunt
Mary Harrison, Billy Powell
Celia Jones, Meredith Dortch
Jenilee Knight, Joe Perry
Virginia Lamb, Pinkie Smith
Gloria Mann, Jack McCurdy
Jean McClure, Norris Blake
Ann McClure, Bucky Lewis
Kitty Marchant, Billy Brown
Vernie Oden, Randal Moore
Frances Potts, Herbert Trotter, Jr.
Frances Rawlings, Louis Miller
Jane Royall, Al Gillespie
Martha Sanders, Larus Reed
Mary Shelton, Macon Reed
Nancy St.Clair, Ed. Traynham
Martha Walters, Billy Shannon
Helen Warren, Bankie Warren
Dot Waynick, John Boyd
Marietta Wilson, Peter Trent
Mary Alice Young, Ran Bradley
Catherine Cogbill, Lewis Smith
Frances Dillon, Joe Lacy
Thelma Walsh, Franklin Younger

CAMPUS AIMS AT SMARTNESS & SOPHISTICATION IN LATE FASHIONS

(From Florida State College)

Smartness and sophistication seem to be the primary aims in fashions on the Tallahassee campus. And anyone standing on the dining room arcade Sunday noon can vouschafe that the two S's have been attained to a remarkable degree.

Tallahassee collegi-annas favor suits, perhaps for its practicality and its jauntiness. Three piece knit suits, jersey suits, corduroy suits, suit of cotton, wool, and silk; all these are seen every day in the classroom.

Suits are seen again for more carefree days, only this time of more luxurious cut and materials. The rough, attractive material known as "boucle" is one of the most popular both for suits and for coats. Fur is "le dernier cri" in trimming and how it does add to the appearance of one's outfit and the appearance of one's allowance.

Furs which are really "good" this season are fox, wolf, caracul, mink, Persian lamb and lapin, and it is hard to decide which is the most flattering. Leopard skin has been used on a number of this season's creations and is unanimously approved.

Corduroy suits deserve more than passing notice. Many of them are in lumber jacket fashion with zipper fasterner and mannish skirt.

Accessories play a leading role in this winter's fashions and make or mar many an outfit. Ascot scarfs are widely used in a variety of colors, designs, and shapes. They furnish that finishing touch as nothing else can. Gloves take on a different aspect with a noticeable flare in the cuffs. Stitching is favored on sport gauntlets of fabric while kid gloves show color contrast.

Shoes are more sensible this year than ever before. One trudges up and down hill in flat-heeled oxfords. Medium heeled walking shoes of kid or calf are seen trimmed in reptile and are suitable for classroom and street wear alike. Laced oxfords of sueed present a semi-dress appearance and have been well received. Slender heels

Continued on page four

CREDITORS LEND TO PAY THEMSELVES

American citizens have loaned to Germany one-third of that country's stupendous private debt of $3,500,000,000, a debt that exceeds by more than a billion dollars the amount Germany has paid in reparations. In addition, the United States together with other leading powers, has loaned Germany hundreds of millions to forestall a threatened financial collapse. What has been done with this borrowed money? Why do Germans still bewail their country's plight?

These facts and questions are set forth by Garet Garrett, noted economic writer, in a recent issue of The Saturday Evening Post. Mr. Garrett writes that for six years international finance has been "pouring money into the German treasury, into German industry, into German banks, saying: 'If the world expects Germany to pay reparations, it must lend her enormous sums to build up her internal economy.'" Now, Mr. Garrett shows, Germany is saying to her creditors: "If you expect to be paid you must go on lending us the money to pay you with. To save your investments you must save Germany first."

"What is it Germany must be saved from?" the writer asks, and answers himself, "First and always, from reparations." In brief, Germany uses a threatened repudiation of her private debts to obtain more loans and reparations concessions. Furthermore, according to Mr. Garet, she has used the same threat to prevent withdrawals of foreign deposits from her banks and at the same time has sent her money into foreign banks. When the German Chancellor in July was soliciting an international loan of $500,000,000, there was on deposit in foreign money centers a billion dollars of Germany money that could have benn called home. "The Germans did not want their own money," the writer concludes, "They wanted the other people's money."

"Helpless Germany" is now the world's second greatest industrial power, built up, Mr. Garrett shows, on borrowed money which she cannot repay—except with more borrowed money and through a lightened reparations burden. No wonder when she cries, "Save me" her creditors rush to her aid.

The younger folk no longer trust
The Emerson idea;
When duty sternly says, "You must!"
The youth replies, "Oh yeah?"

Teacher: "If a group of sheep is a flock, and a group of cattle is a herd, what is the name of a group of camels?" '

"City": "A carton."

NOTED ENGLISHMAN TO LECTURE AT S. T. C.

(Continued from page 1)

Secretary of the International Relations Clubs.

During his present tour Mr. Booth will discuss international relations in more than forty educational institutions in the South.

A Complete Censorship

As effective as any ever attempted in Italy by Mussolini has been clamped down by President Hoover's emergency unemployment committee on all who would discuss unemployment or the present economic situation over the radio.

This became apparent with the knowledge that United States Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York had been prevented from making an address with a nation-wide spread over the Columbia and National Broadcasting system touching on the unemployment situation from a non-political viewpoint.

Inquiry developed the fact that both the Columbia Broadcasting system and the National Broadcasting system have adopted a policy of refusing to permit radio speeches by anyone on the subject of unemployment unless the speech is approved by the committee of which Walter S. Gifford is chairman.

It costs about the price of a gold ball—sixty cents per day to keep the average child in school in the United States, according to figures compiled by William John Cooper, U. S. Commissioner of Education.

HOSIERY BY MAIL

NEW FALL SHADES
FULL FASHIONED
ALL PURE SILK
CHIFFON WEIGHT
PICOT TOP
CRADLE FOOT
FRENCH HEELS

A real value at $1.50—our price $1.00 per pair postage paid—your money back if not satisfied.

Color card on request

ALTAVISTA TEXTILE CO., Inc.

ALTAVISTA, VIRGINIA

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

Willis . . . . Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Manageemnt

W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century

Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

NOTEBOOK FILLERS

3 for 20c

These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.

Get them at

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Valuable News!

DOROTHY MAY STORES

Add New Department

Farmville's most beautiful store offers lovely new dresses of Jersey, Tweed, Knit and Wool Crepe. These dresses were originally sold at $488. Our tremendous buying power enable us to offer you these great savings. Come, see for yourself the marvelous value at $2.74

THE HUB

Welcomes S. T. C. Girls!

SPECIAL FOR OPENING WEEK!

Allan "A" Sheer Chiffon Pure Silk Hose, $1.19 value for 79c
All the New Fall Shades

THE NEWEST VOGUE!
Polo Coats, long lengths, French Model, size 14 to 20 ..... $9.85

The Hub Department Store

FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

New Girl: "Do you really think I can make your sorority?"

Old Girl: "Oh, sure, we gotta have someone to snub."

She called her husband Daisy because some daisys at home and some daisys isn't.

Prof. "And girls when is your education really complete?"

Chorus: "After a Hampden-Sydney dance."

As the pardoned murderer said, "No noose is good news."

And you've heard about the Scot who wanted to give his girl a rush—so he took her home on the subway.

Sign on Scotch field—"All punts must be returned."

Tony (to his wife): "I wish you wouldn't knit at meal times. I can't tell where my spaghetti leaves off and that sweater begins."

Culprit (in traffic court): "Everything I do, I do fast."

Judge: "Try sixty days and see how fast you can do that."

When a girl drops him a fellow is usually broke.

Building Foreman: "Are you the lady what's singing?"

Soprano: "Yes, I've been singing."

Building Foreman: "Might I ask you not to hold the high notes so long?" The men have knocked off twice, thinking it was the noon whistle."

"It's been a trying day," said the judge as he locked the courtroom.

"At a wedding who generally gives the bride away?"

"The newspaper."

Up in the airplane they had thought
For a wedding was the proper spot
A wheel within the darn thing broke
Just as the words the person spoke;
Did this disturb them? Not at all.
They got married in the fall!

A motor cop's calling card reads—"Give me a trial and I'll see that you get one."

Autoist: "Pardon me, but haven't I run across your face before?"

Irish Pedestrian: "No, begorra, it was my left leg you hit last time."

Sing Sing means "story place" in the Indian language. Nellie says she thinks it sounds pretty hard in any language.

Neighbor: "Why is your car painted red on one side and blue on the other?"

Speedy: "Oh, it's great sport. You should hear the witnesses contradicting each other."

Teacher: "Yes, Robert 'amo' is the Latin word meaning 'I love'. Now, what word suggests its opposite?"

Bright pupil: "Reno."

Friend: "I hear you're going to marry Mr. Gayboy. You're making a mistake. He'll lead a double life."

Old Maid: "Well, if I don't marry him, I'll lead a single life and that's worse."

Katherine: "You say you're going to marry a man who is a millionaire and still you're trying to persuade me it is a love match?"

Belle: "It is. You see, I love money."

Judge: "What were you doing in that speakeasy when it was raided?"

Locksmith: "I was making a bolt for the door."

Red Cross Will Begin Membership Campaign Soon

Continued from page one

for the coming year, it is revelant also to give a brief picture of the organization of the present. The most striking feature perhaps, is the fact that it is responsible for both emergency service and a program of year-round useful activities, both of which functions must continue without interruption.

It is, for example, now conducting drought relief in certain northwestern states, where, except for the magnitude of the general situation, its operations would rank as a major effort of its career. The northwest drought project is only dwarfed by the fact that the Red Cross is just emerging from a year in which, besides giving drought relief in 23 states, it extended disaster aid in 52 calamities scattered through 38 states.

While carrying this burden of the drought relief, the Red Cross continued to maintain such normal services as the country required of both national and local organizations. In the program of the Red Cross work, there are many points at which it has developed a mutually valuable association with the educational world and those in it, students and faculties.

Through its Junior Red Cross organization, numbering more than 7,000,000 members of lower school ages, it works in harmony with teachers and pupils. Certain of its instruction courses are standard and given credit in a number of educational institutions, both intermediate and university rank; in other cases these phases of Red Cross activity are made a part of the program more informally.

Then there is the international side of the Red Cross movement which must, both at present and in the future, hold interest for all Americans. At the close of the World War, in the course of peace-time adjustment, there was created the League of Red Cross Societies, through American leadership, and a sponsorship which has continued in the post-war years. Through the League there has developed a growing international relationship in the Red Cross field.

Thus, today the Red Cross in rounding its first fifty years, is putting into practical effect that spirit of helpfulness at home and abroad in which it has its inception.

NESS & SOPHISTICATION IN LATE FASHIONS CAMPUS AIMS AT SMART-

Continued from page three

are seen only for very dressy wear and the not of a neck-breaking height.

Formal clothes are the college girl's delight and she takes to sheer velvet unusually well. Satin and taffeta follow closely behind especially the latter because of its adaptability to the gowns of the Empress Eugenie period.

Puffed sleeves, leg o' mutton sleeves, normal waistlines and all the rest of the little touches which were worn by Eugenie are evident on our campus as well.

Color is most important in the winter's costumes. Black, and different shades of reds, ranging from wines to rusts, browns, greens, and blues, are the best. Vivid splashes of coloring in plaid and striped effects are used as contrast.

The college girl makes a striking picture when she is arrayed to her satisfaction.

National Billion-Dollar Bank Pool Organized to Restore Confidence

Within the last ten days, the leading bankers of the United States at the request of President Hoover have organized and financed—as if by magic—a billion-dollar banking pool to be called the National Credit Corporation. Business men hail it as a great constructive move and bankers have surely showed their enthusiasm for it by the speed and generosity of their response. In less than three days after the plan was proposed, they had worked out the details, had applied for a charter, and had virtually guaranteed twice the sum the President had suggested.

ARE YOU READY FOR THE CIRCUS?

Have you made your engagement for the circus? Have you heard of the many wild animals that will growl and perform numerous tricks before a breathless audience? If you haven't—well, you "just ain't been out much" because a real circus with animals, snake charmers, side shows, and everything is coming. There is going to a big parade, too; the balloon man and all his many balloons will be right along to amuse the children. Don't know, but I have a sneaking idea that the country cousins are coming to town for that big day. You'll enjoy them!

The circus is the best and funniest event of the season and no one can afford to miss it. If you do—what a miss! The parade will be Saturday afternoon, November 7, and the big old circus will be Saturday night! Be on time so you can get a good seat!

DANCE TO VICTORY

Freshmen, are you up on the latest steps? Or can the Juniors show you something new? In fact the magnanimous Juniors will teach the entire student body on November 14. Just where, how, and why, will be a future revelation. Watch and wait!

Meat, potatoes, eggs, fruit, chickens and vegetables will be accepted this year as tuition at Beloit College.

A gallant professor at Sweet Briar while speeding down the road, noticed one of the Briarites drop her glove. He immediately slammed on the brakes, recovered the article, and presented it to its owner.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM OCT. 27 TO NOV. 3

TUES—The American Legion will present "MOLLY'S IDEA", a musical comedy with a large cast of local talent. This production is said to be one of the best of its kind ever shown locally and a real treat is promised those attending. There will be a matinee at 3:30 P. M. and the evening performance will start promptly at 8 o'clock. Prices will be adults, 50c at night and 35c at matinee. Children 35c at night and 25c at matinee.

WED. & THURS.—GRETA GARBO and CLARK GABLE in "SUSAN LENOX". Get ready for the supreme, exotic thrill of your picture-going days for here truly is gorgeous Greta Garbo in the picture that will make you forget all her previous triumphs. Here is a world-famous love story with the flaming Garbo in the arms of that fascinating new leading man, Clark Gable. What a pair! And what a powerful and moving story they enact for your interest and entertainment! Garbo's role surpasses anything she has yet done; first as a farm girl, then a dancer and finally as a lover of men, she portrays such variety of emotions as will sweep you off your feet. "Susan Lenox" is proving a sensation in New York and other large cities. Note—This being a high-priced percentage picture our contract stipulates we must charge higher prices. Adults, 50c at nights and 35c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 25c at nights and 20c at matinees. Also Bobby Jones in "Trouble Shots."

FRI. & SAT.—"TRANSATLANTIC" with EDMUND LOWE, LOIS MORAN and a great cast. They lived a life-time in a crossing. Five crowded days of love and adventure on an ocean-greyhound. Danger always threatening between the tinkle of wine glasses the flip of cards and reckless kisses. Up the gangplank and into the swift, luxurious cosmopolitan life on a great liner—where men risk all for a thrill. for a million, for a woman's smile. A love story and mystery play you will long remember. Also screen Song and Fox News.

NEXT MON.—INA CLAIRE in "REBOUND". Here is the smartest comedy-drama of the year with smart atmosphere, smart people and smart dialogue. "Just how long should a wife keep on forgiving?" These pertinent questions are answered in this splendid picture that proves that a husband caught on the rebound is like a rubber ball—in time he will stop bounding. Here's a fascinating entertainment that every woman should see—and no man should miss. Considered the best dressed woman on stage or screen, Miss Claire will take away your breath when it comes to clothes. Also Billy Howell Comedy and Paramount Souvenir.

NEXT TUES.—"THE BRAT" with SALLY O'NEIL supported by Frank Albertson, Allen Dinehart and splendid cast. With a gay, whimsical humor and a series of delightful surprises scattered throughout the story, "The Brat" easily wins a place among the most enjoyable pictures of the year. It is taken from Maude Fulton's play about the conceited author and the girl of the slums he picks up as a heroine for his next novel, takes her home to his mother where she shocks the entire household. There is a love story of course, and a happy ending. Also Paramount News and Comedy.

Daily matinees at 4 p. m. Evenings at 8 o'clock.

Admission (except Wed and Thurs. —Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

Intercollegiate

Co-ed freshmen in the business school of City College, New York, are prohibited from wearing lipstick, jewelry, or similar refinements, and they are required to adorn themselves with a lavender bow and black ribbon on their left shoulders.

"A farmer contributed his mite to medical lore by pointing out that every home should have one skunk to avert colds—perhaps on the principle that one sniff a day would keep the doctor away."—Skull and Bones, Medical College of Virginia.

Mrs. Annie Fellows Johnston, author of the "Little Colonel" series of widely popular children's books, is dead at her home near Louisville, Ky., at the age of 68. Though ill for 15 years, Mrs. Johnston had written steadily until 1929.

Scholarship hath its reward most everywhere. It's quite tangible at Millsaps College. A student with an average above ninety need only pay seventy-five dollars for his tuition, which for those below this level, is one hundred dollars.

Students at Westfield, Mass., State Normal school are enjoying the newly completed Alumni gardens and tennis courts. These were made possible from gifts of the Alumni association and were constructed during the summer.

$5 IN GOLD

Will be presented to the best model appearing in the

FASHION SHOW

to be held at the EACO THEATRE

WEDNESDAY NIGHT, November 4th

In conjunction with the feature picture, "THE BELOVED BACHELOR" with Dorothy Jordan and Paul Lukas

LIVING MODELS WILL DISPLAY Dresses from the

New York Dress Stores

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

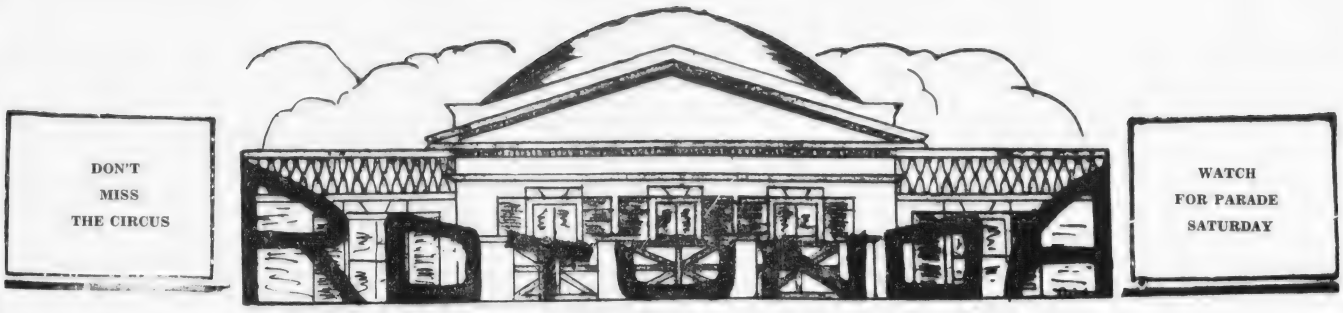
QUALITY PRICE SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments



Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING CLEANING AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 4, 1931 No. 6

S. T. C. Adopts New Cut System That Was Introduced by Miss Tabb

Absences of Students Are Recorded in Registrar's Office Each Day

A new system of reporting cuts at State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia went into effect Monday, November 2. This system was introduced by Miss Tabb, the registrar of the college, and heartily endorsed by Dr. J. L. Jarman, the president.

The new system requires that daily report blanks be provided the members of the faculty; upon these blanks will be recorded a student's absence. These reports will be filed in the registrar's office each afternoon; the following morning they will be posted on the bulletin board. If the teacher does not meet his class, he must, likewise, report his absence. This report, also will be recorded in the registrar's office.

At the end of the quarter, the parents of the students will be notified as to the number of absences, excused or unexcused, that their daughter has had during the quarter. If a student's absence is excused, she must bring her absence slip to class and have it signed by each instructor whose class she missed. Then, the student must take the signed slip to the registrar's office where her absence, excused or otherwise, will be recorded on her permanent record card. An infirmary slip may be accepted in lieu of the teachers signature on absence blanks.

Absence of students on the Dean's list will be reported just as those of the other students; however, it will be noted in the office that their absences are legitimate.

This new system of making daily reports will do away with the necessity of sending in "cuts" on bi-weekly reports.

MATHEMATICS CLUB TO HOLD MEETING

The next meeting of the Mathematics Club will be held Monday, November 9, at five o'clock in Room 2. There will be a very interesting program presented dealing with the first methods and means of written computation. All members and others who are interested are urged to make use of this opportunity to enrich their mathematical knowledge.

The officers for this year are:
President ..... Margaret Addleman
Vice-President ..... Doris Robertson
Sec.-Treas. ..... Margurite Massey

STATE BAPTIST STUDENT CONFERENCE HELD

The Virginia Baptist Student Conference was held in Richmond at the First Baptist church, October 30-November 1. Eleven girls from Farmville S. T. C. were registered at the conference.

The keynote of the meetings was "Victory for Christ". The leader of devotionals was Dr. Richard Owens, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, Roanoke. His devotionals were based on the "Elements of Christian Victory." Perhaps the most inspiring talks were those rendered by Dr. John L. Hill, book editor, Baptist Sunday School Board. Dr. Hill spoke Friday night on "The Cost of Christian Leadership" and again Saturday morning on "Victory for Christ Through the One-Purpose Life."

The outstanding social function was the banquet held Saturday night at the church. The meeting closed Sunday afternoon with the election of state officers for the coming year.

Officers elected were Andrew Christensen of Wililam and Mary, president Caroline Walker of Averitt College, Gilman Tyler of V. M. I., J. R. Gay of V. P I., vice-presidents; Raymond Abbitt, Richmond College, secretary - treasurer, and Lillian Woodley of Farmville State Teachers College, reporter

LECTURE GIVEN BY MR. BOOTH FOLLOWED BY A RECEPTION

Mr. C. Douglas Booth, well known English writer and lecturer, who is making a tour of the South, and discussing international relations in educational institutions, was the guest of the Virginia Gamma chapter of Pi Gamma Mu Wednesday evening, October 28. He spoke at 7:30 in the Student Building Lounge on "The British Foreign Policy."

The members of the faculty and the members of the other honorary societies in school were guests of Pi Gamma Mu for the lecture and for the informal reception which followed.

INTERCOLLEGIATE PRESS ASSN. TO HOLD MEETING

The Fifth Annual meeting of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association, will be held Friday and Saturday, November 13th and 14th, in Lynchburg, Va., with Randolph-Macon Woman's College and Lynchburg College acting as hosts.

Art Exhibition To be Held Here Next Wednesday

Reproductions of Famous Masterpieces of Different Nations Shown

The Art Exhibit scheduled fo rthe local schools will be on display at Cottage M at S. T. C., November 9, to 13. The reproductions are of the finest type produced, showing the original color as well as the brush strokes of the original canvases.

There are 150 pictures in rich color, the reproductions of the great masterpieces of different nations.

To be able to recognize a number of good pictures at sight, to describe them, to be familiar with the artists' names, pictures, subjects and style is the aim of Art Appreciation as studied in schools today. Joy, in line, form and color was instinctive even in primitive man and this fundamental love of the beautiful can be made a great uplift to the personal character of everyone.

Debate Club Takes In New Members

The Debate Club held try-outs and the following new members were taken in:

Lottie Dixon
Margaret DeShazo
Ester Haskins
Pela Kutz
Elizabeth March
Margaret Murray
Mildred Linthicum
Grace Rowell
Alice Rowell
Helen Ward
Birdie Wooding
Chappelle Weisiger
Lucy Powell

There will be a regular club meeting Thursday night and all members (old and new) are expected to be present.

OBSERVERS OF COLUMBIA AT TRAINING SCHOOL

A whole class from Columbia University visited the College Training School today and observed the teaching of student teachers.

The class has been observing in schools in various parts of the country and will go on from here to other schools. After their return to Columbia the members of the class will discuss the good and bad points in teaching noted in their observations

JANE ADAMS GETS PICTORIAL REVIEW PRIZE

Jane Adams has just been honored with the Pictorial Review award of $5,000 given annually to that American woman who has the most made the most valuable contribution to literature, arts, natural science or social welfare. The award was conferred upon Miss Adams for her work in social welfare and international peace. Last spring she received a similar award, the M. Carey Thomas prize from Bryn Mawr College. Characteristically she is devoting both sums to unemployment relief

Continued on page four

FRANCES DORIN MEMBER FRESHMAN COMMISSION

Frances Dorin's name was left out of the Freshman Commission list in last week's Rotunda.

Circus is Coming to State Teachers College Next Saturday, Nov. 7th

LYCEUM PROGRAMS FOR YEAR SCHEDULED

The Lyceum programs to be given this year are those by: Reginald Boardman, famous pianist and composer; Miss Des Rosien, soprano and reciter, and Dorothy Barth, young violinist accompanied by her sister, Sara Barth.

Mr. Boardman is greeted by the New England states as their most outstanding pianist. He is highly praised by many papers and magazines.

Musical Amercia

"Mr. Boardman gave an unusual program in Jordan Hall, October 19. His touch is agreeable, and his tone quality is always rich and beautiful. He is sensitive to shades of color, and is alive to the structure and spirit of the music he plays."

Boston Transcript

"Mr. Boardman's new song, "A Christmas Carol," has a melody of genuine charm and distinctiveness. A melodic gift that can conceive a line is a priceless treasure."

Miss Yvonne Des Rosiers' inherent dramatic ability makes her costume recitals a genuine delight as well as her programs of contemporary songs.

The following are a few praises of her abiltiy and personality:

A typical comment from the State Teachers College, Millersville, Pennsylvania:

(Continued on page 4)

THIRD DISTRICT OF FEDERATION OF MUSIC CLUBS TO MEET AT S. T. C.

The Third District of the Federation of Music Clubs of Virginia will hold its yearly meeting in the small auditorium and lounge of State Teachers College. A splendid program has been arranged by Miss Hallie B. McMillan of Stratford College who is chairman of this district. Invited speakers are, John Powell, well-known musician, Alfred H. Strick, from our own faculty, and musical numbers will be given by Mr. Raymond Aubrey, Miss Irene Leake, and the String Trio from the College.

MUSICAL PROGRAM PRESENTED IN CHAPEL

Another of the series of musical programs which are being presented weekly was given in chapel Saturday morning. Mr. Cook of Baptist church, presented his band of boys in: "Gypsy Love Song," "The Last Chord" and several other selections.

Parade and Many Interesting Stunts Will Draw Huge Crowd

The College Circus is to be held Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the big gymnasium, with Margaret Banks presiding as the circus queen Many interesting stunts are to be given, besides numerous side shows as added attraction.

The program is as follows:

Parade—3 P. M.

Line of march—North on High street to cannon—Reverse South on High street to Main—West on Main to Third street—North on Third street to Presbyterian church — Up Randolph street to S. T. C.

This parade will be stupendous in size and unparalleled in beauty and cleverness.

Circus—The regular ring show of the circus will begin promptly at 8 P. M. The following schedule will be followed:

I. Klever Klass Performances
Freshmen
Sophomores
Juniors
Seniors

II. Wild Animal Act.

This act will include some of the most daring feats ever performed by ferocious beasts, such as elephants, zebra, wild bulls and trained seals.

III. Master Minds Mid Many Cheers

A riotous laugh from the beginning to end.

IV. Ought Autos or Ought not Autos.

Hear one of the biggest questions in the world settled.

V. Rollicking Rhymes.

Relive your childhood.

VI. Awful Accident.

You read about them, hear about them. Come, see one.

VII Tatters on Tight Ropes

VIII. ?

IX Klever Klowns.

(Continued on page 3)

RUFFNER LITERARY SOCIETY HAS PROGRAM

The Ruffner Literary Society met Wednesday night, October 8, for the purpose of initiating the new members. It was decided that the society would hold its meetings on the second and fourth Wednesday nights in each month.

After Margaret Fisher welcomed the new members a very interesting program was rendered by Margaret Massey. It included short stories, which were written by Rachel McDaniel and Marjorie O'Flaherty.

'Enter Madame" is Chosen For Fall Play at State Teachers College

The fall play which all S. T. C. and Hampden-Sydney, as well as the people of Farmville and nearby towns, have been looking forward to has been scheduled. This fall play, which is always given by S. T. C. Dramatic Club and the Hampden-Sydney Jonleurs, will be Friday night, December 5, 1931; "Enter Madame," a light, modern, and amusing play is the production that these clubs will present. Practices are being held each night; the play is coached by Miss Wheeler, head of reading and dramtics.

The fall play is particularly good and it is one entertainment that no one ever misses; it is different from the spring plays in that it is usually less serious and more adapted to the combination of S. T. C. and Hampden-Sydney talent.

"Enter Madame" is a rare treat for S. T. C. and no one should let the opportunity pass for seeing this delightful play.

Following is the cast:

Gerald Fitzgerald	Joe Perry
Madam Della Robbia	Nancy Burgwyn
Flora Pretson	Jenlee Knight
John Fitzgerald	Edward Bell
Aline Chambers	Sallie Russell
Bice	Margaret Banks
Achimede	Frank Pauley
Miss Smith	Helen Warren
The Doctor	Edward Poole
Tomomoto	Edward Paulette

American Education Week to be Observed; To Show School Results

Parents and teachers in hundreds of communities throughout the United States will discuss "What the Schools are Helping America to Achieve" in the eleventh annual American Education Week which will be observed November 9-15. The program will be sponsored as it has been for a decade, by the United States Office of Education, The American Legion, and The National Education Association.

The schools belong to the people. They are an expression of the hopes of the people for the future of their children and of the nation. The obligation to help shape the life of tomorrow is shared by very citizen who has the national welfare at heart. If all citizens are to help determine the through education they must not only seek information about the schools, they must take an active part in studying their needs, planning their objectives and measuring their achievements. American Education Week offers an opportunity for such participation.

During American Education Week, the doors of thousands of schoolrooms will be open. Citizens are especially invited to inspect the work of the schools. In the schools themselves, pupils, teachers and school officers will define more sharply the aims of education and critically test the extent to which they have been achieved.

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting an dtreating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

New Plan Adopted

Of interest to the faculty and especially to the students, and of decided value, was the unexpected notice issued by Miss Jennie Tabb concerning the cutting of classes.

According to the new plan all absences shall be reported on the daily report blank. When a class is missed, this issue will be noted on the student's individual card and her parents will be notified at the end of the quarter as to the number of excused and unexcused absences she has had. When a student has an absence excused, the teacher will sign the blank and instruct the student to file it in the registrar's office.

The reasons for this plan are good. It will do away with the handing of cuts in on bi-weekly reports. It will eliminate unnecessary absences from classes. It will show our parents whether we are meeting our obligations or shirking them.

Students, let's not cut classes unnecessarily! Let's cooperation with the faculty and registrar in keeping a record of excused absences. Let's show our parents that we are not shirkers! With a new start in checking attendance of classes or let's make a new start in attending. Let's make our parents, the faculty and the registrar proud of us.

OVER THE TEACUPS

Listen here, you! Get outta that tub, who d'ya think y'are, copping a girl's tub while she is dressing? Say! I'm in a hurry, I've gotta meet that pain in the neck Walter girl, and that sawed off, hammered down Eley in five minutes! Tea! I've got to sit around looking pretty and smelling sweet and saying how nice every thing looks for probably an hour! Wish I could run in grab a handful of sandwiches and dash out. Don't think it's the food I don't like. I can make away with plenty of that—but keeping up with Martha Walters gab is gonna give me indigestion.

Say! Lay off that dress and bring me a towel. We just got two minutes more!

Now, how do I look? I wish they'd hurry up, I've been waiting hours it seems!

What? You just saw Eley and Walters go down the hall in sweaters and skirts? Running? Well, they better run. When a couple of stiff necks like those keep me waiting, they're gonna know it! Even if they are upperclassmen! Just wait till they get here, I'll show 'em a couple! (Blankety-blank-blank).

Say, I feel like I've been slicked up and ready to go for an hour, it has been an hour! Gr-r-r-rf.

Oh, hello Martha, darling! How are you? And cute ole Eley! Just a minute. I have a few more finishing touches to make. Waiting? Oh, dear, no! Just this minute put my frock on! Yes, I like it too—just an old rag, however. You two look perfectly precious! Eley, you do have the best looking clothes and you, too, Walters, that's a knockout. I cant' wait to see your room. It's so good-looking. I love teas anyhow, seeing everybody and gossiping around. No, the food doesn't interest me much. Since I've been up here my appetite has reduced half! Those ten pounds? Oh, yes, I'd forgotten those!

Oh, doesn't it look lovely! You all do look so sweet! How are you? Hello! Yes, I've met her. I've wanted to meet you for so long! So glad you could come back so we could see you!

Thanks, m-m-m, so good! Thanks! I believ I will take another if you really don't mind. Thanks! I really am such a pig. Can I have another, really? Thanks! Oh, everything is so good. Yes, and its such a lovely day. Thanks! Just one more. I just can't resist this food.

Oh, I had such a grand time! I really hate to leave. Yes, I'll come back! When I can stay longer? What do you mean? Oh, okay! Goodbye everybody! Every thing was swell!

Roomie, I thought I'd die! Martha Walters thought she looked so cute and Eley shined all over the place and they didn't pass the green sandwiches but five times. Bucha stiff-necked tightwads! Gosh, I'm glad to get back. Here's a couple of handful of nuts I brought for us to munch on tonight.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

Although Yale locks are being used on the doors of the Harvard University buildings, a contract has been made with the manufacturers whereby the name "Yale" will not appear on any of the locks.—Swathmore Phoenix.

College men prefer college women as life companions, according to the nation-wide poll of the College Stories Magazine. The poll revealed that men preferred college girls because they have "it", intelligence, and a knowledge of the higher values of life.

The University of Arizona has instituted a change which is both better and worse for the men there. Coeds are to pay half of all dating expenses; but counteracting this favorable plan (for the male students) is another which allows the girls, in consideration of their financial ouput, to ask for dates.

The Kentucky "Wildcats" called on President Hoover while they were on their reecnt trip to Maryland, and the "Kernel" reprints a picture of the President with the members of the football squad.

REMEMBER ART EXHIBIT

Remember the art exhibit in Cottage M, next week. Admission: students, 10 cents; adults 25 cents. The ticket, not transferable, twenty-five cent ticket is a season

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

Some girls are dumb but how about the freshman who wanted to know the salary of the hall presidents.

Hildegarde Ross gives us the latest point on hockey playing—goalkeeper takes a chair with you—Avoid the strain of standing. Bad for the heart.

We wonder when Grace Virginia started collecting—certain pieces of wearing apparel.

Which reminds us that student body meetings are really social. "Pig" is being played.

Have you heard the latest theme song "Shine ittle grub worm, glimmer, glimmer."

Due to the depression some one has "swiped" 'a pound cake. Owner seeks recovery.

Notes from the faculty:
Have you gone to get your dinner, yet.
Too bad it is inhuman to use chloroform.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Miss Pattie Garrett of Richmond will sing at a Colonial Musical to be given by the Nathaniel Bacon Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution on November 6. This will be part of a program of music which was played and sung during the life of George Washington. Miss Garrett was one of our college soloists when a student here, and delighted many with her sweet voice.

Mrs. J. Barrye Wall (Mary Lancaster) read a most interesting paper on "Yorktown the Capstone of Washington's Military Career" before the Judith Randolph Chapter of the D. A. R. on October 15.

Miss Margaret Goode Moore (W. C.) visited the College this fall after an absence of thirty years. She was naturally surprised and pleased at the changes in dancing and spent last summer abroad studying, most of the time in Paris. This winter she is solo dancer at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York.

Mr. Robert D. Borwning of Orange, father of Mrs. Mildred Browning Rogers (R. L.) has invented a machine to harvest soybeans and similar crops economically and efficiently, which will lead to a wider diversification of crops in Virginia because if its comparative cheapness and ease of operation. The harvester has recently been successfully demonstated in the presence of leading agricultural experts.

Miss Mary Virginia Linney has been plaintiff in a $10,000 damage suit for injuries sustained in an automobile accident in which her back was broken. The jury gave a verdict for $1,300 in her favor and her attorneys moved to have the verdict set aside. The hearing has been postponed because of an accident to one of the lawyers.

On Saturday, October 24, Miss Mary Florence Brightwell of Pamplin became the bride of Willard Dupuy Ligon of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Watkins, Jr., of Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., are spending the winter in Farmville. Mr. Watkins will be associated with his father in the operation of the Planters Warehouse. Mrs. Watkins was formerly Miss Catherine Armstrong of Farmville.

A rather sizeable island in the Potomac River at Washington that once belonged to Lord Baltimore, is to be the site of a national memorial to President Roosevelt. The island has been bought by the Roosevelt Memorial Association. The association has in mind a memorial that will rank with the Washington monument and the Lincoln memorial.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

I took my little key
And opened up my diary;
I dipped my pen in ink,
And then began to think
What the little words would be
For today's golden memory.
My thoughts began to stray away
For I didn't know just what to say;
And then I deeply thought again
Alas! I wrote with ink and pen—
I love you, dear.

"C", '35

FUTILITY

I would think of greatness that will be;
Of books to write, of stirring plays to see;
To soar to higher worlds would be my thought,
Where knowledge and truth will be the things most sought.

To realize a dream of perfect love;
Of glory that is faith, from One above:
These I would think of. But all I can recall
Is a growing ache—and the way sun slants in fall.

Easter Souders

AUTUMN SCENE

Out of the deep rise
Mountains of gold, and
Where the sun touches them
They glitter.
The maples
Flaunt their flaming glory—
Beneath the whirring wings
Of Wild Geese flying
South.
Pumpkins guard the
Bound sheaves of corn
As eventide comes and
The round October moon
Envelopes the world in Romance.

M. von S., '32

APART

Ah, now that I have loved you,
I can no longer go
Across the wide, eternal sea
Where spring winds blow.

I cannot look on Como
When the moon drifts through the air
And all the rapt-still mountains
Stand by, is if aware.

I cannot watch the fishermen,
Home in the early day,
Spread all their dripping nets to dry
By Salerno Bay.

I cannot look on Italy
For, if we are apart,
The pang of all her loveliness
Would break my heart!

Rittenhouse

PHANTOM LOVER

One night we shared
The mystery of Perfect love
That night has past and left me
Only
Grim reality.
Lost in the power
Of your personality—
An empty shell
A farce—
For you know not sincerity
Good for a dream of love—
Nothing more.

Glide on through Life and Loves,
My phantom lover
No longer mine, but
To me,
Never other's.

MORN SONG

Hilda Conkling

There is a star that runs very fast
That goes pulling the morn
Through the tops of the populars.
It is all in silver,
The tall star:
The moon rolls goldenly along
Out of breath
Mr. Moon, does he make you hurry?

SOCIALS

The following girls spent the week-end in Richmond: Gladys Matthews, Phyllis Denit, Charlotte Oakey, Katherine Logan, Bessie Mae White and Mary Kathryn Taylor.

* * *

Mary Arthur Billups, "Chic" Mosby, Catherine Marchant, Vernie Oden and Virginia Young attended the game and dance in Blacksburg this week-end.

* * *

Elma Rawlings and Ella Mallory spent the week-end in Lawrenceville.

* * *

Virginia Ann Huntsberry and Mary Lou Fritz, spent the week-end with Jenny Wheeler in Hopewell.

* * *

Frances Potts, Anne Davis, Ruth Ford, Helen Harris and Lucille Roche spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

* * *

Ruth Floyd and Ruth Atkins spent the week-end in Martinsville.

* * *

Those who were in Roanoke this week-end are: Lillian Hogan, Helen Smith, Garnett Hodges, Lib Mason, Dot Waynick, Josephine Smith, Kathryn Brown, Sarah Ford and Lois Barnes.

* * *

Ruth Hunt and Ambler Lee attended the dances at the University of Virginia this week-end.

* * *

Kathryn Rogers spent the week-end in Bristol.

* * *

Sarah Beck was at her home in Dinwiddie this week-end.

* * *

The girls who attended the B. S. U. convention in Richmond this week-end are: Margaret Bell, Velma Petty, Bessie Gunter, Christine Childrey, Lillian Shepherd, Norma Franklin, Lady Boggs, Dorothy Fields, Clara Mistr, Lillian Woodley, Nancy Shaner, Mary Winston, Cornelia Watts, Jane Witt, Alice Russell, and Margaret McNamara.

* * *

Polly McMurdo, Judith Hardy Bernie May Love, Elizabeth Kelley and Dorothy Prescott spent the week-end in Kenbridge.

* * *

Anna Knox spent the week-end in Norfolk.

* * *

Nancy DeBerry, Chappelle Weisiger, and Mary B. Fraser spent the week-end in Blackstone.

* * *

Clara MacKenzie spent the week-end in Portsmouth.

* * *

Mary Alice Young was in Boydton this week-end.

* * *

Lindsay White spent the week-end in Arrington.

* * *

Martha Gunter spent the week-end in Arrington.

* * *

Virginia Bledsoe was in Phenix this week-end.

* * *

Lillian Womack attended the Randolph-Macon football game in Ashland.

GYPSY CARNIVAL GIVEN BY ZETA TAUS

A gypsy carnival was hel din the Zeta Tau chapter room on Thursday, October 29 from 4:30 to 6 o'clock. In the gypsy tribe there were venders, dancers and a fortune teller, all appropriately costumed, who provided the entertainment of the afternoon.

SORORITIES BID NEW GIRLS ON TUESDAY NIGHT

The following girls accepted bids to sororities Tuesday night, Nov. 3rd:

Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Alfreda Shields ..... Salem, Va.
Betty Shields ..... Farmville, Va.
Wycliffe Scott ..... Orange, Va.
Mary Gilmer .... Big Stone Gap, Va.
Margaret Gilmer ..... Big Stone Gap
Nedra Bair ..... Beckley, W. Va.

Gamma Theta.

Frances Dillon ..... Lexington, Va.
Lucille Tiller ..... Richmond, Va.
Elizabeth Field ..... Richmond, Va.
Belle Lovelace .... South Boston, Va.
Evelyn Knaub ..... Richmond, Va.
Antoinette Jones ..... Norfolk, Va.
Martha Cross ..... Suffolk, Va.
Celia Jones ..... Lexington, Va.

Delta Sigma Chi.

Virginia Fox ..... Richmond, Va.
Nancy Burgwyn ..... Richmond, Va.
Dorothy Legare ..... Lynchburg, Va.
Burnley Brockenbrough ..... Staunton, Va.

Mu Omega.

Virginia Thornhill.... Bluefield,W.Va.
Margaret McCue ..... Staunton, Va.
Leola Barham ..... Norfolk, Va.
Lola McIntyre ..... Mt. Hope, Va.

Pi Kappa Sigma.

Margaret Copenhaver ..... Tazewell, Va.
Catherine Lee Young, S. Boston, Va.

Zeta Tau.

Mary Kathryn Taylor ..... Richmond, Va.
Alice McKay ..... Baltimore, Md.
Fannie Bosworth .... Brownsburg, Va.

Margaret Jack was initiated into Zeta Tau Sorority Monday night, Nov. 2nd.

MISS STRATEMEYER IS ENTERTAINED BY K. D. P.

Among the guests from Columbia University who are observing in our Training School this week, is Miss Florence Stratmeyer, the national secretary of Kappa Delta Pi, honor society in education. The Beta Epsilon chapter of Kappa Delta Pi is entertaining for Miss Stratmeyer at an informal tea in the Student Building lounge from four to five on Wednesday. Among those present will be the members of other chapters of Kappa Delta Pi who are on our faculty.

MISS ILER GIVES PARTY FOR JUNIOR CLASS

Miss Iler entertained the Junior Class with a very attractive party on Hallowe'en night. Various games suitable for the occasion were played. Prizes were awarded to several lucky girls. Refreshments consisting of apples and doughnuts were served. Each received a fortune which amused the groups when read. The class displayed its spirit and love for Miss Iler when they sang to her. The party ended with yells for the Junior Class Man.

CIRCUS IS COMING TO S. T. C. SATURDAY

(Continued From Page 1)

In startling, stirring, stupendous stunts.

X. Crowning of Circus Queen.

XI. Grand Parade.

Dance and eat at Chloe's Nihgt Club.

The V. P. I. students who were unable to attend the recent football game between V. P. I. and Georgia, saw the game by means of television. They declare that they could clearly see each play.

Y. W. C. A.

AT THE CLOSE OF DAY

Soft strains of music were heard from the direction of the auditorium. The crowd moved that way. We entered the auditorium that was dimly lighted with candles. The soft far-away music and the faint rays of candle light created an atmosphere of reverence.

The music ceased and someone read a passage of Scripture on "Prayer". The gist of it was: Christ, when preaching the sermon on the mount, told the people not to pray as hypocrites, nor use vain repetitions, for every day brings new problems, and at the close of every day there is something else for which we can thank God. The Lord's Prayer was given to the people at this time. We were told that prayer should be an essential part of our daily life, and that we should learn to play in times of peace and comfort—as well as stress and anxiety. Only through prayer is it possible to be intimate with God, for it is "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit saith the Lord of Hosts."

PRAYER

She often longed for time to pray
In some dim, quiet, cloistered place,
But at her task from day to day,
Petitions reached the throne of grace.

A call for help in time of stress,
A song of praise when skies were clear;
'Till prayer seemd natural as breath
And God and heaven very near.

—Catherine Marchant
President Advance

MISS BERTHA CONDE VISITS W. & M. COLLEGE

Miss Bertha Conde, who is the student secretary of the Y. W. C. A. has been a recent guest at William and Mary Colleeg. Many of the students here remember Miss Conde, who vistied our campus a few years ago, by her very inspirational talks. At the convocation held Saturday, October 24, in Phi Beta Kappa Hall, at William and Mary, Miss Conde centered her talk around the problem of personality. She clearly stated that the biggest problem of personality is

Continued on page four

WORLD NEWS

Michael I. Pupin, widely know for his outobiography "From Immigrant to Inventor," has been voted the John Fritz gold medal for 1932, the highest American engineering honor. Without Mr. Pupin's discoveries and inventions, long distance telephone lines would still be unknown.

Henry Ford's museum at Dearborn, Michigan boosts a block of concrete in which Thomas A. Edison left his footprints indelibly and inscribed his name forever—and in which the spade once used by the great botanist, Luther Burbank, stands upright as a mute but eloquent tribute.

There are now 17,242 licensed pilots in the United States and 10,609 aircraft of various kinds on record October 1. New York State ranks first and California second in number of planes and pilots, according to the department of commerce.

New York will soon have its first double deck elevator. The cars are Siamese twins, two stories in height, serving two floors at a time, raised and lowered simultaneously so as to double the capacity of the elevator shaft.

The American Red Cross gave aid work of drought relief during 1930-31 according to its latest report. It raised and administered a fund of $10,894,000 in this great work, and at one time was giving assistance to 460,240 families.

HOSIERY BY MAIL

NEW FALL SHADES
FULL FASHIONED
ALL PURE SILK
CHIFFON WEIGHT
PICOT TOP
CRADLE FOOT
FRENCH HEELS

A real value at $1.50—our price $1.00 per pair postage paid—your money back if not satisfied.

Color card on request

ALTAVISTA TEXTILE CO., Inc.

ALTAVISTA, VIRGINIA

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

Willis .... Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Manageemnt

W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing

Third Street

NOTEBOOK FILLERS

3 for 20c

These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.

Get them at

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

"The Store of your choice"

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE!

Your unrestricted choice of our $9.95 and $14.95 Dresses
Plenty of newest styles and colors to pick from. Charge it if you like $7.85

New sport Knit Dresses $2.95

Rull fashioned $1.00 hose Special, pair 50c

The Hub Department Store

FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

Valuable News!

DOROTHY MAY STORES

Add New Department

Farmville's most beautiful store offers lovely new dresses of Jersey, Tweed, Knit and Wool Crepe. These dresses were originally sold at $488. Our tremendous buying power enable us to offer you these great savings. Come, see for yourself the marvelous value at $2.74

JOKES

Then, on the other hand, a bachelor's life is just one undarned thing after another.

"Why don't you like girls?"
"Oh, they're too biased."
"Biased?"
"Yeh—bias this and bias that, until I'm broke."

'Did you sell your vote?"
"Naw, I voted for that fellow because I liked him?"
"Aw go on—I heard he gave you ten dollars."
"Well, if a man gave you ten dollars you'd probably like him, too."

"I just thought of a good joke."
"Aw, cant' you get your mind off yourself!"

"Where are you going little flea?"
"Oh, I'm going to the dogs."

"Your hotel was highly recommended to me by a friend, but I'm most dissatisfied with the food and accommodation."
"That's nothing to me. Go complain to your friend."

"Jones strikes me as being an indolent sort of person."
"Indolent? Why that fellow is so lazy he always runs his car over a bump to knock the ashes off his cigarette."

"I've got a yen for you."
"Well, how much is that in American money?"

"Oh, what a charming necklace!"
"Yes, made entirely from my wedding rings."

Anxious Mother: "And is my little boy really trying?"
Teacher: "Yes, madam, very!"

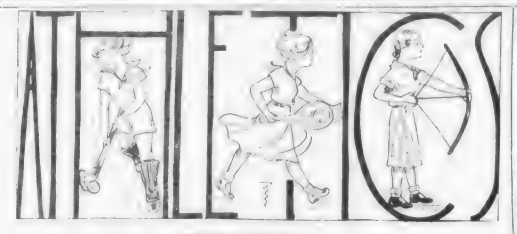
"My mother sent me down here to get some of those new alligator shoes".
"Well, why don't you get them?"
"She didn't say what size shoes her alligator wears."

Tramp: "I haven't averaged more than one meal a day all this week, lady."
Lady: "Oh, are you trying to reduce, too?"

"So your husband tried for that government post, did he? Well what's he doing, now?"
"Nothing, he got the post."

"Say freshman, do you know who I am?"
"No, don't you?"

They wanted to arrest a man for making coffee on Sunday, but they couldn't find the grounds.



"Did you go to the character reader?"
"Yes."
"Well, did he know anything?"
"Well, he made me pay in advance."

Though wives don't hesitate, at times,
Their husbands to condemn,
It's strange how furious they get
If you agree with them.

"How did your father know that we went out in the car today?"
"Simple—remember the stout man we ran into? That was father."

"I've always traveled in the best circles of life."
"So that explains that dizzy look."

Sue: "Why don't you place your hand over your mouth when you yawn?"
Dot: "What! And get bit!"

VARSITY HOCKEY SQUAD PRACTICING HARD

"We're out to win
We're bound to win
We're going o'er the top."

The varsity hockey squad is willing and ready to back up this statement. They have been working hard for over a month .They pass, dribble and scoop down the field with a blue and white spirit that can't be defeated. In a few weeks the varsity squad is going to be given a chance to

"Do their best
To win the test,
For dear old S. T. C."

(Next week's Rotunda will tell the secret.)

JANE ADAMS GETS PICTORIAL REWIEW PRIZE

Continued from page one

and public welfare.

When we hear the name of Jane Adams, immediately we think of Hull House, that pioneer settlement house where the real spirit of democracy, the spirit of neighborliness has flourished for more than forty years. Hull House and Jane Addams have done much for immigrants. They have also pointed the way to native-born Americans who realized that the rising tide of industrialism must be directed so as to enrich the life of the individual and the community. From Hull House has come the sociological courses in our colleges, the network of settlement and neighborhood houses, the movement for city playgrounds, public baths, factory inspection, the juvenile court, the Immigrant's Protective League, the Children's Bureau at Washington.

From Hull House have come men and women with social vision— such figures as John Dewby, philosopher and teacher; Grace Abbott, chief of the children's bureau; Dr. Alice Hamilton, industrial hygienist; Gerald Swope, president of General Electric Company. Miss Addams was 71 last month but she continues her manifold activities. Her interest in welfare is not limted to her neighborhood nor to her country—it embraces the world.

HALLOWE'N SING GIVEN SATURDAY NIGHT

The spooks and the goblins were surely busy Saturday night. They held their meeting in the auditorium and entertained the student body.

The program of the witches and goblins was well carried out by a few students of the Junior Class under the direction of Mrs. Fitzpatrick.

Upon entering the auditorium a suitable atmosphere was created by two pumpkins lighted with candles. As the curtains were drawn, a witch's den was revealed. Bats, witches, cats, bones, chains, and blood played games to the tune of weird music! The shadow of two children were cast upon the wall by a dim bule light in the witches' den. Much moaning and groaning was heard! Two witches stepped forward with words of warning for the children; but, they heeded not the warning! As the wind howled around the corner of the den the witches danced and sang "The Goblins Will Get You If You Don't Watch Out!"

BRASSWARE FOR SALE

Do Your Christmas Shopping Early

Imported brassware will be sold at the circus Saturday night. Articles suitable for Christmas presents and other gifts will be the specialty. Because of a special arrangement, these things are being obtained at quite low prices, within the range of everyone's pocketbook.

Be sure to visit the brassware booth at the circus.

Come on, Juniors, and be 100 per cent. Keep that old spirit and pay your class dues.

ALICE COLLINS IS ASST. MGR. OF ARCHERY

Alice Collins has been chosen to be assistant manager of archery. Alice has her new bow and arrow, and is a good shooter.

If anyone wishes to use the archery equipment, they can do so if they see either the manager or her assistant.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT BEGINS THURSDAY

Tennis singles are beginning tomorrow. A number of girls have signed up for the tournament an dit promises to be very interesting. The girls will play as they are matched up on the tennis poster. Everyone who signed up for the tournament look to see whom you are to play and set a time for your game.

MISS BERTHA CONDE VISITS W. & M. COLLEGE

(Continued from page 3)

the "search for a form about which all our power should center." She further explained that there should be something above and beyond us to lift us out of the realm of self-centeredness. To most people that something would be God. To those on a college campus, perhaps, the interest center may be something entirely personal—a friend or even one's ownself. Miss Conde said she thought we should become world conscious, yet when we did we would realize the insignificance of man in a vast universe, and the necssity of a God. Though there is athletics for training us physically there should be some form of mental and spirtual training. The Y. W. C. A. here endeavors to give the spirtiual training through its various forms of service which it renders.

LYCEUM PROGRAMS

Continued from page one

"Miss Des Rosiers is the finest soprano we have ever had at our College. We certainly want her back next season.'

"Miss Des Rosiers possesses a soprano voice of unusual beauty and sweetness. She is a wonderful artist. —La Presse, Montreal, Quebec.

Yvonne Des Rosiers, soprano, was truly delightful. Clarity, diction and breath control have become intuitive. In consequence she sings to her audience rather than performing for them, a pertinent distinction among vocalists"—Worcester, Mass., Telegram.

Miss Dorothy Barth, girl violinist, has splendid technique and interpretation. Her accompaniments are played by Miss Sara Barth.

Musical America—"Dorothy Barth received an enthusiastic reception from a large audience, composed of many persons prominent in musical circles. She played in good style, a program consisting of Sonata in G. Minor by Handel, Concerto in A. Major by Mozart, and numbers by Glinka-Auer, Scott-Kreisler and Wieniawski.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM NOV. 4 TO 10

WED.—"THE BELLOVED BACHELOR" with PAUL LUKAS and DOROTHY JORDAN. Here is another "Daddy Long Legs", for it is as tender as a mother's heart; his one fault is loving too well. When he adopts a homeless waif as his supreme happiness in the love of the beautiful orphaned waif. A tender, compassionate love story with Paul Lukas more lovable than ever. FASHION SHOW —On this night beautiful girls will display the latest creations from the New York Dress Stores. The management will present the best model with a $5.00 gold piece. Come early for good seats.

THURS. & FRI.—CLIVE BROOK and KAY FRANCIS in "24 HOURS" He was a society husband and he didn't care who knew his affairs with the bewitching cabaret singer. But the one person who knows and cares —blows off the roof of New York, disclosing a tumult of seething emotions, a life-time of thrills. It all happens in 24 hours in New York where life is crowded with thrills, emotions and romance; where no man knows today what woman will be swept into his arms—and out again—tomorrow. From the novel that amazed thousands. This picture is honest, livid, vivid and living, with Brook and Francis at their best. Also an all-technicolor reel, "Beauty Secrets of Hollywood", and the first chapter of the action seriol "THE MYSTERY TROOPER."

SAT. ONLY—"BUDDY ROGERS PEGGY SHANNON and great cast in "THE ROAD TO RENO". America's most spectacular city; where marriages are unmixed in a minute; where love takes it on the chin; where drama's in the air. You'll know what Reno is all about after you've seen the real story of a divorce that began in hate and ended in bliss in this exotic city where a spade is a spade and a diamond is a broken promise. You'll be amazed. Also Screen Song and Fox News.

NEXT MON.—LIONEL BARRYMORE and KAY FRANCIS in "GUILTY HANDS". A woman's yell out of the blackness of night—a man is killed—another man appears in two places at the same time. Two people know how Gordon Rich was killed. Why don't they tell? He had a perfect alibi but it was a woman's wits which broke it. The climax of this murder mystery comes as a stupendous surprise. Don't tell others. Barrymore's magnificent performance is the crowning achievement of his brilliant career. Don't miss this great picture. Also Paramount News Comedy

NEXT. TUES—"THE PHANTOM OF PARIS" with JOHN GILBERT, LELIA HYAMS and LEWIS STONE. Here is as stirring and surprising a drama as the talking screen has shown with Jack Gilbert in a dual role which brings him back to popular favor. Cheated of love and honor he plotted the strangest revenge ever conceived. No hand-cuffs could hold the celebrated Cheri-Bibi. Love, intrigue, murder, mystery. A thousand breath-taking moments in a romantic and exciting drama. See the man with two faces. An exceptional picture for those who appreciate the very best. Also Paramount News and comedy.

Admission—Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c each show.

THE S. T. C. CIRCUS

The "Big Attraction" at the show or at the game is correct apparel. The New York Dress Stores offer chic sport sdresses, street, afternoon and evening dresses at 3 low prices.

Whether on the acmpus or on the dance floor, you will find frocks here suitable for any occasion at
$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

New York Dress Stores

"Authority in Styles"

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls

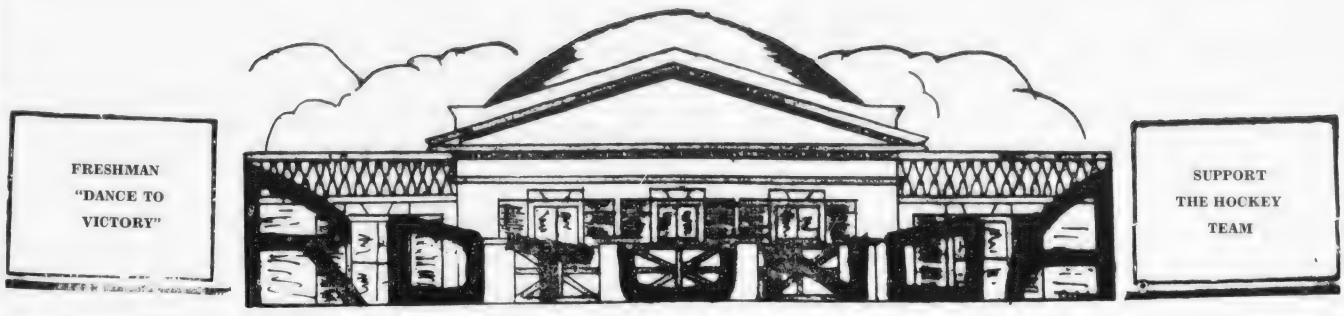
Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98



S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1931 No. 7

Federation of Music Holds Meeting Here

Reports From Different Clubs Followed by Excellent Musical Program

MISS JULIA FUQUA PRESENT

The third District of the Federation of Music of Virginia held its annual meeting Friday, November 6, from ten to four, in the small auditorium of the State Teachers College at Farmville.

The meeting was called to order by Miss Hattie B. McMillan. One verse of "America" was sung after which Dr. C. V. Cook of the Baptist church gave a prayer.

Reports from Blackstone, Danville, Farmville, Lynchburg and other clubs were then presented. Following these reports was given a delightful musical program which included a string trio, directed by Miss Lisabeth Purdom, and two lovely numbers by Miss Irene Leake, champion radio singer of Virginia for three consecutive years. The numbers sung by Miss Leake were "The Hill of Gruzzia" by Mendnikoff and "Tell Me, Oh Blue, Blue Sky" by Giannini Mr. Alfred H. Strick, National Chairman of all Junior Festivals, gave an inspiring and instructive speech on music appreciation.

Miss Julia Fuqua, State President of Federation of Music in Virginia, who was introduced at this time, gave an excellent report on her trip to the National Convention of Federated Music held at an Francisco in June. She began her speech by suggesting that "this meeting pass a resolution to adopt the Folk Tunes in our country and to endorse the movement of John Powell and others of this state toward getting an appropriation of $5,000 from the state for the instituting a chair of music at the University of Virginia for Folk

(Continued on page 4)

Yearly Latin Verses Given to Governor

In Latin verses presented him at the Capitol November 5 at 9:30 o'clock, Governor Pollard was hailed as the "father and glory of our State" at whose birth "all the gods rejoiced." The verses represented the annual quitrent due from the College of William and Mary to the Governor of Virginia.

The yearly quatrent payment dates from the time when King William and Queen Mary, after whom the college is named, in granting the charter to the institution, decreed that it should present "on every 5th day of November two copies of Latin verses at the house of our Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia, in full discharge, acquittance, and satisfaction of all quitrents, services, customs, dues and burdens whatsoever, due or to be due to us or our successors for the said 20,000 acres of land, by the laws of customs of England or Virginia."

The custom of paying this annual quitrent, was observed scrupulously during the Colonial period, but was dropped thereafter until last year when it was revived as a tribute to the English conception of the value of classical training.

Robert C. McClelland, graduate student and instructor at the college, is the author of the verses this year. They will be presented to the Govern-

(Continued on page 2'

DR. J. S. HORSELEY SPEAKS ON CANCER

Dr. J. Shelton Horseley lectured on cancer, under the auspices of the Southside Community Hospital, in the Student Building auditorium Friday night, November 6. Dr. Horseley is chairman of the American Society for the Prevention of Cancer and is one of the prominent surgeons of the South.

Dr. Horseley said that cases of cancer have been constantly on the increase. Census department shows that in the year 1920 there were about 72,000 deaths caused by cancer. In 1929 there were 111,000 deaths caused by this disease.

Stress has been practically always been placed on children's diseases, but the diseases of the older people also need some attention. The majority of the cases of cancer begin in middle life, though cancer may be prevalent in the individual at any age Dr. Horseley put much stress on the fact that something should be done to check this disease which causes the death of so many people during the age which is the climax of their usefulness.

(Continued on page 3)

Curriculum Is To Be Revised

A meeting of the state educational leaders, including superintendents and teachers, was held at Farmville S. T. C. on Thursday, October 22 for the purpose of revising the curriculum for the State of Virginia.

The object is to revise the whole course of study, cutting out anything that is not needed, and teaching only those subjects that lend to the development of the individual It may mean that the whole course of study will be different from the present one pursued. For some time, educators have faced the proposition that a change should be made. The fact that the meeting was held at Farmville is a distinct compliment to our college. Farmville will play an important part in bringing about this change.

To make this change will require about three years work. The first year will be spent in study and investigation or research. Study groups will be held over the state under the direction of the division superintendent. Provision must be made for every teacher to participate in the study.

The second year will be given to recording and organizing the subject matter and material obtained from the first year's study. The third year will be the experimental year or a "trying out" of results. "There are differences of opinion as to the place subject matter should hold in the educative process." The object of the change is to find out the best method of teaching and organizing subject matter.

Present college students should be vitally interested in this change, for it will become workable about the time they begin work in the state.

ROANOKE GIRLS ORGANIZE CLUB

The newly organized and very peppy Roanoke Club held the first meeting Monday night. The following officers were elected:

President ..... Lillian Hogan
Vice-Prsident ..... Dorothy Snedegar
Sec.-Treas. ..... Sarah Ford
Adviser ..... Miss Nickols

With such a fine staff and such officers the Roanoke Club hopes to be a success. "From Acorn to Oak; Watch Roanoke" is the motto of the club.

Press Meeting To Be Held In Lynchburg

Delegates From the Virginian and the Rotunda Will Go to the Convention

AWARD GIVEN FOR BEST ISSUE

The Intercollegiate Press Association will meet Friday and Saturday, November 13th and 14th in Lynchburg, Virginia, with Randolph-Macon Woman's College and Lynchburg College acting as hosts. Waller Belhcer, Jr., of Lynchburg College is president of the association this year.

The Virginian and the the Rotunda will be represented at this meeting by Charlotte Hutchins, and Mary Thomas Rawls, Louise Elliott and Doreen Smith.

The issues of the two publications to compete with other college publications have been sent to the president of the association. A loving cup will be awarded the best publication in each class.

Among those who will take part in the program are Mr. Glass, editor Lynchburg News, Dr. Robert Beale, head English department of Lynchburg College, R. H. McNeil, editor "Epsilog," A. A. Lubersky, Chicago, and A. F. Hudgins from the Richmond "News Leader."

Recital Program Is Announced

The artist, Major C. T. Tittmann, bass-baritone of Washington, D. C., will perform in the college auditorium with the assistance of Farmville Silver Band and Junior Choral Club, November 19.

The following program will be given:

Part 1

Program by Farmville Silver Band.
R. M. B. ..... Jarrett
Midland Overture ..... Southwell
Albanian ..... Hall
Princess of India ..... King
Perfect Day ..... Jacobs-Bond
Washington Post ..... Sousa
a. Slumber Song ..... Gretchaninoff
b. English Folk Song
Junior Choral Club

Part 2

(1)

My Abode ..... Schubert
Who is Sylvia ..... Schubert

(2)

Oh Sleep, Why Dost Thou Leave Me ..... Handel
Aria. Oh Ruddier Than the Cherry
Rec. I Rage, I Melt, I Burn
Acis and Galtatea ..... Handel

(3)

God's Peace Be With You All .. Bach
(Solo cantata for bass. Performed for the first time in America at the Bach Festival, Bethlehem, Pa., May 15, 1931.
a. Songs My Mother Taught Me ..... Dvorak

(Continued from page 1)

b. Panis Angelicus ..... Cesar Franck
Senior Choral Club

(Continued on page 3)

KAPPA DELTA PI ANNOUNCES MEMBERS

The Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, announces the following pledges:

Mary Thomas Rawls
Winston Cobb
Marguerite Massey

ART EXHIBIT EVERY AFTEROON THIS WEEK

From four until six in cottage M there is on display under aupsices of Miss Coulling, head of the art department, one hundred and fifty pictures of good size and color.

The Dutch school is well represented by the works of Terborch, Ver Meer, Frans Hals, Rembrant and Peter De Hoogh, while Durer and Holbein represent German schools. As for the Italian, Spanish, French, English and the American schools great delight will be taken in works of Michelangelo, Raphael, Leonardo da Vinci, Velasquez, Corot, Watts, and Amick.

Any picture sold before Friday evening will benefit the puchaser with a good per cent of reduction. The fee of ten cents will go towards getting pictures for the schools, and therefore instill within the youth of the country an apprciation for the works of the masters.

Annual Circus Scores Success

Clowns! Balloons! Elephants! Giraffes! Popcorn! Tight rope walkers! arade! Monkeys!—Circus! and much fun! The fifth annual circus went off with a bang Saturday, November 7.

For the parade in the afternoon ll Farmville and S. T. C. lined the streets to see the floats. The freshman class won first prize for their float, "The Baby Class Show."

For the circus proper, the gym was most colorfully decorated, colors being combined never seen together before. Henrietta Cornwell, as ringmaster, kept the audience informed as to exactly what was happening. The stunts were an entertaining conglomeration of Columbus, Marx Brothers, May Queen, debates, doctors, gym classes, clowns, animals, and so forth. The Dramatic Club stunt showing a history examination with paid seats and an audience, won first prize.

Then came the crowning of the Queen, Margaret Banks, after which hilarity became the keynote of the evening. Everybody went to "Cleo's Night Club", named for that famous Egyptian, and danced. Betty Hardy, dancer, was also on the program.

Finally, everybody went home. But the circus was only half over: the gym had to be cleaned up and disposal of hot dogs made!

Heretofore, the proceeds from the circus have gone to pay for the base of the Huntington statue of Joan of Arc. Since that was completed last year, the money this year will go to help pay for the national convention of Alpha Kappa Gamma which will be held here in the spring.

MUSICAL PROGRAM BY COLLEGE ORCHESTRA

The musical program given in chapel Saturday was by the College Orchestra.

The entire orchestra presented two numbers; the light, fantastic "Spanish Dance" composed by Moskanski and the more subdued "In a Moonlit Garden by Olhmler. The orchestra was equaled in musical harmony by a stringed trio which presented "Aria" by Tenaglia and "Old English Dance" by Kramer. The talented musicians were Dorothy Fields, Mildred Steere and Gertrude Manners.

Concert Given by Miss Des Rosiers In Costume

Miss Barth, Violinist and Mr. Boardman, Pianist, Assist In the Program

"AVE MARIA" IS ENJOYED BY ALL

An interesting program was given by Misses Des Rosiers and Barth, and Mr. Boardman on Monday, November 9, in the auditorium.

Miss Yvonne Des Rosiers, soprano, gave a costume recital in which she wore a shepherdess costume, XVIII century costume, and a flower costume.

All of the numbers were enjoyed, but in particular the two, "Only a Rose" and "Ave Marie."

The program was as follows:
a—Rendez-vous ..... W. Aletter
b—A Little Damosel ..... Ivor Novello
c—Swiss Echo ..... Carl Eckert
(Shepherdess costume)
Souvenir De Moscow .... Wieniawswki
Dorothy Barth
Hymn to the Sun .. RimskyKorsakoff
Misses Des Rosiers and Barth
Scherzo—C sharp minor .... Chopin
a—Vous Dansez, Marquis .... Lemaire
b—The Laughing Song, Anne Sequin
c—Je Marche sur tous Les Chemins
Jules Massent
(XVIII century costume)
a—Allegro ..... Fiorillo
b—Malecuena ..... P. de Sarasate
c—Hugarian Dance ..... Veno Hubay
Miss Barth
a—Flowers, Who'll Buy ..... DeMert
b—Not Really ..... Ivor Novello
c—Only a Rose ..... R. Friml
(Flower Costume)
La Danse d'Olaf, ... Pick-Maniagalli
Ave Maria ..... Bach-Gounod
Misses Des Rosiers, Barh, and Mr. Boardman

Miss Des Rosiers had a delightful voice. Miss Barth showed unusual abiltiy as a violinist and Mr. Boardman as a pianist.

Dramatic Club Play Ran In New York

The Dramatic Club play, "Enter Madame" will be given Friday night, December 4, 1931. The cast is rehearsing every night now under the leadership of Miss Leola Wheeler, director of dramatics at S. T. C., and it promises to be a superb performance. This play is a romanic comedy in three acts written by Gilda Varesi and Dolly Bryne; it has had long runs in New York and London with Gilda Varesi. The play contrasts the artistic and scientific minds in marriage. Madame is a star of grand opera, possessed of the artistic temperament in all its varying moods. Her husband is a typical American business man, who like his quiet home and few servants. The play will be given in the S. T. C. auditorium by the dramatic clubs of this college and of Hampden-Sydney College.

Nancy Burgwyn, a freshman has the leading role. She is Madame, a star of grand opera; Miss Burgwyn, who takes this part well, is considered one of the best leads S. T. C .has had for some time. Joe Perry, of Hampden Sydney, led in many dramatic productions, is leading man in this play and he takes excellently his part as a typical business man. H e is always upset, however, by his opera-singer wife.

(Continued on page 2'

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

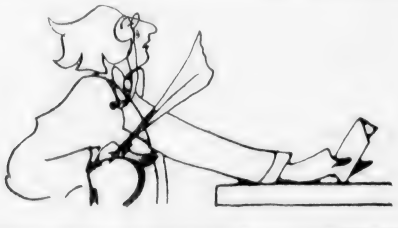
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting an dtreating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

An Open Forum

Beginning with next issue, the Rotunda is again running an open forum. Continued at intervals since the paper was first published, the open forum has met with a varied success. For a while after each new revival it has met with success. Then interest has died down. The Rotunda hopes to arouse interest in the open forum and sustain that interest.

The Open Forum is a place in which anybody and everybody can express his or her views on current affairs. In the form of a letter to the editor or editors, anything about school life not understood, can be made known, anything deserving praise, perhaps hitherto unmentioned, can be brought to the attention of those who read the paper, and anyhing which needs to be checked up on can be made known. Letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions on current affairs of school life, signed either by name, initials, or pseudonym will be published, if so desired, in the Open Forum column.

The Rotunda has felt for some time a need of an open forum and has been criticized for its lack of one. The paper hopes that the students, faculty, and other people, will express their views in the Open Forum.

AFTER LIGHTS

By Three Wise Frosh

"Who's that knocking at our door? Who's that knocking at our door?" asked the three young maidens. "Lights out, girls" said the gripey hall president, "or I'll have to report you." "All right," very sweetly. "Who does she think she is, anyway?" stage whisper. "She gripes my soul, and she pays no mind whatsover to those freshmen above us." "You're right. I think they get the urge to rearrange their furniture every night between twelve and one o'clock.' Move furniture, me eye!—They drink giggle soup, then play hide and seek." "Well, we wont' argue, but they raise more noise than all the rest of the hall put together." "Hey, cut the catty corner, and help me drag out the food. If you think I'm going to fix sandwiches for anyone but yours truly, you're absolutely nuts!" "Don't stick your neck out, we probably couldn't eat them if you did." "O. K. Pal, I'll remember that the next time you want to sleep through breakfast, and ask me to bring up a biscuit and sausage, while you catch up on your sleep." "Open the other blind, I can't find the knife, and what the heck did you do with the salt?" "If you'd hurry up and buy a battery for the antique flashlight, we could make use of it . . .ouch! Who put that chair there- If you'd only leave the furniture where it belongs, this toe wouldn't be broken like it is. Where is the mercurochrome? Turn the light on, 'cause I gotta find it, and if she says anything to me, I'll just ask her if she ever sprained a toe, in fact, I'm just in the mood to tell her plenty—let me at her." "Girls I've knocked once for lights, and quiet down right way, please." "Oh, yes ma'am, we're sorry."

Snap! Out go the lights, and the three S. T. C. sub-debs, hop into bed, having entirely lost their appetites.

First Freshman: "Let's go to sleep."

Second Freshman: "Good night, chickens."

Third Freshman: Good night, girls."

Thus it goes on for nights and nights in the quiet little village of Farmville.

WE SHALL NOT FORGET

"Pile the bodies high at Reims and Chateau-Thierry
I am the grass; let me work."

Twelve years have slipped through the hour glass burying deep old wounds, pain and suffering. However, when Armistice Day comes 'round each November faces, names, and events begin to burn within our memories and we are ever conscious of the fact that we still keep faith with those who died to restore the worlds' peace and make it a safe place in which to live.

As I trod on the sacred ground of the battlefields of France I could not help but realize that there still remained a heavy gash within the bosom of the earth. Charred trees mark the sky-line and small villages remain in ruins against a desolate countryside. Block houses stand steadfast along the Hindenburg line while Hill 108 bears a seemingly bottomless shell hole and the roadways are bordered on either side for mile on mile with hundreds of French, German and American crosses.

American funds are gradually but surely bringing about restoration work. Many of our states have contributed whole avenues of trees which shall in time restore the former beauty of the French highways. Several chapels have been erected through American support, and club houses have been built near the cemeteries for the comfort of the Gold Star mothers who return in vast numbers every year to visit their sons' graves. John D. Rockefeller has donated enormous sums for the restoration of Reims Cathedral which was used as a hospital during the war, while Carnegie has given a fine public library to the inhabitants of the town of Reims. At Chateau-Thierry a home for French orphans is being maintained under the auspices of an American Methodist Episcopal church while our Vassar, Barnard and Wellesley graduates carry on the educational instruction for the children.

We, as a generation so far spared from bloodshed and strife feel everlastingly indebted to those of twelve years past who so courageously fought and died for us and we shall not forget though time speeds by on fleeting wings.

OLD HAMPDEN-SYDNEY

As the sun lowered its rays over the ivy clad walls of Hampden-Sydney, I could not help recalling a bit of her early beginnings.

Then she was a small but historic institution which was founded in measures taken by the Presbyterian Church in 1774 to establish a "public 'seminary" in Prince Edward County. The prospectus of the Hampden-Sydney Academy declared hat no sectarian consideration should influence the conduct of the school, a pledge kept throughout its history. The Academy was opened on Jan. 1, 1776 and in May, 1783, a college charter was secured from the General Assembly of Virginia. The name was a memorial to the English patriots. Jno. Hampden and Algernon Sidney. Among the incorporators were Patrick Henry, James Madison, and a number of famous Virginians. The College increased rapidly in the scope of its work, number of students and endowments up to the Civil War. From 1863 to 1866, inclusive, no students were graduated, all of them enlisting in the Confederate Army as soon as they reached the age for service.

The record of the alumni is remarkable. Early students included William Cabell, Governor and Judge of the Virginia Court of Appeals. Joseph Carrington Cabell, co-founder with Thomas Jefferson of the University of Virginia; William Cabell Rives, twice minister to France, and William Henry Harirson, "the hero of Tippecanoe."

TRANSLATION OF LATIN VERSES PRESENTED

Continued from page one

or by a delegation composed of Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, president of the college; Dr. W. T. Hodges, dean of men; Dr. A P. Wagener, head of the ancient language department; Dr D. W. Davis, head of biology department; Robert C. McClelland, author of this year's verses; J. T. Baldwin, representing the language department, and Binford Sykes, president of the senior class.

Translated the verses read:

"Our Virginia, whom the poets hymn in song, thou mother of heroes, grant us this day, we pray, that with the blessing of the Muses we may sing of thy glory and that we may address with earnest words, O bountiful parent, him whom thou placest at the helm of thy destinies. At thy birth all the gods rejoiced. To thy shores their richest gifts will the ships bring througout the ages; nor does Ceres in other fields wander more joyfully. Mayest thou cherish the arts of peace; but, not forgetful of those of war, keep guard over the ashes of those who hold that it is sweet to die for one's native land—and in reverence may their posterity shroud their tombs with garlands. Today, father and glory of our State, these tokens of old, entrusted to us by the custom of our elders, we give again to thee. If God will, mayest thou be just and powerful. When cares of state press upon thee, be thou a counselor unyielding; as some towering mountain which beneath gentle breezes sways not, nor bends with the fury of the storm. When thy work is done best leader of the people, mayest thou come again to the home and calling to the Muses."

NEWS OF ALUMNA

An S. T. C. girl, Miss Martha Reed, will lead the Roanoke College German Club dance Friday and Saturday night, November 13 and 14, with Mr. Doug Dowdy of Roanoke. Mr. Dowdy is one of the outstanding leaders on the Roanoke College campus being a member of the student government, circulation manager of "The Brackty Ack," the college newspaper, associate editor of the college annual secretary and treasurer of the German Club, and a leader in the academic work having carried off honors many times.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY RAN IN NEW YORK

(Continued from page one.)

The dramatic clubs of these colleges are glad to have the opportunity of presenting their talent in such a well known play as "Enter Madame."

IN FLANDERS FIELD

Lieut-Col. John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That marks our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago,
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders field.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye reak faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders Field.

GIFT

This is mint and here are three pinks
I have brought you, Mother
They are wet with rain
And shining with it,
The pinks smell like, like more of them in a blue vase.
The mint smells like summer in many gradeurs.

ENVY

If I am happy and you
And there are things to do,
It seems to be the reason
Of this world.

A CUP OF TEA

I held the scintillating liquid
In a lovely china cup,
And lifting up the shallow shell
Of steaming tea I supped
Until the leaves were settled
On its slender sides.
Dregs they were—but bitter symbols so I found
While looking for my heart's desire
Among the brown remains of amber tea—
(Oh we, who let our hungry souls aspire
To vain beliefs!)

Vain—because I saw you not
So with malice held my saucer tilted up
And heard the faint melodic crash
Of a broken china cup.
(No one saw but God—and he smiled
At my foolish little sin!)

R. C. F., '32

SOLITAIRE

Amy Lowell

When night drifts along the streets of the city,
And sifts down between the uneven roofs
My mind begins to peek and peer.
It plays at ball in odd, blue Chinese gardens,
And shakes wrough dice-ups in Pagan temples
Amid the broken fluting of white pillars.
It dances with purple and yellow crocuses in its hair,
And its feet shine as they flutter over drenched grasses.
How light and laughing my mind is,
When all good folks have put out their bedroom candles,
And the city is still.

DAISIES

Snow—white shawls— —
Golden faces
Countryside, hillside, wayside people--
Little market women
Selling dew and yellow flower
To make bread
For some city of elves.

MOUSE

Little mouse in gray velvet
Have you had a cheese breakfast?
There are no crumbs on your coat,
Did you use your napkin?
I wonder what you had to eat,
And who dressed you in gray velvet?

SOCIALS

Josie Spencer, Katherine Royster, erry Lee and Margaret Barker spent ie week-end in Lynchburg.

• • •

Dr. Jarman, Miss Mary White Cox, Irs. Warren, Miss Tabb, Miss Virinia Potts, Mr. Graham, Frances otts, Henrietta Cornwell, Ruth Hunt nd Mary Nelson went to Lynchburg unday to a buffet supper at the ome of Loulie Millner.

• • •

Fay Fuller, Louise Borum, and Virinia Thornhill attended the dance at ork Union this week-end.

• • •

Margaret Parker and Martha Cross pent the week-end in Ashland.

• • •

Those who attended the Lynchurg College-Hampden-Sydney game n Lynchburg Saturday are: Chick Tosby, Frances Dorin, Nancy Burwyn, Jean McClure, Ann McGann, nd Sarah Beck.

• • •

Margaret Eley, Margaret Gathrright and Nannie Barnes spent the veek-end in Richmond.

• • •

Catherine Logan, Alfreda Strick nd Charlotte Oakey, spent the weekend in Salem.

• • •

Ruth Floyd and Margaret Stiff vere in Norfolk this week-end.

• • •

Bernie May Love and Nancy Boykin spent the week-end in Kenbridge.

• • •

Those who spent the week-end in Roanoke are: Lois Barnes, Garnet Hodges, Dot Waynick and Lim Mason.

• • •

Frances Crawford and Josephine Smith spent the week-end in Staunton.

• • •

Belle Lovelace spent the week-end in South Boston.

• • •

Catherine Cogbill and Lorena Bland spent the week-end in Boydton.

• • •

Virginia Hamilton spent the weekend in Petersburg.

SCHOLASTIC AVERAGES OF SORORITIES GIVEN

Scholastic averages for sororities for the spring quarter of last year are as follows:

Zeta Tau	1.832
Mu Omega	1.634
Gamma Theta	1.285

Scholastic averages for the year 1930-1931 are as follows:

Zeta Tau	1.766
Mu Omega	1.596
Sigma Sigma Sigma	1.443

RECITAL PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Continued from page one

(4)

I Had a Horse* ..... Korbay
Cowboy's Requiem ..... H. S. Gregor

(5)

The Kerry Dance ..... Molloy
The Lass with the Delicate Air
Dr. Arne

(6)

Uncle Rome ..... Sidney Homer
Were You There? and Hard Trials, Negro spirituals arranged by Harry Burleigh

"* The defeat of the Hungarian army of 25,000 men by 200,000 Turks at Mohacs on August 29, 1526, was one of the greatest disasters in the history of Hungary. The proverb,—the refrain of this song,—is still in constant use among the people."

SEEN IN THE CIRCUS

Tumblers: Frances McDaniel, Dot Snedegar, Martha Gunter

DR. J. S. HORSLEY SPEAKS ON CANCER

(Continued From Page 1)

Dr. Horseley stated that we cannot answer definitely the question as to whether or not cancer is hereditary. Cancer itself is not hereditary; but the loss of control of the cells is hereditary in that the cells go wild. We do not know what causes cancer, but we do know that it not a germ disease. In a case of cancer, the cells go through certain processes that pile up more cells.

If the cancer is removed early enough, either by cutting out diseased tissues or by radiation, then it can be cured. In the early stages of cancer, Dr. Horseley stated, there is no pain. This disaese may attack any portion of the body. In young people cancer of the bones is prevalent.

Dr. Horseley gave several symptoms of cancer which are: sudden pain; any unusual discharge; or any unusual indigestion.

Dr. Horseley's lecture was illustrated by twenty-three slides showing various forms of cancer cells and cancerous tissues. He also used two reels of films. These reels showed various forms of cell division, cancerous tissues, and the effect of radiation on normal and cancerous cells.

A DANCE TO VICTORY

Come and dance to victory with us on Saturday night, November 14! On that date the Junior Class—that class that has never known defeat, not even in its freshman year—will prove her further abilities to the student body by presenting a sing called "A Dance to Victory."

This sing will consist of dancing and singing and will prophesy the outcome of Thanksgiving Day. Everybody come to sing Saturday night and learn for yourselves which will be the victorious colors on Thanksgiving Day.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

President Hughes at Hamline will think twice before again offering an ice cream cone to each man on the freshman team for each touchdown in their scrimmage against the varsity. He did and had a bill for seventy-seven ice cream cones on his hands.

The latest addition to the curriculum of New York University is a class in group singing.

The Univeristy of Mexico at Mexico City is the oldest college in the new world. It was founded in 1551.

LARGE NUMBER OF HIGH SCHOOL HONOR GRADUATES HERE

An unusually large number of honor graduates of high schools is included in the present enrollment of State Teachers College at Farmville for the fall quarter, 1931.

Thirteen and a half per cent of the entire student body and eleven per cent of the freshman class were either valedictorians or salutatorians. From sixteen high schools we have more than one of these students at this time. Our own College High School leads, with three valedictorians and two salutatorians while Curdsville High School comes next with two of each.

These honor graduates come from seventy-one different high schools with a total of fifty-nine valedictorians and thirty-one salutatorians.

There are one hundred twenty-eight members of the honor fraternity, Alpha Phi Sigma, which automatically admits valedictorians and salutatorians of high schools, and of this number, only thirty-eight were admitted on the basis of high scholarship in college—all the rest came in through their high school honors.

Alpha Phi Sigma was established in 1930 and enrolled for that year one hundred sixty-five students. Of this number only nine failed to make the average required to retain their membership record—which demonstrates very plainly that the high school record of a students is, in most cases, an index of her college record.

Alpha Phi Sigma is for the recognition of high scholarship in students from the time they enter college and serves as an incentive to maintain the same high average.

Each day we grow disillusioned more and more. We have it on good authority that the night watchman at the girls' dormitory at Ohio Wesleyan has reported that his job is very unexciting.

HOSIERY BY MAIL

NEW FALL SHADES
FULL FASHIONED
ALL PURE SILK
CHIFFON WEIGHT
PICOT TOP
CRADLE FOOT
FRENCH HEELS

A real value at $1.50—our price $1.00 per pair postage paid—your money back if not satisfied.

Color card on request

ALTAVISTA TEXTILE CO., Inc.

ALTAVISTA, VIRGINIA

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing

Third Street

Y.W.C.A.

MISS WHEELER GIVES LECTURES ON CHINA

The lectures on China, given by Miss Wheeler at prayers on Friday October 30, and November 1, proved to be both interesting and educational.

In imagination she led us across the waters, into a Chinese neighborhood. There we did not find the many luxuries of American life. Transportation was poor, the women were just beginning to assert their rights, and signs of China's becoming more modernistic were evident.

Beauty seems to be the one goal to which all Chinese aspire. This causes us to realize that the Chinese people are more cultured than the newspapers would have them pictured on some occasions.

Would that our newspapers and moving pictures would lend their strength towards promoting fellowship with the Chinese peoples.

A Chinese pageant will be given at prayers on Friday, November 13th.

PRAYERS MADE VERY IMPRESSIVE

Prayers have been quite impressive of late. The soft candle light, the sweet music, the inspiring talks have added a deep spiritual quality to prayers which heretofore on some accasions has been lacking. The night atmosphere lends much to the spirit of devotion at the close of a busy day at school. Without it the desired effect is lost.

The following is the program as carried out this past week.

Tuesday, November 3.

Leader	Mary Hood
Subject	Ideals
Violin Solo	Mannus

Wednesday, November 4.

Leader	Nell Weaver
Sub. "What Are We Doing Today?"
Solo	Mary McCarn

Thursday, November 5.

Leader	Miss Mary White Cox

Continued on page four

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

Willis....Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Manageemnt

W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

NOTEBOOK FILLERS

3 for 20c

These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.

Get them at

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Valuable News!

DOROTHY MAY STORES

Add New Department

Farmville's most beautiful store offers lovely new dresses of Jersey, Tweed, Knit and Wool Crepe. These dresses were originally sold at $488. Our tremendous buying power enable us to offer you these great savings. Come, see for yourself the marvelous value at $2.74

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE!

Your unrestricted choice of our $9.95 and $14.95 Dresses Plenty of newest styles and colors to pick from. Charge it if you like $7.85

New sport Knit Dresses $2.95

Rull fashioned $1.00 hose Special, pair 50c

The Hub Department Store

FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

H. S. C.: "That's a beautiful face of yours."

S. T. C.: "Thanks, I made it myself"

Mary Alice: "You lazy bum, you don't know which side your bread is buttered on."

Walters: "What difference does it make? I eat both sides ,don't I?"

Prof.: "What do we call a person who keeps on talking when people are no longer interested?"

Class: "A professor!"

Jane: "Waiter, there's a fly in this vanilla ice!"

Waiter: "Ah! They're going out for winter sports, aren't they?"

"Have you an opening for a bright energetic, college graduate, who can do anything?"

"Yes—and oh, don't slam it on your way out, please."

Teacher: "Who was Columbus?"

Cecil: "He was a crook."

Teacher: "Why, my dear!"

Cecil: "Well, he double-crossed the ocean, didn't he?"

A girl who thinks no man is good enough for her may often be right, but she's more often left!

College is just like a washing machine—you get out of it exactly what you put into it—but you wouldn't recognize it.

Outside: "Knock! Knock! Knock!"

Inside: "Hello, who's there?"

Outside: "Opportunity."

Inside: "Go away, you can't kid me; opportunity only knocks once."

Teacher: "Henry, how many feet are in a rod?"

Henry (a gangster's son): "Teacher, don't you mean how many bullets in a rod?"

Merchant: "You've been owing me this bill for years. I'll meet you halfway, I'm ready to forget half you owe me."

Student: "Fine, I'll meet you halfway, too. I'll forget the other half."

"Soviet gasoline is that with the 'red' tint," says Dumb Dora.

Early to bed
Late to rise,
And your girl steps out
With other guys.

Student: "Can a man change his nationality?"

Teacher: "No, why?"

Student: "Well, I just read where a man went up a pole and came down a rushin'."

Secretary: "You say you came in for an examination? Then let me fill out this card. How old are you?"

Spinster (coughing): "I've seen just 25 summers."

Secretary: "Pardon me, and how long have you been blind?"

Our idea of a man who has truly gone down in defeat is a man with fallen arches.

Teacher: "Who can name one important thing we didn't have a hundred years ago?"

Nancy: "Me."

"What did you say?"

"Oh, nothing. I just wondered about what you were talking about."

"Nothing."

"Well, go ahead then."

"What is the greatest change that takes place when water freezes?"

"The change in price, of course."

VARSITY HOCKEY SQUAD

From left to right, front row—Gunter, Burnaps, Massey, Crute, Foster, Wheeler, McDaniel. Second row—Cooper, Wright, Dickinson C. Mattox, Pratt, L. Mattox, Ridgeway, Kello. Third row—Miss Iler, coach, Gregory, Quisenberry, Walthall, Berger, Frasier Snedegar Sugden, Putney, Boswell, Souders.

ARCHERY PRACTICE TO BE HELD VERY SOON

Have you been out for archery? If you haven't you certainly have missed some fun. It isn't hard to learn, and someone will be here to show you what to do.

Archery practice from now on, will be on the field in back of the tennis courts. Come out, and try your luck.

FEDERATION OF MUSIC HOLDS MEETING HERE

(Continued from page 1)

Music." This suggestion was quickly put in the form of a motion by Mr. Strick and was seconded by Mrs. Robertson of Danville, Va.

Miss Fuqua brought an inspiring message from the national meeting. She pointed out the importance of having municipal bands, orchestras, and sings to help in the restoration of an optimistic mental attitude in our people.

After brief reports from a number of officers, the meeting was adjourned at 1:15 at which time lunch was delightfully served in the banquet room of the College tea room. Dr. J. L. Jarman, president of College, made the address of welcome.

The meeting resumed its progress at 2:30. The afternoon program began with two piano solos played by Miss Violet Older of the faculty of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, at Lynchburg.

An invitation was extended from the Chatham Club for the next annual gathering of the Third District. This was put in the form of a motion and was adopted and carried. The next District Club meeting will be held next fall in Chatham.

The concluding part of the program was composed of talks given by the national officers—Mrs. J. Norman Wills, Mrs. Cora Lucas, and Mrs. Eugene Davis, President of the North Carolina Federation of Music Clubs. At the close of these talks the following resolution was read and adopted:

Be It Resolved—That we, the members of the Third District of the Virginia Federation of Music Clubs do thank the following for the success and enjoyment of the 1931 meeting.

1. To the Farmville Music Clubs we are indebted for their hospitality, which we sincerely enjoyed.

2. Our appreciation is extended to Dr. Jarman for his cordial and sympathetic attitude—for the cooperation of the State College of which he is President and the members of his faculty and student body who have made this meeting a happy success.

3 To Miss McMillan we express our thanks for arranging such an interesting and helpful program, also for her enthusiasm which is always inspiring.

4. We wish to express especially thanks to Miss Fuqua for her presence and her splendid report of the National meetings. Miss Fuqua gives worthy impetus to all club work and we particularly appreciate her inspiring contribution at this time.

5. We express appreciation to the National Chairmen for their presence and cooperation in making this meeting of more interest to us all.

6. We wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Strick and his department for their artistic presentations.

Respectfully submitted.

Mrs. Warren
Miss Violet Older
Helen R. Eanes

Miss McMillan expressed her deep appreciation for the very successful and most interesting meeting, after which final adjournment was made.

FARMVILLE TO PLAY WESTHAMPTON FRIDAY

Here's to the Varsity team,
Hail! Varsity, Hail!

Twenty hockey players on Friday November 13 will go to Richmond and defend the blue and white for S. T. C. The game is scheduled for 3 P. M.

The varsity squad has been practicing hard since September and is ready to give any team a hard battle.

Last year when the Westhampton team came here, S. T. C. was defeated 1-0. This year the varsity intends to reverse the score

Y. W. C. A. CABINET HOLDS OPEN CABINET MEETING

The Y. W. C. A. held an open cabinet meeting in the Y. W. C. A. reception room on Wednesday afternoon, November 4 from 5 to 6 o'clock.

The meeting was opened with devotionals led by Hazel Halloway, secretary of the Cabinet. The report from the recent set-up conference at Longwood was then read.

The chairman of the various committees submitted their reports stating the work they have already done this year, and incidentally other things they plan to do. These plans were discussed and a few suggestions were made in regard to them.

After remarks from the president of the Y. W. C. A., and from others, the meeting was adjourned.

PRAYERS MADE VERY IMPRESSIVE

(Continued from page 3)

Subject:: "Living Close to God By His Word."
Solo ..... Miss Irene Leake
Friday, November 6.
Leader ..... Miss Wheeler
Subject: ..... "Home Life in China

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM NOVEMBER 11 TO 17

WED. & THURS.—RONALD COLEMAN in "THE UNHOLY GARDEN" supported by Fay Wray and Estelle Taylor. A story set in a land of strange adventure. One woman wanted him for what he had. The other wanted him for what he might be. The nations of the world wanted him for what he had been. What a picture for Ronald Coleman! Here was a master criminal who fooled nations—but couldn't fool nature. Escape from the arms of the law was easy—but not from the arms of a woman. An exciting tale of adventure that moves like chained lightning. Vivid drama fraught with suspense. Romance with a tingling sweep, and Coleman, suave and handsome, in an exciting story aflame with action. Pronounced his best picture. Also Paramount News and Comedy. Added attraction—BOBBY JONES in "Practice."

FRI. & SAT.—"THE SIN OF MADELON CLAUDET" with HELEN HAYES, NEIL HAMILTON and LEWIS STONE. Of the many pictures shown at the Eaco Theatre never have we felt more like insisting that you see this one, for it is unquestionably the outstanding production of the year. Critics everywhere are going out of their way to boost this picture, and Helen Hayes, a stage player of note, will be a big favorite with picture goers, after they see "Madelon Claudet". Broadway gasped at the drama of the little French girl who fared ill at the hands of men. Broadway's heart softened at the tender portrayal of this magnificent story. Never such a performance to touch your heart, to make you suffer and triumph with one of America's stage stars. Every person in Farmville owes it to himself to see this great picture. NO ADVANCE IN PRICES! Also Screen Song and Fox News.

NEXT MON.—JAMES DUNN and LINDA WATKINS in "SOB SISTER". Here again is the sensation of the year. James Dunn who made an instantaneous hit in "Bad Girl". And Linda Watkins, a Wampus star who will make a hit with you. The romance of a girl reporter on a big daily newspaper, where anything goes so long as you win. The love secrets of others gave her her livelihood, but threatened the safety and happiness of her own heart affairs. She thrilled others with headlines, only to discover that the greatest thrill was her own happiness. He told her, "You answer the 'phone in the midst of a kiss. Some day you'll let it ring." A splendid picture. Also News and Comedy.

NEXT TUES.—"GIRLS ABOUT TOWN" with KAY FRANCIS aud JOEL McCREA, Lilyan Tashman and Allan Dinehart. Life is a laugh and so is love to these wise girls. Lighthearted, gay, they go about the business of snaring men's hearts for the fun of it. And business is good—until one of them falls in love for keeps. It's rich in romance, lavish with laughter and thoroughly enjoyable. Kay Francis and Lilyan Tashman are two of the best dressers in Hollywood, and the gowns and wraps they wear in this picture will make the most fastidious sit up and take notice. An answer to the prayers of both blonde and brunette. Also News and Comedy. You girls should eat up this one.

"THE MYSTERY TROOPER" every Friday. Don't miss one episode.

MATINEE DAILY at 4 p. m. Evenings at 8 o'clock.

ADMISSIONS — Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

THE S. T. C. CIRCUS

The "Big Attraction" at the show or at the game is correct apparel. The New York Dress Stores offer `chic sport sdresses, street, afternoon and evening dresses at 3 low prices.

Whether on the acmpus or on the dance floor, you will find frocks here suitable for any occasion at
$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

New York Dress Stores

"Authority in Styles"

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls

Kleanwell

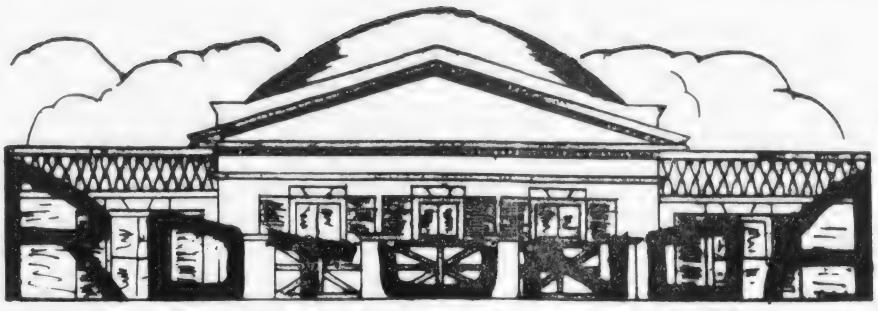
CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus



TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

DON'T MISS
MAJOR TITTMAN
NOVEMBER 19

SURPRISE FEATURE
TO BE AT CONCERT?

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1931 No. 8

V. I. P. A. To Meet at S.T.C. and H.-S. C. Next

Miss Doreen Smith Is President of The Association For Its Sixth Year

FOUNDED AT FARMVILLE IN 1923

The sixth annual convention of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association will meet in November, 1932 in Farmville, Virginia, with Farmville State Teachers College and Hampden-Sydney acting as hosts.

Doreen Smith of S. T. C. was elected president of the Association for 1932 at the final business meeting of the 1931 convention in Lynchburg. Mr. Joe Lacy of Hampden-Sydney was elected secretary and treasurer.

The organization is probably the strongest and most efficient of its kind in the country and bids fair to take the initiative in the founding of a permanent national organization, the plans being already under discussion.

It was founded four years ago this month here at Farmville by Miss Evelyn Dulaney, then editor of the Rotunda, and Alexander F. Hudgins, editor of the Hampden-Sydney Tiger.

The first meeting was held in February, 1928. The second was held at the University of Richmond, the third at Blacksburg and East Radford S. T. C., the fourth at Williamsburg, and the fifth at R. M. W. C. and Lynchburg College.

Established for the mutual benefit of the editors and business managers of college publications, the organization with each meeting has gained recognition throughout the country. Each time the meeting has been held, the delegations have been larger and the programs more interesting. The delegates to the sixth annual convention will probably exceed those of this year.

Ruffner Society Has a Program

A very enjoyable program was led by Hazel Halloway at the meeting of the Ruffner Literary Society on Nov. 14. The officers were especially pleased when the new members talked to them over a telephone which Hazel had prepared.

During her conversation over the telephone, Miss Barnes let it be known that she would be glad to act as adviser to the society.

MAHATMA GHANDI VISITS BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Clad in loincloth and shawl, Mahatma Ghandi has visited Buckingham Palace for tea with King George and Queen Mary. He bowed low to each in turn, shook hands with both, and had a five minute friendly talk with the King. After which he was served goat's milk.

"The King and Queen were most gracious," Ghandi commented upon leaving. Asked if the King had given him encouragement, the Mahatma exclaimed, "Only God gives encouragement, not Kings."

The outlook for the Indian Conference is not promising but Ghandi has refused a recent cabled request from the Indian Nationalists asking him to quit the conference.

MAY DAY THEMES ARE REQUESTED

The committee working on May Day is anxious to have all themes turned in before Dec. 1. A detailed plan or theme is not necessary, but a clear, comprehensive outline in brief form. Several students are already at work on themes, the best of which will be selected before Christmas. Two students may work on one theme if desired, and under classmen as well as upper classmen are asked to submit their themes.

The themes need not be entirely original but may be adapted from a poem, story, or play, for example, the theme of last year's May Day Festival was taken from Spenser's Fairie Queen.

Please put them in Ruth Floyd's senior mailbox.

Unusual Interest Shown In Choral Club Concert

Of more than ordinary interest is the concert to be given in the college auditorium, Thursday evening, November 19. This is the first concert sponsored by the newly formed Junior Choral Club and the attractions offered in this recital should prove of interest to all lovers of music.

Farmville Silver Band will present a program as the opening number of the concert. Much interest has been manifested recently in the band. Its members will appear in new white uniforms with gold braid.

The Senior Choral Club will present as one of its numbers a beautiful choral in Latin, (the original text), the soloist being Miss Irene Leake.

The Junior Choral Club will give two delightful numbers.

Major Tittmann"s program will be one of appealing interest to all, and his various groups are so diversified as to touch the different schools in music.

This concert should prove one of the best ever given in Farmville. A big audience is expected.

BIGGEST SEND-OFF IN HISTORY OF SCHOOL FOR VARSITY HOCKEY

One of the biggest send-offs in the history of S. T. C. was given the hockey varsity that left for Westhampton last Friday. Pep, school spirit, and enthusiasm were shown by the student body at pep meetings Thursday night, Friday morning after chapel and immediately before the bus left Farmville. The Seniors and Sophomores had a snake dance n the campus and through the buildings Thursday night. The Junior Class showed their spirit by getting a bus and leaving with the varsity to root for them in Richmond. All of this enthusiasm showed the varsity girls that the student body was back of them and they left for Westhampton determined to fight to the end for the blue and white of S. T. C.

DR. WALMSLEY GIVING CURRENT EVENTS TALKS

Dr. Walmsley is continuing his habit of the past few years of giving about 10 or 15 minutes at chaped time on Tuesday morning to current events. The talks are very interesting and they are appreciated by every member of the student body.

Press Association Holds Convention In Lynchburg

Awards Are Presented For the Best Publications of Last Year

LARGE DELEGATIONS PRESENT

With representatives from nearly every college and university and many prep schools in Virginia and a number from the District of Columbia, the fifth annual convention of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association met at Randolph-Macon Woman's College and Lynchburg College, Lynchburg, Virginia, November 13th and 14th.

With M. Waller Belcher, Jr., president, presiding, the convention began at 2:30 Friday, with an open meeting in the auditorium of Smith Memorial Building, R. M. W. C. Dr. N. A. Patillo, acting president of Randolph Macon Woman's College, and Dr. J. T. T. Hundley, president of Lynchburg College, welcomed the delegates. The minutes of the executive committee of the previous night were read and approved and the roll called by Miss Ann Hargrave, secretary of the Association. After the close of the meeting the delegates assembled on the steps of the porch for a group picture.

For the next two hours, the delegates divided themselves into their departments and were led in discussions by capable men. These conference groups, possibly the crux of the entire meeting, were continued Saturday morning for an hour and one-half.

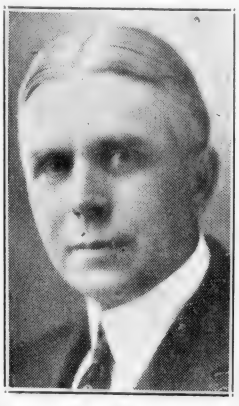
On Friday evening, the delegates to the convention were the guests at R. M. W. C. to an enjoyable banquet at which Powell Chapman, editor of the Roanoke Times was the principal speaker. He was introduced by Miss Ann Hargrave, toastmistress who presided at the manquet.

Over 150 delegates and guests were present at the banquet. The feature of this affair, other than the able address of Mr. Chapman, was the presentation of eight loving cups by the association to the winners in the different classes.

The cups are to remain the property of the Association and will be awarded each year. Any publication which wins the cup for three successive years is to obtain its possession, and the Association will place another one as an award for the following year.

The awards were received by representatives of the different publica-

Continued on last page



Early History of Math is Theme

The regular meeting of the Mathematics Club was held Monday, November 9 at five o'clock in Room 22. A very interesting program was presented dealing with the early history of mathematics. The program was as follows:

Description of Papyrus
Hildegarde Ross
Egyptian Math .. Mildred Lancaster
Rhine Papyrus ..... Doreen Smith
Bee as Mathematician, Evelyn Show
Fallacies in Math ..... M. Addleman
Cora Wormeldorf and Catherine Gannaway.

The Club voted to purchase a copy of the Rhine Papyrus. This consists of two volumes containing photographs and descriptions of the oldest mathematics treatise in existence.

DR. J. L. JARMAN

Our President, whom we wish the happiest of birthdays

Apprentices Give One-Act Play Before Dramatic Club

To provide for those girls who are interested in more than one phase of dramatic work, the dramatic club is divided into different departments. Girls who wish to try-out for the club apprentice in the department they are most interested in; they may work in two different departments. Thursday night seemingly marked a summary of what these departments have been doing since the new girls started at the beginning of the fall term; a one act play was presented on this night in which all the departments had a part. The make-up for the characters was taken care of by Ruth Ford, head of the make-up group, and her group of girls; the costumes were selected by Frances Ratcliffe and her costume group; and Miss Mary Thomas Rawls, had charge of lights and the staging was taken care of by Elizabeth Drewry and her group.

The play "A Community Picnic" was coached by Mary Shelton. This type of play was suitable for a great number of girls so it was very ad-

Continued on page three

FRESHMAN CLASS IS GETTING READY FOR THANKSGIVING GAMES

The Freshman Class is on its feet and is getting ready for the big fight on Thanksgiving. Tuesday night at the regular class meeting, Frances McDaniel and Sarah Beck were elected as cheer leaders. The freshman hockey team will have plenty of yelling to back them for both of these girls are quite competent. The class has lots of spirit and pep, and the other classes of the student body will will be surprised when they see how the freshmen enter into Thanksgiving. With their new cheer leaders and their spirit behind their team, they will surely have a big hand in helping to kep the green and white on top.

COMPANY REFUSED TO SELL LINDBERGH PLANE

Anthony Fokker admits that his company refused to sell Lindbergh a plane for the latter's now famous Paris flight because they were afraid to risk the good name of their ships with him.

Farmville Loses To Westhampton In Hockey Game

Farmville Plays Hard Game But Is Unable to Make Score

PLAYERS ARE EVENLY MATCHED

Although the hard fought battle between S. T. C.'s hockey team and Westhampton's did not bring S. T. C. the hoped-for victory and gave Westhampton the score 2-0, it was a good one to see and a well-played game. From start to finish, the team showed their fighting spirit, putting the best they had into the game and making the best of the odds that were against them.

For the first fifteen minutes the game was evenly contested, the ball staying in the center of the field most of the time. In the last few minutes of the first half, Westhampton took the ball down the field and Taliaferro shot the first goal. This roused the spirit of the Farmville team and they fought harder but were unable to score.

In the second half of the game, Farmville succeeded in getting the ball down to the goal several times but Westhampton's goal keeper was not to be passed. Again they made their way through Farmville's defence for another goal making the score 2-0 in their favor.

Farmville was defeated but was not crushed. The game was clean and hard fought from the beginning to the end.

The line-up was as follows:

Westhampton		Farmville
Canada	RW	Wheeler
Taliaferro	RT	Mattox
Lowe	CF	Snedegar
Williams	LI	Gunter
Saunders	LW	Crute
Fiske	R. H.	Ridgeway
Seay	CH	Edwards
Burns	LH	Souders
West	RF	Quisenberry
Crews	LF	Kello
Sanford	G	Berger

Substitutes for Westhampton, Lowe and Rucker, for Farmville, Massey and Foster. Umpire: Miss Wynn Roberts of William and Mary College

Freshman Com'n Elects Officers

The Freshman Commission on last Thursday evening elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

Chairman ..... Helen Smith
Secretary ..... Judith Taylor
Treasurer ..... Mary Hood
Reporter .... Burnley Brockenborough

The commission also made plans for the Japanese bazaar that is to be held on November 30 in the "rec". Watch for posters concerning this "big" event.

VIRGINIAN STAFF HOLDS CONTESTS

The Virginia staff is sponsoring a contest during this week. It will last until Friday night at six o'clock. The purpose of this contest is to get subscriptions for the annual. The class that gets the most subscriptions will receive in chapel Saturday morning a prize of three dollars. The class that get the next highest number of subscriptions will receive a prize of two dollars. The contest will be worked on the percentage basis for each class.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

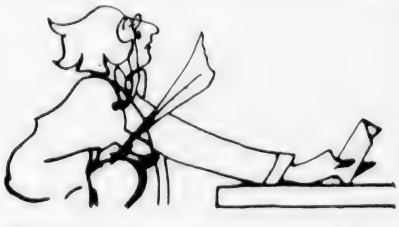
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS CARRIE B. TALIAFERRO

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting an dtreating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Happy Birthday

Should Alladin be here to rub on his magic lamp and give us one wish for tomorrow, that one wish would be: may Dr. J. L. Jarman have a happy birthday! This rings from seven hundred hearts here and elsewhere whose lives he has made richer and fuller.

As we pause before his birthday and realize something of what he means to us and to the college, we feel as we did last Christmas. How much we loved him we found out then when we thought we were about to lose him. We wondered where we would ever find another with lofty ideals, high standards, excellent administrative ability, a strong personality who would be a loyal friend and one whom we would all love. We stop now and think of it and are thankful that it was not necessary.

Looking forward to this and many more years with Dr. Jarman as our president, we wish him many happy returns of the day. Our token is a promise to try to live up to, to the best of our abilities, the standards he has set for us. Happy birthday!

OVER THE WEEK-END

Hello, Mary! Say, you look just a little whipped! Richmond? Tell me about it! I declare I never felt so sad in my life as I did this week-end! Not a soul left in school to play with and not a soul left at dear ole H. S. to have a date with! And I could have had the whole rec to myself! What a week-end!

Jane, you should have come to Richmond. Never had such a time since the twins were born and Aunt Harriet died! That game was a scream! What? Oh, I don't know much about what happened on the field, but the people! The world and his two dates were all there! And did I sit by the cute boy! Never saw him before in my life but he had the darlingest profile I ever saw! I had to pretend I was watching the game so I could kind of grab him when things got exciting! You know! So he asked me to the dance and was it swell! Made heaps of time. Oh, you should have seen the numbers who sat in front of us at the game. Five maidens of approximately thirteen summers apiece! And did they give my new man a big deal? I declare Jane they were the saddest five sisters I've ever seen, and to hear them call all the football stars by their nicknames, and to see them turn the wicked eye on my man you would have thought that Helen of Troy and her four next best bets were sitting in front of us! Then they'd eat peanuts and powder their noses—and put the heels in the hat of the man in front, and powder their noses and drink dopes and powder their noses. And to cap the climax they were rooting for the other side! When we'd holler they'd turn and glare and powder their noses. Yeah, it was a swell game. Jimmie was there with that blonde rival of mine, I believe she's beating my time. Did Powell play a good game? Oh, yeah, guess he did. You should have seen the hat Sarah wore. It looked like a bird's nest. Who did she go out with? Oh, that same one she usually goes with.

Oh, I almost forget to tell you Bob is going to take me to New York to see Army-Navy. He's crazy about football, too! We'll have a swell time, won't we. I just love this time of the year, just for football. That last game almost put me under. Let me get to bed.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

After a thorough investigation of Dean's List in colleges of both the North and South, Randolph-Macon has decided to adopt the plan.

The forward pass was introduced into southern football by Davidson College on October 13, 1906. At that time coaches saw in the new attack the only means of making short gains.

At the University of Berlin students pick their own professors. There are isx weeks before the semester officially opens in which students may study and analyze the various professors offering each course.

Gettysburg College has a very obliging dean. Upon returning to his car one night after a dance he found it occupied by an extremely self-enjoying couple. He decided to walk home rather than disturb them.

A new college racket from somewhere is that of "recitation insurance." By paying a premium of twenty-five cents, a student can collect as much as five dollars if he is called on by the professor.

"Hello, Farmville", we like your paper. Where do you get so much news? We certainly would like to attend your circus. Your original poetry is unsually good. eW expect to hear of such aspiring poets in later years. We are thinking of attending Farmville in a body, so many things going on.

Kalamazoo, Michigan, State Teachers College, holds "Matinee" dances every Wednesday afternoon from four to six o'clock. The college orchestra furnishes the music.

Parodying the many popular beauty contests, the Citadel boys are planning a political contest of interest in which the "ugliest man of the senior class" is to be decided, through the right of the vote by the cadets.—The Bull Dog.

Open Forum

Dear Editor:

What is rushing all about anyway? A very foolish practice at its best! Why does it have such a strange fascination for college girls? When off by myself, I would wonder and get provoked at the turbulent state of mind such refelctions throw me into. Somehow, I swell up with righteous resenetment against everybody.

Here we are, upper classmen at college; our main purpose is, or it should be, to prepare ourselves for the teaching profession. And our first step in that direction is to neglect our work in order to make ourselves attractive and desirable to freshmen! And what do most freshmen know about sororities when they first arrive at college? Their only associations with them usually are two or three letters of the Greek alphabet bound up with a jeweled pin.

This rushing business arouses amongst the old girls a very undesirable spirit of rivalry; a lack of fair play; a little spark that occasionally can grow into a blaze of caustic criticism. No one person is to blame. A situation such as this is almost unavoidable. "All's fair in love and war", would be an appropriate slogan for this strenuous period in the college girl"s life.

It all amounts to this: Some freshmen (shall we call them fortunate?) are rushed, flattered, scared, and begged into becoming a member of that group of girls whose appeal to them is strongest.

Why do we let this state of affairs run on and on, getting worse each year? It is a hardship on everyone—a hardship that could be done away with, to the detriment of nobody, and to the good of many.

—A Sorority Girl

ALUMNAE NEWS

Mrs. W. H. Newcomb, formerly Miss Janice Harper, was sixth grade teacher at Burkeville at the beginning of this session. She has resigned her position to move to Charlottesville, where Mr. Newcomb has a good position with the Virginia Public Service Company.

Miss Mary Ruth Winn is faculty adviser of the staff of "Pepergram," the school paper of the Culpeper High School which distributed its first issue this month. It is described as an unusually fine sheet.

A wedding of much interest both in Virginia and North Carolina was that of Miss Frances Cochran Sale, of Lexington, and Royster Lyle of Hampden-Sydney, which occurred on October 31 at the home of the bride. Mrs. Lyle did graduate work at Columbia University and has held important positions in kindergartens of Danville, Va., and New York. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle will make their home in North Carolina.

Miss Kate M. Hunt, member of the class of 1888, died at her home in Bristol, Tenn., on November 10. She was connected with the Training School (then called Model School) after her graduation. In 1895 she became president of the old Stonewall Jackson Institute at Abingdon, Va., a position which she held for twenty years. About fifteen years ago she resigned the presidency and went to Bristol to live.

In Bristol she had endeared herself to a large circle of freinds especially among the young people of that city. She was active in church work and was for several years the president of the business women's circle of the First Presbyterian church. She had also taken a leading part in the welfare work among the poor of Bristol and was a member of the local chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. She had led a very full and useful life.

VOCABULARY

Evelyn Hammett

God of riches
Be not niggardly—
Give me words for autumn.
Words proud and flaunting for red of oaks,
A tone of mellow opulence for gold of poplar.
Shape my lips to
Vigorous, stately syllables for towering pines
And some idiom full of ancient fragrance
For the spicey scene of their needles.
Grant me
A comfortable Saxon word for the wind that twists them,
Some Gallic accents gay and debonair
I need for the flutter and scurry of unanchored leaves.
More than all I crave
Mystic, worshipful phrases
For the vigorous death I see
That shall be joyous life.
Doner of gorgeousness crown the gift
Leave me not mute with autumn unexpressed.

LIFE'S DREAM

I dream that I shall wear
A fresh, clean dress
And hat of darkest blue.
I shall go with you
Across wide fields of ripening wheat,
In afternoons of sunny skies flecked with white clouds.
We'll visit with a friend.
You'll tell that wheat you tend—
Your wheat—is best of all you've seen, or that his is, (whichever fact may be).
The wife of your friend will teach me how to make a new lace edging.
Then we'll return.
Or, when lights burn,
We'll visit an aged widow.
I shall take her broth.
And she will tell us of her younger days—
Their gayety—and the thousand ways
That he who was the sweetheart of her youth
Was most excellent of men as husband to her.
And as we homeward go in early night,
When for a moment only the moon's light
Is hidden by a gray, small lonely cloud,
I'll kiss your honest forehead and your lips
And look into your eyes of clearest blue—
There never was more excellent man than you—,
Knowing that on the day when I was born
The gods in heaven smiled.

A. E. V., '35

IT DROPPED SO LOW IN MY REGARD

Emily Dickinson

It dropped so low in my regard
I heard it hit the ground
And go to pieces on the stones
At the bottom of my mind.

Yet blamed the fate that fractured, less
Than I reviled myself
For entertaining plated wares
Upon my silver shelf.

FAIRIES

I cannot see fairies
  I dream them.
There is no fairy can hide from me;
  I keep on dreaming 'till I find him;
There you are, Primrose! I see you, Black Wing.

WHEN YOU GO

When you go, a hush falls
  Over all my heart,
And in a trance of my own dreams
  I move apart.

When you go, the street grows
  Like a vacant place—
What if a million faces pass
  If not your face?

When you go, my life stops
  Like ships becalmed at sea,
And waits the breath from heaven that blows
  You back to me.

SOCIALS

The following girls spent the week-nd in Lynchburg: Mary Randall, ouise Woodson, Betsy Wilkinson, Nancy DeBerry, Jerry Lee, Kitty Waters, Margaret Barker and Janet Harris.

• • •

Those who attended the Roanoke College openings are: Lillian Hogan, Martha Cross, Kitty McLemore, Gaelle Ware, Margaret Banks, Mary Custis Burwell and Kitty Logan.

• • •

Virginia Thornhill, Ambler Lee, Polly McMurdo, Jenilee Knight and Margaret Gilmer attended the game in Charlottesville this week-end.

• • •

Virginia Lamb, Hazel Halloway, and Helen Rose Cunningham, spent the week-end in Petersburg.

• • •

Judith Hardy and Bernie May Love spent the week-end in Kenbridge.

• • •

Mary Easley Hill was in Pearisburg this week-end.

• • •

Mildred Lipscomb spent the week-end in Chase City.

• • •

Mary Howard, Kathryn Brown, Jane Show and Martha Reed spent the week-end in Roanoke.

• • •

Elizabeth Duke was at her home in Durham this week-end.

• • •

Ellen Jones spent the week-end in Ashland.

• • •

Carrie and Margaret DeShazo were at their home in Sutherland this week-end.

• • •

The following girls spent the week-end in Richmond: Katheryn Rogers, Mary K. Taylor, Iris Hart, Bessie Mae White, Mary Alice Young, Katherine Young, Mary Harrison, Patty Ellison, Alice and Grace Rowell, Mary Ellen Johnson, Frances Dorin, Nancy Burgwin, Alice McKay, Louise Van Lear, Nancy St. Clair, Evelyn Jones, A. J. Scott, Kitty Marchant, Helen Cover, Ann Davis, Burnley Brockenborough, Martha Sanders, Mary Shelton, Mamie Barns and Margaret Young.

• • •

Sara Hubbard spent the week-end in Wilson, N. C.

• • •

Frances Daughtry spent the week-end in Norfolk.

• • •

Those who spent the week-end in Lexington are: "Chick" Mosby, Margaret A. Moreland, Vernie Oden, and Dot Thomas.

• • •

Sue Yeaman spent the week-end in Martinsville.

• • •

Sarah Saunders was in Suffolk this week-end.

• • •

Ida Mason Miller was in Newport News this week-end.

COTILLION CLUB EXTENDS THANKS

The Cotillion Club wishes to thank Miss Mary and Dr. Jarman for their interest and cooperation in helping to make the fall dance one of the best, if not the best, dance that the Cotillion Club has staged at Farmville. Through the cooperation of Miss Mary and Dr. Jarman the dance will be in the Gymnasium rather than in the recreation hall.

JUNIOR CHORAL CLUB

JUNIOR SING IS A SPLENDID SUCCESS

A take-off on the Thanksgiving Day color rush between the Reds and Whites and the Greens and Whites was the chief theme of the Junior Class "Sing" of Saturday, November 14.

Sing was divided into three scenes. In the first scene, girls taking the roles of the most outstanding girls of the school were introduced by appropriate songs sung by a chorus of ten girls.

The girls introduced and their accompanying songs were:

1. Grace Virginia Woodhouse, "Our Fate Is in Your Hands."
2. Martha Kello, "Hello Kello."
3. Margaret Gathright, "Betty Co-ed."
4. Loeta Barham, "Ain't She Sweet?"
5. Henrietta Cornwell, "The Harmon Sisters."
6. Alice Moore and Julia Faris, "I Scream, You Scream."
7. Mrs. Blanton, "Just Emma and Me."
8. Frances Edwards, "Fifteen Rahs."

Scene II depicted the color rush at six o'clock in the Rotunda. A little humor was added to the situation when the over-zealous Reds and Whites, thinking they were playing a good joke on the Greens and Whites, by hiding their banners, hit their own instead. Not until it was decided that neither side had more and they had been told to get their banners did they realize their fatal mistake.

Scene III consisted of an idealistic hockey game danced to music. The fans in the bleachers cheered and sang before the game started; also between the halves. The climax came when the Greens and Whites won the hard fought game, thus gaining a happy ending to the day.

From every standpoint the sing put on by the Juniors was a big success.

MISS HAYNES GIVES TEA AT LONGWOOD

Miss Haynes entertained the members of the Farmville chapter of the National Council of Primary Education at a delightful tea given at Longwood, Thursday, Nov. 12.

The guests were shown to the back drawing room where Miss Haynes presided over the tea table. Delicious Longwood buns, sandwiches and tea were served.

The members of the factulty present were Miss Mix, Miss Henry, Miss Penny, and Miss Norris.

ARMISTICE DAY IS OBSERVED

Armistice day dawned clear and bright. Everyone who wished to hear a speech on "Armistice Day—Its Meaning"—had been invited to go to the lounge at seven o'clock that morning. Dr. Walmsley told us what the spirit of Armistice should be—how this had not been realized; what spirit seemed to pervade when one looked at the present Chino-Japanese conflict; and what spirit we hoped to see instilled in the future. A duet was sung after which we were dismissed by the motto.

ONE-ACT PLAY GIVEN BEFORE DRAMATIC CLUB

Continued from page one

mirable in Mary to choose such a play; it gave a number of the freshmen a chance to show their dramatic ability. Although it was not one of much action the girls played their parts well.

These plays, which are given during the year, are given before the Dramatic Club only. They are not only highly entertaining but beneficial also. After the performance is over, Miss Wheeler leads a free discussion of the weak and strong points of the production which is beneficial to all the departments of the Dramatic Club.

Pan-Hellenic wishes to announce the election of Miss Grace Mix as its new adviser.

The Freshman Commission is ready to serve you at all times in the cleaning business. Try them. Reasonable prices and efficient service!

Y. W. C. A.

WORLD WEEK OF PRAYER IS OBSERVED

The week of November 8 was considered as "World Week of Prayer". What a beautiful scene to gaze upon in our imagination—all nations meekly kneeling upon bended knee before their God.

In order that the Y. W. C. A. might observe this week of prayer, they had as the theme for prayers—prayer.

Monday, November 9
Leader ..... Easter Souders
Subject .. Prayer Expressed in Poetry
Tuesday, November 10
Leader ..... Carrie DeShazo
Subject .... Prayer Expressed in Art
Wednesday, November 11
Leader ..... Harriet Branch
Subject ..... Armistice Day
Thursday, November 12
Leader ..... Sue Yeaman
Subject .... Prayer Expressed in Song

A PAGEANT

We were given a glimpse into China—Chinese home life and customs—by the interesting and attractive pageant given on Friday night. It was a summary of Miss Wheeler's talks on China.

MISS SNEAD TALKS AT CABINET MEETING

The regular Y. W. C. A. Cabinet meeting was held on Wednesday, November 11 from 5 to 6 o'clock in the Cabinet room. Miss Snead, the librarian, who is greatly interested in Y. W. C. A. work, gave some interesting hints as to how a Y. W. C. A. library might be started. Miss Snead brought with her a wealth of material she had collected from time to time. Many of the things in her notebooks would be helpful to anyone connected with "Y" work or any work that would bring a person before others. Her talk stimulated the present cabinet to begin now a Y. W.

Continued on page four

Willis....Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Martin the Jeweler
Gifts of Lasting Remembrance
317 Main Street
Farmville, Virginia.

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Valuable News!
DOROTHY MAY STORES
Add New Department
Farmville's most beautiful store offers lovely new dresses of Jersey, Tweed, Knit and Wool Crepe. These dresses were originally sold at $488. Our tremendous buying power enable us to offer you these great savings. Come, see for yourself the marvelous value at $2.74

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE!
Your unrestricted choice of our $9.95 and $14.95 Dresses
Plenty of newest styles and colors to pick from. Charge it if you like $7.85
New sport Knit Dresses $2.95
Rull fashioned $1.00 hose Special, pair 50c
The Hub Department Store
FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

"We kept a cook for six whole weeks this year," said Mrs. Prim.

"We were cruising on a house-boat and Bridget couldn't swim."

"Did you take my advice and sleep with your window open?"

"Yes."

"And did you lose your cold?"

"No, I lost my watch and my pocket-book."

The price of fur coats is lower than last year, but a wife has to cry harder to get one!

Teacher: "How does it happen that your name is Allen and your mother's name is Brown?"

Small Boy: "Well, you see it's this way, she married again and I didn't."

Customer: "I see that you have just received two thousand hats from Paris."

Clerk: "Yes, madam."

Customer: "Good, I wish to try them on."

A social error (American style): Breaking the wrong law.

Prof.: "What do you know about nitrates?"

Jerry: "Well, night rates are cheaper than day rates."

"Well, are you in college for good now?"

"No, I'm in a sorority."

"Who was that blonde you were out with Wednesday and Thursday?"

"She's the brunette I was out with Monday and Tuesday."

Frosh: "I ain't never made but one grammatical error and soon as I seen I done it, I taken it back".

"Are sheep the dumbest animals on earth?"

"Yes, my lamb."

H. S. C.: "What time shall I come?"

S. T. C.: "Oh, anywhere between 7:45 and a quarter to eight."

Here's to the girls—the young ones—
Not too young,
For the good die young
And nobody wants a dead one.
Here's to the girls—the old ones—
But not too old
For the old dye, too,
And nobody wants a dyed one.

"Can't you see that sign? You must be blind!"

"Nope, I got signus trouble."

He: "If you do not guess in three guesses who this is, I'm going to kiss you."

She (with her eyes covered): "Jack Oakie, Herbert Hoover, King George."

Teacher: "What's a geyser?"

Pupil: "It's a waterfall going up."

Lecturer: "I'm a very good mind-reader."

Bored Listener: "In that case I'd like to apologize."

Friend: "Why do you call your wife Peg?"

Married Man: "Short for Pegasus."

Friend: "Oh, the immortal steed."

Married Man: "Yeh, the everlasting nag."

ALICE MOORE ELECTED CHEER LEADER FOR YEAR

Three cheers for A. Moore! At a call meeting of the student body, Alice was unanimously elected varsity cheer leader. She has shown much pep, spirit and ability during the past two years at S. T. C. and we know that she will be excellent. Girls, let's support her and make the school spirit at S. T. C. during the coming year the best ever.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT IS NOW IN PROGRESS

The tennis tournament is in progress. Don't forget that it is a part of the fight for the color cup, so come out,and support your colors. Practically the first round of the tournament is over so just a little while, and it will be time for the final match. Come on out.

MISS SNEAD TALKS AT CABINET MEETING

Continued from page three

C. A. library with the hope that future cabinets will keep it up by supplying current literature and thought.

Miss Snead, herself, once taught in a mission school in Egypt. She related interesting incidents wherein her own individual library of juice-meal composition aided her. The same might help anybody.

PRESS ASSOCIATION MEET IN LYNCHBURG

(Continued From Page 1)

tions and are as follows:

Class "A" Newspapers: "The Virginia Tech," first place; The William and Mary "Flat Hat," honorable mention. Class "B" Newspapers: The Radford S. T. C. "Grapurchat," first place; the Mary Baldwin "Campus Comments," honorable mention. Class "C" Newspapers: The Virginia Episcopal School "Mentor," first place; The "Intermont Cauldron", honorable mention.

Class "A" Annuals: "The Helianthus" of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, first place; "The Calyx" of Washington and Lee University, honorable mention. Class "B" Annuals: "The Blue Stocking" of Mary Baldwin, first place; "The Briar Patch" of Sweet Briar, honorable mention. Class "C" Annuals: "The Sampler" of Sullins College, first place; "The Intermont" of Intermont College, honorable mention.

Magazines: "The Hampden-Sydney Magazine," first place; "The Cargoes" of Hollins College, honorable mention.

Comic Publications: The V. P. I. "Skipper," first place; the Randolph-Macon Woman's College "Old Maid", honorable mention.

Following the banquet, the entire delegation were taken on a feature "Surprise Party" into the mountains where eats and other interesting affairs were presented.

The convention closed Saturday morning with a business session in the auditorium of the Smith Memorial Building, R. M. W. C.

Arrangements were made for delegates wishing to attend the V. P. I.-Virginia game in Charlottesville, Va.

1,000 HOBOES CELEBRATE OPENING OF A COLLEGE

New York, Nov. 1—The hoboes are going to college. More than 1,000 of them gathered today to celebrate the opening of the Hoboes' College, where classes start tomorrow.

James Shannon, founder of the Chicago Hoboes' College, and other speakers demanded a Federal old-age pension next Saturday to support such legislation.

The Glee Club of Randolph-Macon Woman's College has been organized this year with fifty-three members.

CLASS SQUADS ARE CHOSEN

Thanksgiving will soon be here! The classes are practicing hard and the games promise to be good. The following girls will represent your class:

Seniors

Boswell, Ethel
Clayton, Louise
Clingenpeel, Nell
Edwards, Frances
Fultz, Virginia
Halloway, Hazel
Hundley, Kathleen
Quisenberry, Cleo
Scott, A. J.
Shaner, Nancy
Souders, Easter

Juniors

Boggs, Lady
Boush, Laurie
Cox, Lois
Crute, Lucille
Downs, Mae
Gilliam, Hattie
Gregory, Mary
Gunter, Martha
McDaniel, Rachel
Massey, Marguerite
Moore, Alice
Quaintance, Duvahl
Ross, Hildegarde
Scales, M. E.
Snedegar, Dorothy
Walthall, Elizabeth

Sophomores

Allen, Helen
Burger, Elizabeth
Cooper, Nannie Ruth
Crews, Edith
Dickenson, Nell
Foster, Alma
Fraser, Mary Burgess
Gwaltney, Mildred
Horton, Frances
Jones, Estelle
Kello, Martha
Pratt, Grayson
Quarles, Velma
Sugden, Gertrude
Wright, Ruth
Yeaman, Sue

Freshmen

Allegree, Isabelle
Anthony, Annie
Beard, Margaret
Beck, Sarah
Burnop, Elizabeth
Davis, Dorothy
Davis, Katherine
Epperly, Mildred
Guy, Virginia
McDaniel, Frances
Mattox, Audrey
Mattox, Clentis
Mattox, Lelia
Mustard, Mary
Pugh, Winifred
Putney, Martha
Rhodes, Maude
Sawyer, Alva
Showell, Elizabeth
Sinclair, Georgianna
Thompson, Elizabeth
Wheeler, Elizabeth

In the future there will be no stags at dances of the Kansas City College. This step was decided upon so that the programs could be employed and thus give the co-eds a greater opportunity for popularity.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM NOV. 18 TO 24

WED.—"THE SPIDER" with EDMUND LOWE and LOIS MORAN. Here is one of the most expensively produced pictures to date, with lavish settings as the background for a most interesting and dramatic story of a magician and hypnotist who endeavors to solve a murder mystery by the aid of hynotism. Could she trust him or was his love another trick? Out of a misty past he led her—to happiness—or to terror? Mystery that takes your breath. Love that stirs your heart. Also Travelogue and Dogville Comedy. Don't miss this one.

THURS. and FRI.—EDDIE CANTOR in "PALMY DAYS", supported by CHARLOTTE GREENWOOD. A sensation you have been waiting for. The picture that is better than "Whoopee." Here's an overflowing dose of Eddie Cantor's magic potion, glamorous, glittering, colorful, witty, dramatic, spectacular and stupendous screen smash that sets a new record in entertainment and puts comedy in the highest niche ever attained. Here you will see the most beautiful girls ever assembled in one picture. You will hear songs that you will hum for months, such as "Yes, Yes," and "Bend Down Sister." No picture of recent years has created the sensation of "Palmy Days". Cantor at his best, with Charlotte Greenwood a close second; gorgeous girls, catchy music and packed with comedy that will keep you howling with glee. Absolutely this picture has everything and you must see it to be up-to-date. And remember—No advance in prices! Also a unique short, "Fisherman's Paradise" and a Dogville Comedy. Altogether a great show.

SAT.—"THE SQUAW MAN" with WARNER BAXTER and LUPE VALEZ and great cast. The talking screen now reveals its mightiest spectacular drama. Months in the making; an unparalleled cast; the ultimate effort of Cecil DeMille, who blends the exotic adventures of a society gone, thrill mad with the exciting career of a handsome gentleman alone in a world of primitive, fighting pioneer people. Two women loved him—one in silks and satins—the other clothed in savage lure and beauty. The finest picture DeMille has ever made. A breath-taking entertainment awaits you. Also Screen Song and Fox News.

NEXT MON. & TUES. — "THE YELLOW TICKET" with LIONEL BARRYMORE and ELISSA LANDI. Only a woman can really know the anguish, the heartsick futility, the deep love of this girl who takes a yellow ticket as a passport of freedom, and finds herself enslaved to it forever. Only women can appreciate the romance which grew from this ugly menace into a thing of beauty. The tingling romance of a framed girl saved only by the courage of an overwhelming love. Your best friends will be telling you about it. You'll be gripping your seat in sympathy for this boy and girl who are fighting to be free. Barrymore is simply great as the wolf-like despot and Landi does her best work as to date as the girl who defied him. Better not bring the children to see this. Also Charlie Chase Comedy and Paramount News.

"The Mystery Trooper" every Friday.

Matinees Daily at 4 o'clock. Evenings at 8 o'clock.

Haverford College students have been given permission to ice skate on Sundays again this year.

For Thanksgiving's

DRESSY OCCASIONS

A NEW LOT, JUST ARRIVED, OF

$7.88 GOWNS

Including adorable evening dresses and "Speakeasy" frocks.

New dresses for sports and street wear, which our buyer selected in New York this week, have arrived and are now on display, at $2.88 and $4.88.

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

"Authority in Styles"

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 25, 1931 No. 9

Mr. Harry Rimmer Speaks in Farmv'le

Presbyterian Church Services Atended By A Very Large Crowd

WELL VERSED IN SCIENCE

Mr. Harry Rimmer, well known scientist and evangelist, spoke to a very large congregation including town people and students from S. T. C. and H. S. C. at the Farmville Presbyterian church Sunday night, November 22 at the evening service.

Mr. Rimmer spoke on "Modern Science, Jonah and the Whale." His lecture was interesting, scientific, and inspiring. He brought out the fact that Jonah, aside from his unsual experience with the fish of the deep, was the first foreign missionary.

Mr. Rimmer is forty-two years old. In the spring of his senior year at a medical school he became converted, and at once dropped his medical studies and went to work as an evangelist. He was for many years a pastor, but is in such demand as an evangelist, that he gave up pastoral work. He cannot begin to meet the engagements that are requested. He conducts services all over the United States and Canada.

Mr. Rimmer has kept up his biological studies ever since he left medical school. He has his own laboratories, where he conducts investigations during his rest period. He has also done a good deal of work in Archeology. He is not only a great student of the Bible, but he speaks as one well versed in modern science.

MEN STUDENTS AT WILLIAM AND MARY ARE SELF SUPPORTING

Twenty per cent of the men's student body at William and Mary is partially or wholly self-supporting, according to reports from the president's office. Students work as dining hall waiters, student laboratory assistants, library assistants, dormitory officers, and do jobs like window cleaning, news writing, student coaching, clerking of all storts, part time stenographers work, hair cutting working in service stations, lawn mowing, selling papers, tending furnaces, and waiting in private dining halls.

TREES OF HONOR TO BE PLANTED IN MEMORY OF GEO. WASHINGTON

As part of the tribute to be paid to George Washington next year on the occasion of the bicentennial of his birth, 10,000,000 trees will be planted. The project, which is under the direction of the American Tree Association, is already under way. Individual clubs, colleges, and schools, cities, counties, and the states are cooperating to establish George Washington forests, memorial roadways and memorial trees.

LIBRARY TO BE OPEN ONLY ONE HOUR

Due to the fact that exams are near and everyone seems too busy to come to the reading room on Sunday afternoon, the reading room of the library will be kept open only one hour. The Monogram Club has been doing this for the benefit of the whole student body. Anyone who wishes to read on Sunday afternoon, come from two to three instead of from two to four as formerly.

RULES FOR THANKSGIVING

1.—Five places to hang banners.

a. Student Building.
b. White House Hall
c. Main
d. Library Hall
e. Senior Building.

2—Banners are to be the only decoration.

a. No paint.

b. No paper thrown at random

3—Must not pour water on the floor.

4.—No one in sorority rooms or on colonnade.

5.—Must be in a room between 5:30 and 6:00 o'clock.

Unusual Interest Shown in New Dramatic Club Play

Unusual interest is already being shown by our students concerning the fall play. This play, "Enter Madame" has already been announced for December 4, 1931; it is given with the Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs. Since this play is one which represents both colleges, an unusually large audience will be present.

Gilda Varesi and Dolly Bryne, who are the authors of this famed play, "Enter Madame" have demonstrated an overwhelming contrast of the artistic and scientific minds in marriage.

With Joe Perry as the husband and Nancy Burgwyn as the madame we know the play will be good. These two leading characters are supported by a strong cast made up of proven talent such as, Margaret Banks, Jenilee Knight, Sallie Russell and Helen Warren.

Most all of our students have seen these girls in previous plays, so they know what dramatic ability they have. Hampden-Sydney has good talent represented, too.

Both dramatic clubs are doing their best to make this play a big success. The club at S. T. C. has done so many worthwhile things for the school that each student should feel it her duty to see this or any other dramatic club production. Last year they gave the beautiful curtain for the stage and also the new lighting system.

EDUCATION ASSOCIATION MEETS IN RICHMOND

The twenty-sixth annual Convention of the members of the Virginia Education Association is meeting in Richmond this week.

Registrations are rapidly being made at the headquarters in the John Marshall high school with several hundred early comers listed in advance of the main gathering which began today at the conclusion of the meeting of the rural supervisors, superintendents and trustees.

The first general meeting will be tonight at 8 P. M. in the John Marshall high school with Dr. Sidney B. Hall, state superintendent of public instruction, and Dr. Hollis L. Caswell of George Peabody College as the speakers.

Dr. Jarman and many of the faculty members of S. T. C. are attending the convention.

First Appearance Of the Junior Club

Farmville Silver Band Is An Added Attraction Taking Part in Program

MAJOR TITTMANN RETURNS

In its initial performance of the year the Junior Choral Club appeared Thursday evening, November 19, with the Farmville Silver Band offering Major Charles Trowbridge Tittmann as the guest artist. Mr. Tittmann is known to Farmville residents and students, having sung in this auditorium before on similar occasions.

Beginning with two of Schubert's loved and lovely compositions Mr. Tittmann delighted his audience with "My Abode" and "Who Is Sylvia?". This was followed by a recitative and an aria, the deep, mellow, vibrant notes of which made Mr. Tittmann's listeners wonder to what depths he could go.

"The Cowboy's Requiem," the "Kerry Dance," and "The Lass With the Delicate Air", receiving much applause gave evidence of the versatility of our guest.

In the last group we felt that plaintive rhythm of the negro spirituals in "Uncle Rome," "Were You There?" and "Hard Trials". In response to the applause Mr. Tittmann sang "The Old Ark's A-Moverin'."

Under the direction of Mr. Strick the Farmville Band offered six selections, all of which were done in perfect rhythmical form. Of particular interest was the trombone solo, by Mr. McNamee, accompanied by the band. Throughout their entire program there was harmonious blending of the instruments.

Following was a group by the Junior Choral Club. When the curtain rose the second time, there was displayed a bevy of girls in pastel shades giving the same delicate softness of shading portrayed in the colors of the dresses themselves.

In complement to the program was the Senior Choral Club. The presentation of the imitation of the Catholic Mass was effectively and uniquely given in Panis Angelicus. Done in the original the choral was beautifully phrased and gracefully toned. The sombre black and white of the robes was made radiant by an organ accompaniment.

The Choral Clubs gave evidence of thorough training under Mr. Strick, whose perfect accompaniments were delightful.

As a surprise to Dr. Jarman and most of the audience a lovely grandfather's clock was presented to Dr Jarman. The clock was a gift from the Choral Clubs and from friends in town.

SENIORS WIN IN THE VIRGINIAN CONTEST

To get more subscriptions for the annual, the Virginian staff sponsored a contest, which lasted all last week. This contest was worked on the percentage basis for each class.

Mr. McCorkle awarded the prizes in chapel Saturday morning. The first prize, three dollars, was won by the Seniors; sixty-one per cent of their class have subscribed. The Juniors own the second prize of two dollars; a large percentage of their class are subscribers.

SENIOR CLASSMAN

MISS VIRGINIA BEDFORD

Seniors Present Miss Bedford in Chapel Saturday

In a dignified and fitting manner, the Senior Class presented Miss Bedford, their classman, to the students of S. T. C. Through the four years of their college life, the class of '32 has been wisely guided by Miss Bedford. Never has she lacked for any suggestion; never has she ceased being a friend to each member of the class.

Ruth Hunt and Henrietta Cornwell wrote the class song, which was sung by the entire class. After the song, the Seniors stood with caps off, Henrietta Cornwell, class president, in well chosen words, presented Miss Bedford to the students. The class then sang a beautiful song to Miss Bedford; Martha von Schilling wrote the words to this song and Hanna Crawley wrote the music.

Henrietta Cornwell's words, "And now, we the Senior Class, present Miss Bedford for the fourth and last time . . . ," stirred a sad chord in each member's heart.

"So now let our love and our true praises rest, Forever, Miss Bedford, with you."

DEAN WRITES ARTICLE IN DEFENSE OF YOUTH

"So far as capacity and seriousness are concerned, our young men are by no means in a class inferior to their fathers", declared Dean Herbert E. Hawks in an article in the editorial section of the Herald Tribune recently. The Dean defended the college student of today from the accusations concerning drinking and lack of studiousness and of college spirit, which are continually launched at him by members of the older generation.

The Dean said that those who criticize the present generation forget their own youth too easily, and that it is the immaturity of many of the undergraduates which, being conspicuous, strikes the observer first. This, however, presents only the least serious and least significant aspect of their make-up. The inability of youth in many cases to think constructively is traceable, he held to the indifference which is so common in the world around them and in their own homes.

Thanksgiving Day Plans Are Made

Committees Work On Athletic Program and Y. W. C. A. Service

ALUMNAE TO RETURN

Thanksgiving at S. T. C. this year promises to be a bigger day than ever before. For several weeks secret committees from each class have been working on banners for the color rush. The Y. W. and Freshman Commission are planning their part of the program a little differently this year. The Freshman Commission extends the following invitation:

The Freshman Commission extends to anyone who may wish to come, an invitation to come to the rec on Thanksgiving afternoon from 4 to 6 to dance.

The hockey games promise to be very exciting as the teams are well matched. The result of these games is always the climax of Thanksgiving day.

After the games, everyone is sure to enjoy the turkey dinner.

The alumnae hockey team will match a team of the college girls in the afternoon. It will be good to see the old hockey players again on the athletic field.

The program for the day is as follows:

6:00 A. M.—Color Rush.
7:00 A. M.—Morning Watch.
9:00 A. M. Class Hockey Games.
1:00 P. M.—Turkey dinner.
2:30 P. M.—Alumnae Hockey.
4:00 P. M.—Freshman Commission entertainment.

AMERICAN SCULPTOR AND WIFE ARRIVE TO SCULPTOR PERSHING

George Fite Waters, noted American sculptor, accompanied by his wife, arrived recently on the French Line steamer De Grasse to discharge commissions for sculpturing from life General John J. Pershing, whose name is ineradicably graven in the American hearts. Ambassador Paul Claudel, who so ably represents France in the United States and is known throughout the world as a great poet, will also sit for Mr. Waters.

This famous artist studied under Rodin and comes to America for the first time in 15 years.

WORLD'S LARGEST CITY IS RULED ENTIRELY BY TAMMANY HALL

Tammany rules the roost in New York more completely than ever. Joseph Clark Baldwin, III, has the distinction of being the only Republican in the Board of Aldermen, legislative body of the nation's largest city. As "The Minority" Baldwin will sit on every committee; but unless a Tammany man accidentally says "second the motion," no Republican motion can ever be put to a vote.

VARSITY DEBATE TRY-OUTS TO BE HELD

Try-outs for the Varsity Debating team will be held December 14. The National Pi Kappa Delta question which is resolved "that Congress should enact legislation providing for centralizing control of industry (constitutionality waived)" will be the question for try-outs. Excellent material on this subject may be obtained in the library. Any member of the Debate Club, old or new, is eligible for try-outs. Each contestant is expected to present a well organized speech of about five minutes on the above subject.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

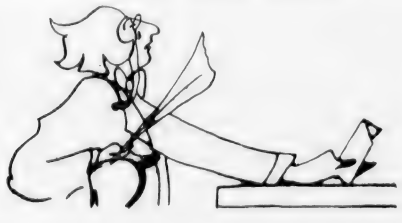
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Give Thanks

Not exactly as our forefathers three hundred years ago did do we celebrate Thanksgiving. It has came to mean trips, football games, hockey games, social events. Do we stop in our enjoyment and think what Thanksgiving Day means? Most of us do, if only for a few minutes before we go to sleep. All of us should. Would we not all say with one of our student poets:

Lord, we thank Thee
For hushed hazy days with the smoke of burning leaves in the air;
For the breath-taking joy that comes when hundreds of birds, suddenly startled, take to the skies;
For good food, comfortable clothes, places of rest;
For books to read, things to learn about;
For knowledge, with its attendant reticence of spirit;
For the feeling of exhiliration that comes after real accomplishment;
For the satisfaction resulting from doing our best;
For good fellowship among wholesome people;
For the noble sentiment of being true to our colors;
For our highest conception of loyalty, faithfulness, truth, beauty, devotion, love;
For our harmoniously complementing body, mind, and soul;
For the exaltation that comes of realizing that God is good;
And for the peace that passeth all understanding,
We thank Thee Amen.

COTILLION

We went to the annual affair
All the girls and their "best" were there
The old trombone and the saxaphone
Were making a awful blare
A receiving line was there
They greeted every pair
And then to the gymn in its gala trim
Of dancing to have a share.

Fall Cotillion comes but once a year—but its good enough to last over—of course there's Spring Cotillion, but it just isn't Fall Cotillion.

The most fun is watching the crowd come—and it quickly fills both town and dance hall. Why its only after you can hardly get from one couple to another that the dance is really on.

From Fall to Fall every true Farmvilleite lives for Fall Cotillion. Why? To dance? Of course! To see old girls come back? That's almost half of it! To see the boy friends? Well, yes. Revenge! Thats' it! Revenge! You see the girls ask the boys and do all the breaking. Good ole revenge! And the boys have such a good time and everything and everybody looks so good they don't even know we're getting revenge!

Take Ben Franklin, for instance, has he given me a single "comp" to H.-S. football games? No! He gave them all to Nancy Burgwyn. So I just didn't dance with him—but Nancy made up for me so he didn't know the difference, but just the same, I've had my revenge, see?

And take all those V. P. I. boys. They never asked me up to their school, so I just danced with them once apiece. Got them real interested and didn't go back, see?

And then there are your bids that you have to look out for. It's a great game!

As far as I can see there's only one drawback. Your best friend always has somebody you just have to be nice to—and usually he's the one boy on the floor you can't follow, or something like that!

This year, though, everything was chicken! Everybody says it is the best one they've ever been to and I guess they're right. We all wish they came oftener and lasted longer.

WORLD NEWS

University Expert Says Turkey Is Native North American Bird

If you were to ask the first person you met where the turkey originated he would say, "That's easy. They are from Turkey." Many of the so-called experts used to think the same thing.

As a matter of fact the ancestors of the bird being raised today never saw Turkey.

The bird you will carve on your Thanksgiving table is American through and through. His or her forbears ran wild throughout most of North America from Central America to Canada, and as far west of the Rocky Mountains. When Columbus landed in 1492 the chances are that turkeys were on hand to greet him.

There is no record that Columbus carried any turkeys back to Europe with him and it is likely that none were taken till fifty years later when the King of France ordered some of these strange birds prepared for his wedding feast. Elizabeth ate so much that she became ill, like so many after her.

The wild turkey was so abundant in the east that the Indians did not try to domesticate them. The Mexicans were the first people to do that.

Cabot, the English navigator is credited with introducing them into England, and for many years the English claimed to have introduced the turkeys into America, because historians record that some of the English domesticated birds were taken to this country by the early settlers from England.

But the fact of the matter is that the turkey is a native American bird and has been from the beginning.

Modistes Give Impish Names to the Latest Fashion Creations

Chicago, Nov. 22—Paris modistes are naming their creations this season, and there is no need for alarm if a feminine prohibitionist should say:

"I simply adore 'whisky'."

She would not be expressing liberal views, but venting enthusiasm over a

Continued on page four

Open Forum

Dear Editor:

Wasn't that a grand send-off we gave the varsity when they played Westhampton? Haven't we the right spirit though? Gee, but I think this old school is swell! Everybody backs everything that anybody in the student body takes part in.

We are loyal to our individual class colors but not above the good old blue and white. Aren't we going to have a good time tomorrow? Everbody will be backing her own class but not one will raise a big rumpus if her class does not win. There's a spirit here that says, "Let the best team win." There's a something that whispers, "Make your goal or ideal a high one and do your best. If someone else does, better recognize the fact. Let that success be a comfort to you in that your ideal can be nearly reached."

It is so fine here. I simply have to tell just how much I think of S. T. C. and how much I like being here.

A Senior

We are all weary of depression to say nothing of Manchurian upheavals versus the League of Nations, so let us turn to a more elevating diversion.

Very few of us could be blessed with the opportunity of taking every course this noble institution has to offer since there is some limit to our youth and finances; however, there is one exception which we, as teachers, should make. It would seen a pity to have us leave our Alma Mater without having spent some time in the pursuit of the fair Muse which holds with her hands Architecture, Sculpture and Painting. Life for us in later years shall be so much richer and fuller if we have some knowledge and appreciation of Art. Where ere we turn and where ere we go we shall be confronted with the three phases of art, and certainly we shall desire to have eyes which can see and appreciate, be it the Ionic order of Green columns, Myron's Discobolus or Ver Meer's skillful treatment of light on blank walls. Again let me say that we as teachers should have some knowledge of art so as to instill appreciation into the future generation as well as enrich our own lives.

CULEPER ORGANIZES ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

Farmville College Graduates Decide on Objective

Culpeper, Va., Nov. 18—Culpeper Alumnae Association of Farmville State Teachers College was organized at a dinner meeting held at the Fair Grounds Inn, Monday, November 16, and will have for its major objective a student loan scholarship to that college. Dr. Joseph L. Jarman, president of the Teachers College, Farmville, was present, as also were Miss C. B. Taliaferro, president of the Central Alumnae Association; Miss Mary White Cox, dean of women; Miss Jennie M. Tabb, registrar, and Miss W. V. Hiner, treasurer of the college, all of whom made informal talks and assisted with forming the new organization.

Officers elected were: Miss Ruth Campbell, president; Miss Virginia Tinsley, vice-president; Miss Ann Minter, secretary, and Mrs. Grace Freeman Huffman, treasurer. The chapter will have a membership of twenty-five or thirty. Those present for the organization, in addition to the officers mentioned, were: Miss Alma Garlick, Miss Sarah Dinwiddie, Miss Mary George Bolen, Miss Kate Perry, Mrs. Lucile Holton Williams, Miss Pearl Aylor, Miss Lucy Rogers Armstrong, Mrs. Mary Gilkeson Coleman, Mrs. Ruth Creecy Lloyd, Miss Madeline Hill, Mrs. Mildred Potts Albright.—Richmond Times-Dispatch

Eight undergraduates at Columbia university protest murder of King's English in classroom by 26 professors. One professor is accused of using "don't" for doesn't" 17 times in one lecture.

CEZANNE

Our door was shut to the noon-day heat.
We could not see him.
We might not have heard him, either resting, dozing, dreaming pleasantly.
But his step is tremendous—
Are mountains on the march?

He was no man who passed.
But a great faithful horse dragging a load
Up the hill.

SILENCE

O many and vain, Beloved
The words I spoke to you
In those first wondering hours
When love was new!

Now we have wandered together
Into a mystic land,
Now we are silent, Beloved,
Because we understand.

Rittenhouse

LET IT BE FORGOTTEN

Let it be forgotten, as a flower is forgotten,
Forgotten as a fire that once was singing gold,
Let it be forgotten for ever and ever,
Time is a kind friend, he will make us old.

If anyone asks, say it was forgotten
Long years ago,
As a flower, as a fire, as a hushed footfall
In a long forgotten snow.

THE COIN

Into my heart's treasury
I slipped a coin
That time cannot take
Nor a thief purloin,—
Ah better than the minting
Of a gold crowned king
Is the safe kept memory
Of a lovely thing.

COMPENSATION

Sara Teasdale

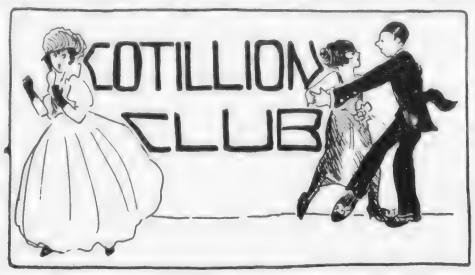
I should be glad of loneliness,
And hours that go on broken wing,
A thirsty body, a tired heart,
And the unchanging ache of things,
If I could make a single song
As lovely and as full of light,
As hushed and brief as a falling star
On a winter night.

BEAUTY AND TRUTH

I died for beauty, but was scarce
Adjusted in the tomb,
When one who died for truth was lain
In an adjoining room.

He questioned softly why I failed?
"For beauty," I replied
"And I forth Truth—the two are one;
We brethren are," he said.

And so, as kinsmen met a night,
We talked between the rooms,
Until the moss had reached our lips
And covered up our names.



I SHALL NOT CARE

When I am dead and over me bright April
Shakes out her rain-drenched hair,
Though you should lean above me broken-hearted
I shall not care.
I shall not have peace, as leafy trees are peaceful
When rain bends down the bough;
And I shall be more silent and cold—
Than you are now.

WORDS

I am the still rain falling,
Too tired for singing mirth—
Oh, be the green fields calling,
Oh, be for me the earth!

I am the brown bird pining,
To leave the nest and fly—
Oh, be the fresh cloud shining,
Oh, be for me the sky!

Fall Dance Given in College Gymnasium Last Saturday Night Is Great Success

The Cotillion Club held its annual Fall dance in the College gymnasium last Saturday night, the music being furnished by George Walker and his Atlantic University Orchestra. IIt was Atlantic University Orchestra. It was in the college and their guests and members of the faculty, administration, old Cotillion club members and their guests.

The dance, being somewhat formal, varied from preceding ones. A reception line composed of Miss Mary Whie Cox, Mrs. Warren, Mr. Graham, Helen Cover, Martha Sanders, Martha Walters, and Gazelle Ware, received the guests. Mr.s Laing, Miss Camper, and Miss Nichols presided at the punch bowls. The gym, in which the dance was held because of the smallness of the recreation hall, was beautifully decorated. The dance was one of the most brilliant affairs of its kind ever given here. Its success was acclaimed by all who attended.

Among the old Cotillion Club members who returned for the dance were:

Martha Ann Laing
Elaine Goode
Martha Faris
Elizabeth Antrim
Elizabeth Munn
Jane Grey Irby
Kitty Downing
Katherine Nichols
Imogene Gibson
Peggy Barham
Margaret Hubbard
Mary Trimyer
Dot Goodloe
Dot Ritchie
Rena Robertson
Virginia Witt
Eleanor Zacharias
Evelyn Dulaney
Jane Brown
Phyllis Wood
Charline Williams
Clara Giles
Kathleen Giles
Jacque Lee
Mary Farrier
Elizabeth Ferrell
Eleanor Hogan
Frances Hanmer
Virginia Cogbill
Louise Ellis
Ella S. Clore
Mary B. Parker
Tiny Myers
Ruth Carney
Virginia Ford
Leola Carter
Alice Hardaway
Grace Tritton
Mildred Jackson
Anne Oakey
Jessie Smith
Dorothy Henderson
Frances Hutchins
Courtney Neale
Lucy Dortch
Arianna Green
Mildred F. Elmore
Kitty Hatch
Alice Wimbish
Alice Steidtmann
Martha Moore
Dot Palmore
Louise Munt
Sara Wills
Margaret Loving
Alma Garlick
Ann Minter
Mary Tucker
Colleen Maddrey
May Beaty
Virginia Goode
Margaret Pumphrey
Elizabeth Rivercomb
Allie Kae Libby
Hazel Burgwyn
Helen Robertson
Yancie Brooking
Virginia Gurley
Virginia Cobb
Elizabeth Scott
Barbara Willcox
Dot Tucker
Kathleen Lanier
Martha Lanier
Mary Bernard
Elizabeth Williams
Mabel Putney
Amelia Irby
Toodles Booth

PI KAPPA SIGMAS HAVE BANQUET AT LONGWOOD

The Pi Kappa Sigma Sorority pledge banquet was held at Longwood on Saturday, November 21, at 6:30 p. m. The banquet room was decorated with yellow roses and chrysanthemums. The guests present were Mrs. Thompson, Miss Mix, Miss Iler and the members.

Alumnae who returned for the banquet were Blanche Murrell, Dot Anderson, Yancie Broking, Hazel Burgwyn, Frances Hamner, Virginia Gurley, Virginia Cogbill, Mary Trymyer, Dot Goodloe, and Dot Ritchie.

FRESHMEN COMMISSION PRESENTS SING

Since the presentation of real vaudeville is such an expensive proposition—especially during this depression—the old and new Freshman Commission offered one free of charge to the student body at Sing Saturday night.

The ticket girl, Lorrena Bland, and the S. T. C. girls, Helen Rose Cunningham and Martha Kello were much infatuated by the Hampden-Sydney rats, Dot Lang, Dot Leonard and Virginia Guy. These rats had every country manner to the high-water pants. Other distinguished spectators were Libby Mason, Margaret DeShazo, Inez Martin, Erwin Staples, Dot Thomas and Ruth Simmons.

After the audience was comfortably seated in the individual theatre box seats the following program was rendered:

Ukelele Twins ..... Haskin Twins

Continued on last page

Student Council Give Dr. Jarman Dinner

The annual dinner at Longwood, given by the Student Council in honor of Dr. Jarman's birthday, was a fitting end to this celebration. The tables were most attractive with their green and white candles and large bowls of chrysanthemums; the place cards were tiny airplanes and the idea was carried out in the various toasts, as follows: Miss Hannah Crawley, to "Our Pilot," Dr. Jarman; Miss Helen Cover, to "Our Passengers," the guest of the evening; Miss Jennie Tabb, to "Our Plane," the College, and Miss Grace Virginia Woodhouse, to "Dr. Jarman's Birthday."

In the plane J—31 the body was represented by the campus and its buildings; the wings by the Student Council; the controls, the Faculty; the fuel, the students; the propellor, the Home Department; and the tail of the machine, the Office of the Registrar.

The J—31 takes off in her flight through the year and in June she lands in the orth of Graduation, discharging one class and taking on another to be carried on to the same goal The invited guests were Miss Mary White Cox, Miss Virginia Potts, Dr. and Mrs. T. G. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Graham, and Miss Jennie M. Tabb.

SOCIALS

Mary Alice and Katherine Young spent Sunday in Boydton.

• • •

Virginia Ann Huntsberry, Mary Lou Fritz, Mary K. Taylor and Burnley Brockenborough spent Sunday in Richmond.

• • •

Lillian Womack spent the week-end in Durham, N. C.

• • •

Nancy Ross attended a wedding in Lynchburg Saturday.

• • •

Belle Lovelace spent Sunday in South Boston.

• • •

Agnes Lee Grigg spent the week-end in Amelia.

• • •

Chick Mosby, Jerry Lee and Grace Virginia Woodhouse spent Sunday in Lynchburg.

• • •

Lucy Anderson and Margaret McNamara were in Arvonai this week-end.

• • •

Elizabeth Thompson spent the week-end in Abingdon.

• • •

Lelia Lovelace spent the week-end in Halifax.

• • •

Nancy DeBerry was in Blackstone Sunday.

• • •

Carrie and Margaret DeShazo and Mildred Shelton were in Bedford Sunday.

• • •

Hattie Gilliam spent the week-end in Wise, Va.

• • •

Annie Lee Jones spent the week-end in Petersburg.

• • •

Catherine Bailey was in Phoenix Sunday.

• • •

Jane Witt, Nancy Shaner and Vilma Petty spent the week-end in Lexington.

• • •

Virginia Lowe spent Friday in Richmond.

• • •

Catherine Marchant attended the wedding of Elizabeth Turner and Douglass Thomas in Martinsville Saturday.

Don't forget the Japanese Bazaar that is to be given in the rec on Monday, November 30th, from 4 to 6 o'clock.

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

A THANKSGIVING PRAYER

By Joseph Auslander

Lord, I would thank you for these things:
Not sunlight only, but sullen rain;
Not only laughter with lifted wings,
But the heavy muted hands of pain.

Lord, I would thank you for so much:
The labor no less than the well-earned ease;
Some glory always beyond our touch
To bow the head and bend the knees.

Lord, there are crops of ruddier gold,
Than all the gleanings of the field:
Friendship and truth and a dream to hold—
The look that heartened, the word that healed.

Lord, there is hunger in the earth,
Hunger—and an abundance of bread!
What was the blood and the frenzie worth
When hands are empty and mouths unfed?

Lord, there are friends within, without—
Foul forms of lust and violence. Lord,
When most we despair, when most we doubt,
Stiffen the buckler! Strengthen the sword!

Lord, I would thank you for fruits without season,
The flash of a thought like a banner unfurled,
The splendor of faith and the sparkle of reason,
The tolerant mind in a turbulent world.

THE WORLD'S Y. W. C. A. AT WORK

The removal of the offices of the world's Y. W. C. A. to Geneva, Switzerland, closes one page of our history and opens a new one.

Some of the most important ques-

Continued on page four

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

SPECIAL NOTICE
To Members of Faculty and Student Body
NAIMAN'S STUDIOS
COLLEGE PHOTOGRAHERS
From Washington D. C.
Wait for your college photographer.

Willis.... Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.

Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE!
Your unrestricted choice of our $9.95 and $14.95 Dresses
Plenty of newest styles and colors to pick from. Charge it if you like $7.85
New sport Knit Dresses $2.95
Rull fashioned $1.00 hose Special, pair 50c
The Hub Department Store
FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

Grandma: "Elsie, aren't you going to give your little brother a part of your apple?"

Modern Child: "Indeed not Grandmother. Eve did that and she's been criticized ever since."

Many a man is proof enough that a woman can take a joke.

Housewife (to garbage man): "Am I too late for the garbage?"

G. M.: "No ma'am; jump right in."

Doctor: "And when did you begin to suspect that your husband was not right mentally?"

Wife: "When he shook the hall tree and began feeling around on the floor for apples."

Prof.: "I'm letting you out early today. Please go out quietly so as not to awaken the other classes."

She: "Well, how did you find the orchestra?"

He: "Oh, Paul Whiteman stepped aside and there it was."

Love may make the world go round but it has nothing on swallowing a chew of tobacco.

He stood on the bridge at midnight
And tickled her face with his toes;
For he was only a mosquito
And he stood on the bridge of her nose.

"I just broke my engagement to John."

"Why?"

"Oh, he insists that we get married."

Among the things which Emily Post forgot to mention —the tactful way of asking a gangster's daughter to go out for a ride.

"He who laughs last laughs best."

"Yeah, but he soon gets credit for being dumb."

Voice Over the 'Phone: "Alice says she isn't in. Is there any other message?"

Other End of the Line "Yes, tell her I didn't call her up."

There's one good thing about having "The Star Spangled Banner" for our national anthem. It's so difficult that crooners don't try to sing it.

Diner: "I know of nothing more exasperating than to find a hair in my soup."

Waiter: "Well, it would be worse wouldn't it, to have the soup in your hair?"

"Hello, is this the City Bridge Department?"

"Yes."

"Well, how many points do your get for a grand slam?"

Friend "I hear you and your wife had some words."

Hubby: "Yeah, I still have mine. I never got a chance to use them."

"Did you see me come in that door?"

"Yes."

"Do you know me?"

"No?"

"No."

"Did you ever see me before?"

"No.'

"Then, how did you know it was me?"

"Scientists have discovered that insects talk."

"Yeah?"

Yeah, two moths were caught chewing the rag."

"What's the difference between capital and labor?"

"Well, if I loaned you five dollars that would be capital."

'And what would be labor?" '

"Getting it back."

Red and Whites To Meet Green and Whites Tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day

Red and White! Green and White! Which shall the colors be? Tomorrow these colors will clash twice for supremacy. Which shall be the victorious ones? Although there are two events in which the green and whites and red and whites will vie, only one will count towards the color cup. The color rush gives no points for either side, but that does not dampen the spirit of the girls. To see the banners waving from the front of the building is enough to encourage each girl to do her best to support her colors.

At the first tap of the six o'clock bell, a wild dash will be made to place the colors on the five main buildings. The girl who is the first to touch the railing in front of the building with her colors, wins that place for them. Banners are hung on Rotunda, Student Building, White House Hall, Library Hall and the Senior Building. Both colors have good chances for these places and the running promises to be close and exciting.

The hockey games will begin at nine o'clock. Every class has a full team and a good team. Both games are expected to be closely contested from beginning to end. The green and whites are favored by a strong forward line while the red and whites have a very strong backfield. Which is going to crush the other? We dare not say. Thanksgiving morning only will decide their fate. The green and whites already have ten points towards the color cup. After the class games, will it be ten to ten or twenty to nothing? We have no prophets in our midst so every one come out to the games and see for yourself which one is victorious.

Girls! no team can play without your support. Every one come to the games Thursday morning and root for your colors. The girls who play are going to fight hard. You be sure to do your bit, too. It will all go towards making Thanksgiving day a huge success.

Freshmen! if you expect to sleep tonight, you had better move to some remote part of the building. Perhaps you had rather join the excitement and stay up all night. If so, just come to one of the five places we run for and see for yourself just what Thanksgiving morning means at S. T. C.

Ray, Ray,
Rah, Rah,
Red and White
Green and White
Blue and White!

FRESHMEN COMMISSION PRESENTS SING

(Continued from page 3)

Song Bird of the South ..... Bessie Grayhill
Ivory Tickler ..... Garnett Hodges
Harmony Sisters—Ruth Showalter, Lottie Dickinson, Mary Hood and Justine Cutshall.
Recitation ..... Leata Barham
Rhythm in Song and Dance— Haskins Twins

Freshmen, your sing was a "howling success" and enjoyed by all!

Modistes Give Impish Names to the Latest Fashion Creations

Continued from page 2)

purple taffeta afternoon dress with puffed Eugenie sleeves that a well-known Paris house has created and named.

This new move on the part of the French designers was uncovered in Chicago when one of the leading stores unpacked its imported creations.

And so here comes the newest fashion parade:

"Million Dollar Baby"—Sweeping sage green velvet evening gown and short chinchilla wrap.

"Romance"—A red velvet evening gown.

"Divine Lady"—White satin tea gown.

"Applesauce"—Purple wool street dress.

"Depression" — Ermine evening wrap.

"Penhouse"—Black velvet evening pajamas.

"Why Not?"—Brown velvet evening dress.

"Star Dust"—Black taffeta studded with rhinestones.

"Up and Up"—Aviation suit.

"R. S. V. P."—Black coat with mink trim.

THE WORLD'S Y. W. C. A. AT WORK

Continued from page three

tions discussed at previous conferences of the world's association have been:

(1) The request from the Orient, in 1894, that the Y. W. C. A. send secretaries to organize work for the women of the East.

(2) The provision of international hotels for women traveling around the world.

(3) The organization of a special migration department.

(4) The industrial situation.

(5) The relationships between the Christian churches.

The greatest problem in many of the new associations is the question of leadership. In some instances the Y. W. C. A. is doing pioneer work as the first society to give an opportunity to women and girls to serve the community outside their homes. Such a service means the development of qualities necessary in a true Y. W. C. A. worker. Every friendship formed and every viewpoint widened brings us one step nearer our goal of international understanding.

The fact that the World's Council is to be held in 1933 in China is an event of great significance, for it will give us for the first time in the history of the World's Association an opportunity to obtain the full contribution of the East toward the problems which have heretofore been discussed too often merely from the western viewpoint.

—From the Woman's Press

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM NOV. 25 TO 28

WED.—"HEARTBREAK" with CHARLES FARRELL and MADGE EVANS. A flesh and blood romance of two young humans battleing the jealousies of nations for their right to each other's arms. He risked dishonor—she risked the scorn of her people for a love that swept away barriers of hate. Every girl will know why her heart forgave and her love endured. Farrel has the best role of his career as the hero who renounces name, fame and honor to regain the love of a girl after he had unwittingly broken her happiness. A beautiful but heart-breaking romance out of which comes complete happiness in the end. You'll love Madge Evans in this one. Also Sound Fable, Fairyland Follies."

BOBBY JONES in "A Complete Round of Golf", the last of the Jones series.

THURS. & FRI.—"STREET SCENE" with SYLVIA SIDNEY and ESTELLE TAYLOR. Here folks, is the dramatic sensation of the year; a picture that has created more discussion and favorable comment than is usual. Here is the story of your street—any street, where gossip mongers are paving the way for tragedy. It tells what you always suspected—the woman across the street who keeps a love tryst. Her husband who, like other husbands, is the last to find it out. The daughter who knows and understands the hunger in her mother's heart. The inevitable tragedy. The gossips tore this girl's mother to pieces. They pointed the finer of scorn at the girl. They tried to poison her sweetheart's love. With infinite pity, with exquisite tenderness, but with merciless truth, it lays bare the joys and sorrows, the loves and disappointments, of you, your neighbor and your loved ones. The mightiest human drama ever screened. Says one critic: "An achievement which in sheer naturalness hasn't been equaled in years." Also Our Gang Comedy.

SAT.—"PARDON US" the LAUREL & HARDY comedy that has shook the country with laughter. These two blow your blues away—in a gale of laughter. It's your own fault if you don't get a thousand laughs out of this comedy riot. The two dumbbells are sent to prison for offering a policeman a drink. There they get into all kinds of trouble and turn the "big house" into a 'fun house". Their jail break is said to be one of the funniest episodes ever pictured. A picture that is just one big laugh from start to finish and one that will put you in good humor for days afterward. Don't miss it. Also Boy Friends Comedy, Screen Song and Fox News.

NEXT MON. & TUES.— WILL ROGERS in "AMBASSADOR BILL". Here we find Will as the unofficial ambassador of the United States to a little Balkan kingdom where revolutions are as popular as an afternoon tea in England. Will teaches the boy king how to play baseball and the ministers of state how to play poker, and of course he brings the lovers together for the happy ending. The picture is typical Rogerian humor, whims and pathos against such a colorful background and is termed one of the best Will has made.

"THE MYSTERY TROOPER every Friday. Don't miss a chapter.

ADMISSION—Adults, 35c at night and 25c at matinee. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

LET'S TALK ABOUT
HOLIDAY APPAREL

Now is the time to select sports and eevning wear Dresses for the games, dances and other social functions are now on display at three remarkably low prices. And don't forget, we are the ONLY exclusive dress store in Farmville, selling dresses at

$2.88, $4.88 & $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls

Kleanwell

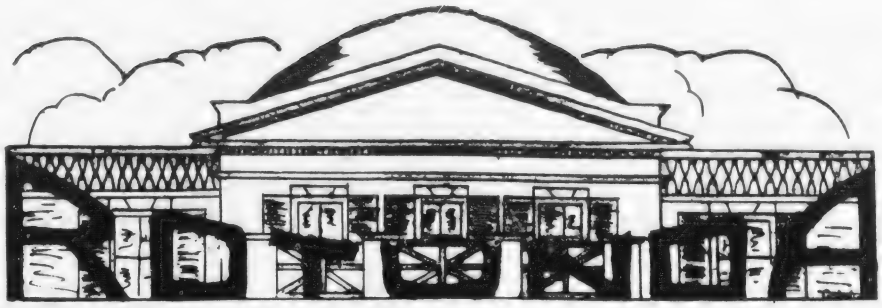
CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus



TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

SEE
"ENTER MADAME"
FRIDAY NIGHT

RESERVE SEATS
THURSDAY 10:30
A. M. AT WHITE'S

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1931 No. 10

Juniors Win Championship In Hockey

Both Teams Fight Hard For Victory Of Their Colors.—Points Given

FINE SPORTSMANSHIP PREVAILS

The Juniors won the championship hockey game Tuesday by the score of 2-0. This victory gave the green and whites ten points toward the color cup, making them twenty points altogether.

The game from start to finish was one of the hardest fought in several years. The ball stayed on the Sophomore twenty-five yard line nearly all the time. The Junior forwards succeeded time after time in getting the ball nearly to the goal, only to have it sent back by the Sophomore backs. The teams seemed to be quite evenly matched at first, and at half time no score had been made.

During the first few minutes of the second half the Juniors seemed to have gotten better and with a quick rush, took the ball on down for the first goal of the game.

Before the Sophomores had time to recover from the first goal they found themselves playing a strictly defensive game close to the goal. There was much hard fighting for about five minutes. Time after time penalty corners were taken as the Sophomore defense were forced to send the ball over the end.

Finally, the ball went over for the second time. For the remaining two minutes of the game the ball went up and down the field rapidly. No other goal was made, leaving the score at the end 2-0, Juniors leading.

Contest of Bridge To Be Held Dec. 7

All set for the battle of the century, the long-mooted challenge contest of rival systems of contract bridge bidding.

These two battlers, the Dempsey and Tunney of the bridge world, trained to the minute, are to match wits in a series of rubbers of contract bridge, beginning December7, while the whole world plays Ribitzer over the radio. Whichever champion wins charity will bag the stakes.

In the presence of managers, lawyers, witnesses, referees, photographers, reporters, and press agents, relates the New York Herald Tribune, Mr. Lenz and Mr. Culbertson signed a seven-page, nineteen clause agreement. It appeared, we are told "as formidable as a contract between contenders for the heavyweight prize-fighting crown."

HOUSE COUNCIL ASKS FOR COOPERATION OF STUDENTS EXAM WEEK

With the aproaching examinations the House Council wishes to remind the student body of the necessity of keeping quiet during study hour. Quiet should be maintained on the halls as well as in the rooms.

Girls who wish to study without being disturbed have the privilege of putting up busy signs, but these busy signs must not be disregarded at any time. The penalty for going over a busy sign is a personal call-down for that person who disregards it.

Members of Faculty Attend Convention

The Virginia Teachers Association met from Wednesday to Saturday of last week in Richmond. Many of the teachers from Farmville S. T. C. attended this convention. Delegates from the Farmville chapter were Dr. Walmsley, Miss Pierce and Dr. J. P. Wynne. Among the other teachers who were present were Mr. Holton, Miss Bedford, Miss Tucker, Miss Iler, Miss Moran. Several of these were on the program of their respective departments.

The chief feature of the convention was an address by Dr. Sidney Hall, new superintendent of public instruction. In it, he set forth a very ambitious educational program for the state. The main points of this program are for the teachers to work out a curriculum under the supervision of the State Teachers College; to have at least 9 months school for each child in the state; that the state appropriate two million dollars for this purpose and that the minimum salary for any teacher be $60. The teachers unanimously endorsed this program.

A banquet was given to all the delegates and presidents of local organizations, sponsored by the city of Richmond Retail Merchants Association and Hotels Association. J. L. Graves, Jr., son of the late ..J. ..L. Graves gave an excellent address at this meeting. Attorney-General J. R. Saunders, represented Governor Pollard at the meeting. Other men of note present were Ray Wilbur, secretary of interior; Crabtree, secretary of national education association and Cocking, professor of education at Peabody, who spoke for Dr. Alexander of Columbia.

Celebration To Be For Washington

(Richmond Times-Dispatch)

Tentative plans for George Washington memorial ceremonies in every county, city, town and hamlet in Virginia during 1932 and particularly for elaborate exercises at Wakefield, Alexandria and Richmond on February 22, the 200th anniversary of Washington's birth, were formulated yesterday by the Virginia George Washington Bicentennial Commission at an all-day meeting at the Capitol.

The commission will call on President Hoover at the White House in the near future to ask him to speak at Wakefield, Washington's birthplace at 10 A. M. on February 22, over a nation-wide radio hook-up. It is also hoped that he will take part in the exercises and parade planned for Alexandria in the afternoon.

(Continued on page 4)

LEADING LADY IN "ENTER MADAME"

MISS NANCY BURGWYN, of Richmond, who takes the leading part in "Enter Madame", the play to be given Friday night, December 4 in S. T. C. auditorium by the Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs and the S. T. C. Dramatic Club.

Edith Shanks Reads Paper At Latin Club Meeting

The regular meeting of the Latin Club was held Friday, November 20 at seven o'clock in Room 0. The program consisted of a paper delivered by Edith Shanks on the pets of the Romans. Miss Rice read a letter telling about the meeting of the classical association in Richmond Friday, November 27.

A revised constitution was submitted to the club and adopted. The club also voted to purchase a property box in order that the materials of the club might be preserved.

In order to increase the attendance and interest in the club, Miss Rice offered to excuse the members present at each meeting from the class preparation, and to give extra credit to the girls who prepare papers for the program. This suggestion met with the approval of those present.

Alumnae Hockey Team vs. Pick-ups

Even though some of the alumnae have been out of school for quite a few years, they still know how to play hockey. This was proven to us on Thanksgiving afternoon when a team of eleven alumnae played a team of pick-ups with a score of 1-0 in favor of the pick-ups.

Both teams were evenly matched, and the entire game was playing backward and forth from one end of the field to the other. The alumnae played hard and they showed our pick-ups that they were not to be easily beaten. On account of the alumnae being out of practice, the game was played in quarters instead of halves. Maybe they were out of practice, but some of the onlookers doubted it.

During the whole time, neither side was able to score. Just as one side would get near their goal, the other team would gets the ball and take it down the field toward the other goal. Two extra five minute halves were played to break the tie. The pick-ups made one goal during the first of these. This left the final score 1-0 in favor of the pick-ups.

The line-up was:

Alumnae		Pick-Ups
Rhodes	RW	Quarles
Bully	RI	Putney
Hatchett	CF	Ridgeway
Boggs	LT	Berger
Evans	LW	Dickenson
N. S. Anthony	RH	Crews
Iler	CH	Gregory
Hardy	LH	Cooper
M. Anthony	RF	Moore
Simpson	LF	Horton
Putney	G	McDaniel

Substitutes: Edwards for Putney.

THANKSGIVING HOCKEY GAMES WON BY THE JUNIORS AND THE SOPHOMORES

A large crowd gathered by the hockey field Thanksgiving morning to see the interclass hockey games in which the Juniors and Sophomores were victors. All of the cheer leaders were busy and the rooting was good. Everyone was very excited as they watched the Sophomores and Freshmen take their places on the field.

The whistle blew; all eyes were fixed upon the players. The game had begun! For some time the ball was played back and forth in the center of the field. Both of the teams played hard and it seemed to be impossible to score. The Freshmen secured the ball in the latter part of the first half and carried it down to score.

When the second half began, the Freshmen were determined to hold the Sophomores while the Sophomores were determined to crash the Freshmen defense for a goal. The Sophomores did score. They scored again, then again. The Freshmen rallied after this and fought harder than ever. They were able to secure the ball and score once more. And so the game ended with a score of 3-2 in favor of the Sophomores.

No less exciting was the Junior-

Continued on page four

"Enter Madame" To Be Given Friday Night

Miss Wheeler and Cast Have Been Working Hard On the Production

S. T. C. & H. S. C. COLLABORATE

The fall work of the dramatic clubs of S. T. C. and Hampden-Sydney will reach its climax this Friday night, December 4, 1931, when these clubs present "Enter Madame".

Miss Wheeler and the cast have worked unusually hard this fall and despite the holidays and pleasure days they have carried on their work in order to make "Enter Madame" a play you want to see.

"Enter Madame" is a romantic comedy in three acts. Madame, who is Nancy Burgwyn of S. T. C. is an opera singer who has, in addition to her artistic temperament, many jabbering servants, who tour with her among the capitals of Europe. Her husband, Joe Perry of Hampden-Sydney, a quiet business man, has long since determined never again to accompany his wife on a tour for heretofore he has been merely as a butler for her poodle dogs. After an absence of five years, Madame comes home to find her husband fascinated with another and ready for a divorce. Amazing results follow.

This fall play, "Enter Madame," given by S. T. C. and Hampden-Sydney, is strictly modern. Everyone will like the unconventional touch it has.

Following is the cast:

Gerald Fitzgerald	Joe Perry
Madame D. Robbia,	Nancy Burgwyn
Flora Preston	Jenilee Knight
John Fitzgerald	Edward Belle
Aline Chambers	Sarah Russell
Bice	Margaret Banks
Achimede	Frank Pauley
Miss Smith	Helen Warren
The Doctor	Edward Poole
Tomomoto	Edward Paulette

Metropolitan Opera House Cuts Expense

Manhattan's Metropolitan Opera House has always seemed so securely grounded that most people were surprised to learn that it, too, had seriously felt Depression, that unless expenses were cut the quality of performances would have to suffer. Metropolitan artists behaved in a manner worthy of the company's proud traditions. Regardless of his contract, Manager Guilio Gatti-Casazza offered to take 10 per cent less salary. Singers followed suit. Metropolitan performances cost from fourteen to fifteen thousand dollars apiece. Another help in time of trouble may be the revenue from Saturday matinee broadcasts. Long admanant in the subject of radio, the Metropolitan has at last succumbed.

CUNNINGHAM LITERARY SOCIETY HAS VERY INTERESTING PROGRAM

The Cunningham Literary Society held its regular meeting Tuesday night, December 1. The program consisted of original material that had been handed in by those girls who recently tried out for the club. The selections that were presented proved to the society that the ten new girls who will be initiated into the society next week, have real literary ability

Continued on page four

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

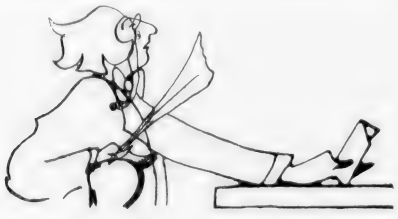
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Help Yourself By Helping Others

The fact that a production will be given by one of our organizations Friday evenings brings to mind the necessity of supporting organizations.

No organization can live and thrive without support both from within and from without. Past performances have shown that within there is enthusiasm and unity. Every effort possible is exerted to give something worthwhile to the student body and those present. Every program must be the best of its kind Every student or person taking part works with pleasure in order that those who attend their entertainment may spend a delightful and worthwhile evening.

Certainly from without the support should be hearty. If for nothing more than to show that we appreciate the work an organization does in school, we should attend its presentations. And if we go we shall find that we ourselves are benefited. We have been taken away from the everyday routine. After an hour or so of diversion we come back ready to make a new start Do we realize that education does not consist of learning merely the contents of books? Everything we see or do has its part in educating us. Should we neglect the aesthetic side that comes in recitals, in concerts, and other things? For the value that we personally get, can we afford to miss worthwhile performances? No!

Let's support our organizations by attending their productions or participating in their activities thereby helping both ourselves and them.

ALUMNAE NEWS

One of the social events of the annual convention of the Virginia Education Association in Richmond was the Farmville Alumnae Tea at Nunnally's tea room Friday afternoon, November 27. Mrs. Minnie Taylor Bentley and Mrs. Juanita Manning Harper poured tea and coffee at a table made beautiful with silver service, candles and white chrysanthemums. The guests were served fruit salad, sandwiches, cake, mints and nuts. The unexpected rain kept some of the alumnae from attending, but there were representatives from classes as widely separated as 1891 and 1930. Dr. Jarman was warmly greeted by all, and a hearty welcome was extended to Miss Lula O. Andrews, Miss Pierce, Miss Tucker, Miss Nichols and other faculty members. The Association is deeply greateful to Mrs. Maria Bristow Starke and Mrs. Eva Rutrough Bagley who made the arangement for the delightful occasion.

Farmville alumnae were prominent on the program of the convention. Those presiding over sectional meetings, were:

Miss Lillian Minor, Rural Supervisors.

Miss Grace B. Moran, Geography.

Miss Marnetta Souders, Art.

Miss Ruby Berger, Kindergarten-Primary Teachers.

Miss Katherine Wicker, high school teachers.

Those presenting papers were:

Miss Mary Dinwiddie, rural supervisor of Grayson County, "What We Might Expect from the Teacher Training Institutions."

Miss Mildred Kidd, rural supervisor of Caroline County, "The Supervisor and the Regional Conference."

Miss Florence Garbee, Helen Dickinson School, Richmond, "A Music Project in the Fifth Grade."

Miss Souder was also one of the five-minute speakers on the topic, "Out-of-town Interests Which Have Broadened My Horizon and Increased My Joy in Life." Miss Dinwiddie also spoke on "Material and Helps for Grade Teachers."

Miss Alice Dadmun, Music Supervisor, Richmond, directed a colored chorus from Navy Hill School in a group of spirituals.

Miss Bessie Motley assisted in preparing the program for the vocational and educational guidance section.

Miss Frieda Goetz of Meherrin, became the bride of Claude S. Womack of Abilene Sunday, November 22. Mrs. Womack has been manager of the Sunny South store at Meherrin for the past two years. The young couple will make their home at Simplicity.

On Friday afternoon, November 27, Miss Mary White Cox and Mrs. J. E. Warren entertained at tea for Mrs. Richard Hamrick, now of Staunton, who was formerly, Miss Johnny Hiner.

The parlor of Cunningham Hall was artistically decorated in ferns and chrysanthemums in the autumn shades. An open fire added color and warmth to the room.

Misses Mary Clay Hiner, Winnie, Helen and Ella Hiner, Miss Ethel La Boyteaux, and members of the Home Department were included in the guest list. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. J. H. Tabb, Mrs. John Cox and Miss Virginia Potts.

Mrs. Richard Hamrick has returned to her home in Staunton after spending the week with her sisters, the Misses Hiner. Mrs. Hamrick had with her, her small son, Richard Hamrick, Jr.

Miss Mary White Cox has had as her guest over the Thanksgiving holidays, Miss Ethel La Boyteaux of Richmond.

The following alumnae were visitors in the college for the Thanksgiving holidays: Misses Elizabeth Groseclose, Mrs. Wallie Smith (Emily Thrift), Isabel Jones, Evelyn West, Marguerite Erdman, Doris Burroughs Catherine Jones, Leone Rollins, Elizabeth Hunter, Kathryn Bully, Emily Simpson, Enza Evans, Julia Wilson, and Maye Seaborne.

LISA DELLA ROBBIA

"I am Della Robbia. Love is my master and my slave. I am young as eternity, old as the moon, wise as the stars.

One of the moods of a woman of a hundred moods, this is one of the most beautiful of the play. Enter Madame. Likening herself to the stars (those heavenly bodies always known as unchanging), Lisa Della Robbia in less than a moment contradicts herself, changing from a peak of emotional exaltation and comparative calm to the level of sarcasm, whose subtlety prevents it from being petty.

Then, on a sudden inspiration, she conceives the idea of inviting to dinner the woman who is, supposedly, to be the next wife of her husband.

"I never talk business; it is so depressing," gives another side of this thoroughly interesting person.

Perhaps there are two revelations of the woman that excite our sympathy more than the others. One is that Della Robbia is first of all a great singer, living in her art, finding it absolutely necessary to sing, or else to die.

The other is somewhat wrapped up in the first; that is, her love for her husband, which has remained constant through all her varying moods. And although her singing is almost lift itself to her, it cannot be life completely fulfilled without the love of her husband.

Madame Lisa Della Robbia is both human and highly entertaining.

COLOR RUSH

Thanksgiving day was certainly one day that will not be forgotten soon at S. T. C. The alarm clock went off at the wrong time. The frying pan certainly did receive a few dents. Moomaw gently passed out—Ruth Floyd certainly has a grip on the door knob. We wonder whether Hildegarde eats pep at breakfast. The green and whites think the red and whites good sports and the red and whites think the green and whites' idea was plenty cute. The mob spirit certainly prevailed. And best friends found great pleasure in tenderly socking each other in the eyes. Did anyone have anything against the government? We wonder who hit Grace Virginia.

We met as friends but a short time friendship was mob spirit—but in the end we parted as friends. After all we are blue and white. Here's to the next Thanksgiving day!

VALUE

When we buy something, we always want to know whether materials used in its production are the best, whether we are buying a dress an automobile, or a cigar. Most of us care something about the quality of entertainments we pay for, also. We take several factors into consideration before we care to try it.

Next Friday night, there will be opportunity to buy an extra-fine entertainment at S. T. C. Let us examine the materials that have been put into this entertainment to make sure that the finished product "Enter Madame" will be worth our time and etc. In new talent, Nancy Burgwyn, assures us of a colorful performance.

Now let us look at another most important factor: direction. We don't have to look twice to see that the quality of coaching we get from Miss Wheeler is the finest to be had. We venture to say that if a description of the play and players did not make you want to buy, Miss Wheeler's name as coach would win you over.

We might consider also the time that has been put on the production of this play, the new equipment that will be in use, the work of the other departments of the Dramatic Club, all of which go to make it a well-rounded, finished product.

In buying this two hours of entertainment, "Enter Madame", we can be sure of becoming satisfied customers of Dramatic Club-Jongleur Company, Incorporated.

APPRECIATION

I would like to thank the student body for the patience, consideration, promptness, and quiet, orderly behavior on the Post Office hall on Thanksgiving day which made it possible for me to have the freest, happiest Thanksgiving Day for many years.

M. K. Taliaferro

UNTIL YOU CAME ALONG

Alone in a world of hatred
Sought and beseiged by contempt,
Disgust, and tread of
The surge of a mysterious
Longing for something yet
Unknown and unexperienced
Cached behind a mask of
Smug pleasantry; greeting
Each newcomer with a chiseled
Smile—chiseled from a face
Frozen in horror of
The insincerity of everything—
How can it be that
You—my dear one—
Could touch that long mute
Chord in my empty heart—
When all the world was
Black and filled with
Murderous thought?

Anonymous

JUST A DAY

For just one day I knew you
But in that time, my dear
You gave me happy memories
To carry through the years
And now that you've gone away, dear
And our romance is done
I pray that God watch o'er you
Till your life's goal is won.

H. C., '32

"I HAVE A RENDEZ-VOUS WTH DEATH"

I have a rendez-vous with Death
At some disputed barricade,
When Spring comes back with rustling shade
And apple-blossoms fill the air—
I have a rendez-vous with Death
When Spring brings back blue days and fair.

It may be he shall take my hand
And lead me into his dark land
And close my eyes and quench my breath—
It may that I shall pass him still,
I have a rendez-vous with Death
On some scarred slope of battered hill,
When Spring comes round again this year
And the first meadow-flowers appear.

God knows 'twere better to be deep
Pillowed in silk and scented down,
Where love throbs out in blissful sleep,
Pulse nigh to pulse, and breath to breath,
Where hushed awakenings are dear .
But I've a rendez-vous with Death
At midnight in some flaming town,
When Spring trips north again this year,
And I to my pledged word am true,
I shall not fail that rendez-vous.

NIGHT CLOUDS

The white mares of the moon rush along the sky
Beating their golden hoofs upon the glass Heavens;
The white mares of the moon are all standing
On their hind legs,
Pawing at the green porcelain doors of the remote Heavens
Fly, mares! Strain your utmost,
Scatter the milky dust of stars,
Or the tiger sun will leap upon you and destroy you
With one lick of his vermillion tongue.

WIND AND SILVER

Greatly shining,
The Autumn moon floats in the thin sky;
And the fish-ponds shake their backs
And flash their dragon scales
As she passes over them.

THE GHOSTLY GALLEY

When comes the ghostly galley
Whose rowers dip the oar
Without a sound to startle us,
Unheeding on the shore.—

If they should beckon you aboard
Before they beckon me,
How could I hear the waiting time
Till I should put to sea.

SOCIALS

The following girls spent Thanksgiving away from school:

Ruth Floyd, Hilda Garrett, Easter Souders, Virginia Cornick, Hannah Crawley, Ruby Adams, Elizabeth Eubank, Katherine Royster, Josie Spencer, Margaret Fisher, Virginia Lamb, Martha Cross, Anna Knox, Ann Woodson, Louise Woodson, Margaret Jack, Martha von Schilling, Kitty McLemore, Birdie Mae Tucker, Ruth and Ester Haskins, Virginia Bailey, Clara MacKenzie, Irwin Staples, Nancy Burgwyn, Virginia Fox, Frances Dorin, Polly McMurdo, Ruby Vernon, Ann Wingo, Agnes Smith, Charlotte Hutchins, Louise Hartness, Fay Fuller, Ruth Cecil, Eloise Perkins, Margaret Murry, Ann Holman, Hilda Harvey, Helen Cover, Jeane Gwaltney, Christine Reynolds, Elizabeth Hendrick, Zillah Hailey, Velma Petty, Ruth Wright, Lucy, Read, Elizabeth Ransom, Kitty Waters, Vernie Oden, Mary K. Taylor, Dot Leonard, Honey Hamilton, Celia Jones, Frances Dillon, Katherine Brown, Helen Anthony, Mary Harrison, Virginia Brock, Lillian Womack, Helen Smith, Virginia Brown, Edith Dudley, Mary Baylor, Margaret McCree, Burnley Brockenborough, Nell Weaver, and Fanny Bosworth.

* * *

Sara Hubbard, Mary Curtis Danner, Martha Watkins, L. Hartness, Bessie Mae White, Mary Spiers, Evelyn Knaub and Lucille Tiller, spent the week-end in Richmond.

* * *

Margaret Eley, Frances Daughtry, Mary Willis, Louise Clodfelter, Viola Tuttle and Virginia Bledsoe, spent the week-end in Norfolk.

* * *

Those who spent the week-end in Roanoke are Mamie Barns, Lois Barns, Garnet Hodges, Libby Mason, Jestine Cutshall, Dot Davis, Frances Hartan, Mildred Epperly, Cleo Quisenberry, Martha Reid, Mildred Mountcastle, Inez Martin, Mary Howard, Lucille Owen, Lillian Hogan, and Gwendolyn Daniels.

* * *

Margaret Banks, Wycliffe Scott, Gazelle Ware, Patty Ellison, Helen Warren and Mary Conway were in Orange this week-end.

* * *

Jesse Watkins and Nancy Boykin spent the week-end in Emporia.

* * *

Margaret Ann Moreland, Chick Mosby, Medora Ford and Vernie Oden, attended the V. M. I. dances in Lexington this week-end.

* * *

Catherine Marchant attended the dances at W. & L. in Lexington this week-end.

* * *

The following girls spent the week-end in Lynchburg: Louise Van Lear, Ruth Ford, Janet Harris, Jerry Lee, Catherine Royster and Josie Spencer.

* * *

Julia Faris spent the week-end in Red Hill.

* * *

Phyllis Denit, Betsy Wilkinson, Charlotte Oakey and Katherine Logan spent the week-end in Salem.

Ruth Atkins was in Martinsville this week-end.

* * *

Polly McMurdo, Ambler Lee, Dorothy Woolwine, Mary Winstand and Mae Gloseclose were in Charlottesville this week-end.

* * *

Those who attended the V. P. I. dances in Blacksburg this week-end are: Nancy Harrison, Kitty McLemore, Frances Dorin, Elizabeth Kelly, Martha von Schilling, Dot rPescott, Dot Waynick, Mary Arthur Billups, Fannie Mae Colonna and Virginia Young.

* * *

Alice Marshall spent the week-end in Newport News.

* * *

Helen Cover, Josephine Smith, and Frances Crawford spent the week-end in Staunton.

* * *

Those who spent the week-end in Petersburg are: Thelma Stevens, Virginia Lanier, Anna Traylor, and Nell Fisher.

* * *

Margaret Massey spent the week-end at home.

* * *

Alice Abernathy spent the week-end in Dinwiddie.

CHARACTERS IN PLAY

Margaret Banks, Jenilee Knight, and Sarah Russell

WHO'S WHO IN "ENTER MADAME"

"Enter Madame" has without doubt some of the most appealing characteristics ever assembled in one play.

Madame, herself is an artist not only in her role of an opera singer, but in her interpretation of her part. Temperamental, generous and lovable, Nancy Burgwyn is ideally suited to the part in which she has been cast.

Gerald, Madame's husband, is two distinct people in one. He is typically American in both, however wanting a wife to stay at home and make life pleasant for him and at same time wanting a playmate to laugh and drain the cup of life to the dregs with. As all real men do, he resents his wife's lack of dependence on his protection.

Have you ever seen a child bearing not the slightest resemblance in disposition and physical features to either of his parents? Such is John Fitzgerald. Totally lacking in the spontaniety of which his mother's life is full, he is conventionalism personified. Despite these differences his chivalry and love for his mother will make you love him.

Madame, might have named a co-respondent in the divorce case. If she had, it would have been Mrs. Preston. If her Gerald thinks he has found all the comforts that her artistic temperament has denied him, and one must admit that Mrs. Preston is not in the least Bohemian and far from spontaneous, though for a woman with supposedly best motives, she'd surprise even you. Come and see.

Aline is just the fiancee you would have picked for son John had you had the choosing to do. Youth, beauty and lightness are more than a match for John's sobriety and staunch belief in the fitness of all things.

As a famous artist, Madame naturally has, as all successful artists do, her train of servants, her doctor, her secretary, her maid, and her cook. Each is in distinct contrast to the other; all characters you will laugh with and at. To see Bice, the old Italian mode and Archimede, the cook display their uncurbed Southern European joy is worth a small fortune in itself. Madame's secretary is the leaven in this lineup of impetuous fun loving people, and she is splendidly realistic.

The servant problem is sure to enter in such a conglomeration of temperaments. The Japanese Tamamoto of Gerald's is, as one might anticipate, the antithesis of Madame's Italian servants. And so the fun has started. Be sure to be in at the finish.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

Men students and coeds at Missouri University can converse together but three minutes. Who times them?

The exhorbitant priches charged by Lexington taxis and the pocketbook of the Keydets seem to be conflicting. At least this appears to be true when the girls are in town during the hops. It is hoped that more favorable arrangements can be made in the near future with the taxi owners in town and that the rates will be reduced.—The Cadet.

The University of Mexico City is the oldest college in the world. It was founded in 1551.—Exchange.

SENIORS GIVE PARTY THANKSGIVING NIGHT

The Seniors gave a class party Thanksgiving night in the parlor of Cunningham Hall. The party was held from ten to eleven o'clock around an open fire. Although the hockey games were over, the spirit of the season still lasted; this spirit of hockey was carried out in the party.

In the Thanksgiving games of hockey, the Sophomores were victorious over the Freshmen; the Seniors, however, lost to the Juniors. Both the Senior and Sophomore teams were honor guests at the Senior party.

A very delightful social hour was spent in songs and various other amusements. Delicious refreshments were served by the entertaining committee, thus marking the end of another successful part for the Class of 1932.

FRESHMAN COMMISSION HAS JAPANESE BAZAAR

The Freshman Commission gave its annual Japanese Bazaar in the recreation room, Monday from 3:30 to 6 o'clock. Attractive lanterns and decorations were used to carry out the color scheme of pink and blue. Those assisting in the bazaar were attired in gay colored pajamas and coolie coats.

Tea was poured by Helen Smith, Freshman Commission chairman and sandwiches were sold by Belle Lovelace and Mildred Lipscomb. Those in charge of various tables of articles were Winston Cobb, Mary Hood, Loeta Barham, Garnett Hodges, Frances Dorin, Polly McMurdo and Burn Brockenbrough.

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For

The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

THE SPIRIT OF THANKSGIVING

Soft strains of music were heard as we went toward the auditorium. It was seven o'clock Thanksgiving Day—when we gathered for morning watch. The auditorium was lighted by candle light—and the white altar, surrounded by fir trees, created an attitude of thankfulness. A duet was sung carrying out the spirit of the day. Then — Jane Witt — reminded us of the many things for which we should be thankful. The main thing, she thought, was God's gift of Christ, His only Son. We should sing praises unto Him for His goodness and generosity to us all. Everything we have is God's and our attitude should be one of obedience rather than disloyalty. Then someone sang a solo—and during that time each organization was given an opportunity to lay some gift upon the altar. After a prayer, we were dismissed with the motto.

Y. W. C. A. ENTERTAIN FRESHMEN AT PARTY

The Y. W. C. A. entertained the freshmen at a pajama party in the lounge on Saturday night, November 28 at 9:45 o'clock.

Everyone present was highly entertained before an open fire by ghost stories, dramatic readings, songs, music and games. Sandwiches hot chocolate, cakes, nuts and raisins were served later.

FRESHMAN COMMISSION GIVES TEA THURSDAY

The Freshman Commission gave a tea Thanksgiving day from four to six in the recreation hall. The student body was invited to attend. Punch and cakes were served while the students danced. The orchestra consisted of Dot Snedegar and Bessie May White. Loeta Barham and Dot Darius recited. If you missed hearing these two, you really missed a big treat. The tea seemed to be enjoyed by those who attended.

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

SPECIAL NOTICE
To Members of Faculty and Student Body

NAIMAN'S STUDIOS
COLLEGE PHOTOGRAHERS
From Washington D. C.
Wait for your college photographer.

Willis .... Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.

Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE!
Your unrestricted choice of our $9.95 and $14.95 Dresses
Plenty of newest styles and colors to pick from. Charge it if you like $7.85
New sport Knit Dresses $2.95
Rull fashioned $1.00 hose Special, pair 50c

The Hub Department Store

FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

A young man fell into a state of coma, but recovered before his friends had buried him. One of them asked what it felt like to be dead.

"Dead," he exclaimed. "I wasn't dead, and I knew I wasn't dead, because my feet were cold, and I was hungry."

"But how did that make you sure?"

"Well, I knew that if I were in heaven I shouldn't be hungry, and if I were in the other place my feet wouldn't be cold."—The Christina Advocate.

Mrs. Newly-wed: "I'm sorry dear, but dinner is a little burnt tonight."

Mr. N.: "What? Did they have a fire at the delicatessen today?"

Izzy: "What are you plunging back into the water for? You just swam ashore."

Dizzy: "Shure, I had to save myself first. Now, I'm going back to save Mike."

One: "You can't believe everything you hear."

Another: "No; but you can repeat it."

"Yes, I'm a very good mind reader. I can tell exactly what a person is thinking."

"In that case, I beg your pardon."

I'm a heck of a good fighter but my feet don't like to stand around and see my body abused.

And then there's the story about the Scotchman who left his door ajar so opportunity could enter without knocking.

For Practice Teachers Only

The following selection is for practice teachers only:

Teachie, teachie,
All day teachie,
Night makee papers,
Nerve creepie,
No one likie,
No one huggie—
Poor old madie,
No one lovie.

Paradise Lost Again

"What's this, honey?" said Mrs. Youngblede's husband as he speared a slab from the dish.

"Lucifer cake, dear."

"I thought you said you were going to make angel cake."

"I was, but it fell."

When Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes was leaving a certain hotel he was asked to write something as a souvenir in the hotel register. "With pleasure," said the Doctor, as he wrote: "I was told to come to this hotel for change and rest. The waiter got the change and the landlord got the rest."

The professor who sent his wife to the bank and kissed his money goodbye wasn't so absent-minded at that.

Becomes Him Better

Wife (trying on hats): "Do you like this turned down, dear?"

Husband: "How much is it?"

"Eleven dollars."

"Yes, turn it down."

"He has a keen sense of humor, hasn't he?"

"Rather. A banana peel all by itself will make him laugh."

Will Rogers sailed for the Orient with his friend correspondent Floyd Gibbons to report the Manchurian hostilities. Said he: "Japan is going to hear the awfullest compliments, as I hear they don't stand for any wisecracks."

A certain professor at Ohio State served tea and cakes at the end of one of his examinations.

BASKEBALL SEASON OPENS THIS WEEK

Basketball has begun! It started Monday afternoon at four o'clock. The number starting shows a great decrease from last year. Bring this up by coming to practice any afternoon from four to six.

Last year, there was a close race to see which team would win out in the interclass games. The Freshmen and Sophomores were so evenly matched that there was only two points difference in their score. It was the same with the Juniors and Seniors. As it happened the Sophomores defeated the Juniors for the championship. It is up to you to see how things turn out this year. If you have an average of "D" for the fall quarter you can play. Your team needs you, so help them by coming out.

After several weeks practice, twenty girls will be put on the varsity squad. In order to be put on, your fall quarter grades have to be passing or an average of "C" if you have an "F", and have to be able to play well. These girls have to show improvement in order to remain on the squad. Otherwise, someone will take their place.

Everybody has an equal chance for the varsity squad and class teams, so take advantage of it and come out. Beginners will be welcomed! Don't feel badly about your playing, nobody is going to laugh at you and you will soon learn. Just come out now!

CELEBRATION PLANNED FOR WASHINGTON TO INCLUDE EVERY TOWN

(Continued from page one.)

Members of the Virginia comission will attend the Wakefield ceremonies, together with such members of the General Assembly as are able to be present. The Legislature will be in session in Richmond at that time. The assemblymen will attend the afternoon ceremonies at Alexandria in a body, and that night will return to Richmond, where formal ceremonies will be held at the Capitol and a great banquet of 1,000 members of patriotic societies will be staged at one of the local hotels, according to plans tentatively formulated.

Every locality in Virginia is requested by the tSate commission to have its own individual program on February 22, and also to put on special programs locally where such programs can be tied up with any incident in the life of Washington.

The commission will ask the St. Peter's Association to put on suitable exercises at St. Peter's Church, New eKnt County, on aJnuary 6, 1932, the anniversary of Washington's marriage at that place. This will the first of scores of such programs to be arranged locally throughout the Commonwealth, according to plans tentatively outlined yesterday.

Some of the fellow students at Roanoke College have decided the only way they will ever get a B. S. will be to join the Boy Scouts.—The Brackety Ack.

Muhlenburg College has a new society. It is "The Supreme Achaic Order of Junior Independent Muchtache Growers Association of Muhlenburg College." They call it S. A. O. J. M. G. A. M. C. for short.

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

JUNIORS AND SOPHS WIN THANKSGIVING HOCKEY

Continued from page one

Senior game which was one of the peppiest games that has been seen on our athletic field. The excellent team work of the Juniors and Seniors was backed up by the cheering and enthusiasm heard from the observers. Both teams certainly had the fighting spirit and each showed a determination to win.

For the first half of the game neither was able to make a goal. In the second half the Juniors scored a goal for the green and whites. This put still more vim into the playing of the Seniors and they fought still harder but did not make a goal although the ball was carried down to the Senior goal several times. When the final whistle blew , the score was 1-0 in favor of the Juniors.

The games were well played and fine spotrsmanship was shown by all.

The line-ups for the games were as follows:

Freshmen		Sophomores
Wheeler	RW	Allen
L. Mattox	RI	Foster
Thompson	CF	Quarles
Beck	LI	Pratt
McDaniel	LW	Dickinson
Phodes	RH	Wright
Putney (c)	CH	Frasier
C. Mattox	LH	Cooper
Davis	RF	Sugden
Epperly	LF	Kello
A. Mattox	G	(c) Berger

Juniors		Seniors
Boush	RW	Boswell
Gunter (c)	RI	Fultz
Snedegar	CF	(c) Clayton
Walthall	LW	Shaner
Crute	LI	Scott
Downs	RH	Clingenpeel
Ridgway	CH	Edwards
Gregory	LH	Souders
Massey	RF	Quisenberry
Boggs	LF	Hundley
McDaniel	G	Halloway

CUNNINGHAM LITERARY SOCIETY PROGRAM

Continued from page one

and that the club will be benefited by having them as members. The selection showed that the girls are interested in all kinds of literary work and the society hopes to give each girl some contribution to the thing in which she is especially interested. Each meeting is to be devoted to the intense study of one author and his outstanding works and characteristics will be stressed.

A fearless young lady of the Gamma Phi Beta house at West Virginia jumped out of her bed one night about one-thirty to investigate a noise coming from the front porch. As her pajama clad figure approached, two figures which were hastily trying to unplug and detach the electric sign denoting the sorority, scurried away. She set out in pursuit barefooted, but was unable to catch the thieves.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM DEC. 2 TO 8

WED. & THURS.—LAWRENCE TIBBETT in "THE CUBAN LOVE SONG", supported by LUPE VELEZ, JIMMY DURANTE and a great cast of sterling players. We are playing this outstanding picture just prior to Mr. Tibbett's personal appearance in Richmond. Here is a thrill the screen has not known since the "Pagan Love Song." A picture with everything—thrills of love and a million laughs from Jimmy Durante, Broadway's madcap idol. You'll be anxious for Jimmy's next picture after seeing him in this. Tibbett in company with Ernest Torrence and Jimmy Durante pay a visit to Cuba, and how they fall for the senoritas! Tibbett sings a number of songs to the accompaniment of a genuine Cuban Rumba orc..hestra—and how he sings! He even sings a duet, believe it or not! A picture of adventure, love and thrills you'll thoroughly enjoy. Come, join us under Cuban skies, to laugh and love and dream as Lawrence Tibbett sings the soft strains of "The Cuban Love Song." It is greater than the Love Song." Also Laurel & Hardy comedy, "One Good Turn."

FRI. & SAT.—"TOUCHDOWN" with RICHARD ARLEN, PEGGY SHANNON, JACK OAKIE and a big aggregation of famous football players, including five All-Americans and two famous college coaches. Critics have pronounced this the greatest football story yet made, and that is saying much. What a game! What a story! What a thrill. The picture that reveals for the first time the problems, hopes, heartaches and glorious triumphs that actually make a touchdown. You will see Jim Thorpe, Howard Jones, Southern California coach; Saunders, Drury, Barranger and Hibbs, All-Americans of U. S. C., and Van Sycle, All-American from Florida. From the novel, "Stadium." Here's the serious, human side of football, coupled with a charming love story. Get an eyeful and earful of super-excitement, it's different. No last minute touchdowns here. It goes back of the goal-posts; revealing all the heartaches, the joys, the actual life of college football. See it all in a comfortable seat; the players almost fall on you, you are so near the plays. A great treat for every man, woman and child in Farmville.

NEXT MON. & TUES.—"FLYING HIGH" with BERT LAHR and CHARLOTTE GREENWOOD. Here is the musical comedy hit that ran a solid year on Broadway. The lyrics, and music by DeSylvia, Brown and Henderson. And Bert Lahr, one of America's greatest comedians, will prove a screen sensation. Produced on the stage by George White, the story is packed with aviation thrills, laughs and romance. A riot of daffy doings, crazy cracks, beautiful gals and tuneful music. Take our word for it; here is entertainment plus with a grand jamboree of hilarity, with the world's funniest comic and songs that are real hits, such as "Dance Until the Dawn" and "Happy Landings." Also a sport subject, "Volley and Smash" and Flip the Frog Cartoon.

"THE MYSTERY TROOPER" every Friday. Don't miss a chapter.

Admission—Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age 15c to each show.

DAILY MATINEES at 4 p. m. Evenings at 8 o'clock.

CONTINUOUS SHOW EVERY SATURDAY from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m.

IT'S A GIFT

To know how to dress stylishly . . . but not expensively.

You, too, will learn the value of wise apparel selections when you see our displays of sports, dress and evening gowns at . . . .

$2.88, $4.88 & $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls

Kleanwell

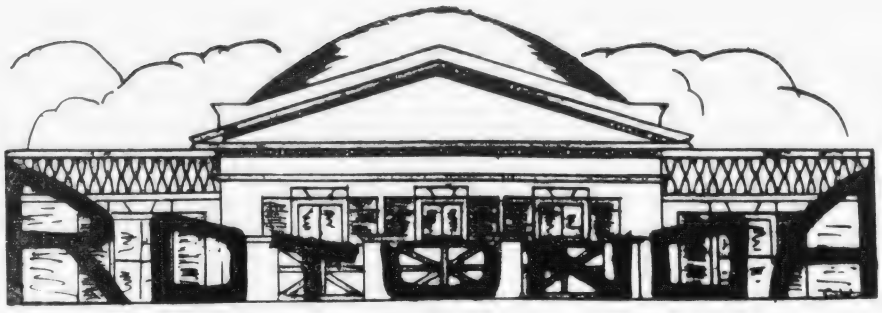
CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus



TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

WEATHER: Rain, not quite so cold today; cloudy tomorrow

7 STUDYING DAYS TO EXAMS

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1931 No. 11

Sigma Chi Holds Installation

National Officers Present For Initiation Lasting Three Days and Culminating in Banquet.

The formal installation of the Sigma Chi chapter was held at Hampden-Sydney, Friday, December 4. Ritualistic examination of both active and alumni members of Phi Sigma Epsilon, a Hampden-Sydney local fraternity taken over by the national fraternity, was begun Friday night in the McIlwaine Hall. There were more than a hundred Sigma Chis from Virginia and other states present for the formal initiation.

Meetings were held Saturday morning and afternoon. A banquet was given at the Hotel Weyanoke, Farmville, at seven o'clock Saturday evening. At this banquet, the chapter was presented its charter by Dr. Daniel Laurence, grand consul of Cincinnati.

The National officers presiding were as follows: Daniel Laurence from Cincinnati acting as grand consul; Dr. Joseph C. Nate of Chicago acting as grand tribute and grand historian, and Chester W. Cleveland, also of Chicago atended while South Carolina sent two representatives, North Carolina one, Duke three and Roanoke three.

The twenty-six candidates for initiation were Alexander Hudgins, Dr. Maurice Allan, Jack Shackleton, Benard Jones, Tom Cook, Hugh Wilkinson, Dr. Herman Bell, William McClintic, Marshall Wilson, John Hamlet, Rober Thomas, Ivanhoe Morgan, Bryant Harper, Finley Talbot, Chas. Troland, Leonidas Williams, Alfred Stuart, Jack Withrow, T. P. Shelburne, William Knight, Marshall Hayden, Horace Custis, John Piggott. L. O. Yowell, James Smith, William Brown.

Sacred Concert is Given in Farmv'le

A sacred concert was given at the Presbyterian church Sunday night immediately following the regular church service. The concert was under the direction of Mr. Alfred H. Strick, organist and choir director. The soloist was Mrs. John S. Burks of Texas. The Junior Choral Club quartette sang several numbers.

The program was as follows:

Organ solo ..... Chorale-Bach
"O Divine Redeemer" ..... Gounod
"Jesu, Jesu Miserere" ..... Nevin
Junior Choral Quartette
a. Jesus Mine ..... Dvorak
b. Old French Carol
If With All Your Heart, Mendelssohn (Elijah)
"Prayer Perfect" ..... Stenson
Organ Solo ..... Lemmens
"Ave Maria" ..... Bach-Gounod

FRESHMAN COMMISSION LEADS IN PRAYERS

Prayers were conducted this week by members of the Freshman Commission. The general topic of discussion was "Investments." The theme of prayers each night was the investment of one of our powers, for example: the investment of talent; the investment of influence; etc. Everything we have has been given us, and it is up to us to use these things—to invest them to our advantage and to help others.

At Denver, freshmen are dragged from the stands if they bring dates to football games.

CLASSES CONDUCTED IN CURRICULUM REVISION

The State Department of Education is sponsoring a three year program in curriculum revision for the State of Virginia. This course, in which all teachers should be interested, is not required of them, yet many are showing their interest by joining classes. The program of study will extend over a period of three years. During the first year of study the subject "Curriculum" will be studied; in the second year, making a curriculum will be the work for the classes and during the third year the curriculum will be carried out.

S. T. C. is participating in this program by offering Saturday classes to teachers. Dr. Wynne, who is head of the education department, is conducting these classes. The following counties around Farmville are represented: Prince Edward, Buckingham, Cumberland, Amelia, Lunenburg and Charlotte.

National News Given in Brief

Judging by his experience on his trip to Manchuria, Will Rogers thinks we need have no fear of a Jap invasion. By the time they could cross the Pacific, they would be too seasick to be dangerous.

In response to Mooney's eighty-three year old mother, Mayor Jimmy Walker traveled to California to plead the cause of Thomas Mooney.

Jimmy Walker was received by the press of California with mixed approval; in fact, there was more disapproval than approval.

Last week 1043 delegates from peace societies of thirty lands met in the Palais of Tracatoro in Paris.

Herbert Benjamin has arrived in Washington with his hunger army, composed of 1,500 jobless. Police were stationed at strategic points. Bursts of cheering and singing from the marchers gave notice of their purpose.

Vachel Lindsay is gone, but his tatooed cannibals of the "Congo" and the "howl of the silver seas" of the "Chinese Nightingale" will last "for a hundred years."

LATIN CLUB HAS INTERESTING PROGRAM

At the regular meeting of the Latin Club, Friday, December 4, a Chirstmas program was given. The program consisted of the following numbers:

Saturnalia ..... Edith Shanks
O Litle Town of Bethelehem
Annie Anderson
There is a Santa Claus
Josephine Smith
Julius Caesar and His Edict
Frances Crawford
There Is No News Tonight
Lady Boggs

At the conclusion of the program the club sang "Adeste Fidelis."

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

The Journalism staff of this issue wishes to express its appreciation for the excellent work done this fall by the editor of The Rotunda and her staff.

The Texas Technological College, at Lubbock, Texas, accepted a truck load of beans from a student in exchange for three months' room and board. Although nothing is said about it, it is understood that he was lynched by the other students who have to eat at the commons.

Dr. Jarman Returns FromEducationMeet

Southern Association Convention Held in Montgomery, Alabama

Dr. Jarman has just returned to school after having attened two educational meetings, one at Richmond and one in Montgomery, Alabama. The first week he was away, he attended the State Teachers Association at Richmond. During the next week, Dr. Jarman, went to Montgomery, Alabama, to attend the meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. "At this meeting," as Dr. Jarman expressed it, "I had nothing to do but relax". It was a good change for him and a good rest.

The Southern Association goes over all reports of the schools of the south and on these reports the schools are evaluated. If they fall below the standard, then they are dropped from the association. S. T. C. has been a member of this association for the last three or four years and she has met all of the requirements. The Southern Association is a splendid working one and it is gradually becoming more flexible and liberal.

Dr. Jarman, on his return trip, visited sunny Florida. He reports an excellent trip.

"Great Day In The Morning"

Do you know what that really means? It means more than just the day after the night before. Come to the auditorium Friday night, December 11, 1931, and learn what a "great day" really is.

Margaret Banks will croon a love song that will make a great day even greater. And a little secret—"Were you at sing Saturday night?" Mrs. Fitzpatrick was marvelous. She may help make "Great Day in the Morning" a bigger and better day. Chorusses from Broadway will help to entertain you with simple steps set to snappy music.

"Great Day in the Morning!" No—you wouldn't miss it! Admission is only ten cents. It will be given by the Debate Club, Friday night immediately after supper.

"Xmas comes but once a year
So, let's celebrate it with lots of cheer
'Great day in the morning'—its' near Friday night, 7 o'clock—its' here!"

Juniors to Present Classman Saturday

The Junior Class will present Miss Iler, their classman, in chapel this Saturday morning, December 12. Every year each class presents their classman to the students in a formal manner. The Seniors have already presented Miss Bedford and now the Juniors, next in order, are completing their plans for Saturday. The Senior installation is always marked by dignity, but everyone looks forward to some clever way the other classes use in their presentations. Last year the class officers of the Junior class attractively spelled "Iler."

In the near future, probably after Christmas, the sophomores and the freshmen will present their classman.

Akron University has a group of men called the "blood squad" ready at all times for blood transfusions. That must be a pretty dangerous place.

RUFFNER SOCIETY MEETS TONIGHT

The Ruffner Literary Society, which has been having unusually interesting programs is planning one equal in interest, for this Wednesday. At the last meeting new members were called upon by Hazel Halloway over tiny phones. Miss Barnes also phoned her message in saying she would be glad to be advisor to the society. The chairman of the program for this week is Easter Souders, ex-president of Ruffner. She has arranged for all those members, who have had at least three articles published during last year to take part on the program; they will each give some original piece of work. All members old and new, are urged to be present.

This literary society is again sponsoring poetry hour on Sunday nights. Immediately after dinner each second and fourth Sunday nights, poetry will be read in the Student Building lounge. Everyone who is interested in poetry is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Draper Talks at Prayers

For the past two Friday nights, Miss Helen Draper has talked at prayers. Her subject has been centered in the French people and their customs. Miss Draper told many interesting things concerning the French, in relation to their private and public affairs and habtis. The details related were particularly interesting, because they were so to speak, first hand knowldege. Miss Draper has spent considerable time studying in France. She lived in a French home, and consequently gleaned much about the thriftiness of the French as well as other characteristics peculiarly significant of them as a nationality.

DE-HO-EC CLUB BAZAAR

Yum! Yum! Good home made candies and a large assortment of pretty Christmas gifts. Come to the Science Building and shop from 5 to 6 p. m. Thursday, December 10.

SPECIAL INVITATION TO FORMER STUDENTS

A special invitation has been issued former students of Maury High School, Norfolk, to attend the annual play of the February graduating class "What Happened to Jones," in the Maury auditorium on Friday night, December 18.

Members of the February class have planned to make the play a get-together occasion for old Maury girls and boys. "What happened to Jones", is a comedy by George Broadhurst, and is benig directed by Miss Virginia Turpin, senior class sponsor.

A college degree has been estimated to be worth $72,000 by Dean Everett Lord of Boston University. He claims that increased earning power, resulting from advanced education, is responsible for the higher figure.—Swathmore Phoenix.

It seems that "The Alchemist," a product of Brenau College down in Georgia, has a joke column. All so well and good. But, most of the jokes in this column are writen in French, and it so happens that the editor of the column took German. We would like to know just what the big idea is and also we would like to have the joke editor of the "Alchemist" translate these jokes and send them to us in a plain envelope.

"Enter Madame" A Big Success

Miss Wheeler and Dramatic Clubs Are To Be Congratulated on Performance

"Enter Madame", given Friday, December 4 by the S. T. C. Dramatic Club and the Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs, was one of the best received plays in years. Well written and extremely actable, it was far above the average. Delightful comedy, clever lines, subtle by-play, interesting situations all characterize it.

Nancy Burgwyn as Madame Lisa Della Robbia was superbb. The part was a dramatic challenge of the highest order, which she accepted, giving a most noteworthy performance. For her first showing here Miss Burgwyn had unsually good stage presence and a remarkable amount of dramatic feeling. She did her part beautifully, with power and with ease.

Joel Perry as Gerald Fitzgerald made a very interesting lead opposite Nancy Burgwyn. As the man with two natures, one of which, the romantic and adventurous, he could not quite suppress, he was most commendable and sometimes very amusing.

The part of the other woman, Mrs. Flora Preston, Jenilee Knight did quite well. Edward Bell and Sallie Russell were thoroughly convincing as the young lovers. The part of Tamamoto, taken by Edward Paulette, the doctor, Edward Poole, and Miss Smith, the secretary, done by Helen Warren, were all well acted.

Margaret Banks and Frank Pauley were both very funny as Madame's maid and chef. Especially amusing were they at the dinner party and at the beginning of the third act.

Some mention of other elements of the play, not so noticeable but perhaps as well done as the acting, should be made. Especially good were the costumes, supplied by Frances Ratcliffe and her department. Evelyn Jones' group had a good deal to do as property managers. Elizabeth Drewry had charge of staging, Mary Thomas Rawls, of lighting, and Ruth Ford's group, of make-up.

Miss Wheeler coached the play, and to people who have seen her plays over and over again it is not necessary to say that Miss Wheeler always does her work extremely well.

"Sing" Program Proves Success

"Sing" Saturday night was pronounced as the best one of this season. In this special age everyone seems to enjoy beautiful dancing, better than anything else. "Sing" was made up entirely of dances, both tap and natural and no program this years has been so perfectly planned. As the curtain opened seven chorus girls, dressed in blue, were ready for "Linda Lee." This dance was done by:

Margaret Gathright
Doris Ewers
Elizabeth Doyne
Josie Spencer
Frances Potts
Mary Winston
Kathryn Royster

The next number was a tap dance, "Arkansas Traveller", excellently danced by Dot Snedegar and Hildegarde Ross. Dot and Hildie had the time down pat; they even smiled at the same time.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick, better known to us as Miss Robertson, gave a most attractive tap. Every step was perfectly

Continued from page three

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

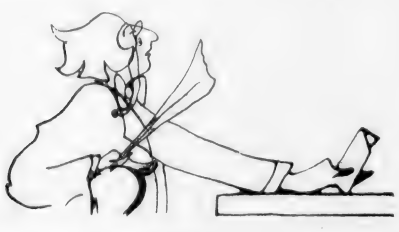
Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

JOURNALISM STAFF



Editor-in-Chief ..... CLEO QUISENBERRY
Associate Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARGARET GATHRIGHT
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE
Athletic Editor)
Humorous Editor) ..... JOSIE SPENCER World News Editor)
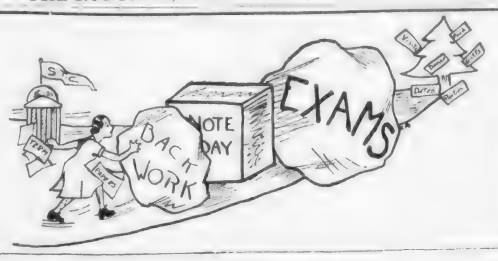
Alumnae Editor) ..... MRS. GRUBB
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARIANNA ROBINSON
Social Editor)
Art Editor) ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER
Proof Readers ..... MARGARET GATHRIGHT—VIRGINIA LOWE
Circulation Manager ..... JOSIE SPENCER

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Quiet For Examination



In a few days we will be in the midst of examinations. Everyone is working hard in these few days to get up back work and consequently it behooves each one of us to take the situation seriously and settle down to quiet. Some of us get too careless at times; we are so absorbed in our own affairs, we fail to think of other person. Just because you do not care to work during study hour, does not give you any reason for yelling up and down the halls or disturbing some one's peace.

It is absolutely impossible to do work well, if you happen to have a caller who insists upon lounging around and talking about nothing of interest. There should be a nice way of sending that person away, but how? Some girls can't take hints or at least they fail to register. Let's observe "Busy" signs and see if we can't think of our neighbor's rights a little more.

If we could only put ourselves in other people's places for five minutes, we would be more careful. Right now, especially, do we need the highest degree of quietness on the halls and in the rooms; everyone will be able to do better work and will be able to say, "all's wll that ends well."

Be Ye Ants or Grasshoppers?

If you are a member of the "Royal Society of Indolent Grasshoppers" take heed for in less than nine days we shall be thrown into a maddening maelstrom of mental hazards; the platform of which shall stand for "The survival of the fittest." Your contemporaries being affiliated with "The Diligent Society of Industrious Ants" shall find it of little use to lend an ear to the warning since they have constructed their house of knowledge upon a solid foundation which shall outlast the fury of whatever turmoil the near future might hold. Grasshoppers, learn to profit by the Ants' philosophy of industry for after all you shall never find peace of mind and happiness while living in such a precarious state.

MORE NERTZ

My dear Mr. Tiger:

You just missed the thrill of an editor's lifetime. Your ingenius product was seized, devoured, and digested by the entire feminine corps with a great deal of relish—and I thought "Ballyhoo" rated around here to say nothing of "Whiz Bang" and "Snappy Stories." My dear, you should get a patent on that technique of yours for your fortune would be made. It seems a pity to limit such talent to only an annual publication, however, you have shown good judgment since it seems natural for people to lose appreciation for things which become a common occurrence.

This old school's sides just shook with glee as peals of laughter rolled forth over the countryside, and if you would have my frank opinion I think that many a "femme" felt deeply slighted as she sought honorable mention in vain among names of prominence. Many a fair damsel galloped off with a copy of your priceless issue to the solitude of her abode where she rummaged for scissors and paste so as to enrich her memory book.

Your "chosen few" are the envy of school, since the neglected majority realize "hate is close akin to love". You are at least subtle in regard to your affection, which is always the wisest policy, but you can't fool a long line of wall flowers which passes daily without your slightest recognition. Wise is the man who conceals his love for women under a cloak of sarcasm and ridicule.

Allow me to congratulate you as well as your staff upon your originality, excellence of word choice, refreshing quality, means of justification and so on into the personification of success glorified.

In conclusion, allow me to add that you might have taken at least an atom of your supposed good breeding into consideration by excluding those, who are constantly granting favors, from your abuse. In this modern era there exists such a thing as respect for one's elders, and from all my observations it is common in the best of families. Your former apologies and promises have vanished into thin air, methinks, and how often have I heard you condemn women for their inconsistencies. For you—"To err aside is human," for us—"To forgive is divine."

ALUMNAE NEWS

At the annual meeting of the Virginia Council of Administrative Women in Education, which met last week, Miss Pauline Camper of the State Teachers College, Farmville, was re-elected secretary. Her term will run for two years.

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 28—An interesting marriage announced today is that of Miss Julia Winsborough Yancey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Yancey of 301 Ridge Street, to Frank C. Alderman, Jr., of Fort Myers, Florida.

The bride, a leading member of the younger social set, was educated at St. Anne's, this city, the State Teachers College at Farmville and the Universit yof Virginia.

Mr. Alderman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Alderman of Fort Myers, Fla., and is a first-year student in the law department of the University of Virginia.

EDITORIAL PARAGRAPHS

There is no doubt about Ghandi being a man of great force. Nothing but sheer will power could keep that loin cloth of his from dropping off.

With Capone in the jug, we sincerely hope that Chicago gangsters will stop their game of "Cops and Robbers" and start the nice old game of "Follow the Leader."

Poor Lindy, Junior! Just because he refused press interviews, disgruntled reporters are calling him deaf.

HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER

"The Boston News Letter", the first American newspaper, was printed in the back room of a New England book shop in 1704. It was in the form of only a half-sheet of pot paper and appeared weekly for fifteen years. By 1776 there were thirty-six weekly newspapers in America and one semi-weekly. The local news of the day did not furnish material for the printed news. The news printed was, for the most part, about the movements of sailing vessels and the comings and goings of stage coaches. It was almost impossible for the stagecoach or postmaster to gather definite information in remote districts. As a result the infrequent news paragraphs were noted for their inaccuracy and tradiness of publication. The editors were chiefly post masters who collected gossip and rumors brought to them at mail time by the countrymen and townsfolk, some of whom scanned the latest English journals for reading matter.

During the Revolutionary period, the publishing of "New Hampshire Gazette" brought about a new note in American journalism; it brought a tone of self-reliance, of independence. Opinions were expressed, and the feelings of the people were stirred by appeals to patriotism and sectional pride.

At this time the citizens did not consider the newspaper a necessity; in fact there was a lack of interest in the news that was published. As to advertisments, a few were unwillingly given by merchants because of friendship for the editor, and subscriptions were placed in the same category with free-will offerings.

In May, 1835 James Gordon Bennett electrified this country with his "New York Herald". Bennett was the first editor to upset old traditions and to establish the revolutionary principle that what the people wanted was news not views. His paper was the first to print stock quotations; first to advertise theatres and plays, and the first to relate the happenings of the various clubs of the community.

The "New York Daily Sun" owned by Benjamin Franklin Day and edited by Beach, was the first penny paper. The "New York Tribune" which was then a strong paper and which still has this characteristic, came under the management of Horace Greely in 1845.

The modern newspaper has evolved from an organ of editorial personality to a great business enterprise. Now it assumes an entirely impersonal attitude. Despite the fact that the newspaper of today may have been robbed of the old time vigor, it now stands for fair play.

HELPLESS, YET ABLE

Helpless, apart from Jesus,
Unable to do aught,
A branch without a vine life,
Is but a thing of naught.

Sufficient, though thru Jesus
And able to do all,
For those who trust Him fully
Can meet His every call.

Through Him, "I can't" soon ceases,
Through Him "I can" prevails
But those who know the secret
Ne'er think that self avails.

Not "I", but "Christ", O Christian,
In thought, in word, in deed,
Will mean abiding victory
However great the need.

INTERLUDE

Often in fear, Beloved
I think that it is gone
This love that made our days and nights
A hope to dream upon.

And then in some wonderful moment
It springs again to flow,
And you and I are re-living
That first great hour!

WITH CHRISTMAS IN MY BONES

There's a cozy fire a-crackling
On the hearth stones of my heart;
All I can do is dream of home
And the time with a pencil mark.

There's dearest little Mother
And my best Pal, Dad
With brother John and sister, too
What more could I add?

I can see the house all trimmed in holly bright
And I'm wondering if I'll escape him
With that mistletoe in sight.
And from out of the kitchen
Comes the smell of turkey sweet
Which duly reminds me that I am asleep.

Why look here comes Jane and Sue
They must know that I'm home, too,
All this makes me so happy that
I don't know what to do.

Pardon me, Sir, I didn't get your question
Oh, Columbus sailed the ocean in 1492.

V. P. L.

DESIRE

Allen Wetstein

On college days on dateless nights,
Pajamaed in all hues but white,
The girls sat round my rom to talk
Behind a door, key turned in lock,
Of food and clothes and class and then
Men and men and men and men,
And while exposing rivals' guiles,
Eating olives all the while,
As we relived last week-end's dance,
Adoring everything with pants,
I'd wish as only school girls can
That I were married to my man.

A. W.

TRAITOR

Love, you are treacherous—
You grow upon me stealthily
Giving me promise of eternity,
Assuring me of this warm happiness forever!
Then, quick as light, you turn
And go, leaving me no balm
For heart, no warmth for soul
I am empty, sick of mind
And cold.

MY WISH

A little home
In which to live,
An easy chair
Some rest to give,
A burning fire
To warm my heart,
A faithful wife
To take my part,
A loving son
To talk with me,
A daughter rare
To care for me!

R. A. N.

THINK OF ME

Think of me when morning comes
Think of Me when noon arrives
Think of Me when oon arrives
With dazzling bright sun beams,
Think of Me when twilight falls
When all is peace it seems,
Think of Me at every hour
Place Me before your schemes!

R. A. N.

DEFEAT

All the gifts I did not ask,
Life came and brought to me,
Until I stood amazed before
Such prodigality.

And yet I failed in my one task,
In my one enterprise,—
I could not keep the fire alight
Within your eyes.

RETURN

You came again, but silence
Had fallen on your heart,
And in your eyes were visions
That held us still apart.

And now I go on hearing
The words you did not say,
And the kiss you did not give me
Burns on my lips today.

SOCIALS

Charlotte Parrish spent the week-end at her home in Lynchburg.

• • •

Henrietta Taylor spent the week-end in Williamsburg.

• • •

Martha Kello and Alice Moore were in Williamsburg visiting Alice's aunt this week-end.

• • •

Mary Conally was at her home in Blackstone this week-end.

• • •

Mary McDearman of Pamplin, had as her guests this week-end, Maxine Perkinson, Elizabeth March, and Elizabeth Hart.

• • •

Leah Jane Shaw visited Mrs. T. M. Mahaney in Crewe over the week-end.

• • •

Fannie Mae Moody visited in Prospect this week-end.

GAMMA THETA HAS OLD GIRL BANQUET

The Gamma Theta old girls gave the eight new girls a pledge banquet at Longwood, December 5 at 9 p. m., with the sorority colors, blue and white, beautifully carried out in the decoration scheme. There were thirty guests, including Miss Stubbs, the Gamma Theta sponsor, Miss Mix, a former patron, and five alumnae, Lucille Fields, Allie K. Libby and Emma Lou Pulliam of Richmond, Mrs. Robert Walker of Norfolk and Jacque Lee of Lynchburg. Toasts were given by Helen Cover, Kathryn Waters, Martha Brothers, Dot Leonard, Lelia Lovelace, Kitty McIntyre and Belle Lovelace. A delightful four-course dinner was served which more than surprised all expectation.

Hampden-Sydney Glee Club To Visit Valley Schools

Mary Baldwin and Stuart Hall students shall have the delightful opportunity of hearing the Tiger Glee Club in all of its melodious harmony this coming week-end. Here's hoping the chorus will broadcast as it did not long ago in Richmond so the girls who are left behind can enjoy the program too.

Our best wishes follow with a special request for "Deep River" and your "Alma Mater."

"SING"

(Continued from page one.)

timed. There is no need to say that the dance was thoroughly enjoyed.

Others on the program were: "University High", same girls who danced "Linda Lee."

"Ecassias", Virginia Thornhill and Elizabeth Drewry.

"Waltz Study", Easter Souders, Eethel Boswell, Virginia Marchant, Retta Hardy, Virginia Ann Huntsberry, Sarah Hubard, Elizabeth Drewry and Virginia Thornhill.

"Chariot Dance", Easter Souders, Sarah Hubard, Eethel Boswell.

"Pyrrhic Dance", Elizabeth Drewry and Dot Snedegar.

"Shadow Dance", Mrs. Fitzpatrick.

"A Surprise in the Pantry", Mrs. Fitzpatrick.

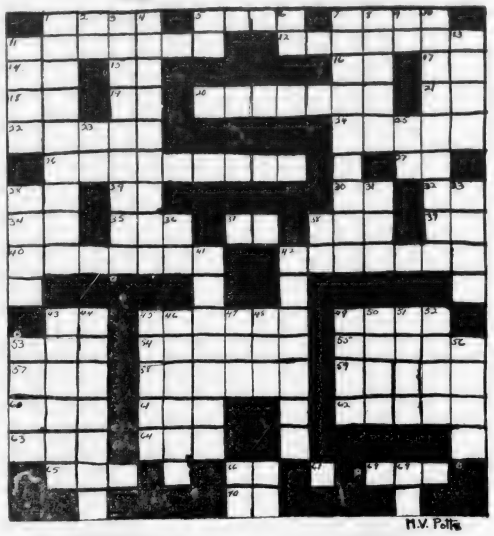
In these last two dances, Mrs. Fitzpatrick showed unusual gracefulness and ease. The success of "Sing" was largely due to the efficient teaching of her dance classes.

Y. W. C. A. GIVES CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Y. W. C. A. Social Committee and Cabinet members were hostesses at a party given to a group of freshmen in the Student Building lounge Saturday night, December 5 at 9:45.

The party was centered around Christmas. The program consisted of two Christmas stories told by Miss Moran, one of which was the legend of St. Christopher, songs by Esther and Ruth Haskins, music by Garnett Hodges and others. Christmas carols were sung that added still more of the Christmas spirit. Attractive refreshments featuring Chirstmas colors were served before an open fire. A jolly good time was had.

"JAZZ," THE OUTCOME OF OUR MODERN AGE



Our modern music, commonly called "jazz" is merely an outcome of the restlessness of our lives. The quietitude of former days has disappeared almost entirely except in remote places; consequently, the former type of music rich in tone and full of deep, quiet feeling is seldom created today.

The music that is being created today is not elastic; instead it is brittle. However, the only music that lasts is that which appeals to the highest and finest emotions—that which interprets the inner feelings of the people of more than one generation.

Those who fear that "jazz" will be the only music which will characterize our time, may be comforted to recall this truth. Jazz does not possess that quality which is necessary to make it live. Year by year it crumbles under the foot of competition and is then lost irrevocably into the realms of oblivion.

The eminent students of music believe that America will yet produce a different type of music that will live and be handed down as true American music. The concensus of opinion of these scholars is that a new type of music will be developed from a combinations of the rhythms of the negro spirituals and the melodies of the Indian tunes.

No Cross-Words — But A Puzzle!

M.V. Potts

HORIZONTAL

1.—We all have these.
2.—Head of the home without the Miss.
7.—Secretary to Dr. Jarman—also without the Miss.
11.—Wait till Tuesday night.
12.—Asst. to Mrs. Jamison, her daughter or member of Home Dept.
14.—Oh—backwards.
15.—Seventh note of scale.
16.—Nein, nein!
17.—Also two vowels.
18.—Anno Domini.
19.—Ease.
20.—Night matron.
21.—Too slow.
22.—One with every rose—"but ain't the roses sweet?"
24.—The Rotunda in this.
26.—Virginia Lowe can talk out almost anybody here. (Tunr this around.
27—Ask Armistead Jane!
28.—R. Gamma—
29.—The proverbial two-toed sloth.
30.—The first thing a baby says.
32.—So.
34.—Also—so.
35.—And schism.
37.—Ask Frances Edwards about this one.
38.—All fish do not have these.
39.—Impersonally speaking.
40.—Enter again.
42.—Just one by this name in the school. She is a freshman.
43.—Junior.
45.—A shaft of light and electrical unit. (two words.)
49.—Ask Elma Rawlings and Sarah Ford for this.
53.—Three Greek letters.
54.—Abracadabra.
55.—Wait until Dec. 17.
57.—Hemoizelle and Ann Rawls have this now.
58.—Belonging to Soph. president.
59.—In the business office; also on the faculty.
60.—Je vous aime.
61.—Enclosed night letter.
62.—A few little things.

VERTICAL

1.—President of No. 2 horizontal.
2.—Last two vowels.
3.—Somebody does this almost every day (or night).
4.—Ask Mr. McCorkle.
5.—Many laws (Abbr.)
6.—Affirmative, but "ease" omitted.
7.—This is a 25-cent word, meaning inflammation of a tendon.
8.—. . . . . "And not a soul took pity on my soul in agony."
9.—Standard heat unit.
10.—A superior seaman.
11.—A midnight session.
13.—Prying into.
23.—Same as No. 2.
25.—Two-thirds of "Wyc."
28.—Remember El Brendel in "Just Imagine."
31.—How can we get rid of this little animal?
33.—Let it stand (Latin.)
36.—I, me, mine.
38.—Head of No. 37 horizontal.
41.—Jane R.'s possessions.
42.—Housekeeper of S. T. C.
43.—"What's the matter with—"
44.—The shoe man does this.
45.—Ardent spirits used in Europe. (Also 25c.)
46.—Places of public contests.
47.—Old Dominion Line.
48.—Futuristic of Heigho.
49.—A drink up to the knee.
50.—This way out.
52.—School for meticulous and energetic maidens.
53.—Just 20 more shopping days until—
56.—Senior Sisters.
66.—66 and 70 are inseparable either way. This one rooms in N. B. 35.
67.—President Jr. Class.
69.—Behold!
70.—Pres. of Senior Class.

63.—Seaboard Air Line.
64.—Educated Atlas Society.
65.—We wish our clothes were always this.
66.—Same as 66 down.
68.—Man of all trades; also in business office.

"....TO SEE OURSELVES AS ITHERS SEE US!"

And now, my gentle readers—last week there appeared in the V. M. I. Keydet a write-up about the dating system at Farmville. It's very good to see ourselves in same light that others do sometimes—and so—of all the rountine in the country a trip to Lexington in the spring displayed more than I know of on the campus of S. T. C., not excluding dates.

We wanted to see a cadet to take him out to dinner and what did we do—wrote to the boy's mother several weeks ahead of time asking her to write to "the offiecr in charge of such things," giving her permission for us to see her son. tOher members of his own family had to have a decree saying these members might see the gentleman in question.

Having acquired what we thought to be the necessary papers and affidavits, we appared on the scene of action, expecting to see the said party. We waited at the appointed place and when we saw the soldier appearing afar off looking neither to his right nor left with such left and righting as you never saw, imagine our surpise when he passed us by, saluting a statue, right angling, pacing the beat—and goodness knows what else. And was this all? I'll say not. He got in the car after so long a time and we left for our destination for this little meal we had come for in the hopes of seeing the aforesaid gentleman, from a far country. When we left town we wanted to change chauffeurs but—nay, not so—V. M. I. boys couldn't drive cars.

Hurriedly through the dinner, we rushed back to get to Lexington at the stroke of something-or-other, if we didn't our charge would have had to do all kinds of tasks for the next biennium. And so having been thru all of this in the course of several hours in order to see a member of your family we were glad to deliver the V. M. I. Keydet to the barracks again—to the shelter of the Institute for safe-keeping. "All Hail. Alma Mater"

P. S.—(To say nothing of those uniforms—yours for a bigger and better Western Union.)

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

SPECIAL NOTICE
To Members of Faculty and Student Body
NAIMAN'S STUDIOS
COLLEGE PHOTOGRAHERS
From Washington D. C.
Wait for your college photographer.

Willis....Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE!
Your unrestricted choice of our $9.95 and $14.95 Dresses
Plenty of newest styles and colors to pick from. Charge it if you like $7.85
New sport Knit Dresses $2.95
Rull fashioned $1.00 hose
Special, pair 50c
The Hub Department Store
FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

Papa loves mama,
Mama loves men,
Mama's in the graveyard
Papa's in the pen.

How's this for relationship:
Sam's father married Sam's step daughter and a neighbor was kidding him about his relationship, when Sam replied:

"Well, it's funny, you see I married a widow with a daughter, and father married the daughter, so now my step daughter is my step mother, her mother is my grand mother, and I am married to her, so that makes me my own grandfather."

From the V. M. I. Cadet

Looking over the S. T. C. Rotunda reminds me that if you have any fond ambitions toward dating one of the inmates of the institution take my advice and go to R. M. W. C. instead. Before you can date a girl at Farmville she must have written permission from her parents O. K.'d by President Hoover. Your own pedigree must be submitted to the authorities at least one month before the date; it must be sworn to before a notary public and certified by the chairman of the anti-saloon league. If she cuts you cold on the street, think nothing of it, for it is a cardinal sin to speak to a boy on the street according to the rules and regulations. So cut out the griping, you keydets, for life is never so good nor so bad as it seems. P. S.—No use going to all the trouble outlined above for more than likely the authorities won't let you have the date anyway.

Jenilee to Margaret: "Margaret, what time does the seven o'clock bell ring?"

Porter: "Check your bag, sir?"
Salesman: "Yes, and put it on ice."

"Freddie, get the nails. We're going to spike the punch."

My idea of the high-hat is the man who eats salted almonds at a baseball game.

College is largely a matter of give and take. Give money and take examinations.

Sign on a hot-dog stand at Valdosta, Ga.: "Hoover Turkeys—5c."

"So that new girl of yours is lazy?"

"Lazy! Why the other morning I caught her putting popcorn into the pancakes to make them turn over themselves."

Job For the Goat

It's nothing much to think of—
But every now and then,
I wonder where M. Ghandi
Carries his fountain pen.

Why Dad Blushed

Father criticized the sermon, mother disliked the blunders of the organist, and the eldest daughter thought the choir's singing atrocious.

The subject had to be dropped when the small boy of the family, with the schoolboy's love of fair play, chipped in with the remark:

"Dad, I think it was a jolly good show for a penny."

We are all beginning to notice that Mary Alice Young looks like "Helena Bray." (accent is on first syllable).

He: "She was a suicide blond."
She: "What do you mean?"
He: "Dyed by her own hands."

In a game it's grit.
In spinach it's terrible.

"Let's play house. I'll be the walls and get plastered."

JUNIOR CHAMPIONS

Back Row, left to right: Miss Iler, Boggs, Snedegar, Gregory, Walthall, Downs, Gnuter. Kneeling, left to right: Massey, Boush, McDaniel, Ridgeway and Crute.

HILDEGARDE ROSS HEADS BASKET BALL

Hildegarde Ross has been selected as manager of the 1931-1932 basketball season. She has taken part in all of the college athletics and has shown special interest in basket ball.

Hildegarde's qualities do not stop at interest. She has that quality which is necessary to any good sports manager, that of being willing to work. It really takes work to be a good sports manager, because all the equipment must be kept up and schedules must be posted. We are sure that with a manager like Hildegarde this basket ball season will be a big success.

C. H. S. PLAYS FIRST BASKETBALL GAME FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4

The College High School basket ball team played their first game of the season, Friday afternoon, with Rice High School. C. H. S. girls have been going through some hard practices in the last weeks. Both teams went on the court with the determination to win; Rice made the first goal in the first few minutes of play. This acted as a direct stimulus to each member of the C. H. S. team and as a result they started playing with new pep. In a few minutes they started rolling up their score.

The game was hotly contested from start to finish and each girl played gave her best for her school. C. H. S. was backed by a good cheering section which was le dby Ervin Mae Hamilton.

The score was 21-11 in favor of C. H. S.

Following is the line-up:

C. H. S.	Pos.	Rice
Hudgins	RF	Bondurant
Matherly	LF	Hubbard
Andrews	JC	Bass
Cobb	SC	Marshall
Roberts	RG	Bradshaw
Burger	LG	Schmidt

According to the Temple University News, football is a major interscholastic girls' sport at Melbourne, Australia. Which proves what?

IDIOSYNCRASIES

Every year we have variations in basket ball, but this year they are greater. We have them ranging from ninety-eight to two hundred pounds, and a great flock in between; height ranges from four to six feet and when it comes to circumference—well, nobody has tried to measure that yet.

With Alice Moore, the perfect shot and Frances Horton "tripping the light fantastic,' our varsity should be perfect. The freshmen are going to beat everybody with Dot Long, Virginia Guy, Ruth Haskins, Frances Dillon, Virginia Fox and Sarah Beck. The Juniors are going to be right there to back them up with Virginia Bryan, "Ham" Moomaw, and Ruth Jordon. And how those sophomores are going to fight with Honey Hamilton, Mary Shelton, Sue Yeaman, and Martha Kello! But what is "Scoopy" Dickinson going to do when she can't use her favorite play? The Seniors intend to beat the Juniors with the swift combination of Clingenpeel and Clayton. Edwards might help them, but I'm doubtful.

We wonder if Kello is going to wear those black shorts. Somebody said the fire hit them. Anyway her's hoping! Frances Potts and Rachel McDaniel ought to play together—what one hasn't the other has. And that horse-laugh of Thompson's is right there with bells on. If Sarah Beck and Frank McDaniel play as hard as they yelled Thanksgiving, somebody had better watch out. Miss London must believe in athletics because her eleven o'clock, M. W. F. class is out in full force.

"Be it as it may
Take it as you will;
And we hope you won't take this
Like an 'infirmary pill'."

A first year student at Virginia was sentenced to thirty days, imprisonment, and fined $100 for turning in a false fire alarm.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM DEC. 9 to 15

WEDNESDAY — "A Bold Front." A hilarious musical comedy presented under the auspices of the local Amercian Legion post with all local talent. Rehearsals have been going on for the past month and the company promises a real treat in plot, comedy, and music, not to mention chorus, dance and song numbers. There will be a matinee and night performance with prices as follows: Adults, 50c at night and 35c at matinee. Children under 12 years, 35c at night and 25c at matinee. Come and enjoy yourself as well as help a local organization that is doing much good in the community.

THURS. and FRI. — Joan Crawford and Clark Gable in "Possessed." Here is a romanitc team that is captivating the whole country in a pictre made to order for their talents. The Joan Crawford you adore, ravishingly beautiful, exotically clothed in the silks and satins that best become a beauty in the embrace of today's handsome idol, Clark Gable. It out-thrills "Dancing Daughters" and "Paid." She craved the luxuries and romance of life and was willing to pay the price. While he weighed their love in the balance, she publicly, joyously, made the confession that would save him—and ruin her. Romance with a new and startling twist and a powerful climax. The most talked about Crawford picture yet released and doing capacity business in all the big spots. A genuine treat for Farmville. Also Charlie Chase in "What a Bozo."

SATURDAY — William Haines, Jimmy Durante, Leila Hyams and Erenst Torrance in "New Adventures of Get-Rich Quick Wallingford." What a cast! What a picture! When this picture was shown to Hollywood's hard-boiled reveiwers, here's what they wrote: "Laugh riot, record-breaking comedy hit. Howls and cheers greeted it. It's a wow!" You'll agree it's one of the merriest films you've ever screamed at. Haine's best picture to date, ably supported in the fun by Jimmy "Schnozzle" Durante, who has the biggest nose in captivity, and who is the mad-cap idol of Broadway. There's Wallingford, Blackie and "Schnozzle," three city slickers, in an amazing series of hairbreadth escapes, chock full of laughter. A pretty love story runs through the collection of hilarious happenings. A splendid show if you like to laugh. Also Screen Song and Fox News.

NEXT MON. and TUES. — "Over the Hills," with James Dunn, Sally Eilers and Mae Marsh. A picture of the heart, for the heart, and from the heart. Every high-pressure adjective in the dictionary can hardly describe the sweep of it. Its humanity, tender pathos; its clean honest-to-the-bone goodness. A picture for which the movie industry is better for having made it—and everyone will be a bit happier for having seen it. A picture that has everything one can offer in screen entertainment—tenderness, sacrifice and devotion. Every man will recognize a part of his own life. To every woman it will recall long forgotten romance. Here is a picture with a soul; a picture you will thoroughly appreciate and long remember. It brings together again James Dunn and Sally Eilers, the sweethearts of "Bad Girl," and there's Mae Marsh of "Birth of a Nation" fame, as the mother. It will lift you out of yourself—make you forget your troubles. See it and be happy. Also Flip the Frog Cartoon and Paramount News.

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

SALE OF DRESSES

FRIDAY AND SATLURDAY, DEC. 11-12

When we will offer dresses from our regular stock that fo rfor $7.88 for only $5.95

$4.88 DRESSES FOR $3.95
$2.88 DRESSES FOR $2.25.

And don't forget .... One place only.

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

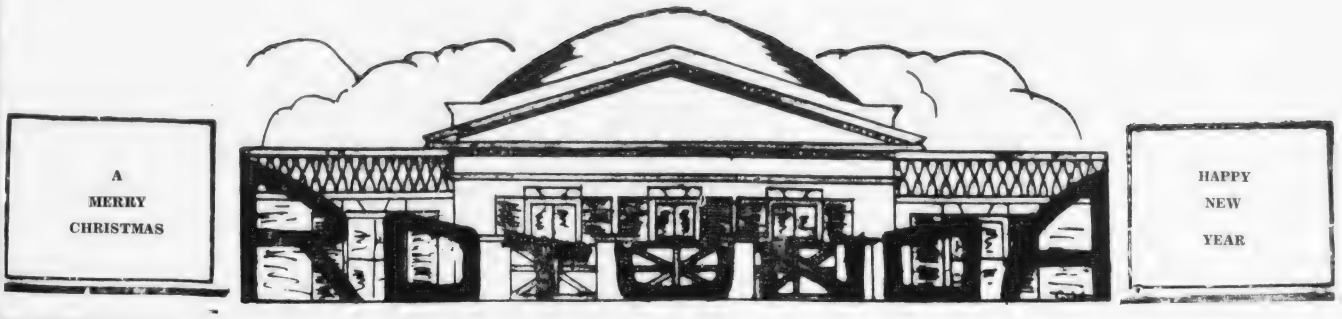
QUALITY PRICE SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments



Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING CLEANING AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 16, 1931 No. 12

Dr. Walmsley to Preside Over Convention

As National Chairman Dr. Walmsley Will Conduct Meeting at New Orleans

Dr. James Elliott Walmsley, of Farmville, national chairman of Pi Gamma Mu, has released the program for the third annual national convention to be held in New Orleans, December 28-31.

The business meetings each afternoon will be featured by addresses from leading members of the organization, including Dr. Gordon S. Watkins, of Los Angeles; Dr. S. Howard Patterson, of the University of Pennsylvania; Dr. C. A. Ellwood, of Duke University; Dr. Leroy Allen, of Winfield, Kan.; and Dr. George B. Webber, of Milledgeville, Ga. The outstanding events of the meeting will be an open session on December 30, at which President Hamilton Holt, of Hollins College, will speak on "The Task of Higher Education in a Social World," and a banquet on Dec. 31, with an address by the mayor of New Orleans, T. Semmes Walmsley.

Pi Gamma Mu, national honor society of the social sciences, holds the same place in social science that Phi Beta Kappa does in the humanities. It is at present the largest honor fraternity in the world, with nearly 100 chapters in the states and several chapters in other countries. It has more than 14,000 active members, and Dr. Walmsley, in a recent interview, said he expected a large number of the members to attend the New Orleans convention. Several delegates from Virginia chapters will be in attendance.

Xmas Customs To Be Observed

For many years we have come to regard several Christmas services as almost traditional ones. As Christmas holidays get nearer, every-one gets that good old Christmas spirit; this spirit runs high in our customs.

The hanging of the greens in the Rotunda follows prayers; this is usually done at the latter part of the week before Christmas holidays. A great number of students take part.

Another part of the Christmas program which has become a real part of student life is the Christmas story. Each year Miss Rice tells an interesting Christmas story, "The Other Wise Man."

A service, in which we all love to participate is the carol service. Sunday night, before leaving for the holidays, groups of girls go over every part of town singing Christmas carols. In those calm, holy nights before Christmas, it is wonderfully inspiring to sing of His Birth; the birth of One who has served us through our school days and the One we count on for future blessings.

ENTERTAINMENTS TO SEE AFTER THE HOLIDAYS

As this year has brought its pleasures and delights so will the New Year, among them being:

"Up to Freddye", a play which will be given by Pi Kappa Delta Jan. 9.

A Lyceum number which will be given January 14th.

And a Senior Show which will be presented by the Senior Class on January 16. This is to be the same type of entertainment that the Junior Follies, so successfully produced last spring, was.

Merry Christmas !

Junior Class Presents Miss Iler As Its Classman

On Saturday morning, December 12, the Junior Class presented their classman, Miss Iler.

After the singing of the Alma Mater, the class marched down the aisle, singing their class song. Upon the opening of the curtains, the audience beheld Aladdin, the president of the class, and his magic lamp. Of course, Aladdin rubbed his lamp and Miss Iler was brought forth by the vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the class. The president of the class presented her to the Student Body and Faculty, after which the class sang their song to her.

"GREAT DAY IN THE MORNING" IS GIVEN

"Great Day in the Morning," a short playlet, was given by the Debate Club on Friday evening, December 11th from seven to seven-thirty.

The playlet had an interesting story and was well produced. A mother and father decorating their Christmas tree, as when their children were small, looked forward to a sad, quiet Christmas not livened by the presence of their boy and girl who found it necessary to be at a fraternity dance and a week-end party. The children came Christmas Eve night and surprised their parents as they came in on Christmas morning. Attractive dances consisting of an evening dress chorus, two tap dances by Mrs. Fitzpatrick, a dance to "Here Comes the Sun," and a tap dance by seven members of the Debate Club helped carry out the theme of the playlet.

At the end all the members of the cast and the audience joined in singing Christmas carols.

Old English Carol Service To Be Made Traditional at State Teachers College

Last year the Choral Club of State Teachers College presented an Old English Carol Service in the College Auditorium. From that service three definite things emanated:

First, the proceeds (amounting to $45.00) supplied a touch of human understanding and assistance to destitute children.

Second, that the presentation of this Old English Carol Service gave genuine pleasure to a large audience.

Third, that the Choral Club in using their time and talent were rich in the knowledge that on Christmas day eighty-five little children were made happy by virtue of their efforts.

On Sunday, December 20th, at 8:30 P. M. the second Old Engish Carol Service will be presented. The String Trio, the Junior and Senior Choral Clubs and the Third Grade children of the Training School will have a part.

140 college students and 24 children will share in the joy of service and over 100 poor children will reflect the touch of this kinship and the spirit of "Tiny Tim" (in Dicken's immortal "Christmas Carol) "God bless us every one."

This is a beautiful service because it enlists youth to the service of lending a helping hand to the needs of youth and the deeper realization "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

A free will offering will be turned over in its entirety to the American Rescue Workers. To our readers we say:

Come and share in a service which has for its significant thought, "We are our brothers keeper."

Shall Christmas come, and find in homes around
No kindly touch, that mirrors Christmastide,
No stockings hung on creaking chimneys wide,
Or Carolers in Yuletide's songs resound?

Shall Christmas come, and find us nestling there
Unmindful of the poverty and need,
And we in selfishness and greed
In slippered feet and spacious rocking chair?

Or shall the gifts of hope and charity
That cradled life in little Bethlehem
For you and me, and all the sons of men
Be ours to lend in true sincerity?

2 Piano Recitals of Artists Afford Rare Pleasure

Bruce and Rosalind Simonds Are Scholars of Literature and Music

Affording rare pleasure to those attending was the concert given by Bruce and Rosalind Simonds Monday evening, December 14 in the auditorium.

The two piano recital consisted of the following selections, beautifully played:

Mozart ..... Sonata in D Major (in three movements)
Bax ..... The poisoned fountain
Simonds ..... Sweet Kate (English)
Rachmaninov ..... Les armes (Tears)
Paques (Easter bells)
Schumann: Andante with variations
Infante ..... Sentimiento
Casella ..... Pupazzetti
Marcia
Berceuse
Serenata
Weber .... Invitation to the dance

The two artists, scholars of literature as well as music, are widely known. From many papers come notices of the delightful performances of these two.

Boston Transcript—"One does not recall hearing from two pianos more wealth of rubato or such varied molding and shaping of melodic line, of phrase or period. One heard a technical continuity making its way from one piano to the other with never the least sign of break. One heard ensembles the like of which many pianists rarely attain with only two hands to master. One decided to submit this marvel to the test of closed eyes, to keep resolutely before the

(Continued on page 4)

'Up to Freddie' Will Be Given

"Up To Freddye" is to be presented by Pi Kappa Delta, aJnuary 9, 1932. It is a play that will cure homesickness and chase the blues away after Christmas holidays.

Imagine Mr. Holton's embarrassment when he finds himself engaged to four girls. Horrors! What can he do? He wonders when he realizes that it's "Up to Freddye."

And Dr. Walmsley writes a play! This is no ordinary play, but one full of moonlight, love and lovers. How fitting for such a play to be written after Christmas. Dr. Wamlsley, as a playwright makes an excellent history teacher.

Too, there is the typical college boy—Mr. Coyner. Not the "rah-rah" type, but a little conceited of his "knowledge about women—especially sisters."

Several S. T. C. students play interesting parts such as: Winston Cobb, a chaperone; Alice Rowell, a shy, timid girl; Maria Warren, engaged to Dr. Walmsley; Lilliam Womack, Esther Haskins and Margaret Hix, other parts.

APPRECIATION

The Student Body wishes to express its appreciation of the lovely dinner given the administration, faculty, and student body by Mrs. Jameson in the Dining Hall Tuesday evening. The students also wish to thank Mrs. Hurt and the others who aided in making the dinner a success.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

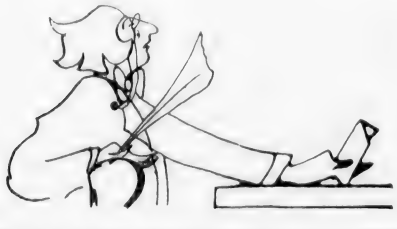
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Christmas and the New Year

With people everywhere singing carols, with windows decorated in red and green, there's a feeling that it is almost the night before Christmas and stockings are hung by the chimney with care. The day on which we celebrate His birth is nearly here. A date which is for us a sacred one. We stop and think of His goodness—and are glad and happy.

Then we finish a year and begin anew. Another year starts in which we shall try to do better the things in this world which He through His birth and death has made us free to do. We should and shall live better each day that we may have another glad Christmas and happy New Year.

Will You Wonder—?

As the holidays run through New Year's Eve, there will be few good excuses for not being back on time. It is each student's responsibility to see that she does get back on time. And a responsibility, whether great or small, is a responsibility and should be considered as such. There's a psychological effect in living up to a responsibility. When you come back and begin your work when you are supposed to, do you not have a feeling of satisfaction, of peace, that at least you have done your part in that way? When you straggle in late, though your grade may not show it, do you not wonder whether you could have done better if you had come back on time? The fact that you did not meet an obligation will creep in in your dubious moments. Avoid this. Start the new term in the right way by coming back the 4th.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dearest Santa Calus:

Won't you please bring me one or two more hours each Tuesday night so I can make up the sleep that I love? Dr. Walmsley would appreciate that I'm sure, on Wednesday mornings at 8:15.

Also, dear Santa Claus, isn't there a mechanical "shusher" that you could present to the House Council, and maybe they would let me use it occasionally.

If I could have the same Student Body after Christmas that we have now, I would appreciate it. It would be awful if two of our number decided not to come back. Which two? Oh, you know, Santa Claus.

Anything else nice that you would like to give me in my stocking, I would love to have.

Your little friend,
Grace Virginia

Hello, Santa Ole Pal,

I'll bet you some nabs and a dope that you can't guess what I want for Christmas now since I've at last attained the heights of Juniorship—I'll give you ten guesses.

Oh, no it has nothing to do with beaux or clothes, Hampden-Sydney Pan-Hellenic or a trip to the Orient. No, it isn't a sable coat or a Rolls, you'r wrong there. A bid to the Naval Academy? Wrong again. What's that?—a dinner ring or a jeweled fraternity pin—you're all off. A bid from a Beta to Virginia Easter week with Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians for an orchester—a poor guess. A honeymoon in Switzerland did you say? You've got me wrong again.

Well(I see I'll have to give you a hint since you're not even warm. Here goes, Santa, "It Satisfies."

Dear Santa Claus:

We have had a very happy year, yet there are many things we wish you to bring us to help make our college life complete. We would like to have our stocking filled with:

A box of post toasties for the Rowell twins and a few F notes.

A little business for Grace Virginia as Tuesday nights are getting very boring.

An edition of Margaret Bank's book on "How to be Sophisticated."

A baseball bat for Betty Watts to keep envious girls back from the Rotunda.

Non-studying pills for Mary Lou Fritts and Virginia Ann Huntsberry.

A black mustache for Julia Faris so she can act more Dr. Simkins.

Shoulder braces for Nellie Green.

A drug store for Margaret Brady.

Something to aid Nancy Harrison in bluffing.

A little of Helen Showen's noise for Lillian Hogan.

A Sophomore

Deer Santa Claus; I"m writing 'cause
I want that you should know
I loves you good, an' wish you would Pleaze bring me so and so—
A chu chu train with lots of track,
To take me ridin' 'round then, back
A baby doll with big blue eyes,
That walks, n' talks, n' sleeps n' cries
A little blue table with cups for tea,
Then I'll hav' a party for dolly n' me.
A teddy bear, all nice n' fat,
A gingham dog n' calico cat
Lots of candy n' oranges, too,
Hope it won't be too heavy for you.
If you think this is too much of a list
Forget it all except just this—
Let the many things I've asked
You for; jus' slide pas,
But deer Santa, pleaze bring success
To the Freshman Class.

Frances Dorin

SAVE ALL TURKEY FEATHERS

The May Day theme for this year has been selected. It will be an old Indian legend, "The Star Flower" worked out by Elizabeth Drewry. It promises to be a very spectacular and beautiful pageant.

Much attention will be paid to costuming—and since the costumes are Indian, the committee will be glad to make use of all large feathers plucked from the "proverbial and inevitable fowl." Please save them for this purpose—also, all unstrung colorful beads and bracelets will help in decorating the costumes (which will be fantastic) and in carrying out the Indian effect.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Miss Ada Bierbower has been elected a member of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary fraternity, at Teachers College, Columbia University. Miss Bierbower is president of the Teacher Training League, which is an organization connected with one of the major education courses in Teachers College, Columbia University.

The annual meeting of the Longwood Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Duvall ,November 23, at which time the following officers were elected:

President ..... Miss Lila London
Vice-President .... Mrs. E. S. Shields
Secretary ..... Mrs. A. E. Willis
Treasurer ..... Mrs. M. B. Coyner

Mrs. F. G. Baldwin (Carrie Kyle Baldwin) read an interesting paper on "Suggestions for Chirstmas Decorations and Winter Bouquets."

From a copy of the Peabody Reflector and Alumni News we have the following article:

One of the state clubs functioning on the campus during the fall quarter is the Virginia Club which organized soon after school opened with Elizabeth Palor as president: Eva Reynolds, vice-president, and Martha and Mary Coulling members of the social committee. The club meets every other Tuesday night. Martha and Mary Coulling are nieces of Miss Coulling.

Miss Emma Gantt Glover spent the week-end in Farmville. Miss Glover, while driving in Appomattox Saturday, had her car to overturn. She received no serious injury, but Mrs. Besse Glover received a slight cut over the eye.

Dr. Ruth Mason of Petersburg (in private life Mrs. Gregg) presided over the sessions December 8 of the Southside Virginia Medical Association, of which she has been president for the past year. More than one hundred physicians and guests were in attendance upon the afternoon and evenings, which were held in Petersburg.

Mrs. Southall Farrar (Katherine Vaughan) was elected president of the Garden Study Club at the meeting December 7.

Miss Lillian Minkle was elected vice-president on December 4, at the Cumberland County Federation of Leagues. Miss Minkle is teaching at John Randolph High School this session.

CONFERENCE AT GENEVA TO DECIDE FATE OF ALL

The fate of the world for the next generation is at stake when the disarmament conference meets in Geneva next February, according to Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, who with Miss Jane Addams, has been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. Dr. Butler states his views in the December issue of International Conciliation, a periodical published by the Carnegie Endowment for International peace. He asks that the conference reduce armed forces to their "proper twentieth century status of police," predicting that if this is done "prosperity, satisfaction and progress will quickly be the lot of ourselves and those who are shortly to follow after us."

Public opinion of the nations in the world must support disarmament so that the conference will succeed he declares. Between 2,000 and 3,000 delegates are expected to attend, it is reported, and the members of the delegates' families, secrtaries and corrspondents will increase those at Geneva to 6000. Dr. Butler, president of Columbia University, is one of the original trustees of the Carnegie Endowment and succeeded Elihu Root, winner of the Nobel Award in 1912, as president.

"Should the conference fail in capacity, in competence, or in courage and thereby permit the nations to fall back into their old relationships of armed and competitive nationalism, no man would dare predict the future or its results", he concludes.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS

Students of S. T. C. will again sing Christmas carols out in town. After the carol service in the auditorium, given by the Choral Club, groups of girls will go throughout the town; people wishing carols to be sung in front of their homes, please light a candle and put it in the window. Every year a great number of girls take part in this service; much inpiration is derived from the Christmas songs sung in the calm, holy night.

A CHRISTMAS LETTER

Remember the time, dear Santa Claus
When all I asked of you
Was a brown-eyed doll
Which walked and talked
And wore a dress of blue?
Well, that was so long ago
That it makes me sad to say it's so,
And now that I'm grown up like you
I find that walking dolls won't do.
I wonder if you ransacked your store
If you could find on the topmost floor,
A grade book filled with A's and B's
And maybe C's but without D's
Bundle it up and send it to me
So I can put it on the Christmas tree
Addressed to dearest Mother and Dad
So their holiday shall be bright and glad.

V. P. L.

WE ARE THINKING OF YOU

To all you folks
Who've been so kind
To help us through
Our daily grind
We wish the best
Of holiday times!
And may the New Year
Hold for you—
Those things you've wished
Would come true
Ever since you wore curles
And hair bow of blue.

V. L.

ANCIENNE MAITRESS —D. M. C.

Can I compare you to a blushing rose,
O lovely lady, woman of my dreams?
You are much sweeter than this flow'r, God knows,
When in your shining eyes the firelight gleams.
Why must you treat me with such carless scorn.
When I, who at the best but lowly place
Among the throngs who do your shrine adorn,
Could be contented with a little grace?
If you could but perceive my wretched days—
But guess the anguish of each sleepless night
Which vainly do I spend devising ways
To win my former favor in your sight
My dear, but raise your tiny little finger
And at your feet forever shall I linger.

A. M. DeM.

INCONQUERABLE TYRANT

Reality
Is a hunchback
Whose boney fingers reach out
And snap like traps
Upon the delicate figures
Of my dreams
Crushing them out,
As easily as a spider's web
Is torn by ungentle winds,
Dragging me back
Into a world
Of want, of misery and sin.

V. L.

PATTERNS

You know, dear, that the gypsies strew
Some broken boughs along the way
To mark the trail for one who comes,
A tardy pilgrim of the day.

And so my songs, that have no worth
Save that best worth of being true,
Are but as patterns strewn to show
The way I came in loving you.

THE AVOWAL

If I had told you not,
Then might you still to me
Be my soul's secret fane,
My dream, my mystery.

But now a word has sent
The temple vail apart,
And shown me that the secret love
Is empty—as my heart.

SOCIALS

Virginia Fox, A. J. Scott, Elizabeth Duke, Mary Alice Young, Nancy Burgwyn, and Mary Davidson, spent the week-end in Richmond.

• • •

Vernie Oden spent the week-end in Appomattox.

• • •

Ambler Lee, Carrie De Shazo, and Margaret De Shazo, were in Charlottesville this week-end.

• • •

Irvin Staples spent the week-end in Burkeville.

• • •

Elizabeth Kelly and Dot Prescrott spent the week-end in Kenbridge.

• • •

Margaret Hunter was in Evergreen this week-end.

• • •

Ethel Boswell, Betsy Ross and Jerry Lee were in Lynchburg this week-end.

SURPRISE PARTY GIVEN MISS BEDFORD

Even though it was raining Sunday night, the seniors did not get too damp a spirit for a party. At nine-thirty twenty-five seniors went up to Miss Bedford's house to give her a surprise Christmas party. Nothing was lacking; the seniors had the Christmas spirit and had food.

After each person had many, many sandwiches, and salted nuts, Henrietta Cornwell in fitting words presented Miss Bedford her present; this present, a week-end bag, was given by the Class of '32. To the great surprise of Henrietta, Ruth Floyd presented her a week-end bag also, which was her gift from the class.

Jane Witt, Ruth Floyd, Louise Clayton, and Ruth Hunt sang several songs. The class sang the class songs and also Christmas carols. The party ended with all the members of the class present singing "Senior Taps."

PI KAPS HAVE CHRISTMAS PARTY

Monday evening at six o'clock all the Pi Kaps with Miss Iler gathered in their room for a jolly Christmas party. The room was decorated with pine and in a corner was a huge Christmas tree all decorated and lighted. Underneath the branches were gifts for all, Old Santa certainly had been generous. A delicious plate supper was served by candle light.

ZETA TAU HOLDS ANUAL BANQUET

Zeta Tau Sorority held its annual pledge banquet in the tea room on December 12 at 6:30. Decorations were lavender sweet peas. The pledges were lavender and sliver, the sorority colors.

WHERE THE HOME DEPT. WILL SPEND XMAS

Miss Frances B. Shelton, Burkeville, Va.

Miss Houston Blackwell, Blackstone, Va.

Mrs. B. C. Jamison, Suffolk, Va.

Mrs. J. E. Warren, Smithfield, Va.

Mrs. W. T. Blanton, Farmville, Va.

Miss Mary White Cox, 587 S. Belvedere, Memphis, Tenn.

Miss Virginia Potts, 587 S. Belvedere, Memphis, Tenn.

Miss Willie McKee, Richmond, Va.

Mrs. T. P. Shelton, Potomac Park Apt., 21st and C St., Washington, D. C.

Dr. S. W. Field, Farmville, Va.

Mrs. Nettie D. Hurt, Salem, Va.

Mrs. M. M. Province, Farmville, Va

YOUTH TO THE RESCUE

Has any one of the grown - up scoffers of Youth thought to organize an anti-chaos league? Yale University students have banded themselves into the North Atlantic Student League International Cooperation so that they might study foreign affairs and promote international good will. The students hope, in the words of President James Rowland Angell of Yale, to counteract "provincialism, parochialism and nationalism." Sir Wilfred Frenfell, medical missioner of Labrador, described the league as essentially a movement of youth aimed against the world chaos.

The young people of foreign lands are also acting in the world situation. Fifteen hundred Chinese students set out last week in a special train for Nanking. They said they would not came back until the Nanking government accepted their demands for a stronger attitude in the Manchurian disput. An dwhen Jugo-Slavia's new pro-government parliament convened recently University students outside sang dirges to this legalized dictatorship.

RUFFNER SOCIETY HAS PROGRAM

The Ruffner Literary Society met Wednesday night, December 9, 1931.

An enjoyable program was presented by the third degree girls with Easter Souders as leader. Original work was read b yRuth Floyd, Martha von Schilling, Eleanor Davis, Margaret Fisher, Mildred Steere, and Easter Souders.

Before the refreshments were served the members of the society told a Christmas story. Each person added a paragraph to the story and in conclusion, Easter Souders made a surprise ending.

FRENCH CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The French Club meeting was the scene of a very attractive Christmas party when it met Thursday, December 10, in the Student Building Lounge.

All the members present joined in singing Minuit Chretien, and several other French Christmas songs.

Eleanor Davis read a very interesting paper on L'Echo de Paris.

A game, going to Paris was played by all while dainty refreshments were being served.

A good time was had by all, and the growing Christmas spirit was increased.

Rolled up pants-legs with garters exposed, shirts on backwards and perfect conduct at all times are but a few regulations that the Freshman must conform to this month.—Farthereast North Collegian.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

Students must shed vests in the sanctum of the Columbia University library. The students must either retain their jackets or divest themselves of both coat and jacket. The idea is that a "vestless" or a "jacketed" student body makes a more favorable appearance.

Students at the University of Budapest are certainly serious-minded and anxious about their grades. Within a week four students committed suicide because of bad grades.

About half a dozen fair coeds at the University of South Carolina donned old-fashioned clothes and had themselves towed up and down the Main street of Columbia in an antiquated horse-drawn vehicle. The purpose of the whole thing was to advertise anti-tuberculosis Christmas seals, and various signs on the wagon made known this intent.

One of Duke University's latest projects was the placing of a radio in the infirmary. The social and honorary campus fraternities, the coaching staff, and several faculty members made the gift possible. Doctors state that the radio is quite a benefit to confined students.

Here's another absent-minded professor gag. It seems as though a member of the faculty at Franklin and Marshall reported the theft of his car when he couldn't locate it after one of his classes. After a bit of checking up, it was found that he had walked to class that morning.

Undergraduate at Columbia University have voiced the opinion that freshmen and sophomores should not be handed over to young instructors. They feel that these lower classmen need the stimulation which comes from older and more experienced professors.

Six unruly freshmen at Lehigh were shorn of their locks by the sophomore council. They had a meeting—the unfortunate freshmen and the rest of their class—and contemplated a rebellion, but they were more or less quieted after a short talk by the dean.

Hamlin University, the oldest college in Minnesota, no longer requires students to have a certain number of credits for graduation. Instead they will progress as swiftly as they please, receiving a diploma when they have passed a comprehensive examination regardless of the length of time they have spent at Hamlin.—Swarthmore Phoenix.

A cultural test of 1,700 students in six colleges, conducted by the Carnegie Foundation, reveals that on the average the freshmen know more than the seniors, especially in mathematics and English—Swarthmore Phoenix.

To take the students and alumni of the University of Southern California to their football clash with the University of California, several boats were hired, and three official trains were engaged. Every modern convenience was afforded the enthusiasts, including music and dancing in specially fitted cars.

Y.W.C.A.

MINISTERS GIVE TALKS OF INSPIRATION

Prayers were thoroughly enjoyed by those who attended during the past week Rev. Frederick Diehl, of the Episcopal church, gave us a very inspiring talk on Tuesday evening, Rev. J. A. Redhead, from the Presbyterian church, on Wednesday evening, and Rev. Lipscomb, from the Methodist church on Thursday evening.

Through these talks our minds were lifted from the cares of life and centered upon the pleasures of living a Christian life. We would leave prayers feeling strengthened to "press on towards the mark of the High Calling."

CHRISTMAS MUSIC FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES SUNG

On Friday evening, December 11, Miss Mamie Nichols talked in prayers. She centered her talk around the Christmas thought, which is so prevalent at this season of the year. Miss Nichols related many interesting things about the Christmas customs and symbols in England, France, Spain and Italy. As she related the various customs, girls sang Christmas carols, anthems and songs in the language of the particular countries.

The Yuletide season is celebrated the world over in many ways. In this country contributions have been made by many foreign nations to the celebration of the Yuletide season. For example the Christmas tree came from Germany, and the carols from England.

SPECIAL NOTICE

To Members of Faculty and Student Body

NAIMAN'S STUDIOS

COLLEGE PHOTOGRAHERS

From Washington D. C.

Wait for your college photographer.

Willis . . . . Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Manageemnt

W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE

Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR

and

COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community

For Over Half a Century

Finest Toilet Requisites

Drugs and Stationery

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For

The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S

The Home of the Needs

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES

WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP

AND LEATHER USED

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

LOVELY CHRISTMAS GIFTS

They're here—new five o'clock dresses in all the new spring shades. And remember! The lowest prices in town—$4.45 and $7.45. Unless you forget, all of our fall and winter dresses have been reduced.

$7.45 DRESSES, Now ---------- $5.74

$4.45 DRESSES, Now ---------- $3.94

All $2.74 sport dresses now $1.94

Christmas gifts! Gorgeous negligees, dance sets, slips, gowns, pajamas, kimonas and robes, priced from 97c to $5.45. Headquarters for Xmas hosiery—69c, 94c, $1.25 and $1.48. The new mesh hose are here—$1.00, $1.48, and $1.94. And dont' forget! All of our coats reduced now.

DOROTHY MAY STORES

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON

A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices

WEYANOKE HOTEL

Farmville, Va.

Fischer's

Records

Sheet Music

Instruments

Novelties, etc.

Repairing

Third Street

NOTEBOOK FILLERS

3 for 20c

These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.

Get them at

Davidson's

HOUSE OF QUALITY

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

"The Store of your choice"

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE!

Your unrestricted choice of our $9.95 and $14.95 Dresses Plenty of newest styles and colors to pick from. Charge it if you like ---------- $7.85

New sport Knit Dresses ---------- $2.95

Rull fashioned $1.00 hose Special, pair ---------- 50c

The Hub Department Store

FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

Mr. Brown:" How do you like this house?"
Mrs. Brown: "Oh, it's perfect! The view simply leaves me speechless!"
Mr. Brown: "We'll buy it."

"How did the expression 'killing two birds with one stone', originate?"
"Well, it seems that a Scotchman went hunting—!"

"When I was in China I saw them hang a girl!"
"Shanghai?"
"Yep. Every bit of ten feet off the ground."

Nancy "I only say what I know."
"City": "Now, I see why you're so silent!"

A. J.: "I've always traveled in the best circles of life."
Grace Va.: "So that explains that dizzy look!"

H. S. C.: "What do you think of our last play? It had a very happy ending, didn't it?"
S. T. C.: "Yeh. Everyone was glad when it was finished."

Husband: "When are you going to stop driving from the back seat?"
Wife: "When you stop trying to cook from the dining room table!"

"City": "Is my face dirty or is it my imagination?"
Mary Alice: "Well, your face isn't; I don't know about your imagination."

Puppy love is certainly the beginning of a dog's life!!

"What's a blotter?"
"Oh, it's something you look for while the ink dries."

"Papa, what is science?"
"Don't be so dumb! Science is them things wot says, 'Keep off de grass'."

"What have you in the shape of automobile tires?"
"Funeral wreaths, life preservers, doughnuts and mints."

"Cheer up!
You have two chances—
One of getting the germ
And one of not.
And if you get the germ
You have two chances—
One of getting the disease
And one of not.
And if you get the disease
You have two chances—
One of dieing
And one of not.
And if you die—
Well, you still have two chances."

Wonder if Reno is the Great American Divide!

Cecil: "Whatcha doin', Belle?"
Belle: "Aw, shut up! I'm adding figures and everytime I see you I add zero."

The absent-minded professor met his son in school one morning and said, "Good morning, John. How's your father today?"

He: "May I have this dance?"
She: "No, I'm engaged."
He: "That's nothing I'm married."

Jane: "Do you think I'll ever be able to do anything with my voice?"
Nan: "Oh, it might come in handy in case of fire."

Parson Brown: "Let us pray. Deacon Smith, will you lead?"
Deacon Smith (awakening from a sound sleep): "Lead yourself, I just dealt."

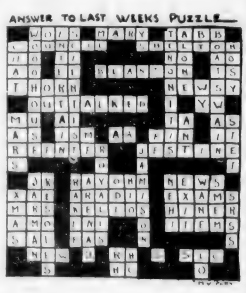
ALUMNAE HOCKEY TEAM

Reading from left to right: Iler, Hatchett, Simpson, Putney, Anthony, N. S. Anthony, Bully, Rhodes, Hardy, Evans, Boggs and Edwards.

MORE PLAYERS OUT FOR BASKET BALL

Congratulations! The number out for basket ball has more than doubled! Now, there are nearly a hundred girls coming out but we would like to see two hundred. Let's see if you can do it. "The more the merrier."

You will not be the only one who has never played before. More than a third of the number have never even picked a ball up before. Come on out and learn with them! Don't say you don't have time! You know you can spare a half an hour or an hour three afternoons a week from four to six. And I'll bet you made better grades on those exams in the bargain.



Come out after Christmas and you'll be ready to work all the harder.

GARNER BRINGS POWER

In John Garner, new speaker of the House of Representatives, the Democratic party has its first symbol of power in national affairs since Woodrow Wilson turned over the reins of the presidential office to Warren G. Harding. Not for many years have the political followers of Thomas Jefferson dominated either branch of the Congress. They have been forced, in the exigencies of the times to play the roles of dissenters from a majority opinion. Overwhelming Republican sentiment began to appear after Wilson's famous appeal in 1913 for a Democratic Congress; it ran at full tide until the violent reaction set in last year.

And now John Garner of Texas sits in the seat of the mighty. He is the political successor of Reed, of Cannon, of Champ Clark and of Nicholas Longworth. In point of authority to shape the affairs of the country his is the second place in the government. While in times of liberal thought, he has been shorn of some of his powers, the Speaker of the House still rules that body with somethink akin to czar-like finality. Few measures, particularly when the two major parties are sharply divided, as they are in the Seventy-second Congress, get by without his imprimateur. In him is reposed the confidence which a responsible leader must enjoy.

ANSWER TO LAST WEEK'S PUZZLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

HOCKEY SEASON CLOSED

The hockey season closed last week with the championship game between the juniors and sophomores. Much praise should be given the sport managers for their work. Every day we had newly painted balls and also we had a well-marked field; both of these proved helpful to the players. The two sport leaders Dot Snedegar and Nannie Ruth Cooper, did their work well and their efforts were appreciated. They were successful in getting a game with Westhampton, and even though we lost, it was a very good game. With the hockey season over, all the equipment has been put away to await next fall's call.

TWO PIANO RECITAL OF CELEBRATED ARTISTS AFFORDS PLEASURE

Continued from page one

mind a single question—is it possible to detect in this music the performance of two persons, or does it sound (increased sonority excepted) like the work of a single organism) Listening thus, one found the latter to be the case."

The Saratogian, N. Y.—"The two have already gained a solid reputation as ensemble players of the highest artistic ideals. The program ran the gamut from Mozart to the contemporaries, stopping just short of the ultramoderns. Perhaps the most important offering of the evening was the touching and self-revealing Schumann Andante and Variations. The two artists chose to underline the strange pathos which pervades the beautiful work in thier serious and noble reading of it."

Stamford Advocate—"From beginning to end it was a delight to the two pianists playing with an ensemble and a perfection such as one might expect only from artists of far greater reputation. It was most interesting to note how two such different personalities—he all temperament and verve, she all charm and ease—could blend to such a degree as to seem at all times as though the two pianos were but one."

Boston Herald—"The playing of these two pianists justly gave pleasure to their audience. Thoughtful sensitive performances came from each, with many delicacies and felicities of phrase and tone, and with richness and variety of sonority. In their performance of the Mozart Duettino there was a purling delicacy of passage work, exquisite grace in phrasing, a cansummate neatness of response from player to player."

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM DEC. 16-22

WEDNESDAY — ALFRED LUNT and LYNN FONTANNE in "THE GUARDSMAN." Here is a picture we hardly know how to advertise. It is so unusual, so different. Two of the world's finest actors are in it, yet you may have never seen them. The picture is one continuous uproar of laughs, yet the title sounds like heavy drama. It is the famous Theatre Guild play—yet it is not highbrow—it's fun for everybody—all about a jealous husband and a wife who had to have a new romance every spring—and he knew it. It's a saucy, witty, naughty, gay Ferenc Molnar comedy, portrayed by the aristocrats of the American stage, whose superb acting will amaze you.

THURS. and FRI.—"The CHAMP," with WALLACE BEERY and JACKie COOPER. Out of the magic studios of California has come a picture so majestically moving that true immortality awaits it. This boy who had such abiding faith in the fallen idol, his father. How he will win your heart as he fights his father's fight, a laugh on his lips but a pang in his young heart. Wallace Beery—never before so wonderful! Jackie Cooper—the boy star with heaven in his face. If we were asked what picture of the year every man woman and child in Farmville should see, we would unquestionably say "The Champ." This picture is now running in New York at $2 a seat, showing three times a day instead of the usual two, to accommodate the crowds. It has been praised from one end of the country to the other as the outstanding achievement of recent years. Don't pass up the opportunity to see and enjoy a really great picture. No advance in prices. Also Zazu Pitts—Thelma Todd Comedy, "War Mamas."

SATURDAY — "SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK," with ANITA PAGE, BUSTER KEATON and CLIFF EDWARDS. A screamingly funny talking screen story of a young millionaire's experiences in mad Manhattan. He falls in love with a girl of the tenements, and to win her, attempts to reform her tough kid brother. Here's a riot of fun and laughter you must see. More melodrama than a gang picture. More heart interest than a romance. More slapstick than a circus. More kid stuff than "Tom Sawyer," and more laughs than a barrel of monkeys. Also Screen Song, "Somebody Stole My Gal," and Fox News.

NEXT MON.—"RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE," with GEORGE O'BRIEN, Nora Beery and Marguerite Churchill. Here's Zane Grey's greatest romance. An action drama of a 1000 thrills. Rustlers, rangers and romance ride the saddle under a desert moon. A fearless man and a true-blood girl battle terrific odds in this sweeping story of the great Southwest. Not a girl in the country who wouldn't be proud of this handsome daredevil. An outlaw, yes, but his smile shot up their hearts. Zane Grey says, "Fox has made a great picture of my most popular story." Also Our Gang Comedy, "Big Ears," and Fox News.

NEXT TUES.—RUTH CHATTERTON in "ONCE A LADY." Here is a picture appealing to the better natures of all women—all men. Here's recreation for the pent-up emotions—a dynamic dramatic romance that does wonderful things to your heart.

Admission— Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees; children under 12, 15c to each show.

We Wish You a

MERRY CHRISTMAS

As we extend greetings of the season, may we also thank you for a year of pleasant patronage!

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

The Style Shop For College Girls

Kleanwell

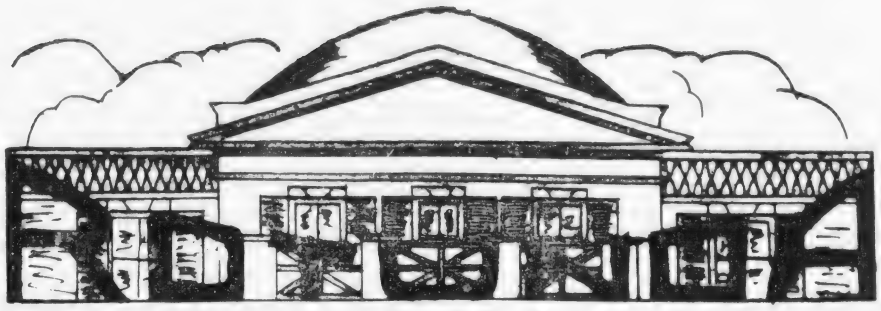
CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus



TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

SUBSCRIBE TO "VIRGINIAN"

COME TO SENIOR FOLLIES

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1932 No. 13

Study Hall Is To Be Held

For Three Call Downs, Girls Will Be Sent To Study Hall

MEMBERS OF H. C. TO PRESIDE

Beginning this week the House Council is keeping a study hall from seven-thirty to ten o'clock every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday night. To this hall will be sent for the period of a week all those girls who have had three call-downs about noise during study hour or about keeping lights on later than ten-thirty or eleven without permission.

Before this, when a girl received three call-downs in a quarter she was campused for a week. This was found to be unsatisfactory. Now, the girl who disturbs anyone during study hour or keeps her lights on after the set time must go to study hall for five consecutive nights.

Study Hall will be kept by a member of the House Council who is to see that the girls present, study or remain quiet from seven-thirty until ten. Those girls who have library references to read will have to read them in the afternoon. Those who have art work to do will have to bring their materials to study hall.

Call-downs will be given individuals not rooms.

Rush to Buy Likenesses of First Pres.

While four bedraggled citizens stood waiting at 7:30 o'clock New Years morning to get a look at the 31st President of the United States, an enthusiastic crowd of 2,500 people swarmed into Washington's post office to buy likenesses of the first U. S. President. By nightfall over 40,000 Philatelists far and near have secured more than a million stamps commemorating the 200th anniversary of George Washington's birth. Twenty-five clerks were kept busy distributing the new series of twelve Washington stamps, cancelling them so that collectors might have the valuable date of issue.

It is a wise citizen who knows the Father of His Country in all the New Washington Bicentennials. The Post Office Department has gone to some pains to obtain obscure likenesses of the issue which ranges from 1-2 cent to 10 cents. There are four Charles Wilson Peales, two John Trumbills, a reproduction of the Houdon bust, by famed Gilbert Stuart ($1 bill) Athenaum portrait, the New York Historical Society's anonymous portrait, a crayon drawing made from life by Charles B. F. Saint-Memin, a portrait by William Williams, and others.

The Post Office Department has about run out of old issues. It expects to use 14 billions of the Bicentennial Washingtons for the first seven or eight months of 1932.

THREE STUDENTS FINISH AT END OF FALL QUARTER

Two degree students, Eloise Perkins and Mildred Varner, and one diploma student, Mary Elizabeth Glidewell completed requirements for the degree and diploma during the fall quarter.

These girls will be missed at S. T. C. The College wishes them much success in the future.

SENIOR CHORAL CLUB OF S. T. C. PRESENTS JOANNE de NAULT

On Thursday evening, January 28 Joanne de Nault, contralto, will be presented by the Senior Choral Club in the main auditorium of S. T. C.

It has long been the desire of this music body to present a singer of great distinction, with ability to win the audience with a beautiful big voice—velvety and rich, with clear diction. At last this opportunity is open to you. You will be agreeably surprised when you hear this singer in your town. Mme. de Nault has a voice of real beauty, her upper tones brilliant and lower tones full of a velvety quality. In addition, she is of charming personality and compelling artistry. The sweetness of her voice wins at once her way into the hearts of her audience. Her first visit to Staunton was such a success that in October she delighted that town with another concert, which was a marked success. Her program will be a diversified one which will charm and delight any audience.

The Town Band which is making rapid progress will also give a short number on this program, and the Choral Club will give a lovely number by the Oratorio Society.

MATHEMATICS CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The Mathmematics Club held its meeting, Monday, January 11 in Room 19. Evelyn Williams was appointed to fill the position of vice-president left vacant by Doris Robertson for the winter term. The Rhind Papyrus which was purchased for the club by Miss Taliaferro has arrived and was exhibited at the meeting.

The topic of the program was "Mathematics in the Home". Cleo Quisenberry gave a very interesting paper on the "Budget," which showed the benefits of budget-making in home-making. "The Family in Relation to the Community" was presented by Rachel McDaniel, showing how the family's money is used in public service. Elizabeth Walthall gave a paper on "Mathematics in Relation to Worthy Home Membership," showing the aid of mathematics in the home. The program was concluded by a Christmas story entitled "Anne's Surprise" by Marguerite Massey, which led Anne to discover how much mathematics influenced her Christmas.

DEPRESSION HITS OHIO, SO GIRLS DECIDE TO GO LIGHT ON REFRESHMENTS

With their right hands firmly planted on an economics book, members of Theta Pi Alpha SSociety at Ohio State University took an oath not to eat more than 15 cents worth when their boy friends take them to campus "beaneries."

The decision followed a national controversy over the decision of the Delta Gamma Sorority girls at the University of Missouri to pledge themselves to a 5-cent soda fountain bill when on a date with a college man.

Delta Gamma girls at Northwestern University repudiated this move on the part of their sorority sisters, coyly declaring that the men students wouldn't like it.

The Ohio State girls are from Missouri on thsi point, however, and exsouri on this point, however, and exleast would appreciate the action.

New Students Come To S. T. C. This Week

We are glad to welcome the following new students:

Hazel Lester Basnight of Norfolk, Va., who was transferred from Atlantic University.

Emily Josephine Congdon of Petersburg, Va.;

Hallie Henkle Hay of Staunton, Va.;

Mary Cropper Hurley of Atlantic, Va., who was transferred from William and Mary College;

Ella Grey Johnson of Alberta, Va.;

June Yetive Oney of Roanoke, Va.;

Evelyn Coleman Pearcy of Wytheville, Va., who was transferred from East Radford College;

Rosa Kathleen Petree of Princess Anne, Va., who was transferred from Atlantic University.

Nancy Marshall Richardson of Lynnhaven, Va.;

Janie M. Williamson of Nelson, Va.;

Ethel Wallop Winder of Atlantic Virginia, who was transferred from William and Mary College.

And Pauline Woodhouse of Princess Anne, Va., who was transferred from Atlantic University.

We are very glad to welcome the following special students:

Mildred Amelia Faskey of Portsmouth, Va.;

Irene May Leake of Orange, Va.;

Mrs. Cora Lee Merchant of Farmville, Va.;

We have been missing the following old students and are very glad to have them back again:

Theodocia Mary Beacham, of Holland, Va.;

Hazel Gertrude Clevinger of Farmville, Va.;

Iva Ethelyn Eason of Suffolk, Va.;

Jac Davis Morton of Farmville, Va;

And Mary Virginia Robinson of North Garden, Va.

Pi Kappa Delta Presents Up to Freddie

Pi Kappa Delta gave a very informal leap year greeting in its play "Up to Freddie" which was presented in the auditorium last Saturday, January 9, at 8:00. It was quite a greeting, quite a leap year stunt, and should prove of great assistance to the feminine corps of S. T. C. The plot of the play was rather clever, the acting was very good, the groups of characters quite interesting.

The character, Freddie, was played by Mr. S. M. Holton, who proved an interesting as well as an entertaining actor. It was "Up to Freddie" to become engaged to four girls at same time and then have to leave his native land for fear of entangling alliances with all four maidens. This scene in which he became engaged to the four girls in about twenty minutes was the most enjoyable of the entire program and the most comical, also.

"Fweddie", as he called himself, was a difficult roll but it was carried out well. Being an ardent lover of womankind and a man of great conceit, Freddie was the central figure of the play. His every action was watched. Due recognition should also go to the acting of Mr. Coyner, as Stanhope, a college laddie, and Dr. Walmsley, as Lodge, a prominent playwright of the twentieth century.

The other characters consisted of Maria Warren, who was the heroine and who showed great wit and presence of mind in her love tangle with Dr. Walmsley; Winston Cobb, who played the part of an old maid aunt, boring, yet with too intelligent an

Continued on page four

SENIOR FOLLIES WILL BE PRESENTED THIS SATURDAY NIGHT

The senior class show will be given this Saturday night, January 16, 1932, at eight o'clock.

This class has had an unsual reputation for putting on unusual follies and minstrel shows. This reputation has been established since the first year this class was in college; that year the minstrel was a big success. This year the same type of show is planned, but with many new attractions. The first part will be made up of dances and latest song hits, and the last part will be the minstrel show.

The theme of the performance is a ship. This theme has been carefully and minutely worked out by the committee; it promises to be the most attractive and unusual ever given by the Class of '32.

As a special feature on the program, Miss Robertson will dance. She has danced for the girls at S. T. C. in many beautiful dances before but she is at her best Saturday night. It is worth twenty-five cents just to see her dance.

DEAN'S LIST FOR THIS QUARTER ANNOUNCED

The following girls made the Dean's list for the winter quarter, 1932:

*Henrietta E. Cornwell, Winchester, Va.

Lilian Frances Crawford, R. 1, Staunton, Va.

*Mary Eleanor Davis, Salisbury, Md.

Emma Frances Edwards, Chatham, Va.

*Mary Louise Elliott, Winfall, Va.

*Lucy Eldridge Fitzgerald, Crewe, Va.

*Susie Vann Floyd, Hilton Village, Va.

Virginia Arvin Gee, Kenbridge, Va.

Agnes Lee Grigg, Amelia, Va.

*Sara Kimbrough Hubard, Buckingham, Va.

*Lucie Anne Lane, Dendron, Va.

Bessie Hankins Lynch, Portsmouth, Va.

*Mary Elizabeth McCauley, New Hope, Va.

*Anne Watkins Rice, Farmville, Va.

*Easter M. Souders, Petersburg, Va.

*Mildred White Steere, Petersburg, Va.

*Annie Laurie Stone, Farmville, Va.

Grace Virginia Woodhouse, Portsmouth, Va.

*Louise Upton Woodson, Lynchburg, Va.

*On Dean's list, Fall Quarter, 1931.

VIRGINIAN STAFF ASKS SUPPORT OF STUDENT BODY FOR THE ANNUAL

The Virginia staff wishes to impress upon the whole student body the necessity of subscribing to their college annual. The members of the staff will convass each hall and it will be greatly appreciated if each pay more on her subscription when asked to. In order to meet their bills, the staff has to derive their funds from the subscriptions, and it will be impossible to do so unless each student subscribes to The Virginian. Another important fact which is necessary to bring to the student body's attention is that each organization be sure to pay their representation dues. We wish to thank those organizations which have paid, and we are sure that those who haven't will do so at the earliest time.

Pi Gamma Mu Convention Meets

Dr. James Elliott Walmsley, Presides as National Chairman of the Convention

WIDELY EXTENDED PROGRAM

The National Convention of Pi Gamma Mu was held at New Orleans during the Christmas holidays. The meeting extended over four days and had the largest attendance of any previous convention.

Dr. Walmsley, National Chairman of Pi Gamma Mu, presided at the various meetings. The program was the most widely extended one that the society has ever known. Addresses were given every afternoon, one important open meeting was held at night. The big social event of the convention was a banquet which enabled the representatives to become better acquainted.

Three addresses were very outstanding, Dr. Ellwood of Duke University spoke on "Need for Scholarship in Social Science." Dr. Watkins, of the University of California, gave a very inspiring address on "Present Day Conditions in Russia." Dr. Hamilton Holt of Raleigh Colelge, spoke on "Modern Trend in Social Education."

S. T. C. is very proud of the fact that Dr. Walmsley was head of the National Convention the past year. It is an honor that seldom comes to Virginia and it helps a great deal to make our college one of the leading teachers colleges of the nation. Dr. Ellwood was elected to suceced Dr. Walmsley.

$200 in Cash Awards Is Offered in College

Teachers and students alike will be interested in two awards of $100 each which offered Southern teachers' colleges and college departments of education for participating in a simple project entitled "The Quest for Understanding." The project is sponsored by an association of Southern educators interested in promoting a sane educational approach to the problems of justice involved in the South's racial situation, and is promoted by the Commission on Interracial Cooperation.

One award of $100 will go to the student submitting the best paper on this subject, based upon sources and suggestions which will be supplied without charge. An equal sum will be awarded the class, group of classes, or college making the best collective use of the project. The closing date will be April 1, 1932.

The Committee promoting the project wishes to get in touch with all students and professors who are interested, and will furnish full information and source materials on request. R. B. Eleazer, at 703 Standard Building, Atlanta, Georgia, is secretary of the Committee.

VARSITY DEBATERS ARE CHOSEN FOR THE YEAR

Try-outs for varsity debaters were held Monday, January 11. Those chosen for the varsity team this year are:

Margaret Hix
Martha Gunter
Margaret DeShazo
Carrie DeShazo

These debaters will debate the question, Resolved, "That Congress Should Enact Legislation Providing for Centralized Control of Industry (constitutionality waived)."

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

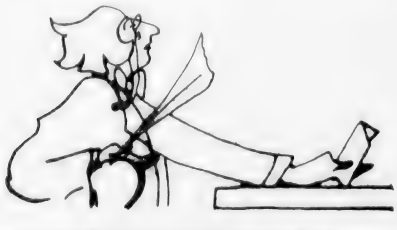
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

The Study Hall

At the student body meeting last Monday night we were told about a new system that the House Council is going to try, to see if conditions can not be improved during study hour and after light bell. It seems that there has been entirely too much noise and too little studying going on.

The plan that has been adopted is this: Each hall president will place a list of her students on her hall outside her door. If, for any reason, she has to give a girl a call down this will be placed opposite her name on the list. For example: "Mary Jones —One call-down for noise during study hour." When a girl has received three call downs, then she will have to report to study hall for one week.

Study hall will be held in Mr. Bell's classroom every week night from 7:30 until 10:00, and will be in charge of one of the members of the House Council. Each person who is required to report to study hall will have an opportunity to study for the entire study hour without disturbing anyone or being disturbed. Should a girl fail to report to study hall after she has been notified that she must go, then she will be placed on campus.

As has been said, this plan is being promoted with the hope that everyone will settled own and try to put in some good hard studying so that this term's grades will show up much better than the ones we have just received for last term, and from a casual observation it would seem that there is room for improvement.

Everyone has accepted this plan with a splendid spirit and already a noted change for the better has taken place. Keep up the good work and keep away from study hall!

OVER THE HOLIDAYS

"Now rest up and come back hungry for work and more work": these words were the last we heard from the faculty in dear old departed 1931 (may the dead past bury its dead). But different was the reaction the vacation caused. Instead of beautiful looking shining eyes for the faculty to gaze into on the first morning of return, eyelids only returned the scrutiny which did not last long 'ere eyelids looked upon eyelids—The faculty too had had their fling.

Good times were measured according to the abiltiy to hold the eyes open—the less open the eyes, the better the time. Most everybody had a swell time.

However, belonging to the plastic age we youth did not take long to rejuvenate and after a few days of "I don't guess Miss B——k will call the roll this early I'll sleep, and "I don't guess he'll call on us today; I won't go to the library, I'll sleep", and some few just plain "I'll sleep", we were right back where we were except that Dot Logan and Gwen Daniel and lots of other people have new coats which put them ahead of the rest of us, we are okay and ready for anything.

And there's one more thing now that we're back here for good, all ready to study hard 'n everything, I'd like to sentence the next person who says "The time is not so ago I was eating turkey and cranberries", or this time a couple weeks ago I was with my Jimmy"—to six weeks campus and that's pretty bad, too!

GLORY WITHOUT STINT GIVEN WOMEN

Glory without stint was heaped upon women during the year just passed. Especially in the United States did feminine achievements during 1931 receive recognition.

Heading the list is Miss Jane Addams, of Chicago, who, at 71 is still working for the welfare of the less fortunate. Four rewards, three of them accompanied by money, amounting to $30,000, were bestowed upon her. Her crowning triumph was the announcement that she would share with Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler the $40,000 Nobel peace prize.

Miss Mary Emma Wooley, president of Mount Holyoke College, came into international prominence through her appointment by President Hoover as a representative on the American delegation to the Geneva disarmament conference next February.

Doris Stevens became the first woman member of the American Institute of National Law.

Ruth Nichols set a new women's long distance flying record.

Amelia Earhart made the first round trip transcontinental autogyro flight.

Helen Hicks, new women's golf champion, made her year a triumph by winning every tournament she entered except one.

Mrs. Anne Morrow Lindbergh recevied a private pilot's license and flew with Col. Lindbergh to the Orient.

Margaret Ayres Barnes was awarded the Pulitzer prize for her novel, "Years of Grace;" Susan Glaspell with her "Allison House" won the Pulitzer prize for the best original American play.

In foreign lands, Amy Johnson, English aviatrix, flew from London to Tokio in 10 1-2 days, setting a new record. Mme. Sorajini Naida, suffragist, sat at the London round table conference with the potentates of the East discussing the Indian problem. In Spain, Victoria Kent became one of the first two women to sit in parliament, and the first woman to receive a high governmental appointment.

Say nothing
Lend nothing
Beg nothing
Give nothing
Prize nothing
Hope nothing
Waste Nothing
Know nothing
Own nothing
Steal nothing
Fear nothing
Scorn nothing
Mourn nothing
Bet nothing
Then you will regret nothing and be nothing.

AS YOU LIKE IT

Believe it or not, we have been back in school exactly one week and two days.

The "Secret Six" was nothing compared to the hold-up in the Biology "lab" the other night.

We heard recently that Henrietta Cornwall caught a new fellow. On the way back to S. T. C. after the holidays, the rumor says that the said fellow gave her a swell dinner in Richmond followed by a date for the show. Oh, me! She found out his name at dinner.

Have you heard the latest news which is circulating around the campus? Miss Robertson is going to dance in the Senior Follies Saturday night.

Virginia Thornhill surprised us all by her newly-shown athletic ability. A star of the high school days coming back to athletic life, perhaps.

Here's hoping that Martha Walters will keep on being the modern Peter Pan; also the monkey practice—Walters, you might get into a zoo some day.

We're sorry Mr. Holton got such a dislocating fall but he did locate very gracefully.

Mr. Strick should appreciate Mary Jess Richmond's choral club practice that she does as she goes about her weekly wash.

To avoid being knocked down, Hildie Ross really believes that an athletic coach should run on wheels.

COTTY CONFABS

On things I never knew till now by a jubilant Junior

That tea will be served in Mr. Bell's class room from 7:30 till 10 p. m. every school night. Reservations may be made, and if there is an overflow, we will adjourn to the large auditorium.

That Moomaw has no future, but oh, whatta past.

That Margaret Gathright is one grand versatile person.

That Gathright is not only running against Hoover and the depression, but also against Will Rogers for her wits.

That Miss Iler has been doing extensive charity work. Have you seen her holding the bread line for the unemployed Juniors?

That somewhere between gym hall and training school was lost—Alice Moore's pep!

That Grace Virginia as advertising agent for the Senior Minstrel won the entire Junior Class' promise to buy a ticket by starting, "Give us a quarter, or I'll give you one week!"

That we have heard a new sound, possibly a musical note in Jane Royall's laugh.

That the Junior Class wishes to announce that they will present on February 20th two side splitting, smashing, four starred, triple checked all star plays, which we hope by its box oce returns will show it lives up to its reputation.

That before Christmas the student body was nutty but now it is without a doub, gone fruitty.

That the great unemployed depressionized body at S. T. C. have at last found jobs! Namely, picking up tangerine seeds so as to prevent an overflow of this fruit next year.

That Dr. Field is rushed to death and the infirmary is filled. This is caused by the untimely return of grades, and the crashed price of tangerines.

That Margaret Massey, with her flaming hair and green natural prancing costume reminds us of the good old Christmas spirit.

That Winston Cobb is running Mrs. Laing a hard battle as the most efficient chaperone.

That Hattie Gilliam has gine in mourning in defeat. (Hattie what will you do for white oxfords in the spring?).

That the Junior Class wishes to announce to "Empty Rawls" and all other bill collectors that you can't squeeze blood from a turnip.

YOU

The silent star
That shines on high
Much like a diamond laid in satin,
Exceeds by far
Your shining eye
As much as Slav surpasses Latin.

Your lips that speak
Of love so dear
Are scarlet buds that give me heartache;
They make me weak
With deadly fear
That you should try to make my heart break.

But then your heart
With gentle throbs
Pulsates in time to true emotion;
And from the start
Not lost in sobs
You swore to me sincere devotion.

A. M. DeM.

ANGELUS

The sun has set, its afterglow is gone,
And night will soon descend to hide the earth
Until the Lord of Day will rise at dawn
Once more revealing toil and pain and mirth.
The sun has set and darkness is descending.
But now, 'tis twilight; that delightful hour
When all is perfect peace, the peace that's lending
Enchantment to the field and to the flower.
The sun has set and in its stead, a moon,
A silver moon, a graceful, floating barque
Upon a velvet sea. Yet all too soon
It sinks and leaves us groping in the dark.
But as we grope in darkness, hearts are gay,
Tomorrow, God will send another day.

VALUES

O Love, could I but take the hours
That once I spent with thee,
And coin them all in minted gold,
What should I purchase that would hold
Their worth in joy to me?
Ah, Love—another hour with thee!

LOSS

Once was the need of you
A pain too great to bear
And all my heart went calling you
In work and song and prayer.

But now dull time has brought
A sadder, stranger lot—
That I should look upon the day
And find I need you not.

THE BUCK IN THE SNOW

Edna St. Vincent Milay

"White sky, over the hemlocks bowed with snow,
Saw you not at the beginning of evening the antlered buck and doe
Standing in the apple-orchard? I saw them.
I saw them suddenly go
Tails up, with long leaps lovely and slow,
Over the stone-wall into the wood of hemlocks bowed with snow.

Now lies he here—his wild blood scalding the snow.
How strange a thing is death, bringing to his knees, bringing to his antlers
The buck in the snow.
How strange a thing a mile away by now it may be,
Under the heavy hemlocks that as the moments pass
Shift their loads a little, letting fall a feather of snow—
Life, looking out attentive from the eyes of the doe."

SOCIALS

Grace Virginia Woodhouse and Frances Dorin were in Richmond this week-end.

• • •

Lorena Bland spent the week-end in Boydton.

• • •

Irwin Staples and Mary Burgess Frasier were in Burkeville this week-end.

• • •

Louise Woodson spent the week-end in Petersburg.

• • •

Frances Daughtry spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

Gertrude Sugden was visiting in Orange this week-end.

• • •

Ambler Lee spent the week-end at her home in Charlottesville.

• • •

Mary McDearmon was in Pamplin this week-end.

• • •

Eleanor Holman spent the week-end in Cartersville.

• • •

Mildred Hall was in Columbia this week-end.

• • •

Ann Davis, Kitty McIntyre, Evelyn Knaub, Lucille Tiller and Cottie Wilis went to Richmond Monday with Miss Stubbs.

PAN-HELLENIC DANCE IS HELD IN THE REC

Dancing to the melodious symphony of the Carolina Tar Heels, University of North Carolina Orchestra, the campus greeks staged their annual Pan-Hellenic entertainment in the Recreation Hall of the State Teachers College last Friday night. The affair, attended by practically all the fraternity men and pledges on the Hill, was acclaimed by many as the best of its kind for many years.

The hall was decorated with the banners of the eight orders, members of the Council, and the softened lights added much to the attractiveness of the floor. A novel feature, new to this dance, was presented by the management. Each frat was given a no-break at which time though the floor was not cleared the members of that club were not broken on. This arrangement was well received and many expressed hopes that it would be continued in the future.

The Tar Heels, a familiar orchestra at Hampden-Sydney dances, was at its best. This band which hails from the University of North Carolina is very popular and the Pan-Hellenic was very fortunate in securing their services.

Besides the stags, those attending were:

Bryant R. Harper with Margaret Hix.
A. R. Gillespie with Jane Royall.
W. R. Brown with Nan Gilbert
Tommy Garber with Frances Dorin
J. J. Lawson with Kitty McLemore
Wm. Shannon with Martha Walters
George Walters with Mae Brockenbrough
Purnell Baird with Arnold Fleetwood.
E. C. Bell with W. S. Drewry
W. McClintic with Jac Morton
John M. Hunt with Jessie Smith
Pinkie Smith with Virginia Lamb
R. C. Lewis with Ann McGann
Norris Blake with Clara McCliere
Edwin Bouldin with Jean McClure
Frank Whitehouse with Billie Chewning.
C. A. Hardaway with Margaretta Brady.
E. J. Nottingham with Virginia Sandford
Merle Smith with Laurine Billings
Ed Poole with Polly Brock
Garrett Gooch with Frances Willis
John Harwood with Mary Martin
Joe Bradford with Mrs. Joe Bradford.
R. G. McAllister with Martha Scott Watkins.
W. F. Spotswood with Thelma Walsh.
Jack Field with Elaine Goode
Marion Humphries with Virginia Hamilton.
John B. Piggott with Patty Ellison
Fleet Dillard with Sally Hundley
Billy Powell with Mary Harrison
Bruce Clark with Jerry Lee
James Hemphill with Dorothy Ritchie
Jack Grey with Nancy Harrison
John Brookes with Belle Lovelace
Frank Pauley with Charlotte Humphries
J. W. Gordan, Jr., with Martha Sanders
E. L. Kendig with Vernie Oden
John Bruner with Margaret Banks
Andrew Leake with Mary Shelton
Pete Trent with Marietta Wilson
R. A. Michaux with Janet Turpin
F. A. Lasley with Nancy Burgwyn
John Grant with Katherine Lorraine.
O'Ferrall Thompson with Evelyn Knaub
Jack McCurdy with Gloria Mann
Tony DeMuth with Martha Ann Laing
Sam McLaughlin with Lucille Tiller
Carl Wiley with Nedra Bair.
G. W. Branham with Pauline Oliver
Chas. Garden with Alice Hardaway
C. H. Hitchings with Mary Hill
Lee Williams with Gwendolyn Daniels
Franklin Younger with Helen Cover
Robert Edmunds with Catherine Marshall.
Roger Thomas with Mary Warren
Don Goshorn with Va. Marchant
Ray Campbell with Mildred Bouldwin.
M. C. Dortch with Celia Jones
Ludwell Strader with Martha Jones

WORLD NEWS

The Democrats chose Chicago for their convention city and in a session as harmonious as their last gathering was turbulent referred the prohibition issue to the national meeting.

Chairman Raskob and vice-chairman Byrd, representing conflicting groups which clashed in the March session put through a smooth-working program without a hitch, June 27, two weeks after the Republicans meet in the same city was chosen for the convention date.

When the roof of part of the Vatican library collapsed the other day, 15,000 rare old books were ruined and four men lost their lives. Scholars and laborers alike worked feverishly to rescue other thousands of books and succeeded in salvaging most of them before a heavy rainstorm descended on the scene.

More than 10,000 ills and ailments of mankind have finally been given Engish names, in place of the tongue-twisting Greek and Latin titles that have groun up around them. The list, prepared by the National Conference of Medicine, will be printed this winter by the U. S. Public eHalth Service.

Goods manufactured by forced labor, under conditions resembling slavery, are prohibited from importation into the U. S. by a recent meeting of the Treasury Department. Convict labor gods had already been barred. The ruling will affect chiefly Russia and certain southern countries where the state department has reason to believe that convict laborers or indentured workmen are being employed.

Governor Theodore Roosevelt of Porto Rico has been promoted by President Hoover to America's highest colonial office upon the resignation of Dwight F. Dawes as governor of the Philippine Islands.

CLASS NOTES

According to the meeting of the Freshman class last night, there seems to be monkey business ahead! Then it leaked out that the laugh was to be on the faculty. That sounds bad—but really it's going to be great! Watch for the "Big Date"—the extraordinary basketball game—"Faculty versus Freshmen." Youcan't afford to miss it. It'll be the biggest event of the year. Here's hoping the best team wins—what yuh say?

Presentation

On Saturday morning the Sophomores will present Miss Potts, their class man to the faculty and student body. Sophs are looking forward to this being a very memorable event, because they are so proud of her, and as a class man she has proven so efficient. Miss Potts started her guidance in the fall of 1931 and since that time has endeared herself in the hearts of every sophomore by her conscientious and understanding pilotship.

So, it is with love and pride that the Sophomores look forward to Saturday that time of opportunity when they will present—Miss Potts!

Musical Comedy

On February 5 the Sophomores are presenting one of the biggest hits of the season. Betty Low! A musocal comedy. Margaret Banks is lead director and is a very efficient one. What it takes to make a hit, Margaret Banks has it. The characters are being selected and with this much done, student body and faculty—look out. This comedy is full of love, wit, romance and song, just the thing the college girls and boys will enjoy. So, don't miss it! The hit of the season, Betty Lay!

The Sophomore Class is making their annual drive this week for dues. Many have responded already and many more have promised. But due to the depression the girls just don't have the money. Sophomores, you have mad a good beginning in swelling the budget of the class so keep it up.

The Junior Class has been divided into teams with a leader at the head of each team. The object is to see which team can raise the most money before next Tuesday night when the contest closes. The group raising the most money (including dues) wins a prize. Which will be the lucky group?

The Junior Class is preparing for its big feature to be presented in February. This feature is two one-act plays which Jenilee Knight and Frances Potts will coach and direct. The advertising manager is Mae Downes and Mayr Gregory the business manager. Juniors, if you want to be supported by other classes, remember to support them first. We are expecting every Junior to wend her way to the auditorium Friday night at 8 o'clock.

YOU ARE INVITED
To Visit the New
LOUISE SHOPPE
HOTEL WEYANOKE
Latest Creations in Sport and Evening Dresses, Coats, Hosiery, Etc.
Prices Range From
$5.00 to $16.75

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

MR. JEFFERS TALKS AT PRAYERS

On Friday evening, January 8, Mr. Jeffers of the Biology Department, talked of Newfoundland, his native home. His talk was chiefly concerned with the geography of the country—its general location and size. Newfoundland is about the size of the state of Virginia, and is divided into forty districts or divisions as compared to a hundred counties in Virginia. This island is the largest on the east coats of North America and is in about the same lattitude as France. The climate is generally more mild than that of some parts of Maine, though precipitation in Newfoundland is considerably more than that of Maine.

A general insight in the home life of the people of Newfoundland was given. They are considerably hospitable people.

Mr. Jeffers will continue his talks in prayers on Friday evening, January 15.

In the next few weeks several prominent and interesting speakers are expected on our college campus under the direction of the Y. W. C. A. Problems will be discussed, and by so doing, it is hoped that our college will gain much helpful knowledge. These speakers have visited other college campuses, and bring with them much that is interesting and which will serve to help any Y. W. C. A. to render more constructive service.

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

HELLO EVERYBODY
It Won't Be Long Now
NAIMAN'S STUDIOS
COLLEGE PHOTOGRAHERS
Are Coming Soon
From Washington D. C.
Special Representative
Sarah Ford—Room 228 S. B.

Willis.... Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 255

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

STARTING TODAY——Our January Clearance Sale
$3.00, $4.00 and $5.00 Shoes reduced to $1.98
$7.85 Dresses reduced to $3.88
ALL COATS REDUCED ONE-HALF
Just arrived, the loveliest new spring dresses, prices
$2.95 TO $7.85
Your choice of any hat in the house 98c
The Hub Department Store
FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK

BUSINESS MANAGER
The Rotunda
DEAR MADAM:

Enclosed you will find $1.00 for which please send me The Rotunda from January to June, 1932.

Name _____

Address _____ State _____

JOKES

Tailor: "That coat fits you like a glove, sir."

Customer: "So I see. The sleeves cover my hands."

Teacher: "What did Ali Baba say when he wanted the magic cave to open?

Modern Child: "Open, sez me!"

Suitor: "If you marry me I'll take out a big life insurance policy, so that you will be provided for."

Girl: "Yes, but suppose you don't die?"

Eye: "What was the verdict?"

Full: "The jury found her beautiful in the first degree."

Bride: "Who is the man in the blue coat, darling?"

Groom: "That's the umpire, dear."

Bride: "Why does he wear that funny wire thing over his face?"

Groom: "To keep him from biting the players, precious."

"What's the prima donna angry about?"

"Oh, some critic said she sang like a siren. The only siren she knows anything about is the whistle they use on a police car."

Paul Whiteman lost sixty-nine pounds recently. We hear that he had to give his suit to two other fellows.

"Hello, is that Mrs. Brown? Well, this is Jack speaking. I say, dear, will it be all right if I bring a couple of fellows home for lunch?"

"Certainly, darling."

"..'Did you hear what I said?"

"Yes, you asked if you could bring two of your friends out to lunch. Of course, you can, dear."

"Sorry, madam, I've got the wrong Mrs. Brown."

Employer: "Your salary is a personal matter. It shouldn't be disclosed to anyone."

Employee: "Oh, don't worry. I am just as ashamed of it as you are."

Little Girl: "I know something I won't tell."

Older Brother: "Well, you'll get over that when you get to college."

"Bidgie": "I'll have you know I'm related to the Boones."

Banks: "Oh yeah, now I remember. Your grandmother's name was Bab."

"Does your husband ever take your little hand in his?"

"Yeah, and twists it until I drop the gun."

Biology Prof.: "What has eighteen legs and catches flies."

A. J.: "A baseball team."

Co-ed: "I'd like to try on that dress you have in the window."

Clerk: Sorry, miss, but that's a lamp shade."

Katherine: "What's a detour?"

Cecil: "The roughest distance between two points."

Grace Virginia: "Do you smoke?"

Josie: "No thanks, I just had one."

Walters: "What's the matter with Powell?"

Mary Alice: "Too conceited. The other day he bought a book called "What Two Million Women Want" just to see if they had spelled his name right."

He: "I would like to have some good old-fashioned loving."

She: "O. K. Come over to the house and I'll introduce you to grandma."

Kissing your wife is like scratching a place that doesn't itch.

VARSITY SQUAD FOR BASKETBALL IS CHOSEN

The varsity basketball squad for this year has been chosen. It is as follows:

Sara Beck
Fannye Bosworth
Elizabeth Berger
Frances Dillon
Frances Edwards
Mary Fraser
Mary Gregory
Martha Gunter
Violet Hoffa
Jennie Hurt
Virginia Linthicum
Lelia Mattox
Rebecca Owen
Margaret Parker
Mildred Phillips
Frances Potts
Martha Putney
Cleo Quisenberry
Duvahl Ridgeway
Dorothy Snedegar
Easter Souders
Elizabeth Wheeler
Sue Yeaman

INTRODUCING THE LAW MAKERS

Washington's latest best-seller, the new Congressional Directory tells that about our Senators and Congressmen which they want known, for they write it themselves.

There are seven Johnsons in Congress—of whom the most noted is perhaps Hiram of California. Three Halls are next in point of number.

James John (Puddler) Davis of Pennsylvania, squeezes his life story into forty lines—the longest biography in the volume. James Hamilton (Ham) Lewis runs a close second in matter of lengthy autobiographical material listing as many degrees and decorations as a soldier on parade.

Although many begin their biographies with a birthplace on a farm James G. Polk, Democrat, of Highland, Ohio, claims he "has the distinction of being one of the very few members of Congress whose sole occupation is farming."

Arthur Monroe Free, Republican from San Jose, California, relates that he has five children—the last four of whom are two sets of twins. And Joe Crail, from Los Angeles, says "My brother, Charles, Superior Court Judge of Los Angeles, and I are twins have always dressed alike and are pleased to be taken one for the other."

Florida, according to the current Directory, is rather partial to traveling salesmen. Senator Park Trammell (Democart) and Thomas Alvo Yon (Democrat) both served on the road.

John Nance Garner of Texas, new Democratic speaker of the House, writes his complete story of service in fifteen Congressional sessions in four lines. Hattie W. Caraway states simply: "Democrat of Jonesboro, Arkansas, widow of the late Senator Thaddeus H. Caraway."

The Congressional Directory has no illustrations. However, the Congressional Record, the other revealing document of legislators, will carry photographs, cartoons, comic strip, "insofar as they contribute a more accurate portrayal of development of society and civilization in the United States," if a resolution, introduced by Representative John J. Boylan of New York is carried.

man now poor again. "I've given up

"Well, my dear," said the rich six servants, including the chauffeur."

"Don't tell me I have to drive myself," snapped the wife frostily.

"No, no," sighed the man. "I had to let the car go, too!"

Customer—You made amistake—

Bank Teller—We never make mistakes here, sir.

Customer—Then I'm much obliged for the extra $20.

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

WHO WILL BE THE CHAMPIONS?

Did you hear Grace Virginia read the announcement Monday that said Student Building would play with White House Hall basketball at four o'clock, Annex would play Tackey Alley anl the town girls at four-thirty, and the varsity will practice at five? Miss Iler has devised a unique method of basketball practice for this year as may be inferred from this announcement.

The girls who are going out for basketball have been divided into teams according to where they room. All girls rooming on the same hall are on the team from that hall. There is a certain time for each team to play. A schedule has been posted on the athletic bulletin board. Everyone be sure to look and see what time you are supposed to practice and come. If you do not come, you will lose a practice and make your team short of players.

Remember that you have to come to fifty per cent of the practices to be eligible for class teams or to make any points for coming out. Come to practice and help make this year's basketball season the best we have ever had.

PI KAPPA DELTA PRESENTS "UP TO FREDDIE"

Continued from page one

understanding; Sue Yeaman, Margaret Hix, Alice Rowell, and Esther Haskins, Freddie's four loves who got him rather mixed up.

The play as a whole was very good, although a few scenes were especially good and gave more enjoyment to the audience.

NICKEL NOVELS

Novels and favorite biographies may soon be as cheap as a subway ride. For Rear-Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, U. S. N. (retired) has demonstrated an invention upon which he has been working for twelve years. By his device a book of 100,000 words—the average length of a popular novel is 65,000 words—can be printed on two strips of paper a fraction of an inch wider than the conventional newspaper column and almost identical in length. An edition of 20,000 will cost about four cents a book. The process is simple—a photo engraver reduces the type script to one twenty-fifth of its regular size. However, Aunt Emma's magnifying glass won't do—you most buy a Fiske Reading machine, which is the real invention. It will sell for one dollar.

We Wish You a

MERRY CHRISTMAS

As we extend greetings of the season, may we also thank you for a year of pleasant patronage!

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM JAN 13 TO 19

WED. ONLY—"HUSBAND'S HOLIDAY" with CLIVE BROOK, CHAS. RUGGLES and VIVIENNE OSBORNE. Here is a thoroughly modern, real and vital depiction of life as it is lived in America. As such it discloses joys and sorrows, and elicits laughs and tears. A bold, modern drama of a courageous wife and her straying husband. It answers the lifelong puzzle: Can a vacation from matrimony restore a wrecked marriage? This wife lets her husband's casual outside affair run its course, realizing that sooner or later he will return to her. A sophisticated picture for sophisticated people. How to recapture your husband. Also Charlie Chase comedy and "Sharks and Swordfish"; the latter of real interest to fishermen.

THURS. ONLY, "THE BIG SHOT"—With EDDIE QUILLAN, MAURINE O'SULLIVAN and ROSCOE ATES, the stuttering comedian. This picture is packed full of hearty laughs, which not only go to Quillan but to Roscoe Ates as the stuttering barber. Eddie buys a camp site with money borrowed from his prospective mother in law, and the fun begins when he is buncoed by the villian. There is also a tensely dramatic episode that will make you gasp and clutch your seat when Maurine's car hurtles into quicksand and begins to sink with the girl powerless to move. Also our Gang Comedy and a Spooks Cartoon. A good evening's entertainment for the whole family. Come and have a good time.

FRI. & SAT.—"SUICIDE FLEET" with BILL BOYD, JIMMY GLEASON, ROBERT ARMSTRONG and GINGER ROGERS. Here's a smash picture that is one of the biggest hits of the year. It's the Navy's big parade, made in cooperation with the U. S. Navy. "Tonight we love; tomorrow we die."' A reckless date with a reckless blonde, then a rendezvous with death. Mighty men and flaming hearts; red love and roaring danger. Laughs that leave you limp—thrills you've never known. It's the inside story of the daring scheme that licked the submarines, coupled with real comedy and romantic interest. Take our word for it, here is a real piece of exciting entertainment you cannot afford to miss. Also screen Song and Fox News.

NEXT MON. & TUES.—GRETA GARBO and RAMON NAVARRO in "MATA HARI." Just imagine two great stars in one of the finest pictures of the year. Remember, this is not a foreign picture but the latest offering by these two stars. Mata Hari was a world-wide known woman spy and she really lived, and Garbo is her re-incarnation. Then don't overlook Lionel Barrymore, who pretty nearly dominates every picture he plays in. You will witness weird dance rituals to pagan gods, international intrigue, unbridled passions, romance and the certain doom of a firing squad. It is not only magnificent but the most artistic picture yet to reach the screen. The story of a beautiful enticing woman who lured many men to their doom only to fall into the snare of love herself. It is NOT a picture for children. No advance in prices. Also Paramount News and Cartoon.

Watch for starting date of new and exciting serial, "Battling with "Buffalo Bill."

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

The Style Shop

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

For College Girls

Kleanwell

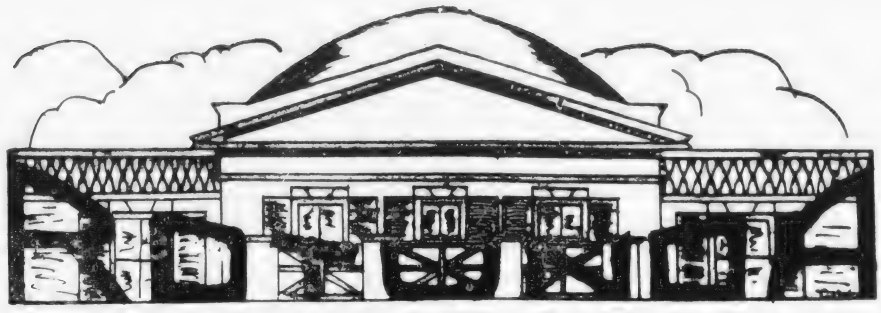
CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus



TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

PAY
YOUR
CLASS DUES

SUBSCRIBE
TO
THE VIRGINIAN

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1932 No. 14

Senior Class Follies Given Saturday Night, Jan. 16, Scores a Big Success

Follies Revue and Minstrel Show Make up the Interesting Program

AUDITORIUM AS PIRATE'S SHIP

The Senior Class scored another big success in their combined follies and minstrel show, which they gave Saturday night, January 16, 1932.

The opening scene was that of a night club. As ladies of leisure and men of equal condition, sat around, pirates came to entertain them. Their costumes were particularly good as also was their dance. After their dance, they were at every command of the guests. The entire auditorium carried out very attractively the theme of the ship. After the pirates danced, a row of skeletons made their way to the night club. In the dimmed lights one felt that he was truly on a pirate ship. As on all pirate ships, this Senior Class ship had a treasure chest. Out of this chest came four girls who did a very graceful dance. The last jewel to come out was Miss Robertson. Her costume was lovely and portrayed her as a shining jewel.

The second part of the program was entirely a minstrel. Henrietta Cornwall, class president, was Mr. Interlocutor. The end men were A. J. Scott, Martha Walters, Hazel Halloway and Evelyn Jones. The girls filled their parts to perfection; they kept the audience well amused with their jokes and funny gestures. The songs were good and the senior sextet gave several enjoyable songs. This sextet was composed of Lindsay White, Ruth Floyd, Louise Clayton, Ruth Hunt, Jane Witt, and Evelyn Jones.

The auditorium carried out the ship idea by having a real gang plank at the door by which the people came down. In each window was a chest out of which hung jewels; also in the windows were candles in green bottles. On the ticket office were signs in all the different langauages saying, "Buy your pass-ports here." Everyone pronounced this show as being a most excellent one.

Dramatic Club Bids New Members

The Dramatic Club takes pleasure in announcing the following new members:

Mary Howard
Mae Downs
Iola McIntyre
Louise Phillips
Lorena Bland
Alice McKay
Nell Wampler
Helen Rose Cunningham
Cecil Talley
Ruth Wright
Woodruth Towler
Margie McMannus
Louise Coleman
Virginia Young
Mary Louise Harry
Virginia Guy
Margaret DeShazo
Nancy Burgwyn
Virginia Thornhill
Margaret Copenhaver
Nell Okie Ryan
Mary Katherine Taylor
Dorothy LeGare
Lucile Owen
Frances Dorin
Frances Potts
Martha Sanders
Virginia Fox
Lena McGardener
Mary Elizabeth Norman

(Continued on last page)

NEW SYSTEM IS STARTED THIS QUARTER

For the benefit of the town girls and any other girls who may not be in the dining room at every meal, the announcements read at the end of each meal,after being read in the dining room, are placed on a bulletin board in the hall.

A small table has been placed at the front of the dining room on which are pencils and uniform slips of paper for the use of those who have notices they wish read at the close of the meal.

MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Sophomore Class Man

National Artist To Visit S. T. C.

Coming to S. T. C. auditorium, January 28 is Joanne de Nault, nationally known contralto. The Senior and Junior Choral Clubs, the Oratorio Society and the Farmville Silver Band will also appear.

This event is the outstanding choral event of the season and promises to eclipse anything given in recent years. The price of tickets is fifty cents and the Senior Choral Club who is sponsoring the concert desires the cooperation of every lover of music. The Choral Clubs are cooperating with ever yworthwhile agency.

CLASSES WILL EDIT THE ROTUNDA IN FEBRUARY

Following a custom of many years the four classes will edit The Rotunda during February.

The order of editing will be as follows:

Freshmen	February 3
Sophomores	February 10
Juniors	February 17
Seniors	February 24

The staffs for these issues will be selected from each class soon. No member of the present staff can serve on a class staff. Three selected judges will determine which class edits the best paper.

LATIN CLUB HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The regular meeting of Sodalitas Latina was held January 15 at seven o'clock in Room O. The new constitution which was submitted at a previous meeting was unanimously adopted. The secretary read two letters from sister Mary Jerome, head of the Latin Department of Marygrove College, Detroit, in which she asked for copies of the Tributum, the Latin Club magazine, and for information concerning the organization and work of the Latin Club. After the conclusion of the business, an interesting program consisting of the following numbers was given,

Ship of State ..... Anne Powell
The Amusements of the Romans—
Margaret Hamlet

Dr. Edmund Vance Cook's Lecture on Tuesday Evening is Greatly Enjoyed

Subject Is Illustrated By Selections From His Collection of Poems

"IS POETRY IMPORTANT?" TALK

Dr. Edmund Vance Cook, in a charming hour and a half entitled, "Is Poetry Important?" delighted an S. T. C. audience on Tuesday evening with readings selected from his own poems.

Giving little bits of child life, religions and philosophies, loves, hates and prejudices from the lives of everybody, he moved his audience to fits of laughter, quickly to a sympatheic mood, then almost to tears, and back to mirth again.

He began by saying that poetry at one time was the most honored form of artistic expression, but that it had fallen into some disrepute, or at least, unpopularity. Then he gave "What Is the Best Thing You Have Done?" passing with ease to the others, always connecting them in some way.

His "Don't You" found a common chord in each of his listeners, since they all do find it expedient to lie at some time or other. "The Little Tot" at Sousa's concert was quite vexing, as well as real.

"Did You?" was an old favorite about the indomitability of man, having these lines,

"It's not the fact that you're dead, my friend,
But how did you die, that counts."

One of Dr. Cook's philosophies was very well given in "Heaven," when he said that the best way to make a better heaven is to,

"Come on, let's make a better earth."

The old negro in the one negro poem that he gave was quite reasonable in saying of God,

'Why He made de debbil, I don't see."

The closing part of the lecture was given over to a plea for broader minds, internationalism, a more sympathetic understanding of other people. In "Each for All" all the different parts of the country, have their virtues, at the same time allowing for the goodnesses of the other parts.

(Continued on page 4.)

Sophomores Present Their Class Man

The Sophomores very clearly presented their classman, Miss Potts, in chapel last Saturday.

Desks, maps, and a typewriter helped to change the stage into the office of a prosperous shipping company. Martha Kello, the president of the class, sat at the head desk and acted as president of the company, while Lib Kelley, secretary and Doreen Smith, treasurer, sat at desks on the side of the stage, and acted as executives of the company.

Martha Kello made a very impressive speech in which she told how the class had started out as freshmen in a small boat, but that in the meantime they had developed and grown greater. She explained that the need for a new pilot was quite evident, and she enumerated the many requirements which the sophomores desired of the classman. Finally Lib Kelly brought Miss Potts in, and it was decided that she fitted perfectly the position. At this time she was presented to the faculty and student body.

Quite an original idea was presented in one of the songs. A health was sung to the student body. Then the class song was sung, and in conclusion came the song dedicated to Miss Potts.

PI GAMMA MU BIDS NEW MEMBERS

The Virginia Gamma Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu wishes to announce the following new members:

Grace Virginia Woodhouse
Winston Cobb
Marguerite Massey
Easter Souders
Lady Boggs
Imogene West
Lucy Fitzgerald

Theme of May Day Exercises Will Be From Two Well Known Indian Legends

The May Day theme, written by Elizabeth Drewry, is taken from two Indian legends—"The 'Water Lily' and "Seegwun." The following is a short synopsis of the story:

As winter draws to a close and the first signs of Spring appear the Indians gather for a festival

Night approaches, and the moon and stars appear. One star more glamorous than all the rest is observed and hailed by the assembled crowd.

That night while a young Indian brave is sleeping, the star in the form of a maiden appears to him. She reveals to him her true nature and tells him that she wishes to live on earth since the things of earth are so lovely—its flowers, its birds, its rivers, its lakes—but more lovely than all the rest are its children! She begs him to ask the wise men what form she shall assume, that she may be most loved by all the children. The lovely young maiden then vanishes from the warrior's sight.

He awakes and seeks the wise men. At their council he makes known to them the request of the star. The wise men decline to make the decision and advise her to take any form she may desire.

The star assumes many forms of earth but fails to reach the height of her desire in any of them. At last she casts herself upon the bosom of the lake, and dissolves into beauty. Here she is happy because she can have the companionship of the children by day and of her sister stars by night.

The children coming down to the lake to play see hosts of white lilies like fairy cups floating on the water, and the heart of each like a bright star is shining. The children at once set out to find the wise men.

The wise men accompanied by other Indians hurry to the lake to see what the children have discovered. Much to their surprise, they behold the lake dotted with white lilies, in the center of each a star. In the lily which dims all the others by her brilliance, the young warrior believes he can recognize the star which had appeared to him. He is glad that she has at last found a happy dwelling place.

The wise men declare that a great miracle has come to pass, in that the stars have come to dwell among men. Because of this they decree that a special festival shall be held, and that the star flower shall be crowned queen of all the flowers of May.

Sophomore Class to Present Musical Comedy, "Betty Lou," on February 5

The Sophomores class will present "Betty Lou," a three act musical comedy writen by the well known author, Lida Larrimore Turner on Friday evening, February 5. The story centers around a family, the Pendletons, who are in financial toruble. It seems probable that "Castle Haven," their ancestral estate, will have to be sold. In order to solve the difficulty; two members of the family concoct a scheme. They circulate in the magazines a rumor that Mrs. Pendleton has purchased some of the furniture from the home of Meta Crabtree, an eccetnric lady of great wealth, recently deceased. The rumor suggests that the Crabtree jewels may be concealed in a Chinese cabinet brought to "Castle Haven" from the Crabtree home. Mrs. Pendleton, the extravagant, feather-brained step-mother of Betty Lou, suggests that Betty Lou save the family from disaster by acquiring a wealthy husband. The idea is not a new one with Mrs. Pendleton. She has been urging it for the past two years. She announces by letter that she is bringing a candidate for the position in the person of a charming gentleman named Worthington Brooks.

Betty Lou is twenty and pretty and determined. She is weary of her step-mother's attempts to marry her to a wealthy man regardless of her own desires in the matter. To avoid the attentions of the latest candidate, she dresses like a child and poses as Betty Lou's little sister "just ten years old." Imagine how mortified and astounded Mrs. Pendleton is when she sees Betty Lou wearing socks and a hair ribbon appearing before the supposedly wealthy Mr. Brooks!

Betty Lou, posing as a little girl, discovers that Brooks is a clever crook who is searching for the Crabtree jewels which he thinks are concea'.d in the Chinese cabinet.

Martha Scott Watkins takes the eccentric role of Betty Lou who seriously objects to the ambition of her step-mother, Mrs. Pendleton. Betty Watts poses as the prodigal and unrestrained Mrs. Pendleton. Much hilarity and exhiliration is furnished by Margaret Banks who takes the part of Mr. Brooks, and by Helen Shawen a maid, who was a friend of Brooks in the days when he was known as "Gentleman Jim," a notorious member of the "gang of roughs."

In addition to the well selected and capable cast are two choruses each composed of sixteen boys and

.ontinued on last page

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

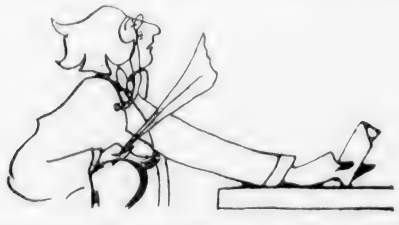
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Give Your Best

To receive an invitation to become a member of an organization means what? It means that you have a recognized ability. Give the best of that ability.

Keep the sincerity and earnestness of the first vows and pledges. Give your best as long as you have a place in the organization. You will find that you will profit by that and by the best that is given by others. If you put something into an organization you will receive something in return. You will be enriched and enabled to do more for society in general by being in the organization.

But wherever you are, give your best. As a member of the student body you have a place to serve. As a member of a class you have a place to do your best. Though you have ten talents or one, give the best of that talent. Though you belong to ten organizations or one be content only with doing as well as you possibly can.

"Duty is the sublimest word in our language," said Robert E. Lee, whose birthday we celebrated nationally this week. Duty to what—to whom? Duty to whatever you are a part. He gave his needed strength to the side which needed it most. In face of difficulties he bore up and steered onward. The pure loyalty of his life teaches us that beauty of loyalty to whatever cause we join. We have ever before us the picture of the good, gray general as he said to his soldiers:

"Men, we have fought through the war together, I have done my best for you. My heart is too full to say more."

Girl's let's give our best!

". . . . Lady and Queen, if my heart would live,
I must give the gift that I have to give."

ALUMNAE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Peyton Grimes of Norfolk have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marion Haskins to Mr. William Rowe Hemingway, son of Mrs. William D. Hemingway and the late Mr. Hemingway of Norfolk. The wedding will take place in the spring.

The following account of the wedding of Miss Alice Wiley, which occurred in Saltville on December 30, has been received:

On Wednesday, December 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emerson Wiley, of Saltville, Va., their daughter Alice Mount, became the bride of Lieutenant John Maurice Brown.

The songs, "Because" and "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Gladys Cash, on the piano and violin accompaniment by Dabney Jarman were sung by Dr. J. L. Jarman.

The bride's attendants were Miss Frances Bolton and Mrs. David Taylor, sister of the bride. Miss Wiley wore a gown of eggshell taffeta with a combination bow of eggshell and red and carried an arm bouquet of poinsettas. She entered with her father by whom she was given in marriage. Lieutenant Brown was attended by Lieut. Robert D. Johnston as best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. J. Hickie of St. Ann's Church, Bristol, Va.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, after which Lieut. and Mrs. Brown left for Fort Benning, Ga., where Lieut. Brown is stationed.

Another wedding of interest is that of Miss Elsa Gudheim to Mr. Orville Neal, football coach for the last two years at V. P. I.

Clarke-Hobson

A beautiful marriage was solemnized at Dendron Christian church on December 30 when Miss Helen Hobson became the bride of Walter Clarke of Carsley. Her bridesmaids were Misses Ruby Atkinson and Lena Parker. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Clarke will make their home in Dendron.

Alumnae Meeting in Portsmouth

A very attractive supper meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A. by the members of the Farmville Alumnae Association. Exercises opened with the blessing used at Farmville for the evening meal. Miss Margaret Johnson was toastmistress. A "Toast To Our President", Miss Virginia Hanrahan was given by Miss Grace George. "What's the Matter With Jarman and "All Hail Alma Mater" were both sung.

The guests present included Misses Virginia Hanrahan, Margaret Johnson, Grace George, Virginia Robertson, Lois Williams, Ella Louise Moore, Dorothy Watkins, Marjorie Codd, Lois Westbrook, Sallie Jackson, Margaret French, Ruth Snellings, Maxine Lucas, Mildred Deans, Virginia Buxton, Elsie Clements, Ann Robertson, Freda Crockin, Esther Blackman and Mrs. Flannigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Schroder of Washington, D. C., announced the engagement of their daughter Katharine E. Schroeder to Lieutenant George E. Morris, r., U. S. N., at a tea on January 13, 1932. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

A Mexican tomb, just uncovered near the city of Oxaca, was revealed on January 17 to be a veritable storehouse of historical and material treasures from the fifteenth century of Mexican civilization.

Alfonso Caso, chief of the government's archaelogical mission, reported the sepulchre represents the richest and most important find in North America and rivals—historically and intrinsically—the tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen in Egypt.

A find of rich gold ore is reported near Baguio, in the Philippines. Some of the specimens assay as high as $3,000 to the ton. This section of the Philippine mountains is already regarded as one of the leading gold producing areas in the world.

The Student Body wishes to extend its sympathy to Winston Cobb in her recent bereavement.

NO EXCUSE

There is just no excuse for the following conditions:

1. Anybody being as angelic, and as attractive as Helen Cover.
2. Anybody being as cute and adorable as Frances Dillon.
3. Anybody having as much character as Henrietta Cornwall.
4. Anybody havings as striking a coiffure as Ruth Hunt.
5. Anybody looking as stunning as Miss Mary does in that handsome evening wrap.
6. Anybody being as much fun as Virginia Potts.
7. Anybody doing as much for others as Mr. Graham.
8. Anybody being as handsome and fine at the same time as Billy Shannon.
9. Anybody being as capable and unselfish as Grace Virginia.
10. Anybody being as entertaining and as chic as Martha Walters.
11. Anybody being as faithful as Cousin Tommy.
12. Anybody being as loveable as Chub Denit.
13. Anybody being as childish as "Two Gun Mitchell".
14. Anybody being as indispensible as Hampden-Sydney Tigers.
15. Anybody looking as well with bobbed hair as Antionette Jones.
16. Anybody doing as much for the Dramatic Club properties as Evelyn Jones.
17. Anybody being as popular as Margaret Banks.
18. Anybody having as many stars in their eyes as Margaret McCue.
19. Anybody doing as much for our paper as Harry Lancaster.
20. Anybody doing as much towards our happiness as Miss Maude K. Taliaferro.
21. Anybody having as adorable a Beta sweetheart picture as "Bock" Copenhaver.
22. Anybody getting as excellent grades as Winston Cobb.
23. Anybody making as handsome a couple as Jane and "Al."
24. Anybody being as gentlemanly and good-looking as Frank Pauley.
25. Anybody being as witty as Frances Coleman.
26. Anybody being as good company as Tony de Muth.
27. Anybody being as sensible as the Rowell twins. (Corn flakes and everything).
28. Anybody having as precious a family as Virginia Bledsoe.
29. Anybody having as much personality as Alice McKay.
30. Anybody being as capable of writing verse as "Boodle McAllister.
31. Anybody enjoying their teaching as much as Virginia Lowe.
32. Anybody being as sweet and gracious as George Wall.
33. Anybody as comical as Billy Powell perched under the movie bill board directly under the Sigma window with "Delicious" written over his head. (Wonder what kind of a pain in the arm Janet Gaynor would give him.)
34. Anybody being as smooth-looking as Jean McClure. (Second Gloria Swanson, I know).
35. Anybody being as industrious as "Liz" Drewry.
36. Anybody that can impersonate like A. J. Scott.
37. Anybody as witty as Joe Lacy.
38. Anybody being any cuter freshmen than Henry Mosby and Allen Russell. (Chi Phi has the stuff).
39. Anybody being as entertaining as Alice Moore.
40. Anybody as mysterious as the Chi's?
41. Anybody as interesting as Dr. Wamisley.
42. Anybody as adored as Dr. J. L. Jarman.
43. Anybody being as sweet as Miss Blackwell.
44. Anybody being as athletic as Frances Edwards.
45. Anybody who can dance as gracefully as Mrs. Fitzpatrick.
46. Anybody who can play a piano as "Tots" Smith.
47. Anyone doing as much as Jane Royall.
48. Anybody talking as cute as "Kack" Jones. (Lights out, girls).
49. Anybody being as precious looking as Honey Hamilton.
50. Anybody being as attractive as Mary Shelton.
51. Anbody being as distinguished as Martha Sanders, to say nothing of having such an adorable brother.

(To be continued next issue)

WHEN—

You must have been a dear
When you were very small—
All eyes and smiles—with hair
That grew from off your forehead
As if it were never combed at all.
(I think a cow had licked you there
When you were very small.)
I'd have loved you even then—
Your mouth, besmeared with jam
And your grimey, boyish hands
That now are twiec as big—and have a yen
For holding mine.
You never lavished wonderment on mystic silver moons
Nor listened for a songbird's plaintive call.
You weren't much of a lover—
(But then—I wasn't there to love)
When you were very small.

R. Floyd, '32

SONG

I write in the sand of a thousand loves,
And the rain washes it away;
But I write in my heart of you, true love,
And it is there to stay.

A. E. V., '35

A FRIEND THERE WAS

More friends have I
Than there ever were before
Good friends
But—one is gone
Better to make no friend
And keep the love
Of few
Than to lose a single one
I knew.

A friend I lost
Who meant the world to me
His words were jewels
The things he did
Examples set for me.
Two friends I found
Perhaps their very constancy
Will come to mean
More to me
But no—
I lost a friend who meant
The world to me.

M. R. F., '32

God's got no business making the spring of the year now
When all the trees are black and the sky is gray.
We've had no winter save several days
And the grass is green as if 'twere early June.

And so I walked to a road winding up to the blue,
Out where nowhere begins, and houses end.
Then I found out why I had come, that way;
'Twas to look unto the hills of God from whence cometh help.

He was there all right and was expecting me
With help a-plenty to last throughout the day . . .
I came back to houses and people and singing birds,
Glad of the warm spring and the presence of God.

Easter

TRIBUTE TO—

Reflection

They say one cannot know of love
Who has not lived a score of years;
He has not known the joys and fears
Of heaven's passion.

Refutation

There is a tall and comely lad,
Whose eyes are clearest, purest blue
Whose heart has never been untrue
To nobler dreamings.

Whose smile most swiftly comes and goes
Upon a countenance serene.
There is a lad whose very mien
Bespeaks high lineage.

There is a lad whom I could love
Would he but love me in return . . .
A lad with whom I feel I learn
To be contented.

A. E. V., '35

SOCIALS

Glenn Perry Colonna and Frances Daughtry spent Saturday in Lynchburg.

Medora Ford, Lillian Hogan, Harriet Moomaw, Jane Royall, and Catherine McIntyre, spent Saturday in Richmond.

Anna Frances Traylor, Thelma Stevens and Polly Lyons spent the week-end in Petersburg.

Mary B. Fraser and Virginia Lanier spent the week-end in Blackstone.

Stuart Quaintance was in Crewe this week-end.

Sue Yeaman was in Danville Sunday.

Carrie DeShazo was in Sutherland this week-end.

Nancy DeBerry was in Blackstone Sunday.

Mary Ellen Johnson and Helen Westmoreland spent the week-end in Richmond.

Kitty Waters spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

Margaret Eley was in Lynchburg Sunday.

Polly McMurdo, and Ambler Lee spent the week-end in Charlottesville.

Leah Jane Shaw spen the week-end in Roanoke.

Julia Faris spent the week-end in Red Hill.

Thelma Walsh was in Richmond Monday.

Irwin Staples spent the week-end in Burkeville.

Hanna Crawley was in Cumberland this week-end.

Louise Johnson spent the week-end at Fork Union.

COTILLION CLUB BIDS NEW MEMBERS

The Cotillion Club bids the following new members:

Sarah Beck
Burnley Brockenborough
Nedra Bair
Lois Barnes
Laeta Barham
Nancy Burgwyn
Martha Cross
Margaret Copenhaver
Jo Congdon
Frances Dillon
Christine Childrey
Garnett Hodges
Mary Gilmer
Margaret Gilmer
Celia Jones
Virginia Guy
Virginia Fox
Mildred Lipscomb
Jerry Lee
Dot Legare
Evelyn Knaub
Belle Lovelace
Iola McIntyre
Kitty McLemore
Margaret McCue
Jean McClure
Polly McMurdo
Libby Mason
Martha Putney
Charlotte Oakey
Lucille Rock
Ella Mallory
Mary C. Taylor
Betty Shields
Wye Scott
Bonny Talley
Judith Taylor
Lucille Tiller
Dot Waynick
Catherine Lee Young
E. Catherine Young

HEADING THE PROVERB

Heeding the old proverb about not "putting things off" the students of the University of Richmond have chosen their May Queen and completed their elaborate plans for the celebration. Spenser's "Faerie Queen" serves as the basis with significant changes to suit the occasion. Gee! We'd like to be there on May Day and see the costumes and settings!

SORORITIES BID NEW MEMBERS

Gamma Theta wishes to announce the following new member:
Kitty McLemore of Courtland, Va.

Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Pi Kappa Sigma wishes to announce the following new members:
Lois Barnes of Roanoke, Va.
Dot Waynick of Roanoke, Va.
Libby Mason of Roanoke, Va.

Delta Sigma Chi wishes to announce the following new members:
Virginia Guy of Norfolk, Va.

Mu Omega wishes to announce the following new member:
Mildred Lipscomb of Chase City, Va.

CERTIFICATES AWARDED IN PENMANSHIP

A number of students in the fall quarter were successful in obtaining the Locker Writing Certificates. The list is as follows:

Abbitt, Olive
Brinkley Beulah Mae
Brown, Katherine
Childrey, Christine
Carter, Margaret
Cross, Martha
Crews, Edith
Darlington, Laura
Dorin, Frances
Foster, Ida Belle
Haskins, Esther
Haskins, Ruth
Hood, Mary
Hartness, Louise
Jones, Antoinette
Kelly, Dorothy
Martin, Alise
Noel, Nancy
Rucker, Ruth
Tharrington, Lois
Tiller, Lucille
Watkins, Martha Scott
Young, Katherine Lee
Creedle, Ethel—Teacher's certificate.
Crowder, Katherine—Teacher's Certificate.

Student exponents of dancing at Ohio Northern University have won a partial victory in their campaign to overthrow an ancient ban on dancing at the school.

Fraternity brothers and sorority sisters, under rules announcel by the university officials now may dance to radio and phonograph music twice a week in fraternity and sorority houses off campus, and they may have three informal dances with orchestras in the coming year.

Students recently declared war on the old ban, but were rebuffed by the university officials.

However, when it was announced that a meeting of the board of trustees would be held in January university officials decided to canvass the 800 students and ascertain if they wanted to dance.

Milwaukee, Wis., with a population of nearly 600,000 is an example in good city government for every city, large and small, in the United States. When nearly all cities are finding it impossible to make ends meet, Milwaukee pays all her expenses for 1931 and has four million dollars in the bank to start the new year. Now her officials are considering a cut in taxes.

Madison, Wis.—The University of Wisconsin is building a $900,000 forest products laboratory in which there will be facilities for the testing in every known way the wood in all stages from logs to paper and turpentine.

The structure will be six stories high and will stand on a ten-acre site overlooking Lake Mendota. It is scheduled to be completed next August.

The Student Body extends its sympathy to Evelyn Shaw and Alise Martin.

HONOR ROLL FOR THE FALL QUARTER

Those students who made the honor roll for the fall quarter are as follows:

Alice V. Abernathy, Isabelle M. Allegree, Annie L. Anderson, Frances E. Armistead, Helen Ruth Atkins, Nancy Baylor, Fanny C. Bosworth, Nancy U. Boykin, Virginia H. Brinkley Elizabeth Burger, Mrs. Ruth R. Carson, Jane Carter, Carmen E. Clark, Alice Collings, Mrs. Susie P. Conant, Henrietta Cornwell, Lois V. Cox, Ethel Y. Creedle, Katherine Crowder, Ann E. Davis, Mary Eleanor Davis, Carrie H. DeShazo, Mary Elizabeth Driscoll, Ildergirt Dunn, E. Frances Edwards, Margaret L. Eley, Mary Louise Elliott, Nell Fischer, Margaret Fisher, Lucy E. Fitzgerald Susie Vann Floyd, Mary Helen Fry, Fay Fuller, Virginia M. Fultz, Catherine E. Gannaway, Margaret N. Garnett, Virginia A. Gee, Hattie J. Gilliam, Mildred C. Hall, Hazel E. Halloway, Virginia W. Hamilton, Esther Haskins, Ruth Haskins, Mary E. Hill, Margaret F. Hix, Edrie S. Holland, Sara K. Hubard, Virginia Huntsberry, Margaret Jack, Lucille B. Ingram, Sara M. James, Louise P. Johnson, Mary Ellen Johnson, Annie Lee Jones, Ellen Jones, Mary Corling Jones, F. Elizabeth Jordan, Pela Martha Kutz, Mildred V. Lancaster, Lucie Ann Lane, Virginia B. Lanier, Mildred O. Linthicum, Virginia A. Linthicum, Bessie H. Lynch, Maury Leigh Lyons, Mary Elizabeth McCauley, Catherine M. McIntyre, Alice W. McKay, Margie McManus, Gertrude Manners, Alice D. Marshall, Marguerite Massey, Lelia R. Mattox, Nan Mears, Nancy Katherine Micou, Margaret E. Morgan, Mary E. Mustard, Flora M. Neatrour, Addie Leigh Parker, Frances Potts, M. Grayson Pratt, Winifred Jackson Pugh, Anne Putney, Nancy Putney, Margery Ann Quarles, Mary Thomas Rawls, Ruth E. Reynolds, Lois M. Rhodes, Maude R. Rhodes, Anne W. Rice, Gay A. Richardson, Mary Jess Richmond, Helen Louise Ridgway, Catherine N. Ritter, Doris V. Robertson, Nancy Kathryn Rogers, C. Hildegarde Ross, Alice F. Rowell, Grace W. Rowell, Margaret K. Rucker, Edith St.C. Shanks, Evelyn L. Shaw, Emily Mildred Shelton, Dorothy May Snedegar, Easter M. Souders, Alice Irwin Staples, Mildred White Steere, Thelma I. Stevens, Annie Laurie Stone, Elsie D. Story, Joyce Louise Sturm, Gertrude L. Sugden, Mary Elizabeth Swift, Lois O. Tharrington, Sarah Hyde Thomas, Edith J. Topham, Anne Frances Traylor, Margaret Louise Van Lear, Katherine Lee Walton, Helen I. Ward, Patsy Watkins, Dorothy D. Weems, Imogene W. West, Maria D. Williams, Wilma Evelyn Williams, Ann F. Wingo, Lillian E. Womack, Louise U. Woodson, Dorothy Woolwine, Ruth I. Wright, Mary Alice Young.

ROANOKE CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

Miss Mary Nichols, faculty advisor of the Roanoke Club entertained the girls at a delifhtful tea Sunday afternoon. The president, Lillian Hogan assisted Miss Nickols at pouring tea. The Roanoke girls who attended this attractive get to-gether reported a delightful afternoon.

Big Date! February 26
Basketball Tournament
Freshmen vs. Faculty

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK

BUSINESS MANAGER
The Rotunda
DEAR MADAM:

Enclosed you will find $1.00 for which please send me The Rotunda from January to June, 1932.

Name _____

Address _____ State _____

MR. JEFFERS CONTINUES NEWFOUNDLAND TALKS

At prayers on Friday evening, January 15, the student body had the pleasure of listening to a continued talk on Newfoundland, given by Mr. Jeffers. His talk was divided into three chief divisions—the church, the home, the school. Each church has its own school. The Methodist church, however, has consented to combine the schools for the advancement of education. "Spare the rod and spoil the child" seems to be a motto of the Newfoundland school teachers.

All the homes in Newfoundland are painted annually. The weary fishermen distinguishes his home from the other homes by its individual color and as night falls seems to sense its beckoning call. This is an idea of what home means in Newfoundland.

If all nations could see each other as they really are, war would be no more and peace would reign forever.

LOST STRAYED OR STOLEN

Lost, strayed or forgotten—one perfectly good and well-formed habit. The habit referred to is one which each one of us forms in early childhood. It is easy to form such a habit then, because we have the home-folks to help us. But soon we grow; we go off to college, and we don't have mother or dad to encourage us in keeping up the good work so here's what happens.

We sleep late on Sunday mornings, and we forget about the value Sunday school attendance can be in forming well-rounded characters.

Continued on last page

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

YOU ARE INVITED
To Visit the New
LOUISE SHOPPE
HOTEL WEYANOKE
Latest Creations in Sport and Evening Dresses, Coats, Hosiery, Etc.
Prices Range From
$5.00 to $16.75

Willis . . . . Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

STARTING TODAY——Our January Clearance Sale
$3.00, $4.00 and $5.00 Shoes reduced to $1.98
$7.85 Dresses reduced to $3.88
ALL COATS REDUCED ONE-HALF
Just arrived, the loveliest new spring dresses, prices
$2.95 TO $7.85
Your choice of any hat in the house 98c
The Hub Department Store
FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

JOKES

Old Burglar: "You're late. I told you half past one."

Young Burglar: "Yeah, but I forgot the number of the house an' I've had to break into every house on this street."

First Actor: "Well, what kind of run did you have in Savannah?"

Second Actor: "Oh, we beat the audience over the county line by two minutes."

He: "How long can a man remain unconscious and still live?"

She: "How old are you?"

First Girl: "So your boy friend has trouble with his vision?"

Second Girl: "Yes, he's always seeing parking spots before his eyes."

Collegian:: "What's wrong with those eggs?"

Waitress: "Don't ask me, I only laid the table."

Sunday School Teacher: "Children in Africa there are six million square miles where little boys and girls have no Sunday School. Now, what should we all strive to save our money for?"

Chorus: "To go to Africa."

Prof.: "Now is there anything anyone would like to ask?"

Student: "What time is it?"

"Einstein brings out one point, sir, with which I cannot agree."

Three Blind Mice

Three rodents with defective vision
Note the manner in which they flee.
They all pursue the agriculturist's
spouse,
Who severed their extremities with a kitchen utensil.
In the entire span of your existence
Have you ever beheld such an unusual phenomenon as
Three rodents with defective vision?

"No! I don't care whether you wear Paris garters or not and you don't have halitosis. It's not "pink toothbrush," nor is it the kind of cigarettes you smoke. I'm saying 'No', you big sap, because I'm married already, and one husband is enough!"

He: "I have a rare old Victrola. It was one in the possession of George Washington."

Friend: "But there were no Victrolas in Washington's day."

He: "I know it. That' what makes it so rare."

"Girls have a right to dress as they please"
A maid announced with vigor,
"But some of them lack the nerve," I said,
"And some of them lack the figor."

"Was the prohibition lecture impressive?"

"Yes, except when the lecturer absent-mindedly tried to blow the froth from his glass of water."

Laugh This Off

On bright morning as Dr. Simkins was stepping briskly along High street a contemporary of his startled him with the statement.

"Have you heard the news? Knute Rockne is dead!"

Dr. Simkins with gathering eyebrows, replied,

"Why, I didn't know that Czecho-Slovakia had a prime minister."

Miss Jennies told us this one after visiting at Notre Dame:

One day as a Methodist minister was strolling through the streets of South Bend Indiana, two Notre Dame students passed him.

"Good morning father" was one boy's greeting.

"He's no father" cut in his friend, "he has six children!"

TENNIS TOURNAMENT ENDS THIS WEEK

The Tennis Singles Tournament ended Saturday when Dorothy Snedegar defeated Mary Berkley Nelson 6-1, 6-2 in the finals. This was a very interesting and hard fought game and good playing was displayed by both of the contestants.

In the semi-finals, Mary Berkley played Mary Elizabeth Scales' and Dorothy played Helen Westmoreland. All of the games were good and a fine fighting spirit was shown by all who entered the tournament.

The tournament began last fall and a number of girls took part in it. They played many games during the fall bringing the tournament to a climax last Saturday with a battle between a red and white and a green and white which proved to be a victory for the green and whites. This gives them five points towards the color cup.

Plans are being made for the doubles tournament that will be held this spring. Watch for the posters and every one sign up to enter. It does not make any difference if you are not an expert player. Choose a partner and enter the tournament. You may surprise yourself by winning.

DR. EDMUND VANCE COOK TALKS HERE

Continued from page one

The last poem was a good will one about Lee and Lincoln, having the spirit of a closer warmer feeling between the North and the South. It made a fitting close to a most enjoyable evening.

All those who had the good fortune to hear Dr. Cook left with the realization that poetry is not only important, but absolutely indispensable.

DRAMATIC CLUB BIDS NEW MEMBERS

(Continued from page 1)

Frances Ratcliffe

During the entire fall term of this school year the Dramatic Club here at college has been conducting apprentice classes in the different departments of the club. These classes were given for the benefit of those girls who wish to try out for membership. During this apprentice period, they have had to work in their special department and had to prove to the executive group and the entire club that they could really and conscientiously work.

Miss Wheeler, who is coach of dramatics was the advisor to all the groups, and she was on hand at all times with splendid suggestions. The different departments in which work was carried on were as follows: properties, staging, costume, make-up, lighting, business, and acting

LOST STRAYED OR STOLEN

(Continued from Page 3(

Think it over girls, aren't you missing something when you don't attend Sunday school and church? If you are a new girl in school and feel that you haven't as yet met someone with whom you can attend the church of your choice on Sunday morning, notify some members of the Y. W. C. A. Write your name and room number on a slip of paper and put in it the Y. W. C. A. mail box. You will find the mail box below the last Y. W. C. A. bulletin board. It is the purpose of the Y. W. C. A. on this campus to serve you.

By the way, we hope that you are still looking forward to hearing the speakers which are expected to be on our campus the later part of this month. The speakers will be men of experience and ability. They understand college people, and their talks will prove entertaining as well as instructional.

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

ATHLETICS

TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD AMONG HALLS

If you have passed through the gym between four and six o'clock any afternoon during the week, you have seen what a good time the girls are having, practicing basketball. The competition among the halls is very keen and they are working hard for the championships.

Between February first and t he eighth a Round Robin Tournament is going to be held. Every hall will play every other hall and the one scoring the most victories is the winner of the tournament. It promises to be very interesting and exciting for all concerned.

The class squads will be posted when the tournament is ended. Class practices will be held from then until about February the twelfth. At this time the class games will be played.

Green and white is leading in the race for the color cups with 20 points for hockey and 5 points for tennis singles. What change is the close of the basketball season going to make in this? Which will win the class championship? Which will have the most varsity players? We are all anxiously awaiting the time when these questions shall be decided—and they will not be decided without a good fight from the red and whites and a good fight from the green and whites.

SOPHOMORES TO PRESENT A MUSICAL COMEDY

Continued from page one

girls which will present unique dances in various costumes. There will be many dance features, among which will be the talented Glenn Perry Colonna, Peter Pan will also be there; but in what form?

Poor Chicago will probably have to stay poor a while longer as a result of the decision of County Judge E. K| Jarickie, declaring tax levies for 1928 and 1929 fraudulent and void. Tax-payers who have been fighting the assessments for the past four years can now safely postpone their payments still longer, to the greater embarrassment of the city treasurer. The court found that hundreds of millions of dollars worth of property had been "Arbitrarily and deliberately removed" from the county tax rolls.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM JAN. 20 TO 26

WED.—"SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK" with CLIFF EDWARDS, ANITA PAGE and BUSTER KEATON. Here's a screamingly funny story of a young millionaire's experiences in mad Manhattan. Buster falls in love with Anita and atempts to reform her tough kid brother. What the kid brother's gang does to Buster will make you howl with glee. More laughs than a barrel of monkeys and Cliff Edwards is right in the midst of it all. You'll enjoy this picture. Another of those screen souvenirs and also a comedy entitled "The Beach Nut."

THURS. & FRI.—"THE SPIRIT OF NOTRE DAME" with LEW AYRES, SALLY BLANE, FRANK CARIDEO and THE FOUR HORSEMEN. Here is the picture you have been asking for. A great production dedicated to the memory of Knute Rockne. Here's the great all-American romance, written by youth; played by youth and personifying youth. It's grand because it's real and true, and human. The spirit of youth—at play—in' love—on the gridiron—it's all here and you'll cheer every bit of it. It has been called the grandest college football story ever screened. It gives you the first chance to see the mighty heroes of football in action. While Knute Rockne has passed on you hear his actual voice in an impassioned harangue to his team on the eve of a big game. You'll want to hug these boys—take them right into your heart. A picture you will not want to miss. Also a Laurel and Hardy comedy entiled "Helpmates", their latest release.

SAT.—Sylvia Sidney and Gene Raymond in "LADIES OF THE BIG HOUSE." Life tore them apart on their wedding day. Happy, carefree—at the height of their glorious love—they were accused of a crime they didn't commit. See how a girl fights for her man. See a love that triumphed in the face of tremendous odds. She wanted tact. She wanted to be nice. She wanted love and one man—she wanted marriage. She wanted all the things any girl wants—and when the right boy put them into her grasp—her past said "No." Does she save herself and her man? Thrill to the answer as Silvia Sidney depicts her best performance to date.

NEXT MONDAY & TUES—RAMON NAVARRO and great cast in "BEN HUR" in SOUND. Here's the world's most spectacular film drama in a triumphant return in sound. You hear the thunder of hoofs, the shouts of frenzied spectators in the hair-raising chariot race. You'll go wild over the terrific sea fight—seen and heard in all its fury. Lashes laid bare on backs. Cries of the galley slaves. The crash of oars. No picture before or since to equal in size or spectacular grandeur. Three years to make at a cost of $4,000,000 with a great cast of 150,000 players, among them Frances X. Bushman, May McAvoy, Betty Bronson, and Carmel Myers. And don't forget, there are many scenes in beautiful color. See the "Procession of Palms," "The Last Supper," "The Vale of Hinnom," the miracle of Christ's healing, the mob and Pontius Pilate. Let no man, woman or child say they never saw the supreme masterpiece fo thrills and spectacular magnificence. No advance in prices. A 2 hour and 15 minute show; come early.

Watch for the first episode of "Battling With Buffalo Bill" to start jointly with "SOOKY."

FIRST NOTES OF SPRING

Our Spring frocks have every new fashion note in solid and printed fabrics.

Chic college styles that are suitable for all occasions. You will be simply amazed at the remarkable values offered in these three groups at

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

The Style Shop

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE · STORE

For College Girls

Kleanwell

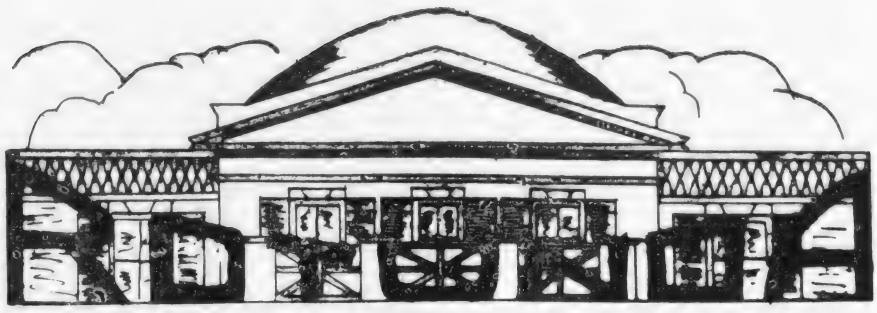
CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus



TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

DON'T FORGET
THE CONCERT
THURSDAY NIGHT

JOANNE de NAULT
AT
S. T. C.!

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1932 No. 15

Nominations For May Queen to Be Held Tonight

Girl Chosen Must Be Representative of the Student Body in All Ways

Nominations for this year's May Queen will be held tonight in the large auditorium. Voting will take place on Friday. It has been the custom for the girl having the second highest number of votes to be maid-of-honor. This will be observed again.

This year (according to precedent established last year by a committee composed of representatives from each class) our May Queen will be chosen on the basis of certain qualifications in order to make her mean more to the student body:

1.—She must be a girl whom we can look up to and respect and be proud to have as a representative of our student body.

2.—Only Juniors and Seniors are eligible for May Queen. A girl who has lived in school at least three years has most likely revealed her true worth. Then again, Freshmen and Sophomores will have their chance in the two or three years following.

3.—A girl must be a good representative of the student body in character, personality, and school spirit—one who has given her best to the school, who has cooperated with her classmates, and most of all, we want a well-rounded girl. A well-rounded girl must have beauty of character as well as beauty of face, and a personality which appeals to people at large—not merely to her "bunch".

4.—The May Queen must be dependable, responsible, and willing to work. She must possess these characteristics to become a representative queen after she is elected.

5.—Our May Queen should be "fair of face" if not beautiful. She must be easy to look upon. She must be graceful, and have poise. Her carriage is of especial importance.—She must walk with ease and grace.

6.—Dramatic ability is not essential this year.

Nominations will be held Wednesday night in the large auditorium and voting will take place on Friday.

(Continued on page 2)

Colleges Will Plan Educat'l Program

New York University, N. Y.—More than seventy university and college news bureau directors along the Atlantic seaboard will assemble in an annual convention at New York University next Friday and Saturday, to outline their general educational program for the year, it was announced yesterday by Professor Alvin C. Busse, director of the Bureau of Public Information at New York University.

The delegates will represent institutions in Delaware, District of Columbia, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Provinces of lower Canada. They are members of the second district of the American College Publicity Association.

The convention will be held at the Washington Square centre.

ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA BIDS NEW MEMBERS

The Joan Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma wishes to announce the following new members:

Jane Witt
Margaret Gathright

VARSITY BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

The Varsity basketball schedule for this season has been completed and is as follows:

February 6—
Richmond Normal, there

February 20—
Sweet Briar College, here

February 27—
William & Mary, there

March 4—
Harrisonburg, there

'Betty Lou' Musical Comedy to be Given Shortly at S. T. C.

The Sophomore Class will present "Betty Lou" an up-to-date musical comedy written by Lydia Larrimore Turner and published by the Theodore Presser Co., of Philadelphia, on Friday, February 5.

The story part of "Betty Lou" is centered around the Pendleton family, who, due to financial trouble may be forced to sell the ancestral home, "Castle Haven." To solve this difficulty Lola Pendleton, the sister-in-law has an unusual idea which she puts into practice, with the help of her husband, Tony Pendleton and his friend, Bob Sherwood. They circulate a rumor in the magazines that Mrs. Pendleton has purchased some furniture from a wealthy Miss Crabtree, recently deceased. The rumor suggests that the Crabtree jewels may be concealed in a secret drawer in a Chines lacquer cabinet, brought to "Castle Haven."

Mrs. Pendleton, the extravagant and feather-brained step mother, spends her time looking for a wealthy husband for "Betty Lou" her step-daughter. She brings Worthington Brooks to "Castle Haven" as the latest candidate, who, she thinks, is a millionaire but who in reality is a

Continued on last page

DEBATE CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The Debate Club held its regular meeting Thursday, January 21 in the small auditorium.

After the business there was a very interesting debate on the question, Resolved: "There Should be Extra Curricula Activities in a Teachers' College." The affirmative side of the question was upheld by Elizabeth Walthall and Esther Haskins and the negative by Lucy Powell and Dorothy Woolwine. Althought the negative side gave many good points why there should not be etxra curricula activities in a teachers' college the decision was in favor of the affirmative.

SOCIAL DIRECTOR RESIGNS POSITION

G. B. Halstead, American missionary resigned his post of social director at the Lucknow Christian College, Lucknow, India, recently under pressure from the government because of his sympathy for Mahatma Gandhi's struggle for Indian Independence.

Folk Lore Club Is Established Teachers College

Mr. John Powell, Musician Will Lecture Here on Folk Music

A new organization to be known as the Farmville Folk Lore Club has been formed at the college during the last two weeks. It's purpose is to study and enjoy folk lore and folk music, especially that of Virginia and to cooperate with the Virginia Folk Lore Society in collecting the folk songs of the State. About twenty-five people have joined the group including students and faculty of the college and residents of Farmville and the vicinity.

The Folk Lore Club is a revival of the old Ballad Club which, when the century was in its teens, helped collect survivals of the English and Scottish popular ballads in Virginia. It contributed many items, to the volume called "Traditional Ballads of Virginia," edited by Prof. Arthur Kyle Davis of the University and published by the Harvard University Press. This book put Virginia ahead of all the states in the number of ballad survivals found.

The new organization will work in somewhat the same way the Ballad Club did, and hopes to have the support of the people of this community as well as of the students and faculty of the college.

Instead of concentrating on finding Virginia survivals of old ballads, however, the Club will give more attention to getting records of folk lore of other types, including folk songs and music, fiddle tunes, dances, stories, sayings, choruses, beliefs, superstitions, etc.

In interest of folk music, Mr. John Powell, Virginia's greatest musician, is expected to visit Farmville and the Club in the near future to speak on folk music and the importance of finding and preserving Virginia's rich store. He is convinced that it will be the making of Virginia's musical future. The Club also hopes to have as its guest very soon, Prof. Arthur Kyle Davis, Jr., who edited the Virginia ballad book and Prof. John Lomax of Texas, one of the leading authorities on American folk lore and a very entertaining lecturer and singer, especially of the cowboy ballads.

Membership in the Farmville Folk Lore Club is open to all who wish to participate in the work and the club

Continued on last page

Editors for Class Issues Are Elected

The editors of the class issues, elected by the classes, are as follows:

Pela Kutz ..... Freshman issue
Elizabeth Berger .... Sophomore issue
Margaret Gathright .... Junior issue
Easter Souders ..... Senior issue

In some cases, several other members of the staffs were elected by the classes. The rest of the members are to be chosen by the editors.

The actual work on the class issues is to be done by the class staffs independently. Only suggestions from the class and such outside aid judged as necessary will be given.

SIGMA PHI RHO BIDS NEW MEMBER

Sigma Pi Rho, Latin honorary society announces the following new member:

Mrs. Susie Conant.

NOTED SINGER COMING

JOANNE de NAULT, Contralto

Walter B. Wiley To Visit the State Teachers College

Mr. Walter B. Wiley, who is a Christian worker in Turkey, has consented to visit a few colleges during his furlough in America. He will be in our college on January 29 and 30.

Mr. Wiley received his B. A. degree at Dartmouth College. In 1920 he went to Turkey as a tudor. Because of disturbances after the World War he was forced to return home.

After completing his theological training at Yale Divinity School, he and his wife sailed for Turkey. In Marask, where drink and prostitution exact a heavy toll, because amusement must be found either in the public coffee houses or in the red light centers, Mr. Wiley is introducing clean sport. He plays volley ball, basket ball, baseball, and tennis with the young people. He gives English lessons, starts litle libraries of decent books, opens his splendid home to social evenings and in many other ways works through the power of his fine Christian personality.

Mr. Wiley will speak at assembly on both Friday and Saturday, and at prayers Friday night. He will also speak in several classes, a list of which will be put on the Y. W. C. A. bulletin board Thursday afternoon.

BICENTENNIAL HELPS OFFERED TO SCHOOLS

In commemorating the two-hundredth anniversary of the birth of the "Father of Our Country" teachers will experience no lack of material aids and suggestions, according to announcements made by the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission, Washington Building, Washington, D. C.

Below are given some of the suggested bicentennial activities:

Suggestions for Teachers

Formulate definite plans for participating in the Bicentennial Celebration.

Read authentic authorities for accurate information on George Washington. Read, think, and study about George Washington so that you can present the historical facts in the life of George Washington to your students.

Correlate the study of George Washington with the subjects of the curriculum. Suggestions are presented in Unit XI of the George Washington Appreciation Course.

Emphasize the part taken by George Washington in establishing our Nation and especially in the creation of the Federal Constitution.

Center discussions in Character

(Continued on last page)

Miss De Nault to Be Presented by The Choral Club

Voice of Guest Artist Has Won National Recognition by Beauty And Clarity

The Senior Choral Club of S. T. C. will present its annual concert Thursday evening, January 28 at 8 o'clock This will be one of the most evenly balanced and most entertaining programs ever given in this college. The artist for the evening will be Joanne de Nault of New York City. Miss de Nault has a charming personality and is considered one of the best contraltos in New York. Her voice has won her national recognition.

Besides the program by Miss de Nault, there will be a group of numbers played by the Farmville Silver Band, and one number sung by the Junior and Senior Choral Clubs. The climax of the evening program will be a number, "Thine is the Kingodom" (From "The Holy City") sung by the newly organized Oratorio Society with Miss de Nault.

The program will be as follows:

The choral clubs of State Teachers College will present Joanne de Nault, contralto, Thursday, January 28 at 8 p. m. in the auditorium.

The program:

Farmville Silver Band ..... group
Choral Clubs:—
Gloria ..... Buzzie-Pezzia
Miss de Nault
O don fatale ..... Verdi
Aria "Don Carlos"—1867 (1813-1901)
Me voici dans son boudoir .. Thomas
Aria from "Mignon"—1866 1811-1896
Folk Songs
Phillis was a faire maide, Elizabethan
The Spinner ..... Russian
Ma fille veux tu un bouquet
French-Candian
O'er the Forest ..... Hugarian
In mezo al mar ..... Italian
(Adriatic Sea Song)
The Pool of Quietnessr ..... C. Cato
The Fisher's Widow ..... C. Edwards
Shortnin' Bread ..... Jacques Wolfe
Premonition ..... M. S. Devlin
Mountains ..... Oscar Rasbach
Oratorio Society with Miss de Nault
Thine is the Kingdom, ... A. R. Gaul
(From "The Holy City")

Senate Traditions Continue Long Time

There are many vestiges of the past to be found in the historic American capitol building which houses the Senate, the House of Representatives, and the Supreme Court. A surprising relic of the past is the two snuff boxes placed inconspicuously on either side of the vice-president's rostrum, which are filled every year with fresh snuff. Nobody uses snuff anymore, but it is one of the traditions of the Senate to have it there, and in the Senate, traditions once established, continue for a long time.

MRS. CARAWAY IS SENATOR FROM KANSAS

Without a speaking campaign Mrs. Hattie W. Caraway has won the special Arkansas election for United States senator, and thus becomes the first woman ever elected to the Senate. She had previously been appointed by the Governor to fill her late husband's place temporarily, and the election confirms her right to the seat for the remainder of his term expiring in March, 1933.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

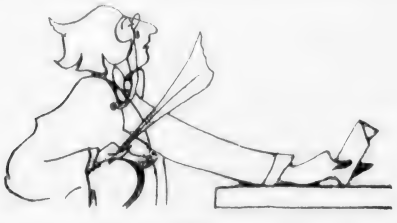
Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33



Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Our May Queen

We are, again, selecting the girl who will be Queen at our Festival of May. This year, as before, we wish her to be representative of the student body and to have those qualifications required by the theme of the festival.

Let us give thought to our selection. The May Festival is one which many, besides ourselves, gather to see. It is an event in our school year of which we are inordinately proud. The Queen is the center of this. She either fills her place satisfactorily, exceedingly, superbly well, or unsatisfactorily. She either adds to our enjoyment of the festival or takes from it. It depends on us to select the right girl.

The committee has set up certain standards for the Queen. The theme of May Day is taken from Indian legends. Consider carefully the standards for the girl, and the type of girl to suit the theme. Choose wisely.

Good Wishes To Class Staffs

The regular staff of the Rotunda wishes the class staffs much success.

The old custom of having each class edit an issue of the paper during the month of February is being followed again this year. In this contest, each class is given an opportunity to try its skill at something different from the usual competitive events. It is a contest in which talents and hard work are drawn from each class. Working independently, asking only necessary outside help, the class has a chance to show its ability and sportsmanship.

We wish each staff the best success possible.

OVER THE TRANSOM

"Come on to bed, Mary! You can piddle more than any one girl I ever saw in my life. I thought you were ready to put your hair up two hours ago. If Billy Powell could see you looking like that with that grease and those bobby pins! My, Lord! What price beauty! I certainly am glad I don't have to twist up my hair like that. Will you please hurry up."

"Listen, here Virginia Lamb, just because you have a permanent in those little screw pieces of yours, you think you're Mrs. Moses. If I went with a dumbcluck like Perkie Smut, I wouldn't even care what my hair looked like, he'd never know the difference. But Powell, for instance, well he notices things like that, you know!

"By the way, Tank, did you see that sing the other night? Didn't they have those high monkety monks on the spot though."

"Pretty poor excuse if they were all like you!"

"Are you talking to me?"

"That sing was pretty good, I thought I'd laugh my sides off at Barlow cutting up a storm and blowing kisses—whew! Bedford wasn't bad neither was she Virginia."

"Heck, no! She's a honey."

"There was a mistake in that class room scene, did you catch it, Tank?"

"No, spill it."

"Well, you remember that joke that was pulled on Ruth Hunt in the minstrel about blowing off all day? Well, I know her! That joke was little short of true! Well, in this sing, I will admit that Mrs. Taylor looked exactly like her, but when Dr. Walmsley asked her a question she admitted she didn't know! Well that girl showed that although Mrs. Taylor is good at make-up, she didn't know Ruth Hunt. She would have had Miss Mary running for first lady president before she stopped."

"I believe you're right, Virginia."

"Listen, Mary, aren't you tired of screwing that hair of yours in knots? Why don't you cut it off short? You couldn't look any worse than Chic does, could you? But then Chic's a mighty good girl. You like her in spite of her loks, don't you?"

"Douse the light, Virginia, somebody is coming! Aw h——l, another call down! We will end up in study hour, and would that be a shine for the Lamb-Harrison outfit. Ask someone who knows?"

POLITICS AND PERSONALITIES

Washington has struck up the band for these people and these things:

Senator Hiram Johnson, of California—because he dug out facts of Barco Oil lands, Chilean Nitrate; put Secretaries Stimpson and Andy Mellon in tight spots. And because it was predicted that he would carry the state of California for the presidential nomination against Herbert Hoover.

Charles G. Dawes—because he forewent the Geneva Disarmament Conference to stay in the United States "to end the depression," as president of the Administration's Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the world's largest fiscal agency with $2,000,000,000 at its command.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.,—because his appointment as Governor-General of the Philippine Islands was confirmed by the Senate in ten seconds—a record time.

Henry P. Fletcher—because he openly sought the aid of the Pennsylvania Congressional delegation in "donning breeches" for the Court of St. James. It is believed that thereby he lost all chances to be Ambassador Dawes' successor.

Alfalfa Bill Murray, of Oklahoma—because the Governor upset the Anti-Saloon League with a beer plan. And because he turned calloused thumbs down on all Democratic presidential candidates except Alfalfa Bill.

Oliver Wendell Holmes— because he resigned in his ninety-first year as Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, and left a place which none but a jurist and a philosopher can fill.

Senators Harry B. Hawes and Hiram Bingham—because one told the other about George Washington's recipe for making beer.

NO EXCUSE

Continued from last week

There is no excuse for:

52. Anybody being as entertaining as precious little Mrs. Marshall. (She could even make "Old Man Depression" laugh).

53. Anybody who can dance like Frances Dorin.

54. Anybody who can wear white spats like the Carolina Tar Heels.

55. Anybody as startling as Mary Gregory in her new disguise. (Ah, there you are. Come out from behind those eyelashes!)

56. Anyone as competent as Martha Gunter. (You just try to make up a dummy for the paper once—Ahem, brother).

57. Anybody as snoopy as the Snoop Secretary of the Snoop Committee of the Snoop Council.

58. Anyone who is as terrified of mice as Harriet Moomaw.

59. Anybody who is as good-natured as the maids in the dining room.

60. Anybody as studious as Wallace Hudgins. When will he give S. T. C. a break?

61. Anybody having as smooth a complexion as Margueretta Brady.

62. Anybody rating bids to the Naval Academy as Nellie Green does.

63. Anybody who is as much of a good sport as Mrs. Laing is.

64. Anybody who is as kind and sympathetic as Dr. Fields.

65. Anybody who receives as many gifts as Martha Ann Laing.

66 Anybody to have as much dry wit as Miss McKee.

68. Anybody to work as hard as Miss Snead and her staff.

68. Anybody to fulfill as many requests as Mr. Hurt.

69. Anybody to put on as many wonderful plays as Miss Wheeler.

CAUSES AND CURES

"Unless youth tears from the heart of civilization the idea that war is a necessary part of it the most horrible war is still to come"—these words of Lloyd George, Britain's war premier, echoed at the seventh annual conference on the cause and cure of war, just ended, in Washington. The path to peace cannot be measured by one generation, agreed this conference, because war is old, pathetically old. Peace . . . heroic and sacrificial is a new vision in which young men and young women can best believe.

The League of Nations also has recognized this significant truth. Under the auspices of its committee of seventeen writers and scholars, known as International Committee for Intellectual Cooperation, a two-fold program in the A. B. C's of Peace is being carried out. First, it familiarizes youth with the idea that international cooperation is the normal and healthful method of managing the affiars of the world, and second, it explains the principles and work o fthe League of Nations.

History books are now being written with broad international outlooks rather than with "my country right or wrong" attitudes.

But national and racial prejudice die hard. Seeking to impress the minds of the young, the German National Socialists have appropriated Grimm's Fairy Tales, and given each one a Fascist moral. The wicked, deceitful old wolf of Little Red Riding Hood stands for "crass Jewish materialism" in whose jaws all "German sentimental and psychic qualities are swallowed up." One Wilhelm Grube has outlined the Nazi formula of education thus: "One patriotically inspired village school master is worth more to us than a thousand Einsteins with their metaphysical ideas."

But to us such so-called patriotic inspiration to the conclusion of creative ideas is known as the most destructive force in the world today. And who but the old can teach this to the youth?

QUALIFICATIONS FOR THE MAY QUEEN

Continued from page one

tI has been the custom for the girl having the second highest number of votes to be maid-of-honor. This will be observed this year.

LONELINESS

Long, lonely stretches of soft sand
Gold, glistening gleaming 'neath the sun
Wind, cool, caressing, o'er the strand.

One lofty dome of heavenly blue
Gigantic figures wrought in cloud
One lone white bird flying, too.

Far out beyond the spaceless seaway
One tiny seal is scudding past
While someone's dream fades away.

One star to light the world at sunset
While one lone palm sways in the breeze
At twilight lonely day and one night melt.

SUNSET

'Twas all music
There in the west the sun
Was just gone. One star
Gleamed
Just above the golden trail of Happiness
The promise of another
Day to come—
Left by his majesty
The sun.

PAL

Does anyone know?
Does anyone care,
Where you go, or how you fare,
Whether you smile, or whether you sigh,
Whether you laugh, or whether you cry,
Glad when you're happy,
Sad when you're blue,
Does anyone care what becomes of you?
I do, Pal . . . I'll say I do.

E. J. T., '35

DEAR

What difference does it make to you
That I like and love you
That all my thoughts and half-thoughts
Hopes and joys are of you?

But no matter if days are grey
Or skies are blue above you
Hate me, ignore me, do as you will,
Dear, I always love you.
P. S.—(But I'd rather that you love me. too).

Easter Souders

There's the deepest hurt that's ever been
When you've met yourself face to face
And known of the failure again and again
You've been in this very same place—
You look at yourself and you say
"Ah, me" 'tis only hopeless I'll own
I know that through life I'll be this way
And must live with a failure alone.

And should I be blue?
A failure too has his place in
The world of men
And maybe the failure's a great success
Because he'll try again.

Margaret Fisher

EVER CHANGING

The sun it shone through clouds one day
To tell me spring was on its way
And after while a cloud by came
And the whole world was not the same
To not behold the sight of sun
And be all blue is ever one
The rain from out the cloud came down
Mingled with tears to move a frown
The rainbow—and the sun shown through
And now I'm happy just as you.

A blending of bird chirps
With frog-calls as bass
The swishing of sea weed
As fine as old lace
The sound of the rippling
Of waters so blue
The fragrance of flowers
All made for you
Of nature—melody.

SOCIALS

Kathryn Royster, Betsy Ross, Celia Jones, Thelma Walsh, Jerry Lee, Mary K. Taylor and Iris Hart spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

• • •

Lillian Hogan, Garnett Hodges, Dot Waynick, Lib Mason, Lois Barnes and Mary Howard were in Roanoke this week-end.

• • •

Chub Denit, Katheryn Logan and Charlotte Oakey were in Salem this week-end.

• • •

Cottie Willis, Virginia Fox, Margaret Gathwright, Catherine McIntyre, Dot Leonard, Lucille Tiller, Evelyn Knaub, and Kitty Waters spent the week-end in Richmond.

• • •

Bernie Mae Love, Judith Hardy and Virginia Gee, spent the week-end in Kenbridge.

• • •

Hanna Crawley was in Cumberland this week-end.

• • •

Evelyn Jones and Cecil Talley spent the week-end in Clarksville.

• • •

Sarah Hubard and Frances Barrell were in Buckingham this week-end.

• • •

Lindsay White was in Arrington this week-end.

• • •

Virginia Bryan spent Sunday in Richmond.

• • •

Josie Spencer spent the week-end in Pamplin.

• • •

Virginia Lamb, Jo Congdon, Frances Potts, and Henrietta Taylor were in Petersburg this week-end.

• • •

Sarah Beck and Mary Easley Hill were in Dinwiddie this week-end.

• • •

Frances Ratcliffe, Polly McMurdo, Isabell Allegree and Ambler Lee were in Charlottesville.

• • •

Leata Barham, Mary Hood and Mildred Lipscomb spent the week-end in Chase City.

• • •

Julia Faris spent the week-end at Red Hill.

• • •

Margaret McCue and Judith Taylor spent the week-end in Staunton.

• • •

Ruth Atkins spent the week-end in Bremo.

MISS MARY ENTERTAINS EIGHT TABLES OF GIRLS

Miss Mary entertained eight of the tables at a delightful surprise party in the student building lounge on Wednesday evening, January 20.

The girls were hospitably received by Miss Mary and Miss Potts. A very effective place had been used in arranging the informal program whereby each table made some contribution to the evening's entretainment. A dance by the Haskins twins, several songs, sung by Sue Yeaman, and a selection of piano solos by Garnett Hodges were enthusiastically received.

The table hostesses assisted Miss Mary and Miss Potts in serving a delicious supper.

The evening was brought to a close with the singing of a number of popular songs appropriately including "A Perfect Day", and closing with "Show Me the Way to Go Home", and "Good Night Ladies."

This is the first of a series of parties to be given by Miss Mary at which she expects to entertain the entire dining hall.

The discovery and opening of six packages containing bombs mailed at Easton, Penn., the other day, was probably all that saved a number of prominent Italians and Italian-Americans in this country from being blown to bits. Following the discovery of the bombs at Easton, police and post office officials, on their guard discovered six more packages of bombs at Chicago, Detroit, Youngstown and Cleveland, and foiled attempted bombings in five more cities. The bombs were apparently sent by Anti-Fascist of Communist cranks, on expressing their hatred of Fascism. As the packages were addressed to Fascist consuls and sympathizers (including the Associated Press office at Chicago).

CLASS NOTES

SENIOR CLASS

Last night, Dr. Walmsley talked to the Senior Class trying to get them interested in entering the southern oratorical contest. The prizes are worth working for. He also talked about our entering the essay contest.

The Seniors are all smiles. It's not a boy or a girl, but $87.78 from the senior show. This is what we made after all expenses were paid.

The Seniors will issue The Rotunda February 24. They will have "Sing", February 6.

The committee to select a spring play has already been appointed.

JUNIOR CLASS

At last, winners announced! The Junior Class has been divided into groups for the purpose of raising money. Mary Gregory's group was so lucky as to win the prize, a huge chocolate cake. Whew! Was it good? Ask Miss Iler and A. Moore. Which might explain why Mary only found half of it.

We are looking forward with interest to the class editions of The Rotunda. Gathwright was elected editor-in-chief and Jane Royall, associate editor of the junior edition.

The Juniors are also getting up sing on February 13. With Dot Snedegar as chairman, we are expecting quite an entertainment.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshman Class wishes to announce that the Freshman-Faculty basketball game will be held February 13 instead of February 26. Come to the game; it will be even better than faculty sing.

JOLLY JUNIOR JUBILEE

Stop and read twice? No, stop and read thrice!

Here at last, the most amazing, startling performance of the year. Not like "Hoover prosperity," just around the corner; but like the depression, it's here. The Juniors seem to do things by 2's. Even the Jolly Junior Jubilee has three parts. This is the third year for the 33's. This is also the third class entertainment and is hoped for success. The class, as usual, is sticking together, "To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield." It is hoped the Juniors will be as successful as the Seniors were and the Sophomores will be.

The classes so far have showed wonderful spiirt in cooperating with and backing each other. The student body is urged to keep up that S. T. C. cooperation instilled by our president. By the way, Dr. Jarman is full of enthusiasm that everyone loves. If the Juniors could get it incorporated into their Jolly Jubilee, that would be all necessary to show everybody a swell time February 26. The Junior Class wishes to thank their sister class for giving them this date. The Freshman Class is assured of a 100 per cent attendance at the basketball game, and the Juniors will surely help Mr. Bell cheer.

What the entertainment will be, is a secret except for the Juniors. As for the rest of the student body, a delightful surprise awaits them. Be sure and save two-bits and get the fun of your life time! With Virginia Thornhill leading the Jubilee committee, Mary Gregory heading the business committe, and Mae Downes the advertising committee, will it be a success? Give us your opinion on February 27, the morning after the night before.

Violin in hand, the famous Dr. Einstein has again returned to our shores for a further period of research with fellow scientists in California. He stipulated "No public receptions and no banquets."

This is a queer news item but we read it in The Cadet from V. M. I., so it must be true. "In a baseball game between two Missouri baseball clubs the final score was 1 to 1 1-2. In the last of the ninth inning, the score was tied and the visiting batsman hit the ball and it broke in midair, one half going over the fence and the other half being caught by the left fielder. The hitter claimed a home run and the fielder claimed a putout. The umpire decided to call it a half run, and thus the score—" Whew, that was quick thinking on the the part of the umpire.

DRAMATIC CLUB HOLDS INITIATION OF MEMBERS

The old members of the Dramatic Club were entertained highly Monday night when the new members were initiated into the club. As the custom is, each new member or group of new members must put on a stunt for the entertainment of the old members. The stunts this year were very attractive, ranging all the way from organization of Captain John Smith to a real honest-to-goodness government meeting.

Captain John Smith stepped upon the scene; the scene being a girl. Lorena Bland cast her eyes upon the stage, her eyes being paper ones which were easily cast. Woodruth Towler, as "quietness" descended upon the stage by way of a step-ladder. Margie McManus, a brook, gurgled across the stage. There were other clever acts in this stunt which made it very attractive.

The government meeting was well carried out, with Nancy Burgwyn acting Grace Virginia's part. We were astonished to find so many of our friend club members being guilty of such crimes. Ruth Wright, a little demure lady in organdy, sang a lovely little love song.

The program was unusually good and it gave the old members, as well as the new, a nice social hour of fun.

Last night the formal initiation of the new members was held in the student building auditorium. Jenilee Knight, president, presided at the meeting. After a careful reading of the constitution, the president gave the formal oath to each new girl.

The Dramatic Club is glad to welcome its new members and it is expecting great things of each one.

FACULTY ENTERTAINS AT SING SATURDAY

One of the most enjoyable entertainments of the year was presented by members of the faculty last Saturday night at sing.

The whole auditorium was filled with roars of laughter as each number was presented.

First, some of the faculty let the class presidents and major officers "see themselves as others see them" in the class room. Mr. Bell, Miss Purdom, Miss Potts and Mr. Graham sang a quartet which was thoroughly enjoyable. The program was concluded by one of the most delightful choruses that has been presented before the student body.

The school wishes to extend their appreciation to all who helped to make this such a pleasant evening and hope that they might have this pleasure again.

Any possible doubts that there may have been concerning President Hoover's candidacy for re-election have been dispelled by a statement from Postmaster General Walter C. Brown, issued after a long conference at the White House: "The friends of the President feel that he ought to be re-nominated and they will take the proper steps to look after his candidacy in the various states."

What gave General Brown's words immense authority was the fact that after the Chicago convention, he is slated to succeed Senator Fess as chairman of the Republican National Committee.

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON

A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices

WEYANOKE HOTEL

Farmville, Va.

Fischer's

Records

Sheet Music

Instruments

Novelties, etc.

Repairing

Third Street

Y. W. C. A.

OPEN CABINET MEETING

The Y. W. C. A. held its regular open cabinet meeting January 20, in the Y. W. C. A. reception room. Sue Yeaman led the devotional service. The chairman of each committee gave a report of the work that has been done by her committee.

We hope that those girls who are interested in Y. W. work will take advantage of these meetings to see what our Y. W. C. A. is doing.

REV. CHAS. W. SHEERIN TO SPEAK FEB. 2 & 3

Mr. Chas. W. Sheerin of Grace and Holy Trinity Church, Richmond, Va., will speak at assembly and at prayers on both February 2 and 3. He will also speak in some classes.

Mr. Sheerin is a forceful and inspiring speaker and we hope many of the girls can make arrangements to hear him.

Wisconsin, noted for thirty years as the initiator of much that is novel in American legislation boasts the distinction of being the first state to adopt an unemployment insurance law. The new measure signed by Governor LaFollotte last week, provides that a compulsory unemployment system will be installed July 1, 1933, unless by that time the industries of the state voluntarily adopted unemployment insurance plans affecting at least 175,000 workers.

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For

The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S

The Home of the Needs

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES

WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP

AND LEATHER USED

YOU ARE INVITED

To Visit the New

LOUISE SHOPPE

HOTEL WEYANOKE

Latest Creations in Sport and Evening Dresses, Coats, Hosiery, Etc.

Prices Range From $5.00 to $16.75

Willis.... Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Manageemnt

W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 353

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE

Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR

and

COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community

For Over Half a Century

Finest Toilet Requisites

Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

NOTEBOOK FILLERS

3 for 20c

These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.

Get them at

Davidson's

HOUSE OF QUALITY

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

"The Store of your choice"

STARTING TODAY——Our January Clearance Sale

$3.00, $4.00 and $5.00 Shoes reduced to $1.98

$7.85 Dresses reduced to $3.88

ALL COATS REDUCED ONE-HALF

Just arrived, the loveliest new spring dresses, prices

$2.95 TO $7.85

Your choice of any hat in the house 98c

The Hub Department Store

FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

Teacher: "Johnny, I'm surprised at you! Do you know any more jokes like that?"
Johnny: "Yes, teacher."
Teacher: "Stay after school."

Little Boy: "Pa, it's raining."
Father: "Well, let it rain."
Little Boy: "I was going to, Pa."

Poor John was killed by a flask of lightning.

First Neighbor: "The folks across the street must be away. There are no lights on."
Second Neighbor: "No, their daughter is having a party."

Lipstick is merely something that gives a new flavor to an old pastime.

"Let's play house. I'll be the walls and get plastered."

Teacher: "Nobody ever heard of a sentence without a predicate."
Wise pupil: "I did!"
Teacher: "What was it?"
Wise pupil: "Thirty days."

Mr. French: "What is meant by the formula—AS2O?"
Jerry: "Gee, Mr. French, I have it on the tip of my tongue, but I—uh—ah—"
Mr. French: "Well, you'd better spit it out—it's arsenic."

Employer: "Smith, call up my dentist and see if he can make an appointment with me. And Smith!"
Clerk: "Yes, sir."
Employer: "Don't urge him!"

Daughter:"Dad, don't you believe two can lives as cheaply as one?"
Father: "I certainly do! Right now mother and I are living as cheaply as you!"

She: "I'm sorry you think I'm conceited."
He: "Well, no, I wouldn't say that but I think you suffer a little from 'I' strain."

Modern Youngster: "What are prayers, Mother?"
Mother: "They are little messages to God."
Youngster: "Oh yeah, and we send them at night to get the cheaper rates, don't we?"

Jones: "Did you see the doctor I told you about?"
Brown: "Yes."
Jones: "And when you told him I sent you what did he say?"
Brown: "He just asked me to pay in advance."

Listener: "What key were you playing in?"
Pianist: "Skeleton key."
Listener: "What do you mean?"
Pianist: "Fits anything."

Pupil: "May we write our autobiographies in one sentence?"
Mr. Grainger: "No—I didn't ask for a life sentence."

Short Story of a Freshman—First month—"A promising young student" Second month—"A young student." Third month—"Young."

Early to bed
Early to rise
Makes a girl
Healthy——.

"Stand behind your lover, false woman, I'm going to shoot you both," thundered the Scotchman who found his wife in another man's arms.

And then there's the contortionist who dreamed he was eating dried peaches and chewed his ears off in his sleep.

HALL TOURNAMENT

An elimination tournament of the ten halls in basketball will be held the first week in February. The Halls will be paired off and may the best Hall win!

A new rule will be introduced in this series. Instead of a toss up in center, the jump centers are given the ball alternately and they throw it to their players. This will put the competition on a more even basis.

Come out, and see whether your halls win!

FOLK LORE CLUB

Continued from page one

will welcome contributions in the form—not of money—but of words and music to old songs and other folk lore, which anyone may know and which have not yet found their way into print. The names and addresses of people who know any old songs or play folk music of any kind will also help the members find the precious materials which they are trying to salvage before they are forgotten and lost. These contributions will be sent in to the Virginia Folk Lore Society which plans to publish another volume, one of Virginia folk songs, and music as soon as it has collected an adequate representation. The names and addresses of all singers and collectors will be carefully recorded and due recognition given in the final publication.

The next meeting of the club will occur Monday afternoon, February 1, at four o'clock in Room 29 and biweekly thereafter at the same hour and place. A form of organization which was tentatively approved at the last meeting will be voted on. Officers and committees will be chosen. An informal program of Virginia folk songs and stories will be arranged by Misses Ruth Haskins and Virginia Fultz. All who are interested are cordially invited to attend all of the meetings, to join the organization and to participate in its very enjoyable work.

BETTY LOU, MUSICAL COMEDY TO BE GIVEN

(Continued from page 1)

crook.

Betty Lou, tired of playing up to middle-aged men, "addicted to dyspepsia and pills", decides to dress as a little girl, and so doing discovers Brooks to be a clever crook who came to "Castle Haven" for the purpose of getting the Crabtree jewels. The climax of the story is reached when Betty Lou discovers three masked men stealing into the room where the cabinet is. Who are they? What do they want? What does Betty Lou do and how does she save "Castle Haven?" Come and see "Betty Lou" and answer these questions for yourself.

Martha Scott Watkins takes the part of the pretty and determined Betty Lou.

"Mutt" Armstrong is cast as oBb Sherwood, who loves Betty Lou's picture but doesn't see through her "little sister" pose until the end of the play.

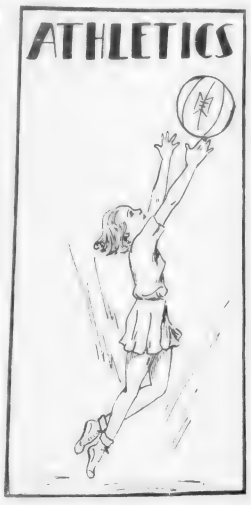
Mrs. Pendleton—the highly-excitable and foolish mother is taken by Betty Watts.

Mary Shelton takes the part of Tony Pendleton, the husband of the efficient Lola, taken by Virginia Ann Huntsberry.

Helen Shawen takes the part of Annie, the maid, an accomplice of Brooks alias "Gentleman Jim" played by Margaret Banks.

Nancy Harrison, Honey Hamilton, Margaret Eley and Cottie Willis are the friends of "Betty Lou" and are always on the scene to supply the right "wisecrack" at the right time. "Chub" Denit is Mr. Lane—the man "who saves the day."

The cast is supported by two choruses of sixteen each who supply song and dance to this comedy.



Pep, wit, humor, rhythm and costume all go to make "Betty Lou" the hit of the year.

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

217 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

MONOGRAM CLUB BIDS NEW MEMBERS

The Monogram Club extends to three girls, Ruth Wright, Dorothy Snedegar, and Nell Dickinson, the privilege of wearing an S. T. C. monogram. These girls have shown a great deal of interest in athletics and have fulfilled the requirements of the club. Besides making 400 points and passing the physical efficiency test, they have made the grade average and have been passed on sportsmanship by the club.

BICENTENNIAL HELPS OFFERED SCHOOLS

Continued from page one

Education on the outstanding characteristics of George Washington and the "Rules of Civility and Decent Behavior" which he studied.

Encourage your students to enroll in the series of nation-wide Educational Contests, which include Declamatory Contests for the elementary schools, Essay Contests for the high schools, and Oratorical Contests for the colleges.

Arrange George Washington programs for your school and put on a George Washington program or play for the community.

Introduce the singing of patriotic songs of George Washington's time in the programs and relate the historical background of these songs.

Use the Forty-eight Papers of the Twelve George Washington Programs in your school programs and study courses.

Display the Flag of the United States. Present the accurate history of our Flag and stress the proper respect and etiquette for the Flag of our country. Teach the established pledge to the Flag and the correct salute.

Publish in the school paper pictures and editorials on George Washington and the creative period in which he lived. Devote at least one entire issue of the school paper to the Bicentennial Celebration. See that this edition is preserved in your school and city libraries.

Dedicate the school annual in 1932 to George Washington.

Urge school literary societies and clubs to center their activities around a study of George Washington.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM JAN 27 to 30

WED.—DOUBLE FEATURE—ONE ADMISSION—"WEST OF BROADWAY," with JOHN GILBERT, LOIS MORAN, EL BRENDEL and MADGE EVANS. Gilbert returns to find his fiancee engaged to another man. He enters a night club to drown his disappointment. All the girls are brunettes. He demands a blonde and Lois Moran is brought to him. They are married and when he gets rid of his headache he tells her to scram. Does she?— well she just shows how she handles the situation. It's worth seeing, and El Brendel will keep you in a mighty good humor all the way through as Gilbert's buddy. The second feature is LAUREL & HARDY in "BEAU HUNKS," a take-off on "Beau Gest."

THURS. and FRIDAY—"SOOKY" with JACKY COOPER and ROBERT COOGAN, and the same cast that was in "Skippy." They take up where "Skippy" left off. Right off a million newspapers and magazine pages into a million new Crosby adventures, those living, loving and scrapping kids. Kids speak the language that everybody understands—they do the things that everybody loves—so rec! you'll want to cheer them. Come and bring the kiddies and perhaps you know of some other kids to bring as your guests who will thank you for days after for the pleasure you afforded them. A picture for the whole family to enjoy. The climax packs a punch surpassed by no other picture.

"BATTLING WITH BUFFALO BILL." We will also show the FIRST episode of a historical and exciting serial depicting Buffalo Bill fighting his way thru the redskins to make the West safe for civilization. Thrills, action, fights in a story written by Buffalo Bill himself—Wm. F. Cody.

SATURDAY — "STEPPING SISTERS," with STANLEY SMITH and BARBARA WEEKS, the most beautiful girl on the screen. Hilarity is the keynote of this one, but there are a number of song hits and novelty singing and dancing turns introduced during the unfolding of the plot. The story deals with three burlesque queens who meet after a separation of years, to recall the glorious days of tights and spears. What happens when they begin slyly to expose one another results in one of the most refreshing comedies of the season. One had become a society leader; another a Shakespearian reader, while the third was still a burlesque queen. See these hippy and happy chorines and laugh your blues away. Also Aesop Fable, Fox News, and Screen Song.

NEXT MON. and TUES.—"DANCE TEAM," with JAMES DUNN and SALLY EILERS, the sweethearts of "Bad Girl." A truly great picture, a credit to its stars, its cast, its authors and director; a picture of which the entire industry might well be proud of, is "Dance Team." It is a simple and human tale that strikes straight from the shoulder and hits hard at the heart. It tells of two ambitious youngsters who on a capital of a dollar and ten cents, start out to become Broadway's premiere dancers. Just two kids kidding themselves that they wanted success more than they wanted each other. See them dance the Sally-Jim, the new dance that is being taken up by the dancing masters of America; it will be the dance hit of the season. Here's the peppy, happy, tender human story you have been waiting for.

FIRST NOTES OF SPRING

Our Spring frocks have every new fashion note in solid and printed fabrics.

Chic college styles that are suitable for all occasions. You will be simply amazed at the remarkable values offered in these three groups at

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

The Style Shop

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

For College Girls

Kleanwell

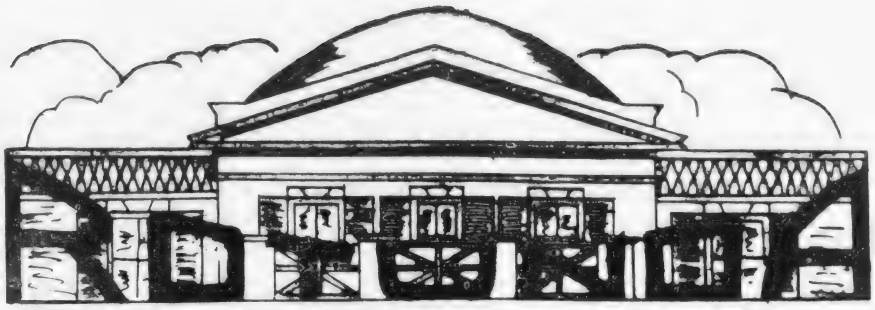
CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus



TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

DON'T FORGET THE FACULTY-FRESHMAN GAME!

BASKETBAWL FACULTY VERSUS FRESHMEN

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1932 No. 16

Announcement of May Queen Made

Medora Ford Wins First Honor With Jenilee Knight as Chief Attendant

STUDENTS SHOW INTEREST

Interest in the election of May Queen came to a head at six o'clock on Friday afternoon, January 29, when Medora Ford was announced holder of the first honor and Jenilee Knight, the second.

Nominations were made by ballot, Thursday, January 28. The names of the three nominees, Medora Ford, Jenilee Knight, and Helen Cover, were posted early Friday morning, votes being cast reguarly throughout the day.

The polls were a center of activity during each change of classes and before and after lunch. Knots of students surrounded the ballot-box, furnishing a confusion of laughter and conversation the main theme being the progressing election.

The highest number of votes automatically elected the Queen, the next highest, the maid of honor.

Medora Ford, a decided brunette is well fitted for her part in the old Indian legend, the theme for presentation this year. Jenilee Knight, also a brunette, will make a lovely maid of honor to Medora.

This annual presentation by a group of outstanding students is a high light in S. T. C.'s unit of entertainment. A splendid beginning has been made toward the composition of a program much above the ordinary this year. The theme is colorful and original, the committees in charge, efficient, and the two main characters, far above the average in ability and attraction.

Mr. Wiley Speaks on Turkish Conditions

Mr. Walter B. Wiley, a representative of the Student Volunteer Movement, came to S. T. C. January 29 with a challenging message of the conditions in Turkey.

He spoke in chapel Friday and Saturday morning, at prayers Friday night, and to several classes Friday and Saturday.

Having been in close contact with the people of Turkey for eight years, he has seen them progress from a backward state to a more enlightened one. However, he sees a need for still further progress, and through his everyday relations with the Turks has been helping them out of their difficulties.

Turkey is the land of marvelous transformation. The Islam religion has been discarded; the old Turkish form of government revised, and educational advantages increased. The women have come from behind their veil of obscurity to take an active part in the affairs of the country.

With their adoption of Western dress and other outward changes has come the longing for all kinds of improvements. The Turkish script has been altered to better suit the needs of the people; agricultural methods have been modernized; and means of transportation improved.

The passing of her Western civilization to the East in a way that will bring permanent credit to America, should be the aim of Americans.

DEDICATION

In appreciation for her love and guidance the Freshman Class affectionately dedicate this issue of the Rotunda to Miss Moran, their Classman!

JUNIOR CHORAL CLUB SHOWS GOOD SPIRIT

The Junior Choral Club deserves special commendation for the spirit shown in the recent musical program. Cooperating with the Senior Club in selling tickets, the Juniors had much to do with the success of the concert.

After the club had been divided into small units, each group canvassed a certain section of the city in the ticket-selling campaign. This method proved very effective both in the interest aroused and the competition which it developed.

Selling as many, if not more tickets than the Seniors, the members of the Junior Club demonstrated their marked business ability.

S. T. C. ENTERS NATION-WIDE CONTEST

The George Washington Bicentennial Commission is conducting an oratorical contest for college students all over the country. In our own state it is to be supervised by the Jefferson Society of the University of Virginia. It is of especial importance and

Continued on page four

Mr. Sheerin Speaks On World Fellows'p

Mr. Charles W. Sheerin, pastor of Trinity Church in Richmond at Dr. Walmsley's invitation, addressed the S. T. C. student body on Tuesday, February 2.

To an audience, tense with interest in the prseent state of affairs in the East, Mr. Sheerin's message was reassuring.

In the development of his topic, World Fellowship, he explained that the idea of universal peace is not a new one, but its realization is impossible until all nations abolish war and submit to the one Great Law.

The East, says Mr. Sheerin, is reciting the lesson learned from the West. Ambitious, shrewd, and enterprising American business men have drilled into her mind the law of might made right. Now her views are no broader than the spark of her bayonets and rifles.

Only when Christian people begin to live their religion will world fellowship be possible, concluded Mr. Sheerin.

"THE VIRGINIAN" DEPENDS UPON YOU

The members of the Virginian Staff are very anxious to make clear to the students the necessity of subscribing to their annual. It is impossible for a staff to publish an annual without the support of each individual. We believe that each student realizes the importance of her subscription to the annual, but to be assured of this belief we must have proof. The halls will be canvassed this week; be sure to find one dollar or more for the annual. The subscription campaign will close February 25, and it will be impossible to get an annual after said date.

TRAINING SCHOOL AND COLLEGE TO CELEBRATE

S. T. C. and the College Training School will have a part in the commemoration of Washington's two-hundredth birthday.

On February 22 a program will be presented by the elementary and high school departments of the Training School, and by the College

(Continued on page 4)

The Faculty Will Battle Freshmen

Freshmen Promise Much In Competitive Unit of Entertainment

SPECIAL FEATURES SCHEDULED

Thrills! Excitement! Laughs! Amusements! All in one! Come and see the big game of the season, with the Flashy Faculty playing the Feeble Freshmen on Friday, February 12, in the gym.

Because the faculty has so many flashy players the entire team will be changed at the half. The faculty line-up for the first half is as follows:

J. C. ..... Bedford
S. C. ..... Iler
F. ..... Barlow
F. ..... Henry
G ..... Moran
G ..... Jeter

Second half:

J. C. ..... Foster
S. C. ..... Nichols
F. ..... Draper
F. ..... Floyd
G. ..... Purdum

The substitutes for the Flashy Faculty are: Robertson, Jones and Norris.

The Feeble Freshman line-up is:

J. C. ..... Lucille Rocke
S. C. ..... Kitty McLemore
F. ..... Iola McIntyre
F. ..... Fannie Bosworth
G. ..... Elizabeth Showell
G. ..... Sarah Beck

Substitutes: Virginia Fox, Christine Childrey, Mamie Showalter, Martha Cross, Lucy Withers, Dot Davis, Alice Zedd and Elizabeth Ranson.

The faculty squad will be backed by about twenty members from their

Continued on page three

Choral Clubs Present Mme. de Nault

Thursday night it was, January 28, 1932—the annual concert of the Choral Clubs of State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia. It was a rare treat, another one of those high class, enjoyable musical events brought to us through the talent and influence of Mr. Alfred H. Strick, head of the department of music. Last year the Choral Clubs sponsored Major Tittmann, basso, of Washington. This year they presented Madame Joanne de Nault, noted contralto, of New York.

With the drawing of the curtain, promptly at 8 o'clock, the audience was happily greeted with the strikingly fine appearance of the Farmville Silver Band in their attractive white uniforms. The removal of their hats the instant the curtain parted was a very taking gesture. The achievement of this band in the past year under the direction of Mr. Strick is certainly phenomenal. Their playing of several choice numbers was truly enjoyed.

At the next parting of the curtain was another and very different stage scene—and a very beautiful one when nearly a hundred young women of State Teachers College appeared, resplendent in their many-colored evening gowns and representing the Choral Clubs of the institution. Their rendering of the "Gloria" by Buzzi-Pezzia with Mr. Strick, director, at the piano, was most effective. They had this high quality composition well in hand technically, and sang with a confidence and freedom that enabled them to express heartily, as

Continued on page three

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Editorials

Miss Moran, Our Classman

The Freshmen, in choosing Miss Moran as class man acquired both an adviser and a friend. She has a knack for understanding our difficulties, a talent in aiding us in becoming adjusted, and genius in helping establish us as a progressive unit.

At first, she acted as an intervening body between us and the faculty and upperclassmen. Now that we are better able to assume responsibility, we find her valuable to us as an adviser. Polishing up our plans, she makes them more workable and success more attainable. However, she not only helps us form blue prints but also sees the project through. In the face of threatening discouragement, this guidance has kept us going. Then, to Miss Moran, our classman, we express our thanks.

Not only a friend in work but a friend in play as well, is Miss Moran. She has big-sistered us, cheered us and inspired us. Our troubles we take to her, confident of their solution. Many a long face she has made shorter and many a frown she has banished from a freshman's brow. In fact, the secret of her popularity is her close association with us and her boundless interest in our affairs.

Moreover, she possesses the Green and White spirit, that animating influence so necessary in everything that we do.

Back the Freshmen!

At present the big aim of the Freshman Class is to put on a really hilarious basketball game with the faculty. This game is going to be well worth your time and ten cents. To make this project a success, it is necessary that we have the cooperation of our class. The freshmen are always ready with support for anything the other classes plan; now is the time for those classes to reciprocate that backing.

You will get pecks of fun watching the members of the faculty prance around the gym; you will get a renewal of the old class spirit; and best of all, you will be helping the freshmen put over their scheme. Now come on you Red and Whites; back us up you Green and Whites for a 100 per cent attendance in the gymnasium February 12.

OVER THE BOUNDARY

My dear, my dear, isn't it marvelous to be on the other side of the old wall once more? Last week nearly put me too far under to survive, Antoinette. Never again will I go to Shannon's on Lyceum night! The programs don't last long enough to keep the "Government" occupied. Who had the brilliant idea anyway—this dashing to Shannon's on the spur of the moment? Whom did you say? I do wish you wouldn't mumble. Well, if you're not mumbling, you're speaking. Can't you strike a happy medium, girl? Of course, never strike anything larger than a medium. Be cautious, my darling, ever and always.

Imagine it, "Tony," we're actually off this thing called campus. Beyond a few real pangs of sympathy for those fellow-sufferers still serving to drape the wall, I'm as contented as a cow, with my newly acquired freedom. I sound like an advertisement for malted milk. Uh, so bovine! Well, I absolutely refuse to be an advertisement, so let's change the subject.

Clearly do I remember the unsatisfied longing to get away from that wall, to blow it up, to kick it hard enough to do some damage, other than maiming a toe, anything to show my dislike for it. You know that harmless construction of bricks and cement absolutely typifies being on campus, to me, anyway. I harbor more resentment against it than any tangible thing I can imagine. It positively infuriates me! Well what if I am getting melodramatic? You get that way over the navy, and its not patriotism either. Every time "The Log" is issued, I have to listen to another bunch of jokes about Joe Gish.

You know, I had a chance to go home last week-end, and I couldn't take it, because we were having initiation services into the Campus Lover's Club. That used to be an exclusive organization, but it's fast going to the well-known dogs. What, you say there were some snappy new members taken in lately? You're right, pal, you're right. Dorin and Navy have been busy keeping up the old morale, but I still insist that Conway is the real pillar of the sisterhood.

That must be true love between Nancy and Ben Franklin. The poor boy struggles up the hill all hours of the day to catch a fervent glance of the girl. Oh, well, those dark beauties do have the old appeal. And poor Dorin—she missed Fancy Dress at W. & L. last week-end. I could have wept in sympathy. You missed it too, didn't you Babe? Um—"Such popularity—" But say where's the Navy coming in on this? I guess that heads in just like getting off campus—too late.

Well, I must be going now. Be sure to give my regards to the Gish family the next time you write. See you later at Shannon's.

STUDENT BODY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the student body was held in the main auditorium after dinner Monday night, February 1. Miss Mary White Cox addressed the students upon various rules of conduct which have been carelessly broken by the school as a whole. She made a plea to the assembly asking the students to be more careful to keep these rules, not only in cooperative spirit with the Student Council, but also to hold the public's good opinion of S. T. C.

Grace Virginia Woodhouse followed her with a brief talk along the same general theme.

The meeting was then turned over to Ruth Floyd, chairman of May Day. Ballots for nominations for May Court were handed out. Each member of the student body was allowed to cast twelve votes. The twenty girls who receive the highest number of votes will be the nominees in the election to be held in the near future.

An enterprising reporter in an economics class at Texas Christian University looked around him to see what the students did during that hour. He found that their activities were divided between yawning, chewing gum, bitting fingernails, powdering noses, and rocking. Only two people in the class paid attention, one a student who was reading a report, and the other the professor.

FRESHMAN BOOK SHOP

The Freshman Class has proven quite literary. These books, just off the press, are now on sale at Shannon's:

1. The Private Life of Benjamin Franklin—Nancy Burgwyn.
2. Essay on Friendship—Polly McMurdo.
3. How to Play the Piano in Ten Lessons—Garnett Hodges.
4. Love Lyrics—Virginia Young.
5. The Teaching of Astronomy—Jerry Lee.
6. Billy, the Kid—Burnley Brockenbrough.
7. Things I Never Knew Until Now—Elizabeth Fields.
8. Personality by Correspondence—Frances Dorin.
9. The Figures Prove the Facts—Martha Cross and Dot Waynick.
10. Essay on Silence—Lorena Bland
11. Maxims of a Modern Maid—Frances Dillon.
12. The Education of a Princess—Mary Gilmer.
13. The Home Life of a Celebrity—Kitty McLemore.
14. Tommies on Parade—Nubby Knaub and Kitty Young.
15. Seen from the Great White Wall—Mary Conway.
16. The Great Mystery—Lucille Rocke.

(This is especially good. The 10th edition has already been printed. Special sale price $1.00).

17. A Guide Book of U. S. Navy—Antoinette Jones.
18. Parisian Coiffeurs—Barney Barnes.
19. Is Chewing Gum an Art?—Dot Davis.
20. The World's Best Pal, Dot Legare.

SCRAMBLED FRESHMEN

In the class of '35 there is:
A Weaver who makes their cloth,
A Taylor who Kutz it out.
Clark's thread for sewing seams
And a Button somewhere about.

The Cooke uses Davis Baking Powder
In making the Kidds a cake,
But Pugh! If she should happen to Burnett,
Marshall make her vacate.

They have a Tiller of the soil,
A Gardener, you know.
Who raises Hardy Mustard plants
Growing row on row.

There's a Smith who works by the forge all day.
While others go Scott free
And Owen people everywhere
Their Hope is not to pay.

From a Wicker chair by the Winder
One sees, when looking out,
Fields and Barnes, Hills and Glenns
Spreading all about.

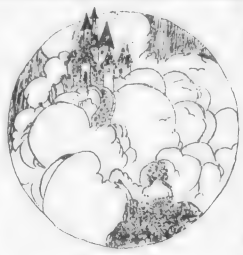
Johnson's picture and a Newcomb and brush
On the Freshman's dresser appear,
From her lover there's a flower
Which Withers so, oh dear!

A maid in a Brown Tweedy coat
Is wooed by a gallant Young Duke.
He takes her riding in his Ford
O'er Rhodes with many a Rocke.

Her coat, her hat, Fox scarf, and all
Are suddenly arrayed
With mud which from a nearby Poole
Another car had sprayed.

Her feelings Hurt (her clothes, as well)
She broke the Duke's poor Hart,
When, leaving him, she did exclaim,
"Such a nut thou art!"

FRESHMAN STAFF



Editor-in-Chief ..... Pela Kutz
Associate Editor .... Belle Lovelace
Literary Editor .... Birdie Wooding
News Editor ..... Mary K. Taylor
World News .... Elizabeth Showell
Feature Editor ..... Lorena Bland
Social Editor ..... Iola McIntyre
Art Editor ..... Lucy Anderson
Athletic Editor .... Martha Putney
Humorous Editor .... Evelyn Knaub

Reporters

Elizabeth Duke Elizabeth Ranson
Lottie Dixon Martha Grainger
Burnley Brockenbrough
Proof Reader .... Katherine Walton
Asst. Proof Reader Mildred Perdue

Managers

Circulation ..... Nell Weaver
Asst. ..... Garnett Hodges

BEWILDERMENT

The sun's daggered rays
Pierced the forest,
Intruding upon shades
Of coming night.
The brook went on its
Merry way
Laughing at ghosts of Death,
Stalking among trees,
And the wind whistled a song
Of joy and pain
I could not understand.

B. M. L. '35

LAMENT OF THE PICKLED FROG

My song is ended
My day is done,
I'll bask no more
On my log in the sun.

Gone from the creek
And the marshy glen,
I'm now just the toy
Of inquisitive men.

Smothered by gases,
The vilest there are,
With other unfortunates,
I'm thrust in a jar.

Shamefully handled,
I'm fished out once more
Then comes the torture
I strongly deplore.

Just to pose for my picture
Would not be so bad,
But the way some folks draw me
Is what makes me mad.

B. O. W., '35

SILHOUETTE

Slim pine trees etched like palms against an evening sky—
Ablaze it is with light,
'Ere comes the night,
And homeward little birds to their nests fly.

B. O. W., '35

LIFE

Life is what you make it?
Why, how can that be so?
I'm sure I'd make mine bright and good,
And you would too, I know.

Yet, there are griefs and sorrows,
There are tears brought on by pain,
There are sufferings and discouragements.
Why don't you think again?

Oh! I see your viewpoint,
Life is what one expects.
It is similar to a mirror,
You see just what it reflects.

I'm glad I see that side now,
I'll do better since I know
That it's the same the whole world over—
You reap just what you sow.

E. H., '35

PHILOSOPHY

Pandora opened the forbidden box
And out flew all the troubles, cares, and strife,
The sorrows, heartaches, pains, and countless woes
Which do beset each mortal in his life.

But look! What lingers yet within the chest,
Enclosed in darkness which conceals its shape?
A softly glowing light, an ethereal ray—
The fairy-spirit Hope did not escape!

Now taking wing, o'er all the world she soars
And seeks those who in blind despair grope.
She penetrates their souls; she lifts them up.
For where there's life, there's always room for hope.

B. O. W., '35

SOCIALS

Elizabeth Hendrick, Nancy Ross, Margaret Eley, Mary Arthur Billups, Hanna Crawley, Patty Ellison, Mary Ellen Johnson, Burnley Brockenbrough, Lillian Shepherd, Virginia Fox, Virginia Cornick, and Ethel Edmonds, spent the week-end in Richmond.

• • •

Ambler Lee, Stuart Quaintance, and Marianna Robinson were in Charlottesville last week-end.

• • •

Jean McClure, Frances Dillon, Joe Sneed, Betsy Wilkinson, Margaret Parker, Betsy Ross and Dorothy Wingfield were in Lynchburg last week-end.

• • •

Mary Kathryn Taylor and Iris Hart spent the week-end at Hampden-Sydney.

• • •

Sara Hubard, Louise Elliott, Louise Woodson, Frances Barrell, and Dorothy Woolwine visted in Buckingham.

• • •

Sarah Beck, Wycliff Scott, Margaret Gilmer, and Mary Gilmer visited Ella Mallory in Lawrenceville.

• • •

Kathryn Crowder, Nancy Burgess, Frances Chappelle Weisiger and Elizabeth Fitzgerald spent the week-end at Blackstone.

• • •

Charlotte Hutchins and Kathryn Cloud vistied in Drewryville.

• • •

Thelma Walsh, Celia Jones, Chick Mosby and Jerry Lee, spent the week-end in Lexington.

• • •

Elizabeth Ranson and Estelle Jones were in Dillwyn last week-end.

• • •

Polly Jones went to Sheppards last week-end.

• • •

Josephine Smith went to Staunton for the week-end.

• • •

Frances Daughtery and Glenn Colonna spent the week-end in Norfolk.

CHORAL CLUBS PRESENT MME. JOANNE DE NAULT

Continued from page one

they did, the thought and feeling in the varying play from lighter to fuller volume and from lower to higher pitch. Miss Irene Leake was the leading soprano at the center of the group.

Then came to the platform the star of the evening, and she was a star indeed—and a star performer. Madame Joanne de Nault is a beautiful woman, of fine figure and stately bearing, with a stage presence rarely equalled for grace and dignity of carriage. She reminds one of Nordica. But along with a certain subtle reserve and poise there was an unusual combination in her personality of human feeling, friendliness, and kindliness toward her auditors that shone on her face, and put her thoroughly "en rapport'" with them, and called out their continued spontaneous and hearty responses. There was nothing of the artificial, affected or superfluous in her manner. "Sincerity" is one of the vital elements of personality. Madame de Nault was wholly sincere. A "charming personality?" Assuredly. What makes a person charming? Is it not that unique union of physical and mental traits of highest quality, that combination of such traits which is balanced, harmonious, and so, according to the Greek requirement, a realization of the beautiful, of charm, both of person and character?

Madame de Nault's program was divided into three groups, the two arias from Don Carlos and "Mignon", folk songs of different nations, and miscellaneous selections. One hesitates to particularize. "Comparsons are sometimes odius." Each group and number had its own appeal. The singer's great versatility was shown in such contrasts as "Mignon", the Hungarian "O'er the Forest", the "Shortnin' Bread", and the "Mountains". We must refer to the one negro selection, "Shortnin' Bread", and its encore, because of the masterly portraiture by a Northerner of a distinctively Southern feature. The reserve and poise before mentioned added remarkably to the effect of these numbers. Madame was certainly generous in her respone to encores. Another one she chose was Brahms' immortal Wiegen Lied or Cradle Song, Guten Abend, Gute Nacht, with which Madame Schumann-Heink sang to sleep, as she herself recently declared, her eleven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The closing number featured the Oratorio Society with Madame de Nault in that fitting selection, "Thine is the Kingdom" from "The Holy City", with its lively restful rhythm and sparkling melody. Here again these young women made very evident not only their excellent training but their own musical understanding and appreciation.

Leon E. Bell

MADAME DE NAULT IN SACRED CONCERT

On Sunday evening, January 31, the doors of the college auditorium were thrown open to the public and a large audience was privileged to hear Madame de Nault in selections principally from the great oratorios of Handel, Rossini, and Mendelssohn. Surely this gifted contralto is at home and at her best in this wonderful type of musical composition, the oratorio. Such passages as "He shall feed His flock like a shepherd" from Handel's Messiah are among the choicest in all musical literature. We wish we could hear them every day.

But Madame de Nault was also at her best in such tender touching numbers as "Little Bare Feet". Her voice has great volume as contralto, and yet she will enter the soprano range with the finest, purest, and sweetest tones, as was the case in the selection last named and others. Her final number, "All in the April Evening," was an inspiring climax greatly appreciated, and a tribute to the artist's taste and power. The audience which had listened with rapt attention joined in the closing, "Abide With Me."

Madame de Nault leaves behind many friends who wish her to return to us.—L. E. B.

WEEKLY SING PRESENTED

The weekly sing was carried off Saturday night in fine style. Frances Dorin, as the modern girl, gave splendid support to Martha Walters, who played the part of the joy-mad youth of America, anxious to relate his experiences with the fairer sex, to any sympathetic audience.

The theme of the skit unfolded with Frances Dorin as his audience, and with the help of pantomimes, his stories were told by the appearance upon the stage of the chief members of his tales.

Dot Snedegar and Hildegarde Ross entertained with a clog act, Garnett Hodges, with selections on the piano, the Haskins twins with a black-face act, and the Senior Quartette, brought up later by Henrietta Cornwell with a charming number, "Trees."

The play ended with a realistic love scene played by Frances Dorin and Martha Walters.

UPPER CLASSMEN HELP FRESHMEN MAKE "MARK"

Pencil Day, sponsored by Mary Kathyrn Taylor's group of Freshmen, was a huge success for the class of '35.

The efficiency with which the Freshmen managed Pencil Day shows that, though they are the "baby class", they are learning to do things in a grown-up way.

Author: "This is the plot of my story: A midnight scene. Two burglars creep stealthily toward the house. They climb a wall and force open a window, and enter the room. The clock strikes one."

Listener (breathlessly): "Which one?"

GIVE
Beau Depression
"THE AIR" FOR A CHANGE
and join us at the CABARET SUPPER on February 13
—in—
Recreation Hall
P. S.—Music, dancing, Tigers, eats and everything—

KEEPING UP WITH THE WORLD

"Scenery and Safety—Not Signs." This is the motto of two hundred organizations throughout Virginia and the nation that are sponsoring a campaign to improve roadside beauty by doing away with unsightly billboards. They figure that drivers are more interested in the scenery than in shaving cream, tooth paste, and gasoline ads.

One hundred and fifty students in the high school at Burlington, Iowa have signed a pact to recognize leap year as far as dates are concerned. If the girl asks for the date the couple goes Dutch on the entertainment. If the initiative comes from the boy he must foot the entire bill.

The chewing gum industry must be profitable. $22,500,000 is the fortune left by William Wrigley, Jr. Attaches of the probate court in Chicago declared this to be the largest fortune ever recorded by them.

Premier Mussolini deplores the fad of reducing which is being widely practiced by Italian women. He believes this desire for a thin figure to be weakening to the race and has called on physicians throughout Italy to discourage it in every way possible.

The Turkish government has agreed to allow the uncovering of mosiacs in St. Sophia's. All of the handsome mosiac work was whitewashed when it was converted in a mosque by the Turks. The work of uncovering it, which requires great delicacy will be directed by the National Turkish Museum. Soon the saints, flowers, crosses, and stars which adorn it will glitter again in the richness of their myriad colors.

Archaelogical study has revealed that shorthand symbols were in use among the ancient Romans. Roman merchants used shorthand several centuries before Christ to transact business throughout the provinces. Shorthand did not need to be transcribed as the recipient was always familiar with the code employed.

TRAINING SCHOOL GLEE CLUB PRESENTED

The Glee Club of the Training School gave a delightful program at chapel last Saturday. The first number sung was "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton"; this was followed by "Vesper Hymn." Lastly, the club rendered the "Flag Song", which Mr. Strick composed.

The Glee Club is made up of girls in the high school department of the Training School and is directed by Nancy Putney and Lindsey White.

FACULTY WILL BATTLE FRESHMEN

Continued from page one

ranks, with Mr. Bell as cheer leader. Those in the group are:

Miss Camper, Miss Hiner, Miss Taylor, Miss Peck, Miss Jennings, Miss Waters,Miss Tucker, Miss Cooper, Miss Potts, Mr. Bell, Mr. Coyner, Mr. Holton, Mr. McCorkle, Mr. French, Dr. Walmsley, Dr. Simkins, Miss Barnes, Miss Taliaferro and Dr. Stevens.

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

Y. W. C. A. CABINET GIVES TEA SATURDAY

On Friday, January 29 the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet was hostess at a tea given for Mr. Walter B. Wiley, a missionary to Turkey. Advisers and members of the various committees of the Y. W. C. A. were present also. Mr. Wiley showed and explained many interesting pictures, portraying the Turkish people their costumes, homes and customs. A very keen insight into the more intimate circles of the Turks as a nation was obtained.

MR. WILEY TALKS TO Y. W. C. A. CABINET

On Saturday afternoon, January 30, Mr. Wiley talked to the members of the Cabinet as a group. He was interested to know the work of the various committees and that of the Y. W. C. A. at Farmville as a whole. It might be interesting to the student body at large that Mr. Wiley seemed particularly pleased with the organization and work of the Cabinet here. He said it was about the best organized of any he had found in colleges elsewhere. Mr. Wiley also gave suggestions as to how the Y. W. C. A. might broaden its scope beyond this campus.

Between halves there will be special features, such as tap dancing, choruses, and a kitchen orchestra.

Come, have a good time for only a dime!

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

YOU ARE INVITED
To Visit the New
LOUISE SHOPPE
HOTEL WEYANOKE
Latest Creations in Sport and Evening Dresses, Coats, Hosiery, Etc.
Prices Range From
$5.00 to $16.75

Willis....Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 255

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

STARTING TODAY——Our January Clearance Sale
$3.00, $4.00 and $5.00 Shoes reduced to $1.98
$7.85 Dresses reduced to $3.88
ALL COATS REDUCED ONE-HALF
Just arrived, the loveliest new spring dresses, prices
$2.95 TO $7.85
Your choice of any hat in the house 98c
The Hub Department Store
FARMVILLE'S BEST PLACE TO SHOP

JOKES

Wiggs: "My wife is a wonderful vocalist. Why, I have known her to hold her audience for hours—"

Miggs: "Get out!"

Wiggs: "After which she would lay it in the cradle and rock it to sleep."

Little Willie: "Mom, you said the baby had your eyes and daddy's nose. didn't you?"

Mom: "Yes, darling."

Little Willie: "Well, you'd better keep your eye on 'im he's got grandpop's teeth, now."

A. McCarthy: "What does it mean when an auto driver sticks out his hand?"

"Chan" Hurd: "If it's a man, he's going to turn. It it's a woman, she's either going to turn right, to the left, or go straight ahead, or back up, or she's waving to a friend, or her elbow itches."

Queen Mary of England is suffering from a slight cold in the head. Anybody could have told her that no good would come of wearing those hats.

Miss Stubbs in Sociology: "Who can tell me of a coincidence?"

Jane Royall: "My father and mother were married on the same day."

A. Moore: "I think I caught cold while I was in the theatre the other night."

H. Moomaw: "Why? Weren't the heaters working?"

A. Moore: "Yes, but I sat in Z row." (zero).

Edith "Polly puts her watch under her pillow at night."

Mary: "Yes, I notice she likes to sleep overtime."

Did you know that you can't blow a shoe horn?

FRESHMAN BRAIN STORM

Talking about mistakes, the Rowell twins exchanged their cornflakes for bran the other day, but, for some unknown reason, they soon switched back to cornflakes.

Ah! the fight is on. Mary Harrison versus Jerry Lee—the spoils—Billy Powell. Don't we have the best time hanging over the Rotunda every Saturday and Sunday night trying to see which one is going to hold his hand for that round?

Where there is a will there are plenty of relatives.

Central Outlook prints the following slang and the persons who first used it:

Never say die ..... Methusalah
Be yourself ..... Priscilla to John
I hope you choke Jonah to the whale
All aboard ..... Noah
Let's go places and do things .... Napoleon
Home Sweet Home ..... Babe Ruth
Step on it ..... Sir Walter Raleigh

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

Alice Moore riding a tricycle;
Mr. Bell in a bathing suit;
Ruth Hunt with short hair;
Medora Ford with a permanent;
Winston Cobb not smiling;
Dr. Jarman in high-heeled slippers;
Henrietta Cornwell doing the Charleston;
Mr. French in a nightshirt;
Mr. Strick in overalls;
Jerry Lee with black hair;
Mr. McCorkle in a dress;
Mr. Coyner in shorts;
Dr. Walmsley reaching for the moon;
Miss London reading "True Stories".
Miss Wheeler chewing gum;

MR. CRENSHAW SPEAKS TO BAPTIST GIRLS

In the small auditorium on Thursday, January 28, between five and six o'clock, Mr. Versil Crenshaw spoke with a group of Baptist girls. Mr. Crenshaw, who last week conducted classes in Sunday School work at the Baptist Church, is a member of the Virginia Baptist State Board.

At the meeting on Thursday conditions in the Baptist Students Union here at college were discussed. Mr. Crenshaw cited ways used by other unions to arouse interest in their meetings and their work. It is felt that he gave very hopeful and practical advice, the immediate result of which is that the group of girls who heard him speak on Thursday will meet together on Monday afternoon to make plans for the betterment of the Baptist Students Union here.

FOLK LORE CLUB HAS UNIQUE PROGRAM

On Monday afternoon at four o'clock the Farmville Folk Lore Club held a meeting at the college. After business was discussed, the members were entertained by a unique program which Ruth Haskins and Virginia Fultz had planned.

Quite a few myths and superstitions of Virginia mountaineers were read and explained by Virginia Fultz.

The climax of the program was the appearance of Ruth Haskins, dressed in blue overalls and a straw hat, playing the part of a "blushing barefoot beau". Nell Ryan, her gingham clad partner, was the "queen in calico." This pair performed a quaint dance, derived probably, from some old Virginia "square".

With the help of Mr. and Mrs. Grainger, the members spent the latter part of the hour learning folk songs and dances.

S. T. C. ENTERS ORATORICAL CONTEST

Continued from page one

affords marked interest to Virginians because of our state pride in George Washington.

Below are the rules and regulations and other necessary information to be observed by students of Virginia entering the contest:

(1) The state contest will be held at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia about the first of March. Announcements are to be made later.

(2) There shall be one representative from each competing college.

(3) Each college shall conduct its own elimination contest on February 22, 1932 for the purpose of choosing its representative.

(4) The work of each student must be original.

(5) The speaker is limited to twelve minutes.

(6) The oration must be on any one of the following subjects:

Washington the Courageous.
Washington and the West
Washington, the Man of Business Vision.
Development of Washington's Military Ability.
George Washington's Understanding of Men.
Washington: Nation Builder.
First in Peace.
Washington: Exemplar of American Ideals.
George Washington, a World Figure.
The Spirit of Washington.

(7) The National Commission will present the official commemorative medal in silver to the winner of the state contest; to the winner of second place, the official medal in bronze; and to the student of third place, a certificate of award.

(8) The student winning the State Contest will compete in the Regional Contest. (Time and place to be announced). The winner of this contest will compete in the National Contest at Washington for the official medal in gold.

As an additional honor, the representative of S. T. C. will be given membership in the local chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, a national forensic fraternity.

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

MONOGRAM CLUB INITIATES MEMBERS

On Thursday night of last week, Nell Dickinson, Dot Snedegar, and Ruth Wright were formally initiated into the Monogram Club. In honor of the initiates the old members of the Club wore white on Friday.

Friday night the new members were given a unique party, at which time they received their proper disciplining. An amusing program was then presented including an original poem recited by Nell Dickinson, a dialogue by Dot Snedegar and an original song by Ruth Wright.

These girls are to be congratulated not only for their athletic ability but for the good sportsmanship shown in all their work. Their blue and white monograms represent hard work, school spirt, athletic achievement, but above all these they represent good sportsmanship in work and play.

VARSITY TO PLAY R. N. SATURDAY

The big season for the 1932 varsity basketball squad is almost underway. The first game, scheduled with Richmond Normal, will be played Saturday afternoon in Richmond.

The squad has been working diligently in preparing a team worthy of S. T. C. Honor is due not only to those who will make the trip, but to the faithful teammates, as well, who have cooperated in practices.

Tme Freshman Class is backing the enterprise with great enthusiasm.

TRAINING SCHOOL AND COLLEGE TO CELEBRATE

Continued from page one

honor societies.

In the morning come these presentations:

First Grade, Rhythm Band.
Songs by the Kindergarten.
Scenes from Washington's Life.
Minuet by Fourth and Fifth Grades

From the High School will come speakers, telling how George Washington's character was formed by facing difficulties and meeting emergencies. Some specific titles of speeches are:

"Washington as President."
"Washington's Difficulties in the Revolution."
"Washington's Part in the Making and Ratification of the Constitution."

The honor fraternities of the College are planning an evening program, consisting of animated pictures of events from Washington's life, colonial dances, and a short address by Rev. Diehl.

The tableaux will show Washington bidding farewell to his mother, Washington in uniform, a ball at Mt. Vernon, and a family devotional service.

"How can you tell an Englishman, an Irishman, and a Scotchman apart, when they come to the end of a long railroad journey?"

"Well, how can you tell them apart?"

"The Englishman hurries away to find a restaurant; the Irishman rushes off to find a bar, and the Scotchman goes back through the train to see if anyone left anything."

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM FEBUARY 2 T O 9

WEDNESDAY — "WATERLOO BRIDGE" with MAE CLARKE and KENT DOUGLASS. Only once in a great while is a picture produced that is so utterly fine in direction, in acting, in story, in technical beauty, that it immediately becomes recognized as an outstanding candidate for honors as the best picture of the year. Such a picture is "Waterloo Bridge," proclaimed by critics all over the country. The girl had known men —the wrong men—and now to go back to this boy would mean his life would be ruined as hers had been. To leave him for good would mean his heart crushed and his life broken as hers was now. What to do? Our word for it—here is a picture you will not want to miss. Also two-reel comedy.

THURS. & FRI. — "FRANKENSTEIN" with JOHN BOLES, BORIS KARLOFF, MAE CLARKE and COLVIN CLIVE. Here comes the world's most famous shocker. If you have a weak heart and cannot stand excitement, DO NOT see this picture. It will thrill you; it will shock you; it may even horrify you. On the other hand, if you like thrilling drama, don't miss "Frankenstein." It is the talk of the whole country, so come prepared for the most thrilling, most exciting, most electrifying picture of the year. Frankenstein was the man who made a monster. He was filled with the ambition to create a creature which could walk and talk, breathe and eat like human beings—and he did, but he could not control this monster who had the shrewd cunning, ruthless brain of a criminal. What happened? Come and see the most effective screen offering ever devised—the most unusual picture ever produced. Also Cartoon, Comedy and chapter 2, "Battling With Buffalo Bill" on Friday only.

SAT. — WARNER BAXTER in "THE CISCO KID" supported by Edmund Lowe and Conchita Montenegro. Here's one of O. Henry's best stories depicting a chivalrous bandit, loving all women and trusting none; gay caballero of the border who defied the law for the fun of it—and a hard-boiled cavalryman who thought himself irresistible to women, yet whose chief ambition was to capture the elusive bandit. Here is a dramatic action, wholesome comedy, romance of the outdoors; in short, a picture for the whole family. Warner Baxter in one of his best pictures—a successor to "In Old Arizona". Also Our Gang Comedy, Screen Song and Fox News.

NEXT MON. & TUES.— "DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE," with FREDERIC MARCH and MIRIAM HOPKINS. The weirdest, yet most romantic story ever told of an adored lover who turns into a monster. Before your very eyes you see a change that will make you want to jump out of your seat. It's thrilling, electrifying, tingling. Here's Fred March's greatest performance in Robert L. Stevenson's famous classic. An adorable lover by day; by night a man-monster, slinking through the shadows in search of demoniac pastimes. Two women adore him. One, who sees him in all his romantic handsomeness by day; the other, who cringes before his devilish ape-manners by night—yet neither can possess him.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE AN ART STUDENT

to appreciate the loveliness of our new Spring Frocks. It's simply a mater of "love at first sight" when you see the many new dresses for all occasions, which we feature at three interesting prices

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

The Style Shop

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

For College Girls

Kleanwell

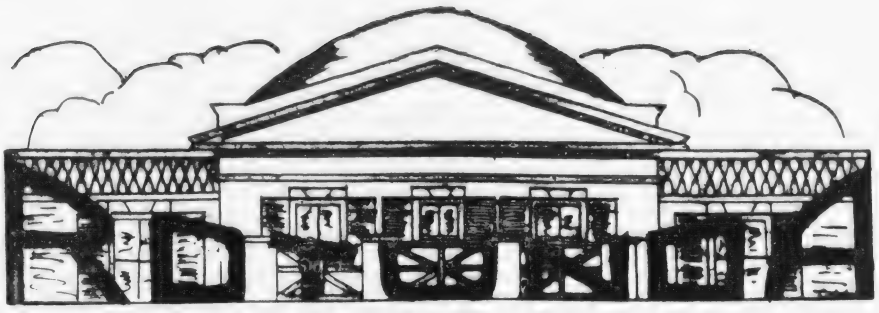
CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus



TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

DON'T FORGET CLASS GAMES

SUBSCRIBE TO THE VIRGINIAN NOW

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1932 No. 17

Personnel of May Day Court Chosen By the Student Body on Thursday

Candidates Elected After Presentation to the Student Body

Thursday night the twenty-seven candidates for the May Court were presented to the student body. It was suggested that this be done, because the students, particularly the freshmen and new girls, did not know all of those girls to be voted on.

Henrietta Cornwell acted as "master of ceremonies". She told the student body that the girls in the May Court would have to wear yellow, and that they should be chosen not only for beauty, but also for grace and poise. The candidates, all of whom stage two at a time, one at either end wore evening dresses, appeared on the of the curtain. After their names were announced by Henrietta, they walked to the center of the stage down the steps, and took their places on either side.

After all of the girls had been presented, the May Queen, Medora Ford, and the maid-of-honor, Jenilee Knight, entered and remained standing before the curtain in the center of the stage. In a few minutes, all of the girls walked back upon the stage, stood there a minute or two, and then disappeared behind the curtain—with apparent relief.

Margaret Gathright, Richmond.
Helen Cover, Staunton.
Nancy Harrison, Petersburg
Mary Shelton, Farmville
Betty Watts, Beckley, W. Va.
Doris Ewers, Lynchburg, Va.
Ruth Floyd, Erie, Pa.
Celia Jones, Lynchburg, Va.
Virginia Fox, Richmond.
Grace Virginia Woodhouse, Portsmouth, Va.
Jane Royall, Tazewell
A. J. Scott Tazewell.

Mathematics Club Holds Meeting

The Mathematics Club met in the little auditorium, Monday morning at ten o'clock. A very interesting program on the metric system was presented by members of the club. The first number was a paper on Lagrange by Grace Rowell. Lagrange was head of the commission that worked out the metric system. Alice Rowell read a paper explaining the metric system.

Several members of the club then presented a play called "The New Assistant". The new assistant was Miss Metric System. She demonstrated some of the many advantages of the metric system. The other characters in the play were the leading nations. All these countries use this system entirely except United States and Great Britain, and it is expected that they will soon add to their limited use of it.

Mr. John B. Hill Speaks at S. T. C.

Mr. John B. Hill, associate secretary of the Virginia Baptist Board of Missions and Education, and Secretary of Sunday school and student work, spoke at S. T. C. on February, the fourth.

At the invitation of Miss Lillian Woodley, a member of the Prayer Committee, Mr. Hill talked to the student body at prayers.. Immediately following this he met with a group of Baptist girls to discuss the general work of the State.

JOLLY JUNIOR JUBILEE

On February 26 at 8 o'clock the Junior Class will present a scintillating entertainment featuring the past, present and future. There will be catchy songs, snappy dances, and brilliant displays of wit. eBfore the very eyes of the spectators the past will be revived, the cave man with his war dance, days when "bicycles were built for two" and the Floradora girls were in vogue. Then, too, there will be fast spirited pictures of life as it is lived in the present day, syncopated flashes of the modern youth in action. Then the future—but there is the mystery! shall the future generation be wintering ta the South Pole and dashing off to Paris for tea on Sunday or shall they be competing in basketball with Mars? Then shift to the next part. There's a game with Death! Thirteen "Aristocrats" of Coontown have formed themselves into a suicide club. According to their by-laws, one member must commit suicide at every annual banquet given by the club. This is the first banquet since their organization. Mystery reigns! who will be the one on February 26 that must seek death by

Continued on page three

Pi Gamma Mu To Sponsor Bi-Centennial Program

The George Washington Bicentennial will be celebrated in the school auditorium by two entertainments on February 22. The Training School will be responsible for the morning program at 10 o'clock.

As head of all the honorary sororities, Pi Gamma Mu will sponsor the evening program. At the beginning of this program, the entire audience will join in singing "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner". Five tableaus taken from the following pictures will be presented: "Farewell to His Mother," "Virginia Colonel," Farewell to His Office," "The Ball Scene," and "Evening Prayer at Mt. Vernon."

The Choral Club and College Orchestra will assist in the musical program.

DRAMATIC CLUB STARTS PRACTICES FOR PLAY OF SPRING SEASON

The Dramtaic Club has started practices for their spring play, which will be given about the middle of April under the able direction of Miss Leola Wheeler. "The Ivory Door" by A. A. Milne is a legend in prologue form in three acts. The scene is laid in the king's palace and takes place in the Middle Ages. The feminine lead will be taken by Nancy Burgwyn and the masculine lead by Mary Shelton.

The play is of a very different type than any given at S. T. C. for some time, and the student body is looking forward to it with gerat anticipation.

KAPPA DELTA PI BIDS NEW MEMBERS

The Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi announces the following new members:

Mrs. Susie Conant
Sara James
Grace Va. Woodhouse

An inspiration
A quenchless fire
A never-dying love
A challenge for days to come
These have they given us—
Those joined with us as sisters
Those whom we honor and esteem.
A new revelation
A blazing torch
An immortal dream
These are ours
As the legacy of their trust.

Hail to our sister class!
Seniors of '32
May we in dedication,
Present our Sophomore heart to you.

BETTY LOU SCORES BIG SUCCESS

The Sophomores presented the musical comedy, Betty Lou, on Friday evening, February 5. It was one of the biggest hits of the season. This was the first production by the members of the class, and they appreciated the fact that it was enjoyed by all those present. The members of the class worked very diligently to make the comedy a success, and the fact that the auditorium was filled proved that their efforts had not been in vain.

The choruses and dances added spice and pep to the comedy. The characters were ideally selected.

The cast and choruses were as follows:

Betty Lou ..... Martha S. Watkins
Bob Sherwood .. Margaret Armstrong
Mrs. Pendleton ..... Betty Watts
Mr. Brooks ..... Margaret Banks
Tony Pendleton ..... Mary Shelton
Lola Pendleton .... V. A. Huntsberry
Bee and Joe—Nancy Harrison and Honey Hamilton.
Bab and Jack—Margaret Eley and Cottie Willis
Annie ..... Helen Shawen
Mr. Lane ..... Chub Denit

Dresden Tea Shop: Julia Faris, leader, Mary A. Billups, Ann McGann, Mary Ellen Johnson, Clara McKenzie, Frances Rawlings, Alma Foster, Ida Miller, Lillian Hogan, Louise Van Lear, Ruth Wright, Virginia Lanier, Helen Westmoreland, Betsy Wilkinson, Nannie Gilbert.

Peter Pan Chorus: Catherine Jones, Alice Marshall, Myra McIntosh, Frances Graham, Jac Morton Margaret Copenhaver, Dot Leonard, Pol-

Continued on page three

MR. HOLTON NAMED INSTRUCTOR FOR THE EXTENSION CENTER

The Extension Department of the University of Virginia has announced the appointment of Professor Samuel M. Holton, Jr., as a new instructor for the Petersburg Extension Center.

Mr. Holton received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Duke University and has taken up graduate study from the University of North Carolina. He has been Associate Professor of Education and Principal of the Training School. He will offer a course carrying college credit in "A Study of the Curriculum," in harmony with the plans of State Department of Education for curriculum revision.

Farmville Defeats Richmond Normal In First Varsity Game of the season

Entire Second Team Is Sent In Rolling Up Score To 68-12

Saturday, February 6, the Farmville girls defeated the Richmond Normal team in basketball by a score of 68-12. Even though the score indicates otherwise the game was hard fought.

The game started off with a bang, the Farmville girls at first being handicapped by the small court. Both teams showed fine coaching and played a clean game.

The excellent work of our guards prevented the Richmond Normal girls from rolling up a score while the centers and forwards played a fast, snappy game. Although the Richmond Normal girls played a fine game they were unable to defeat the Farmville team.

The sportsmanship exhibited by both teams was noticeable throughout the entire game.

Line-up:

First half:

Richmond (12)		Farmville (68)
Dunn	R.F.	Snedegar
Tatum	L.F.	Fraser
Gorge	J.C.	Gregory
Burgess	S.C.	Potts
Williams (c)	R.G.	Souders (c)
Petross	L.G.	Beck

Substitute: Farmville, Parker for Snedegar.

Second half:

Dunn	R.F.	Snedegar
Tatum	L.F.	Parker
Gorge	J.C.	Quisenberry
Wight	S.C.	Edwards
Leary	R.G.	Souders
Williams	L. G.	Putney

Substitutes—Farmville, Fraser for Snedegar; Hurt for Parker.

Referee: Crenshaw of Westhampton.

Umpire: Hatchett, Petersburg.

FRESHMEN PRESENT CLASSMAN

Saturday morning at chapel exercises the "five months old" Freshman class presented Miss Moran, their classman, to the faculty and student body. Dressed in white and wearing green and white bows of ribbons representing their class colors, the class assembled in the auditorium and sang their class song.

The stage had been transformed into a room in a college dormitory. Jestine Cutshall, as the typical "rat", entered in quest of her misplaced rat cap and was joined in the search by Burnley Brockenborough and Dot Davis, class officers. Laeta Barham, class president, came in to appease the wrath of the three who were expounding at great length on the injustice imposed by the sophomores in the form of wearing rat caps. She then made a very impressive tarik.

A huge green and white rat cap in the center of the stage was turned to reeval Miss Moran who was presented by the president. In conclusion the class sang a song to her.

Dr. John Mott Lectures in City Of Lynchburg

The Y. W. C. A. Cabinet and other students and members of the faculty had the rare pleasure of hearing Dr. John Mott speak on Friday evening, February 5 in Smith-Memorial aHll, Randolph-Macon College, Lynchburg. Dr. Mott is a world wide personage in Y. W. C. A. work. His talk centered around the importance and extent of Y. W. C. A. work from the time it was begun in London in the early part of the nineteenth century up till now, w hen it has spread almost over the entire globe. Mr. Mott has traveled in many different countries and knows first hand the problems of many nationalities and how they have been greatly alleviated by the Y. W. C. A.

BOSTON MALE CHOIR TO PRESENT "ROBIN HOOD" TONIGHT

Demter Zachareff presents the Boston Light Opera Company to the student body tonight, February 10, at eight o'clock in "Robin Hood", an immortal comic opera in three acts.

The story of the play is by Harry B. Smith, while the music is by Reginald de Koven. The first performance of "Robin Hood" ever given was in Chicago, on June 9, 1890, by the Bostonians, who sang the opera more than four thousand times.

The story of the opera, though simple, is most interesting. At the beginning of the opera a merry-making is in progress at the market place in

Continued on page four

DR. DIEHL ON LIFE AND RELIGION

Dr. Diehl will give a series of six addresses during Lent in Johns Memorial Church. The first, next Sunday and the last, March 20. The hour on each Sunday will be from 9:30 to 10:15 A. M.

The addresses will be informal and each followed by a discussion. Members of the faculty, home department and student body are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. Simpkins Wins Historical Award

Dr. Francis B. Simkins of the department of history has been awarded the John H. Dunning Prize for 1931 by the American Historical Association for a great contribution to American history. Dr. Simkins entitled his work "South Carolina During the Reconstruction." The book is expected to come from the University of North Carolina Press in a few days. Dr. Simkins is also considered an authority on the Tighman movement in South Carolina. Being a native of that state he understands thoroughly historical situations.

The student body wishes to congratulate Dr. Simkins for through this honor bestowed upon him prestige is added to the school.

Freshmen Will Play Faculty Fri. Night

The Faculty will battle the Freshmen in a basketball game, Friday, February 12 in the gym.

The faculty players are Bedford, Iler, Barlow, Henry, Moran, Jeter, Foster, Nichols, Draper Floyd Purdom Robertson Jones and Norris. The feeble freshmen line-up is Rocke, McLemore, McIntyre, Bosworth, Showell, Beck, Fox, Childrey, Showalter Cross, Waters, Davis, Zedd, and Ranson.

Come and bring ten cents admission. Support the freshmen!

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

Our Sister Class

It is with genuine esteem and affection that we dedicate this issue of the Rotunda to our sister class—the Seniors. They have set a noble example which we may follow with pride. Their road has been rugged and full of pitfalls but they have overcome every obstacle with their bigness of spirit and their loyalty to their Alma Mater. At last they have reached the time to which every college student looks forward—the time when she may don the coveted cap and gown.

As Red and Whites we are proud of having them for our sister class. In carrying on for Red and White they have brought honor to Blue and White and to S. T. C.

Class Games

What color is going on the cup? While the green and white now has the lead—just watch out! Class basketball games are on hand. Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, Freshmen, your team needs your backing. "Be there" and be with them whether they win or lose!

When our teams go into the games, they're there to win but there are other things which matter besides the mere winning of a game. Victory is not the greatest thing after all, for it does not profit us if we win the game and lose our self-respect.

The competition between the classes of red and white and green and white is natural and right, for only through friendly rivalry can the best be brought to fuse at last in a perfect union of blue and white—the colors of our Alma Mater!

BEHIND THE SCENES

Quick, Virginia Ann, please put that collar button in the back; this "stiff" is about to become a crown. You know I can't realize that this is the third act and that in a few minutes the play will be over. Hasn't it been fun? It doesn't seem quite fair though that we've had all the fun while the others have done the hard work. Miss Potts has been a regular Trojan! And Sarah Ford—we just couldn't get along without her! Did you hear about Frances Horton selling 50 tickets? With such helpers as that, no wonder we could put this on.

Ouch! you're choking me! That's better now—but I still don't like this straight jacket! And speaking of wearing apparel—haven't the Hampden-Sydney boys been swell about lending us their clothes. I'm sure Joe Perry must be wearing a barrel these days after letting Banks have all of those suits. Didn't you really nearly die laughing at Banks? I don't see how she exists with all those sweaters and towels that she has on underneath in the effort to fill out Joe's clothes in a manly fashion. I love to hear her sing that "Come Marry Me" song! Wasn't Shawen a scream? I got almost as tickled at her when she was the sedate maid as I did when she was being herself—the hotcha gal!

Look at Mutt, she's really got that love making down pat! Oh, excuse me! I forgot I was looking through the hole in the curtain. What do you see now. You say "Baby" Watkins is rolling her eyes around at Mutt. Yea, she's good at that—she's a regular connoisseur of that art.

You want to know who that red-headed boy near the back is? The one looking at his watch? Oh! that's Bruce Clark. He's got a date with Glenn Perry after this is over— no wonder he's so impatient. Wasn't she the best thing you've ever seen? You want to know who that good-looking boy with Sanders? Listen, who do you think I am—a telephone directory! You're behind the times if you don't know him. Why, he's causing quite a flutter in many hearts up here! He is Sam McLaughlin! Isn't my roommate the stuff—having a date with him?

Hasn't Eley been natural in this play? She acts as if she was born on a stage. She has a cute "beau-lover" in Cottie Willis! You think Honey and "Nonie" pair up well? Check—so do I!

Look at "Chub"—she's about to trip over her coat. Didn't she have that stage under control a few minutes ago. I loved that manly stride of hers. You know—B. Watts is so realistic in this that I'm afraid she's really going to fall in my arms in this act. If you see that "I am going to drop her" look in my eyes please come to the rescue like a good wife.

I think "Cack" and Julia had better stop school right now and trot on up to Zeigfield—I'm sure he would welcome them with open arms. They have been the stuff in training the choruses. They say they couldn't have done near so well without Mrs. Fitzpatrick's help.

Gosh! What is my first speech? Yea, my first speech! Oh, you say I don't have but one speech and that is "what." Do you mean to say that I struggled on this tuck just to say one word? Well I 'spose it's too late to fuss about that now. It's almost time for us to go on. Be sure and smile up at me in a wifely manner! What do I say now? Yea! I got it. What! What! What! O. K. let's amble in.

NEW MEMBERS OF EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

The Farmville Chapter of the Association of Childhood Education wishes to announce the following new members:

Jenilee Knight
Eloise Beeler
Catherine McIntyre
Ann Davis
Flora Neatrous
Lou Covington
Anna F. Traylor
Ethel Creedle
Maria Williams
Ruth Atkins
Mildred Hall
Betsy Ross
Armistead Jane Scott
Mary Jess Richmond
Martha Higgins
Alice Marshall
Catherine Cogbill
Ruth Wright
Chrystie Stokes
Mary Sue Jacob
Thelma Stevens
Virginia Lanier
Maury L. Lyons
Nell Fischer
Edric Holland
Addie L. Parker
Stuart Quaintance
Kathleen Clemens
Lindsay White

The Sophomore staff congratulates the Freshmen staff upon their issue of the Rotunda.

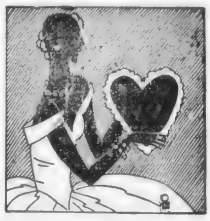
SONG HITS OF '34

1. Old Playmate—Martha Kello.
2. Be Careful With Those Eeyes—Mary Harrison.
3. Ooh! That Kiss—Mutt Armstrong and Martha Scott Watkins.
4. The One Man Band—Margaret Banks.
5. Tiger Rag—Margaretta Brady.
6. Too Late—"Nonie" Harrison.
7. Sweet Sue—Sue Yeaman
8. Navy Blues—"Bidgie" Warren
9. We Call It Madness—Helen Shawen.
10. I Don't Know Why—Ann McGann.
11. Happy Feet—"Cack" Jones
12. How Long Will It Last?—"Honey" Hamilton.
13. That's My Desire—Mary Arthur Billups.
14. All of Me—"Chub" Denit.
15. California Here I Come—"Ccotty" Martin.
16. You Rascal You—Betsy Wilkinson.
17. Carolina's Calling Me—Laura Darlington
18. Snuggled on Your Sholuder—Virginia Lamb.
19. We Wouldn't Change You for the World—Miss Potts.
20. Prisoner of Love—Mary Ellen Johnson.
21. You Darling—Clara MacKenzie
22. Little White Lies—Margaret Eley.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Virginia Intermont College of Bristol is one of the thirty-five institutions of higher learning selected by the United States Office of Education, Department of the Interior, for special study in connection with the National Survery of Education of Teachers, authorized by the 77th Congress. The institutions include universities, colleges and junior colleges in various sections of the country and were selected as representing the better practices in education and in the preparation of teachers according to Dr. E. S. Evenden, associate director of the survey.

Two years ago Virginia Intermont established a teacher training department which is now fully accredited by the State Board of Education, the graduates receiving the Normal Professional Certificates. Misses Louise Brewer and Margaret Fergusson are critic teachers of the grades in the modern teacher training school on the campus.



At a recent meeting of the Boydton Woman's Club Miss India Miller, home demonstration agent for the county, discussed the work of the club, suggesting the possibility of recreational civic, literary, Girl Scouts, gardening, and poultry work as well as other work in the town. Miss Miller gave a demonstration on making a winter glass garden. Mrs. Carrie G. Bugg is on the program committee for the club.

Mrs. Edgar L. Greever, of Tazewell, is State President of the United Daughters of 1812.

Miss Harriett Johns has resigned her position in South Boston and will teach in Averett College, Danville.

The dedication of the new hall for the Farmville Lodge I. O. O. F. was featured with the presentation of a beautiful electric crock in memory of R. C. Bristow, a charter member. The clock, a gift of Mrs. R. C. Bristow, was presented by L. E. Hubbard in an address in which he paid tribute to Mr. Bristow. The memorial is inscribed: "In memory of R. C. Bristow 1905-1929."

Mrs. Alice Lemon Lockridge died at her home on January 11. Alice Lemon was of the class of 1913.

THE DAY OF HEARTS

Once more the Day of Hearts is near,
When Cupid's arrows shining
Bring words of love from maidens fair
To sickly lads repining.

Bring words of love to gentlemen?
Alas!that can't be true!
For ladies to send words of love
Would never, never do!

But now old orders change, you see.
There comes a bolt out of the blue;
This is the year of grace, dear friend,
For this is leap year, thirty-two!

Edith Shanks, '34

I WONDER

My life is going around right now,
In a whirlwind so it seems.
Will it ever cease pulling me along;
Is there any use in my living at all?
I wonder.

There's sadness deep in my heart
A sorrow of what I know not
Will I ever be able to puzzle it out,
And find peace of soul again?
I wonder.

Does life hold a promise for one like me,
Or is all my life lived in vain?
Why do the things I feel and see
Fill my heart and my soul with pain?
I wonder.

Is my faith strong enough to fight the world?
Am I even fit to live?
Will my prayers to God be answered
So he'll give me strength to endure?
I wonder.

Nell Dickinson '34

UNDERSTANDING

An understanding with you
Is as vague to me
As the most mystical things of life.
I wonder—dream—think—
But all to no avail!
It leaves me bewildered!—
With no satisfaction.

Alma Foster, '34

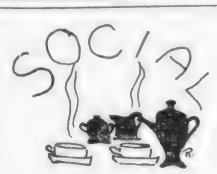
A TREE

Stark and tall against the evening sky,
Lone sentinel.
From your lofty height you know
The secrets of the stars, the clouds, the moon.
From your dark depths in the earth
You know and understand
The grass, the flowers, the streams.

Would that I could be
A mediator such as thou,
To reach between the heavens and earth,
And draw them closer to each other.

Edith Shanks, '34

A GLOOMY WINTER DAY



A grey and lowering sky—
Leafless, lifeless, sinister trees,
With black arms against a gloomy horizon,
Flowers vanished from sight,
Grass parched and sear,
Songs of happy birds gone,
Sunshine—not in sight
Yet it's somewhere—
But "God's in his heaven
And all's right with the world."

Sarah Hyde Thomas, '34

OUR VARSITY

Oh, here's a cheer for our Varsity
United for blue and white
Rearing our banner skyward
Vying with all its might
A cheer for its sportly conduct.
Rah—for its character so true.
Send cries at the top of your voices
In showing them they're true-blue—
Trusting them ever to fight—
Yes, that—and much more, too.

Nell Dickinson, '34

Margaret Barker and "Chick" Mosby were visitors in Lynchburg this week-end.

Ruth Atkins spent the week-end with Virginia Ranson in Bremo.

Nancy Burgwyn Frances Dorin and Mamie Barnes were in Richmond this week-end.

Charlotte Hutchins was a guest of Virginia Bledsoe in Baltimore.

Sarah Beck passed the week-end with her parents in Petersburg.

Virginia Bailey was a visitor of Ann Woodson in Rustburg.

Margaretta Brady, Evelyn Knaub, Kathrine McLemore, Margaret Parker, and Katherine McIntyre attended the Randolph-Macon dances.

Fannie Bosworth went home to Brownsburg for the week-end.

Jestine Cutshall was a week-end guest of Mrs. Groone in Richmond.

Hanna Crawley spent the week-end in Cumberland with her parents.

Helen Cover was a guest of Kitty Walters in Onley, Virginia.

Glenn P. Colonna, Ambler Lee, Ruth Ford, and Virginia Young were in Norfolk this week-end.

Julia Faris has gone to her home in Red Hill on account of illness.

Virginia Fox, Jenilee Knight, Margaret McCoy and Margaret Gilmer attended a dance in Charlottesville.

Judith Hardy passed the week-end in Kenbridge with her parents.

Dorothy Leonard was in Richmond Saturday.

Jerry Lee was home for the week-end.

Harriett Moomaw motored to Roanoke with her father on Friday.

Frances Potts was a visitor of Rev. J. M. Potts in Petersburg Sunday.

Dorothy Prescott and Elizabeth Kelly were week-end visitors of Mrs. W. M. Harris in Kenbridge.

Josie Spencer and Mary Katherine Taylor were in Charlottesville for the week-end and attended the dance there.

Among the old girls who came back for the week-end were Martha Moore, Margaret Moreland, Alice Steidtman and Jacque Lee.

MISS MARY ENTERTAINS

Entertaining eight of the tables from the dining room, Miss Mary was hostess at a delightful surprise party in the student building lounge on Wednesday evening, February 3.

Miss Potts at the piano gave several selections both classical and popular, including "The Rosary" and "The World Is Waiting For the Sunrise", after which a delicious supper was served with the assistance of the table hostess.

The singing of a number of songs brought the evening to a close.

TEA GIVEN FOR SENIORS

Mrs. Warren and Miss Craddock entertained some of the girls of Cunningham Hall at a tea Sunday afternoon from five to six o'clock.

MISS BEDFORD HAS TEA

Miss Bedford, adviser of the Senior Class, entertained a small group from her class Sunday afternoon from 4:30 to 6:00 at an informal tea held at Mrs. Gilbert's.

TO GIVE CONCERT IN PETERSBURG

A group of girls from the Senior Choral Club and the String Trio of the College under the direction of Mr. Alfred H. Strick will go to Petersburg Sunday to give a sacred concert in Trinity Methodist church. Dr. Jarman and Miss Jennie M. Tabb will make the trip with the group.

A Chicago man has confessed to a judge that in order to keep his son in Harvard he stole 118 bath tubs. That just goes to show what Americans will do for a formal education. "A crime a day keeps ignorance away" is the new adoption of the old adage."

MODERN LANGUAGES CLASSES HAVE BAZAAR

Muisc. Dancing. Color. Gifts galore. Laughter. Gay chatter in French and Spanish. A gendarme directing wandering visitors. A Spanish sereno singing his song. All these things will lend atmosphere to the bazaar to be given by Le Cercle Francais and El Circulo Espanol on Thursday, Februray 11, from 4 to 6 p. m. in the "rec". The admission fee is only five cents. Many atttractive gifts will be offered at very moderate prices. The program will feature songs by Miss Irene Leake, music on the saw by Dr. Bell of Hampden-Sydney, French and Spanish dancing by members of the French and Spanish circles. and other attractive numbers. Two pleasant hours well spent are promised to those who attend the bazaar.

WORLD NEWS

More than sixteen hundred men sought jobs during the first week in February at the Charleston Navy Yard and Watertown Arsenal near Boston, as the result of wild rumors that the United States was making secret war preparations because of the tense situation in China. Many travelled from distant points. eNedless to say all of them departed disappointed.

"A two cent postage stamp purchased my master's degree." This is a statement made by Vice-President Henry Langdon of Du Pauw University, Greencastle, Illinois, when telling how he got his degree. Until 1874 any alumni of this University could receive a master's degree for a two cent stamp. No requirement or any study was necessary.

A certain alumna who was married on her graduation night was also permitted to receive her master's degree. Dr. Langdon remarked that such was considered an intellectual pursuit.

For the first time in history a radio microphone has been installed in a Turkish mosque.

Choosing one of the most famous edifices in all Turkey, St. Sophia, for this innovation, Mustapha Kemal has directed that the radio services be chanted from the newly adopted Turkish Koran.

This is the second notable departure from ancient customs in religious service affected by the present Turkish president this year. The Arabic Koran was replaced in some of the mosques by the Turkish translation.

Alarmed by the unsettled conditions in the Far East, the ex-Maharajarah of Indore has requested his wife, the former Nancy Ann Miller of Seattle, to cut short her visit here and return to Cairo where she will be with her husband and two small daughters. The Maharama arrived in Seattle last Tuesday intending to remain two weeks with her relatives. She now expects to leave Friday.

A Japanese student at Colgate University is being sent through college by the faculty and student body. Each fraternity house has voted to have the student in to meals for a week. The faculty will give aid in other expenses. He is the only Oriental in the University.

BETTY LOU SCORES BIG SUCCESS

Continued from page one

ly Brock, Mary Lou Fritts, Mildred Gwaltney, Virginia Lanier, Thelma Stevens, Ann Davis, Dot Weems, Marietta Wilson, Anna Frances Traylor. Feature Dance— Glenn P. Colonna

The members of the Sophomore class wish to express their sincere appreciation to Miss Potts, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Henrietta Cornwall and Josephine Smith for their able assistance in producing the play.

JOLLY JUNIOR JUBILEE

Continued from page one

their own hands.

Now for Act III. What have the Juniors under their "hat?" Ah, that's the Junior Jubilee meaning dances, song hits, mystery, love, pathos, choruses, humor, fun and a good time for all.

M. VIRGINIA POTTS

"Until the end
True friends we'll be
Until the end of time.
With you to guide us
Through all our strife
Which makes up college life
All troubles fade before
Nothing can ever daunt us
To you we'll be true
We'll always love you
Our Pilot—Miss Potts

SOPHOMORE STAFF

Editor-in-Chief .. Elizabeth Burger
Associate Ed. .... Sarah H. Thomas
News Editor ..... Elizabeth Kelly
Literary Ed. ..... Nell Dickinson
Atheltic Ed. ..... Mary B. Fraser
World News .... Nannie R. Cooper
Intercollegiate ..... Virginia A. Huntsberry
Social Editor ..... Martha Kello
Art Editor ..... Gertrude Sugden
Feature Editor ..... Mary Shelton
Humorous Ed. ..... Margaret Eley

Reporters

Virginia Hamilton Elma Rawlings
Dorothy Leonard Maxine Kitts
Elmer Foster
Proof Reader ..... Edith Shanks
Assistant Proof Readers—Alma Foster and Irwin Staples

Managers

Circulation ..... Frances Horton
Assistant ..... Sarah Ford

SORORITY AVERAGES

Pan-Hellenic Association wishes to announce the three highest sororities in scholastic standing as follows:

Zeta Tau
Delta Sigma Chi
Gamma Theta

Amos: "Do you know what surrounds the ocean, Andy?"
Andy: "Sho', Aamos, sho'!"

Kello (teaching): "If I subtract 79 from 23, what's the difference?"
Pupil "Yeah, I think it's a lot of foolishness, too."

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

MR. SHEERIN IS GUEST OF Y. W. C. A.

Mr. Charles Sheerin of Trinity Church, Richmond, has been the recent guest of the Y. W. C. A. at Farmville. Mr. Sheerin is an advocate of World Fellowship. Mr. Sheerin not only gave very inspiring talks along that line, but talked to the Cabinet as a group and gave many helpful suggestions.

Mr. Wiley and Mr. Sheerin both commented on the wonderful organization of the Y. W. C. A. at Farmville.

Y. W. C. A. GIVES TEA

On Tuesday, February 2, the Y. W C. A. Cabinet had as its guest for tea, Mr. Charles W. Sherin, pastor of Trinity Church in Richmond. Those presentt—he Cabiet, member of various committees, and advisers — caught the spirt of noble fellowship which pervaded his interesting conversation during the evening.

NEWS FROM OTHER SCHOOLS CAMPUSES

Harrisonburg State Teachers College triumphed over Shepherd College in first basketball game of season by a score of 50-12.

Girls at Northwestern have been advised by one of the professors to play basketball so as to prepare themselves for domestic duties. The faculty member believes that if this is done there will be fewer fumbles in the handling of babies.

Statistics show that Miss Co-ed of 1935 will be taller, heavier, and healthier than Miss Co-ed of 1925 according to the prediction at Barnard College:

Miss 1925
eHight	63.79 inches
Weight	122.98 pounds
Grip	57.11 pounds
Lung capacity	179 cubic inches
Miss 1935
Height	64.33 inches
Weight	124.18 pounds
Grip	70.60 pounds
Lung capacity	192.00 cubic inches

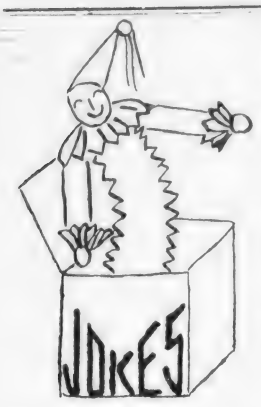
Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

YOU ARE INVITED
To Visit the New
LOUISE SHOPPE
HOTEL WEYANOKE
Latest Creations in Sport and Evening Dresses, Coats, Hosiery, Etc.
Prices Range From
$5.00 to $16.75

Willis....Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355



TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

DRESS UP GIRLS!
We're Ready With Easter Apparel!
Teasingly Pretty New Spring Hats $1.00, $1.95 & $2.95
Lovely New Coats. We have 'em $5.95 & $9.95
New collarless styles
Newest Spring Shoes $2.95 & $3.95
are heer
Knit Sport Dresses and Suits
$1.98 $2.95 & $4.95
Snappiest Dresses in town. Prices to suit everyone!
The Hub Department Store
Offers best values always—Hosiery Sale this week!

Five Feet: "Might I have this dance?"
Six Feet: "Yes, you mite."

Miss Norris: "Young Lady, I'd like to take profanity out of your life."
Mary Harrison: "Drop around when I've finished my practice teaching."

The train came to a sudden, grinding stop causing the passengers to jump.
Alice Marshall: "What has happened, conductor?"
Conductor: "Nothing much. We ran over a cow."
Alice Marshall: "Why, was it on the track?"
Conductor (disgustedly): "No, we chased it into the barn."

A teddy bear sat on the ice
As cold as cold could be
But soon he up and walked away
My "tale is told," said he.

Lelia: "What's the Scotch football yell?"
Clara: "Get that quarterback."

Mexican Weather Report: "Chile today and Hot Tomale."

Berk "What is it that you part your hair with, ride all over town in and feed the baby with?"
Fannie Mae: "I can't imagine."
Berk: "A comb, an automobile, and a bottle."

Pinkey: "I would like to dance like this forever."
Lamb: "Don't you even want to improve?"

Billy Powell: "You say you can recommend this hair restorer?"
Barber: "Yes, sir. I know a man who removed the cork with his teeth and within 24 hours had a moustache."

Nancy: "What kind of a tree is that?"
Honey: "That's a fig tree."
Nancy: "Oh I thought the leaves were larger than that."

Some folks think that the laundry is a place where you send clothes when you don't want them anymore.

"Give me the eggs", the captain roared.
Up sprang the gallant crew,
They heaved the anchor overboard,
And made the ship lay two.

Nellie: "I understand she's quite a celebrity at the military academy."
Bidgie: "Yes, they devised a bullet-proof vest to protect "drags" from those horrid brass buttons."

CLASS GAMES HELD FEB. 11—7 O'CLOCK

Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors—all out practicing and all looking forward to the big night, February 11 at 7 o'clock when the interclass basketball games will be played. Come out and support your class colors and keep the pep in the athletic thermometer up to it's one hundred per cent mark!

CLASS BASKET BALL SQUADS

Fareshmen—Anthony, Beard, Beck, Bosworth, Burnap, Davis, Dixon, Floyd, Fox, Grainger, Harris, Hodnett Hutchinson, Hurt, Mattox, A. Mattox, Owen, Phillips, Anthony, Rhodes, Sawyer, Sinclair, Taylor, Warrington, Thompson, Wheeler.

Sophomores—Allen, Burger, Cooper, Dickinson, Drissell, Foster, Fraser, Gwaltney, Holland, Horton, Kello, Jones Parker, Pratt, Sinclair, Stokes, Shawen, Wright, Yeaman.

Juniors—Brown, Crute, Beacham, Gregory, Gunter, Hoffa, Jordon, Lane, Linthicum, McDaniel, Massey, Potts, Ridgeway, Ross, Scales, Snedegar, Sanford, Walthall.

Seniors—Boswell, Clayton, Clingenpeel, Edwards, Hundley, Quisenberry, Souders.

PRESENT "ROBIN HOOD"

Continued from page one

Nottingham. Three outlaws, Little John, Will Scarlet, and Friar Tuck, enter and sing of their free life in the Forest of Sherwood; then the dashing Robin Hood appears, declaring that he is the Earl of Huntington and demanding that the Sheriff shall proclaim him. The Sheriff protests, however, saying that the youth has been disinherited by his own father, who before the birth of Robin Hood was secretly married to a peasant girl, who died when her child was an infant. The child is Sir Guy of Gisborne, the rightful heir to the earldom and the Sheriff's ward whom he is planning to marry to Lady Marian, ward of the Crown. However, as love will have it, the young girl and Robin already are deeply in love and exchanging vows of eternal faith—to the indignation of Sir Guy. Lady Marian protests against her marriage, hoping that on the return of the King from the Crusades she will be released while Robin Hood plans with the help of the King to prove his right to the earldom. The outlaws sympathize with the pair and invite Robin Hood to join them, promising him he shall be their king and rule them under the Greenwood Tree—to which proposal Robin Hood at length agrees.

In the last act the dashing king of the outlaws brings the message saving Maid Marian from Sir Guy, and the opera ends amid general rejoicings at the triumph of Robin Hood and the gentle Maid over the plotting Sheriff and his ward. The finale is lively.

The cast is indeed quite unusual consisting of singers and actors of known prominence and of an individual art and charm. The student body has heard and enthusiastically accepted some of these artists, Yvonne Des Rosiers, soloist and Raymond Simonds being recommended best of all.

The student body should realize and grasp the opportunity of hearing and seeing this opera, because of the great acclaim that the public and audiences all over the country are giving it. The program is interesting, humorous and instructive, and every girl at S. T. C. should appreciate and enjoy it to the utmost.

BASKETBALL CAPTAINS ARE ELECTED

The basket ball varsity squad chose as their captain, Easter Souders. The class captains are:

Seniors	Ethel Boswell
Juniors	Dorothy Snedegar
Sophomores	Mary B. Fraser
Freshmen	Sarah Beck

If you are interested in knowing how to get a bid to any organization here's some advice:

Start a quarrel with at least two of the members.

Ask to be shown the club or chapter room.

Criticize the furnishings, especially the taste in pictures.

FINALS IN THE HALL TOURNAMENT HELD

Were you in the gym last Friday to see Tackey Alley and Town Girls play Senior Building I and II for the championship in the hall tournament? Both teams were on the court with determination to win. Tackey Alley and Town Girls started the ball rolling by making the first goal. At the end of the first half the score was tied 4-4, but the tie was soon broken by Parker's making a goal for the Tackey Alley and Town Girls' team. The final test came at the sound of the timer's whistle. Tackey Alley and Town Girls were champions.

Tackey Alley and Town Girls led by Alma Foster are to be congratulated for their success as champions in the hall tournament.

The score was 11 to 4 in favor of Tackey Alley.

The line-up:

Tackey Alley, etc.	Sen. Bldgs. I-II
Sanford ..... R.F.	Clayton
Parker ..... L.F.	Boswell
Foster ..... J.C.	Steere
Mattox ..... S.C.	Quisenberry
Crute ..... R.G.	Hundley
Putney ..... L.G.	Souders

Go to the kitchen after each party and ask for more food; you might try demanding it if you don't get it the first time.

Neck the president's boy friend at some of the parties.

Ask for a bid.

(If these won't help you to get a bid, we won't be surprised.)

Cottie: "I should like to shoot you."
Finley: "You can't, my dear, without a hunting license. I'm an Elk."

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM FEB. 10 TO 16

WED. — "THE UNEXPECTED FATHER" with Zazu Pitts, Slim Summerville and the 4 year old wonder actress, Cora Sue Collins. A new ly rich bachelor. A gold-digging fiancee. An orphan child who dreams this bachelor into an actual daddy to get out of the clutches of a boot-legging aunt. A threatening society wedding. A starry-eyed nurse. Put all this together and you have a mad melange of merry-making quips and side-splitting action that will give you one of the merriest evenings imaginable. This little heart-breaker, Cora Sue Collins, will win you right from the start. Here's a picture for the whole family—bring the children. Also Harry Lauder Song and Comedy. EXTRA—On this night we will give away a REAL LIVE BABY to the lucky member of the audience, so come prepared for a most unsual evening of entertainment.

THURS.—"TWO KINDS OF WOMEN" with MIRIAM HOPKINS, PHILLIPS HOLMES and STUART ERWIN. From a small Western town comes this beautiful girl, craving love and excitement in New York. She finds a handsome lover but he's already "in deep" with a "big-time" girl. Do these two dames fight it out? Well, say, if you like high-pitched drama, intense plot-interest and quality entertainment, don't miss "Two Kinds of Women," one, the kind men like; the other, the kind men wish they could get. One's a romantic dreamer—the other's a money-mad schemer. This one shows you how the girls have a good time in New York. Also "the Mysterious Mystery" and Aesop Cartoon.

FRI. & SAT.—"THIS RECKLESS AGE" with BUDDY ROGERS, PEGGY SHANNON and CHARLIE RUGGLES, and an all-favorite cast. If you are "that way" about some boy or girl, you'll understand and like this picture, for it is fast, furious and snappy, depicting a story of sweethearts who are also "that way" about mother and dad. A story of the youth of today—reckless youth, wild young things, flaunting romance in cellophane. What is the army of unemployed chaperones going to do about it? Oh, yeah? Youth must have its fling. See what happens when headstrong, vivacious youth, clashes with head-strong loving parents. See how mad youth sticks up for mother and dad in a crisis. A picture that every man, woman and child in Farmville should see. Also Chapter 3 "Battling With Buffalo Bill" on Friday only. Saturday, Fox News and Comedy.

NEXT MON. & TUES.—"HELL DIVERS" with CLARK GABLE, WALLACE, BEERY, DOROTHY JORDAN and CLIFF EDWARDS. Thousands defied death to make this picture. A year in production, the most amazing document of romance, terror, spectacle and humanity ever flung, thrill upon thrill, across the screen. Never before, perhaps never again, can it happen. Such a drama of love, of thrills, such tense tragedy, stepping on the heels of laughter. Everybody is raving about this picture. Handsome Clark Gable, lovable Wallace Beery, together in the biggest picture of the year. You'll laugh and cry and feel your heart thumping when you see this magnificent spectacle. OK for the whole family—don't miss it. Also Paramount News. A full 2-hour show at regular prices.

"BATTLING WITH BUFFALO BILL" every Friday.

Daily matinees at 4 P. M. Evenings at 8 o'clock. Saturday matinees continuous from 2:15 to 6 P M

Admission—Adults 35c at night and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

It you want to look slim and trim, slip into one of the new

SPRING FROCKS

WE ARE NOW SHOWING
The little sports dress for example—
Wear them for business, traveling about town, to college or wherever you are going.

All the new spring models now on display, priced to $2.95, $4.95, $7.85, $9.95 and $10.50.

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE · STORE

THE LATEST THING IN PRINT

. . . and the latest thing in solid shades too, is included in our showing of Spring Dresses.

You will be all pepped up when you see what great values we offer for such small prices.

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)
LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS
ONE DAY SERVICE
Complete line Greeting Cards
Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"
We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty
BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP
323 Main Street

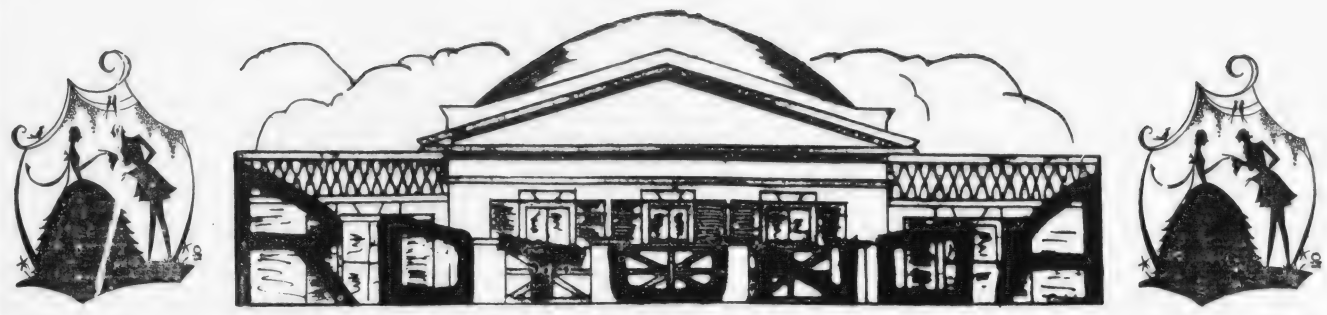
Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE
Come in and Get Acquainted
We Are Glad to Have You With Us
Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best
SANDWICHES
—and—
DRINKS
—in—
FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler



Gifts of Lasting Remembrance
317 Main Street
Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS
Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments
Special prices for cleaning and remodeling
Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING
CLEANING
AND PRESSING
Farmville, Va.

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1932 No. 18

Bi-Centennial is To Be Observed Here February 22

Elaborate and Entertaining Program Has Been Planned For Students and People of the Town

LEGION GETS SPEAKER

Americans everywhere will be celebrating the Bicentennial Anniversary of George Washington's birth, February 22. Quite an elaborate program has been planed for the benefit and entertainment of the college students and people of the town.

The first part of the program has been taken over by the Training School, and will be given in the morning. For the afternoon, the American Legion has secured a speaker.

The honor societies of the college working in combination, have planned several scenes by which interesting phases of Washington's life will be portrayed. The program as it now stands is as follows:

1. "Star Spangled Banner", audience
2. Reading ..... Eleanor Davis
3. Washington's life in pageantry:
   a. Washington's Farewell to his mother.
   b. The Virginia Colonel.
   c. General George Washington and his generals.
   d. Lady Washington's reception. —minuet by dancing class
   e. Prayers at Mount Vernon.
4. "America" ..... audience

Throughout the entire program the college orchestra under the direction of Miss Lizabeth Purdom will give musical selections appropriate to the pantomime.

S. T. C. Choral Club Sings In Petersburg

The Senior Choral Club presented a program of sacred music in Trinity Methodist Church, Petersburg Sunday evening, February 14 before an audience that filled the auditorium. The program up to the very high standard that has made this Choral Club synonymous with the best in choral singing. The students were given a supper and a beautiful nosegay by the members of the church, and had a very enjoyable time.

The concert, according to a leading musician of Petersburg, was an expression of the finest selections in music rendered with consumate artistry. As a tribute to the director the pastor, Rev. J. Manning Potts said he would ever remember the playing of the Hallelujah Chorus by Mr. Strick.

The following program was renedred:

Doxology
Hymn 106—"O Worship the King"
Organ Solo ..... A. H. Strick
Chorus—"Gloria" ..... Buzzia-Peccia
String Trio—"Air" ..... Tenaglio
Quartette—"One Sweetly Solemn Thought" ..... Junior Quartette
"Panis Angelicus" ..... Choral Club
Announcements
Offertory
Soprano Solo ..... Irene Leake
Offertory Chant
"Overture to Messiah" ..... Handel
Soprano Solo ..... Irene Leake
Contralto solo ..... Elsie Carter
"Lost Chord" ..... Choral Club
Benediction
Organ Postlude ..... Handel

The Junior Class dedicates this issue of The Rotunda To the one we hold dearest in our hearts—Miss Iler!

MODERN LANGUAGES BAZAAR FEBRUARY 11

On February 11 for a brief two hours, the recreational hall became two lands of enchantment. Spain, with its gaily dressed senoritas and the Spanish "vendedores" who explained artfully the value of one's money, and offered the travelers beautiful gifts for sale. Through the Pyrenees one entered into France where again the usage of French money gave one, not used to it, many interesting vexations.

Miss Gertrude Mannes and Miss Irene Leake, accompanied by Miss Lucie Anne Lane were the soloists for the afternoon. They were assisted by the members of the French and Spanish classes who gave group songs

Special French peasant dances and tap dances gave variety to the program.

During the afternoon hot chocolate, tea and sandwiches were served.

Spain and France! Lands of enchanting mysteries—some are known and some are yet to be told.

Each year new ones are unfolded in the annual bazaar.

TAKES LEADING ROLE IN MAY DAY FESTIVAL

Mary Shelton has accepted the leading role in the May Day festival to be given at Longwood, May 7. The character part requires the dramatic ability, poise, and good stage appearance which Mary has.

Her place as one of the twelve attendants in the May Court will be taken by Lindsey White who came next in the list of nominations.

Faculty Upsets The Confident Freshmen 17-11

Exhibiting all the pep their name implies the Flashy Faculty brought the Feeble Freshmen to defeat on Friday night, February 12 with a score of 17-11.

Having circled the gym, the uniformed faculty cheering squad led by Mr. Bell, came to a halt and gave fifteen rahs for their team, which followed them on the court. The echo was then picked up by the freshmen, who gave their players a great send-off.

The spectators, packed in the galleries, kept the cheering going from beginning to end. Cares were forgotten, troubles were banished, hilarity ruled supreme. The walls of the old gym literally vibrated as the audience roared, watching the battle between the Faculty, stripped of their dignity, and the lowly Freshmen.

From the rich Faculty line-up shone several stars, namely: Moran, Bedford and Iler. From the Feshman ranks Judith Taylor was outstanding.

The way in which the Flashy Faculty piled up their score soon proved that the Freshmen, who had so thoughtfully provided a step-ladder for their opponents had need of it themselves.

Between halves (the pause that refreshes) the swagger cheering squad of the Faculty sauntered out once

(Continued on page 4.)

DELEGATES INVITED TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Winter Park, Fla., Feb. 17—The International Relations Club of State Teachers College has been invited to end delegates to the Southeastern Conference of International Relations Club to be held at Rollins College from February 24 to 27, it was announced here today.

Sixty-eight clubs in the eight southeastern states are members of the conference which meets annually under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International ePace.

The conference has as its aim the formation of closer contacts among the member colleges, the exchange of ideas concerning the activities of the clubs and the discussion of topics of timely interest in world affairs. United States and World Peace is to be the main topic to be considered at the Ninth Annual Conference with discussions on the League of Nations, the eKllogg Pact, the World Court and Disarmament.

DEBATE CLUB TO HOLD MEETING

"Should smoking be permitted at S. T. C.," is the question for debate at the regular Debate Club meeting Thursday night, February 18th at 8 o'clock. The affirmative will be upheld by Misses Lottie Dixon and Mildred Linthicum; the negative by Misses Margaret Murray and Elizabeth March. Besides an interesting program, an important business meeting is to be held. Every member is urged to be present.

Red and White Are Victorious In Class Games

Seniors Win Out In Championship Series of Basketball Games

GAMES ARE HARD FOUGHT

The Seniors defeated the Sophomores in a hard-fought game for the championship Monday night by a socre of 19 to 11. The game was one of the most thrilling ever played at S. T. C. Both teams played well, and the score was close throughout the entire game. Several times it was impossible to tell which team was leading but when the final score was announced the Seniors stood champions. The two sister classes fought each other in friendly rivalry, and the Sophomores smilingly gave the championship to the Seniors in their last fight in basketball.

The line-up was as follows:

Seniors		Sophomores
Souders	G	Kello
Hundley	G	Cooper
Boswell	F	Fraser
Clingenpeel	F.	Yeaman
Quisenberry	C	Parker
Edwards	S.C.	Holland

Substitute, Sophomores: Foster for Parker.

The Spohomores triumphed over the Freshmen, and the Seniors defeated the Juniors in two hard-fought basketball games Thursday night. All the teams worked hard for

Continued on page four

Jolly Junior Jubilee Will be Held Friday

Hold everything, girls! The Junior Class has planned a most entertaining program for you, to be presented on Friday night, February 26, in the college auditorium. The Jolly Junior Jubilee will please the gloomiest of audiences, and will bring back the smiles which the depression has depressed so. There is even a hint that Mary Todd will dance—and all of you know what that means.

The production will be divided into three parts. The first, under the direction of Mary Winston, will be a history of the dances from the dance of the cave men up through the Floradora girl—through the present—to a dance so vividly and startlingly futuristic that even the modern girl will gasp when she sees it.

The second division will be a real old time black minstrel under the direction of Alice Moore. Thirteen artistocrats of Coon Town form a suicide club in which one member must commit suicide at every meeting. The club meets once a year and then pellets are passed around. The one, who draws the pellet black all the way through, must be the next to go. Will it be Percy Lowshoes? or Carter Glass Swanson Whatcakes? or—? Come and see. Besides this feature the second act will present a quantity of negro spirtiuals—and, of course, jokes on you and on the faculty.

The third act? That is a secret. Suffice it to say it is under the direction of Frances Potts—and we warn you not to buy your new spring frock until you see what the Juniors have under their hats. Come and see—bring your friends and your dates. The admission is only 25 cents and there are five laughs for every penny!

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

EDITORIAL

Washington Lives!

Patriotism, Washington, Bicentennial,—these are the words of the day. Do they mean anything other than a holiday, a few lectures and an outward show of patriotism? Is Washington a bronze statue or a living ideal?

If there were ever a need for the courageous persevering spirit of that first great American—it is now. Our country has again reached a crisis comparable in many ways to the crisis of 1776. We are not fighting men (let us hope we won't); we are fighting forces far more powerful and destructive than the "Redcoats" ever were. We are fighting an army of corrupt forces: crime, disaster, economic depression, unemployment, lawlessness and war itself! We are fighting a war against war! The unconquerable spirit of George Washington lives today in the hearts of the American people, who strive not as colonies fighting with cannon for independence from a more powerful country, but as a great nation fighting with all the strength of her honest men for a just government, international peace, and an ideal life for every American.

Mid-Term Procrastination

It is easy at the beginning of the term, when our slates are clean, to be enthusiastic over our work. With the inspiration and aspirations that come with a fresh start we feel we can "go forth and conquer the world". However, as the days go by there is a tendency to grow careless, and let our work slide. We froget that New Year's resolution of not putting off tomorrow what we can do today. We allow our work to become a drudgery and as such we cannot expect to accomplish the most. The procrastinator can expect only mediocre results and with mediocre results our work is monotonous and uninteresting. We lose our zeal and enthusiasm. When examinations come along we find ourselves in a desperate situation—swamped on all sides with work. Can we not lok a few weeks ahead and see we are being very unwise? Can we not profit by last term's experience?

THE SNUFF BOX

Hello—ooh! Hello! Mr. Redhead? Well, here's good news for you—this is Martha Sanders. How would you like to take me to heaven with you? —no ,this is not just another proposal; I really mean it. We're celebrating George Washington's birthday—yeh, old George, you know. We thought maybe he'd like to stir up his spirit and catch up with the rest of the world after letting it go by for such a long time. I've got old "Ossie"—unhuh—she's a bird on wings and can fly like—well, she can when she's all there and I think all the missing links were connected after the last crash. Sure, it'll be safe, all right—and anyway, you wouldn't mind, would you—if—if Ossie misbehaved —Oh, I mean, wrecked himself?

That's that, then. We'd just be two more lost souls if—well, that is a bit off the subject, isn't it? What I'm driving at is this: When I'm rather high—now, Mr. Redhead! Well, then —when I'm looping around those clouds, my sense of direction just hangs on to the nearest stopping place and leaves me in mid-air, wondering which is up and which is down; which is heaven and which is —er—the South—so you see where you come in. If I once get headed the wrong way, I'll be bringing the devil up to look over his future kindlin, rather than giving the Father of our country a lift——well, a let down, then—to the remnants of his once happy land. By the way, I'd like to get my wings fitted when we get there, so I'll be used to the feel of them—and can wear them as gracefully as Martha Walters will—what's that about my only chance?—it may be Martha's, but not mine! Sure you know "Washie" will be in heaven—he refrained from narrating blanched falsehoods didn't he? All right then, be ready and waiting on the church steeple. I'll pick you up—what? Oh, it's just an art! Don't forget the pass word. I'd hate to have my nose dangling on the other side of the Pearly Gates!"

B-r-r-r — whir-r-r-r! Knock! — Knock!

"Open up—St. Peter!"'

"Well, well—if it isn't Martha Sanders and Mr. Redhead! I never expected to see you here Martha—Oh, no offense! You say you want George Washington—I'll have to look up his record and see if he has permission to go. Here it is! 'Born; cut down cherry tree; didn't tell a lie; Father of his country; President of U. S.; died . . ' Just a minute now! Here he is—Angel Washington you have been summoned to earth so get your toothbrush and snuff box and depart—but mind you—'let not the earthly pleasures so enthrall you that you linger too long and the gates be closed'."

"Even so, St. Peter, even so—and now, children, I entrust my self to you——What! A monster is upon us —nothing is safe beyond the gates."

"Cheer up, Geo——Mr. Washington, that's my airplane—this is your introduction to the new world. Hold on now!" whisk! The earth again! "Goodness, you look a little ashy—take a bit of snuff—Now just a real friendly warning—be very careful about the bids you get. That's a fine costume you have and the Dramatic Club knows a good thing!"

"Behold, dear lady—even now my eyes deceive me—could these be human beings or have you not carried me farther down than you intended."

"Sssh—don't hurt the girls' 'feelings—they've dressed up for you—no—not undressed."

"Alas, what has this world come to—that must be a degenerate in a swimming gown!"

"Swimming gown?—ooh—bathing suit!—no eeck! Get in that dining room so the girls won't break their craning necks—that is a gym suit! I'm afraid these modern attires are too much for eyes of 1799. Come on quick—Here's hoping we don't have beans!

We hear that one of the students at V. P. I. received his grades the other day, and to his surprise he received five "B's" and one "F." The "F" was made in the course, "How to Study."

The girls of Allegheny College have drawn up a petition to get back their right to walk with men on the campus in the daytime. This privilege has been recently refused them.

SMART SAYINGS OF S. T. C. CELEBRITIES

Henrietta Cornwell: "I'm not the original intelligentia you think I am. I'm really human under the skin, and the biological urge smoulders beneath it all."

Ruth Hunt: "I'm not the martyr you think I am; I love to go to medical dances."

Frances Edwards: "You think I'm the original Olympics but I love high heels."

Laeta Barham: "Really, I'm not as sensitive as I may seem. I cut my hair and go ultra-modern."

Grace Virginia Woodhouse: "I'm not as discreet as you think I am; I weaken on that navy line."

Martha Kello: "Really, I'm sure particular than you think I am, for I think the Sophomores are the most wonderful people in the world."

Martha Walters: "I'm not the siren everyone thinks me and not as much like Greta Garbo as you may believe. I do want to be everybody's pal."

Jenilee Knight: "Really, I'm not as bright as I seem all the time; I do frown sometimes."

Alice Moore: "I must admit that I really do like the government underneath, but I still hold to my motto, 'Grace Virginia and her police force are hopeless'."

Margaret Gathright: "I really am not as much in love as I seem—I've just always had a weakness for these tall guys."

Margaret Banks: "I've really got a serious side but remember girls—we're not young but once."

Medora Ford: "Although I'm considered a very sophisticated and sedate Indian queen, I break through my reserve sometimes and chew chewing gum and have a big time."

Jane Royall: "Of course I'm cultured enough to enjoy the finest of everything but I adore to sneak off and read Ballyhoo."

AVERAGES IN HONOR ORGANIZATIONS FOR FALL

Organization	Members	Av.
Pi Kappa Delta	4	2.48
Highest average Carrie DeShazo		2.70
Kappa Delta Pi	15	2.42
Highest av., Susie Floyd, Bessie Lynch		3.00
Sigma Pi Rho	18	2.34
Highest av. .... Virginia Gee and Bessie Lynch		3.00
Pi Gamma Mu	22	2.29
Highest average, Susie Floyd, Bessie Lynch and Doris Robertson		3.00
Alpha Kappa Gamma	13	1.93
Highest av. Easter Souders		2.70
Alpha Phi Sigma	128	1.90
Highest av., Susie Floyd, Virginia Gee, Mary C. Jones, Bessie Lynch, Doris Robertson, Anne Traylor, Dorothy Weems		3.00

Alpha Phi Sigma is the only honor society which is open to Freshmen; valedictorians and salutatorians of high schools are automatically eligible for membership. Delta Chapter has 35 Freshmen members with an average of 1.59.

Freshmen	0.98	0.80
Sophomore	1.14	1.30
Juniors	1.50	1.59
Seniors	1.54	1.75
Student body	1.24	1.36

JUNIOR STAFF

Editor ..... Margaret Gathright
Assistant ..... Jane Royall
News Editor ..... Lillian Womack
Literary Editor ..... Margaret Hix
Athletic Editor ..... Frances Potts
Intercollegiate ..... Margaret Jack
Social Editor ..... Helen Cover
Feature Editor ..... Ruth Floyd
Humorous Ed. .... Martha Sanders

Reporters

Winston Cobb — Maria Warren
Lois Rhodes — Lady Boggs
Proof Readers — Mary Thomas Rawls and Lois Cox.
Circulation ..... Lucille Ingram
Assistant ..... Lucille Crute

REFLECTION

Do your thoughts ever drift in an aimless way
To the people of fame of a by-gone day?
Can you picture yourself with the favored few,
Doing the things that they used to do?

Is there charm for you in the Colonial day—
The powdered wig and the chivalrous way?
Can you fancy yourself in the minuet
With Washington or Lafayette?

J. B. R., '33

DISILLUSIONMENT

My sky was clear and bright
And full of stars whose light
Was clean white fire;
Birds flying upward on pure wings
Notes bursting from their silver
Throats that spoke of finer things.

My sky is dull drab-gray
And dimlit with the sickly ray
Of stars that coldly fade;
A hideous bat on dark frightening wings
Swops where the pale mist
Droops—shrieks nameless things
And darts away.

M. E. G., '33

SLEEP

Sleep is a great dark something
That soothes us and carries us somewhere
Where we remember nothing—
For a little while.

J. B. R., '33

JUST A PICTURE—YET?

Your'e so cold and heartless
Most irresponsive, you know;
You're just a picture in a frame—
Why do I love you so?

You're not exactly like him
'Cause he always smiles, you know;
You're just a picture of someone—
Why do I love you so?

And when I'm feeling blue
I happen to glance your way, you know;
You make me cheer up and smile—
Why do I love you so?

I see you there every day
A symbol of love, you know;
But I do love you so!

"H" '33

A little explained
A little endured
A little forgiveness
And a quarrel is cured!

"H" '33

ISN'T IT?

As is was in Washington's time,
So it is today:
"A kiss, a sigh
A fond goodby
And then he's gone—
A gleam, a smile
Another girl—and—
So the whole world goes on."

"H" '33

TIME

Time is too slow for those who wait,
To swift for those who fear,
Too long for those who grieve,
Too short for those who rejoice.
But for those who love—
Time is ternity.

Peabody

The Junior Class wishes to congratulate the Freshmen and Sophomores on their excellent issues of the Rotunda.

SOCIAL SLIPS FROM THE HOME OFFICE

Those girls who spent the week-end in Richmond are: Frances Dorin, Nancy Burgwyn, Mildred Hope, Lindsey White, Ruth Floyd, Elizabeth Fields, Virginia Fox, Vernie Oden, Lucille Tiller and Jane Royall.

• • •

Margaret Copenhaver and Catherine Jones were guests of Kathryn Royster in Lynchburg, Va.

• • •

Celia Jones, Louise Van Lear, Thelma Walsh, and Josie Spencer were also in Lynchburg for the week-end.

• • •

Burnley Brockenborough spent the week-end at her home in Greensboro, North Carolina.

• • •

Lillian Hogan, Mamie Barnes, Garnett Hodges, Mary Howard, Lois Barnes, "Libby" Mason and Dorothy Waynick went to Roanoke for the week-end.

• • •

Grace and Alice Rowell were guests of Mary Catherine Taylor at State Farm, Virginia.

• • •

Nancy Shaner and Dorothy Thomas were in Lexington for the week-end.

• • •

Jean McClure spent the week-end at her home in Spottswood, Va.

Frances Dillon was in Indian Rock, Va., for the week-end.

• • •

Patty Ellison and Belle Lovelace were guests of Mary Conway at Orange, Virginia.

• • •

Others spending the week-end at Orange were: Margaret Banks, Betsy Wilkinson, Wycliff Scott, Mary B. Nelson, and Mary Arthur Billups.

• • •

Katherine Logan, Phyllis Denit and Charlotte Oakey were in Salem, Va., for the week-end.

• • •

Martha Cross, Katherine McLemore, and Margaret Parker spent the week-end at their homes in Suffolk, Va.

• • •

Those spending the week-end in Norfolk, Va., were: Frances Rawlings, Antoinette Jones, Virginia Bledsoe, and Mary Lou Fritts.

• • •

Clara MacKenzie, Catherine Claud, and Charlotte Hutchins were in Portsmouth, Va., for the week-end.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY MID-WINTER DANCES

The German Club of Hampden-Sydney College is giving its annual mid-winter dances on February 19 and 20. What an excellent affair this promises to be! Quite a widely known national broadcasting orchestra, directed by Sleepy Hall, has been secured by the management.

The set of dances includes not only those on Friday and Saturday nights but also a new feature—the Saturday afternoon dansant.

NEW MEMBERS OF SORORITIES CHOSEN

Pan-Hellenic wishes to announce the following affiliations:

Sigma Sigma Sigma:
Mary Scott Martin

Gamma Theta:
Frances Dorin

Delta Sigma Chi:
Mary Alice Young

Mu Omega:
Mildred Gwaltney
Margaret Young

Zeta Tau:
Christine Childrey.

S. T. C. Prettiest To Reign As Queen

Cut courtesy Times-Dispatch

MISS MEDORA FORD of Lexington, the first S. T. C. student in several years to be chosen as May Queen and the most beautiful girl on the campus, will reign over the May festivities at Longwood this year.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, MISS ILER!

The Juniors thought it most accommodating of Miss Iler to be born on the 13th of February because it gave them an excellent theme for a party. Anyone fortunate enough to get a peep in to the Little Sitting Room, Saturday night, would hardly have recognized it in its gay Valentine decorations. Red streamers (yes, red!) twisted themselves from the corners of the ceiling up to the chandelier, fell and ended in hearts of various sizes. A center table was decorated in an enormous satin heart and red candles. A red glow from the center chandelier, and candlelight was the only illumination, which was very flattering to the pajama-clad Juniors and their guests-of-honor, Miss Iler, Miss Moran and Miss Hatchett. Games (have you ever played "sniffle?", a birthday cake, Alice Moore, songs, and a victrola, all did their part towards making the party an enjoyable one. Girls in the nearby rooms testify that food, noise and general high-spirits were abundant.

MISS MARY—HOSTESS

Wednesday night, February 10, at six o'clock the girls from eight tables in the dining room were the delighted guests at another of Miss Mary's "memorable dinners."

The girls, gathered in a semi-circle around the fire, were served a lovely three course dinner. Grace Virginia Woodhouse and A. J. Scott poured coffee, assisted by the various table hostesses.

After dinner Miss Potts played many favorite songs which all sang together with much glee. Quite a marked expression of disappointment showed on each girl's face when the 730 bell caused the party to come to an end.

GIRLS ENTERTAINED

Miss Craddock, Mrs. Tabb, Mrs. Warren, and Miss Taliaferro, entertained a number of girls of Cunningham Hall at a delightful tea Sunday afternoon.

VALENTINE SING

There are ways and ways of saying those "three little words," some of which were depicted on the sing program Saturday night. Before the very eyes of a group of evening-begowned youth, a simple country lad (Martha Walters' versatility) is amazing isn't it?) managed to wax poetic, after many gestures of embarrassment, timidity and much stuttering, to "Miss Pigtails" (Ruth Ford) whose dress was quite revealing, even if it was gingham.

Margaret Barker did the honors on the piano, and with her best Crawford voice told a delightful matrimonial tale.

Mary Shelton and Chic Mosby were almost too natural in their Apache number. Where did Mary take chewing gum lessons? It was well done.

Dan Cupid himself appeared and although he left his bow and arrow at home, he brought along his "happy feet" and was obliged to do an encore. Glenn Perry truly has them under control, hasn't she?

Martha Sanders was master of ceremonies — what a man! She and Mary Alice Young did a little skip that left quite a bit to the imagination. Us thick-skulls suffered during this number.

Sing ended sweetly with a shower of candy hearts for the heart-hungry student body.

Y. W. C. A. ENTERTAINS

The Y. W. C. A. entertained a group of Freshmen last Saturday night from 10 to 11 o'clock, at a party in the lounge. Clever stories were told by Virginia Thornhill and Nancy De Berry. Ruth Hunt played the piano; the Haskins twins sang several selections, and everyone took part in playing a few games.

Sandwiches, drinks, candy, and nuts were served.

The Freshman Commission is still in charge of the cleaning business. If you wish to have any clothes cleaned, put your name and room number on a piece of paper and put it in the box under the Y. W. Bulletin board.

Dr. Walmsley's Sunday School class had a delightful little party in the lounge last Friday night. Cleo Quisenberry was in charge of the entertainment, so everyone was highly entertained, of course. Besides playing games and engaging in contests, everyone sang songs of all kinds.

The evening was complete only after the serving of refreshments, tea, sandwiches and mints.

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

YOU ARE INVITED
To Visit the New
LOUISE SHOPPE
HOTEL WEYANOKE
Latest Creations in Sport and Evening Dresses, Coats, Hosiery, Etc.
Prices Range From
$5.00 to $16.75

Willis.... Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

DRESS UP GIRLS!
We're Ready With Easter Apparel!
Teasingly Pretty New Spring Hats $1.00, $1.95 & $2.95
Lovely New Coats. We have 'em $5.95 & $9.95
New collarless styles
Newest Spring Shoes $2.95 & $3.95
are heer
Knit Sport Dresses and Suits
$1.98 $2.95 & $4.95
Snappiest Dresses in town. Prices to suit everyone!
The Hub Department Store
Offers best values always—Hosiery Sale this week!

JOKES

Frances Dorin (shyly): "Am I the first girl you ever kissed?"

Hampden-Sydney "Now that you mention it you do look familiar. Didn't I see you at a dance about six years ago?"

Jerry Lee "Who was that girl you just spoke to?"

Billy Powell: "Never mind, dear, I'll have enough trouble telling her who you are."

Mary Custis (sweetly): "I'm just crazy about rings."

Phelgar (innocently): "What is your phone number?"

Guard: "Hey, Cadet, are you going to kiss that girl?"

Cadet (Straightening up) (with chic: "No."

Guard: "Here, then, hold my rifle."

Mr.—: "I want to insert a notice of the birth of my twins."

Reporter: "Will you repeat that, sir?"

Mr.—: "Not if I know it."

"Thanks for the hug and kiss."

"Don't mention it—the pressure was all mine."

Pete: "I'd ask you for the next dance, Jenilee, but all the cars are occupied."

Pupil: "Teacher, did you ever do anything wrong?"

Betsy: "Well, Johnnie, did George Washington ever do anything wrong?""

Little Girl: "I know something I won't tell . . "

Adult: "You'll get over that when you get to college."

The tattooed lady lost her job because nowadays people want talking pictures.

Cover: "But dear, can't we live on love?"

Tom: "Sure, your father loves you, doesn't he?"

"We are now passing the most famous brewery in Berlin," exclaimed the guide.

"We are not," replied the American tourist as he hopped off the bus.

When Mary Harrison was told she had scoliosis she thought it meant she was collegiate.

Grace Virginia: "That girl across the hall has a singular voice."

A. J.: Thank goodness it isn't plural."

Nedra's Father: "The man who marries my daughter will want a lot of money."

Harry: "Well, sir, nobody wants it more than I do."

Life and Liberty are on sale at every magazine stand. I suppose they will have The Pursuit of Happiness out before long.

LAST CHANCE TO SIGN FOR THE VIRGINIAN

The Virginia staff wishes to urge the students to subscribe to their annual as soon as possible. It is very necessary that each student subscribe; since, the staff cannot publish an annual without the support of each individual. We have set the 27th of February to be the last possible date in which one can subscribe to the annual. The table will be kept in the hall every Thursday and Friday, at which time anyone can have the opportunity of paying one dollar or more for her annual.

DR. B. R. LACY TO SPEAK HERE ON SUNDAY

Dr. Benjamin R. Lacy, president of Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, will speak at Farmville Presbyterian church Sunday evening, February 21. The subject of his address is "Gambling with Life". S. T. C. students are cordially invited. Those girls who heard Dr. Lacy last year will take advantage of this opportunity of hearing him again. There will be music by the Hampden-Sydney Glee Club, S. T. C. Choral Club, and Miss Elsie Carter, soloist of Pamplin, Va.

NEW MEMBERS OF THE PALETTE CLUB

The Pallette Club wishes to announce the following new members:

Jean Allen Bowles
Nancy Burgwyn
Ida Bell Foster
Mildred Foskey
Mary Easley Hill
Virginia Fox
Elizabeth Doyne
Martha Walters
Betty Shields
Gertrude Sugden

"JEVER?"

Jever hear Banks sing?
Jever see Dorin dance?
Jever hear Moomaw talk?
Jever hear Alice Moore laugh?
Jever hear Tots Smith play the piano?
Jever see Dot Snedegar play tennis?
Jever hear Henrietta Cornwell recite?
Jever see anybody as playful as Clayton?
Jever see Jenilee Knight smile?
Jever see Louise Elliott study?
Jever see Frances Edwards play basketball?
Jever see Mary Thomas Rawls when wasn't eating?
Jever see Freshmen loaf?
Jever see the Sophomores give a play?
Jever hear the Seniors harmonize?
Jever hear or see—

—A Junior?

He: "The biggest men get the prettiest girls."

She: "You conceited man."

FRESHMEN VERSUS THE FACULTY

Continued from page one

more to give an exhibition snake dance. The Freshmen redeemed themselves by giving a barn-yard dance. The overall-clad youths and gingham clad maidens showed that there were dancers in the class who surpassed the ball players.

In the last quarter, however, the players made a feeble attempt to retrieve, but were forced to bow to the Flashy Faculty, their superiors.

THE COLLEGE ORCHESTRA

The College Orchestra is quite busy now preparing for some very important engagements in the near future. Among these, come first, the Washington Bicentennial celebration on February 22; next, Founders Day when the orchestra plays in the college dining room for dinner; and, last, but not least, a dance orchestra program, featuring the natural dancing class under the direction of Mrs. Fitzpatrick, with orchestral accompaniment and the String Trio in special numbers.

In the spring quarter the orchestra goes on the road and will appear in several neighboring towns, giving an entire evening's entertainment.

A radio broadcast from Richmond over Station WRVA is also planned.

The instrumentation of the orchestra is larger than last year. The organization numbers among its members some musicians from the Farmville Silver Band, and the Conservatory of Music, who add much to the ensemble.

RED AND WHITE WINS OVER GREEN AND WHITE

Continued from page one

their colors and all four kept the spirti of the blue and white in the foreground for excellent sportsmanship prevailed throughout the entire evening. The teams showed the result of good preparation and hard work, for they all worked together for the team and for their class. Miss Iler, coach, is especially to be thanked, for her excellent coaching and her ideal sportsmanship showed itself at all times.

The Freshman-Sophomore game was close throughout, and even when the final whistle blew no one could predict the outcome. Because the teams were so evenly matched, the ball travelled from one end to the other only to be recovered by the guards and passed to the other end. The forwards of both teams rarely missed a shot at the goal which partly accounts for the close score. When the whistle blew for the end of the game the score was 26-19, Sophomore leading.

The line-up was as follows:

Freshmen		Sophomores
Beck	G	Kello
Putney	G	Cooper
Bosworth	F	Parker
Hurt	F	Fraser
Phillips	C	Holland
Mattox	S.C.	Sinclair

Sub: Parker for Holland, Foster for Sinclair, Yeaman for Parker.

Referee: Miss Helen Drinker.

Umpire: Hildegarde Ross.

The Junior-Senior teams were about evenly matched, and some very skillful playing was exhibtied by both teams. This game too was close and it was hard to predict the winner as the score at the first half stood 6-3, Seniors leading. The last half opened with each team determined to fight harder. The ball passed from player to player but Junior guards could not keep the Senior forwards from scoring. At the end of the game the score stood 17-5—Senior victory.

The line-up was:

Juniors		Seniors
Crute	G	Souders
Gunter	G	Hundley
Snedegar	F	Boswell
Sanford	F	Clingenpeel
Gregory	C	Quisenberry
Potts	S.C.	Edwards

Sub: Snedegar for Crute, Ridgeway for Snedegar.

Referee: Miss Helen Drinker.

Umpire: Elizabeth Burger.

This gives the red and whites ten points toward the color cup.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM FEB. 18 to 24

THURS. and FRI. — ROBERT MONTGOMERY and MADGE EVANS in "LOVERS COURAGEOUS." If a girl can't get married during Leap Year, then there's something wrong with her technique. But see what Bob Montgomery does when the girl pops the question, in the most delightful story of love and courage ever screened. It takes courage as well as love for an admiral's daughter and a penniless playwright to make a go of it in matrimony. She fled on her wedding eve to the arms of the man she truly loved—but that was only the beginning of their troubles; you must see what happens. Here is the Leap Year romance that will make you fall in love all over again. Montgomery's best role to date—don't miss it. Also Thelma Todd and Zazu Pitts Comedy and Paramount news.

SATURDAY—"CHARLIE CHAN'S CHANCE," with WARNER OLAND and LINDA WATKINS. A cunning killer at large—a big city terrorized—and the police of two continents helpless. Another Earl Derr Biggers mystery story. Here's mystery, romance and adventure, and creepy thrill as Chan solves his greatest mystery. A whole city terrorized—then Chan's shrewd eyes narrow down to a fugitive from justice, a crafty Oriental, a pent house millionaire and two beautiful women. Who was the murderer? Here is a picture-plus for your entertainment—it's great! Also Screen Souvenir and Fox News and Comedy.

NEXT MON. & TUES—"STRICTLY DISHONORABLE," PAUL LUKAS, SIDNEY FOX and LEWIS STONE. This story concerns the adventures of a charming Southern belle who meets the "great lover" in the heart of Broadway and then does not wish to go home. A great love story, rib-tickling sensations, swell dialogue and direction and performance as smooth as silk. One of the truly charming pictures of the season, that has crowded theatres in all the big cities. In gayety, suspense, dramatic tempo and unrelaxing entertainment, it surpasses all its rivals in the field of sophisticated comedy dramas. Boy, you'll enjoy this picture! A rare treat for the jaded appetites. It cost us plenty but we had to have it for we know it's a real picture. See duplicate of the gown Sidney Fox wears in the window of the Dorothy May Store. Also a "Pair of French Heels" and News.

NEXT WED. — "THE SILENT WITNESS," with LIONEL ATWILL and GRETA NISSEN. Who murdered Nora Selmar, the beautiful playgirl? One character confesses the crime, another is tried for it, while several others are suspected of being the real culprit. The real murderer is deftly concealed until the very end of this picture, but in the meantime you are kept on the edge of your seat suspecting every character in the play. Lovers of mystery, romance, drama and comedy will find this one very much to their liking. Atwill is new to pictures but has made a national reputation on the stage, and you will thrill to his superlative performance. Also Mickey McGuire Comedy and "Finn and Caddie."

"BATTLING WITH BUFFALO BILL" every Friday. An historical portrayal of the opening of the West—exciting and interesting—for old and young.

Daily matinees at 4 P. M. Evenings at 8 o'clock. Saturday matinees continuous from 2:15 to 6 P M

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

College Footwear

The new Prince of Wales novelty oxfords with cut-out front and wrap-around the ankle ties. In tan and smoked Elk. Priced only

$4

Other novelty pumps, etc., that win favor of college smartness.

$2.98 to $4

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE · STORE

BIG SISTERS AND LITTLE SISTERS

have no difficulty in being fitted at this exclusive dress store.

Exclusive doesn't mean high prices,, either. New spring dresses arriving daily and priced at only

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

COME
TO THE
JUNIOR SHOW

SUBSCRIBE
TO THE
VIRGINIAN

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1932 No. 19

Farmville Team Defeats Sweet Briar Saturday

Team Keeps Early Lead to Defeat Briarites, 37 to 16 In Exciting Contest

In a complete walk-away Farmville defeated the Sweet Briar tossers on the home court Saturday the final score being 37 to 16.

From the first minutes of play it was evident that Farmville would have little trouble running up its score. With fast pass-work, the ball went to the forwards again and again, points being added to the rapidly mounting score.

This swift play continued throughout the first half leaving the opposing team bewildered. The score at the end of the half stood 29-9.

At the very beginning of the second half Sweet Briar seemed to have put on new life. In the third quarter, Farmville was forced to do some real fighting. Sweet Briar blocked a number of passes and showed added strength in both offensive and defensive plays. The spectators were especially thrilled when one of the forwards made one long shot and the ball went rolling into the basket.

In the last quarter some of the life of the game died out. The passing was poor, making the game slow.

The last half was much tighter than the first, Sweet Briar adding seven points to her score, Farmville adding 8. The final socre was 37-16.

The student body showed much enthusiasm in their yells which were led by Alice Moore and Lindsay White.

Line-up:

Sweet Briar		Farmville
Hanson	R.F.	Frasier
Goodwyn	L.F.	Snedegar
Burford	J.C.	Gregory
Gablemain	S.C.	Edwards
Alcott	L.G.	Souders
Miller	R.G.	Beck

Substitutes: Sweet Briar: Burwell, Shirley, Mallory.

Farmville: Parker, Burger, Quisenberry Gunter, Hurt, Ridgeway, Putney.

Referee: Crenshaw (Westhampton)

Umpire: Hatchett (Petersburg)

Latin Club Gives Wash'n Program

At the regular meeting of Sodalitas Latina, February 19, an interesting program on George Washington was given. The program was as follows:

Preparation in the State for Washington Bi-centennial, Joyce Sturm.

Life of Washington (written by a Curdsville pupil), Sarah James.

Story of Washington written in Latin by Montgommery, Lucy Fitzgerald.

Cicero and Washington, Lois Cox and Edith Shanks.

The last feature on the program was a debate on the question, "Is Washington greater as a statesman than as a soldier." The affirmative was upheld by Lucy Powell and the negative by Mildred Linthicum. Although both sides had good papers, the decision of the judges was in favor of the affirmative.

At the conclusion of the program an interesting Washington game was enjoyed by every one. Each person formed a smany Latin words as she could from the name George Washington.

N. E. A. CONVENTION HELD IN WASHINGTON

The Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association opened its national convention in Washington February 20 and will close February 25. Representatives from Farmville are Miss Jeter, Miss Barlow, Miss Nichols, Miss Pierce, Dr. Stevens, Miss Taliaferro.

The convention theme is "Education, our Guide, and our Safeguard, and one of the Chief Sources of our Spiritual Life, our Cultural Growth, and our Material Power". Phases of this general theme will be treated in various meetings. Several interesting subjects to be discussed are, "The Present Crisis and Public Education," "Education for a Changing Social Economic, and Political World," and "Education as a Source of Our Spiritual Life and Cultural Growth."

Some of the prominent speakers for the convention are N. R. Crozier, Dallas, Texas; Florence Hale, president of N. E. A.; W. A. Sutton, Atlanta, Ga., and F. G. Blair, Springfield, Ill.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUBS OPEN MEETING TODAY

From February 24 to the 27 Rollins College at Winter Park, Florida, is acting as host to the ninth annual conference of International Relations Clubs. The International Relations Clubs are financed by the Carnegie Endowment for international peace, and the main theme of this year's conference is "The United States and World Peace."

The topics to be studied and discussed in detail at the conference are:

1. America and the New Internationalism.

2. United States and the League of Nations: The Kellogg Pact.

3. The United States and the World Court.

5. The United States and Disarmament.

6. The Depression as an International Problem.

Among the outstanding men who have been secured to discuss the above subjects are: Irving Fisher, James G. MacDonald, Dr. Cullen B. Gosnell and Dr. Hamilton Holt of Rollins College.

MISSION SCHOOL MEETS AT FARMVILLE CHURCH

The annual school of missions was held at the Presbyterian Church Feb. 16, 17 and 18. The visiting churches were Jamestown, Prospect, and College churches.

The faculty consisted of Miss Snead, teacher for the women's class; Professor Freeman H. Hart, who taught the young girls class; Mr. J. A. Redhead, teacher for the intermediate boys; Mrs. H. C. Alexander, teacher for the junior class; Mrs. F. H .Hanbury, teacher for the primary department; Mrs. A. D. Watkins, teacher for the intermediate girls, and W. T. Williams, teacher for the men. The average attendance of 176 was proof enough of the interest manifested in the school. The collection which amounted to $131.20 will be used for furthering the cause of Christ.

The young girls' class learned of the mission work of the Southern Presbyterian Church, its problems at home and in the foreign fields, and of the work that is yet to be done. All of the classes had similar discussions.

Continued on page three

JUNIOR SHOW TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY, FEB. 26

Follies of the Future Featured In Performance To Be Given Feb. 26

Only two more days! Then comes the Jolly Junior Jubilee! Friday night, Feb. 26 at 8 o'clock the curtain in the auditorium will be raised to show one of the most spectacular events of the year. Everyone, buy your ticket now. They are on sale everywhere.

Can you imagine what a treat is in store for you? Nothing like it has been seen in Farmville before. The Follies of 1932 will certainly look like a back number compared to the Follies of 1972. Come and see the Follies of the Future!

The history of the dance is very picturesque. Dances taken from the "good old days" are portrayed. The caveman's dance, the Egyptain's, the minuet—all these we see before our very eyes!

In the second act we see a complete change. This is the first meeting of the "Coontown Thirteen Club"—Suicide is their ambition; death is their goal! Who is the "lucky" member, who gets his "choice of death?" These aristocratic coons entertain their "fortunate" brother, whose lot is death, by songs and speeches. See the farewell given to the departing member!

When the curtain rises for the third act you see—ah! that is a mystery. For what have the Juniors under their hats? A modern Cinderella finds her Prince Charming by the side of the Jolly Junior Jubilee. The mysterious third act is a revelation that must not be missed!

Tickets are on sale everywhere! Buy yours now! You have only two more days before the Jolly Junior Jubilee!

Come! Come! Come!!

Worsham Gets Radio Through Friends of School

Through the kindness and influence of a friend of music and of rural schools who wishes to remain unknown, a radio has been installed in the school at Worsham, Virginia

The student teachers are finding the radio a valuable means of teaching the appreciation of music to the rural children. Efforts are made for the children to listen in on the Walter Damrosch music appreciation programs.

The pupils are very much interested in the radio and they were delight in being able to get the bicentennial programs broadcasted from different stations on Monday February 22.

In the radio lies the means of presenting a great many opportunities and pleasures for the children in our rural schools.

THE VIRGINIAN HOLDS CONTEST

The Virginian staff is holding a contest this week, ending Saturday at noon to get subscriptions. The person who gets the highest number will get an annual free provided she has at least ten subscriptions. If anyone who has already subscribed should win the contest, her subscription fee will be refunded.

Saturday, February 27, is the last day on which subscriptions can be taken.

METHODIST STUDENT CONFERENCE OF VA.

The third annual session of the Methodist Student Conference of Virginia will meet at William and Mary College in Williamsburg on March 4, 5, 6, 1932. The sessions of the Conference will be held in the Methodist Church adjoining the college campus. It is expected that delegates from all of the colleges in Virginia will be in attendance.

The theme of the Conference will be: "What Can Men Believe?" The program will consist of addresses by prominent educators and workers with students, followed by forums and group discussions. Among those scheduled to speak are: Dr. J. M. Culbreth, director of student work for the Methodist church; Dr. Jno. Knox of Fisk University; Dr. Wm. Archer Wright executive secretary of the Virginia Conference Board of Education; Dr. J. D. Blocker of William and Mary College; Dr. J. D. Mathews of New York; Dr. Rammon H. Leach of the same city; and Rev. H. E. Cromer of Salisbury, Md. Miss Zoe Anna Davis of the factulty of William and Mary College will preside over the conference. A tour of historic points of interest around Williamsburg and vicinity will be an attractive feature of the Conference.

S. T. C. REPRESENTED AT CONVOCATION OF KAPPA DELTA PI

Misses Susie Floyd and Mary Nichols are representatives of the Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi which is convening at the Burlington Hotel, Washington, D. C., on February 22 and 24.

The program of the convocation consists of lectures and a series of round table discussions led by well known educators on subjects of universal concern. An interesting feature will be the convocation dinner which will occur at the Washington Hotel in the Hall of Nations on Tuesday evening at 6:30 p. m. On this occasion Dr. William Heard Kilpatrick, nationally and internationally known teacher and philosopher of Teachers College, Columbia University will give the address—the fourth in the Kappa Delta Pi lecture series.

FAR EASTERN SITUATION DISCUSSED BY SOCIETY

On Wednesday night, February 17, the local chapter of Pi Gamma Mu held an open session in the lounge to discuss the situation in China and Manchuria. Members of the faculty and student body were invited to attend and take part in the meeting.

The discussion was led by Louise Elliott, chairman of the program committee, and nearly every one of the large crowd who filled the lounge took part. Attention was centered on Japan's real interest in Manchuria and the development there under her rule. Less than a quarter of a century ago Japan entered the barren wastes of Manchuria to develop the resources of this area. Tday, due to Japanese influence and finance Manchuria is a thickly populated region. Within the past ten years six million Chinese have journeyed north to Manchuria to enjoy the progress and protection offered to people in this area. Railroads connect the hinter land of Manchuria and Manchuria proper with the outside powers of Eastern Asia, and it was the Chinese bandits stopping trains from run-

(Continued on page 3)

Washington's Bi-Centennial Is Celebrated

Town People and Students Participate In Program, February 22

Monday, Feb. 22, 1932, was celebrat throughout the nation as the two hundredth anniversary of George Washington's birth. People everywhere stopped work—either to engage in or attend activities which did honor to the Father of His Country. Nor did these activities end on the twenty-second. They merely ushered in the beginning of the great Washington Bi-centennial celebration whic hwill be continued during the year of 1932.

Farmville played its part in a country's tribute to its greatest national hero on February 22 with program both in the town and in the college.

The celebration at S. T. C. was an all day one. Only the eight and nine o'clock classes were met, and school was suspended for the day at ten o'clock.

The morning program, which took place at ten o'clock in the auditorium was in charge of the College Training School. All the grades from the kindergarten through the fourth year high school brought forth some fact which made Washington live again for the audience.

The high school pupils presented a series of talks, excellently prepared and rendered on the most important phases of Washington's life.

The kindergarten and first grade revealed to the audience that Washington was a lover of children. The curtains parted on a tiny boy dressed as George Washington standing straight and tall and holding a miniature sword. A group of small boys and girls stood back of him singing songs of George Washington and waving flags. The first grade, Toy Symphony Band played the music for the little folks to march off the stage.

As a young man Washington had many encounters with both hostile and friendly Indians. The third grade pupils dressed in Indian costumes presented a very realistic Indian war dance, even to the Indian yells. This group of Indians was

(Continued on page 4.)

Young Pianist Delights Audience

The faculty and student body were delighted with the piano recital given by Miss Ruth Peters, Saturday morning, February 20, in chapel.

"Ruth," as we like to call her, is from Richmond, Virginia. She is eleven years old, and has studied music only four years. These years have been spent under the direction of Mr. Winston T. Bolling, Jr., of Richmond. Mr. Bolling comes from a family of musicians, and he is a well-known teacher of music in Richmond.

Miss Peters is an artist who, in all probability, will make her mark in the world. Her power of interpretation coupled with her finished technique delighted the entire audience.

The program consisted of varied selections from the great composers. The audience was particularly pleased with the "Sonata in G minor" of Beethoven, and the "Moment Musicale" of Schubert.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

Editorials

Intellectual Honesty

On the editorial page of the Richmond Times Dispatch for February 19 was this statement, "Charles Lamb's Tales from Shakespeare are not Shakespeare." The implication is, of course, that some people read Lamb for a knowledge of Shakespeare, which is true. Not only does this apply to pseudo-discussers of the great dramatist, but to know about other great writers as well.

It is true that in the rush of modern living one cannot always find time to read a long five-act play, a six hundred page novel, or a greatly involved poem. Especially difficult is it to get this time in school here when there are so many things to do.

But we really cannot cheat ourselves of our great literary heritage with the simple excuse, lack of time. Book reviews are so superficial. One can never know Dickens except by reading him. Browning's profundity is merely a word, an apology for our mental laziness. One reads that Shakespeare wrote a play about the division of a kingdom with a theme of filial ingratitude; but what does that tell us of the overpowering masterpiece, King Lear?

We owe it to ourselves to read great books themselves rather than reading about them. We must form our own opinions instead of depending on what somebody else thinks. Else how can we ever develop our minds and characters?

Examinations

Examination time is almost here again, and the old question arises—What are we going to do with exams? Are we going to hate them, or tolerate them as necessary evils, or are we going to profit by them?

We don't have exams because the faculty likes to grade papers, or even because it is a good way of checking up. The members of the faculty know in most cases what grade a pupil will get when the term is half through. Examinations are for our benefit, to help us organize the course, arrange our knowledge, and have an orderly mind. It is up to us to do the best we can with them. You know the way to do that—to keep the halls quiet, to refrain from making so many personal visits during study hour, and to study efficiently.

Let's see if we can't make this the best term we've ever had, and all get A on everything!

OPEN FORUM

Dear Editor:

There is a little thoughtless habit which some of us have allowed ourselves to form, which sometimes causes a great deal of unnecessary work. We sometimes forget, but we all know that the proof for the Rotunda of Wednesday night is brought up on Tuesday night to be proofread. When that is done, the paper has to be made up. Deciding where things are to go sounds like a simple thing to do, but it is a job that takes hours for completion, with the composing of headlines, balancing the paper, and rating articles.

Now, the careless habit spoken of is that of failing to hand our articles in on time. It must be that we don't realize the trouble we are causing by being late. If any article does not come in by lunch time on Tuesday, it means that make-up editor has to count every word in it, measure exactly the space that those words will cover and sometimes change the whole arrangement of the paper to get in a last minute write-up.

Think about it! and do something about it!—A Senior.

HONOR SOCIETIES

Membership in an honor fraternity should form one of the highest aspirations in a student's academic and extra-curricular life in college. Not only does it make for higher standards in the various phases of work, but it serves as a source of influence and inspiration to each individual and draws the group into a coordinating well-knit unit having one common purpose in view.

We have seven honor societies on campus:

Kappa Delta Pi recognizes scholarship, leadership and service with especial weight on scholastic standing. As their project for the year, the members are beginning a history of the school dating back to prenormal school days. It is being written so that it may be converted into a pageant on the 50th anniversary of the college. Kappa Delta Pi is analogous to Phi Beta Kappa in a liberal arts college.

Alpha Kappa Gamma (Joan Circle) also recognizes leadership, and members are selected on the basis of contributions to the school with high scholastic average as a requisite. Joan of Arc, their patron saint, is considered by them as a leader in action. Ellen Glasgow well-known novelist, is an honorary member.

Pi Gamma Mu—Virginia Gamma Chapter is an honor society for social science. Members are elected according to interest in social science—history, sociology, geography and some courses in education. A certain amount of work in these departments is required with a high average. The project being undertaken is a revisal of the local ritual to be standardized and used as a national ritual

Alpha Phi Sigma recognizes scholarship, and is the only honor society on campus open to underclassmen as well as upperclassmen. Valedictorians and salutatorians of high schools automatically become affiliated. There are three divisions, namely, novice, apprentice and masters, the latter being the highest.

Beta Pi Theta is an honor society for scholarship in French.

Sigma Pi Rho recognizes scholarship in Latin.

Pi Kappa Delta, a forensic society furthers debating and oratory.

BETA PI THETA AVERAGE

The Beta Pi Theta record for the last term was omitted from the list of Honor Societies' averages in last week's Rotunda. The average for the society was 2.55. The highest average was made by Bessie Lynch and Virginia Gee both of whom had an average of 3.00.

A CORRECTION

In the Rotunda of February 17 the feature editor's name was printed incorrectly. It should have been Ruth Ford.

The Senior Rotunda staff congratulates the staffs of the other three class Rotundas on the good work in their respective issues.

ALUMNAE NEWS

On the afternoon of Jan. 22, the Farmville Alumnae Chapter met in the Student Building Lounge for a social hour with each other and friends from the town. Each one present brought a diminutive apron with a single pocket containing as many pennies as the number of inches the waist measure of the donor. This was in response to an invitation, expressed in clever verses, to aid a "special purpose," the Founder's Day gift of the chapter. Miss Mary White Cox and Mrs. Southall Farrar poured tea and Misses Paula Irving Margaret Hubbard, Claudia Fleming and Louise Richardson served guests after they had been welcomed by the president, Miss Willie London.

An enthusiastic meeting of some of the Richmond alumnae of Farmville State Teachers College was held on February 11 at the home of Mrs. Maria Bristow Starke on Kensington Avenue for the purpose of reorganizing the Richmond Chapter of the Association of Alumnae. Members of the chapter decided to adopt a new chapter structure with groups in different parts of the city; the leader in each section becoming a vice-president of the major chapter. Mrs. Starke was elected president of the major chapter, and the vice-presidents are: Ginter Park, Mrs. Elise Leckie Boyle; West End, Miss Margaret Woodward; Tuckahoe, Mrs. Juanita Manning Harper; Forest Hill, Miss Carolyn Watts.

Rr. Jarman was honor guest and talked informally to the chapter. Among other topics he outlined his reasons for not advocating the establishment of a liberal arts college at Farmville. Others present were Miss C. B. Taliaferro, president of the Association of Alumnae; Miss Lula Phillips, member of the first graduating class in 1885; Miss Mary Bailey Watkins, Miss Gladys Garnett, Mrs. Hallie Hutchinson Mauck, Mrs. Mae Northern Pearson, Mrs. Lucy Rice English, Mrs. Lois Watkins Franklin, Mrs. Mattie Leigh Grigg Scott, Miss Lottie Lee Thorpe, Miss Pattie Garrett, Miss Hope Alice Dadmun, Miss Harriet Zehmer, Mrs. Mary Ratcliffe Chenery, Mrs. Ursula Tuck Buckley, Mrs. Nellie Richardson Rogers, Mrs. Katherine Ellis Hunt, Miss Carolyn Watts, Miss Margaret Leonard, Miss Catherine Bentley, Mrs. Minnie Taylor Bentley, Miss Florence Bosten Decker, Mrs. Myrtle Dunton Curtis, Mrs. Clair Blair Hackley, Miss Gladys Moses, Mrs. Bettie Murfee Ray, Mrs. Mary Verser Howard, Mrs. Mary Allen Shaw McCue. Mrs. Ethel Topping Folkes, Mrs. Juanita Manning Harper, Mrs. Eva Rutrough Bagley, Mrs. Gertrude Gilliam Reynolds.

NEW ADDITIONS TO THE PAY SHELF

(Senior Authors)

"Three Loves Have I"—Hanna Crawley.

"Just Elmer"—Hazel Halloway.

"Plus Miserable"—Ellen E. Jones

"Essay on Tittering"—Jane Witt

"No More Petticoats" — Martha Walters.

"Quotations from Will Rogers" (compiled)—Evelyn Jones.

"Paging Love"—Virginia Bledsoe

"The Lady Who Came to Stay"—Anonymous (one on every hall)

"American Beauty"—Medora Ford

"The Passing of The West"—Virginia Lowe.

"The Pious Lady"—Catherine Ritter.

"Little Briar-Rose"—Ruth Hunt.

SENIOR ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-chief .... Easter Souders
Associate Ed. ..... Eleanor Davis
News Editor ..... Bessie Lynch
Literary Editor .... Margaret Fisher
Feature Editor ..... Ruth Floyd
Athletic Editor .... Louise Clayton
Humorous Ed. ..... Lindsay White
Intercollegiate .... Hazel Halloway
World News .... Frances Crawford
Social Editor ..... Mildred Steere
Art Editor ..... Gwendolyn Daniel
Proof Readers—Nan Mears, Lucie Anne Lane
Circulation Managers — Velma Petty, Nancy Shaner.

WATER MIRRORS

The rain makes tiny mirrors
On the hard grey, cement walk
And in those silver mirrors
Grasses trees sway as they talk.

All at once a stray rain-drop
Falls from the eave above
Shatters the silver mirror
Breaks up all the grass-tree love.

Seven years are only seven seconds
To the silvered-mirrowed trees
They are calm and happy now
Unless disturbed by a spring breeze.

Quiet, tiny, silver mirror
To the grasses you aren't true,
Now you portray the iris beauty
You've changed your heart from green to blue.

Cleo Quisenberry, '32

I'M LONESOME

I get mighty lonesome
And feel so down and blue
For weeks and weeks I wait
And still no word from you.
Just once a week a letter
To a good pal from you
Would make 'er forget to be lonely
And then she'd never be blue.
Think what missing you'd save 'er
And it wouldn't mean much to you
Then you'd get a letter also
Maybe that's misery saved for two.

Henrietta Cornwell '32

CACOPHONY

Oh Bacchus to take of thy giddy pleasure!
How ephemeral and benign its power,
How ebbing thy liquid measure--
What a zenith that golden goblet of an hour!

"Time is implacable and fast"--
The daze and drift of stupor deep
Is pleasing, cajoling, but will not last
Beyond the purple mist of leaden sleep.
Though real is the awakening,
Passing into naked light from obscurity—
From vagrant happiness ending
In a sprawling heap of futurity
Let me imbibe once again
"Of life's sweet, ageing wines,"
Defy her metamorphasis, sip long
And endlessly. How glorious and divine
'Twould be to throw the dregs away.

R. C. Floyd, '32

Yon grey skies
A dreary day
For others perhaps but my days are gay
My heart is sighing
Why? You say
Just this I met you yesterday
You've gone—Oh yes!
That's quite clear
But memories linger forever dear.
So whether you're far
Or whether you're near
Remember this—I love you dear.

Henrietta Cornwell '32

DO YOU DREAM?

(To M. M. S.)

When you dream
Can it be of Elve's "Hear dear"
As he stands on tiptoe
To whisper in your ear?

When you dream,
Tell me—Is it of fairies sliding
Down a golden moonbeam
Through thin air guiding?

When you dream
Is it of lovely ships, silvery moons
Enchanting your own thoughts?
Do you, too, sail in blue lagoons?

When you dream
Is it of gardens castles in the air
Of wealth, riches, things to make
All life so fair?
or
When you dream
Is it of a dearest smile—and love
A hand which holds yours tight
A voice like sounds above
To you alone?—
or
Do you dream?

Margaret Fisher, 32

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY DANCES ARE HELD

The mid-winter dances at Hampden-Sydney were held Friday and Saturday nights, February 19 and 20. Among those there on Friday night were:

Garnet Hodges, Nelson Boswell
Margaretta Brady, Buck Nance
Catherine Cogbill, Bill Daughtry
Jo Congdon, Aggie Sonders
Martha Cross, Marion Humphries
Anne McGann, Bucky Lewis
Katherine McLemore, J. J. Lawson
Mary Shelton, Jimmie Finley
Mary A. Young, Billy Shannon
Margaret Banks, Edwin Shepherd
Lois Barnes, Kearfoot Stone
Polly Brock, Trigg Saunders
Nancy Burgwyn, Ben Franklin
Helen Cover, Franklin Younger
Frances Dillon, Joe Lacy
Frances Dorin, Jack Humphries
Virginia Hamilton, Edwin Hemphill.
Mary Harrison, Billy Powell
Nancy Harrison, Jack Gray
Celia Jones, Meredith Dortch
Evelyn Knaub, Bill Jeffries
Virginia Lamb, Pinkie Smith
Jenilee Knight, Bob Lineweaver
Belle Lovelace, John Brookes
Jean McClure, Edwin Bouldin
Clara MacKenzie, Ted Tower
Alice Rowell, Rogers Thomas
Jane Royall, Al Gillespie
Martha Sanders, Larus Reed
Thelma Walsh, Bill Spottswood
Helen Warren, Bill Drewry
Dorothy Waynick, Floyd Merrey

Saturday Night

Margaret Banks, Edwin Shepherd
Lois Barnes, Kearfoot Stone
Margaretta Brady, Buck Nance
Polly Brock, Trigg Saunders
Lorena Bland, Marshall Wilson
Nancy Burgwyn, Ben Franklin
Catherine Cogbill, Bill Daughtry
Martha Cross, Marion Humphries
Gwen Daniel, Nelson Boswell
Frances Dillon, Joe Lacy
Frances Dorin, Jack Humphries
Virginia Hamilton, Edwin Hemphill
Nancy Harrison, Jack Gray
Mary Harrison, Billy Powell
Celia Jones, Meredith Dortch
Evelyn Knaub, Bill Jeffries
Jenilee Knight, Bob Lineweaver
Virginia Lamb, Pinkie Smith
Belle Lovelace, John Brookes
Clara MacKenzie, Ted Tower
Anne McGann, Bucky Lewis
Katherine McLemore, J. J. Lawson
Vernie Oden, John Hardernal
Grace Rowell, Bill McClintic
Jane Royall, Al Gillespie
Mary Shelton, Jimmie Finley
Dorothy Waynick, Floyd Merrey
Mary A. Young, Billy Shannon
Nancy St. Clair, J. E. Traynham
Martha Saunders, John Grant.

ZETA TAU BANQUET

Zeta Tau Sorority had its annual banquet at Longwood Saturday evening at seven o'clock. It was the chapter's founders' day and many of the members were back for the banquet and the annual meeting.

The banquet was held in the dining room at Longwood, and the rainbow theme was carried out in the decorations. The guests, Miss Mix, who is Pan-Hellenic sponsor, and Miss Bedford, who is sponsor for this sorority, were presented with lovely flowers.

The girls who are not in school now and who came back for the banquet were: Virginia Cox, of Norfolk; Alfreda and Alberta Collings of Norfolk; Kitty Massey of Raleigh, N. C.; Virginia Robertson of Portsmouth; Evelyn Stephenson of Buena Vista, Lucy Thompson of Emporia, and Marguerite Foster of Lynchburg.

SENIOR PARTY

On Friday evening at ten o'clock the Seniors met in the Student Building lounge around the open fire to talk and sing. Popular songs and all of the class songs and class-man songs that we have had for each of the four years that we have been here were sung. The exciting moment of the party was a ghost story by firelight, told by Henrietta Cornwell.

Refreshments were served during the evening and the gaiety was ended by the singing of Senior "taps."

Many girls that were former members of our class were back to enjoy with us, our informal "get together."

WEEK-END VISITS

Stuart Quaintance, Velma Quarles Isabelle Allegree, Polly McMurdo and Mary Mustard spent the week-end in Charlottesville.

Winifred Pugh visited in Washington over the week-end.

Easter Souders visited Nell Dickinson at her home in Charlottesville this week-end.

Mae Downs had Margaret Brown and Lillian Womack as her guests in Baltimore this week-end.

Susie Vann Floyd attended the Kappa Delta Pi convention in Washington this week-end.

Corinne Mosby, Catherine Marchant, Margaret Barker, Frances Daughtry, Glenn Perry Colonna and Fannie Mae Colonna were at Blacksburg this week-end for the mid-winter dances.

Doris Ewers spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

Louise Johnson viisted at her home this week-end in Fork Union.

Sara James visited in Darlington Heights this week-end.

Among those in Richmond for the week-end were Margaret Copenhaver, Margaret Elgy, Burnley Brockenborough, Laeta Barham, Elizabeth Kelly, Dorothy Leonard, Margaret McNamara and Dorothy Prescott.

Lucy FitFzgerald spent the week-end in Crewe.

Martha Baker, Nancy Boykins, Jessie Watkins and Virginia Daughtry visited at their homes in Emporia.

Margaret Fisher visited at her home in Portsmouth this week-end.

Evelyn Jones visited her parents in Charlottesville.

Those attending the Virginia dances this week-end were Ambler Lee, Julia Faris and Jerry Lee.

Hildegarde Ross spent the week-end in Alexandria. She also attended the Bicentennial celebration at Washington.

Margaret Stiff and Cottie Willis were in Norfolk this week-end.

Clara Norfleet, Virginia Cox, Anne Johnson, Marguerite Foster, Evelyn Stephenson and Virginia Robertson visited in school this past week-end.

The Winter Quarter is fast coming to a close. We will soon be taking our examinations and then start in on a new quarters' work.

The schedules for the spring quarter's work will be made out on Wednesday, March 2, from two until five o'clock in the afternoon.

FAR EASTERN SITUATION DISCUSSED BY SOCIETY

Continued from page one

ning over said lines that caused the Japanese to send troops to China.

The boycott of Japanese goods which led directly to the attack on Shanghai was the subject of many questions.

The concensus of opinion was that the United States would play the part of wisdom by avoiding foreign entanglements.

WORLD NEWS

President Hoover received a cable from President von Hindenburg of Germany, commending Washington as an exemplary leader, immortal in history, who "with a sure hand guided the American ship of state through all its perils."

Leon Trotsky and 36 other Russians emigres living abroad have been formally stripped of their Soviet citizenship, and forbidden for all time to enter the Union of Socialist Soviet States.

Madrid's new bull ring today held the largest political meeting ever held in Spain to hear the first Republican minister of state.

Something new is happening in Germany—a "beer strike." Over two thousand proprietors of saloons are declining to sell beer until the government lowers the beer tax.

Britain's unemployment record is almost where it was last September, as two and half million are without work. Their peril is increased by the heavy blanket of snow that covered England last week.

Russia brought 140 Lincoln cars to show the Soviet state to tourists this summer. The cars are to be delivered in Russia by Red May Day when the tourist season opens.

SENIOR CLASSMAN SONG

To our classman we sing,
Our praises we bring
With loyalty
And our love true.
You've inspired us and helped us
To e'er do our best.
So now let our love
And our true praises rest
Forever, Miss Bedford,
With you.
Words by M. von Schilling
Music by Hanna Crawley

INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS

"An Idea"

Students at McMaster University, Ontario, have a system. They have arranged to have a stenographer at all lectures in the guise of a student to record in shorthand the professor's lectures. Typed copies are then sold for fifty cents a week.

In the Arms of Morpheus

Any student caught sleeping in the Swarthmore library is given a sleeping slip. Three such slips deprive a student of the use of the library.

Speaking of "crip" courses notice these for which credits are offered at various universities. We'll not bother to mention the schools: "Social Etiquette," "Resting," "Personality Development," "Geaneology," and "Waiting on Table."

MISSION SCHOOL MEETS

Continued from page one

The last evening the primary children demonstrated through the singing of songs a few things that they had learned. Later a visit to their rooms carried one to China. The little Chinese girls and boys explained and interpreted the pictures which hung on the walls, and told many interesting facts about the life of the Chinese as shown by their sand-table village. Misses Mary Artis Danner and Irene Leake added to their program by singing several songs.

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

Y. W. C. A.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONFERENCE TO BE HELD

The Student Volunteer Conference is to be held in Richmond beginning February 26 and lasting through Sunday, February 28.

The Y. W. C. A. cabinet has chosen two girls to represent S. T. C. there. Delegates are Louise Johnson and Myra McIntosh, chosen from the cabinet.

Rev. Dwight M. Chalmers and Dr. S. M. Zwemer will be among those speaking at the conference. It is hoped more girls will avail themselves of opportunity to attend the Student Volunteer Conference, held at the Union Theological Seminary, Richmond. There will be a program of the meetings posted on the Church Cooperative Bulletin Board.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET GIVES PARTY

The new girls were delightfully entertained at a fireside party given in the Student Building lounge Saturday night at ten o'clock. Those attending were very informally entertained with songs and stories. Delicious refreshments appeased ravishing appetites. The social committee of the Y. W. has displayed excellent work and interest this year in the line of entertainment.

SENIORS LEAD PRAYERS

The next few weeks the individual classes are to lead prayers. The seniors have charge this week beginning February 23 and lasting through Friday, February 26. The leaders for the different nights are as follows: Tuesday, Feb. 23, Henrietta Cornwell Wednesday, Feb. 24 .. Nancy Shaner Thursday, Feb. 25 .... Easter Souders Friday, Feb. 26, ... G. V. Woodhouse

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

Willis.... Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
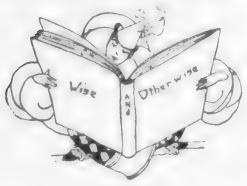
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery



C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and
School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

Would you like to earn all or a part of a delightful motor trip thru the West or eastern Canada this summer? Write for particulars to:
THE SOUTHERN TOURS, INC.
Box 727b Chapel Hill, N. C.

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Lovely new short, puff, sleeve, sweaters, colors of the rainbow	$1.19
Sporty new skirts to match --	$1.98
Special in our hosiery department—Allen A	$1.00
Sheer chiffon hose, picot tops, special	69c
Lovely new military style, polo coats	$9.95
Suits	$5.49 and $9.95
New creations in millinery	$1.95 and $2.95

The Hub Department Store
Offers best values always—Hosiery Sale this week!

JOKES

She: "I made this meat loaf right out of the cook book you brought me."

He: "Yeah, I just finished chewing up one of the covers."—Exchange

Father: "How was it that you were kissing my daughter? Tell me, young man! How was it?"

Lad: "Swell."—Exchange.

"Waiter, there's a hair in this honey."

"Sorry, sir. It must have come off the comb."—Exchange.

He "There's a certain reason why I love you."

She: "My goodness!"

He: "Don't be absurd.'"—Exchange.

Irate Date: "You drunken brute, if I were as drunk as you, I'd shoot myself."

Escort (hic): "Baby, if you were as drunk as I am, you'd miss yourself."—Exchange.

EDUCATION

Matriculation
Incarceration
Probation
Hibernation
Conversation
Vegetation
Relaxation
Perturbation
Examination
Graduation

—Exchange

Father: "The story has just brought you a brand new baby sister. Want to see her?"

Son: "Nope—but you hold onto that stork, will you?"—Exchange.

"Women don't interest me. I prefer the company of my fellow-men."

"I'm broke, too, brother." — The Pointer.

"How's your new girl?"

"Not very good."

"You always were lucky." — Exchange.

Old Lady: "Are you really content to spend your life walking around begging?"

Hobo: "No, lady, many's the time I wished I had an auto."—Exchange.

The trouble with most people who try to be blase is that they never get beyond the first syllable.—Exchange.

Traveling Salesman: "This place is dead. Come away with me to the city."

Farmer's Daughter "For good?"

Traveling Salesman: "Don't be silly."—Exchange.

And now for the interior decorator's song: Just One More Chintz.

Mrs. Jones: "Will you lend me your rugbeater?"

Mrs. Smith: "I'm sorry but he won't be back until four o'clock."

GOVERNMENT CLASS SEE LEGISLATORS IN SESSION

"Isn't Governor Pollard nice, and didn't Mr. Bruce treat us fine?" If you hear anyone say this, you will know that she is taking Government 333 this term.

Last Thursday the government girls went to Richmond to see the General Assembly in session. They attended the opening of the morning session in the House of Delegates heard bills discussed, "passed by," and advanced to third reading; they sat in on the session of the Senate and heard the reports of committees; they watched the voting machine in action, were invited to attend a meeting of the Home Committee on Schools and Colleges, shook hands with the Governor of Virginia, and heard the address of the Governor of North Carolina before the joint session.

The class was accompanied by Miss Tucker, Dr. Walmsley and Mr. Graham, and returned at night, tired, but enthusiastic over their knowledge of details of legislation, over the many courtesies shown them by the Hon. W. B. Bruce, delegate from Prince Edward and Cumberland and over the interest shown in them by legislators all the way from the Eastern Shore to the Ninth District.

CELEBRATION OF WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Continued from page one

friendly to Washington.

Our soldiers of the American Revolution suffered many hardships and were very often discouraged. The fourth grade presented a scene in which a group of women were cheering a group of soliders as they came marching by.

There is no story of the Revolutionary days more interesting or thrilling than the story of the making of our own flag by Betsy Ross. The second grade children presented a little play of three acts in which George Washington and a group of friends decided upon the design of our flag and upon who should make it. In the second act, Betsy Ross was asked and agreed to make the flag. Then Betsy Ross presented the completed flag to George Washington. This little play was one of the best parts of the program, and was acted very well for children so small.

The fifth, sixth and seventh grades concluded the morning program with a talk on the amusements of Washington's day, a group of poems about Washington written by the pupils, and the Virginia Reel danced very gracefully by a group of pupils in costume.

The afternoon program began at two o'clock, and was presented in the S. T. C. auditorium by the American Legion and Auxiliary of Farmville.

A group of appropriate musical numbers were rendered by Miss Elsie Carter of Prince Edward county, the Double Quartet of Hampden-Sydney and the Farmville High School Glee Glub. A most beautiful number was the Bi-centennial song, sung by the Glee Club.

The Farmville Boy Scouts gave a poem on the flag and "Washington, the Nation Builder," a poem writen especially for the Bi-centennial by Edwin Markham, was given by a history student of Hampden-Sydney.

The main feature of the afternoon program was an address on Washington by Mr. Ben Lacy of the Union Theological Seminary of Richmond. Mr. Lacy gave an outline of the deeds of Washington, and his discussion of Washington's character was beautiful.

Several selections by the Farmville Silver Band helped to make the afternoon program a success.

The evening program was presented by the honor societies of the College. It consisted of a group of living pictures of outstanding instances of Washington's life.

The two most impressive pictures were those of Washington's Farewell to His Mother and Prayers at Mount Vernon. The picture of Lady Washington's Reception showing the dancing of the stately minuet by ladies and gentlemen in lovely costumes was the prettiest and most gay.

The music for the evening program was furnished by the College Orchestra and String Trio under the direction of Miss Purdom.

FARMVILLE TO PLAY WILLIAM AND MARY ON FEBRUARY 27TH

The S. T. C. basketball team with Miss Iler will journey to Williamsburg Saturday to play the Indianette varsity. They will make the trip by bus leaving Farmville early Saturday morning.

The game Saturday will be the third intercollegiate game in which our team has engaged this year, the first two having been overwhelming victories.

It is interesting to note that on February 13 the squaw team defeated Sweet Briar 34-21. Last Saturday Sweet Briar was defeated by our team 37-16.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM FEB. 25-MAR. 2

THURSDAY and FRIDAY—"NO ONE MAN," with PAUL LUKAS, CAROLE LOMBARD and RICHARD CORTEZ. This one is from the sensational story by Rupert Hughes, "that no one man is sufficient to satisfy and occupy the heart of any woman!" "Nep" loves them all. One she loves and loses. One she adores and discards. One she marries for spite. One she wants and can't get. And no one man can satisfy her heart. Why? This girl is known from Palm Beach to Reno. Her love is new and fresh for the man who can take and hold it, but where is the one, great, god-like man? This is a thoroughly adult picture with zip & swank. "Nep" is dangerous to men. A flaming, flaunting, beautiful woman and they cannot leave alone. A new solution to the age-old mystery—WOMAN. It may shock you, but you'll be entertained. Also "No More Gas" and "The Unemployed Ghost."

SATURDAY—"RICH MAN'S FOLLY," with GEO. BANCROFT, FRANCES DEE and ROBERT AMES. Here is one of the finest pictures ever shown on the screen, for it is so splendidly acted—so human—so understandable. It will hold you from first to last scene. A mighty drama of a money-crazed man, drunk with ambition, who tried to buy love; lost happiness, and finally gained honor heroically through what love teaches him. A picture for the whole family. A picture you'll remember a long time. Also Our Gang Comedy and Fox News.

NEXT MON. and TUES.—EMMA" with MARIE DRESSLER and great cast of fine players. Here is the picture that has created a sensation throughout the whole country. Marie Dressler, the pride and joy of the screen. She'll make you happy as you haven't been for a long time. You'll laugh and forget your troubles; you'll wipe away a tear as you the most lovable character ever follow the ups and downs of Emma, brought to the talking screen. She's the faithful household drudge, who brings up her boss' family—and when they turn on her, refuses to believe them bad. If Farmville wants better and cleaner pictures, here's one that should be seen by every man, woman and child in town. The picture sensation of the season, here for two days only at no increase in prices. Better not miss it! Also News, Harry Lauder in Song and Travelogue on "Ireland."

NEXT WEDNESDAY—JEAN HARLOW and WALTER MUSTON in "THE BEAST OF THE CITY," supported by Wallace Ford and Jean Hersholt. Jean Harlow, the most fascinating platinum blonde on the screen as a silken huntress who thrives on the dangers of the city jungles where human lives are offered up daily to the Beast of the City, so that scented, silken-clad women can enjoy the forbidden thrills of a modern Babylon. Here is a new and intensely dramatic slant on city living, depicting the linking of politics and the underworld and the "inside" on mighty facts. A strong picture with many sensational highlights. Also Comedy, "All Sealed Up."

NEXT WEEK—Watch for the TULANE-U. SO. CAL. football game in slow and natural motion. A real thrill!

ADMISSION—Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees; children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

COME ON OUT TO PLAY VOLLEY BALL

Last week nets were stretched across the gym and volley ball season opened with a bang. It looks as if there will be a tight race for the color cup this year. Come on out—your class needs you—an its lots of fun!

RUTH WRIGHT IS VOLLEY BALL MANAGER

Ruth Wright, a most enthusiastic sophomore athlete has been chosen as manager of volley ball. Since entering school last year, Ruth has shown much interest in sports. She has played on all of her class teams, and through her work and play, she has exhibited a real spirit of sportsmanship and cooperation. With Ruth as manager, volley ball season should be a most successful one.

College Footwear

The new Prince of Wales novelty oxfords with cut-out front and wrap-around the ankle ties. In tan and smoked Elk. Priced only

$4

Other novelty pumps, etc., that win favor of college smartness.

$2.98 to $4

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY - PRICE - SERVICE STORE

BIG SISTERS AND LITTLE SISTERS

have no difficulty in being fitted at this exclusive dress store.

Exclusive doesn't mean high prices,, either. New spring dresses arriving daily and priced at only

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell

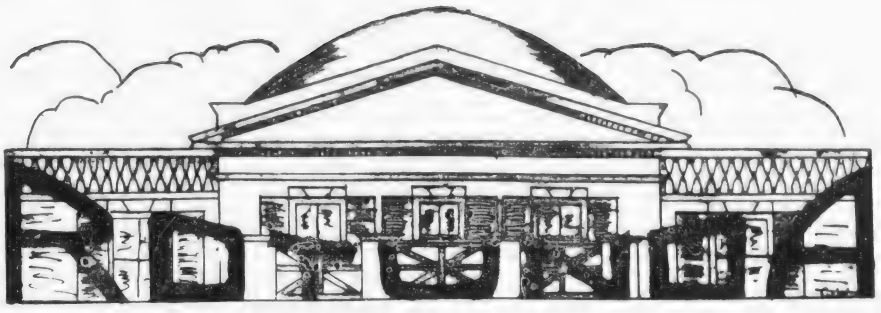
CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus



TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

PAY
YOUR CLASS DUES

COME OUT
FOR VOLLEY
BALL PRACTICE!

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 1932 No. 20

Farmville Wins Third Game This Season

S. T. C. Defeats William and Mary In a Hard Fought Game

PLAY HARRISONBURG THURS.

In the most thrilling and exciting game of the basketball season, Farmville's varsity defeated William and Mary Saturday, February 26, on their court, the score being 20 to 17.

The first part of the game was scoreless and fouless. Both team were working hard; soon, however, William and Mary took the lead with Dabney, the William and Mary forward, shooting pretty shots from all points on the court. At the end of the half, the score was 9 to 6 in favor of William and Mary.

Our team went back in the second half with a determination to win: a determination to bring back a third victory for blue and white. This was soon evident for our forwards did some pretty shooting. The score at the end of the third quarter was 15 to 14 in our favor.

In the last quarter, our varsity with their good teamwork, kept in the lead. The passwork in this quarter was especially good and well timed. The entire team, although hampered by a small court, showed up well. The William and Mary team was unusually good; they showed up well in both their speed and accurate shooting. When the final whistle blew the score was 20 to 17 in our favor, thus adding the third victory of the season to our list.

The line-up was as follows:

S. T. C.		W. & M.
Snedegar	F	Dabney (c)
Fraser	F.	Brame
Gregory	J.C.	Lowry
Potts	S.C.	Dreyer
Souders (c)	G	Chewning
Berger	G	Raita

Substitutions: S. T. C., Edwards for Potts; Parker for Fraser.

William and Mary, Sullenger for Brame and Holladay for Brame. Broth for Lowry, Beck for Lowry and Lawry for Beck. Young for Dreyer, Ford for Dreyer and Young for Dreyer. Hudak for Chewning.

Officials: Davis and Hatchett, referee and umpire.

VOICE STAFF WORKING HARD WITH LITERARY SOCIETIES TO PAY DEBT

The indebtedness incurred last year which prevented the publishing of "The Voice" magazine this year, is being gradually paid off by the members of the staff. A kitchen on Main has been equipped by Miss Mary, and is opened each night at ten by members of the two literary societies. Food is sold, the proceeds of which go toward the settlement of the debt. The student body is asked to patronize the kitchen as far as the depression dilemma will permit.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA ANNOUNCES MEMBERS

The Delta Chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma announces the following new members :

To the apprentice degree,
- Anne Davis
- Mrs. Susie Conant
- Annie Lee Jones
- Gertrude Sugden
- Lady Boggs
- Dorothy Woolwine

To the masters degree:
- Mary Virginia Robinson.

EASTER SOUDERS

CAPTAIN OF BASKETBALL

Kappa Delta Pi Meeting is Held

The National Bi-annual Convocation of Kappa Delta Pi met in Washington, D. C., February 22nd to 24th. Misses Susie Floyd and Mary Nichols were representatives from the Beta Epsilon Chapter.

The first meeting of the convocation was held at two P. M. on Monday, February 22, at the Burlington Hotel. Dr. Thomas C. McCracken, Executive President, gave the opening address. Reports were given by the executive officers. Dr. Alfred L. Hall-Quest read a beautiful tribute, "In Memoriam" written by Dr. Hall-Quest to Dr. Edwin A. Alderman.

An informal meeting was held from four to five P. M. in which the delegates had an opportunity to become acquainted with each other.

On Tuesday morning, from nine to twelve, a business meeting was held. At twelve the delegates had luncheon in the Burlington Hotel. From one to four, there was a round table discussion on chapter activities with Miss Florence Stratemeyer, executive first vice-president, presiding.

The convocation banquet was given in the Washington Hotel on Tuesday at sixthirty. Each member of Kappa Delta Pi was permitetd to take a guest. About four hundred people were present. The address of the evening was made by Dr. William Heard Kilpatrick on "A Social Program for American Education." The Hall of Nations, in which the banquet was given was beautifully decorated, the banquet, a lovely affair.

Wednesday morning, a business meeting was held. There was a luncheon for the delegates; the officers were presented; and the convocation adjourned. Then from two to five o'clock, an excursion carried those who wished to go to Mt. Vernon, Arlington, and other places of interest in and near Washington.

S. T. C. PROFESSOR TO GIVE ADDRESS

The annual convention of the Virginia State Music Teacher Association and the Federation of Music Clubs will be held co-jointly with the tournament of Arts and Crafts, April 25-30, Richmond, Virginina.

Choir Festival night, April 28 will bring together singers from all points in Virginia who will sing "Unfold Ye Portals" and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from the Messiah. Alfred H. Strick, State Choir Festival Chairman and National Junior Choir and Festival Chairman, Farmville, Virginia, will give the convention address, and the soloist will be Major C. T. Tittmann and Joanne de Nault.

Continued on page four

Jolly Junior Jubilee Makes A Great Hit

Much Originality and Talent Are Shown by The Juniors

LARGE AUDIENCE IS PLEASED

The Junior Class presented the "Jolly Junior Jubliee" in the auditorium Friday night to a large and appreciative audience. The show consisted of three acts, and each act showed originality, talent, and hard work on the part of the Juniors.

The first act gave the history of the dance from the beginning of time through the ages and even to the future. This act was worked out by Mary Winston and Dot Snedegar. Each age was represented with a dance, the dancers of which wore costumes suited to that age and dance. Two pages presented posters of each dance as it appeared. The dances were all excellently worked up and the Juniors showed unusual talent in this line.

The players of the second act presented to a charmed audience the "13 Club of Coon Town" whose purpose was suicide. Alice Moore was director of this group, and the Juniors displayed some "negro" talent rarely shown by impersonators. Jane Royall as Carter Glass Swanson Wheatcakes, more than once sent the audience into gales of laughter. Nor was this all, Rachel McDaniel who sang "You Rascal, You" and Frances Coleman who drew the black ball of death and was forced to commit suicide all lent to the mystery and fun of the occasion. The banquet table loaded with food and "gin" was a sight for sore eyes to the 13 Suicide Club and the janitor who was none other than Henrietta Taylor.

The third act was a "Modern Cinderella" play. This consisted of three scenes each a little more beautiful than the last, and climaxing at the finish in a beautiful wedding featuring a real and also a miniature bride and groom. Frances Bradford was the lucky girl whom the slipper fitted and the hat with the silver lining was the theme song which was beautifully carried out from the hats of baby days to the hats of "sweet sixteen", which captured not only Cinderella,

(Continued on page 4.)

Senior Issue of The Rotunda Gets Prize

The result of the contest among the four classes during the past four weeks to determine which could produce the best issue of The Rotunda, was announced Saturday in the following letter from the faculty committee:

Miss Louise Elliott
Editor The Rotunda.
Farmville, Virginia
Dear Miss Elliott:

It has been decided by the committee that the Senior issue of The Rotunda is the best of the four special class issues. Personally, I want to congratulate all four classes for the excellent papers they produced.

Very sincerely yours,
S. M. Holton, Chairman

Committee:
Miss Lucille Jennings
Miss Mary E. Peck
Sam'l. M. Holton, Jr.

The following standards were used by the committee in selecting the best issue:

(Continued on page 3)

SEE THE VARSITY OFF

Come out and see the basketball varsity off for their last game of the season. They are leaving for Harrisonburg on Thursday morning at ten - thirty. This will be after chapel and before classes so there will be no excuse for anyone not being there. Everybody come out and give them a big send-off, thus doing our bit to help them win another victory for the blue and white, and close the season undefeated.

New Plan Adopted In Electing Officers

A new plan will be tried this year in the election of major officers.

In the past years, the six major officers have been nominated and two days later elected by ballot.

This year, on March 16 regular nominations for the Student Council president, Y. W. C. A. president, and Athletic Association president will be held. Nominations will close at six o'clock. The names of the two students receiving the highest number of votes for each office will be posted. Those six students will meet with the executive members of the Student Council that night and select campaign managers. Six managers will be selected, one for each nominee.

On the night of March 17, the student body will have a meeting in the auditorium at which time each campaign manager will present her candidate and give a talk on her fitness for the office.

On March 18, election by ballot will be held until six o'clock.

The three other major officers, editor-in-chief of The Rotunda, editor-in-chief of The Virginian, and president of the House Council will be elected in like manner after Easter.

Among the reasons advanced for this new plan at student body meeting on Monday night were: to make known to the entire student body the students nominated and their fitness for their offices; to enable the students, particularly the freshmen, to vote with a knowledge of the qualities demanded by each office; and to build up an attitude of fairness and constructive criticism. No loitering around the polls on election day will be allowed.

It was thought best in starting the plan to have only three of the major officers elected at one time. The new president of the Student Council has to be elected before Easter so that she can attend the national convention which will be held during the Easter holidays.

INTERESTING PROGRAM PRESENTED IN CHAPEL

A very interesting program was rendered in chapel Saturday morning by the members of kindergarten, of the Training School, under the direction of Miss Mix and Miss Margaret Banks.

After singing several selections, a solo dance was given by Dorothy Butler, followed by a little dance similar to the Virginia Reel performed by four members of the class, and a Brownie dance given by two boys. The program was concluded by a figurative dance given by the entire class.

Founders Day Program Has Been Announced

Saturday, March 5, is 48th Anniversary of the School

MRS. FLOURNEY WILL SPEAK

The 48th anniversary of Farmville State Teachers College will be celebrated Saturday, March 5.

Ushering in the annual Founders Day exercises will be a dance and orchestra recital on Friday evening, March 4, at eight o'clock. This program is sponsored by the natural dancing class directed by Mrs. W. C. Fitzpatrick of the department of physical education and Miss Lisabeth Purdom of the music department.

The program on Saturday, Founders Day, will be as follows:

10 A. M.—In the aduitorium
Song ..... Alma Mater
Presentation of Gifts:
- Dramatic Club
- Freshman Class
- Cotillion Club
- Honor Societies
- Sophomore Class
- Athletic Association
- Junior Class
- Y. W. C. A.
- Literary Societies
- Association of Childhood Education
- Senior Class

Welcome Alumnae, Miss C. B. Taliaferro.
Greetings from Alumnae Chapters
Response ..... Dr. Jarman
Song ..... "Onward Farmville"
100 P. M., Longwood ..... Luncheon
3:00 P. M., Student Building Auditorium .... Alumnae Bus. Meeting
6:00 P. M. In Dining Hall—Formal Dinner for students, faculty and alumnae.
8:00 P. M. in the auditorium, President J. L. Jarman, presiding
Invocation .... Rev. H. B. Lipscomb
Solo ..... Miss Irene Leake
Address .. Mrs. W. C. Flourney, '93
Selections:
(a) Gloria—Buzzie-Peccia—Choral Clubs
(b) "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny" .. Quartette and Chorus

RUFFNER LITERARY SOCIETY USES VACHEL LINDSAY AS SUBJECT

The Ruffner Literary Society met Wednesday night, February 24 at 7 o'clock in the little sitting room.

The works of Vachel Lindsay was the topic for discussion. Easter Souders read "The Congo" by Vachel Lindsay. Several of his child poems were read by Margaret Fisher.

Helen Smith talked about the life of Vachel Lindsay.

CUNNINGHAM SOCIETY HAS MEETING

The Cunningham Literary Society held its regular meeting last Tuesday evening. The old members were delighted to welcome the new members into the society for their first regular meeting. Initiation for the following members was held Thursday night:
- Hattie Gilliam
- Leah Jane Shaw
- Doris Ewers
- Alice Rowell

Continued on page three

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

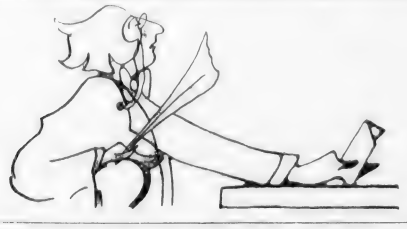
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will

The New Plan of Electing Officers

The new plan of electing officers was passed by a majority vote at student body meeting on Monday night. Will this new plan be a better one than the old plan?

In the past years, the six major officers have been nominated on one day, and elected by secret ballot about two days later.

This year, on March 16, three of the officers, Student Council President, Y. W. C. A. President, Athletic Association President, will be nominated; a campaign manager for each of the two highest will be selected with the aid of the executive members of the Student Council that night; the next night the campaign managers will present their candidates to the student body and point out their fitness for the offices; on the next day, March 18, the nominees will be voted upon by secret ballot. The other three major offices, Editor of the Virginian, Editor of The Rotunda, and President of the House Council, will be elected in the same manner, after the Easter holidays.

This should be a better plan than the old one because it will make known to the entire student body those girls who are running for offices. It will show the entire student body the qualities necessary for each office. The Freshmen will profit by it especially. They and the rest of the students will be able to vote intelligently. It is hoped that every student will vote on election day.

And it is hoped that the criticism will be entirely constructive. Think! Vote intelligently!

THE CHATTER BOX

Listen, Lady Friends,—will you please be quiet—can't you see I'm studying? Just because you happen to be taking a holiday you needn't think everyone else in school has to become an habitual idler just to lend you a bit of companionship! I guess if you had to copy twelve movements from Beethoven's Sonatas not to mention a physical ed notebook, and two weeks of history parallel, you'd be letting a little recreation slide in the face of hard labor too. Honestly, when I think of all the work I have to do plus the pleasant prospect of exams, I nearly die! Yes, and when this term's grades go home—(another pleasant prospect!)

Grades are funny things, aren't they? It's almost uncanny the effect just little black marks on paper can have on a person. Big fat A"s are the most satisfying bits of ink in the world; C's aren't so bad—they rather resemble luke-warm water, though, not so cold, but not so hot; but deliver me from an F.! F's really are the most hideous looking letters I ever saw, and they have the most resistance! You can change an A into a C by just a tiny bit of carelessness—but try to make an F anything but an F, and you're just out of luck! (Not that I speak from experience. Oh! No—I never get an F—believe it or not).

Can you believe that Founders Day is only two days away—I just can't wait! I've been dying to wear something white without feeling conspicuous for the last two weeks. Guess the cleaners are doing a rushing business this week trying to get white dresses all cleaned and pressed by Saturday. Now, don't you get a funny feeling when Founder's Day rolls around? Dr. Jarman looks so happy, and Miss Mary looks so sweet, and we feel like we're going to a picnic and we're all dressed up for the grand occasion; and we sing the "Alma Mater," and a lump comes up in our throat, and we think how awful it would be never to see Farmville again—Oh! you know what I mean! You needn't grin about it either—you can't fool me—you feel just the same way. Will you say something? You're telling me to get into a terribly serious mood just when I need to concentrate on one thing at a time.

What am I going to get for Easter? Well, I haven't decided—everytime I see a new style I'm sure I like that best—so there you are. I rather like those blue suits—and I like those silk prints, too— and I adore those little straw hats that fit like a glove—though I'd probably have a headache all the time, if I had one on! Anyway, there's plenty of time to decide 'cause—oh, my goodness, there goes the 10:30 bell, and I haven't accomplished a thing. Oh, well, it's all in a lifetime—but I really am going to study tomorrow. Well, pleasant dreams—I'll see you in the morning. 'Night.

PENINSULA CHAPTER ENTERTAINS WITH TEA

Mrs. Harry Shawen's home on Chesapeake Avenue, Boulevard, was the scene of at attractive Colonial tea yesterday afternoon when members of the Peninsula Chapter of the Farmville Alumnae entertained from 3 to 5 o'clock. Miss Elizabeth Ivy and Mrs. Harry Parker, of Hampton, presided at the tea table and assisting were Miss Sidney Edwards, Miss Betty Page Gary, Miss Claudia Harper, Miss Sonora Peters, Miss Dena Jensen and Miss Susie Dickinson

Miss Lucille Logan, president of the chapter, was assisted in receiving by other officers, Little Miss Mary Puckett Asher and Josephine Shaffner, daughters of members of the Alumnae, received the cards at the door. During the afternoon the following program was rendered: Vocal selection, Mrs. Malvern Weaver; violin solo, Miss Sudie Jones, instrumental music, cello, violin and piano, Misses Marthella and Mary Lewis Marston, accompanied by Miss Lucille Hunnicutt; vocal selection, Miss Nancy Bush; vocal selection, Miss Lyla Conna, and readings, Mrs. Kate Puller Ashby.

THOUGHTS

Just seven days to go and we'll be beginning exams. What a pleasant thought!

It's a good thing we wear two ear rings. Somebody surely would be over-balanced if we did not.

The Juniors gave us a unique jubilee Friday night. Mary Gregory's sock was a unique way of keeping the profits, too.

Jenny Wheeler surprised a number of us by her beautiful singing. Give us more surprises, Jenny.

It certainly was the style last week for everyone to lose her voice. Was it a hard week or reports?

Ask Jenny Hurt what makes her go to sleep on a bus. We would like to know.

From all reports A. Moore is planning a huge pep meeting after exams for all depressed teachers.

Only twenty-two days until Easter!

The burning of brush here and there tells us Spring is on the way.

Another Founder's Day is almost here. How many, many days has this school stood and watched the endless procession of students.

Thoughts—happy thoughts, random thoughts, all kinds of thoughts run through our minds.

Will the new plan of electing officers work? We'll back it and see.

Two months from this week new officers go into office. Who will they be?

How proud we are of our varsity basketball team!

WORLD NEWS

The fact that war has not been declared between Japan and China has given rise to some striking comments. One that caught our wandering eye was the caption "Peace is still raging between Japan and China," or another writer aptly puts it, "Does China feel that 'Peace is Hell'?"

An English duke recently sold his ancestral coronet for 15,000 pounds so that it could be stripped of its jewels and melted to add to the nation's gold supply.

"It is funny to hear the democrats talking about the opportunity of a century and then see stern candidates, all with large followings, out to knife the man in the lead."

Scarface Al Capone's eleven year sentence for income tax evasion was sustained by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. Things begin to look as though he will really have to serve his term. There are two possible ways for him to get off—one by a rehearing by the Appellate Court, and the other by a review by the United States Supreme Court—but it is generally considered that these possibilities are very slight.

Paderewski recently played the piano from nine to midnight for the benefit of his unemployed brother musicians. A remarkable thing is that the large audience filling a building a block long was "thrilled by a piano recital over which hard-boiled critics went into ecstacies. Paderewski paid for his own seat.

Leon Trotsky who was exiled from Russie twenty years ago has again been banished to perpetual exile. The first volume of his history of Russian Revolution has recently been published and has attracted much attention.

However much we may disagree with Mr. Hoover on other matters, we can join in acclaim of his closing message to thousands of principals, and others gathered in Washington last week in which he said:

"The very first obligation upon the national resources is the undiminished financial support of the public schools. We cannot afford to lose growth in education. That is neither economy, nor good government."

TEARS

All these years could not weep
But only see and sigh
I felt the sorrow of the whole wide world
But could not cry.

The suffering and pain of everything
Both great and very small
Were mine to feel. But there were
No tears at all.

Until tonight when all the sighs
Of all the restrained years
Came bubbling up, and then I found
Relief in tears.

Easter Souders

THE DUAL PERSONALITY OF THAT IMMORTAL MUSE

Music,
How cooling
Your slender hands
Fell against
The fevered brow
Of my soul—
With what patience
You gather my tears
In tiny alabaster jars—
How tenderly
You bind up
The wounds of my heart
And beckon memories back
Which light my way
As moonbeams would the dark
But, music,
How cruel you are
When the one I love
Has gone afar!

YOUR EYES

To M. E. D.

Your eyes are liquid grey
I look into the depths
And soon the fathoms
There enfold me, as in bewilderment
You hold me—
Pure pursed lips that speak
Forever in sagacity
Never breathe a hint of what
You hold behind those sweet
Grey eyes—
Eyes—like the eyes of a pussy cat
Clear—and innocent
And some day—when I say a
Word you do not like
You'll turn and scratch me.

Martha von Schilling '32

TO YOU

I loved you from afar
But you knew it not;
You only stood and looked at me
As I passed by.
How I longed to see you
When you were away!
I longed to be with you
But you did not know.
Why did you have to break my heart?
I thought you cared.
I loved you;
I wanted you to take me away—,
Away from the commotion of life
And hold me in your arms
So tight—and let me stay.

O cruel Fate— that lets
Love tear my heart out.
Have pity and compassion
On my soul
And bring him to me.

Doreen Smith, '34

DISAPPOINTMENT

I placed her on a pedestal
And worshipped her
—From below.
She had no faults then
For all her virtues showed
—From below.

She was perfect
Or so it seeemd to me
—From below.
But now the pedestal crashed
And illusions faded
The naked truth stared me in the face
And I realized the truth, and mourned for her —From above.

M. B. G., '33

SOCIALS

Virginia Lowe and Margaret Copenaver spent the week-end in Charttesville.

• • •

Margaret Hix and Dot Davis were Roanoke this week-end.

• • •

Helen Westmoreland spent the eek-end in Petersburg.

• • •

Ann Davis, A. J. Scott, Nancy Ross, rances Dorin, Kitty Waters, Louise ohnson, Katheryn Rogers, Evelyn naub and Lucille Tiller were in ichmond this week-end.

• • •

Ruth Atkins and Ruth Floyd spent te week-end in Martinsville.

• • •

Sara Beck spent the week-end in inwiddie.

• • •

Those who were in Lynchburg this eek-end are: Dot Legare, Sara Hubrd, Margaret McCue, Iris Hart, fary K. Taylor, Margaret Barker, erry Lee, Thelma Walsh, Helen Hars and Celia Jones.

• • •

Charlotte Young and Leah Jane haw spent the week-end in Crewe.

• • •

Irwin Staples was in Burkeville is week-end.

• • •

Margaret Banks and Betsy Wilkinon attended the dances in Fork nion this week-end.

• • •

Iola McIntyre spent the week-end Blackstone.

• • •

Lindsay White was in Arrington is week-end.

• • •

Hanna Crawley was in Cumberland is week-end.

• • •

Helen Warren and Frances Potts ent the week-end in Norfolk.

• • •

Antionette Jones spent the weekend visiting Belle Lovelace in South oston.

• • •

Vernie Oden, Clara MacKenzie and Chic" Mosby attended the dances t V. M. I. this week-end.

• • •

Judith Taylor spent the week-end Pamplin.

• • •

Margaret Parker was in Suffolk is week-end.

• • •

Alice Russell was in Guinea this eek-end.

• • •

Martha Cross spent the week-end Fredericksburg.

• • •

Lelia Lovelace was in Halifax this eek-end.

• • •

Charlotte Oakey and Burnley Brockenborough were at Hampden-Sydney this week-end.

• • •

Polly and Pauline Jones spent the eek-end in Shepherds.

MISS MARY ENTERTAINS

Miss Mary entertained several of he tables from the dining room, in he Student Building lounge last Wednesday evening. After the delicious supper was served with the assistance of the table hostesses, Dr. Jarman, accompanied by Miss Potts, sang several selections. He sang, among others, "My Wild Irish Rose," and a very clever and amusing parody to it. As he finished singing, the girls joined in singing "What's the Matter with Jarman?" The singing of a number of other songs brought the evening to a close.

BETA PI THETA ANNOUNCES MEMBERS

The Pi Zeta Chapter of Beta Pi Theta announces the following new members:

Jenny Wheeler
Mary Thomas Rawls.

The Regular Rotunda Staff wishes to congratulate the four classes upon their issues of The Rotunda.

NEWS FROM OTHER COLLEGES

Two freshmen at Wake Forest, North Carolina stood on a faithful corner for three days trying to bum their way to Raleigh. On the afternoon of the third day they continued to stand in full view of all approaching cars and politely direct motorists to the Capital of the Old North State. Soon a long, black, foreign-built limousine bearing a New ersey license tag drew up to the curb and stopped. A liveried footman got out and opened the door. What a ride it was—the glorious realization of a hobo's dream!

The two freshmen gasped and grinned—and hurried over to the car. Out jumped a vest-pocket edition of a dog, the passenger of honor for whom the car was making a special trip to Florida. The automobile had stopped to let Gido get a breath of fresh air and stretch his tired muscles—and the students thought the car was stopping to give them a lift.

These freshmen wanted to go to Raleigh. They were willing to accept almost any kind of ride—even a ride in an expensive car belonging to a millionaire—so they went to the Irish footman and told him their hard-luck story. He was a good-natured, kindhearted son of Erin, and he beamed with generosity. He listened to the pitiful requests for a ride and said, "Shure, git in." He opened the door with all the dignity of an expenerienced footman, and the happy freshmen got in and went to Raleigh.—Old Gold and Black.

Statistics were quoted at East Radford showing that there is not the great tourist migration from the United States into Canada for purposes of purchasing alcoholic drink as is commonly supposed. For every 1000 cars registered in the United States, seventy-four enter Canada. For every 1000 cars registered in Canada over four hundred enter the United States. There are more Canadians who tour in this country, than Americans who tour Canada.—Grapurchat.

Roanoke College has recently erected a horse shoe court on its campus. It is located just outside of the college commons in view of the many loafers who use the territory as stamping grounds while waiting on the dining hall to open its doors. Judging from the many students who have participated in play since its inauguration, horse shoe pitching promises to rival football, basketball, and baseball for the crowns of major sports. The court will be used in the near future for play in a horse shoe tournament. Winners in this competition will be recognized with appropriate awards.—The Brackety-Ack.

Sweet Briar is conducting a stop-hoarding week which will last from February 29, to March 5. During this time theatre and bus rates will be reduced. Tea rooms and drug stores will have special menus throughout the week. The leading department stores, shoe stores, and shops in Lynchburg will have special displays of new material and new spring styles for students. They have planned to make their bargain for the week particularly attractive to the student trade. Students will identify themselves by presenting a copy of the "Sweet Briar News." Upon this identification, they will be granted the lower rates and privileges which will be unavailable to anyone not attending Sweet Briar.—The Sweet Briar News.

At their student body meeting the students of Queens-Chicora College, at Charlotte, N. C., urged world peace. Some declared that "war is a lie all the way through and does not meet the claims of protecting the honor of the country." Others insisted that "we forsake all fascinations for brass buttons;" while still others denounced the erroneous statement that "war will solve the problem of the depression." Resolutions were drawn up to express the stand taken by Queens-Chicora concerning the matter.—ueens Blues.

Answering a questionnaire at the University of Oregon, ninety percent of the new students said they would marry a woman sixty years old if she had $1,000,000. The same percentage of co-eds said they would be glad to marry for money, and "love be hanged."

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONFERENCE HELD

The delegates to the Student Volunteer Conference held from February 26 to 28 at the Union Theological Seminary and Assembly's Training School in Richmond, Va., report that throughout the conference a wonderful and inspirational spirit of fellowship prevailed.

The conference theme: "Jesus Christ, the Living Friend and Saviour of Mankind", was made real by such men as Dr. Walter Judd, Rev. Dwight M .Chalmers, Dr. Donald W. Richardson, and Dr. Samuel M. Zwemer. These men are proving their Christ-like spirit through deeds as well as through words.

The personal contact with the giant personalities of these leaders meant much. One of the most inspiring addresses delivered was that by Dr. Walter Judd, "The Way of Love in China". Dr. Zwemer knows the Christ who lives among men today. Rev. Dwicht Chalmers won the heart of the delegation by his wonderful personality; he can lead one into the presence of a living God.

The delegates from all over Virginia were entertained by the students of the U. T. S. and at a delightful reception held in Virginia Hall on Friday night. Here, as in the conferences, the beautiful spirit of fellowship prevailed.

SENIORS LEAD PRAYERS

Members of the Senior Class led prayers during the past week. The services each evening were very impressive—candle light, sweet music, and inspiring messages.

Henrietta Cornwell had as her topic on Tuesday evening, "Open Doors; Nancy Shaner on Wednesday, "Laughter"; Easter Souders on Thursday evening, "Closed Doors."

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

SENIOR ISSUE OF ROTUNDA RECEIVES PRIZE

Continued from page one

Mechanics 50 points

A. Make-up 25
1. Arrangement of news, pictures etc.
2. Headlines
B. Proof-reading 10
C. Correct use of English 15
1. Types of opening sentences.

II.. Contents 50

A. Front page 20
B. Edtiorials 10
1. Facts causing editorials.
2. Opinion to be established concerning these facts.
3. Reasons for this opinion.
C. Features 10
D. Departments 10

The winning issue is awarded $5 to be used in the class's contribution to Founder's Day.

CUNNINGHAM SOCIETY HAS MEETING

Continued from page one

Grace Rowell
Evelyn Williams
Carrie DeShazo

In the near future, the Ruffner and Cunningham societies are going to hold a joint meeting. Both pleasure and profit should be gained from this.

Willis.... Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 358

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Would you like to earn all or a part of a delightful motor trip thru the West or eastern Canada this summer? Write for particulars to:
THE SOUTHERN TOURS, INC.
Box 727b Chapel Hill, N. C.

Southern Passenger Motor Lines
RICHMOND—LEXINGTON DIVISION

East Bound Read Down					West Bound Read Up
A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.		A.M.	P.M.	A.M.	P.M.
7:00	11:45	3:10	7:45	lv. Lexington ar.	4:55	2:15	10:55	11:15
8:50	1:30	5:00	9:20	ar. Lynchburg lv.	3:00	12:30	9:10	9:30
9:00	12:45	5:15	9:20	lv. Lynchburg ar.	2:40	12:00	3:25	9:00
10:40	2:25	6:55	10:50	ar. Farmville lv.	1:00	10:15	1:35	7:20
10:45	2:30	7:00	10:55	lv. Farmville ar.	1:00	10:05	1:25	7:10
1:00	4:45	9:15	12:50	ar. Richm'd. lv.	11:10	8:10	11:30	5:00
P.M.	P.M.	P.M.	A.M.		P.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.

BROOKNEAL—BURKEVILLE DIVISION

A. M.		P. M.
9:10	Lv. Brookneal Ar.	3:15
10:40	Farmville	1:30
11:15	Ar. Burkeville Lv.	11:30

*....Connections at Richmond, Lynchburg and Lexington for all points.

Tickets for sale by—
MRS. LAING, Home Office or ROOM 220

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Lovely new short, puff, sleeve, sweaters, colors of the rainbow $1.19
Sporty new skirts to match $1.98
Special in our hosiery department—Allen A $1.00
Sheer chiffon hose, picot tops, special 69c
Lovely new military style, polo coats $9.95
Suits ..... $5.49 and $9.95
New creations in millinery ..... $1.95 and $2.95

The Hub Department Store
Offers best values always—Hosiery Sale this week!

JOKES

Wife: "Mother says she nearly died laughing over those jokes you told her."

Hubby: "Where is she? I'll tell her some funnier ones."

Son: "Father, did Edison make the first talking machine?"

Father: "No, son, God made the first talking machine, but Edison made the first one that could be shut off."

It is a fact that singing is extremely beneficial in certain cases of deafness, says a medical column. And vice-versa.

Mrs. DeStyle (watching models display gowns): "Which do you like the best, Robert?"

Husband: "Oh, I prefer the tall brunette—er—ah—that is, I mean the pink chiffon, my dear."

Veterinary: "The cow must take a tablespoon of this medicine twice daily."

Farmer: "But our cow has no tablespoons. She drinks out of a pail."

Most fathers think that every young fellow who comes around the house is trying to marry his daughter; most daughters are afraid he isn't.

Fortune Teller: "You are going to marry a tall dark man."

Hannah: "Can't you be more specific? All three of them are tall and dark."

About all some girls learn at college is the three "Rahs."

Dr. Wamsley: "Did you ever hear of Harrison?"

Martha: "No!"

Dr. Walmsley: "Lincoln?"

Martha: "No!"

Dr. Wamsley: "Grant?"

Martha: "Is his first name John?"

A school doesn't have to be haunted to have school spirit!

"Don't you think that Jean looks like a lovely flower tonight?"

"Yeh, like one of those century plants."

A. J.'s Prayer

"Now I lay me down to rest,
Before I take this English test.
If I should die before I wake,
I'll have no English test to take!"
Amen! Two Amens!!

Wife: "Your hat's on the wrong way, dear."

Absent-minded Professor: "How do you know which way I'm going?"

"My family sent me to a finishing school."

"Yeh, mine couldn't manage me, either."

Katherine: "Do the girls next door borrow much from you?"

Cecil: "Sure. Why I feel much more at home in their room than in my own!"

JOLLY JUNIOR JUBILEE SCORES BIG SUCCESS

Continued from page one

but the audience also. Frances Potts disclosed some real ability in working out this act using as her theme song "Wear a Hat With a Silver Lining."

Miss Iler deserves special mention as she acted as general director of all acts and made the show a success with her suggestions and aid. Alice McKay, as costume manager; Mary Gregory as business manager, and Mae Downs as advertising maanger, did outstanding work in their respective lines. Virginia Thornhill also worked hard as stage manager.

The Junior Class is to be congratulated on this excellent production especially as it was all original. The audience seemed highly pleased and one girl was heard to remark afterward, "How did the Juniors do it? They surely have the spirit," and another answered "That's just inborn patriotism." The Juniors wish to thank all those who helped to make the show a sucess by making posters, costumes, lending materials and in any other way.

The costumes for the fancy dress may be bad for the young and innocent Keydet to see and all that, but they surely give you something to talk about for two weeks afterward. —The Cadet.

New Jersey College for Women is now in the vanguard of those colleges which have abolished compulsory chapel.

"You are reading a travel book. Preparing for a holiday?"

"No, I'm on a holiday now. I sit here and dream of travel."

"But you're reading the book backwards."

"Yes, I'm on the return journey."

"Don't you ever take a vacation?"

"Nope, can't get away."

"Why? Can't the firm do without you?"

"Quite easily. That's what I don't want them to find out."

College Life—An Austin drew up in front of the dorimtory and twelve people alighted.

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

WHY WORRY?

Either you are successful or you are not successful. If you are successful there is nothing to worry about. If you are not successful, there are only two things to worry about. Your health is either good or you are sick. If your health is good there is nothing to worry about. If you are sick, there are two things to worry about. You are either going to get well or you are going to die. If you are going to get well, there is nothing to worry about. If you are going to die, there are only two things to worry about. You are either going to heaven or you are not going to heaven. If you are going to heaven, there is nothing to worry about. If you are going to the other place, you will be so busy shaking hands with old friends and acquaintances that you won't have anything to worry about.

So why worry?—Red Lion (Pa.)

S. T. C. PROFESSOR TO GIVE LECTURE

(Continued from page 1)

national artists; accompanists, Professor Eric Rath, Hollins College; Mr. George Harris, Richmond, Virginia. Arrangements are being made to use the Mosque during the convention.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM MARCH 3-9

THURS. and FRI.—CHESTER MORRIS in "CORSAIR," supported by THELMA TODD. After college—what? Do All-American football stars become bond salesmen? Here Chester Morris is called upon to face this problem. He raced to glory on the gridiron. While the cheers of thousands echoed in his ears, the money monarchs shouted "Failure!" And the words of a woman were mockery. She stripped him of his glamor; she defied him to the point where love made him lawless; a charging, ruthless raider, conquering the mighty. Yet the alluring beauty of this exotic stowaway left him powerless in the arms of love. At sea—at night—alone! It's the love story of a modern pirate who defied every law to prove his worth, and a girl who risked everything to be in the arms of her lover. Also "Tropical Ceylon Travelogue and 2-reel comedy.

Chapter 6, "BATTLING WITH BUFFALO BILL" Friday only.

SATURDAY.—"A HOUSE DIVIDED," with WALTER HUSTON, KENT DOUGLASS and HELEN CHANDLER. Here is a powerful drama of human passions in the raw. Son against father—fighting for the love of a girl—a stranger to both. A boy who wanted love, a man who wanted a mate. A girl who wanted happiness. A neat dramatic situation is contrived when a mail-order bride arrives at the home of a stern tyrant, is terrified but marries him—and then falls in love with his son. There is swift action in this picture, and briliant acting, and the awesome splendor of the stormy Pacific. One critic calls this a masterpiece of acting and directing. If you like a strong story with a happy ending, see this one. Also Mickey McGuire comedy and Fox News.

NEXT MON. and TUES.—BILLIE DOVE in "THE AGE FOR LOVE." A Howard Hughes production with a great supporting cast. Beautiful Billy Dove in an array of ravishing clothes that will take your breath away. Here was a woman who had within her grasp all that life could give—a husband, a home, contentment. Who heard the cry of modern youth for joy, freedom and jazz. Who wanted a career, and not children; a man, but not monotony. Who would escape from the drudgery of wedded bliss. A woman who was a wife but wanted to be a mistress of industry. This picture blows the lid off modern marriage. It tears at the vitals of humanity. It seethes and surges with breathless sweep and hurls acid in the eyes of old-fashioned matrimonial ideals. It's a great picture fare. See it. Also Comedy and News.

NEXT WED and THURS.—ANN HARDING in "PRESTIGE," supported by Adolphe Menjou and Melvyn Douglas. Here is a brilliant actress in an unusual story of intense drama, enacted against a colorful background of tropical jungle, native religious rites and songs and dances of Anamese tribes. It is the story of a brave and loyal wife fighting for her standards and her man in distant exile. Many men wanted her, but she sought her man through mountains and oceans separated them. A picture that will grip your interest from start to happy finish. A strong picture with love, romance, perils and intense excitement. Don't miss it.

ADDED SPECIAL ATTRACTION. —TULANE vs. UNIV. SOUTHERN CAL. FOOTBALL GAME as played New Year's day in the Rose Bowl. For the first time in screen history a complete cinematic record of a great inter-collegiate game showing in both slow and natural motion every play, with a running comment by an invisible announcer who points out the fine points of this great game. See Baker, Pinckert, Shaver, Sparling, Dalrymple, Glover, Zimmerman and Williamson in action. A double feature with no advance in price.

ADMISSION—Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees; children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

VOLLEY BALL SEASON IS SUCCESSFUL

Volley ball season has had a most successful start. Many girls have come out for practices.

The hall tournament began Thursday, February 25; the Round Robin tournament is being held—every hall plays every other hall.

There are only two more days for practice as class games will be played on Monday and Tuesday. Who will win? Come out and help your class win! Support your colors!

Southside DrugStore
Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)
LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS
ONE DAY SERVICE
Complete line Greeting Cards
Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE
Lovelace Shoe Shop
110 Third Street

Mack's
"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"
We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty
BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP
323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store
QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE
Come in and Get Acquainted
We Are Glad to Have You With Us
Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's
Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES
—and—
DRINKS
—in—
FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler
Gifts of Lasting Remembrance
317 Main Street
Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell
CLEANERS AND TAILORS
Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments
Special prices for cleaning and remodeling
Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
Phone 98

S. A. Legus
TAILORING
CLEANING
AND PRESSING
Farmville, Va.

The Kind that College Girls Prefer
Full fashioned--Pure thread
SILK HOSIERY
CHIFFON & SERVICE WEIGHT
42 Gauge—Dull finish
All sizes; all new shades
Pair 59c
BALDWIN'S
QUALITY PRICE SERVICE STORE

PLAN NOW FOR EASTER
There will be lots of dances and other social affairs that will call for both street and dress frocks
No matter what kind of dresses you will need, you will find them here. And they are priced within your reach, too.
All new Spring styles now on display.
$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88
NEW YORK DRESS STORES
FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

EXAMINATIONS BEGIN TODAY

MANY ALUMNAE RETURN FOUNDERS DAY

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1932 Number 21

Mrs. W. C. Flournoy Is Speaker of Day

"Woman As a Civilizing Force" Is Topic of Address Founders Day

Dr. J. L. Jarman presided at the evening program which was held in the auditorium at eight o'clock.

Rev. B. F. Fitzgerald, Ja., gave the invocation. Miss Irene Leake sang a solo, "Hills of Home."

The Founders Day address was delivered by Mrs. William Cabell Flournoy, a graduate of the class of 1893, an active member of the D. A. R., Colonial Dames, United Daughters of the Confederacy, and the Federated Clubs of Virginia.

Mrs. Flournoy served during two years of the World War as President of the Virginia Division U. D. C., and later as Historian of the same organization, when she awakened state wide interest in the preservation of Virginia's valuable historical material.

She has been vice-president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, and is now much in demand on club programs. She was the principal speaker at the impressive ceremonies attending the unveiling in 1928 of the Lee Highway marker erected in memory of Robert E. Lee by the United Daughters of the Confederacy of Roanoke and Salem on a plot of ground about three miles west of Salem. In 1929 she was the Memorial Day orator in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Flournoy is author of a book of historical essays, a frequent contributor to current magazines, and has been awarded a number of prizes for historical papers in both national and state contests.

She was Miss Mary Hannah Boyd, of Charlotte County, and was married in 1928 to Rev. William Cabell Flournoy of Farmville. Mr. and Mrs. Flournoy now live in Lexington, Va., where their only son, Fitzgerald Flournoy, former Rhodes Scholar at Oxford, is an associate professor in

(Continued on page 4.)

Dance Orchestra Recital Is Held In Auditorium

Those who arrived on Friday for Founders Day, as well as the student body and people of Farmville, had a rare treat in store for them in the Dance Orchestra Recital given Friday night at 8 o'clock in the auditorium.

The Dances were accompanied by the Orchestra, who also gave some special selections. A violin solo was rendered by Miss Gertrude Mannes and a cello solo by Miss Dorothy Fields. Miss Purdom is to be congratulated on the splendid performance of her orchestra.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick should be highly commended for her outstanding work with the Natural Dancing Class, and on working up such a spectacular and splendid recital.

Upon the drawing of the curtain at 8 o'clock the audience was greeted with a very picturesque minuet which was delightfully carried out by eight girls from the Junior Physical Education Class. This was followed by Ronda, played by the Orchestra.

The next number was a group of three very colorful dances. Two Ecossais and Bacchanole were beautifully given by a group from the Natural Dancing Class, portraying both grace and ease. The Dance of Vintage was rendered by Miss Connie Quarles

(Contniued on page 3)

DR. J. L. JARMAN

President of Farmville State Teachers College—Around Whom Founders Day Centered

John Powell to Give Lecture-Recital

The Woman's Club of Farmville in connection with the Folk Lore Club will present Mr. John Powell and Mr. George Harris of Richmond, in a lecture-recital on Virginia folk music. in the auditorium of the State Teachers College, on March 18. Mr. Powell will speak on Virginia's Folk Renaissance and Mr. Harris will sing a number of native and traditional Virginia folk songs. Mr. Wilfred Pyle, also of Richmond, will accompany him. This program is given in the in-

(Continued on page 5)

1932 ANNUAL GOES TO PRESS THIS WEEK

The 1932 Virginian went to press this week. From all reports it will be one of the best Annuals that has been issued by the students here. The staff expects the Annual to return from the printers about the first or second week in May. If there are any students who wish to subscribe to the Virginian this week, see a member of the staff. This week is absolutely the last chance to subscribe.

Business Session Of Alumnae Meets March 5

The annual business meeting of the Farmville Alumnae Association was called to order at 3 P. M. Founders Day, in the little auditorium by the president, Miss Carrie B. Taliaferro. A cordial welcome was extended to all, especially to the members of the reunion classes of 1892, 1902, 1912, and 1922.

After the minutes were read and approved, the detailed annual report of the Association was read and accepted. Mrs. Jeffers, acting treasurer, read the audited treasurer's report which was accepted.

Dr. Jarman made a report of the Cunningham Memorial Fund which showed a balance on hand on March 4, 1932 of $87.75. He showed interestingly how this fund had grown in a few years from $1,000 to $2,500, and stated that more than 100 students had been helped materially to complete their college work.

The most interesting part of the

(Continued on page 7)

S. T. C. Delegate Attends Conference

The Methodist Student Conference of Virginia convened at William and Mary College on March, 4, 5 and 6. Representatives from many Virginia Colleges were present. Winston Cobb went from Farmville State Teachers' College.

The Executive Committee, of which Miss Zoe Anna Davis was chairman, chose as the central idea of the Conference the topic, "What Can Men Believe?" Around this theme the following program was

Continued on page five

FARMVILLE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION ELECTION

For the next biennium Miss Marnetta Souders of Hampton was elected first vice-president; Mrs. Mary Lou Campbell Graham of Wytheville, second vice-president, and Miss Antionette Parker of Franklin, Director. The nominating committee for next year was elected as follows: Mrs. Martha King Bugg Newbill, chairman, with Miss Bessie Gordon Jones and Miss Louise Richardson.

Program Begins With "Alma Mater"

Students and Alumnae Present Gifts As Tokens of Appreciation to the School

Alumnae, members of the Administration, of the Home Department, and of the Faculty, students, and visitors joined in singing, "All Hail, Alma Mater!" as the first feature of the 48th Founders Day program was begun in the auditorium of Farmville State Teachers College on Saturday, March 5.

Following this, the student organizations presented their gifts to Dr. Jarman. The masque of comely, tripping lightly and blithely, followed by the masque of tragedy, sad and eerie, and lesser masques dancing in characteristic style, presented their masquest to Dr. Jarman as a token from the Dramatic Club.

A little girl wandering through the woods gave people what they begged for; then, having no one to play with, fell asleep. The shades of night came; the stars shone; the sun rose. She awoke to find stars that had fallen on the leaves. These she gave to Dr. Jarman from the Freshman Class.

Gayety prevailed as the curtain was drawn again to re reveal a cabaret scene. To the two best dancers was given a prize which they presented to Dr. Jarman from the Cotillion Club.

Gypsies sat around a camp fire talking about a lovely lady who was in search of a treasure, when the lady appeared, the gypsy fortune teller told her fortune and in it directed her to the treasure. This the lady presented from the seven honor societies. The little girl who did not wish to grow up sat forlornly on her stool. Peter Pan and his chorus, emanating youth, beauty and innocence danced and sang to her. To the little girl, the president of the Sophomore Class, Peter Pan gave the spirti of youth which she in turn gave to Dr. Jarman because he

(Continued on page 4)

Faculty Members Attend Meeting Of Association

Faculty members of the Farmville State Teachers College attended the largest meeting that has ever been held by District D. of the Virginia Educational Association in Petersburg on March 4.

Resolutions were proposed and adopted by the representatives of District D at the morning meeting opposing State reduction of teachers' pay upon the grounds that such an act would be unconstitutional in infringing on the local government. They also voiced their opposition of an increased assessment for retirement funds. Sound financial arrangements were urged for the educational system by the State and relief for taxpayers. Unqualified support was pledged Dr. Sidney B. Hall.

Miss Belle Webb was re-elected president of the district organization and Mrs. John B. Lancaster was elected secretary-treasurer.

An outstanding feature of the morning program was the address by Dr. John Temple Graves, Editor, Economist and Author. H. L. Sulfridge, president of the Virginia Education Association addressed the teachers.

Mrs. Edith B. Joynes, of the National Education Association made an interesting talk.

(Continued on page 4)

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

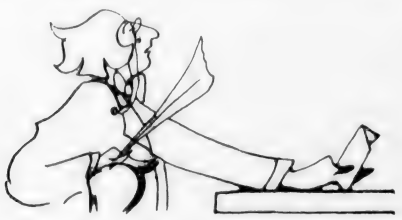
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will

Founders

So keenly on Founders Day do we feel the influence of those who have been our founders and builders that we stand with bowed heads and give thanks that these men have lived and had faith and built the college of today.

Seekers of the truth, of all that is best in life, they have taught and enabled thousands of others to strive for higher things, to see beauty and truth. Dr. Ruffner, unanimously chosen as president of the school after it was established in 1884, began with "A principal, an appropriation, a rough scheme and an old academy building"—and faith. In 1887 Dr. Cunningham carried on the wonderful work his successor had started. He "saw the school in its smal beginnings, bore the burdens and the heat of the day and toiled and died in its service." Dr. Frazer, president of the college from 1898 to 1902, during his four years saw a large increase in attendance, enlargement of the faculty, and the addition of new departments.

Dr. Joseph L. Jarman, our present president, entered upon the duties of his position in the winter of 1902 For thirty years he has given the college unexcelled service. The growth of the institution under his wise and kindly administration has been rapid and steady. Buildings have been remodeled and enlarged and built; the Training School extended; the faculty reorganized and enlarged; the course of study improved and strengthened, and the Normal changed to a College which gives a B. S. degree in Education.

To Dr. Jarman and his predecessors, loved by students and friends gone from the college and those here now, we wish to express our gratitude for making possible the present Farmville State Teachers College.

OVER THE TEACUPS

You know, Virginia, I wonder what it will be like to come back down here next year on Founders Day? Will things change so in a year? Why does this have to be our last year? How do you suppose it feels to be an Alumna? To come back and see May Day at lovely Longwood—the boxwoods, the little spring, the dell,—it's so pretty. To see the changes in the buildings—Will our room be the same in years to come? Will pretentious new buildings stare us in the face? Will the trees be here? How will it be?

This tea reminds me of the fortunes that McAllister girl used to tell last year, remember? Oh, do you know that part of my fortune came true? Yes, about the trip on which I would meet a tall blond. Isn't it funny how things flash through your mind. There's a poem I always remember about the dancing daffodils. And the poet says that oft:

"They flash upon the inward eye."

I suppose that is how it will be when we are Alumnae. Our school days here—little things that happened—of no consequence really—will flash upon that inward eye when we are teaching 2 and 2 are 4, as directing the maid as to the cleaning.

You know, I'm quite sure I'll remember some of the dances that were given last Friday night. And that precious Childhood Association presentation Saturday morning! I'll never hear the rhyme. "Four and twenty Blackbirds", without seeing those realistic blackbirds popping up in the pie. All the stunts were clever from the first to the last.

Why does the present have to come rudely pushing in? Could not the thought of exams have been put off a little longer, Virginia? The Alumnae have no exams to take. Woe is me! With English, History, Education, Art and everything.

I believe I would like a little more tea, thank you. A cake—well—maybe so. Um—m—.

Turn on the vic.
"On a day like today
We'll pass the time away."

WHAT PRICE GRADUATION

Much has been said and written about the regrets that are connected with graduation, always, of course, by those who have reached this point in their careers where they find themselves thrown on their own resources and in looking before them across the unknown future see a vast confusion of interrogation marks.

To undergraduates senior caps and gowns are marks of distinction and tangible proofs that those who wear these somber garments are entitled to privileges from which undergraduates are barred.

For thre years I sat on Saturday mornings and watched the seniors as they marched sedately down the chapel aisle to the strains of Alma Mater. My greatest ambition was to be one of them, to be one the Dean's List and to have the accompanying privilege of unlimited cuts. And then I would think of commencement. The thrills of the senior reception of class, the excitement of having those you love arrive, and then the long procession of seniors and their little sisters that files into the crowded auditorium for the conferring of degrees. How foolish it seemed for the seniors to weep so copiously when they had reached the goal toward which they had been striving.

Now the outlook has changed. To me a cap and gown are still a mark of distinction and a proof of privileges but something has been added. No longer can we leave the campus so light-heartedly in June and call to our friends, "I'll see you in September!" and no longer that feeling of security that has been ours. We are not so certain of what September will hold for us. Heretofore we have gone gaily through the summer knowing that with the fall the opening of school would come and a definite course to follow. Now responsibilities are beginning to weigh upon us. The storms of life are beginning to rise around us. How ever as we begin our sail across the mighty ocean of "unknown truth" which lies out before us may the dawn of success tint the dark sky of uncertainty and the bright moon of happiness and prosperity shed its light upon us on our own cry to the rose and gold sunset of eternity.

A. W. R. '32

DR. JARMAN'S LETTER

To Our Alumnae:

Once more Founders Day has come and gone, bringing with it a great deal of pleasure, gratification—and disappointment: pleasure and gratification in the number of "old girls" who gathered to do honor to their Alma Mater and to renew old associations, and disappointment that a great many more could not be with us. This has become, in the last few years, "our home coming day" and I sincerely hope that all of you (those who were with us this year and those who were not) will begin to plan early as to be with us next March—especially those whose classes are "3's", beginning with 1893 and representing every class up to 1933.

I do not get the opportunity of talking with you more than once a year, so I think this is a good time to tell you a little as to what your college is at present. First, we belong to the two outstanding organizations for the rating of the institutions of the country: The American Association of Teachers Colleges and The Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. So much for our standing with the public at large. Our B. S. degree leads to the highest certificate offered by the State of Virginia: the Collegiate Professional Certificate. The work we offer is of a high grade and a student can get here fine courses in practically every subject taught in a classical college, with professional training added. This work not only fits her for the teaching profession but is fine foundation for later specialization in the other fields: nursing, business, etc.

We have a number of honor organizations: at the head stands Kappa Delta Pi which, in professional colleges, is what Phi Beta Kappa is in classical colleges. In additional we have chapters of the following: Alpha Kappa Gamma, national, for leadership; Alpha Phi Sigma, national, for scholarship; Pi Gamma Mu, national, social science; Sigma Pi Rho, Latin; Beta Pi Theta, national French; and Pi Kappa Delta, national, Debating. We are very proud of our debaters who won in contests with universities, teachers colleges and classical colleges.

Despite the general impression that there is such an over-supply of teachers we have been most fortunate with our graduates of last year. Out of one hundred and twenty-one degrees we have only twenty-three that we do not know have been placed; and out of a hundred and ninety-five diploma graduates, thirty-one have not reported. It is probable that some of these have positions and have not notified us, as we frequently find through other people that a graduate is placed when we have not had this information from her.

I thought you would be interested in knowing the above facts; they give you an idea of what we are giving our girls today. If we have any of your young relatives (daughters, etc.) or your pupils and friends with us next year, Founders Day is certainly a good time for you to visit them.

With best wishes for your happiness and success,

Yours very truly,
J. L. JARMAN, President

DID YOU KNOW THAT

The school started with only three classrooms?

Every girl looked out for her own laundry?

One day of holiday was given at Christmas?

Classes were held in the reception hall?

Entrance examinations were required?

Sunday night's supper was eaten in girls' rooms?

Every girl entertained a chaperone with her engagements?

The rooms all had stoves?

Students were required to march to and from classes at which time no talking was allowed?

ON THE SPOTTSWOOD TRAIL

These things I love:
Earth newly turned, ready for planting;
White barked, skeleton-like sycamore trees;
Rail fence boundaries falling down;
Bright green grass growing out of red clay;
Jagged ragged rocks jutting out from above;
White cloud puffs like Indian signals
Slowly rising to the moutnain top.
Heavy mists that suddenly vanish
To show a road winding down into the valley;
A lone log cabin on the side of a wooded hill;
Dips in the road that make your heart turn over;
The spread of rich colors in well-defined plots,
And quick rain falling shutting it all out.

Easter Souders

MURDERER!

An old man
Known as Winter
Left his wheel chair
To stray throughout the gardens
Of Lady Springtime fair.
He gathered all the daffodils
And violets peeping there
He killed them with his icy breath
To Springtime's great despair!

PHILOSOPHY

Live for today
Since today can hold
What a thousand days
Passed by—
It may hold a thing of the humblest cost
Which shall carry you up to the skies
Or it simply may hold just one loving look
From a pair of beautiful eyes.

POEMS OF ALUMNAE

THESE THREE

To feel, though years in mystic silence pass,
That all is right;
To know that each long, speechless month but leads
Toward the light—
That, dear, is Faith.

To think with each new morn, mayhap some word
Will come today,
Yet bearing disappointment with a smile
At each delay—
That, dear, is Hope.

To trust through evil days forgiving all
That may have passed,
To hope, to trust, to know that life and strength
Will come at last—
That, dear heart, is Love.

—Jennie Masters Tabb

"GOLD" MONDAY

We were merry when the day was fair;
But when the sun had gone,
And the dawn
Came with the silver rain and misty air,
Life turned to gray,
And sad we were—
Except for her,
Who on the lovely day—
With knowing care—
Had tangled up the sun within the meshes of her hair!

—Alice Harrison, '31

Memorial To Mrs. Portia Lee Morrison Given

Many Books Ordered For This Year's Gift to the Memorial Library

In 1925, the Association of Alumnae, wishing to honor the memory of Mrs. Portia Lee Morrison, beloved Head of the Home, 1887—1904, appointed a committee to decide upon the form the memorial should take and to make plans for it. The committee, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Ratcliffe Chenery, after receiving suggestions and contributions from many of the alumnae who were in school when Mrs. Morrison was here, reported unanimously in favor of a collection of books as the most appropriate tribute because of Mrs. Morrison's love of reading and her joy in sharing the results of her reading with others. By 1931, the minimum amount decided upon as a beginning, $200, having been contributed, "a five-foot shelf" of books was presented to the library by Mrs. Mary Lou Campbell Graham, whose discriminating estimate of Mrs. Morrison's influence warmed the hearts of those of us who had known her. The collection contained works of fiction, of poetry, of biography, books of a religious nature, and translations of masterpieces in the literature of other countries, works Mrs. Morrison had read and enjoyed in the original. The committee, in making the selection, was guided by suggestions from many who had been members of the reading groups that used to meet in her sitting room, and from the college librarian who saw that unnecessary duplication was avoided.

Again on Founders Day this year, the Association of Alumnae has added another small collection of books; has set aside ten dollars to add to the Fund; and has invited alumnae and friends to make a contribution of a book or books, or of money, and to make further suggestions as to plans for the work that the library may grow into an adequate and worthy memorial of one of the builders of our college.

Among the books ordered for this year's gift, most of which are already here, are the following:

On Being Alive, Walter Bowie.

The Pilgrim's Progress, John Bunyan.

The Diary and Letters of Frances Burney, Mme. Frances Burney D'Arblay.

Letters and Memorials of Jane Welch Carlyle.

Letters of William Cowper.

Father Tabb: His Life and Work, Jennie M. Tabb (An Alumna.) Presented by the author.

Historical Essays, Mrs. William Cabell Florunoy (an alumna). Presented by the author.

Madame De Stael and the United States, R. L. Hawkins.

Novels, Stories, Sketches, James M. Barrie. II vols.

Health, Pauline Williamson (An Alumna). Presented by the author.

A Handful of Lofe, May Brinkley. Presented by the author. (an alumna).

Selections from Poems, Arthur Hugh Clough.

Poetical Works, William Cowper.

Complete Poetical Works, Henry Austin Dobson.

Complete Poems, Paul Hamilton Hayne.

Cartoons, Margaret J. Preston.

Poems, Christiana Rossetti.

Poems, Abram Joseph Ryan.

Patrician Rhymes, Clinton Scollard and Jessie Rittenhouse.

Complete Poetical Works, Sir Walter Scott .

Selected Lyrical Poems, Algernon Charles Swinburne.

Complete Poems, John Banister Tabb.

For You, Jennie Masters Tabb.

Continued on page seven

INDIAN ART STUDIED FOR USE IN MAY DAY

Art students, under the direction of Miss Virginia Bedford, are making a study of Indian art and are already at work designing and painting Indian costumes to be used in the May Day festival at Longwood. Some of these with head-dress were seen in the Choya Dance in the Dance-Orchestra Recital Friday night.

MAIN BUILDING

Main Entrance to the College—Some of the shrubs have been cut since this picture was taken.

MANY ALUMNAE RETURN FOR FOUNDERS DAY

Among the Alumnae who returned for Founders Day were:

Mrs. Ethel Cole Ould
Mrs. Beulah Finke Horn
Miss Annie Miller Almond
Mrs. Mary Gilkeson Coleman
Mrs. Rena Armstrong O'Bannion.
Miss Mary Hardy
Mrs. Fannie Hodnett Moses
Mrs. Elizabeth Crawley Johnson.
Miss Jettie Bryant
Miss Amanda Gray
Miss Lillian Todd
Mrs. Lois Leonard Shawen
Mrs. Hazel Thompson Clark
Miss G. Elizabeth Rawls
Miss Edith Goode Gills
Miss Annie Lee Barksdale
Miss Eleanor G. Currin
Miss Virginia Hanrahan
Miss Frances R. Wolfe
Mrs. Susie Pattie Brown
Mrs. Mary Boyd Flournoy
Miss Mabel Gregory
Miss Julia Wilson
Mrs. Mabel Mays Scott
Miss Lois T. Williams
Mrs. Blanche Conwell Hanbury
Miss Louise Seay
Miss Virginia Old
Miss Margaret Wetzel
Miss Marnetta Souder
Miss N. Louise Bush
Miss Elsie Wilson
Miss Gretchen Mayo
Miss Frieda Crockin
Miss Mildred Deans
Miss Elsie Clements
Mrs. Louise Hamlin Barham
Mrs. Myrtis Spain Hall
Miss Annie Gannaway
Miss Welby Saunderi
Miss Mildred Hall
Miss Elizabeth Dutton
Miss Florence Moore
Mrs. Elfreth Friend Shelburne
Miss Caroline Friend
Mrs. Johnnie Hiner Hamrick
Miss Rena Robertson
Miss Evelyn West
Mrs. Jean Boatwright Goodman
Miss Dorothy Brantley
Mrs. Mae W. Boney
Miss Margaret L. Watkins
Miss Violet Walshe
Mrs. Dorris Pillow Jordon
Miss Pauline White
Miss Audrey White
Miss Anna Louise Haley
Miss Nancy W. Hudgins
Miss Eunice Bassett
Miss Esma Shield
Miss Lucille M. Logan
Miss Louise Pruden
Miss Alice Page Adams
Miss Annie C. Pollard
Miss Mary P. Farthing
Miss Audrey Sharpe
Miss Dorothy Hudson
Mrs. Alma Harris Netherland
Mrs. Pauline Harris Richardson.
Miss Julia H. Butterworth
Miss Nellie Stevens
Mrs. Mollie Moore Bondurant
Mrs. Pearle Vaughan Childrey
Mrs. Mattie Gunn Dorin
Miss Mildred Short
Miss Dorothy Jones

(Continued on page 4)

DANCE-ORCHESTRA RECITAL IS HELD

Continued from page one

and Dorothy Leonard.

The next parting of the curtain revealed a scene of different nature; Captives by the entire class. They were accompanied by the Orchestra which played the Prelude in C sharp by Rachmaninoff. T his dance was one of Mrs. Fitzpatrick's original interpretations.

Ding Dong Bell, a most enjoyable pantomime was participated in by the entire class. Preceding the dance. Ding Dong Bell was sung by the Junior Quartette.

The Fire Dance, rendered by a group of ten girls accompanied by Miss Josephine Smith, was one of the prettiest numbers of the evening.

The curtain was next drawn on an Indian Dance, very spectacular, and beautifully carried out by the use of Indian costumes and head dress. At Sunrise, an Indian flute dance, was danced by Miss Virginia Thornhill, who was joined in the Choya Dance by Miss Martha Walters, Elizabeth Drewry, Ruth Ford, Connie Quarles, and Dorothy Leonard.

Following this was a most effective and beautiful dance, Death and the Maiden. Death was portrayed by Miss Elizabeth Drewry and the Maiden's part was taken by Miss Ruth Ford.

The entire class participated in the last two numbers, the first, the Cabin Song, a negro spiritual. The recital drew to a close with a Loyalty Dance to the Alma Mater written by Miss Virginia Potts.

The is the first Dance Recital to be given here but if it may be judged by its success and appreciative audience, there will be many more in the future.

WORD ANCESTRY A PART OF LATIN PROGRAM

The regular meeting of the Latin Club was held March 4, in Room O. After the conclusion of the business, an interesting program was given which consisted of the following numbers:

Latin—The Language of Fact—Bessie Lynch.

The Art of not Contradicting Pliny the Elder and Benjamin Franklin—Mildred Lithincum.

Word Ancestry

Paper	Carmen Clark
Culinary	Maude Rhodes
Pecuniary	Elmer Foster
Subjugate	Elizabeth Vassar
Umberella	Lelia Mattox
Reward, Cordial	Mary Gilmer
Sincere, Gossip	Joyce Sturm

The Antiquarian of Rome—Irving Staples.

Two new Latin magazines, Hodierna Aula Latina" et "Greece and Rome" were shown to the club and discussed by Lucy Fitzgerald.

At the conclusion of the program, everyone enjoyed the game of Latin Pencil Golf.

ANNUAL REPORT OF ALUMNAE ASSSOCIATION

The Association of Alumnae, Farmville State Teachers College, has had for its objectives during the past year the interesting of high school seniors in coming to Farmville after graduation, the organizing of new local chapters, the reorganizing of inactive chapters, the securing of data for the Alumnae Bulletin, the rearranging of the alumnae files by classes and by geographical location, and the making of new files for the married alumnae. These additions to the files have greatly facilitated mailing letters and papers, finding lost alumnae addresses, and furnishing information of chapter organizers.

The Directory by classes has been completed, although before publication the addresses will have to be brought up to date. This Directory made it possible to send to the members of the reunion classes (1892-1902, 1912, 1922) lists of class members and secured for us a good many corrections. The printing of this Directory has been postponed until a more prosperous time.

Four hundred of these letters were sent out in January. In the fall letters were sent to each local chapter requesting a report of its activities and the names of the officers. An invitation to the Thanksgiving Tea at Nunnally's Tea Room was included. In February 4200 letters with ballots were mailed to all the alumnae and a second letter was sent to the chapters urging them to send representatives or letters to Dr. Jarman on this Founders Day. After last Founders Day 4000 Rotundas were sent to the alumnae.

The routine work of the office has been carried on, record cards and address plates have been made for the latest graduates, and changes made as our alumnae married and moved on from place to place. We do not always know of these changes until years after they occur, but we do the best we can. The Personal Clipping Files have been added to, and have been useful this year to students who are working on a history of the College.

This office work could not have been done except for the aid and cooperation of alumnae, students and friends. Miss Ottie Craddock made all the cards for the married names, Miss Winnie Hiner made the plates. We wish to express our appreciation of the services rendered. The Alumnae Committee of the Y. W. C. A. and other students who contributed from one to ten hours are Misses Gertrude Sugden, Mary Easley Hill, Virginia Fox, Betty Shields, Mary Scott Martin, Nanny Gilbert, Frances Ratcliffe, Edith Shanks, Lena Mae Gardner, Ann Wingo, Elizabeth Hendricks, Margaret Addleman, Virginia Fultz, Kathleen Hundley, Mary B. Nelson, Lucille Crute, Maria Warren, Louise Phillips, Margaret Bell, Lola Kellam, Mary Sue Jacob, Cora Womeldorf, Mildred Shelton, Marguerite Massey, Elizabeth Walthall, Duvahl Ridgeway, Grace Rowell, Alice Rowell, Nancy Baylor, Alice Abernathy, Elizabeth Lewis, Georgianna Sinclair, Martha Sinclair, Viola Tuttle.

Continued on page five

Greetings Brought From Chapters And Alumnae

News of Interest and Messages of Cheer Sent in Founders Day

The Boykins Chapter has suffered the loss of both president and vice-president and has not quite recovered from the necessity of making a new start. However, a telegram of greetings and good wishes was received.

Culpeper organized in November so is still a young chapter, but has been quite active in holding meetings and making plans for the spring. A small delegation came Saturday, and Miss Virginia Tinsley, vice-president, delivered a check and greetings to Dr. Jarman.

A letter with dues and greetings was received from Miss Susie Reames, president of the Dinwiddie chapter.

The Farmville chapter, through the president, Miss Willie London, extended a welcome to the visitors and an invitation to use the cars of the members in going to Longwood for the luncheon. She assured Dr. Jarman that the "Stay at Home Daughters" were no less loyal and loving than those who came back to renew their allegiance, and presented a check for the Student Building Fund. She reported that two students had received assistance this year.

Mrs. Nellie Bristow Sandidge wrote, "In spite of depression we move on, happy in our effort in continuing to help one girl through school. Our chapter is well organized and regardless of conflicting obligations we meet every second Tuesday evening. The officers are: president, Mrs Nellie Bristow Sandidge; vice-president, Margaret Turpin; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Theresa Evans Craft; recording secretary, Margaret Taylor; treasurer, Virginia Hunter. There are committees on Finance, Membership and Attendance, Program and Entertainment. With our Faith in the present, our Hope in the Future and our Love for the past, we enclose this check, believing it will be of service to S. T. C."

The Peninsula Chapter, composed of Newport News, Hampton, York County, Warwick County and Williamsburg, sent a large delegation and a large check which was presented by the outgoing president, Miss Lucille Logan. The new president is Miss Marnetta Souders.

From the Petersburg Chapter came a check and note, "Our love and thoughts go out to our Alma Mater in a very special way on Founders Day."

The Portsmouth Chapter was well represented, and added greatly to the spirit of the day. The president, Miss Virginia Hanrahan, brought a generous check for the Student Building Fund, secured by a subscription card party. The aim for the rest of the year is to interest the girls of that section in attending Farmville S. T. C.

Chapter membership varies from year to year as teachers change positions or marry. This year Staunton has twelve members and hopes to add a few more. Mrs. Jonny Hiner Hamrick brought greetings and money.

Miss Eleanor McCormick, president of the Roanoke-Salem chapter sent a contribution from 33 members. We were glad to find several alumnae from those cities registered in the guest-book, among them Mrs. Beulah Finke Horn, whom we always expect to be one of our number, and Mrs. Ethel Cole Ould, president of the Senior Woman's Club of Roanoke.

The Richmond Chapter was reorganized in February with four groups each headed by a vice-president. These are: Mrs. Elise Leckie Boyle, Ginter Park; Miss Margaret Woodward, West End; Mrs. Juanita Manning Harper, Tuckahoe; Miss Caro-

(Continued on page 4)

HONORARY MEMBERS OF ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

Miss Ottie Craddock and Miss Mary Pierce were elected as honorary members of the Farmville Alumnae Association in the regular business meeting on Founders Day. The interest and untiring efforts of both Miss Craddock and Miss Pierce have made them invaluable assets to the Association. They are cordially welcomed into honorary membership.

MRS. WILLIAM CABELL FLOURNOY IS FOUNDERS DAY SPEAKER

(Continued from page 1)

the English Department at Washington and Lee University. In 1928 Dr. Flournoy was the Founders Day speaker here, taking as his theme the place of the educated Southern woman in the affairs of the modern world.

Mrs. Flournoy spoke on "Woman as a Civilizing Force." She said in part: "Feminism is asserting itself in many ways. Women own 50 per cent of the property in America, giving them equal purchasing power with men. Before this, feminism has been busy proving that women can do what men can do, such as enter professions, but they have overlooked the fact that a woman can do what man cannot do, she can civilize a society.

A civilized society is one that maintains a harmony in balance in the expression of the five fundamental instincts of mankind: workmanship, intellectual pursuits, religion, beauty, social life. To civilize a society means that when this harmony is imperfect because of overstressing of one or more of these instincts, then the civilizing force must throw its weight in favor of the unstressed instinct and restore the balance. A civilized person is one who manages the development of his instincts in just this way. Men have, of course, managed this individual development in themselves, but they have not the happy faculty of organizing and directing a collective development of this kind as women have.

American society has been sternly criticized both at home and abroad and the cause of all of these criticisms is that we have too many of these fundamental faculties unsatisfied; that we are trying to force the whole current of our being through one channel, and that channel set by one instinct, the instinct of workmanship. This is the sum of the criticisms of such writers as Mrs. Trollop, Mr. Dreiser, Sinclair Lewis, and many others.

Take music or literature. While we have a good deal of both, yet compared with continental countries we stand about eighteenth in the list. So we might go through the roster of all cultural and spiritual pursuits

The American woman is now in a position to direct these cultural and spiritual activities, and besides this, she has for the first time the same purchasing power as man.

Now, what is she doing with his tremendous power? At present it is being used irresponsibly because woman is so preoccupied with doing the things that men can do. There are many young women in this assembly who have the instinct and the capacity for leadership, and I beg of you to resolve that henceforth you will concern yourselves with exercising a higher and a far more rational idea of social usefulness, for the future of Virginia rests largely with you. And great power is now given into your hands. You can express yourself through the ballot; you can help mould public opinion by speaking and writing; you now have an equal purchasing power with man; above all, you have the power to civilize a great society by helping to bring about in your country a more harmonious balance in the expression of the five fundamental instinct of mankind.

The Choral Club sang "Gloria"-Buzzia-Peccia. The program closed with "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny," beautifully and sweetly sung by the Quartette and Choral Club.

VOLLEY BALL SEASON AT ITS HEIGHT

The volley ball Round Robin tournament ended yesterday afternoon. Every hall in school played every other hall, and the hall winning the most games was given a ribbon. Nine halls took part in the tournament, and 72 games were played in all with the following results:

Senior Building, 3rd floor, first place, 10 games.

Gym Hall, annex, second place, 9 1-2 games.

Main and Senior Building, first second and third place, games.

The class games which were to have been played last Monday and Tuesday were postponed on account of examinations and will be played

Continued on page six

MRS. W. C. FLOURNOY

The Founders Day Speaker, of the Class of '93

GREETINGS FROM CHAPTERS AND ALUMNAE

Continued from page three

lyn Watts, Forest Hill. Naturally, there has not been time to accomplish much yet, but Alma Mater was remembered with a telegram from the president, Mrs. Maria Bristow Starke.

Last summer Misses Ada Bierbower, Ottie Craddock and Georgianna Stephenson were hostesses to the Farmville alumnae attending Columbia University. Punch and cakes were served in a parlor of Whittier Hall, and about a dozen were present. All were much interested in seeing pictures of Longwood and in hearing news of Alma Mater.

At George Peabody College for Teachers, also, a reunion of Farmville alumnae was held last summer.

Members of all the reunion classes 1892, 1902, 1912, 1922, returned to Farmville to meet their classmates. The oldest class had the largest percentage of attendance, and apparently "the time of their lives."

Telegrams came from Miss Kate Trent, Ypsilante, Michigan, and Mrs. Ann Smith Green and son, Washington, D. C. Miss Catherine M. Anderson of Lynchburg, the oldest graduate, sent some interesting reminiscences that may be included in the history of the College. Letters were received from the boundaries of the United States; Miss Helen H. Thomas, Haynesville, Ala.; Mrs. Maebelle Clark Loeffer, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Sarah Horne Sutherland, of Brooklyn; Mrs. Frances Mackan Adams, Ellensburg, Wash.; Miss Carrie Sutherlin and Miss Mary McCabe, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Edith Estep Gray has registered her two-year old daughter in S. T. C.

FACULTY MEMBERS ATTEND DISTRICT MEET

Continued from page one

Following a luncheon served in the Junior Bolling High School cafeteria, the entire afternoon was devoted to group conferences among the teachers to consider individual interests and problems. In these group meetings, members of the Farmville Faculty took an active part.

At the meeting of the principals and division superintendents, Mr. C. L. Ramsay, of Farmville High School presided.

Miss Mary Nichols, of S. T. C. faculty presided at the group meeting of English teachers. The subject of this meeting was "Professional Growth for the High School English Teacher." Mrs. Stella Taylor discussed professional growth by leisure time reading. Miss Helen Barnes gave a talk on "Growth by Extensive Study of Back-ground Material. Dr. J. P. Wynne discussed "Professional Growth by aPrticipation in Curriculum Building" and led the open discussion of proposed curriculum changes in high school English.

At the Foreign Language Teachers' Meeting, Miss Helen Draper gave a talk on "Studying French at the Sorbonne."

Dr. James E. Walmsley discussed "Trends in Curriculum Construction in Social Science" at the History and Social Science Teachers' Group Meeting.

Dr. G. W. Jeffers gave a talk on the "Migration of Fishes" at the Mathmatics and Science Teachers' Meeting.

Miss Mary D. Pierce presided at the Grammar Grade Teachers' Meeting.

Misses Georgianna Stephenson and Grace Moran gave talks in the Primary Teachers' Group.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS FOR SPRING QUARTER

The main events that will take place during the spring quarter have been scheduled. The schedule is as follows:

March 18—John Powell and George Harris in a joint recital of folk music.

March 21—Singers from Hampton Institute.

March 23—Debate—S. T. C. versus Pittsburgh (here).

April 9—Spring Cotillion.

April 15—Dramatic Club Play.

April 15—16—Art Convention

May 7—May Day.

June 4-7—Commencement.

Perhaps the alumnae would like to come back to some of these, or perhaps friends or families would be interested in coming.

It is probable that other interesting events will be scheduled later.

MISS MARY WHITE COX

The Head of Home, our gracious hostess

Jenilee Knight Gives Oration At Lexington

Jenilee Knight gave in chapel Wednesday morning the oration on Washington which she will give at Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Saturday, March 12.

She has chosen as her subject, "Washington as the Exemplar of Our American Ideals."

Every college in the state is eligible to send a representative to Lexington to compete in the contest. The state winner will go to Washington, D. C. to try for national honors.

Jenilee will be accompanied by Dr. Walmsley who instigated the contest in this college.

MANY ALUMNAE RETURN FOR FOUNDERS DAY

(Continued from Page 3(

Miss Pearl Aylor
Miss Sarah Dinwiddie
Miss Virginia Tinsley
Mrs. Mildred Ragsdale Jackson
Mrs. Helen M. Steed Lashley
Mrs. Annie Burton Cox
Mrs. Louise Twelvetrees Hamlett
Miss Frances A. Cobb
Mrs. Watherine Farrar
Miss Ellen E. Babb
Miss Nancy Holt
Mrs. Elizabeth Kendrick Easley
Miss Lucille McIlhany
Miss Elizabeth Spencer
Miss Luby Williamson
Mrs. Alice L. Schenck Hubbard
Miss Martha Christian
Miss Frances Wolfe

MORNING PROGRAM OF FOUNDERS DAY CELEBRATION

Continued from page one

had kept that spirit of youth and hope.

As the curtain opened, a red and white, a green and white, and a blue and white were revealed with the president of the Athletic Association, symbolizing athletics. The president gave to Dr. Jarman the silver loving cup of the blue and white.

Into the chest of the Junior Class went many things; the Jolly Junior Jubilee, hard work, originality, class dues, and class spirit. After a tinker and knock, the workmen were able to mint money which the president of the Junior Class gave to Dr. Jarman.

Lighted candles and the blue triangle with a heart in the center were seen next. The president of the Y. W. C. A., bearing the heart, stepped through the triangle and presented it.

As the nursery rhymes, "There was a Crooked Man Who Went a Crooked Mile," "Tom, Tom the Piper's Son", "Little Miss Muffet", and "Little Jack Horner," were read, they were acted. The plum that Jack Horner found in his pie was presented from the literary societies.

A baker, sang, "Four and Twenty Blackbirds Baked in a Pie". The pie opened and real blackbirds began to sing:

Here's to Dr. Jarman
The apple of our eye
Our little contribution baked in a pie
When the pie is open we all begin to sing
Here's our little gift of love to set before our king.

This was the presentation of the Association of Childhood Education.

As the curtain was drawn on the last presentation, three seniors came in and laid aside their caps and gowns. They went aboard the ship of life. They encountered rough winds, lashing waves, but continued straight onward to their goal. At last the sun and good fortune shone upon them. The president of the senior class gave the success of the rising sun to Dr. Jarman.

Miss Carrie B. Taliaferro welcomed the alumnae back to their Alma Mater. Greetings were heard from many of the alumnae chapters.

Dr. Jarman expressed his appreciation of the gifts presented and the spirit which prompted them.

The morning program closed with "Onward Farmville".

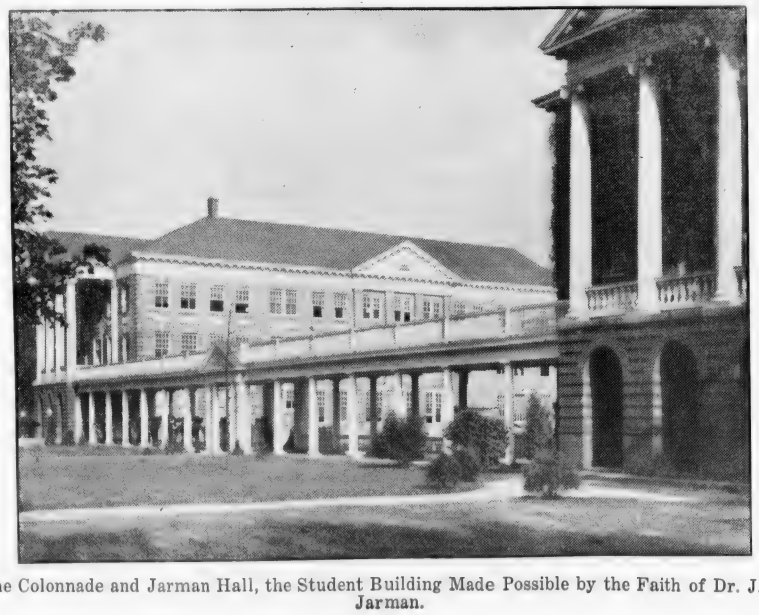
NEWS OF OTHER COLLEGES

We do not agree!

At Carnegie Tech it was agreed, more or less because of the "Depression"—or other reasons that corsages would not be given to the girls at a recent formal. A little "griping" is being done because one group went ahead and did send flowers, making everybody else look like a lot of "dubs."

Swimming, a Major

With the completion of another swimming season sport fans are wondering when Washington and Lee, the school that took a leading role in making boxing and wrestling major sports in the South, will elevate swimming to a major sport. It seems entirely fitting, after looking over the record of the swimmers in the past—Ring-tum Phi.



"Extry, Extry"

"The capture of a germ believed to cause infantile paralysis—was recently reported by the American Association for the Advancement of Science."—Skull and Bones.

The Virginia Tech supposes he will be tried, then hung, drawn and quartered.

Freshman rules, like the stripes on a barber's pole, keep on coming. Here's another one: "First year men at the University of Florida must enter all classes through the windows." We suppose it is so "lovely and warm" there, that they can keep the windows open. As for us, come in and please shut the door.

THE COLONNADE AND JARMAN HALL

The Colonnade and Jarman Hall, the Student Building Made Possible by the Faith of Dr. J. L. Jarman.

SOCIALS

Jerry Lee and Margaret Barker were in Lynchburg Sunday.

Winston Cobb attended the Methodist Student Conference at William and Mary this week-end.

Sara Hubard spent Friday in Buckingham.

Margaret Hunter was in Evergreen this week-end.

Jo Congdon and Hazel Halloway were in Petersburg this week-end.

Dot Waynick spent the week-end in Roanoke.

Marietta Wilson spent Sunday in Boydton.

WEDDINGS

Following is a list of alumnae who have "changed their names" since last Founder's Day:

Isabel Allen—Mrs. T. C. Ligon, of Lynchburg.

Miss Belle Ashburn—Mrs. Richard Brewer, of Suffolk.

Alice Lee Bowden—Mrs. Aubrey Lillaston, of Norfolk.

Henrietta Binford—Mrs. A. S. Thompson, of Hopewell.

Elizabeth Bugg—Mrs. C. M. Hughes, of Kingsport, Tenn.

Celeste Bennett—Mrs. T. C. Williams, of Chester.

Mary Brightwell—Mrs. Willard Ligon, of Pittsburg, Pa.

Katherine Boone—Mrs. Herman Hurst, of Pulaski.

Virginia Burks—Mrs. R. M. Pearman, of Bedford.

Margaret Bryant—Mrs. Joseph J. Jones, of Franklin.

Ruth Boykins—Mrs. J. Randolph Smith, of Martinsville.

Doris Brauer—Mrs. Charles B. Mann, of Richmond.

Adelia E. Barrow—Mrs. James H. Clark, of Wakefield.

Isabel Crowder—Mrs. S. K. Callendar, of Rockingham.

Agnes Elizabeth Cocks — Mrs. Stanley W. Knapp, of Hopewell.

Elizabeth Tuning Casey — Mrs. Robert Riggs, of Hopewell.

Bessie Louise Cooke—Mrs. E. E. Thomas, of Prospect.

Marion D. Chewning—Mrs. Darrell Saunders, of Norfolk.

Margaret Crawley—Mrs. Julian Holland, of Eastville.

Florence Cralle—Mrs. Walter Herman Bell of Hampden-Sydney.

Frances Fix—Mrs. Euclid Neal, of Staunton.

Mary Venable Forbes—Mrs. William E. Sparger, of Charlottesville.

Alice Cabell Gannaway—Mrs. Walter L. Giles, of New York City.

Frieda Goetz—Mrs. Claude S. Womack, of Simplicity.

Elsa Gudheim—Mrs. Orville Neal, of Blackstone.

Mary B. Gray—Mrs. Roland Foster, of Cartersville.

Marion Gary—Mrs. William R. Hemingway, of Norfolk.

Madeline Gary—Mrs. Wm. Harvey Brown, of Suffolk.

Lucille E. Geoghegan—Mrs. J. Edward Zollinger, of Houston, Texas.

Elva Gray Humphries—Mrs. L. P. Parrot, of Painter.

Helen Hobson—Mrs. Walter Clark, of Dendron.

Cornelia Hanger—Mrs. E. H. Irby, of Farmville.

Laura Logan Hurt—Mrs. T. L. Elmore, of Blackstone.

Janice Harper—Mrs. W. H. Newcomb, of Charlottesville.

Otey Helm—Mrs. Leonard C. Grubbs, of Roanoke.

Miss Mary G. Jackson—Mrs. Wallace Gould, of Farmville.

Gilberta Knight—Mrs. W. M. Davis, of Mullins, S. C.

Margaret Elizabeth Mackasay—Mrs. G. H. Barker of ePtersburg.

Veta Martin—Mrs. George Key, of Clifton Forge.

Agnes Meredith—Mrs. Kenneth Lee Lowry, of Winchester, Ky.

Annie V. Morris—Mrs. James Curtis Lindsay, of Jetersville.

Thelma Marguerite Marshall—Mrs. Jack M. Overby, Blackstone.

Loulie V. Millner—Mrs. Alex Mosby, of Lynchburg.

Frances Newman—Mrs. Kenneth Wallace, of Richmond.

Alice Mae Presson—Mrs. Field White Cobb, of Washington, D. C.

Mary G. Pettitt—Mrs. Edward Rhodes Carpenter, of Roseland.

Mary Ritchie Rice—Mrs. Ralph D. Feagin, of Batesville, Ark.

Elizabeth Mae Rucks—Mrs. Andrew Jackson Lucas, of Crewe.

Alice Lee Schenk—Mrs. T. A. Hubbard, of Farmville.

Frances CochranSale—Mrs. Royster Lyle, of Farmville, N. C.

Katherine Schroeder—Mrs. George E. Morris, of Washington, D. C.

Anne F. Smith—Mrs. James Francis Greene, of Washington, D. C.

Annie Lisle Tucker—Mrs. B. H. Hamlett, of South Hill.

Mary F. Taliaferro—Mrs. John M. Steck, Jr., of Winchester.

Lucy Pearl Thomasson—Mrs. Raymond Bouseman, of Martinsville.

Alice Wiley—Mrs. John M. Brown, of Fort Bennings, Ga.

Anne Withers—Mrs. T. S. Goodridge, of Danville.

Erma West—Mrs. O. O. Atto, of Shipman.

Spottswood Wimbish—Mrs. Henry Carter Chesley, of Richmond.

Hattie Walton—Mrs. Otis Geddy, of Danville.

Susie Belle Webber—Mrs. G. C. Ligon, of Baltimore, Md.

Julia Yancey—Mrs. F. C. Alderman, Jr., of Fort Myers, Florida.

LONGWOOD

The Scene of the Alumnae Luncheon—the Recreation Center.

ZETA TAU ALPHA HAS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority voted, at the Eleventh National Convention held in Ontario, Canada, in 1928, to establish at the State Teachers College, Farmville, Va., a memorial in honor of the first Grand President. Maude Jones Horner. It was voted "To give for six years, or until the Convention should decide otherwise, $100.00 a year from the Scholarship Loan Fund to a student at Farmville; the money not to be repaid unless the recipient so desired." The only suggestion attached to this gift was that, whenever possible, preference should be given to a student from Buckingham County, the county in which Maude Jones Horner lived. This scholarship has been used since the fall of 1929 by Frances Barrell, the daughter of Maude Jones Horner's last pastor.

Besides this scholarship, the Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority has educated one hundred and fifty girls through its Scholarship Loan Fund, and has established an Endowment Fund called "The Dr. May Agness Hopkins Fund' 'in the University of Texas, where graduate students use the same to further their work.

In 1928 a plan was presented and dedicated to "Our Founders," all of whom are graduates of Farmville State Teachers College. This plan has taken the form of welfare work in the mountains of Virginia, in Currin Valley, Smythe County, near Marion. Here is found a trained nurse, and clinics are held regularly, all expenses being paid by the Sorority.

Thus it is seen that a Sorority can demonstrate, in increasing degree, a desire to be of real service to all whom it can reach and to be a power for good in whatever community it may be found.

Farmville S. T. C. appreciates the beautiful way in which honor is being paid her daughters and the valuable service that is being rendered to their Alma Mater.

ALUMNAE LUNCHEON AT LONGWOOD

Historic Longwood on Saturday, March 5, was the scene of a happy gathering when alumnae, faculty and friends met for the annual alumnae luncheon, and were received by Dr. Jarman, Miss Mary White Cox, Mrs. T. G. Hardy, Miss C. B. Taliaferro and Miss Willie London. Special guests of the Association of Alumnae were Mrs. William Cabell Flournoy, Founders Day speaker, Judge Rose McDonald, member of the State Board of Education, Miss Henrietta Cornwell, president of the Senior Class, and Miss Martha Kello, president of the Sophomore Class.

College students served the delicious plate luncheon to the guests who were grouped in the spacious flower-bedecked rooms and halls, exchanging reminiscences with old friends and making new acquaintances from a different college generation.

Those who were making their first visit to Longwood were shown the open-air amphitheatre, where the May Day pageant will be staged, and the old flower garden site with its quantities of boxwood, its rows of mimosa trees and the sun-dial placed there by the Longwood Garden Club of Farmville in memory of Mrs. Jarman.

The Farmville Alumnae Chapter, always thoughtful and hospitable, arranged for the transportation to Longwood of the vistors who did not come in cars. There were altogether ninety-seven in attendance.

SUGGESTIONS FOR TEACHERS WORKING FOR HIGHER CERTIFICATE

This is a time when many teachers are working towards higher certificates by taking extension and summer courses. For them, the Committee on Advanced Credits has some advice and some suggestions. Those who already possess the B. S. degree are not concerned except to pass the message on to others who may not receive this issue of the Rotunda.

First and most important, if the work done is to be credited at Farmville towards a diploma or degree, the courses should be approved by the Committee in advance otherwise an unwise selection may be made from the standpoint of our requirements.

Again, some do not know that a year of residence beyond the diploma is required for the degree, and therefore accumulate an unnecessarily large number of credits before applying for evaluation of them.

Present requirements must be fulfilled, therefore, if a former student has been away from the College for several years, she can not very well check her needs by the course she was taking when here.

A limited amount of extension credits will be accepted, therefore it is necessary to keep in touch with the Committee for that reason.

S. T. C. REPRESENTATIVE ATTENDS CONFERENCE

Continued from page one

arranged:

Friday, March 4th

4:00-6:00 Registration at Methodist Church.
7:00 Banquet in Social Holl.
8:15 Devotion, Mrs. T. J. Hawkins.
8:30 Address: "Clash of World Opinion," Dr. J. B. Matthews.
Open Forum.

Saturday, March 5th

8:00 Breakfast.
9:00 Devotion, Mr. Carl H. King.
9:15 Address: "Strictly of Moral Values," Mr. John Knox.
Open Forum.
10:30 Discussion Groups.
11:30 Recess.
12:30 Lunch.
1:30 Discussion Groups.
2:30 - 5:00 Tour of Historical Points of Interest.
6:00 Dinner.
7:15 Devotion, Miss Winston Cobb.
7:30 Address: "The Student's Relation to the Church," Dr. J. M. Culbreth.
Open Forum.
9:00 Reception at Bism Hall.
10:00 Committee Meeting.

Sunday, March 6th

8:30 Breakfast.
9:30 Devotion, Dr. J. M. Culbreth.
9:45 - 10:30 Discussion Groups.
10:30 - 11:00 Business Meeting.
11:00 Closing Address: "Life's Greatest Realty," Mr. John Knox.
12:330 Lunch.

The discussion groups were conducted by Mr. John Knox, Drs. D. J. Blocker, J. M. Culbreth, W. A. Wright and Rev. H. E. Cromer. Delegates were given the privilege of attending either group they wished.

Those who were present at the Conference felt that much was accomplished toward a realization of the necessity of taking definite steps toward interesting Methodist student in the church and its work. Plans are already being made for the conference that is to be held next year. Further announcements concerning it will be made.

DEATHS

We regret that we have lost the following alumnae in the past year:

Marjorie Bonifant, '28, died in May, 1931.

Kate Hunt, '88, died November 10, at Bristol, Tenn.

Mrs. Alice Lemon Lockridge, '13, died January 11.

Mrs. Ruth Richardson Pugh, died May 14.

Mr. Walter H. Robertson

In the death on October 18, 1931, of Mr. Walter H. Robertson, of Norfolk, the students of Farmville State Teachers College have lost a beneficent and sincere friend. He was "one who loved his fellow-men" and proved it by his deeds. Besides supporting a missionary in China for fifteen years and one in Brazil, he defrayed the expenses of a number of students in our college by gifts or loans. This was done in most cases anonymously as far as the student was concerend, terest of the effort now being made throughout the state to show Virginians the value and beauty of their own folk lore and to foster the use of it in developing a native Virginia music and art. Mr. Powell is a leader in this movement. He is Virginia's greatest musician, one of the greatest living pianists, and an authority on folk music, especially that of his native state. This occasion offers a rare treat both to hear an inspiring and instructive lecture and to enjoy a very unusual program of beautiful native songs ably interpreted. The proceeds will be used for the benfit of the Southside Community Hospital.

Continued on page seven

JOHN POWELL TO GIVE LECTURE-RECITAL HERE

Continued from page one

The Folk Lore Club expects this recital to arouse a great deal of interest in the college in the study and collecting of folk materials. It offers to present to each of the twenty-five students who hand in the best twenty-five items of genuine first-hand folk lore by March 18, a free admission to the recital. One or more of any of the following items will be acceptable and may entitle the collector to a ticket:

1.—A Virginia folk song, ballad, chantey, or work song, words and music;

2.—A Virginia folk dance, play, or game, with the tune, calls, words, directions or sets;

3.—A group of Virginia folk tales, legends, etc;

4.—A collection of Virginia folk sayings, superstitions, charms, prayers, riddles, signs, cures, beliefs, etc.

These items should come not from books, phonograph records, or publications, but from real, live, oral, folk sources—something that is heard, not read, learned by ear and passed on from one person to another. The collector, that is the one handing in the items, must give her own name, where, when, and from whom the item was learned or secured, the locality in which it is popular or in use and under what circumstances, with any additional items, notes, comparisons, etc., in short as complete information about it as possible. Any one who knows only part of a song, or just the words or only the tune should hand in as much as can be recovered, for often a fragment may prove as valuable as a complete item and should be preserved.

The members of the Music Department will be glad to help any student who may know folk tunes but can't write them out. The English Department will help to get songs and stories in shape and the Physical Education Department will help with the games and dances. All of the students are invited to enter upon this enterprise and help the Folk Lore Club find and preserve as much as it can of Virginia's vanishing but precious heritage of folk lore.

ANNUAL REPORT OF ASSOCIATION GIVEN

Continued from page three

The Thanksgiving Tea, under the management of Mrs. Maria Bristow Starke, Mrs. Eva Rutrough Bagley, Mrs. Juanita Harper Manning, and Mrs. Minnie Taylor Bentley was the usual pleasant social gathering. Dr. Jarman and Miss Taliaferro welcomed the alumnae guests.

One meeting of the Executive Board was held. Mrs. Anne Meredith Jeffers was appointed assistant to the Alumnae Secretary, her duties being those of Treasurer. A report of the year's work was made and plans for Founders Day discussed.

During the year a new chapter was organized in Culpeper, one reorganized in Richmond and one in Portsmouth, and interest expressed in the chapter work in Norfolk, Norfolk County, Danville and Orange.

Every week the Alumnae Editor of the Rotunda, Miss Virginia Potts has given to the paper about half a column of alumnae news.

Several new books have been added to the Morrison Memorial Library, including some by alumnae.

Money has been contributed by the Association to the Morrison Memorial Fund and to the Cunningham Memorial Fund.

MARY NICHOLS, Secretary

Saturday Marks End of Year Of Events

Founders Day, March 5, 1932, marks the end of another year of interesting year of events.

Debating activities at State Teachers College since last Founders Day have been especially creditable, the local debaters winning the province debating contest of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic fraternity. Those winning the province elimination contest were Misses Margaret Hix, and Carrie DeShazo.

Debate contests scheduled for this year are: March 23: University of Pittsburg; Apr. 8 (dual debate) East Radford State Teachers College; and April 11: Waynesburg College. Those composing the teams are Misses Margaret Hix, Carrie DeShazo, Margaret DeShazo, and Martha Gunter.

Not in many years has there been such a demonstration of interest and enthusiasm as that which attended the Junior Festival of Music here last spring. In this festival, high schools from all of Southside Virginia took a part. It was held in the new amphitheatre at Longwood and broadcasted. The interest aroused in music has been fostered here and in the high schools throughout Southside Virginia.

The Pi Zeta Chapter of Beta Pi Theta, national French fraternity, which was founded in May, 1929, was awarded the silver loving cup last year in the Efficiency Contest conducted by the National Organization. Every year a loving cup, the gift of the L. G. Balfour Company, is presented to the chapter judged to have functioned most efficiently from May 1 to May 1. This cup was presented at commencement last June.

Since last Founders Day, many of the faculty have gone further into the educational world and have come home with a higher degree. One member of the faculty, Dr. Simkins, has been recently awarded with the John H. Dunning Prize for 1931 by the American Historical Association. This prize is given for the contribution of some great work to American history.

The following members of our faculty have received degrees or have worked on their degrees:

Miss Barnes did graduate work for two years at the University of Virginia.

Miss Bedford got her M. A. from Columbia.

Miss Bierbower received her M. A. from Columbia this spring and was also elected to membership in Kappa Delta Pi.

Miss Cooper took her M. A. last summer from Emory University.

Miss Iler took her B. S. from this college last summer.

Miss Peck took her M. A. at the University of Virginia last summer.

Miss Stephenson received her M. A from Columbia this spring. Both Miss Stephenson and Miss Bierbower were on leave of absence the first two terms of this year.

Miss Waters took her M. A. degree from Peabody.

Miss Wheeler got her M. A. from Columbia.

COLLEGE SONG

There is in old Virginia a place we love to be
Where Appomattox River flows far inland from the sea
Where the little town of Farmville lies, encircled by its hills
Its leafy lanes all rose perfumed, its voice the songbird trills.

Refrain:

Oh, the college fair, the college dear the college best sing we,
In Farmville town the hills among the place we love to be.
There it stands in green embowered, its columns pure and white,
In the praise of Alma Mater shall her daughters all unite.

We toast the college student today and yesterday,
Our place is at the forefront and 'tis we shall lead the way,
From the mountains of Virginia down to the far blue sea,
The college daughters shall be one in faith and loyalty.

—Fannie Littleton Kline

JOAN OF ARC

The Spirit of Joan of Arc is the Spirit of State Teachers College

SECOND "TRIBUTUM" DEDICATED TO HORACE

The second issue of the Latin Club magazine, "Tributum," issued during the winter quarter is dedicated to Horace, "the most human of mortals, friend of my friends, and of many generations of men."

The magazine contains:

A translation by Gay Richardson of "The Fountain at Bandusia."

An editorial on "The Appeal of Horace" by Lois Cox.

An intensive study of "The Personality of Horace" by Alice Harrison, an alumna.

"The Tributum," started by the Latin Club several years ago, though a small magazine, has proved a very worthy one. Its contributors are the members of Sodalitas Latina, the Latin Club, and the members of Sigma Pi Rho, local Latin honorary fraternity.

The staff for this year is as follows:

Editor-in-Chief ..... Lois Cox
Assistant ..... Josephine Wooding
Literary Editor ..... Margaret Jack
Business Mgr. ..... Irvin Staples
Assistant ..... Edith Shanks
Typist ..... Nell Dickinson

ALMA MATER

All hail, Alma Mater! Dear Mother, to thee,
Thy daughters, true, faithful and loyal will be;
Thy gentle instruction, thy influence so sweet,
Will go with them always—a guide to their feet.
Thy loving protection, thy nurturing care,
Would lead them to cherish things lovely and fair.

All hail, Alma Mater! Dear Mother to thee,
Thy daughters, true, faithful and loyal will be.

Thy halls and arcade with their calm, classic air,
Thy campus with blossoms perennially fair,
Thy trees and thy fountain, thy vine-covered walls
Will live in their memory whatever befalls.
Though far from thy care and protection they roam,
They still hold thee dear as a well beloved home.

All hail, Alma Mater! Dear Mother to thee,
Thy daughters, true, faithful and loyal will be.

—Jennie Masters Tabb, '93

Spirit of Joan Of Arc Is Spirit of the College

The spirit of our college is symbolized by the spirit of Joan of Arc. Joan is the patron saint of France. who saved her country from destruction. The statue of Joan sits in the Rotunda of our main building, and on the colonnade always before the eyes of the students. Here is the story of her courage and sacrifice:

France was on the point of collapse. Charles VII. was king, and nearly all of the towns and palaces had been captured by the English. It was in 1428, and the army had failed, but the country was saved by a maiden of the peasant class.

Joan of Arc was born in 1412 in Domremy in Lorraine, of very poor parents. As a child she was very pious and went to church. She prayed while she was in the fields watching her sheep. One day she was praying over the lamentable condition of France when she heard a noise in a bush nearby. She raised her eyes, and there appeared in the sky the image of Ste. Marguerite, Ste. Catherine and St. Michael. They said to her, " Joan, go to deliver France". Joan was afraid. But the images appeared the following day and said, "Joan do not hesitate. Go to deliver Orleans." Joan hesitated no longer.

When she arrived at the court of Charles she addressed the king with these words, "God has sent me to deliver Orleans. Give me the soldiers for it is the will of God." Because he was desperate, the king consented, and Joan departed with the soldiers who inspired by her courage followed her to Orleans.

Imagine the surprise of the English when a young girl appeared in command of the French. She did not hesitate but ordered a charge, and then another until the English retreated. This mission accomplished, Joan wished to chase the English outside of France. Unfortunately she was taken prisoner at Paris, and was condemned by the English to be burned at the stake. When informed of this Joan said, "What I have done was done by the will of God." The English were shocked, and they said, "We are lost, for we have burned a saint." After her death the English were defeated and driven from France.

This is the story of the brave girl who gave her life for her country. The girl who was appointed by God and equipped with the armor of bravery, courage and piousness to be the ideal of her people. Just as she stood for those ideals of the French people so she stands today in the hearts of every student in our State Teachers College. Bravery, courage and piousness are the symbols which prevail in Farmville through the statue of her patron saint, Joan of Arc.

In 1922 First Regular Founders Day Observed

It was ten years ago that a regular Founders Day was first observed here. Before then, the day of the founding of the school had been observed in various other ways.

March 7, 1922 seems to have had a program similar to the program of March 5, 1932.

"The rising bell sounded through the halls at 6:45 on Tuesday, March 7, 1932, announcing that Normal School Day had begun. An early beginning was necessary to crowd in one day the love and loyalty that has been growing since March 7, 1884."

The morning program consisted of the reading of four papers on the administrations of the first four presidents and gave the history of the school since 1884. Between the reading of these papers one act scenes were staged in which diaries and memory books of the different periods of school life were read and "annual scenes" were acted. During the morning program the songs of the school were sung.

The afternoon program began at 2:30 and was presented by the six literary societies. The last of the afternoon exercises was a ball game of the Third Professionals versus the faculty.

The evening and concluding program of the day began at 8:30. "A particularly interesting feature of the evening program was that of screen pictures of different periods in the history of the school." Dr. Jarman made the address of the evening which he entitled "A Rambling Talk." In it he said that the spirit, "cooperation", had made the school possible in the past and would continue to do so through the future.

VOLLEY BALL

Continued from page four

on Thursday and Friday, March 17 and 18. All four classes have good teams, and a real fight for the colors between the red and white and green and white is anticipated. Ruth Wright is manager of volley ball and Elizabeth Wheeler is assistant. They have both been working hard. It is partly due to their efforts that so much interest has been shown in volley ball. The student body and faculty are invited to attend the games and enjoy the fun with the players.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT FOUR PRESIDENTS

There are many facts about the four presidents of the school that are interesting.

Dr. Ruffner, the first president, was at one time chaplain at the University of Virginia, and later became pastor of the Seventh Presbyterian church in Philadelphia. On account of broken health, he withdrew from the ministry and resorted to farm life in hope of regaining his strength.

He wrote much on educational and agricultural subjects and at one time was editor of the Virginia School Journal.

In 1870 when there was a great discussion about public education, Dr. Ruffner debated with Dr. Dabney of Hampden-Sydney on the subject. Dr. Ruffner believed in popular education; Dr. Dabney believed in education for the aristocrats rather than the masses. Dr. Ruffner won the debate.

In 1870 when the legislature passed the law for public education in Virginia, Dr. Ruffner was made the first superintendent of the public school system in Virginia.

In a "Letter to the Farmville Division of the State Normal Alumnae Association" we find this characteristic of Dr. Cunningham:

"Those teachers who came from under his guiding hand have realized as the years have gone, the wonder of his influence. They have seen ideas he gave them, then but little emphasized by others, now the foundation of many tests, the accepted creed of the pedagogical world; and they have known that it was given them in those years to sit at the feet of a great teacher."

Dr. Frazer was destined by his father's plans to become a lawyer but felt that his duty was in the field of teaching.

His work in the educational field was characterized by earnestness and zeal and conscientious devotion to his convictions of duty. When he resigned the presidency of Farmville State Normal School he became Field Agent of the General Education Board.

Dr. Joseph L. Jarman, fourth president was born in Charlottesville, Va. For twelve years he was Natural Science Professor at Emory and Henry College.

He came to Farmville thirty years ago this winter. Notwithstanding the many duties of the presidency of a college, he has been a most potent factor in education in the state of Virginia. He has held numbers of offices in the educational field of Virginia. He was for eight years a most active and influential member of the State Board of Education. During the World War he was actively engaged in patriotic work. In 1930 he was offered the position of State Superintendent of Public Schools which he declined in order that he might continue his work here.

Have You Seen Them?

WHAT?

The new Dundee Mocassins. They are hand made and the ritziest people everywhere are buying them for sportwear. The price is $3.45 and $3.97.

You simply must see our lovely new spring suits and coats—$5.45, $9.45 and $14.45.

Lovely new sweaters! Short sleeves! 98c skirts to match $1.97.

Come in and see the chic, sparkling new corn dot dresses.

DOROTHY MAY STORES

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

ALUMNAE BUSINESS MEETING IS HELD

Continued from page one

meeting was Dr. Jarman's talk to the alumnae. His theme was a testing of the strength of the school in terms of the interest and strength of its alumnae. The Teachers College field, he stated, was especially fertile for organized alumnae support. To the extent that alumnae participate in interesting and working with the state interests and government to that extent would the college needs be felt and met. Dr. Jarman congratulated those who are members of active chapters and urged a maintenance of activity based upon definite chapter goals. He outlined three very definite goals and suggested others to be set as best filled the local conditions.

Definite chapter goals were outlined, as follows: a loan fund for students as illustrated by the Cunningham Memorial Fund, Student Building debt removal which needs definite concerted action, and the sending of a local girl to Farmville to college as has proved very successful in three local chapters in the past.

Dr. Jarman closed his talk with a statement of the high mission of a teachers college as such; a mission which is two-fold in being both cultural and professional. He stated that he reviewed with pride the service rendered by Farmville in its forty-eight years of gradual and solid growth. While Dr. Jarman stated that he did not want to see a college with such a mission limit itself to cultural education exclusively, he favored the site of Fredericksburg for the liberal arts college for women in Virginia and extended to the college his heartiest wishes for success.

Dr. Jarman closed his remarks with a word of appreciation for the splendid alumnae spirit and made his closing remark: "We appreciate you."

Mrs Boyd Coyner made the following report for the Morrison Memorial Fund

March 11, 1931, balance	$248.15
May 1, 1931, for books	$22.04
June 1, 1931, interest	4.40
Dec. 1, 1931, interest	4.60
March 5, 1932, deposited	10.00
March 5, 1932 for books	14.56
March 5, 1932, balance	230.55
	$267.15 267.15

This report was accepted and the president asked for suggestions for books to be bought and invited the alumnae to see the books in the alumnae office, awaiting transfer to the Portia Lee Morrison Memorial Alcove of the library.

Miss Coulling showed two drawings made as suggestions for the book plate for the Morrison Memorial Library books. She welcomed suggestions to aid in the completion of the work.

Miss Taliaferro read the list of honorary members of the Association, as follows: Dr. Jarman, Mrs. Jamison, Miss Coulling, Miss Smithey, Miss Rice, Miss Lila London, Mr. Grainger, Miss Fannie Dunn, Mr. George Jefferson, Mr. Cox, and Mrs. Portia Morrison. Upon recommendation of alumnae with approval of the Executive Board, Miss Ottie Craddock and Miss Mary Pierce were elected as honorary members.

Miss Pauline Camper as chairman of the nominating committee reported the result of the election, as follows:

1st Vice-President, ...
Miss Marnetta Souder
2nd Vice-President—
Mrs Mary L. Campbell Graham
Director ..... Miss Antoinette Parker
Nominating Committee:
Mrs. Martha K Bugg Newbill
Miss Bessie Gordon Jones
Miss Louise Richardson

The program for the evening dinner and address were read again, and the alumnae were invited to attend a varsity class team game in the gym after the meeting. The Y. W. C. A. alumnae committee offered its services to conduct the alumnae over the building.

As this concluded the business, the meeting was adjourned until 1933.

Respectfuly submitted,

MARY NICHOLS, Secretary

SEVEN HONOR SOCIETIES NOW IN THE COLLEGE

One way in which the College has broadened in the past few years is in the installation of honor societies.

There are seven honor societies on the campus:

Kappa Delta Pi recognizes scholarship, leadership and service with especial weight of scholastic standing. As their project for the year, the members are beginning a history of the school dating back to prenormal school days. It is being written so that it may be converted into a pageant on the 50th anniversary of the college. Kappa Delta Pi is analogous to Phi Beta Kappa in a liberal arts college.

Alpha Kappa Gamma (Joan Circlre) also recognizes leadership, and members are selected on the basis of contributions to the school with high scholastic average as a requisite. Joan of Arc, their patron saint, is considered by them as a leader in action. Ellen Glasgow well known novelist, is an honorary member.

Pi Gamma Mu—Virginia Gamma Chapter, is an honor society for social science. Members are elected according to interest in social science—history, sociology, geography and some courses in education. A certain amount of work in these departments is required with high average. The project being undertaken is a revisal of the local ritual to be standardized and used as a national ritual.

Alpha Phi Sigma recognizes scholarship, and is the only honor society on campus open to underclassmen as well as upperclassmen. Valedictorians and salutatorians of high schools automatically become affiliated. There are three divisions, namely, novice, apprentice and masters, the latter being the highest.

Beta Pi Theta is an honor society for scholarship in French.

Sigma Pi Rho recognizes scholarship in Latin.

Pi Kappa Delta, a forensic society furthers debating and oratory.

THE PORTIA LEE MORRISON MEMORIAL

Continued from page three

Presented by the author.
Poems, John Reuben Thompson.
Poems, Francis O. Ticknor.
Zodiac Town, Nancy Byrd Turner.
Leaves of Grass, Walt Whitman.

GAME

A very interesting game of basketball was witnessed by the students and vistors on Founders Day when the red and white members of the varsity defeated the green and white members of the varsity by a score of 25-13. The game was fast, hard fought, and interesting all the way through. Even though the red and whites did win it was only after a real fight for the green and whites offered them some strong opposition.

The green and whites made the first goal and sounds of cheer arose from the balcony, tI was not long however, before the red and whites made one, then another and another. From that time on they stayed in the lead. Several changes and substitutions were made by the green and whites but they were unable to gain on their opponents. Good playing and sportsmanship was displayed by all.

Miss Iler is to be congratulated on the excellent work that she has done this year.

The line-up was as follows:

Red and White		Green and White
Fraser	F.	Snedegar
Parker	F.	Bosworth
Quisenberry	S.C.	Philips
Edwards	SC.	Potts
Burger	G.	Beck
Souders	G.	Gunter

Substitutes: Green and White—Hurt, Putney and Ridgway.

Officials: Iler, referee; Ross, umpire.

Three coeds at William and Mary have writen a letter to the "Flat Hat" a college newspaper, in which they state that the food in the dining hall does not agre ewith them, and that although it might pass he inspection of the board of health, it will result in undernourishment, bad complexions, and general rundown condition of the girls.

Dr. Fields: "Have you ever run a temperature?"

Hildegarde: "No, but I've driven nearly ever other kind of car."

JUNIORS LEAD PRAYERS

Prayers were conducted during the past week by members of the Junior Class. The president of the class, Margaret Gathright, gave a very inspiring talk on "Music and How It May Cheer Our Lives." Lucille Ingram had as her topic, "Live Each Day as If It Were Your Last." These services were interesting as well as beneficial.

DEATHS

Continued from page five

the payments being made through the treasurer of the College or of the Normal League. Thus he has merited the commendation, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

KAPPA DELTA PI SUPPER

An entertaining program was presented to the members of Kappa Delta Pi by the new members of the chapter during a supper in the tea room Tuesday night. After formal initiation in the Y. W. C. A. social room the meeting adjourned to the tea room. Here a delightful supper was enjoyed and the new members were initiated in a different way. G. V. Woodhouse told about a funny side of the government, Mrs. Grace Conant related several amusing experiences she had in her teaching, and Sara James sang a lovely Spanish song. Everyone enjoyed the program and gave the entertainers their generous applause.

DANCE CLASSES GIVE EXCELLENT RECITAL

The freshman classes in physical education 102 gave a dance recital of old folk dances, Tuesday night in the gym. The freshmen all wore uniform gym suits and marched to the floor in their respective classes. The teachers, Miss Iler and Mrs. Fitzpatrick, did some excellent teaching in training these girls, for all of the dances were given unusually well for so large a group. A large appreciative audience wishes to thank the freshmen and physical education teachers for such a beautiful exhibition which required hours of time and hard work to prepare. The dances rendered are as follows:

I.—Pussy cat
Carrousel
Blecking
II.—Old Rustic Dance
Ducks
Crysted Hen
Old Dan Tucker
IV.—Highland Schottische
V.—Sailor's Hornpipe
VI.—Virginia Reel
VII.—Jingle Bells
VIII.—Half Moon
IX.—Yankee Doodle
X.—Athletic Barn Dance
XI—French Reel
XII—Seven Jumps.

"There's a personal letter for you at the house."
"What did it say?"

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

Willis....Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Would you like to earn all or a part of a delightful motor trip thru the West or eastern Canada this summer? Write for particulars to:
THE SOUTHERN TOURS, INC.
Box 727b Chapel Hill, N. C.

Southern Passenger Motor Lines
RICHMOND—LEXINGTON DIVISION

East Bound Read Down					West Bound Read Up
A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.	A.M.	P.M.	A.M.	P.M.
7:00	11:45	3:10	7:45 lv. Lexington ar.	4:55	2:15	10:55	11:15
8:50	1:30	5:00	9:20 ar. Lynchburg lv.	3:00	12:30	9:10	9:30
9:00	12:45	5:15	9:20 lv. Lynchburg ar.	2:40	12:00	3:25	9:00
10:40	2:25	6:55	10:50 ar. Farmville lv.	1:00	10:15	1:35	7:20
10:45	2:30	7:00	10:55 lv. Farmville ar.	1:00	10:05	1:25	7:10
1:00	4:45	9:15	12:50 ar. Richm'd. lv.	11:10	8:10	11:30	5:00
P.M.	P.M.	P.M.	A.M.	P.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.

BROOKNEAL—BURKEVILLE DIVISION

A. M.		P. M.
..9:10	Lv. Brookneal Ar.	..3:15
10:40	Farmville	1:30
11:15	Ar. Burkeville Lv.	11:30

Tickets for Sale by MRS. LAING, Home Office, or Room 220
"....Connections at Richmond, Lynchburg and Lexington for all points.

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Lovely new short, puff, sleeve, sweaters, colors of the rainbow	$1.19
Sporty new skirts to match	$1.98
Special in our hosiery department—Allen A	$1.00
Sheer chiffon hose, picot tops, special	69c
Lovely new military style, polo coats	$9.95
Suits	$5.49 and $9.95
New creations in millinery	$1.95 and $2.95

The Hub Department Store
Offers best values always—Hosiery Sale this week!

JOKES

Tourist (in Yellowstone Park): "Those Indians have a blood-curdling yell."

Giude: "Yes, ma'am; every one of 'em is a college graduate."

"What big eyes you have, grandmother?"

'And that, my dear, is how I caught your grandfather."

Uncle: "Virginia, I would like to give you a book that you will really like. What can I give you?"

Virginia Bryant: "A check book."

"Why, Dot," cried Frankie, "why on earth are you boiling all those chocolate bonbons?"

"Well," siged Dot, "I am on a liquid diet for a while."

Jimmie: "Why was it that George Washington never told a lie, Pa?"

Pa: "Because no one ever asked him when the depression would end."

Disgusted Professor: "What did you come to college for anyway? You are not studying."

Bobby Rahrah: "Well, Mother says it's to fit me for the Presidency; Uncle Jib, to sow my wild oats: sister Helen, to get a chum for her to marand Dad, to bankrupt the family."

Professor: "You can't sleep in my class!"

Stiff: "If you would talk lower I could."

"Yis-day," says Uncle Zeke, "I dropped four cents on de floor and dey made a big racket. Ef dey had been four dollar bills nobody would have heard 'em drop. People is jest like money; dem dat makes the most noise ain't allus of de mos' account."

This notice was seen on the Bulletin Board:

Lost—A silver pencil in the room with a black ribbon attached to it.

English Teacher: "Always remember, girls, that the word 'with' is a very bad word to end a sentence with. I—ah—that is to say—ah, unless you have nothing else to end it with."

This world is neither round nor square, it's crooked.

"Totts": "Do you like Chopin?"

Frances: "No, I get tired walking from store to store."

"Where's the car, Dad?" asked the son of an absent-minded professor.

"Why, dear me," he said "I really dont' know. Did I take it out?"

"You certainly did. You drove it into town."

"That's very remarkable," replied the professor. "I remember now that after I got out I turned round to thank the gentleman who had given me a lift, and wondered where he had gone."

Farmville Is Defeated By Strong Team From Harrisonburg In Close Game

The Farmville basketball team was defeated by the Harrisonburg team at Harrisonburg Thursday evening by a score of 32-25. The game was very close throughout. The first quarter ended with a score of 6-4, Farmville leading. During the second quarter, the score was tied, but the first half ended with the score 14-10, Farmville still in the lead. During the last half, the Harrisonburg forwards made several goals in succession tieing the score, and making the Farmville team fight harder with that spirit for which they are noted .Time after time the score tied, and first one team and then the other scored a point. The final score was 32-25 with Harrisonburg leading.

The game was one of the best ever played at Harrisonburg, both teams being evenly matched and both displaying excellent play as well as almost perfect pass-work. No one person starred for either team but all worked together for their Alma Mater.

The line-up:

Farmville 25		Harrisonburg 32
Snedegar	R.F.	Sullivan
Fraser	L.F.	Hobbs
Quisenberry	J.C.	Neblett
Edwards	S.C.	Ralston
Souders (c)	R.G.	Farinholt (c)
Burger	L.G.	Duke

Officials: Referee, Fogg; Umpire, Rogers.

The Farmville team left Farmville at 10:30 Thursday, arriving in Harrisonburg about 3:00. The game was played at 8:15, and at 10 p. m., the team was given the very unusual treat of a swim in the Harrisonburg pool. Everyone who went had an excellent time, and each one agreed that her sister teachers college gave her a very cordial reception. The team is looking forward to a visit from Harrisonburg next year.

HATS OFF TO MANAGERS

The basketball season for 1932 closed with our game at Harrisonburg on March 4. Since December, our manager and her assistant have been conducting and directing those things which have made it possible for us to have a successful basketball season.

For three months, Hildegarde Ross, our manager, has been corresponding with other schools so that we might have an interesting varsity schedule. With the help of her assistant, Mary Burgess Frasier, playing equipment was always ready. Through their work and cooperation the hall tournament was a success and aroused much interest and excitement. The class games added fresh pep and enthusiasm to the green and white and red and white spirit.

Hildegarde and Mary Burgess rightly deserve the name of manager for they have conducted the basketball season to a most successful close. In so doing each has given much to her class and has been of real service to her Alma Mater.

Judge: "And you say you were attacked by a bunch of hoodlums."

Latin Professor: "Hoodla, your honor."

"So you think she really loves Henry?"

"Well, she didn't have the ring he gave her appraised."

BASKETBALL SEASON IS VERY SUCCESSFUL

The game with Harrisonburg last Thursday, March 3, ended a very successful season of basketball for S. T. C. This success was due to the efficient work of Hildegarde Ross, manager; Mary Burgess Fraser, assistant manager; sixteen girls on the squad, and the untiring efforts of Miss Iler as coach. We are all grateful to these persons and feel that we are justly proud of all of them and their work.

On February 6, the initial game of the season was played with Richmond Normal in Richmond. Our team defeated them by a score of 68-12. All eleven girls who made the trip played in part of the game.. Courage, confidence, and experience were gained from this game and our team felt that they were prepared to win other victories for the blue and white.

The only home game was played against Sweet Briar, February 20. All of the students and many visitors came out to back the local team We were victorious. The game was fast and interesting, but when the final whistle blew the score was 39-16 with the home team leading.

A very delightful trip was had when our team went to William and Mary to meet the Indianettes. This game was close and hard fought. The William and Mary girls were leading during the first quarter and at the half, but the blue and white spirit of S. T. C. plunged harder into the game and our girls came out on top, with the final score of 20-17.

Harrisonburg and Farmville were very evenly matched in the game last Thursday night. Neither one could get a very big lead in the score. First one and then the other would make a goal. Farmville was leading at the half but Harrisonburg was victorious in the end. The score, 32-25, shows that the game was close and that it was only after a hard battle that Harrisonburg succeeded in defeating us.

With the close of the basketball season come twenty points for the red and white towards the color cup. Ten of these are for winning the class championship by the Seniors, and the other ten for the red and whites having more players on the varsity team. This puts the colors about even. Which one is going to get the lead with volleyball?

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM MARCH 9 TO 16

WED. & THURS—ANN HARDING in "PRESTIGE". A story of intense drama enacted against a colorful background of tropical jungle, native religious rites, songs and dances. The story of a beautiful girl fighting for her standards and for the man she loves. Strong romance depicting a new Ann Harding.

SPECIAL ADDED ATTRACTION: Tulane vs. University of Southern California football game as played in the Rose Bowl on last New eYar's day. Every player completely recorded in both slow and natural motion. Why did Tulane lose? Her record was better than Southern California in every department.

FRIDAY & SATURDAY—JOAN BENNETT in "SHE WANTED A MILLIONAIRE" with Spencer Tracy and Una Merkel. This is Joan's first picture since her accident and it's a pip. You wonder what becomes of the winners of the national beauty contests and this picture tells you all about it; especially about the millionaire playboys who make a play for the home town girls. You'll see the famous play spots of Europe with their glamorous hotels and women loaded down with a million dollars of new clothes. It tells the story of a girl who traded love for a million. She wore a price-tag that her sweetheart couldn't afford — but that a millionaire paid. And it proves a tragic bargain. You will see hundreds of beautiful girls, lavish gowns and a great love story that grips. Also WALTER WINCHELL in "The Bard of Broadway." Chapter 7 "BATTLING WITH BUFFALO BILL" Friday only.

NEXT MONDAY & TUESDAY—CONSTANCE BENNETT in "LADY WITH A PAST", supported by Ben Lyon and David Manners. Glamorous, gorgeously gowned Constance Bennett in the picture considered the best she has ever appeared in. Seventeen dazzling gowns direct form Paris are worn by the screen's best dressed star, in fashionable social centers of two continents. The story deals with a girl too shy and serious to attract men. In Paris, however, she falls under the guidance of a charming gigolo (Ben Lyon), becomes the toast of the ball rooms and cafes, attracts a lot of beaux, and through a turn of circumstances, finds herself a "Lady With a Past." Ben Lyon is delightful as the gigolo and David Manners charming as the hero. A picture of fashionable younger sets of New York and Paris. Also comedy and News.

NEXT WED.—NANCY CARROLL and RICHARD ARLEN in "WAYWARD" supported by Pauline Frederick. "They call me 'Wayward'—but they've got me wrong! I'll admit I like my fun—but after all what girl doesn't want to get around to see things and do things? Even so, she can still be a good wife and mother if society will let her live as Love commands'" "That's how your son and I got together—and we're going to stay together—family or no family. It's married freedom for us. You are free too—free to mind your own business even if you are his mother." But what about the husband who loves both his wife and his mother? Here's a splendid picture—don't miss it. Also Flip the Frog Cartoon and "A Lesson in Golf."

Southside DrugStore
Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)
LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS
ONE DAY SERVICE
Complete line Greeting Cards
Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE
Lovelace Shoe Shop
110 Third Street

Mack's
"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"
We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty
BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP
323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store
QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE
Come in and Get Acquainted
We Are Glad to Have You With Us
Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's
Is Headquarters for the Best
SANDWICHES
—and—
DRINKS
—in—
FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler
Gifts of Lasting Remembrance
317 Main Street
Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell
CLEANERS AND TAILORS
Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments
Special prices for cleaning and remodeling
Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
Phone 98

S. A. Legus
TAILORING
CLEANING
AND PRESSING
Farmville, Va.

An Event That College Girls Will Welcome
A SALE OF SPRING HATS

PEANUT STRAWS—The smartest creations. In black, browns, navy, green an dtan, large and small head sizes.

5 dozen all placed on one table. Come early and select yours at the sale price of only

only $1

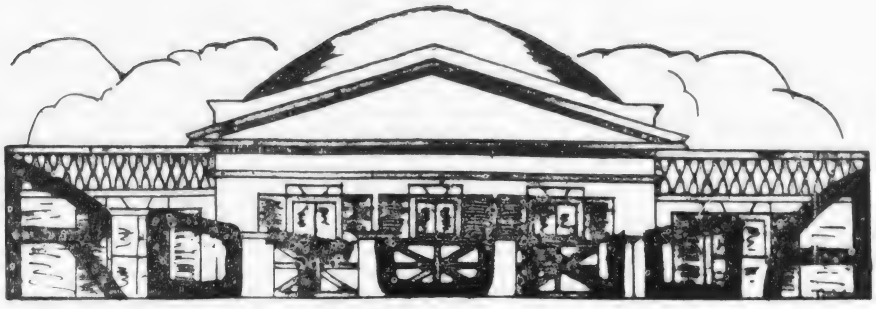
Pure wool novelty Sweaters. Solid and combinations, $1.00.

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE · STORE

LEADING THE PARADE

Dresses selected from this store will be leaders of the style parade this Easter.



We invite you to come in and se the many interesting new models that are so stunning. And remember, just three little prices.

All new Spring styles now on display.

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES
FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

COME TO DEBATE

HAPPY EASTER TO ALL

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 1932 No. 22

Royall, Cobb, Snedegar, Are the New Officers

"The Ivory Door" Dramatic Club's Spring Play

Will Be Given April 15th.—Miss Leola Wheeler Is Directing Production

The Dramatic Club, under the direction of Miss Wheeler, will present A. A. Milne's "The Ivory Door" on April 15. This play had quite a long run on the New York stage in 1927, and 1929, Henry Hull taking the lead in the 1927 production.

The story is the "once upon a time" kind that takes place in most any kingdom in most any age. One critic calls it " a whimsical presentation of the truth about human nature with a medieval court for the setting."

The play has three acts and a prologue. The prologue gives the atmosphere of the play and introduces the legend about the ivory door, which is carried on in the main part of the play after a lapse of fifteen years.

The story has a hero who is brave, daring, handsome, popular, a heroine who is beautiful, just and also brave, superstitious people, a delightful little boy, a begging soldier, and many other interesting characters. It contains many dramatic situations and is full of charm for any audience.

Mary Shelton plays the man's part, and Nancy Burgwyn plays opposite her. These parts are different from any they have played before and give them an opportunity for much fine acting.

Rehearsals have been going on for some time and give promise of a most entertaining spring play.

Helpful Lecture for Methodist Girls

Dr. J. M. Culbreth, of Nashville, spent last Thursday and Friday at Farmville State Teachers College, during which time he addressed groups of Methodist girls and presented the purposes of the Wesley Foundation. Following his talks a Wesley Student Association was formed, with Miss Lois Cox, president; Miss Elizabeth Walthall, vice-president; Miss Edith Shanks, secretary, and Miss Isabelle Allegre, treasurer.

At a recent meeting of the Methodist Student Conference, composed of representatives of the various colleges in the State, Miss Winston Cobb of Farmville S. T. C., was elected president of the conference for 1933; T. J. Hawkins, student-pastor, University of Virginia, dean; Miss Lolla Wilson, William and Mary, vice-president; Mrs. Brown, Blackstone College, secretary; C. V. Smith, Roanoke College, treasurer, and Jas. Sanders, Randolph-Macon College, publicity manager.

Duke University has about the most complete campus in the country There are clothing, book and supply stores, a coffee shop, soda fountain, motion picture theatre, laundry, pressing shop, hospital, libraries, carpenter, paint and plumbing shops, postoffice, barber shop, weekly newspaper, athletic fields, church— and officers of the law.

HAMPTON QUARTET RENDERS PROGRAM

The celebrated Hampton Quartet rendered a concert to a very appreciative audience in the college auditorium Monday night.

The quartet comes from the Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., and it is internationally famous for its sacred concerts. It is making a tour over Virginia now and has visited many colleges and universities.

The quartet has attracted much attention and a few years ago went on a concert tour through the British Isles. The singers have toured the whole United States a number of times and make yearly concert tours of a less extensive nature. They have visited State Teachers College several times before. The concert was given free of charge, and the singers seemed to enjoy singing as much as the audience enjoyed listening.

The program consisted of several parts and lasted almost an hour. Among the numbers which weer especially enjoyed are "I Got Close," "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," Mighty Like a Rose", "I'm a Witness for My Lord" and "Waterboy."

Included in the tour which the quartet is now making are concerts at Randolph-Macon, Ashland, Va.; Randolph-Macon Woman's College, S. T. C., Fredericksburg, Hampden--Sydney, Emory and Henry, and Sweet Briar.

These negroes are traveling in the interest of the inter-racial commission and they have been cordially received at every institution in which they have visited. One of the members of the Interracial Commission was traveling with the quartet. It is hoped that these tours will bring the minds of the people the real worth of such institution as the Hampton Institute, and in doing so a closer feeling of fellowship may exist between the two races of America. Not only S. T. C. students but also many town people who were present are expecting the return of the quartet next year.

PI GAMMA MU ANNOUNCES MEMBERS

The Virginia Gamma Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu wishes to announce the following new members:

Nancy Boykins
Margaret Hix
Elsie Story

Winston Cobb, Jane Royall, Dot Snedegar

First Debate of Season is Tonight

The Debate Club presents its first debate of the year tonight at eight o'clock in the college auditorium. The subject for the debate is "Resolved, that Congress should enact legislation providing for centralized control of industry (constitutionality waived." The affirmative side of this debate is to be upheld by two representative debaters from the University of Pittsburg. These two girls, Louise Linn and Genevieve Blott, are to be opposed by Margaret Hix and Carrie DeShazo representing this college.

This is the first debate of outstand-

(Continued on page 4)

Folk Music Lecture Given by Mr. Powell

Great interest in Virginia folk music was aroused by the lecture-recital given by Mr. John Powell and Mr. George Harris assisted by Mr. Wilfrid Pyle accompanist, all of Richmond, on Friday evening, February 18, in the college auditorium. The visitors came under the auspices of the Farmville Woman's Club and the Folk Lore Club.

Mr. Powell was introduced by Professor J. M. Grainger, who said that Mr. Powell stood as the apostle of the beauty and power of Virginia's folk music. Mr. Powell spoke eloquently and with weight and authority because of both what he had to say and his own eminence as a pianist, composer, and folk musician. He gave a remarkable definition of fundamental culture in an individual as the knowledge and control of all that the folk has learned and expressed in folk song, saying, and story. He reviewed the development of the music of leading musical nations, particularly Russia, and showed that the greatest productions of nations as well as of the master composers have come out of the music of the folk. He paid high tribute to Mr. Cecil Sharpe, the leading English authority on folk music, who has collected many folk songs in Virginia and who said that the tunes he found in Virginia are "extraordinarily beautiful" and "perhaps more valuable than any found elsewhere in America". Mr. Powell urged upon Virginians that they recognize and enjoy their own heritage of folk music with the promise that out of this may come a great musical renaissance in the state and the nation.

Following the address, Mr. Harris,

Continued on page three

Presidents Elected For Three Major Organizations

Candidates Presented to the Student Body By the Retiring Officers

On Friday, March 18, Jane Royall of Tazewell, Va., was elected president of the student body; Winston Cobb of Sebrell, Va., president of the Y. W. C. A., and Dot Snedegar, of Roanoke, Va., president of the athletic association for 1932-33.

Nominations were made Wednesday, March 16. Those nominated for the three offices were: Jane Royall, and Hattie Gilliam for president of the student body; Winston Cobb and Honey Hamilton for president of the Y. W. C. A.; and Dot Sneedgar and Hildegarde Ross for president of the Athletic Association.

A student body meeting was held Tuesday night, March 17, at which time each candidate was presented and her campaign manager gave a short talk on her ability to hold the office for which she was nominated. Campaign managers were: Ruth Floyd for Jane Royall; Margaret Hix for Hattie Gilliam; Easter Souders for Winston Cobb; Evelyn Jones for Honey Hamilton; Jenny Wheeler for Dot Snedegar; and Helen Cover for Hildegarde Ross.

Jane Royall's accomplishments have long proved her ability for holding the position as head of the Student Council. She has been a member of the Council for three years, holding the offices of Campus League

(Continued on page 3)

Senior Choral Club In Rich. Broadcast

The Senior Choral Club will broadcast from station WRVA, Richmond, Friday night, April 1, from 8:30 to 9:00 o'clock.

The club will be accompanied by Dr. Jarman, Misses Elsie Carter, Virginia Potts and Mrs. Charles B. Beck, who will assist with the program. Miss Jennie Tabb will be at the station to receive any message which may be sent by friends or alumnae.

Mr. Alfred H. Strick is the director and accompanist of the Choral Club.

The tentative program is as follows:

Gloria ..... Buzzie-Peccia
Choral Club

Solo
a. Litany ..... Schubert
b. All in the April evening, Diah
Miss Elsie Carter

Quartette
One Sweet Solemn Thought, Ambrose
Junior Quartette

Solo
Just a Song at Twilight ..... Molloy
Dr. Jarman
(obligato by Junior Quartette)

Panis Angelicus ..... Frank
Choral Club

Solo (selected)
Mrs. Charles B. Beck

Quartette
Liebestraum ..... Liszt
Senior Quartette

The Lost Chord ..... Sullivan
Choral Club

Alma Mater ..... Miss Jennie Tabb
Choral Club
Music Miss Virginia Potts

Jenilee Knight Wins Second Place In the State Oratorical Contest

Miss Jenilee Knight of Farmville State Teachers College, received second place in the state oratorical contest held in Lee Chapel at Washington and Lee on Saturday, March 12. Her subject was "Washington: Exemplar of American Ideals". Her speech presented a new light on the the character of Washington. In addition to the fine subject matter, her brilliant oratory, her grace and poise while speaking were especially noteworthy.

Jimmie Moore of Washington and Lee who won first place spoke on "Washington the Nation Builder." Mr. Moore is from Somerset, Kentucky, and was national debating champion when in high school.

W. R. Steevens of Emory and Henry tied with P. S. Trible of V. P. I. for third place.

Dr. Frances P. Gaines, president of Washington and Lee acted as chairman of the contest. The judges were Major Roy Manson, Staunton Military Academy; Judge Don P. Halsey of Lynchburg and Mr. C. K. Brown of the Staunton News-Leader.

In winning the contest Mr. Moore received a three inch silver medallion. A raised profile of Washington with the dates 1732 and 1932 were on one side. On the reverse side was a figure of the Goddess of Liberty. A bronze medallion was presented to Miss Knight bearing the same inscription.

Eight speakers were entered in the contest. Five different subjects from the life of Washington were represented. All of the speakers gave new and original ideas and many points of education interest were presented.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

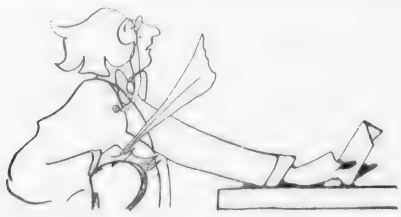
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

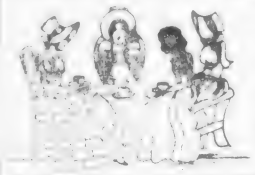


CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.



All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will

The Season Beautiful

The time for new hats, spring suits, dresses, dances, rosebud corsages, and spring cleaning is here. Examination time, a most hectic one, at the end of a short winter term, is over. Everybody is more or less worn out and needs a rest. In the flurry of shopping and the excitement of spring flowers, dates, and dances, we must remember that another term is well under way and that we really do need rest to be in good condition for our best work for the spring.

Then, in seeing and glorying in all this lovely newness, we cannot forget the underlying seriousness of the season. A flash of flame and a burst of song denote the happiness of birds lately come. The grass grows greener; the air smells fresh; sudden rainfall says spring is here. A robin tugs at grass to make a nest; buds, pale green, shown on trees. After a time of greyness and cold, everything awakens, takes on new life. We see things created and rejoice at being alive. Easter season means more than just what is seen. It means new birth into fuller, happier life, a knowledge of divine guidance behind things of earth.

OVER THE TEACUPS

You know, Blanche, life's just one thing after another. You look forward to things for what seems to be ages, and the first thing you know they're here and gone—even elections.

I dont' think I've ever seen the student body as keenly interested as it was from Wednesday when the campaign managers met until the returns of the campaign were announced Friday night.

We surely did show good judgment by electing the trio to the major offices. You couldn't find better girls anywhere than Jane and Winston and Dot. They just aren't made any better. And will they push the old institution along? They're going to be good!

I can hardy realize that the Easter holidays begin tomorrow, Blanche. Gee! aren't you excited!! I can't even keep my mind an my lessons—Just any time during classes I find myself day-dreaming about the good times I'll have this week-end. I do hope it won't be raining so I can wear my new Easter "outfit." You never can depend on this weather, though.

Sh-h-h. Who's that knoking on the pipe? Oh, just the girls below. What time is it, Blanche? Hey, Blanche,—Blanche!! Can you beat that? She's gone to sleep, and I thought all the time I had an audience. Oh well, guess I'll turn over and try to go to sleep, too.

THE TRIBUTUM IS COMPLIMENTED

Miss Tabb in writing to Dr. John W. Basore of Princeton University sent him a copy of the "Tributum" that had been given to her and received the following from him:

"I was much interested in examining the copy of "Tributum" you sent me; I wish to express my thanks and the pleasure I had in discovering that some of the young ladies do still "like Latin." Please congratulate them for me on their orthodoxy, enthusiasm, and ingenuity in devising such an attractive and intimate journal. I had to smile when I saw the tribute to my old friend Cpurinna, whom I always thought a very nice and admirable old gentleman. But he was "too old" for my youngsters, who refused to be interested until they found that he could take a sun bath stripped and "play ball". You see it takes the ladies to recognize a fine old fellow when they see him! But you may tell them that I shall not be completely committed to commendation of their judgment until I know what they may think of the moral essays of "Seneca"."

Note: Dr. Basore meant the Princeton boys when he spoke of his "youngsters." Dr. Basore taught Latin at Princeton for many years; he has retired and is writing a book on Seneca.

LATIN CLUB MEETS

The regular meeting of the Latin Club was held March 18, in Room 0. An interesting program based on Caesar was given. The program was as follows:

"Julius Caesar in the Augustan Poets," Janet Harris.

"Caesar As Seen in Shakespeare," Nell Dickenson.

"Caesar as a Statesman," Josephine Wooding.

"Caesar as a Soldier," Gertrude Sugden.

NAUTILUS

A fairy sail and a fairy boat
In mid ocean
Inexorable!
Thou straight line of eternal fate
That ring'st the world
Whil'st on thy moaning breast
We play our puny parts
And reckon us immortal!

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

Prospects for a happy and enjoyable Easter vacation ought to be numerous—grades have gone home.

When white oxfords come into use, can spring be far behind?

Baseball season is here and just for curiosity's sake—who will be the champs?

Girls in 159 receive company once more. The alligator has departed to parts unknown.

The Church attendance always increases after Easter. It is hoped that the depression will not affect it this year.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS

It was discovered at Hamilton College 23 students have athlete's foot as compared to 51 who do not suffer from this ailment. Beer and rye are the favorite drinks at that school and 75 students yet.—Brown and White.

Last Monday at 4 p. m. the coeds of the University of Minnesota sponsored a leap year's "sunlite," with "Get your man" as the slogan for the occasion.—The Bee.

Princeton is the "college of riots" according to a recent article in the Johns Hopkins News. The worse riot occurred in 1817 when the tutors were locked in their rooms and attacked with bricks and wooden bats. —Brown and White.

At the end of each semester at Coe College, Iowa, a "Flunkers Frolic" 'is held to give those who have failed a good send-off. The dance is one of the most popular events at the college.—The Sun.

Berlin students may now legally enjoy their friendly duels. Despite the decline of this type of sport since the war, it is still quite popular with certain groups of students.— The Spectator.

A fraternity at the University of Denver received a bill for $44.50 for cleaning expenses after they had broken up a sorority dance with stink bombs.—Brown and White.

At Indiana university students are publicly corrected for use of slang in the classroom and at social gatherings, in an effort to use more correct English.

A recent survey at the University of Missouri shows that seventy-five bad checks are passed every day.

What is the matter with R. M. W. C? The girls over there are seeking the answer. Why not blame it upon the depression.

We quote from their paper:

"Girls, something must be done about the present situation. The depression has hit R. M. W. C. hard and in an unusual way. We dress as well (?), we eat as much, but as for male visitors—our ole campus is becoming a complete void. What has happened to all the men? Hoping to be shown the light I went to several prominent faculty members and I will give you their reports. It didn't do me any good, but it may help you. Mr. Dake suggested that the men were all killed in the World War. Mr. Daggett suggested that they were all tied up in various corporations such as Sweet Briar, Hollins, etc. K. T. suggested that Miss Whiteside's coffee wasn't strong enough. Dr. Lipscomb suggested that they were studying (he must have misunderstood what I asked him). And Mrs. Harmanston suggested Life Buoy."

Sensible—at last!

Instructor: "Quote a scripture verse."

Floyd: "Judas went out in the garden and hanged himself."

Instructor: "That's fine. Quote another."

Floyd: "Go ye and do likewise."

AN INCREASE IN OUR SPIRIT'S STATUE

Easter time has meant to us
In many seasons past
Bunnies soft and colored eggs
Lent boxes, prayers and fast,
Spring bonnets of all sizes and shape
Like ships with full blown masts,
Violets, roses and lilies sweet
From whom we blush to ask,
But now since we have reached the age
Of twenty summers o'er
We've forgotten these trivial things
To let our spirits soar
In glorious triumph with our Lord
Out through the unsealed door.

V. P. L.

INFINITE GRATITUDE

Russia
Groping madly
In search
Of a new day,
A new faith, a new conquest,
A new civilization, a new happiness
A new man—
Crying out "nauka"—science—
In place of God, of Christ, of worship
Breathing atheism
Into the very nostrils
Of her offspring,
Substituting social service
For the feeble spiritual infant,
Orthodoxy.
Aren't you thankful
That we are not bound by Bolshevism
That you and I escaped
Being a Russian Vladmir of Kiev
Or an archbishop Vredensky of Moscow
So that we can spend our Easter,
With the God they haveforsaken?

TO ANN MORROW

Dear God—
We send our Easter prayer
In behalf of a mother
Whose waiting there
Trembling with hope
And filled with despair—
Oh, hear and answer our prayer.

V. L.

CATCHING THE BUS

Oh, how I run to catch the bus,
When I miss it how I fuss,
It means a day away from school,
How I hate to break the rule.

Earlier next day I go,
Drop my lunch and stub my toe,
But alas I make the climb,
And then I've reached the bus on time.

Composed by Alice Booker, sixth grade, Curdsville school.

THOUGHTS

When I can make my thoughts come forth
To walk like ladies up and down
Each one puts on before the glass
Her most becoming hat and gown.

But oh, the shy and eager thoughts
That hide and will not get them dressed,
Why is it that they always seem
So much more lovely than the rest?

BARTER

Life has loveliness to sell
All beautiful and splendid things,
Blue waves whitened on a cliff,
Soaring fire that sways and sings,
And children's faces looking up
Holding wonder like a cup.

Life has loveliness to sell,
Music like a curse of gold,
Scent of pine trees in the rain,
Eyes that love you, arms that hold,
And for your spirit's still delight,
Holy thoughts that star the night.

Spend all you have for loveliness,
Buy it and never count the cost;
For one white singing hour of peace
Count many a year of strife well lost
And for a breath of ecstasy
Give all you have been or could be.

SOCIALS

The following girls were in Richmond this week-end: Nedra Bair, Jerry Lee, Grace Virginia Woodhouse, Frances Crawford, Henrietta Cornwell, Kathryn Rogers, "Chub" Denit, Gazelle Ware, Frances Dorin, Virginia Fox, Elizabeth Field, Nancy Burgwyn, "Jo" Congdon, Mary Harrison, Helen Shawen, Mae Mabe, Ann Davis, Kitty McIntyre, Kitty Waters, Mary Conway, Martha Sanders, Alice Rowell, Grace Rowell, Evelyn Knaub, Lucille Tiller, Louise Hartness and Ruth Floyd.

* * *

Charlotte Oakey, Mary K. Taylor and Iris Hart spent the week-end at Hampden-Sydney.

* * *

Lelia Lovelace was in Halifax this week-end.

* * *

Sarah Beck was in Dinwiddie this week-end.

* * *

Martha Cross spent the week-end in Crewe.

* * *

Mary Leigh Lyons and Helen Rose Cunningham were visitors in Petersburg this week-end.

* * *

Mary Alice and Kathrine Young spent the week-end in Boydton.

* * *

Those who were in Lynchburg this week-end are: Margaret Barker, "Chick" Mosby, Mary Arthur Billups, Katherine Royster, Jenilee Knight, B. Ross, Dot Wingfield, Margaret Eley, Mary Berkeley Nelson, and Elizabeth Steptoe.

* * *

Martha Baber and Agnes Lee Grigg spent the week-end in Amelia.

* * *

Belle Lovelace spent the week-end in South Boston.

* * *

Vernie Oden was in Appomattox this week-end.

* * *

Ruth Atkins was in Roanoke this week-end.

* * *

Hanna Crawley spent the week-end at her home in Cumberland.

* * *

Evelyn Jones spent the week-end in Clarksville.

* * *

Mary Winston spent the week-end in Hopewell.

ASSOCIATION OF CHILDHOOD EDUCATION BIDS NEW MEMBERS

The following new members were initiated into the local chapter of A. C. E. Thursday night in the recreation hall:

Cornelia Quarles
Laura Darlington
Lucille Owen
Nancy Ross
Ambler Lee
Martha Scott Watkins
Alise Martin
Dorothy Franklin
Sarah Saunders
Frances Graham
Mary Ellen Johnson
Bessie Hix
Helen Warren
Delia Grant
Helen Rose Cunningham
Kitty Watkins
Mary Artis Dainier
Catherine Jones
Elizabeth Coleman
Ethel Edmonds
Myra McIntosh
Cornelia Watts
Dorothy Weems
Evelyn Pearcy

PI GAMMA MU HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

The Virginia Gamma Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu held its annual banquet last Saturday night at Longwood. Dr. Hayden, professor of law at Catholic University, Washington, and general counselor of Pi Gamma Mu, was the speaker of the evening. In his speech, he told something of Pi Gamma Mu as a national organization and the connection he had with it as a lawyer.

After the banquet, they adjourned to the reception hall where an open discussion of disarmament was held. This discussion was very interesting and enlightening.

The alumni who returned for the banquet were Elizabeth Stephenson, Arline White, Frances Wilson, Mrs. Nuchols, Katherine Diehl and Virginia Potts.

FOLK MUSIC LECTURE AND RECITAL

Continued from page one

accompanied by Mr. Pyle, sang a number of English and American folk songs, most of them collected and given beautiful piano settings by Mr. Cecil Sharp. Mr. Harris showed remarkable powers of interpretation, especially in such songs as Lord Rendel, in which he managed to create a powerful climax in spite of—or, perhaps, by means of—a diminuendo at the end. His singing of "Billie Boy" and "Frog Went a-Courting" as arranged by Howard Brockway, was especially pleasing and evoked delighted applause. Mr. Pyle's skillful rendition of the settings for the songs left nothing to be desired as examples of the difficulty of accompaniment.

Friday afternoon, Mr. Powell and his associates together with the Folf Lore Club and friends, were entertained at the Old Buffalo Farm, the country home of Prof. and Mrs. J. M. Grainger. Mrs. Willie Childress, an old time fiddler from near Rice, played a great many old fiddle tunes; Mrs. Mary Jackson Gould and Mrs. Waverly Putney of Farmville, presented a number of local folk-tunes and songs; and Mrs. Grainger sang folk songs handed down in her family. Even Mr. Powell was drawn into singing a folk song and all present joined the Folk Lore Club, led by Mrs. Grainger in Virginia folk dances. The refreshments were "buffaloe cookies" with cherry bounce, served out of a churn with a gourd dipper.

NEW GIRLS ENTER DURING SPRING QUARTER

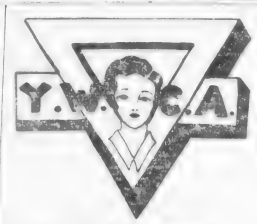
The faculty and student body are glad to welcome the following new students:

Anne Elizabeth Steptoe, Lynchburg.
Annie Altice, Wirtz.
Nelle Evelyn Anderson, Jonesville
Mrs. Delonia Arthur, Charlotte C. H.
Anna Mae Bass, Rice
Chloe Clevinger, Grundy
Annie DeWitt, Bedford
Bessie Glasser, Norfolk
Page Houchins, Richmond
Grace Price, Rice
Imogene Ruty, Richmond
Dorothy Simpson, Prospect
Nannie Steger, Warren
Louise Smith, Blackstone
Annie Hall Perkins, Petersburg z

The following girls have resumed their work after having missed a term or more:

Elizabeth Booker, Andersonville
Virginia Thornton, Milford
Doris Robertson, Church Road
Margery Ann Quarles, Charlottesville
Nancy Putney, Farmville
Goldie Boggs, Scottsville
Nell Stokes, Farmville
Lourie Bousch, Oceana
Mrs. Margaret Burnette, Farmville
Charlotte Humphries, Farmville
Emily Meadows, Roanoke

ROYALL, COBB AND SNEDEGAR ELECTED



Continued from page one

Chairman and Secretary of the Council. She has also taken an active part in other organizations. Her fine character and capabilities are recognized by the faculty and the student body.

Winston Cobb has shown her ability and interest in the Y. W. C. A. during the three years that she has been here. This year she held the office of Undergraduate Representative. Her conscientious efforts and achievements in the Y. W. C. A. field as well as in other organizations of the school have proved her to be worthy of this position.

Dot Snedegar has shown an incomparable interest in athletics and has made an enviable record in this field since her freshman year. She is a competent leader and has done much to uphold the athletic standards of the school.

Oxford students in England are said to owe local shop owners over a million dollars. Which goes to prove that students are the same the world over.

Y. W. C. A. HAS OPEN CABINET MEETING

The Y. W. C. A. Cabinet held an open meeting in the Y. W. C. A. reception room on Wednesday afternoon, March 16. Advisers and members of the various committees were made for the coming year. After the business had been transacted, delicious refreshments were served.

SOPHOMORE CLASS LEADS PRAYERS

Last week beginning Monday night and lasting through Thursday night the Sophomore class presented impressive programs in prayers. Beautiful thoughts were conveyed both in the talks and songs, while candle light created the spiritual atmosphere. Through these programs much of the spirit and zeal of the class was revealed.

The freshman class began its week of leading prayers on Monday night with a talk on "Friendship" by Laeta Barham, president of the class. The beautiful friendship that existed between Ruth and Naomi was used as an example. Though friendship is an old thing, it is an ever new and meaningful part of each person's life.

Other interesting programs are expected from other members of the freshman class.

PROF. STRICK INTEPRETS POETRY OF MARTHA VON SCHILLING IN MUSIC

On Friday night in the large auditorium one of the most impressive prayers of the season was held. Prof. Alfred H. Strick, head of the Music Department of this institution, rendered a very beautiful and worthwhile interpretation of two poems composed by Martha von Schilling.

The poems which were interpreted were "Sunrise" and "Violets". Prof. Strick first read the poems to the audience, pointed out the various traits of merit therein, and then at the piano he began interpreting them through the highest means of expression, that of music.

In "Sunrise," with perfect harmonic tones, the sun threw back the cover of mist and opened its sleepy eyes to the realization of the time of day. With a hand steadied by deliberate thoughtfulness it started its task of dressing the sky. Beginning with a "somber grey" tone the music increased in volume and depth until all the sky was "a resplendent pink," then the music gave way to the dreamy blue of greatness and solemnity.

"Violets," being the more brief, was none the less great in content of thought. Starting with a subdued tone fitting to the style of the modest violet, the music increased in this degree of intensity, until it portrayed the violet in its half concealed hermitage, as a beautiful "thought of God."

Prof. Strick also played "Symphony of Vespers" after which he closed with a Beethoven Sonata Op 27 in c sharp minor, the so-called "Moonlight Sonata."

The steadily spreading influence of music within the college is becoming more evident every day and the interest was especially made manifest by the large number attending prayers on Friday night.

The names of the following alumnae married since last Founders Day were omitted by mistake from the last issue of the Rotunda.

Louise Foster is Mrs. Beverly Armistead, of Norfolk.

Rubie Hunt is Mrs. Ed Santrock of Rocky County, Va.

Louise McCormick is Mrs. Dale Brown of Roanoke.

Freshmen coeds at the University of Hawaii still wear grass skirts.

WORLD NEWS

A step in the right direction seems to have been taken when more than five hundred clergymen and laymen, representing the Protestant Catholic and Jewish religions, gathered at Washington on March 7 for the purpose of seeking ways and means by which a greater degree of religious tolerance might be made to prevail among the American people.

The tragic deaths of Ivor Krenger and George P. Eastman, outstanding figures in the industrial and financial world, had a marked effect on the stock exchanges of the world. The immediate effects of these deaths were noted in a sharp drop in the price of both Kreuger and Eastman products.

People who live in glass houses—butwho lives in glass houses? Perhaps the time may come when many people will live in such houses. Glass bricks have already been successfully manufactured. These bricks admit light and yet one cannot see through them. Walls constructed of this brick are said to be as sound proof as those of clay.

On wonders why spring is the time for love. Because it has been applauded by poets? Or is it because vitalities are so low that people turn to the most convenient method to pep them up.

Willis....Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Would you like to earn all or a part of a delightful motor trip thru the West or eastern Canada this summer? Write for particulars to:
THE SOUTHERN TOURS, INC.
Box 727b Chapel Hill, N. C.

Southern Passenger Motor Lines
RICHMOND—LEXINGTON DIVISION

East Bound Read Down — West Bound Read Up

A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.		A.M.	P.M.	A.M.	P.M.
7:00	11:45	3:10	7:45	lv. Lexington ar.	4:55	2:15	10:55	11:15
8:50	1:30	5:00	9:20	ar. Lynchburg lv.	3:00	12:30	9:10	9:30
9:00	12:45	5:15	9:20	lv. Lynchburg ar.	2:40	12:00	3:25	9:00
10:40	2:25	6:55	10:50	ar. Farmville lv.	1:00	10:15	1:35	7:20
10:45	2:30	7:00	10:55	lv. Farmville ar.	1:00	10:05	1:25	7:10
1:00	4:45	9:15	12:50	ar. Richm'd. lv.	11:10	8:10	11:30	5:00
P.M.	P.M.	P.M.	A.M.		P.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.

BROOKNEAL—BURKEVILLE DIVISION

A. M.		P. M.
9:10	Lv. Brookneal Ar.	3:15
10:40	Farmville	1:30
11:15	Ar. Burkeville Lv.	11:30

Tickets for Sale by MRS. LAING, Home Office, or Room 220

*....Connections at Richmond, Lynchburg and Lexington for all points.

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Lovely new short, puff, sleeve, sweaters, colors of the rainbow $1.19
Sporty new skirts to match $1.98
Special in our hosiery department—Allen A $1.00
Sheer chiffon hose, picot tops, special 69c
Lovely new military style, polo coats $9.95
Suits $5.49 and $9.95
New creations in millinery $1.95 and $2.95
The Hub Department Store
Offers best values always—Hosiery Sale this week!

JOKES

I have a car:
It never skids
It never breaks down
It never gets a puncture
It never gets overheated
It never falters on steep grades
It never gets into an accident
I wish to goodness I could start it!

Walters: "Mary Alice, you must be in love."

Mary Alice: "Nope, I've been sick that's why I look this way."

A school newspaper is a great invention: the schools gets all the credit, the printer gets all the money, and the editor gets all the blame!

A. J.: "There are only two girls in the world that I really admire."

Martha: "Who's the other?"

Willie: "Is Bill still engaged to Mary?"

Millie: "He was, but he found out that she paid all of her allowance of $1,000 a month to the dressmaker."

Willie: "Well, what did he do?"

Millie: "He married the dressmaker."

Gold-enthusiast: "My wife says that if I don't chuck golf she will leave me."

Friend: "I say, that's hard luck."

Golf-enthusiast: "Yes, I will miss her."

A Communist is a guy who has nothing and wants to share it with everybody.—Eddie Cantor.

Irate Date: "You drunken brute, if I were as drunk as you, I'd shoot myself!"

Escort (hic): "Baby, if you were as drunk as I am, you'd miss."

Student (looking through paper): "Say, this paper is full of good jokes—they are not funny, though."

Passenger: "Suh, ah has to thank you fo' both dem rides."

Pilot: "What are you talking about? You only had one!"

Passenger: "No, suh, ah had two—mah fust an' mah las'!"

Cecil: "What cow is best known for the amount of milk it gives?

Pupil: "Magnesia."

Cecil: Magnesia?"

Pupil: "Yessum, all the drug stores sell milk of magnesia."

Wife: "A most devoted couple live across the hall now. He kisses her every time he goes out. Why don't you do that?"

Husband: "Holy Moses! A nice fix I'd be in. Why, the lady is a perfect stranger to me!"

Customer: "Say, waiter, how's it that every time I eat here that bulldog keeps watching me?"

Waiter: "Well, sir, it seems that every time you eat here you get his favorite plate."

SENIORS WIN THE CHAMPIONSHIP IN VOLLEY BALL TOURNAMENT

The Seniors and Sophomores, both of red and white spirit, met Friday to determine the volley ball champions for the season. Even though the color competition was missing, there was a great deal of friendly rivalry shown between the sister classes. Each was anxious for victory and victory meant a hard fight.

Soon after the signal to begin was given, the Seniors gained in score over the Sophomores. In spite of the hard fighting done by the Sophomores, the Seniors remained in the lead with a final score of 18-9. The second game was very similar to the first one. Time and again the Seniors scored. They seemed determined to win this game. When time was called at the end, the score was 22-3 with the Seniors leading. With this victory came the second championship of the year, the Seniors having won the basketball championship during the winter quarter. With this victory came ten points toward the color cup, thus giving the red and whites the lead of five points.

With the championship game between the Sophomores and Seniors came the end of the volleyball season for this year. Much interest was shown by the girls all during the season. The hall tournament was especially interesting for it provided competition during the practice per-

Ruth Wright and Elizabeth Wheeler are to be thanked for the success of the season. It was with their work and efforts combined with the never-failing help, encouragement, and suggestion of Miss Iler that the volleyball season was made a successful one.

WANTED

Wanted—More girls to come out for baseball! Anyone applying for this, must be willing to learn. No past experience in this sport, or knowledge of its rules is necessary. Such information and instructions will be given the applicant after her application has been accepted. If interested, come to the athletic field any afternoon between 4 and 6 o'clock. You are required to report to duty only twice a week.

Incidentally—as pay for your services you will receive daily, a store of fun which will put you in good spirits to finish the days work as well as make you forget its past annoyances; a wealth of friendships that in time will be more dear to you than the most precious jewel you can possess. Health, with its pep and vim is yours; and last but not least you will get an overflowing supply of that something known as school spirit.

For further information address to the manager of baseball or any member of the A. A. Council. They will be glad to have the opportunity to serve you.

FIRST DEBATE OF SEASON TONIGHT

Continued from page one

ing importance for the year. The first debate presented to the student body by the Debate Club, it may well examplify a part of the vast activity and the efforts of this club. By this debate the club is proving itself functional, and thus it merits the hearty acceptance of the entire student body. The students, the faculty, and the public are urged to attend this first debate of the year. The debaters need the cooperation and the attendance of every individual, and the Debate Club needs personal enthusiasm to stand in back of it for success.

CLASS VOLLEY BALL GAMES ARE HELD

Volley ball season was brought to a close by the class games. At 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon the green and whites clashed with the red and whites, the red and whites coming out on top. Of the red and whites, the eSniors were victorious in the championship game Friday.

The "Big Day" started with a fight between the Freshmen and the Sophomores. All yelling was stopped for a second as the Sophomores had the first serve. Then the struggle was on. Both teams fought like Turks but the Sophs led with a score of 17 to 7.

In the second game, the Freshmen started with the serve and with a good start, they regained their courage, and it was with a hard fight that the Sophomores were able to triumph over the Freshmen 16 to 12.

Everyone was truly excited as "ye old rivals" took their places on the court for the next combat between the Juniors and the Seniors. In the first game, the Seniors were the first to score. Even though the Juniors battled hard, the Seniors remained in the lead and won 14-10.

In the second game the Juniors gritted their teeth and struck hard. The Seniors were knocked off their feet and the Juniors were victorious by a score of 16 to 5.

After a breathing spell the tie had to be played off and this was the most exciting game of the season. Several times the ball was batted back and forth, continuously in the air, for at least 60 seconds. Both teams fought with might and main. As the time horn blew everyone stood breathless until the score was announced 16 to 11 in favor of the Seniors.

The line-ups are as follows:

Freshmen	Sophomores
L. Mattox	Berger
Hurt (c)	Wright
Williamson	Cooper
Putney	Kello
A. Mattox	Foster
Hutchinson	Stokes
Dixon	Horton (c)
Wheeler	Fraser
Juniors	Seniors
Massey	Edwards
Snedegar	Quisenberry
Beacham	Souders
Gunter	Clayton
Hoffa	Hundley
Walthall (c)	Steere (c)
Crute	Fultz
Gregory	Clingenpeel

BASEBALL! BASEBALL!

What? Baseball season here already? Of course, and all of us are going out to practice every day!

Listen! We green and whites must catch up with the red and whites on points now. The only way we can do that is for all of us to go out every day to practice so that we can defeat them.

Well, well, we red and whites will see about this. Come on red and whites, we must practice regularly, too. Remember! Practice began Monday. We can't afford to miss even one afternoon if we are going to be victorious.

Come one, come all!

Let's practice baseball!

Practice begins at four o'clock, every afternoon.

MILDRED GWALTNEY HEADS BASEBALL

Mildred Gwaltney has been chosen by the Athletic Council to be manager of baseball for this spring. Baseball is the major sport of the spring term and everyone is expecting to enjoy this out of door sport. Mildred has shown both interest and ability in sports and with her as manager, the baseball season can be nothing short of a success.

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Fischer's
Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and
School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

Southside DrugStore
Direct Eastman Kodak Agency
(Fresh Films)
LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS
ONE DAY SERVICE
Complete line Greeting Cards
Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE
YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE
Lovelace Shoe Shop
110 Third Street

Mack's
"WE NEED YOUR HEAD
TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"
We Use the Frederick Method
Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty
BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP
323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store
QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE
Come in and Get Acquainted
We Are Glad to Have You With Us
Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's
Is Headquarters for the Best
SANDWICHES
—and—
DRINKS
—in—
FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler
Gifts of Lasting Remembrance
317 Main Street
Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell
CLEANERS AND TAILORS
Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies
Garments
Special prices for cleaning and remodeling
Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
Phone 98

S. A. Legus
TAILORING
CLEANING
AND PRESSING
Farmville, Va.

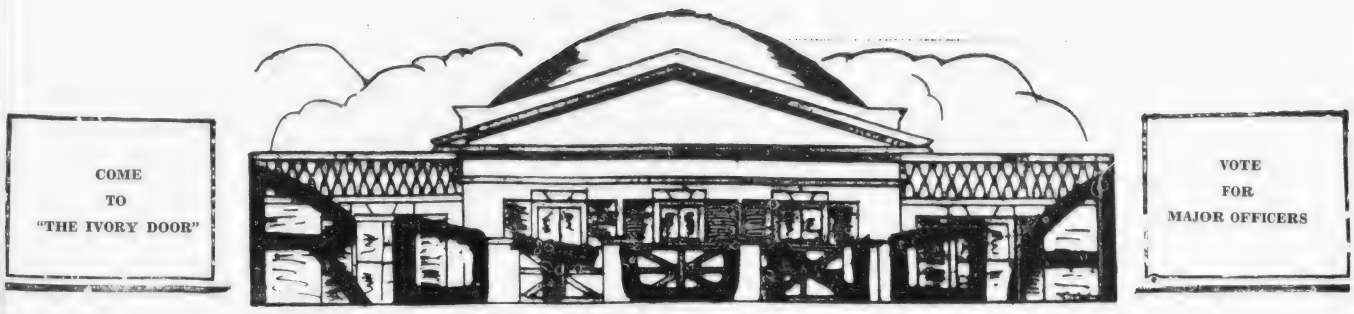
BALDWIN'S EASTER HOSIERY SALE

A money saving event that the college girls look forward to. Now! A great sale of two well known brands.

"CADET" full fashioned service weight and chiffon hose at 59c
2 pairs $1.15

"SENIOR CLASS" Silk Hosiery .. 79c
2 pairs $1.50

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY PRICE SERVICE STORE



ALL DATED UP AND PLACES TO GO

. . . . and you will want to be dressed in keeping with the occasion.

Sport frocks, street dresses and evening gowns will be found in our collection of new spring garments at

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES
FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 1932 No. 23

Senior Choral Club Broadcasts Over W R V A

Mr. Strick Directs Program Which Is Enjoyed by Many Listeners

DR. JARMAN SINGS

The Senior Choral Club under the direction of Prof. Alfred H. Strick, rendered a very beautiful program which was broadcasted Friday night from Station WRVA, Richmond. To the four and odd thousand alumnae who were most probably listening in the following program was wafted:

Gloria ..... Buzzi-Peccia
Senior Choral Club
Litany ..... Schubert
Miss Elsie Carter
One Sweetly Solemn Thought
Junior Quartette
Panis Angelicus ..... Franck
Senior Choral Club
Love's Old Sweet Song
Dr. Jarman
(obligatto by Junior Quartette)
Liebestraum ..... Liszt
Senior Quartette
Solo
Mrs. Charles B. Beck
Lost Chord ..... Sullivan
Senior Choral Club
Alma Mater ..... Potts-Tabb
Senior Choral Club

The interest created within the school by this broadcast was made manifest by the large group which assembled in the music room Friday night to listen in. A hushed silence fell over the entire group as the announcement came over the air that the Senior Choral Club of State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia, under the direction of Alfred H. Strick, head of the Music Department of the College and National Chairman of Junior Festivals, would then sing.

When the beloved voice of Dr. Jarman was heard singing "Love's Old Sweet Song" to his girls; every heart was lifted in happiness—some for what is and some for what has been.

At the first chord of the "Alma Mater' as of one accord the assembl-

(Contniued on page 3)

Latin Club Gives Interesting Progr'm

The Latin Club held its regular meeting, April 1 in Room 0. An interesting program was given. The program was as follows:

The Georgics Viewed at National Poems—Frances Crawford.

Tacitus on the Depressions—Bessie Lynch.

An Ode to Horace—Edith Shanks.

Immigrant Families Mi Facere Emigrates to America—Sarah James

Mr. Jacque, the Old Pitcher—Carmen Clark.

Mr. Frangere, the Breaker—Mildred Linthicum.

Classical Association of Virginia—Lila Jacobs.

March Letter of Classical Association—Mary Conalley.

Origin of April Fool Day — Lois Cox.

At the conclusion of the program, everyone enjoyed a Latin word contest. The prize which was an April Fool was awarded to Sarah James.

DEAN'S LIST FOR THE SPRING QUARTER

The Dean's list for Spring Quarter, 1932, is as follows:

Nancy U. Boykin
Annie Louise Clayton
Henrietta Cornwell
Lillian F. Crawford
Mary Eleanor Davis
Mary Louise Elliott
Lucy Eldridge Fitzgerald
Ruth Christine Floyd
Susie Vann Floyd
Virginia Arvin Gee
Agnes Lee Grigg
Sara K. Hubard
*Ruth Dudley Hunt
Annie Lee Jones
*Frances M. Lancaster
Lucie Anne Lane
Bessie Hankins Lynch
Mary E. McCauley
Bertie Spencer Price
*Doris Virginia Robertson
Easter M. Souders
Mildred W. Steere
Annie Laurie Stone
Elsie Dabney Story
Jane J. Witt
Grave V. Woodhouse
Louise Upton Woodson

*On Dean's List, fall and spring quarters; On Dean's list winter and spring quarters; On Dean's list entire session.

Faculty & Students Invited to Exhibit At Richmond

The faculty and students of the State Teachers College are invited by the Richmond Academy of Arts to participate in its activities from April 10 through May 1.

The exhibits of the Annual Tournament of Arts and Crafts, showing student and amateur work in the pictorial arts, the graphic arts, music, literature, dancing, photography, interior decoration, drama, true arts and crafts and sculpture, will be staged from the 10th through the 23rd of April.

The First Annual Exhibition by Virginia artists (resident and native) showing professional work in painting, black and white, sculpture, music and literature, with exhibts by professional photographers, interior decorators, advertisers, printers and engravers, will be sponsored by the Acadamy from April 17 thru May 1. The contribution of prominent Richmond musicians to these exhibits will be given in the concert which will open the Music Festival of the Virginia Choral Society on Monday, April 24.

The whole period of competition and exhiibtion will be celebrated with a Beaux Arts Ball at the Hotel Jefferson on April 27 or 28, and will be one of the most important social events of Virginia during 1932.

Information about exhibits, contests, costumes, tickets, dates, etc., may be secured from the Tournament Secretaries at 1110 Capitol St., Richmond, Va.

CURIO OF NATURE AT SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

A very interesting natural curio has recently been brought to the Science Department. This unusual object is a "limber rock", a stone, which, strange to say, is flexible. The rock was found in a rock deposit on a mountain in Stokes County, near Danbury, North Carolina. This curio has been attracting much attention for it is said that there are only two deposits of this type of rock in the world.

Delegates From S. T. C. Attend Conference

Incoming and Retiring Presidents of Student Council Go to Tuscaloosa.

HELPFUL FACTS ARE GAINED

The seventeenth annual conference of the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Government was held at the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Ala., March 23, 24, 25, and 26. Grace Virginia Woodhouse and Jane Royall were representatives of Farmville at this conference.

The conference proved most delightful both from the standpoint of assistance in developing higher standards for student life on southern campuses, and from a social standpoint.

Dr. Edmund Howe of the University of Alabama, delivered on March 24, a most interesting and instructive lecture on Japan. Dr. Howe's lecture was illustrated with lantern slides showing many scenes in Japan. These slides be obtained while visiting in Japan last summer. In his talk he gave some interesting phases of Japanese life in relationship to the Sino-Japanese question which has been engaging the attention of the world for the past few months.

Following Dr. Howe's address came a group of discussions led by retiring student presidents as follows:

1.—Freshman Orientation—Andrevena Robinson, Agnes Scott.

2.—Judicial Problems—Montive Lizenby, Woman's College of Alabama.

3.—Honor System—Virginia Townsend, Wesleyan College.

On Friday morning, Dean Mary Williamson, of Hollins College, delivered an address, "The Place of Student Government in Changing Campus Life.' It was Dean Williamson's opinion that student government has developed practically as far as it can in a material way—that is, in giving new privileges for the students. She said, however, that there is room for unlimited growth in the treatment of every individual student, and in getting each student to become more interested in her own responsibility and accepting it as a challenge to live up to.

Group discussions following this address were:

1.—Vocational Guidance—Margar-

(Continued on page 3)

NOMINATIONS FOR THREE MAJOR OFFICES HELD

The results of the nominations for three of the major officers were as follows:

President of House Council
Hattie Gilliam
Margaret Young
Editor-in-Chief of Virginian
Mary Thomas Rawls
Lillian Womack
Editor-in-Chief of Rotunda
Martha Gunter
Sara James

The election of these officers will be held tomorrow from eight to six.

ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA BIDS NEW MEMBERS

The Joan Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma announces the following new members:

Dorothy Snedegar
Hildegarde Ross
Hattie Gilliam
Alice McKay
Jenilee Knight
Mary Thomas Rawls

PITTSBURG DEBATE TEAM WINS OVER HOME TEAM

A debate team from the University of Pittsburg, composed of Misses Genevieve Blott and Louise Lynn, on the evening of March 23, defeated the Farmville team in a debate on the question, "Resolved, That Congress Should Enact Legislation for the Control of Industries." The debate was a splendid one, both sides being most ably upheld.

The negative side of the issue was supported by Misses Margaret Hix and Carrie De Shazo of Farmville. They both made an excellent showing, and judging by their work at that time, this should be last (as it was the first) occasion on which the decision should go in favor of an opposing team.

The decision was rendered by a critic judge, the Rev. Mr. Lipscomb, of the Methodist Church of Farmville.

On April 8, there will be a dual debate with East Radford here. The same question will be under discussion with Margaret Hix and Carrie DeShazo upholding the negative side and Martha Gunter and Margaret DeShazo supporting the affirmative. The names of the East Radford contestants are as yet unknown. The student body and faculty are invited to attend one of the debates on Friday night.

Honor Roll For Winter Quarter Is Made Known

The honor roll for the winter quarter, 1932, is as follows:

Alice V. Abernathy, Isabelle Allegree, Annie Louise Anderson, Frances E. Armistead, Martha Miles Baker, Frances A. Barrell, Nancy Baylor Theodocia M. eBacham, Flora Elizabeth Bischoff, Lorena W. Bland, Fanny Campbell Bosworth, Nancy U. Boykin, Virginia H. Brinkley, Elizabeth Burger, Jane Carter, Carmen E. Clark, Nell L. Clingenpeel, E. Winston Cobb, Katherine B. Coleman, Minnie Alice Collings, Mrs. Susie P. Conant, Nannie Ruth Cooper, Margaret B. Copenhaver, Henrietta E. Cornwell, Lois V. Cox, Lillian Frances Crawford, Helen M. Crute, Mary Artis Danner, Laura L. Darlington, Ann E. Davis, Mary Eleanor Davis, Carrie H. DeShazo, Nella Virginia Dickinson, W. Elizabeth Doyne, Mary Elizabeth Driscoll, Mary Louise Elliott, Emma E. Feagans, Lucy E. Fitzgerald, Susie Vann Floyd, Norma Edith Franklin, Mary Burgess Fraser, Catherine E. Gannaway, Virginia A. Gee, Mary M. Gilmer, Nellie Rives Green, Agnes Lee Grigg, Margaret L. Hamlet, Esther Haskins, Ruth Haskins, Margaret F. Hix, Sara K. Hubard, Ruth Dudley Hunt, Virginia Ann Huntsberry, Lucille B. Ingram, Lila N. Jacob, Sara M. James, Louise P. Johnson, Lucy Page Johnson, Annie Lee Jones, Catherine Lucy Jones, Ellen Earle Jones, Mary Corling Jones, Virgie Mae Kelly, Pela Martha

Continued on page three

LIBRARY TO RECEIVE TEN NEW BOOKS EACH MONTH

The library has requested the Baker and Taylor Company of New York, wholesale dealers in the books of all publishers, to automatically send each month their ten best selling books for the fiction shelf. For the privilige of reading these books a charge of two cents a day is made, including the day on which the book is taken from the library. Watch the library bulletin board for a display of these new book jackets.

"The Ivory Door" To Be Given On April 15th

Spring Play of Dramatic Club Is Full Of Mystery and Excitement

MARY SHELTON STARS

The Dramatic Club will present "The Ivory Door" in the College auditorium April 15 at 8 o'clock. This play, under the direction of Miss Wheeler, is expected to be a most successful spring play and highly entertaining.

"The Ivory Door" is centered around the ivory door which is the terror of the ages, a source of great mystery and interest throughout all the kingdom. A King and a Princess are lost, and return as Evil Spirits, causing no end of agitation among the people. Again the door opens slowly—a scream and the people flew—.

What really is behind that ivory door is the question of greatest concern throughout the entire play.

The main parts are played by Mary Shelton who is remembered for her splendid work in "Mr. Pim Passes By" given last year, and Nancy Burgwyn who took the leading role in "Enter Madame" last fall with such success. There are several character parts played by Alice McKay, Martha Sanders and Nancy Harrison that give opportunities for fine acting.

The entire cast is:

Perivale ..... Mary Shelton
Lilia ..... Nancy Burgwyn
Brand ..... Frances Potts
The Captain ..... Virginia Young
Chancellor ..... Alice McKay
Mummer ..... Ruth Ford
Count Rollo ..... Margaret Gathright
Anna ..... Nancy Harrison
Thora ..... Frances Dorin
Simean ..... Virginia Fox
Jessica ..... Lorena Bland
Anton ..... Dorothy Davis
Beppo ..... Martha Sanders
Titus ..... Jean Allen Bowles
Carlo ..... Margaret Murray
First Prince ..... Lindsay White
King Hilary ..... Easter Souders
Last Prince ..... Martha Higgins
Last King ..... Margaret Armstrong

Library Receives Valuable Gift

The library has been greatly enriched by a reecnt gift of one hundred and twenty-one books kindly presented by Miss Helen Barnes of the English department. These choice books represent mainly the field of literature, though there are a number of excellent volumes of biography and travel.

Such representative and standard authors as the following are among those included: Chaucer, Mallory, Milton, Franklin, Smollett, Goldsmith, Boswell, Jefferson, Burns, Adams, Scott, Austin, DeQuincey, MaCauley, Longfellow, Tennyson, Thackeray, Dickens, Trollope, Bronte, Eliot, Melville, Isben, Harris, Stevenson, Markham, Shaw, Barrie, Galsworthy, Maeterlinck, Yeats, De La Mare, Cather, Broussard, Guest, Walpole, Untermeyer, Ferber and Millay.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

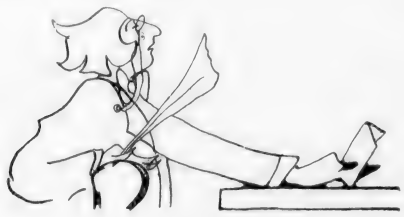
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will

The Last Lap of a Journey

Two months and a day more of the 1931-32 session of school life—April, May, and a few days of June—glorious, bright spring months. They should be glorious bright days of school life. Someone said the other day that she felt as though she were starting on the last lap of a journey which she began away back in the fall.

How have you travelled the journey? Have you been happy and sunshiny from always doing honestly what has been set before you? Have you straightened your shoulders and smilingly met the obstacles that have been in your path? Or have you half-heartedly gone through what you felt you must? Have you dodged duties, turned aside from calls, shirked? No one can answer but you yourself.

And on you depends the way in which you finish the journey. We are happiest when giving our best. Insofar, as we are able, let's make these two happy months.

Whom Will You Elect?

What do elections mean? They mean the selection of persons capable of filling ably the offices to which they are elected.

In voting there are two things to be considered: first, what are the qualities demanded by the office; secondly, does the candidate have these necessary qualities.

Think constructively; elect the person who has the qualities required by the duties of the office.

AT THE FILLING STATION

Hello, Alice! How's Kello's little roommmate this evening? Know any news? What! Why I'm ashamed of your ignorance, "Lee"! Here I'm parked up on this trunk waiting to hear the choicest bit of gossip and that's what you say!

Oh, but by the way, before I listen to your latest escapade, let me ask you one question. Have you bought your ticket to the play, "The Ivory Door?" What! You say that only six girls have asked you that? Why that's terrible. We, Dramatic girls, must get to work.

That's going to be a swell play—no fooling. There are so many characters that if you don't like one or two you are bound to love 'bout ten others. You'll see kings, queens, princes, soldiers, servants, old men, and women, young girls and even little boys.

You'll be surprised to death at the talent you'll see. Did you ever imagine Nancy Harrison as an old nurse; Virginia Fox as a man; Margaret Murray and Jean Allen Bobs as soldiers; Lindsay White as a little boy; Ruth Ford as a comedian; or Martha Sanders as a recrepid old man in his dotage. They are all swell.

You'll split your sides laughing at Dot Davis as she roars forth in a manly fashion and at Virginia Young putting on the drunk act. Is Dorin the coy little girl? Just you wait and see!

When I get started on the play, I could go on and on, but there goes the bell tolling the knell of parting day or something, and so I'd better scramble down and hie myself home.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Mrs. Ruth Cox Seeley, sister of Miss Mary White Cox, and her small daughter, Mary Katherine, are visiting in the home of Mrs. John Cox on High Street.

Paula Irving has accepted a position in the public library in Washington and has left Farmville to assume her duties there.

Beatrice Carico was elected noble grand of Hopewell Lodge No. 56 of the Rebekahs and will preside over the lodge for the first six months of the year. Beatrice was raised in the I. O. O. F. home in Lynchburg and she is known to members of the I. O. O. F. throughout the state.

In June, 1931, Emily Sinclair Calcott received her Ph D. from the University of Virginia. Her dissertation for the degree was in "The Influence of Isaac D'Israeli on Edgar A. Poe."

Dr. E. C. Harper, husband of Juanita Manning, has been elected clinic chairman of the early diagnosis campaign to be conducted by the Richmond Tuberculosis Association during April as a part of the fifth annual nation-wide effort to discover tuberculosis in the early stages. Dr. Harper is chairman of the medical committee and a member of the executive committee of the local association.

The following announcements have been received in the office:

Rosa Lee Maddux became the bride of Charles Ferguson on Feb. 29. The marriage took place at Clarendon, in the home of Mrs. F M. Goff, an aunt of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony they left by plane for New York sailing from there to Cuba and the eWst Indies. They will make their home in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jones Marshall have announced the engagement of their daughter, May Chiswell, to Lieutenant William Wallace Anderson, Construction Corps, U. S. N. Lieut Anderson is from Lexington, Ky., and is at present stationed at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. The wedding will take place in the early summer.

The marriage of Miss Alene Virginia Alphin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Alphin of Rockbridge County, to Major John Herbert Claiborne Mann of the Virginia Military Institute, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Claiborne Mann and the late Mr. Bernard Mann of Petersburg, was solemnized at St. James Church, Richmond. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Churchill J. Gibson, D. D., in the presence of the members of the two families and a few friends.

We are sorry to have the following announcements:

David Hindle, father of Selinda H. Hindle, of Amelia, and a member of the Amelia County School Board, died at his home, "Woodlawn," near Amelia. He was a native of Illinois but had been a resident of the county for twenty-five years.

John Wall Allen, brother of Anna Ruth Allen, died suddenly in Shanghai, China. He was a representative of the British-American Tobacco Co., and had been in China since 1917. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Lena Parrish, of Middleburg, N. C., and three children.

We are republishing an article which appeared in the March issue of the Virginia Journal of Education, by Agnes C. Murphy, a graduate of the class of 1917.

Developing the Proper School Spirit
(By Agnes C. Murphy, Lynchburg)

As I write this I hear a grand unison of voices shouting, cheering the high school team on to victory. The entire city seems in a holiday spirit anticipating victory—horns blowing, traffic stopped, bands playing, banners flying. Is not this demonstration indicative of a desirable school spirit? Yes, but of the least important kind; easily aroused, it is easily destroyed. It is an entertaining and clever bit of advertising for the school.

A really desirable school spirit is one that is permanent. This can result only from slow growth; one that, while it guides and directs the group of the school as a whole, is really the culmination of a school spirit that had its beginnings in smaller groups; therefore no school can have a desirable school spirit unless the class organizations, clubs, or home rooms have developed it in each student.

The morale of any group is clearly demonstrated by the manner in which work is attacked and carried out. The characteristics of this manner should reveal some or all of the following: understanding, sympathy, interest, willingness, pride, possession, confidence based on knowledge and power, and optimism even in failures.

This great array of ideals may tempt us to become discouraged but practically all can be attained if we can create in each pupil a true love and loyalty for the school. The school is primarily his and he should be given the responsibiity of possession by knowing his school, protecting its reputation, caring for the property, sharing in the good things, and helping to remedy or correct the defects. The best of our teachers can seldom make all pupils feel that they are really necessary in the development

(Continued on page 3)

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'

We see that some more recruits have been added to the bobbed hair ranks.

Which reminds us that there is one business from which no complaints of the depression have been heard—the barber shop.

A. J. was heard to say that Richmond is a glorious place nine months out of a year. I thought the capitol buildings are always there. There must be a less stationary attraction in Richmond.

Although Patrick County is known for its freaks of nature, we have several proofs to the contrary here in college.

Grace Virginia and Jane said they were not as badly off as the man who had one foot in his grave and the other on a banana peel.

Did someone once say that the Hampden-Sydney boys weren't or were noticeably polite before cotillion? Anyway they have gone in for studying archaelogy.

It is now just a little over a month before May Day. We are truely going to have a lovely and well planned one considering the progress of the work on it.

MY ANSWER

You ask me what there is to live for.
I tell you lots of things:
There's that bird outside your window there
That sings and sings with exuberant joy
As if to tell the whole wide world
He's so very glad to live.
Too—honeysuckle will be blooming soon—
To sweeten early morning walks
And fill our rooms with pretty smells.
Next month, perhaps, we can run,—and run and jump—.
Exult in pure physical well-being,
Throb with life, hurtling through the air.
Then, there are other things,
Like sunsets running over like tides of the sea,
Music, plaintive, and gay you've not yet heard,
People to help who have not yet come your way.

You'll live? And gladly? Fine:
Then live for something, hear?
And one of these days I'll tell you something I live for,
Besides and far beyond these other things.

Easter Souders

SPRING ECSTACY

Ah, let me run and hide,
Let me run straight to God:
The weather is so mad with white
From sky down to the clod!

If but one thing were so,
Lilac, or thorn out there
It would not be, indeed,
So hard to bear.

The weather has gone mad with white,
The cloud, the highway touch—
White lilac is enough
White thorn too much!

L. W. Reese

LOVELIEST OF TREES

A. E. Hourman

Loveliest of trees, the cherry now
Is hung with bloom along the bough
And stands about the woodland ride
Wearing white for Eastertide.
Now of my threescore years and ten,
Twenty will not come again
And take from seventy springs a score—
It only leaves me fifty more,
And since to look at things in bloom
Fifty springs are little room—
About the woodlands I will go
To see the cherry hung with snow.

MYSTERIES

The murmur of a bee
A witchcraft yieldeth me
If any ask me why,
'T'were easier to die
Than tell.

The red upon the hill
Taketh away my will;
If anybody sneer,
Take care, for God is here,
That's all.
The breaking of the clay
Addeth to my degree;
If any ask me how
Artist, who drew me so,
Must tell!

Emily Dickinson

SILENCE

Edgar Lee Masters

I have known the silence of the stars and of the sea,
And the silence of the city when it pauses
And the silence of a man and a maid,
And the silence for which music alone finds words,
And the silence of the words before the winds of spring begin,
And the silence of the sick
When their eyes roam about the room.
And I ask: For the depths
Of what use is language?
A beast of the fields moans a few times.

SOCIALS

The girls who spent the week-end in Richmond are: Nancy Boykin, Hanna Crawley, Nedra Bair, Helen Shawen, and Eleanor Winter.

* * *

Anne Davis spent Wednesday at her home in Richmond.

* * *

Maymie Showalter and Judith Hardy were in Kenbridge this week-end.

* * *

The following girls attended the V. P. I. dances in Blacksburg: Glenn Perry Colonna, Cornelia Quarles, Fannie Mae Colonna, Martha Cross, Evelyn Knaub, Alice Marshall, and Katherine McLemore.

* * *

Mildred Lipscomb was in Chase City this week-end.

* * *

Martha Baker and Jesse Watkins spent the week-end in Emporia.

* * *

Charlotte Oakey spent the week-end at Hampden-Sydney.

* * *

Anna Frances Traylor, Jennie Wheeler and Helen Westmoreland were in Petersburg this week.

* * *

Those girls who attended the Easter dances at the University of Virginia are: Margaret Copenhaver, Ambler Lee, Julia Faris, Virginia Lowe, Jerry Lee, and Betsy Wilkerson.

* * *

Phyllis Denit spent the week-end in Salem.

* * *

Polly Brock and Burnley Brockenbrough spent the week-end in Staunton.

* * *

Mary McCarn was in Hopewell this week-end.

* * *

Polly Jones was in Shepherd tihs week-end.

APRIL FOOL PARTY GIVEN THE SENIORS

On Saturday night at ten o'clock in the "rec" the Little Sisters were hostesses to an April Fool party which was given in honor of the Senior Class.

The guests were met at the door by Doreen Smith, chairman of the Little Sisters, and were asked to register as they entered. Here the April Fool pranks began, because the guests found that the pencil had no point.

The entertainment began with a treasure hunt, after which many unique contests and games were played under the direction of Sue Yeaman. Many April Fool jokes and pranks were played during the evening which caused much hilarity and excitement. Upon entering, each person was presented with a tiny bag of beans. During the evening every time a person was April fooled she had to give a bean to the person who fooled her. Martha Walters, having fooled the most people, won in this contest and was presented with a bean bag. After the games, the guests were seated in a circle and Winston Cobb delivered little "April Fool Gifts" to the Seniors.

The guests were led to believe that the party had ended when candy wrapped in red, white and blue paper was passed around as refreshments. Some were fortunate enough to find real candy in their paper, while others found small blocks of wood.

After the grand march, refreshments consisting of delicious sandwiches and lemonade were served.

SENIOR CHORAL CLUB BROADCASTS OVER WRVA

Continued from page one

ed listeners rose to their feet in respect in reverence, and in love of their school.

Each number was heard and enjoyed and the program consisted of a variable collection of the highest and best in music.

To the softly hummed tones of "Abide With Me" the program drew to a fitting close.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Continued from page two

of curricular subjects. The classroom work is very important but under present methods and requirements subjects are taught—not boys and girls.

The extra curricular activities are the best means of the present school system to create a love of school if these activities meet the needs of the pupils and are properly sponsored.

A high school of two hundred pupils can have varied activities, as well as smaller or larger schools. Dramatic clubs, current events clubs, literary clubs, music clubs as well as athletic; class and student government organizations can be formed and carried forward by sympathetic understanding teacher-sponsors who, perhaps with no special training but allowing common sense to guide them begin one club at a time along simple lines and by guiding and directing see their work grow to portentious proportions in the pupils' lives.

Assembly programs planned by a group of pupils for the pupils are important ways of developing an all-school feeling. Class organizations, home-room clubs, growing out of curriculum, recreational, athletic, welfare, and honoring clubs, etc. should be organized to suit the need of pupils. Creditable work by any pupil in any of the clubs should have the approval of the faculty as well as the fellow pupils.

In the best organized of our secondary schools, we find that about thirty per cent of the pupils do not belong to any club. Each of non-participating cases should be examined and the obstacles, if possible, should be removed. Certain boys and girls can be greatly helped by the pricipal's or teachers' giving them some school tasks to perform such as errands, ringing the dismissal bell, sounding the fire gong, cafeteria work, ornamenting school building or grounds, mending books, etc.

The highest test of a desirable school spirit is that of a properly functioning pupil participation in government. This is an all school project which should be granted only when the request comes from a majority of pupils to the principal who with the approval of the faculty and a student council delegates certain powers to the pupils. The pupils should realize the principal is responsible for the school and they are responsible to him.

Publications form a most helpful field in developing a school spirit. The handbook is furnished to welcome the new pupil as well as to inform him and guide him when he is in a new environment. The newspaper keeps him informed of the work of the school, classes and clubs. It also furnishes him a means to express himself through its columns. The magazine proves a satisfactory outlet for those of literary ambitions or talents. The annual, although most expensive and least helpful of any of the publications, serves as a memory book.

Our schools should be workshops where the pupils meet so that teachers may guide and direct them in fitting themselves for better living. When two or more people unite to accomplish a piece of work, there grows from this union a spirit that directs and influences every act of the group. As the development of a good spirit depends upon each pupil, let us provide an opportunity to be givers as well as receivers of the school.

The results of a study carried on by the curriculum committee at Bryn Mawr show that sophomores work most, then seniors, then juniors, and lastly freshmen, who work just about the normal amount of time.

Fischer's

Records

Sheet Music

Instruments

Novelties, etc.

Repairing

Third Street

HONOR ROLL FOR WINTER QUARTER, 1932

Continued from page one

Kutz, Virginia S. Lamb, Franmes M. Lancaster, Mildred V. Lancaster, Doris C. Lane, Lucie Anne Lane, Mildred Owen Linthicum, Bessie Owen Lynch, Maury Leigh Lyons, M. Elizabeth McCauley, Catherine M. McIntyre, Alice W. McKay, Margie McManus, Marguerite Massey, Margaret E. Morgan, Mary E. Mustard, Dorothy May Nuchols, June Y. Oney, Margaret A. Otten, M. Frances Potts, Mary G. Pratt, Bertie S. Price, Winifred Jackson Pugh, Anne Putney, Mary Stuart Quaintance, Mary Thomas Rawls, Lois M. Rhodes, Maude R. Rhodes, Anne Watkins Rice, Gay A. Richardson, Duvahl B. Ridgeway, Mary Virginia Robinson, C. Hildegarde Ross, Alice Rowell, Grace Rowell, Jane B. Royall, Alice Elizabeth Russell, Nelle Oakey Ryan, Edith Shanks, Evelyn L. Shaw, Doreen Smith, Flossie Joe Smith, Easter M. Souders, Irwin Staples, Mildred W. Steere, Annie Laurie Stone, Elsie D. Story, Joyce Louise Sturm, Mary E. Swift, Lois O. Tharrington, Edith Topham, Anne Frances Traylor, Viola L. Tuttle, Margaret Louise VanLear, Anna Elizabeth Vassar, Katherine Lee Walton, Helen Grant Warren, Katherine Watkins, Martha Scott Watkins, Dorothy D. Weems, Imogene C. West, Janice R. White, Beverly A. Wilkinson, Betsy Wilkinson, Wilma Evelyn Williams, Ann Foster Wingo, Grace Virginia Woodhouse, Birdie Wooding, Louise U. Woodson, Dorothy C. Woolwine, Dorothy Wootton, Elsie R. Wright.

DELEGATES FROM S. T. C. ATTEND CONFERENCE

Continued from page one

et Gillard, Florida State College.

2.—Student Curricula Committeees —Ann Hargrave, Randolph-Macon.

3.—Fraternities—Catherine Cubberly, William and Mary.

The afternoon business session was devoted entirely to discussions also.

1.—Dormitory Problems — Hazel Meeks, Berman College.

2.—International Relations — Leonora Alexander, Hollins.

3.—Faculty-Student Cooperation—Grace Virginia Woodhouse, Farmville State Teachers College.

A standing vote of appreciation and thanks was extended to the University of Alabama for the delightful entertainment of their guests which included:

Wednesday, March 23

7:30 Reception, Tutwiler Hall Annex
9:00 "At Home—Pi Kappa Alpha

Thursday, March 24

4:00, Horse show ..... Athletic Field
6 to 8:30, Outdoor dinner .... Athletic Field
9, Informal dance—Kappa Sigma

Friday, March 25

4:00—Ride over Tuscaloosa.
6:30, Banquet—Alabama Union Bldg.
9 to 11, Formal dance — Alabama Union Bldg.

Dr. Temple Fay, of the Neuro-Surgery department of the School of eMdicine of Temple University, recently urged the student to banish worries. He branded anxiety as an "enemy to health" declaring that it resulted from ignorance of forces, and circumstances which we do not fully comprehend.—Brackety-Ack.

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community

For Over Half a Century

Finest Toilet Requisites

Drugs and Stationery

MISS SNEAD LEADS PRAYERS

On Friday evening, April 1, a very impressive prayer service was held in the auditorium—Miss Snead being the leader. She taught two beautiful lessons through stories. God needs everyone in his plan for the world, was tactfully illustrated by comparing our work with light. God's church especially in His Church. This fact grows dim if one light is missing—we are lantern bearers.

The last day; the veil is lifted; we see Jesus! To what can this be compared? A blind man's eyes are opened; he beholds a beautiful loved one; his gaze lingers on her as if never to be removed—so will it be when we see Jesus.

PITTSBURG PROFESSOR ISOLATES VITAMIN C

A young professor of chemistry at the University of Pittsburg announced casually on April 4th:

"We have isolated and identified vitamin C."

For five years Dr. C. C. King, not quite 35, and his associates, have labored for a solution long sought by research scientists.

The importance of the work, the exacting calculations, the arduous research and the patient tests found no place in Dr. King's simple announcement.

But he leaned back in his laboratory chair and explained that he had concetrated the vitamin from lemon juice.

Vitamin C is plentiful in lemons, oranges, tomatoes, potatoes, and certain other vegetables and fruits.—New York Times.

A question for formal debate at McGill University not long ago was, "Resolved, that it is better to be drunk than to be in love."

Twenty-five dollars was offered as a prize in a contest recently held to find the ugliest man in the senior class at Notre Dame.

Willis....Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON

A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices

WEYANOKE HOTEL

Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Manageemnt

W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE

Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR

and

COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For

The best fountain drinks

The best sandwiches

The best lunch plates

The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S

The Home of the Needs

Would you like to earn all or a part of a delightful motor trip thru the West or eastern Canada this summer? Write for particulars to:

THE SOUTHERN TOURS, INC.
Box 727b Chapel Hill, N. C.

NOTEBOOK FILLERS

3 for 20c

These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.

Get them at

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Lovely new short, puff, sleeve, sweaters, colors of the rainbow $1.19
Sporty new skirts to match $1.98
Special in our hosiery department—Allen A $1.00
Sheer chiffon hose, picot tops, special 69c
Lovely new military style, polo coats $9.95
Suits ..... $5.49 and $9.95
New creations in millinery ..... $1.95 and $2.95

The Hub Department Store

Offers best values always—Hosiery Sale this week!

JOKES

Father: "Hard work never killed anybody."

Son: "Thats just the trouble, dad. I want to engage in something that has a little danger in it."

British Guide: "It was in this room that Lord Wellington received his first commission!"

American Tourist: "How much was it?"

Son: "What does the word "chauffeur' mean?"

Father: "It means the driver of a car."

Son: "Well, that's not the name you gave the driver of the car that almost ran over you yesterday."

Friend: "Think of the golden moments you have wasted playing bridge."

Bridge Fiend: "Yes, besides a lot of silver coin and paper currency."

Friend: "What did you do when you found that your husband was leading a double life?"

Wife: "Oh, I redoubled."

Doctor: "Have you any idea as to how your wife caught this terrible cold?"

Husband: "I think it was on account of her coat."

Doctor: "Too thin?"

Husband: "No; it was last winter's one and she wouldn't wear it."

First Girl: "I dont see how you could engage yourself to that old man. He hasn't a tooth in his head, and is bald."

Second Girl: "Well, my dear, you shouldnt be too severe on him. After all, he was born that way."

Teacher: "Your little girl seems backward in reading."

Father: "Backward, eh! I suppose she takes after her mother, she always reads the last chapter first."

If I should ever stoop to theft,
'Twould fill me with regret;
Besides, it's so much easier
To borrow and forget.

The trouble with most people who try to be blase is that they never get beyond the first syllable.

"I take my husband apart when I ask him for money."

"I don't have to—mine flies to pieces if I even mention money."

"That lawyer of mine certainly has nerve."

"Why?"

"Well, listen to this item in his bill: For waking up in the middle of the night and thinking over your case, $5.00."

"When I was young the doctor told me to stop smoking or I would become feeble-minded."

"Well, you should have stopped."

BASEBALL TOURNAMENT BEGAN LAST MONDAY

Hurrah! hall tournaments began in baseball last Monday! Which one is going to be the champion? Everyone come out and support your team! They need you!

Remember you are not only helping your hall; but, with constant practice you will help your class to be victorious! Everyone wants her class to come out on top.

Let's make this the outstanding baseball season! There is plenty of time for your class to be the winner, provided you will begin practicing tomorrow and do your best!

Of course, we'll see all of you on the athletic field ready for baseball practice tomorrow from 4 to 6! It only takes five hours of practice each two weeks.

Tennis balls are on sale for thirty-five cents in rooms 67 C. H. and 159 Gym Hall.

WORLD NEWS

The recently appointed Economy Committee of House of Representatives has been considering proposals to cut the salaries of all governmental employees. It has been reported that it plans to present a bill, which if enacted into law, would save the government $5,000,000 a year. No government employee—from the President of the U. S., to the lowest salaried would escape a reduction if Congress acts favorably on the plan.

On March 22nd, the hundredth anniversary of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe's death was observed. The whole world joined Germany in paying tribute to the man who many believe was her most distinguished son.

The government of the Irish Free State, under the presidency of de Valera, has notified Great Britain that it intends to abolish from the Irish constitution the oath of allegiance to the King of England.

In the dining rooms at Harvard tables are set aside for students of German and French. English cannot be spoken at these tables, even by the waitresses. The menus are in the language being used at the table.

Sign of parking lot: "Cars parked, 25c; Austins, two for a quarter."

"Citty": "When do you do your hardest work?"

Mary Alice: "Before breakfast."

"Citty": "What do you do?"

Mary Alice: "Try to get out of bed."

First Spinster: "Which would you desire most in a husband—brains, wealth or appearance?"

Second Ditto: "Appearance and the sooner the better."

Professor: "It gives me great pleasure to mark you 85 on this paper."

Student: "Why not mark it 100 and give yourself a real thrill?"

"Do you think it's possible to love two men at once?"

"Not if they know about it."

Pat "How's that little pig of yours getting along?"

Mike: "Fine, thanks. How're all your folks?"

INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS

Women who wear corsages to the formals of the University of Washington this year will have them removed at the entrance of the place where the dance is being held.

"The early bird gets the worm" must be the spring motto of West Point cadets, who have succeeded in changing their rising hour from 6:20 to 5:50 a. m. ....

An investigation made by one of the northern colleges show that we haxe six million college graduates, and incidentally, exactly the same number of unemployed.

Among the admonitions given the freshmen at Smith College is the following: "Communism has never been successfully worked out. Wear your own clothes and let others wear theirs."

film actress, when she visited Cleveland last week. Miss Harlowe confided that she enjoyed interviews with college reporters because they always seemed to get a "kick" out of meeting her. A nervous request for "photographed autos" was cheerfully given and the college students went away satisfied.

For the first time in the history of this staid old Christian Institution, a Jewish rabbi is to elecrure to the theological students of Harvard University. Dean William L. Sperry, of the Harvard Theological School has invited Rabbi Harry Levi, of Temple Israel, Boston, to address the students for one week on religion, especially on Judaism, when the new Appleton memorial chapel is completed. —Yellow Jacket.

Pledges to fraternities in Holland's schools must shave their heads and enter all buildings through a window. Quite an appropriate training for an up and coming second-story man.

Evidence that women are gaining superiority over men is shown at Emory and Henry College, Males are moving out of East Hall in favor of the co-eds.

Two Western Reserve University reporters were assigned the pleasant task of interviewing Jean Harlow,

More debunking of popular fancies! From one of the members of the Royal Society of Medicine in London comes the news that high heels are a harmless vanity on the part of woman and that they cause no injury to the wearer. Va. Tech.

In the new Hampden-Sydney catalogue there is a statement regarding student marriage. The paragraph reads: "A student who marries either during the session or between the sessions thereby severs his connection with the college."

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM APRIL 7-13

THURS. and FRIDAY — "SKY DEVILS," with SPENCER TRACY, ANN DVORAK and an exceptional cast of sterling players. Here is the "Cock-Eyed World" of the air; topping everything for spectacle, thrills and laughs. It is not a morbid war story, but a thrilling, joyous, wise-cracking comedy, mixed with scenes depicting planes tumbling thousands of feet through dizzy circles, ripping into haykstacks, crushing to the ground, flying upside down, through buildings and hangars—the most dangerous stunt flying ever recorded by camera. Then there's the love triangle with beautiful Ann Dvorak as the center of attraction—and believe you me, she is a real attraction. A picture that will double you up with laughter. A cure for depression, taxes and all other worries. Also a surprise comedy, "Backyard Follies." Altogether a great show you will not want to miss. Chapter 11, "Battling With Buffalo Bill," Friday only.

SATURDAY—Washington Bi-Centennial Show, consisting of DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS in "AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 MINUTES" and a special offering entitled, "WASHINGTON THE MAN." On this day there will be a SPECIAL 1 O'CLOCK MATINEE for SCHOOL CHILDREN. Admission for children under 12 yrs. of age will be 10c; children from 12 to 16, 20c. The same picturre will be shown at the 4 o'clock and 8 o'clock shows when the regular prices will prevail. This is one of the finest entertainments we have ever offered, and no one in Farmville should miss it. A real treat for young and old alike. The latest release of Fox News will also be shown.

NEXT MON. and TUES.—"ARSENE LUPIN" with JOHN and LIONEL BARRYMORE, together on the screen for the first time—and what a performance they give! Here's the greatest detective story ever written, depicting that glorious tale of the master thief, who steals only from the rich, who wins hearts as gracefully as he robs; who reforms a world worn beauty and is himself reformed by her. Never has the Barrymore name been associated with more exciting enteretainment than in "Arsene Lupin," a crook with manners of a price, a thief who loved divinely. Now you can decide who you like the best—Lionel or John. You have here a great story, the brilliant acting of the Barrymores, and there will be no increase in prices. Don't miss it. Also Paramount News and Screen Souvenir.

NEXT WED.—"DANCERS IN THE DARK" with MIRIAM HOPKINS and JACK OAKIE. A half-good girl, enticing, emotional, warm-blooded; too generous. A dancer whom men met easily—loved carelessly—and forgot early. Men were no novelty to her—but love frightened her. She was a good-bad girl with love in her eyes for the one boy. A modern-life romantic drama, action-packed to the last hectic thrill, with Miriam Hopkins as the love-warm charmer; Jack Oakie as the enemy who falls in love with her, and Wm. Collie, Jr., as the youngster who stakes his life for her favor. A strong story, not particularly suitable for children. Also Jack Benny in "Taxi Tangle" and "Coffee and Aspirin."

DAILY MATINEES at 4 p. m., evenings at 8 o'clock. Saturday afternoons continuous matinee from 2:15 to 6 p. m.

ADMISSION—Adults 25c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12, 15c to each show, except as noted above.

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE

YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

GENUINE "PRINTZESS" COATS

AT TWO FEATURE PRICES

$15.00 and $24.50

Special showing at our store during

FAMOUS APPAREL WEEK

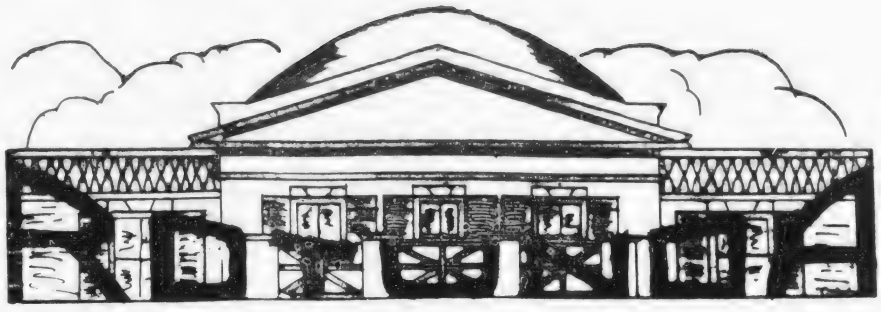
APRIL 2 TO 9

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE · STORE

TOGS FOR TOWN AND CAMPUS

We have just the type dress you want and at prices you like to pay, too.



Many new creations for sport and street wear are now on display at . . .

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

RESERVE SEATS
THURSDAY
AT WHITE'S

DON'T
MISS
"THE IVORY DOOR"

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 13, 1932 No. 24

"The Ivory Door" Opens Here Friday Night

Costumes and Scenery to Be Unusual and Dramatic Club Expects Its Biggest Success

"The Ivory Door" to be given Friday night, at 8 o'clock, is probably the most charming and most entertaining play presented by the Dramatic Club in many seasons. All the splendor, the romance, the simple excitable people of a medieval court are a part of this play that will provoke your curiosity the first minutes and keep your interest till the last curtain fall.

The leading parts are played by Mary Shelton as Perivale, and by Nancy Burgwyn as Lilia. Both are splendid. Martha Sanders, Alice McKay, Nancy Harrison, and Virginia Young take character parts that afford excellent opportunity for individual work.

The costumes, under the direction of Frances Ratcliffe, are gorgeous and add much color to the production. It is estimated that the costumes for "The Ivory Door" outshine anything done in that ine for former plays. Martha Sanders and Virginia Fox have proven to be very capable in arranging the scenery and staging. The lights have been worked out by Mae Downs and Mr. Graham and add a special charm to the stage setting. Alice Marshall has all the properties in order. The music is under the direction of Sue Yeaman. All of these features together with the unusually good acting, are bound to make "The Ivory Door" a great success.

The cast:

Perivale	Mary Shelton
Lilia	Nancy Burgwyn
Brand	Frances Potts
The Captain	Virginia Young
Chancellor	Alice McKay
Mummer	Ruth Ford
Count Rollo	Margaret Gathright
Anna	Nancy Harrison
Thora	Frances Dorin
Simean	Virginia Fox
Jessica	Lorena Bland

Continued on page three

Choral Club to Give Recital in Lynchb'g

The Senior Choral Club will give a sacred recital at the Centenary Methodist church, Lynchburg next Sunday night, April 17.

Accompanying the club will be Dr. Jarman, Miss Irene Leake and Miss Elsie Carter who will take parts on the program.

Mr. A. H. Strick will be the accompanist and director.

The program will be as follows:

Opening Hymn: "Come Thou Almighty King."
Invocation
"Chorale" ..... J. S. Bach
Alfred H. Strick
"Gloria" ..... Buzzi-Peccia
Choral Club
"Litany" ..... Schubert
Miss Elsie Carter
"One Sweetly Solemn Thought" ..... Ambrose
Junior Quartette
"Ninety and Nine' ..... Campiolin
Dr. J. L. Jarman
"Panis Angelicus" ..... Caesar-Frank
Choral Club
"The Lord Is My Light" .... Allitison
Miss Irene Leake
"The Lost Chord" ..... Sullivan
Choral Club
"Hallelujah Chorus" ..... Handel

NEW OFFICERS

Mary Thomas Rawls, Editor-in-Chief of Virginian; Hattie Gilliam, President of House Council; Martha Gunter, Editor-in-Chief of Rotunda.

S. T. C. Teams Win Two of Three Debates

S. T.C. teams won two out of three debates held here on Friday and Monday nights on the subject, "Resolved, That Congress Should Enact Legislation Providing For the Centralized Control of Industries (constitutionality waived)."

On Friday night, April 8, a dual debate was held with East Radford on Farmville grounds. The Farmville affirmative team was Margaret DeShazo and Martha Gunter, who lost to the two Radford representatives: Dorothy Jones and Garnet Hines. The affirmative East Radford team, Minnie Brogran and Ardoth Smith lost to Carrie DeShazo and Margaret Hix of Farmville. Both debates were well organized and well presented.

After the debates on Monday night, a reception was given in the Student Building lounge in honor of the visitors. Members of Pi Kappa Delta and the Debate Club, and members of the faculty of Hampden-Sydney and S. T. C., were present.

On Monday night, April 11, another debate on the same question between Farmville and Waynesburg College was held in the little auditorium here. The affirmative side of the issue was most ably upheld by Margaret DeShazo and Margaret Gunter of Farmville who proved by a two to one devision to John Bailey and Vincent Young of Waynesburg College, that "central control of industry is right, wise and practical."

This debate was also followed by

(Continued on page 4)

UNIVERSNTY OF CALIF. HAS EXTENSION COURSE

The University of California has this year offered an extension course, Methods of Teaching Penmanship, which includes the teaching of handwriting, achievement standards, diagnosis, individual differences, case studies, handwriting test, etc. The educator comments, "We congratulate the faculty of the university on their far-sightedness in offering such a course, and for their willingness to allow suitable credit for the course. We predict that this course will be well patronized by teachers and we trust that other universities and training schools in the country will imitate the splendid example which has been set by the University of California."

Alpha Kappa Gamma To Hold Convention

The annual Alpha Kappa Gamma convention is to meet at S. T. C. April 16; it met last year at Queens-Chicora College in Charlotte, N. C. Alpha Kappa Gamma is a national honor fraternity for the recognition of leadership among women was founded at S. T. C, therefore, we want to give the delegates and guests at the conference the best impression possible of our Alma Mater.

The following program will be followed:

Friday night, 8 o'clock—Dramatic Club play.

Saturday—A. M.
8:30—Breakfast
9:00-10:00—Business meeting
Appointment of committees
Reports from Circles, Committees, and Officers.
10:00-11:00—Recess—Chapel
11:00-12:00—Continue Meeting
1:00—Lunch
P. M.
2:30-1—Reports from committees and election of officers.
2.—Round-Table Discussion
a.—"Orientation of members before and after initiation."
b.—"Factors or qualifications determining fitness or eligibilty of students for Alpha Kappa Gamma."
c.—"How may the active members capitalize the potential force of the associate and honorary membership?
3.—Talk by Miss Lula O. Andrews
4.—Short recess to arrange room for initiation.
5.—Initiation
6.—Meeting adjourn at 4:30.
6:15—Banquet at Longwood; Speaker, Miss Adele Clark.

There will be delegates from the

(Continued on page 3)

CERTIFICATES OF GOOD PENMANSHIP AWARDED

The following penmanship certificates have been awarded:

Anderson, Lucy
Barham, Laeta
Beller, Eloise
Borum, Frances
Burks, Frances
Clodfelter, Louise
Covington, Lou
Cross, Martha
Duke, Elizabeth
Etheridge, Virginia
Gaines, Ruth
Glenn, Mabel
Gravely, Lula

(Continued on page 4.)

Gathright, Parker And Hood Are Class Presidents

Margaret Gathright was elected president of the Senior Class of '33; Margaret Parker, president of the Junior Class, and Mary Hood, president of the Sophomore Class at class meetings this week.

The nominees for these offices were as follows: Jenny Wheeler and Margaret Gathright for the 1933 Senior Class president; Margaret Parker, Mary Shelton, Sue Yeaman, Mildred Gwaltney, and Elizabeth Burger for Junior Class president; Nancy Burgwyn, Belle Lovelace, Mary Hood, and Laeta Barham for Sophomore Class president.

Margaret Gathright has proved her abilities as president of the Junior Class this year. In this office she has served faithfully and successfully Her work has been recognized by others for she has been elected to membership in Alpha Kappa Gamma.

Margaret Parker is very capable of holding the position of class president. Her ability for service and her her capability for leadership are excellent. With her as president, great things are expected of the Junior Class of next year.

Mary Hood has been an active member of the Freshman Commission this year. She has shown marked ability in all the activities in which she participated.

NOMINATIONS FOR MINOR OFFICES HELD TODAY

Nominations for minor officers were held today from eight until six.

Student Council
Secretary
Vice-President
Treasurer
Campus League Chairman

Y. W. C. A.
Vice-President
Secretary
Treasurer
Undergraduate Representative

Athletic Association
Vice-President
Secretary
Treasurer

House Council
Secretary

Virginian
Literary Editor
Business Manager

Rotunda
Business Manager
Associate Editor

Gilliam, Rawls And Gunter Are Elected

Last Three Major Officers For 1932-1933 Selected By the Student Body

Hattie Gilliam was elected president of the House Council, Mary Thomas Rawls, Editor of the Virginian, and Martha Gunter, Editor of the Rotunda for 1932-33 in the election held on Thursday, April 7.

Nominations were made on Tuesday, April 5. Those nominated for the three offices were: Hattie Gilliam, and Margaret Young for president of the House Council; Mary Thomas Rawls and Lillian Womack for Editor of the Virginian; and Martha Gunter and Sara James for Editor of the Rotunda.

As the plan for this year was to try out the new system of electing offices only with the first three elected, no campaign managers were chosen for these three officers.

The girls elected have shown outstanding ability in their different fields. Hattie Gilliam has been a member of the Student Council for three years. She has shown strength, force and enthusiasm in this and whatever she has attempted. She has originality and perseverance.

Mary Thomas Rawls has served actively and ably as business manager of the Virginian for this year. Her character and abilities have been recognized by student organizations, and by the faculty. Since a freshman, she has been outstanding in the life of the college.

Martha Gunter who has worked faithfully and capably as Associate Editor of the Rotunda this year has the qualities desired in an Editor-in-Chief. She has shown interest and enthusiasm in the paper and has proven herself competent of meeting whatever the duties of office demand.

Reports Are Given On Mathematics

The program of the Mathematics Club on Monday morning consisted of the life and work of several outstanding women mathematicians.

"Mathematics started as a tiny brook in the remote mountains of the Past and has increased in power as it watered the landscape through the centuries.' In great irrigation projects it seems that men have had the greatest part. This has also been true with mathematics, but women have likewise contributed to science.

In the club meeting, Elizabeth Fitzgerald gave an interesting paper on Hypatia, the first woman mathematician. The next study, given by Ava Simmons, concerned Sonia Kovalevsky, a Russian, who discovered important rules of calculus. Miss Carrie B. Taliaferro read a paper prepared by Dorothy Bromfield on an Italian mathematician, Maria Agnese who worked with cones. Maria Mitchell, an American astronomer, was discussed by Frances Barrell. Miss Mitchell was interested in teaching. Miss Taliaferro told the club about Charlotte Scott, professor of mathematics at Bryn Mawr College.

The concluding number of the program was a description by Miss Taliaferro of a visit to the Bureau of Standards. She told of the instruments of measuring pressure, weight, length, and for testing airplanes, the sway of tall buildings, and the efficiency of cement.

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will

The Dramatic Club Play

"The Ivory Door" promises to be one of the Dramatic Club's best productions.

The advertisements have aroused the interest of the students and others What lies behind the ivory door is a matter of much conjecture. We must go Friday night and see for ourselves.

The Dramatic Club is one of the college's most active organizations. It is a club in which talented freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors work enthusiastically and faithfully. The club is fortunate in having the excellent coach of dramatics, Miss Leola Wheeler. She is satisfied only with the best and requires this of the characters in her productions. We know that every play which she coaches will be a worthy one.

"The Ivory Door", with entirely different setting and plot from the fall play, is like tht play in that a crowded auditorium of people is expected to be here at its presentation. Judging by the success of previous plays, the talent of the director, the enthusiasm of the cast, and the interest shown in it by students, other members of the college, and town people, "The Ivory Door" will be another highly successful performance by the Dramatic Club members.

WHAT IS BEHIND THE IVORY DOOR?

"I expect there's a long dark passage, and an old woman just snatches you up."

A dreaming little boy, wondering what is behind the door that has been sealed for years by superstitious fears, grows up and becomes the king of the land. During all these years he has not lost his dream of going through the door. It has become almost an obsession with him; and whenever he speaks of it, all the people implore him to forget his thoughts of the ivory door and to be their good and wise and "brave" King.

But the King cannot forget his wonder. Summoning all his courage, one day he approaches the unapproachable, dares that most terrorizing force, the unknown. And it is on the day he is to be married to the beautiful princess.

"I wonder what does happen, Father?"

DO YOU KNOW

If Prince Perivale has ever met Princess Lilia before—secretly, perhaps?

If a devil can kill a man and then assume that man's shape?

How do you play at being King?

How far superstitution really can take people?

Where the key to the Ivory Door is?

And—do you know what lies behind the Ivory Door?

"BELLS AND POMEGRANATES"

"Uh—! Ham? No, bacon! What a heavenly smell!"

"Thing of the flesh, just stop and look at those stars. There's the little dipper. And the milky way is a beautiful path for the angels. The lights in the Senior building are so many spots of warmth on a night like this."

"Uh-huh! But can't you smell that food? Yes, your old stars are pretty!"

"Oh, just look at these flowers in here. Pussy willows are pads of soft velvet to touch lightly and move on."

"Well, my direction is up to the middle of the second floor. Want to go?"

"Yes, but look at that cloud thru the window there. It's a big white puff from the pipe of the god of night."

"Here we are. A sandwich with lots of bacon, and a dope, please! What do you want, 'Dreamy'?"

"A jug of wine and a loaf and a book of verse . . . This bacon is good, isn't it?'

INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS

"PRETTY UNIFORMS"

A co-ed refused to sign a petition circulated at Minnesota against compulsory military training because she liked "pretty uniforms." A new slant on the military drill question.

HURRY TO CLASS

The old-time art of riding a bicycle built-for-two has been revived at Ohio Wesleyan. A limited number of students used a recently repaired tandem to get to classes and dormitories on time.

The following rules were in effect at Salem College in 1772:

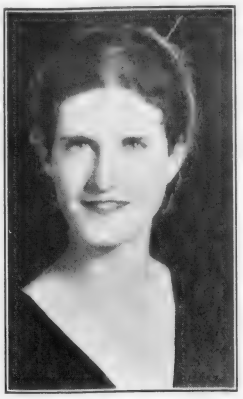
1—Baths can be taken only by special permission and at times indicated by the teachers.

2—During the day the sleeping apartments are not to be visited by scholars.

3—The strictest order is to be observed in the embroidery room.



4—When walking out, pupils are never to go out of sight or hearing of the teachers.

5—Standing in crowds at the front doors, leaning out of windows in an unbecoming manner, and especially rude or loud talkinig at such localities are entirely prohibited.

STOP HOARDING WEEK

"Stop Hoarding Week" at Sweet Briar reacted mainly to the benefit of students at Sweet Briar College. On presentation of a Sweet Briar News, students were permitted to take advantage of low prices scattered here, there and everywhere in both Sweet Briar and Lynchburg.

Among Our Caps And Gowns

GRACE VIRGINIA WOODHOUSE

Especially in this Bicentennial year we think of the slogan that so well describes Washington—"First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." But this year is also important for us, because it has given us Grace Virginia for student body president, which makes her first with all of us.

When Grace was chosen as representative of the freshman cass to serve on the Student Council, her service to S. T. C. was just beginning. Her Sophomore year she served on the Student Council as Campus League chairman, and her Junior year as secretary. Her goal was attained when she was elected to serve as president of our Student Body. In this work she has given herself whole heartedly, showing her ability as an outstanding leader. Grace has had the love and cooperation of the student body and has won the respect and admiration of all by her untiring efforts.

Grace has been outstanding in many fields and especially as president of the Junior Class, and for her work in the Dramatic Club.

Grace Virginia is leaving this year, but she will leave with the school memories of an outstanding personality. Not only will she leave many things behind her, but we may be assured that wherever she goes, she will take with her the spirit of her Alma Mater—the undying spirit of the leader—Joan of Arc.

A. J. SCOTT

The present president of our Y. W. is a girl of character, ability and personality. Her many and varied interests in her Alma Mater have led her to become a leader; this fact could not be more fully recognized than through Alpha Kappa Gamma of which she is a member. In the social side of school activities A. J. is aso prominent and is a member of Pi Kappa Sigma sorority, Cotillion Club, N. B. B. O. and the Choral Club. She has shown her class spirit and athletic ability in winning for herself and her class a place on both

(Continued on page 3)

SUPERSTITION

"Father, what happened to old King Stephen,
The boldest of the bold?"
"They say that devils carried him off
In the long gone days of old."

"But Father, what happened to Perivale,
The bravest of the brave?"
"'Tis said that he fell in a bottomless pit,
From which nothing could save."

"But Father, where did they all go,
Never to be seen any more?"
"Son, it's a sad old story:
They went through the Ivory Door."

THE CEDAR

Shall the cedar perfectly shaped
Outlined against the evening sky
Go unsung?
Or will there arise one
Who with brush or pen
Shall tell
The quietness, the peace of its beauty
As it stands silhouetted
Against the sky?

THE FACE OF A CHILD

Because I long to paint with colors
The fair face of a child
And cannot
With words I paint its shining beauty,
Hoping to catch the light
Of its smile.

LIFE IN A LOVELY MOMENT

A fireplace with its firelight flickering o'er forms
Of girls in gay, evening gowns
With boys in somber black and white,
Life in a lovely moment caught in the laughter
Of a girl and boy as they sit
Amid the gleam of movement and color.

DISCRETION

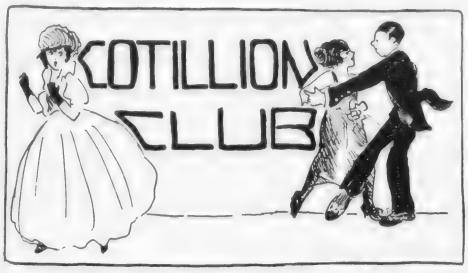
You laughed at me—
You called me a droll thing
Unskilled in the world
I did not refute you;
I merely cried.

But then I grew old
In wisdom and prudence,
In knowledge and judgment,
But then I grew wise
In the ways of the world.

You laughed at me—
I laughed.
I agreed, "I know naught
Of the ways of the world"
And, oh, you laughed with me,
Not at me!

V. M. F., '33

SPRING RAIN



Raindrops sliding across clover leaves
Are balls of silver—why is it he grieves?
Buttercups drenched with morning dew
Say God's in His heaven—what's wrong with you?
Daffodils stirring in the breeze
Are golden goblets from beyond the seas.
Why does that robin sing and sing?
Why trees are budding in early spring.
Little children making mud pies
Say to the weary, just open your eyes.
The world is so lovely and grand and gay,
Why can't you be happy with us today?

E. M. S.

LAST RESORT

Weary of a world grown hysterical,
I walked fast on a cool night that was still.
On the way back I cried,
"God! Where are you God?"
The cool night grew more still
With the despair of no answer.

Easter Souders

Spring Cotillion Dance Given Last Saturday Night Was Great Success

The annual Spring Cotillion dance was held in the large gymnasium Saturday night, April 9 from the hours of 8:30 till 12:00 o'clock. The gymnasium was most attractively decorated with ropes of brilliant and varigated colors. From the center of the ceiling extended a huge hoop which formed the rim of a basket made of the colorful rainbow ropes. The basket was filled with red, green, yellow, blue and orange balloons which were released during the dance. The ceiling was concealed by the picturesque network of rope that extended from the hoop in the center of the ceiling.

Jelly Leftwich's Orchestra from Duke University furnished music for the gala throng.

Miss Martha Sanders led the figure with Mr. Owsley Sanders of Richmond, assisted by Miss Helen Cover with Mr. John Grant of Richmond.

The figure ended in the formation of the letters C. C. (Cotillion Club).

Alumnae who returned for Cotillion were:
Jessie Smith
Loulie Mosby
Leola Carter
Martha Ann Lalinng—Wesley Smith
Eleanor Hogan
Adele Hutchinson
Virginia Ford—George Wall
Elizabeth Antrim—OFerrall Thompson
Mary Trimyer—Duval Royster
Blanche Murrell
"Happy" Hughes
Mary Ellen Cato
Claudia Fleming
Elizabeth Watkins
Peggy Barham—Dempsie Wallace
Evelyn Dulaney—Clyde Peybor
Dorothy Goodloe—J. P. Taylor
Martha Moore
Alice Steidtman
Margaret Loving—Jessie Franklin
Mrs. Matie L. Osborne
Lucy Dortch—Clarence Garrard
Jeanette Morris
Evelyn Holland—Louis Clarke
Virginia Raine—Meredith Dortch
Hazel Burgwyn—Ben Franklin
Charlene Williams—Pete Lasley
Pinky Schaffner—Wiley Putney
Mrs. Walter Putney—Walter Putney
Dolly Reed—Sam McClure
Louise Munt—Bud Jefferson
Grace Tritton
Mary Farrier—Franklin Hopkins
Margaret Pumphrey
"Liz" Lacey
Julia Kirkman
Ellen Fowlkes
Mayo Beaty—Buddy Dotson
Alice Wimbish—Buck Jordan
Dot Anderson—Bill Daughtery
Doris Walton—Caswell Hardaway
Frances Martin—Ed Vincent
Julia Martin—Reg Carsons
Alma Garlick—Lewis Smith
Anna Minter—W. W. Jefferson
Jane Brown—L. W. Littrell
Evelyn Peake
Mary Duncan—L. A. Strader
Sara Wills—H. B. Culpeper
Mary Tucker—Wilfred Johnson
Elizabeth Williams—Doug Williams
Colleen Maddox—Carlos Wright
"Girlie" Wright
Elizabeth Ferrell
Myra Reese
Virginia Witt
Jacque Lee—Milton Scrinner
Minnie Brown
Lula Turner
Ella Hunt Davis
Margaret Faris—Warren Cloud
Courtney Neale—Carl Byers
Margaret Hubbard
Mildred Jackson—Jack Baskerville
Helen Robertson—Tom Pumphries
Frances Hagerty—Paul Davidson
Curtis Higgins
Anna Coleman
Toodles Booth
Nora Petty Langhorne
Virginia Goode—Teddy Hodges
Virginia Cobb—Mr. Wilbourn
Elizabeth Scott—Valentine Southall
Mrs. Evelyn B. Broaddus.

MU OMEGA HOLDS SPRING BANQUET

The Mu Omega Sorority held its Spring Banquet in the Banquet Room of the Tea Room on Saturday night. The color scheme of the banquet was the same as that of the sorority, namely black and white. The colors were carried out by the use of white roses in black bowls and white taper candles. Guests of the banquet were Miss Leola Wheeler, sorority adviser, and Mrs. Lewis Hubbard, patron.

The following alumnae of the chapter returned for the banquet and dance: Elizabeth Antrim, Peggy Barham, Mary Ellen Cato, Edith Cornwell, Evelyn Dulaney, Mary Duncan, Margaret Faris, Elizabeth Ferrell, Eleanor Hogan, Margaret Hubbard, Adele Hutchinson, Rena Robertson, Mary Tucker, and Mrs. Jimmy Fretwell.

NATIONAL ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA CONVENTION

Continued from page one

Olympian Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma at Queens and The Florence Nightingale Circle at South Carolina. Many of our own alumnae will be here, also the national officers, including Rene Mayers of South Carolina and Miss Andrews, honorary member and ex-faculty member of S. T. C.

Miss Adele Clark will be the speaker at the banquet. Miss Clark was a member of the committee on State Liberal Arts College, and is an artist of note, and we have been quite fortunate in securing her.

PI KAPPA SIGMA HAS A BANQUET

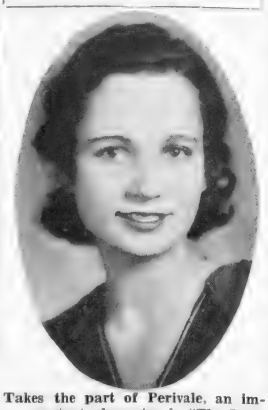
Pi Kappa Sigma Sorority held its annual spring banquet at Longwood on April 9 at 6:30.

The color scheme of the banquet table was carried out in gold and blue. A delicious four course dinner was enjoyed by all. Besides the members, Miss Mix and Miss Iler were present. The alumnae who returned were Blanche Murrell, Dot Goodloe, Mary Trimyer, Dot Ritchie, Martha Baker Bass, and Hazel Burgwyn.

SORORITIES BID NEW MEMBERS

Alpha Chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma announces the following new members:

Charlotte Oaky, Salem
Sarah Beck, Dinwiddie
Helen Shawen, Newport News



Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Pi Kappa Sigma announces the following new member:

Myra McIntosh, Farmville.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

MARY SHELTON

Takes the part of Perivale, an important character in "The Ivory Door."

SOCIALS

The following girls attended the V. M. I. dances in Lexington this week-end:

Katheryn Waters, Medora Ford, Anne Winstead and Brookes Wheeler.

• • •

Martha Baker and Jessie Watkins visited in Lawrenceville this week-end.

• • •

Ann Davis, Clara McKenzie and Vernie Oden were in Richmond Wednesday.

• • •

Thelma Stevens and Helen Westmoreland spent the week-end in Petersburg.

• • •

Those who spent the week-end in Lynchburg are Betsy Ross, Helen Harris, Louise Clodfelter, Dorothy Woolwine and Mary Pearson.

• • •

Ruth and Maymie Showalter were in Kenbridge this week-end.

• • •

Lucie Ann Lane, Mildred Steere, and Frances Edwards were visiting in Petersburg Thursday.

• • •

Louise Johnson spent the week-end at Fork Union.

• • •

Pauline Broadwater and Mary Conway spent the week-end in Richmond.

• • •

Lillian Woodley was in Dumbarton this week-end.

• • •

Ruth Atkins spent the week-end in Bremo Bluff.

• • •

Virginia Ann Huntsberry spent Sunday in Hopewell.

"THE IVORY DOOR" OPENS FRIDAY NIGHT

Continued from page one

Anton ..... Dorothy Davis
Beppo ..... Martha Sanders
Titus ..... Martha Scott Watkins
Carlo ..... Margaret Murray
First Prince ..... Lindsay White
King Hilary ..... Easter Souders
Last Prince ..... Martha Higgins
Last King ..... Margaret Armstrong

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

Y. W. C. A.

WORLD FELLOWSHIP NIGHT BASED ON ITALY

Friday night of each week is World Fellowship night. Throughout this entire school year, on that night messages have been brought to the students through members of the faculty, from the various foreign countries of the world.

An insight into the lives of people in France, China, Newfoundland and other countries has been clearly portrayed.

On Friday night of the past week Miss Coulling talked of Italy and its people. It is the first hand information that counts so much in revealing the customs and traditions of foreign nations. Consequently, the students are very grateful to those who have in any way brought messages from those foreign friends of whom so little intimate knowledge is had.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASSES PRESENT SING

Saturday night, April 8 Mrs. Fitzpatrick's physical education class presented sing. The program consisted of tap dancing, natural dancing, and pyramids.

The tap dancing plainly showed just what good looking boys some of the girls in school can make. The natural dancing was excellent. We discovered there are real acrobats here at S. T. C. A very fine program, indeed!

A. J. SCOTT

Continued from page two

the Junior and Senior hockey squads. She will be an attractive addition to our May Court this year. Through the fact that she graduates in June, we will lose one of our most admirable and accomplished girls.

The 1932 Virginian is expected to return from the printers about the first or second week in May. From all reports it will be one of the best annual that has ever been issued by the students here. Be sure to complete your payment on the annual as soon as possible.

Willis.... Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

Would you like to earn all or a part of a delightful motor trip thru the West or eastern Canada this summer? Write for particulars to:
THE SOUTHERN TOURS, INC.
Box 727b Chapel Hill, N. C.

NOTEBOOK FILLERS
3 for 20c
These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.
Get them at
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Lovely new short, puff, sleeve, sweaters, colors of the rainbow $1.19
Sporty new skirts to match $1.98
Special in our hosiery department—Allen A $1.00
Sheer chiffon hose, picot tops, special 69c
Lovely new military style, polo coats $9.95
Suits ..... $5.49 and $9.95
New creations in millinery ..... $1.95 and $2.95
The Hub Department Store
Offers best values always—Hosiery Sale this week!

JOKES

First Blonde: "A man's no good unless he has something tender about him."

Second Blonde: "Yeh, legal tender."

S. S. Teacher: "Dear children, what is the last thing you must do before going to bed?"

Wise Child: "Put the door-key in the mail box for grandma."

Bride: "Before we were married Henry, you always gave me the most beautiful presents. Do you remember?"

Henry: "Sure, but my dear, did you ever hear of a fisherman feeding bait to a fish after he had caught it?"

First Smarty: "Why haven't you any hair on your head?"

Second Ditto: "Grass doesn't grow on a busy street."

First Smarty: "No, it can't get up through the concrete."

Wifey (hubby's' former secretary): "Where have you been all evening, you brute?"

Hubby: "Honestly, honey, I wasn't at the office."

"And has your baby learned to talk?"

"Why, yes! We're teaching him to keep quiet now!"

Timid Man (at lecture to talkative females): "Er-ah—I'm afraid I can't hear what is being said."

Woman: "You weren't supposed to. This is a private conversation."

"The table manners of some rich men are not perfect," says a critic. Yes—many a millionaire has been born with a silver knife in his mouth."

Police Chief (to cop reading mystery story): "How's that murder story?"

Cop: "Awful! Same old bunk! They catch the murderer in the end!"

Office Manager: "I'm afraid you're ignoring our efficiency system, Mr. Jones."

Mr. Jones: "Perhaps so, sir, but someone has to get the work done.'

Smart Youth (rocking the boat): "Bet I can scare you.'

Modern Girl: "Once before a boy tried that and upset the boat."

S. Y.: "And what did you do?"

M. G.: "Oh, I swam ashore and notified the coroner."

American: "You can board a train in the State of Kentucky and twenty-four hours later still be in Kentucky."

Englishman: "Yes, we have trains like that, too."

A woman who can't remember anything has been found wandering about New York. Probably a witness.

ANNUAL SPRING DOUBLES IN TENNIS TO BEGIN

Well, Spring is certainly here and tennis is right with it. This is evidenced by the fact that the courts have been quite crowded. We hope that they will continue to be that way. Anyway, annual Spring Doubles Tournament is just about here. Get a partner and come on out nd chalk up some more points for the red and white or the green and white—but more especially for old blue and white! Come on out! Suppor your colors and help make this one of the best seasons ever in tennis.

CERTIFICATES OF GOOD PENMANSHIP AWARDED

Continued from page one

Hall, Mildred
Harrison, Nancy
Holland, Hazel
Martin, Inez
Marshall, Mary
McGhee, Lucille
Moran, Marion
Murray, Margaret
Petree, Kathleen
Phillips, Mildred
Sinclair, Georgiana
Wilbourn, Catherine
Williamson, Janie
Woodhouse, Pauline.

S. T. C. TEAMS WIN TWO OF THREE DEBATES

Continued from page one

a reception in the lounge. There was dancing and singing, and excellent punch and sandwiches were served.

The debate with Waynesburg College closed the debate season for this school year.

Boss—You're late again Jones. Do you never use your alarm clock?

Jones—Yes, sir, but I no longer find it alarming.

Autoist—Aren't you afraid of wasting gasoline the way you handle that hose?

Attendant—There's no waste for us, sir—we get paid for the amount our meter registers.

Lawyer—Is it true that there are traces of insanity in your family?

Witness—Yes, my father and grandfather both were lawyers.

No. 1—That new chorus girl is as thin as a match.

No. 2—Yeah, and just about as easy to flare up.

Brady: "Every night before I go to bed I write down my day's thoughts."

Lowe: "How long have you been doing that?"

Brady: "About five years."

Lowe: "Good gracious, you must have nearly a page full by now!"

Traveler (at ranch): "How in the world do you make a go of things on this place?"

Host (pointing at hired man): "See that feller there? Well, he works for me and I can't pay him. In two years he gets the ranch. Then I work for him till I git it back."

Movie Star: "I'm as sober as the cops who arrested me!"

Judge: "Thirty days. Your defense is too weak."

"The craze for the Empress Eugenie hat is passing," says a fashion expert. We noticed that the hat didn't seem to be on to stay.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS

Eight students of William & Mary school of aviation have received the pilot's license. They are the first to receive license from this schoool, which is the first college to have a course flight instruction as a part of the regular curriculum.

In The Reflector we find this agreement:

"If it's heads, we'll go to the show:
If it's tails we'll stay at home.
If it stands on edge, we'll go to bed,
If it doesn't come down at all, we'll study."

EASTER EGG HUNT

An Easter egg hunt held the attention of Alabama Polytechnic Institute students during the recent Easter season. Discoverer of the most eggs received a bridge table. Further attractions included a scramble for the golden egg—a gilded football. The Interfraternity Council sponsored the affair.

The University of Oklahoma is cooperating with merchants of the town in which that school is located by threatening to take away all credits for the next semester from students who owe bills to said merchants. There is a total debt outstanding of something like six thousand dollars.

Left handed ping pong is being used at the University of Minnesota to cure stammering students.

CHARM SCHOOL WEEK

Charm School Week at Georgia State College for Women rated a record attendance. Aspirants for charm heard talks on dress, manners, health culture, and speech.

At the University of Chicago groups of 150 to 300 students attend lectures conducted by the University's leading authorities and specialists, and then break up into smaller groups, each in charge of an instructor. The subject just heard is then discussed, the instructor merely answering questions when necessary. Grades, class attendance, have been abolished.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM APRIL 14 TO 20

THURSDAY—ONE DAY ONLY—"FREAKS" with LELIA HYAMS, WALLACE FORD and unbelievable people in a startling love drama that will startle and amaze you. The love story of a giant, a siren and a midget, enacted against the background of the humans and half-humans of the circus world. Nothing like it has ever appeared on the screen. What about abnormal people? Do they love and hate? What about the Siamese twins; the pinheads; the half-man, half woman, the Alligator Boy; the Bird Girl; dwarfs and other freaks? You'll ask yourself a thousand questions. Frankly, to some the picture is horrible so we are playing it but one day. Just the same it thrills and awes and you will not again see another picture like it. Also Ford Sterling in "20 Horses" and travelogue of London.

FRIDAY & SATURDAY—"DEVIL'S LOTTERY" with ELISSA LANDI, VICTOR McLAGLEN and ALEXANDER KIRKLAND. The strangest week-end you could hope to attend, at the palatial castle of an English Lord, with a scarlet woman, a gambler, a prize fighter and a war veteran as the honored guests; and with romance, shame, adventure and tragedy uninvited but ever present. Here is a woman whose love was a gamble no man could win. She opened her arms and love walked in—She opened her heart and it vanished. Miss Landis is glamorous and her gowns are marvelous. Here's swift action, thrilling events and a triangled romance. A great story—excellent acting—you will like it. Also Screen Song, Fox News and "Dive In."

NEXT MONDAY—JOAN BENNETT and JOHN BOLES in "CARELESS LADY". The hilarious mix-up that follows a girl when she pretends to be married in order to enjoy a Paris vacation, only to have a persistent "husband" appear on the scene. Here's sparkling entertainment with John Boles and Joan Bennett at their best, and Boles sings in this picture, "When You Hear This Song, Remember Me." Girls will adore this picture; and wives will want their husbnds to share its grand entertainment; so lock up your husband, barricade your boy-friend, but don't miss Joan's technique—it's unique. Special Notice—Also First Episode of "THE AIR MAIL MYSTERY", the most thrilling serial we have yet shown. Will appeal to young and old alike. Will be shown every Monday and Tuesday for 12 weeks.

NEXT TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY—"MURDERS IN RUE MORGUE" with SIDNEY FOX and BELA LUGOSI (Dracula himself). Take a firm grip on yourself and get ready for a huge, delightful thrill, for the strangest and most daring picture ever made. Here is Edgar Allen Poe's famous crime story depicting the exciting adventures of a half-demented doctor, obsessed with the idea of crossing the blood of a giant forilla with that of a living girl. The girl's sweetheart eventually saves her but not before a startling climax brings shrieks from the audience. If you are nervous better see the afternoon show. Otherwise you'll not sleep at night. First Chapter of "The Air Mail Mystery" also shown on Tuesday and two splendid comedies on Wednesday.

Daily matinees at 4 P. M. with continuous matinees Every Saturday from 2:15 to 6 p. m. Evenings at 8 o'clock sharp.

ADMISSION—Adults 35c at night and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age 15c to each show.

ARCHERY PRACTICE IS BEING HELD HERE

Now that Spring is here the Robin Hoods of S. T. C. are beginning to feel the urge again to go out and try their luck with the bow and arrow. The tournament is drawing near. We all need practice. Although the red and whites are now ahead in the race for the color cup it will be a close fight and both sides need the points. So, come out, and help your colors to come out on top.

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

BEGINNING FRIDAY MORNING

BALDWIN'S "Once-in-a-Lifetime Sale"

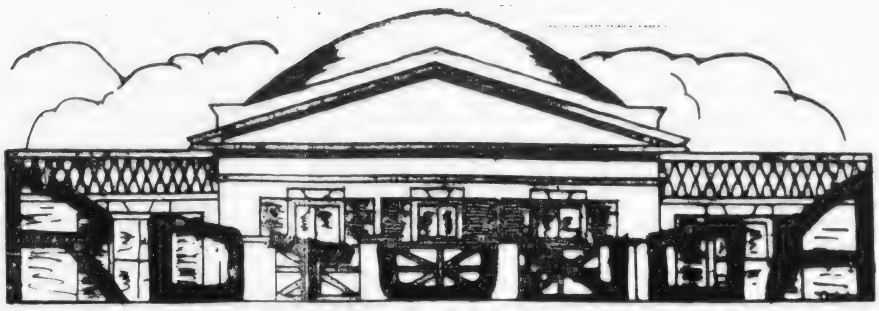
An event that will interest every college girl. Things to wear an dfor your room will be found at this unusual event.

Tell your roommate too, she will want to attend.

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

THEY'RE SO SMART

That's what you will say about the lovely new frocks just arrived this week You will be amazed at the exceptional values we offer.



New spring frocks for all occasions.

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

PATRONIZE
OUR ADVERTIZERS

ORCHESTRA TO BROADCAST
OVER WRVA

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1932 No. 25

Alpha Kappa Gamma Convention Is Held Here

Dramatic Club Spring Play Is a Success

Best Production Ever Rendered By Students of the State Teachers College

The Dramatic Club spring play, "The Ivory Door", presented Friday night, was enjoyed more perhaps than any other play in years. On a whole it was unusually well done. The stage settings, costumes, and lighting effects were more nearly perfect than any of other the school has had. The cast contained more good actors than amateur shows have as a rule. An interesting story, good characterization, clever dialogue with the addition of these other things, and a most appreciative audience, made an above-the-average play, if not drama.

Especially good, in the leading role was Mary Shelton. She showed great feeling throughout the part, giving most delicate emotional shades. She approached a depth of some power in the final scene.

Nancy Burgwyn, playing a part entirely different from hers in "Enter Madame" proved her wide dramatic ability. She too, showed great feeling, at times moving her audience deeply.

Alice McKay, the nervous, safety-seeking, custom-bound Chancellor, Nancy Harrison, as presuming, wicked old Anna; Martha Sanders, the deaf old know-all; Virginia Young, the bragging soldier, susceptible to the temptation of drink; Ruth Ford, 'playing kings in the presence of kings"; Frances Dorin, faithful to her lord's command; Lindsay White the curious questioning, serious little boy, were all a delight to the audience. They provided the comedy for the play and added suspense all the way through.

Others who had parts, all of which were done most acceptably were: Frances Potts, Henrietta Cornwell, Margaret Murray, Martha Scott Watkins, Virginia Fox, Margaret Armstrong, Martha Higgins, Virginia Guy, Lorena Bland, Dorothy Davis, Nell Oakey Ryan, and Easter Souders.

Community Sing Is Given Here

The Business Mens Chorus of Farmville sponsored a community sing which was held in the S. T. C. auditorium Tuesday night. A large number of town people, college girls and Hampden-Sydney boys were present to enjoy as well as furnish the music.

Many old familiar songs were sung by everyone who was present. They joined in this singing with enthusiasm and feeling. Following is the program of the evening:

Selections ..... Farmville Silver Band
Old Folks at Home ..... Audience
Old Black Joe ..... Audience
Massa's in the Cold Ground Audience
Swing Low Sweet Chariot .. Quartet
Long Long Ago ..... Audience
When You and I Were Young, Maggie ..... Audience
On the Road to Mandalay
Mother Machree ..... Dr. Jarman
Deep River ..... Junior Trio
Old Oaken Bucket ..... Audience

Continued on page three

Class Elections Are Held Tuesday Night

The minor class officers of next year's Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes were elected at class meetings last night.

The following are the minor officers for the Senior Class of 1933:

Vice-president ..... Alice Moore
Secretary ..... Sarah Rowell
Treasurer ..... Henrietta Taylor
Student Council Representatives:
Lois Rhoades
Hildegarde Ross
Student Standards Committee Rep.:
Imogene West
Lillian Womack

The officers for next year's Junior class are:

Vice-president ..... Mary Shelton
Secretary ..... Elizabeth Kelley
Treasurer ..... Elma Rawlings
Student Council Representatives:
Sarah Hyde Thomas
Virginia Brinkley
Student Standards Committee Rep.:
Mary B. Nelson
Grace Rowell

The minor officers of the Sophomore Class of 1932-'33 are:

Vice-president ..... Justine Cutshall
Secretary ..... Laeta Barham
Treasurer ..... Dot Davis
Student Council Representatives:
Isabelle Allegree
Pela Kutz

"HAPPY" BILL COPE TO GIVE PROGRAM TONIGHT

"Happy" Bill Cope will give a program of musical eccentricities tonight at eight o'clock. He will play the piano, banjo, guitar, and accordian. It will be a "prosperity program at depression prices."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION INSTITUTE HELD AT BLACKSTONE, VIRGINIA

The Methodist Christian Education Institute for the Farmville district was held at Blackstone Thursday, April 14. Delegates and others interested in Christian Education work from the various churches of the district attended and found the program interesting and helpful.

Mr. H. B. Lipscomb, district secretary, presided and introduced the members of the State Board of Christian Education who spoke on the different phases of Christian Education in the church.

Dr. W. Archer Wright spoke on adult's wohk; R. W. Vanderberry on young peoples work; Miss Elizabeth Jarratt on children's work; and I. L. Llewellyn on extension work.

After the general assembly, those atending were given an opportunity to discuss their work in group meetings, led by the speakers.

Those from S. T. C. who attended the Institute were:

Dorothy Snedegar
Mildred Linthicum
Josephine Kent
Elizabeth Wathall

Continued on page three

Minor Officers For 1932-33 Are Elected

Student Body Chooses Girls Well-Fitted and Qualified for Office

Elections for minor officers were held last Friday, April 15, with the following girls elected:

Student Council

Vice-President ..... Helen Cover
Secretary ..... Alice McKay
Treasurer ..... Betty Watts
Campus League Chairman
Nell Weaver

Y. W. C. A.

Vice-President ..... Sue Yeaman
Secretary ..... Edith Shanks
Treasurer ..... Lucille Ingram
Undergrad. Rep. .... Honey Hamilton
Faculty Adviser ..... Miss Henry
Miss Potts
Miss Moran
Mr. French

A. A.

Vice-President ..... Hildegarde Ross
Secretary ..... Mary Berkeley Nelson
Treasurer ..... Mildred Gwaltney

House Council

Secretary ..... Sarah James

Virginian

Literary Editor ..... Lois Rhodes
Business Mgr. ..... Mary B. Fraser
Art Editor ..... Katherine Royster

Rotunda

Associate Editor ..... Mary Diehl
Business Mgr. ..... Frances Potts

These girls are well qualified for their offices. By being elected they have shown hat they are backed by the student body. Under their capable and efficient leadership, great things are expected next year.

Dr. Earl A. Rugg Visits S. T. C.

Dr. Earl A. Rugg of Colorado State Teachers College in Greeley, Colo., was in Farmville several days of the past week. While here, he mainly studied the personnel work of the college. He is the principal specialist in the research of the national survey of Teachers Training. The survey is covering twenty-four teacher training schools. According to Dr. Rugg this is the only college in the south he is visiting. This survey has been going on all of this year under the auspices of the bureau of education of the U. S. A.

KAPPA DELTA PI ANNOUNCES PLEDGES

Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi announces the following new pledges:

Miss Annie Laurie Stone
Lois Rhoades
Doris Robertson

S. T. C. STUDENTS JUDGE CHARLOTTE CONTESTS

State Teachers College furnished all the judges for the Charlotte County literary contests held in Keysville last Friday. The six judges, all of whom are members of the Debate Club were: Martha Ann Laing, of the Class of 1931, and Margaret Hix, Carrie DeShazo, Martha Gunter, Margaret DeShazo, and Margaret Jack.

College Orchestra To Broadcast Over WRVA

The College Orchestra is going to Richmond next Friday night, April 22, to broadcast a program from Station WRVA from 8:15 to 9:00 o'clock.

Included in the program are solos by members of the orchestra. The program is as follows:

I—Cabin Song ..... White
At Sunrise ..... Grunn
Death and the Maiden .... Schubert
Japanese Sunset ..... Deppen
Prelude in C minor, Rachmaninoff
Orchestra

II.—Piano Solo
Valse Caprice ..... Newland
Miss Mary Moss (of the Schemmel Conservatory of Music)

III—Cello Solo
The Swan ..... Saint Saens
Dorothy Field

IV—Violin Solo
Samson and Delilah ..... Saint Saens
Gertrude Mannes

V.—Londonerry Air ..... Irish melody
Songs My Mother Taught Me
Dvorak
In Elizabethan Days ..... Kramer
String Trio: Gertrude Mannes
Mildred Steere
Dorothy Field

VI.—In a Moonlit Garden .. Oehmler
From the Red Mill ..... Herbert
Indian Trail ..... Delamater
Alma Mater ..... Potts
Orchestra

SENIOR CHORAL CLUB SINGS IN LYNCHBURG

On Sunday, April 17, the Senior Choral Club gave a sacred recital in Centenary Methodist Church, Lynchburg before a large and appreciative audience.

The pastor, Rev. J. W. Smith, who preached our baccalaureate sermon last year, and his congregation were most gracious hosts, making the girls feel at home in every possible way. The program of high standard was rendered with artistry, the outstanding feature being a solo by our beloved president, Dr. Jarman. He sang with such power and feeling that the whole audience was stirred. Never has he sung for "his girls" any more beautifully than he did for that Lynchburg audience.

ADMIRAL BYRD CHOSEN HONORARY NATIONAL PRES. PI GAMMA MU

Winfield, Kans., April 20 — The election of Admiral Richard Evelyn Byrd, of Boston, Mass., as honorary national president of the National Social Science Honor Society, Pi Gamma Mu, Inc., was announced here today by Dr. Leroy Allen, dean of Southwestern College and executive secretary of that organization

Admiral Byrd's election was authorized by the third national convention of Pi Gamma Mu which met at New Orleans, Dec. 28-31, and has just been consummated by formal vote of the National Board of Trustees and acceptance of the office by Admiral Byrd.

Pi Gamma Mu was established by Dr. Leroy Allen at Southwestern College in 1924. It has since become a great national organization with chapters in 124 colleges and universities all over the United States, and one in the University of Hawaii. There are chapters in such universities as the University of Pennsylvania, Syracause University, George Washington University, New York University, etc.

Continued on page three

Joan Circle is Hostess to Nat'l Meet of Society

Over Fifty Oustanding Girls of Colleges Attend the National Meeting

The national convention of Alpha Kappa Gamma met on April 16, with the Joan Circle at State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia. Besides many alumnae, the guests included the national officers, five delegates from the Florence Nightingale Circle at University of South Carolina, and four from the Olympian Circle at Queens-Chicora College, Charlotte, North Carolina.

The first business session convened Saturday morning at nine o'clock, with the president, Miss Eirene Moyers, presiding. During this session the convention heard reports from the executive secretary, Miss Florence Stubbs; the vice-president, Mrs. Dale Brown; and the hisorian, Miss Annie Denit. Very interesting and helpful reports were given by delegates from each circle.

At two- thirty, the business session was resumed, after which Miss Stubbs introduced to the convention, Miss Lula O. Andrews, honorary member of the Joan Circle, and a member of the University of Virginia extension and faculty. Miss Andrews gave a very inspiring talk on "Growth Through Personality." She emphasized the fact that growth would never cease, for when one stops growing mentally, death might as well follow.

Before adjournment an initiation service was held, at which the following were initiated into the Joan Circle:

Hattie Gilliam
Hildegarde Ross
Dorothy Snedegar
Mary Thomas Rawls
Jenilee Knight
Alice McKay

After the day's hard work, the convention assumed a more festive air, when the members of Apha Kappa Gamma assembled at Longwood for a banquet. This part of the program was brought to a fitting close oy an address by Miss Adele Clarke of Richmond. The members of Alpha Kappa Gamma were thrilled by Miss

(Continued on page 4)

Named as Leaders In Education

Named as leaders in education in J. McKeen Cattell's "Leaders in Education" are Dr. J. L. Jarman, president of Farmville State Teachers College; Dr. James E. Walmsley, professor of history and social sciences; Dr. John P. Wynne, head of education department and director of teacher training; Mr. M. B. Coyner, professor of education; Miss Florence H. Stubbs, associate professor of history and social sciences; and Dr. Warren D. Bowman, formerly professor of education here, now, head of department of education and dean of men at Juanita College, Huntingdon, Pa.

"Leaders in Education" is a biographical directory of those people in North America who have done the most to advance education whether by teaching, administration, publication or research.

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

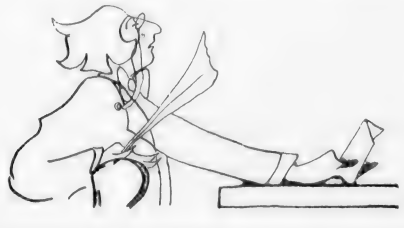
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 — DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will

Leaders

We are proud of the leaders in our administration and faculty who have received recognition. We are proud of our student leaders who as members of Alpha Kappa Gamma are helping to guide the student life of our college and other colleges.

Nothing better can be said of one than that she is able to direct and guide others in the right way. It matters not in what field she may be leader, that she is one is sufficient. Executive ability, strength of character, personality are required for leadership. If you are a leader, if you can influence others, sway them in the way that is best for them, value this gift. To few is it given.

We hope that when our student leaders leave us that they will continue to manage, direct, control, govern, and lead. We hope that in five, ten, "fifty" years, we shall see their names in either "Leaders in Education" or in leaders in athletics, dramatics, literature, music, or some other field.

Honored

We feel highly honored that we have been one of the twenty-four colleges in the United States visited by Dr. Earl Rugg.

NEWS FROM OTHER COLLEGES

The latest organization on the University of Alabama campus is the Flunk Dammit Flunk fraternity. Its members are secured from pledges of the other fraternities who have failed to make a required grade.

Professors at the University of Tennessee have become so outraged at the horrible spelling of students on examination papers that they have instituted a course to correct this matter. The teacher of the class was chosen by lot.

A man touring Europe sent a picture post card to his son at Hampden-Sydney with the following message on the reverse side: "Dear Son: On the other side you will see the rock from which the Spartans used to throw their defective children. Wish you were here."

An enterprising reporter in an economics class at Texas Christian University looked around him to see what the students did during that hour. He found that their activities were divided between yawning, chewing gum, biting fingernails, powdering noses, and rocking. Only two people in the class paid any attention, one was a student who was reading a report, and the other a professor.

For several weeks before elections for student body officers at Duke take place, the candidates for editor of the school paper are given a chance to show their merit by having each one edit on issue of the publication.

There is a student at Marshall College who has an unusual name. He boasts of the appellation, Brock, Geo. Washington Breckinridge Lee Campbell, Jr. They call him Junior for short.

Washington University, on February 22, celebrated dual anniversary dates, commemorating Washington University's 75th year and the 200th anniversary of George Washington's birthday.

Professor Franklin B. Snyder of Northwestern University recently told freshmen that "fun is the most important thing in college." He later termed fun as exercising the "muscles of the mind."

Colorado College goes in for athletics in a long way. A recent survey shows that the equivalent of over four miles of adhesive tape, one inch in width, is used each year by the College Athletic Department.

Teachers at Weaver High School and instructors at Trinity College in Connecticut compiled a list of the worst "boners" made in examinations held recently in both institutions and it was hard to decide whether the college students had the edge on the high school students, or vice versa.

A Weaver student wrote rightly that Paul Revere was buried in the same cemetery where John Adams and Jno. Hancock were born. Another wrote: "Henry Clay was leader of the Night Hawks (really War Hawks) who favored the war in 1822."

Other samples were:

"The little seamstress had nothing else to do so she went to the guillobrain system of reading for the

"Louise Pasteur bought the first Protestant church."

"Louis Pasteur established the tine with Sydney Carton."

blind.'

"Elaine was the girl who loved Lancelot and who had his sleeve on in the joust."

A Trinity student wrote, "Work is the ability to do something.

Another wrote, "Since women can vote, voting has ceased to be a privilege."

Another, confused by a question, preceded his answer with the interrogation, "when it says here compare with civilized communities, would it be all right to take the United States?"

Probably the most cautious of all answers was given by a student who defined mass in this fashion—"Mass is any object that contains weight. Weight is what an object weighs."—The Davidson.

Among Our Caps And Gowns

HENRIETTA CORNWELL

The president of the senior class has been one whom we have recognized as a leader since her freshman year here. She has executive ability, dramatic ability, and is one of our outstanding leaders.

Henrietta has been on the Freshman Commission, Class Council, has been secretary of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet. For two years she was president of the Dramatic Club. She has taken a part in nearly all of the Dramatic Club plays since she was a freshman. At present, she is not only president of the Senior Class but also president of the Virginia Gamma Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu. In none of her past or present duties has she shirked.

Henrietta likes people and understands them. She is a good sport. The Senior Class feels fortunate in having so able a leader. We shall miss her, wherever, she goes we feel that she will be a success. We wish her luck and happiness.

RUTH HUNT

"The fount of gentle speech yields answer meet
That Beauty may be loved for gladness sake—"

It would take a poem set to melody—staccatto or legato—for one to describe Ruth. She is song in a vastness of other things—simple charm and personality, a keen intellect, and musical ability recognized in her election to this year's Vanity Fair as most versatile.

As president of Alpha Kappa Gamma, her ability as an outstanding leader has been shown, and she has served in her capacity as vice-president of the Senior Class, Two years' service on the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, and the Student Council, and a prominent part in the Choral Club, Senior Quartet, and A-Capella Choir are outstanding in her career at S. T. C. She has given freely and generously of her talents, and we will remember her—that alone, is a tribute. The kindliness and graciousness which Ruth has for everyone characterizes her fineness and has made her one of the best iked girls on our campus.

EVENTIDE

Softly singing breezes sweep
Over the hills.
Twinkling stars begin to peep
As even stills
The songs of birds, and tired wings
Are brought to rest.
Love and peace twilight brings
To every nest.

M. von S.

In my garden of memory
A delicate blossom of faith
Has lifted its head so gallantly
It will live unto my death.

It was born of love, so pure it is—
A white fragrant blossom—alone
It lifts its head and blooms again
When I see a new silver moon.

My faith is a haven of hope—
From sorrow it offers surcease—
Oft I haste from a world of despair
To my little white harbor of peace.

After the storms have abused it
It droops—bruised, ragged, forlorn—
But when love returns to warm it
My faith blooms anew—'tis Dawn.

M. von S.

SPRING

Days are so soft in Spring.
Perfumed hours they bring;
Bluebirds are carolling
Cardinals nesting
Awakening the world in Spring.

Confusion supreme is Spring:
When Love is undoubtedly King—
Dreams are his court,
Flowers are brought
To adorn the drab world in Spring.

Smiles and laughter are Spring!
Ever the babbling brooks sing.
Everyone's joyous,
Everything's glorious—
Each dawn is new hope in Spring!

M. von S.

TO THE NOT IMPOSSIBLE HIM

How shall I know, unless I go
To Cairo and Cathay,
Whether or not this blessed spot
Is blest in every way?

Now it may be, the flower for me,
Is this beneath my nose:
How shall I tell, unless I smell
The Carthagenian rose?

The farbic of my faithful love
No power shall dim or ravel
Whilst I stay here,—but oh, my dear,
If I should ever travel!

THURSDAY

And if I loved you Wednesday,
Well, what is that to you?
I do not love you Thursday—
So much is true.

And why you come complaining
Is more than I can see.
I loved you Wednesday,—yes—but what
Is that to me?

THE VOYAGE

What is my mast? A pen
What are my sail? Ten crescent moons,
What is my sea? A bottle of ink.
Where do I go? To heaven again.
What do I eat? The amarath flower,
While the winds through the jungles think old tunes.
I eat that flower with ivory spoons
While the winds through the jungles play old tunes;
The songs the angels used to sing
When heaven was not old autumn, but spring—
The bold, old songs of heaven and spring.

Rotunda -- 10-13.
Sept.25,1929-
May 24, 1933.
USE RESERVE ONLY.

DATE ~~DUE~~ AND TIME OUT	BORROWER'S NAME	~~ROOM~~ NUMBER BOX
	Amanda Rae Parsons	811
11-9	Karen Holleman	555

SOCIALS

The following girls spent the week-end in Richmond: Virginia Fox, Kathryn Rogers, Mary Arthur Billups, Burnley Brockenbrough, Nancy Ross, Christine Childrey and Ann Davis.

• • ..

Hattie Gilliam, Betsy Ross and Jane Royall spent Friday in Richmond.

• • •

Katherine Logan, Katherine McLemore, and Martha Cross spent the week-end in Salem.

• • ..

Harriet Branch, Mary Hood and Margaret Stiff were in Norfolk this week-end.

• • •

Mary Winston was in Hopewell this week-end.

• • •

Agnes Lee Grigg was in Amelia Sunday.

• • •

Mary Lou Fritts attended the dances at V. P. I. this week-end.

• • •

Those who spent the week-end in Lynchburg are: Lucile Owen, Dorothy Wingfield, Frances Potts, Hattie Gilliam, Celia Jones, Jerry Lee, Ruth Ford, Betsy Ross, Thelma Walsh, Josie Spencer, Janet Harris, Helen Inge, Edwina Figg.

• • •

Mary Harrison, "Jo" Congdon, Anna Traylor, and Virginia Lamb were in Petersburg this week-end.

• • •

Sarah Saunders, Margaret Parker, and Martha Brothers were in Suffolk this week-end.

• • ..

Lillian Hogan spent Sunday at William and Mary.

• • •

Charlotte Oakey spent the week-end at Hampden-Sydney.

• • •

Belle Lovelace spent the week-end in South Boston.

GRANDAUGHTER'S CLUB HAS LONGWOOD PICNIC

The Grandaughters' Club sponsored by Miss Jennie Masters Tabb enjoyed very much a picnic which they held at Longwood last Wednesday evening.

Starting from the Rotunda at five o'clock they walked to Longwood where they were soon joined by Miss Jennie.

After playing a game which aimed and succeeded in getting every body acquainted, the grand - daughters of the institution gathered around a huge bon fire where they proceeded to toast weiners on ends of sticks. After eating supper which was very much enjoyed perhaps more so because of the added zest due to the open air each and all gathered around the burning embers while ghost stories were told.

The chime of the college bell as it came calling over the distance reminded them that even picnics must come to an end and regretfully they turned their faces toward the school which years before had instructed and guided their mothers when they too were embarking on their scholastic careers.

KAPPA DELTA PI TO GIVE RECEPTION

Kappa Delta Pi is giving a reception Thursday evening at nine o'clock for those Freshmen and Sophomores whose grades are in the upper quartile. Nineteen Sophomores and Freshmen are invited. The entire faculty is invited. It is an honor which Freshmen are Sophomores esteem highly. It is an incentive for them to work.

At North Carolina State an effort is being made to certain student sto do away with profanity. The "tanto" club was formed, and any member thereof who is heard to curse receives a swat with a paddle, administered by the other members.

At Huntington, W. Va., white ants ate up two years supply of high school diplomas stored in the Department of Education building.

ADMIRAL RICHARD EVELYN BYRD

ADMIRAL BYRD CHOSEN HONORARY NATIONAL PRES. PI GAMMA MU

Continued from page one

The purpose of Pi Gamma Mu is to inculcate the ideal of scholarship, the scientific spirit and social service in the social sciences. It is a general college honor society like Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi in their respective fields. Pi Gamma Mu covers the fields of sociology, economics, political science, history, philosophy, psychology, education, ethics and religion. It publishes a magazine called "Social Science" for the purpose of popularilizing the social sciences.

Its national president is Dr. Chas. A. Ellwood, the distinguished sociologist, of Duke University. The other national officers are: Dr. George Harris Webber, of Georgia State College, Dr. Gordon S. Watkins of the University of California at Los Angeles, and Dr. S. Howard Patterson of the University of Pennsylvania.

Admiral Byrd was chosen honorary president because of his well known interest in social science and its application to social problems. He became a member of Pi Gamma Mu in 1927 and in 1927 and in 1929 was appointed a member of the national advisory council.

In 1928 Admiral Byrd carried with him on his expedition to the Antarctic the blue and white checkerboard flag of the society, each square representing a chapter and the whole symbolizing the checkered career of mankind and the intricacy of social problems.

Admiral Byrd's leadership is expected to furnish inspiration in their work to all the 15,000 members of the organization.

WORLD NEWS

Reminding us of the picture "Freaks" comes this news item: Berlin has a new suburb, a colony inhabited entirely by midgets. A showman, familiar with the problems this world presents to its tiniest people, founded this village expressly for them. The forty little ones live in houses built to their scale, have their own police system, their post-office and city hall.

A census has been taken of the permanent residents in the famous majestic Cathedral of Rouen, France. There are, in the cathedral towers and on its gargoyles, 900 pigeons, 250 bats, 60 hawks, 40 owls, and 35 ravens.

The children of poor ex-King Alfonso shall not want. A Spanish philanthropist bequeathed to each of them 1,000,000 pesetas (over $75,000). The philanthropist died recently, so the Infantes may travel first class railway carriages once more. Lately the two first ladies were discovered in a second-class carriage on their way to Ireland. They could not afford first.

Fischer's

Records

Sheet Music

Instruments

Novelties, etc.

Repairing

Third Street

Sigma Pi Rho To Become A National Fraternity

Sigma Pi Rho, honor Latin fraternity, will hold its first national convention at S. T. C., Farmville, Virginia, Friday afternoon, April 29. At this time Sigma Pi Rho will become a national Latin honorary fraternity for Teachers Colleges.

Sigma Pi Rho will be aided in this effort by the Tri V. Latin Club of State Teachers College, Fairmont, West Virginia. The club is sending six delegates to Farmville who will be initiated into Sigma Pi Rho and then attended the national convention.

The business of the afternoon will be followed by a formal banquet at Longwood which all the members of Sigma Pi Rho and several guests will attend.

Ever since its founding here at Farmville Sigma Pi Rho has desired to become national. The members are eagerly looking forward to April 29 when their desire will be gratified.

ART EXHIBIT TO BE HELD IN RICHMOND

The Richmond Academy of Arts invites the student and faculty of State Teachers College to the First Annual Exhibits by Virginia Artists from April 17 through May 5 and the Second Annual Beaux Arts Ball at the Jefferson Hotel on Wednesday evening, April 27.

The first all-Virginia Exhibits will show the work of the state's finest artists in oils, water-colors, drawings, prints and sculpture with professional exhibits in photography at the A. A. Anderson Gallery of Art, graphic arts in Miller & Rhoads Tea Room foyer, and interior decorating at the City Library.

The Richmond Musicians' Concert will be the opening event of the Second All-Virginia Music Festival.

The Beaux Arts Ball will be a brilliant artists' costume affair and the outstanding social event of the season in Richmond. The Governor of Virginia has taken boxes for the Governors of the other forty-seven states. At least two thousand persons are expected to attend in costume.

The Richmond Academy of Arts will be glad to furnish further information through its headquarters, 11110 Capitol Street, Richmond, Va.

COMMUNITY SING IS GIVEN HERE

Continued from page one

My Bonnie ..... Audience
Sweet Genevieve ..... Men's Chorus
Annie Laurie ..... Irene Leake
Song of the Deep Blue Sea
H. S. C. Alma Mater ..... Glee Club
Have Thine Own Way Lord, Audience
Faith of Our Fathers
Abide With Me

The debating team from University of West Virginia while traveling through the Holland Tunnel on their way to New York, was stopped by the police, and their car was searched for the Lindbergh baby. The members of the team expressed regret at not having several milk bottles with them, thereby getting their names on the front page of the newspapers.

Deeply discouraged, some of the students at Roanoke College maintain that the only way to get a B. S. is to join the Boy Scouts.

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community For Over Half a Century

Finest Toilet Requisites

Drugs and Stationery

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. Cabinet met with the Faculty Advisory Board in the Y. W. C. A. reception room at 5 o'clock Monday, April 11, to discuss matters of concern to both the cabinet and the Board.

The Cabinet for next year will be formed and installed in a few days. A few minor changes will be made. It is hoped by these changes much more will be accomplished.

JUNIORS GIVE SING

Last Saturday evening the student body was entertained by a very interesting and witty "sing" given by the Junior Class. The Juniors dedicated their sing to the Seniors.

Several Saturday evenings ago, the Seniors presented themselves as they expect to be seen a few years hence—the Juniors presented them as the Juniors see them after fifty years have rolled by.

Peals of laughter broke from the audience as Alice Moore, who had worked her way to Mars, looked upon the Earth and saw the Seniors of '32 busy with their tasks in life.

Ah! What changes fifty years can produce.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION INSTITUTE HELD AT BLACKSTONE, VIRGINIA

Continued from page one

Nell Dickinson
Lois Cox
Winifred Pugh
Mary Wood
Virginia Moses
Catherine Davis
Frances Burks
Irwin Staples

LAWN FETE

A lawn fete will be given on the Colonnade on Saturday, April 22 from 5 till 7 o'clock. Plate suppers of chicken salad sandwiches, potato chips, Longwood mints, cake or pie and iced tea will be served at small tables for four.

Come and bring your date or come by yourself. Food will be abundant!

Willis.... Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON

A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices

WEYANOKE HOTEL

Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Manageemnt

W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE

Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR

and

COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For

The best fountain drinks

The best sandwiches

The best lunch plates

The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S

The Home of the Needs

Would you like to earn all or a part of a delightful motor trip thru the West or eastern Canada this summer? Write for particulars to:

THE SOUTHERN TOURS, INC.
Box 727b Chapel Hill, N. C.

NOTEBOOK FILLERS

3 for 20c

These fillers are standard size for your notebooks and contain 50 sheets. Save 5c on every 3 you buy.

Get them at

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
"The Store of your choice"

Lovely new short, puff, sleeve, sweaters, colors of the rainbow $1.19
Sporty new skirts to match $1.98
Special in our hosiery department—Allen A $1.00
Sheer chiffon hose, picot tops, special 69c
Lovely new military style, polo coats $9.95
Suits ..... $5.49 and $9.95
New creations in millinery ..... $1.95 and $2.95

The Hub Department Store

Offers best values always—Hosiery Sale this week!

JOKES

Angry Parent: "Why were you kissing my daughter in that dark hallway last night, young man?"

Young Man: "Now that I've seen her in daylight, I wonder myself.

Knox: "I'm going to quit school."

Henrietta: "If you do, you will have wasted three years."

Knox: "And if I don't I'll waste four."

Eve: "Adam, come here quick! Cain has swallowed a safety pin."

But Adam laughed and laughed. He knew that safety pins hadn't been invented yet.

Alice Marshall: "Can I try on that dress in the window?

Saleslady: "No, miss, we have dressing rooms for that purpose."

"I'm not going to Chicago," said the delicate co-ed, "why they won't even let you walk back from a ride up there."

"Prisoner, if you didn't steal the $3,000—where did you get it?"

"Yer honor, I saved it by buying Listerine tooth paste."

Teacher: "What makes you think that Atlas was a gangster?'

Barny: "The book says he held up the whole world."

No matter how you move it, writing paper remains stationery.

Our idea of a restless spirit is the spirit of the Scotchman who bought a life-time pen and was killed as he left the store.

Clarence (phoning): "Do you have a date tonight?"

Lois (frigidly): "Yes, I have."

Clarence: "O. K. Congratulations."

Smith: "May I sit on your right hand at the banquet?"

Emma: "No, I may need it to eat with, but you may hold it for awhile."

Mr. Newlywed: "This blueberry pie tastes queer."

Mrs. Newlywed: "Perhaps I put too much blueing in it."

Wife: "You seem disappointed with your parcel."

Husband: "Yes, I answered an advertisement for a device to keep down gas bills, and the firm sent me a paper weight."

Lady: "Is the manager in?"

Office Boy: "No, he has gone out to lunch with his wife."

Lady: "I see, when he gets back with his stenographer tell him his wife called."

JOAN CIRCLE IS HOSTESS TO MEETING

Continued from page one

Clarke's charming personality and stirring message. The theme of her address was that women are now at the morning of life, in their influence on the world.

The last business session was held in the Y. W. reception room after the banquet. A round-table discussion was held on problems vital to the organization. After the report of the nominating committee was heard and accepted, the sixth annual convention of Alpha Kappa Gamma adjourned to meet again on April 17 and 18, 1933 at the University of South Carolina, Columbia, South Carolina.

The alumnae returning for the convention included:

Mrs. Dale Brown, Misses Annie Denit, Jane Brown, Emma Woods, Mary Frances Hatchett, Louise Vaughan, Elizabeth Woodson, Laura N. Smith, Rena Robertson, Jessie Smith, Pearl Etheridge, Lois Fraser and Mildred Maddrey.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS

A professor at Boston University has forbidden note-taking in his courses because it substitutes the hand for the brain, and offers a very poor reproduction of his lectures.

So stringent are the examinations at Law schools today that only 465 out of every 1,000 aspiring lawyers ever pass them.

One of the fraternities at Marshall College withdrew from the Interfraternity Council—why, it is not exactly understood (that is, by us) and so the other clubs have instituted a boycott. One phase of the boycott is the refusal by the other Greek letter societies to meet the "outlaw" organization in any intramural contest.

"The science department states that in case of bloody noses it is not advisable to check the flow by a tournequet around the neck. They also state there is no need to buying bootleg liquor. A little turpentine and a handful of flour, mixed in with a pint of red ink, will often produce a mixture quite unfit to drink.—The Bull Dog, Citadel.

From Goethe To Wilson

Johann Wolfgang von Goethe died just one hundred years ago. The coincidence of his centenary with the bicentennial of the birth of George Washington recalls the remarkable interest which this great German poet and statesman had in our Revolution. In his youth he was once on the point of emigrating to America.

Like Benjamin Franklin and other founders of the Republic, Goethe was an internationalist. In his eightieth year he said, to quote from a recent article by the German historian Emil Ludwig in the New York Times:

"Free trade in ideas and sentiments quite as much as traffic in material goods, increases the wealth and the general well-being of humanity."

During the French Revolution he wrote, just as if he were appraising the world situation today:

"At a moment, when everyone is busy in establishing new national loyalties, the fatherland of the dispassionate thinker, of him who can rise above his time, is nowhere and everywhere."

And, as did his famous contemporary, the philosopher Kant, he even suggested a League of Nations as a means of realizing his theories of social justice.

VARSITY TENNIS SQUAD IS CHOSEN MONDAY

After a series of try-outs the varsity tennis squad was selected Monday afternoon. It is composed of the following girls:

Frances Edwards
Dot Snedegar
Jenny Hurt
Mary B. Fraser
Elizabeth Walthall
Gertrude Sugden
Lelia Mattox
Mary Berkeley Nelson

A team will be selected from this squad to represent S. T. C. in a match with Blackstone College on April 27. A return match with the same school is also being planned.

The annual spring doubles tournament will begin on Monday, April 25 and a last chance is given, to all those wishing to take part, to sign up on the bulletin board by Thursday. A great deal of interest is being taken in tennis this season. It is hoped that even more students will come out.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM APRIL 21 TO 27

THURS. & FRI.—"BROKEN LULLABY" (The Man I Killed) with LIONEL BARRYMORE, NANCY CARROLL and PHILLIPS HOLMES. Here's Lionel Barrymore's greatest picture and one given 4 stars by all the critics. The girl fell in love with the man who robbed her of her sweetheart. Her father opened his heart to the man who took his son away from him, while the man tried to tell the awful truth. Only a hate that turns to glorious, vibrant love. A climax as happy as the heart of man can make it. Thousands of columns of newspaper space have been written about this remarkable picture. It may change your whole prospect of life. Be sure to see it for it is absolutely the most outstanding picture ever shown in Farmville. No advance in prices. Also Laurel and Hardy in "The Music Box."

SATURDAY: WARNER BAXTER and MARIAN NIXON in "AMATEUR DADDY" with Baxter in a similar role. He fathers a pretty girl, and falls in love with her winning her heart in spite of all the barriers the world could set between them. A picture bright with youth, vivid hopes and ravishing romance. The joy of living, the ecstacy of loving will be yours again. A picture to make hearts and romances sweeter. We guarantee this picture so have no fears of not enjoying every minute of it. Also Screen Song and Fox News.

NEXT MON. & TUES.—MAURICE CHEVALIER and JEANETTE MacDONALD in ONE HOUR WITH YOU." Here it is, folks, Maurice, the pirce of charmers, in a perfectly swell romantic comedy with music. And with beautiful Jeanett to match wits and 'Its" with Maurice. Girls, you liked 'Love Parade" and 'The Smiling Lieutenant," now you'll simply go crazy about "One Hour With You" Love by the armful; laughs by the hundreds and songs that will tune up your heart. Maurice is a gentleman and a lover. Not only his wife knows it—but all her best girl-friends, too. And when Maurice loves them they stay loved. He'll make your temperature rise in this picture. He works fast, but not too fast. And don't overlook Charles Ruggles and Genevieve Tobin in the cast. A wow of a picture you must not miss seeing. Also Paramount News. Regular price.

BASEBALL

"In the spring a young girl's fancy turns to thoughts of"—baseball. And why shouldn't it! The game is grand recreation, it gives vigorous exercise, and offers an opportunity for getting out in the fresh air! Come on out, support your colors, and at the same time enjoy the fun.

HUGUENOTS GATHER IN FIRST NATIONAL MEET

The Virginia Chapter of the Huguenot Society of the founding of Manakin in the Colony of Virginia was host at Farmville last week to the delegates for the first annual meeting of the national organization. A reception was held at Longwood on Friday evening to which the local members and the delegates were invited.

Saturday morning a business meeting was held in the S. T. C. auditorium and in the afternoon a session was held in College Chapel, Hampden-Sydney.

Dr. Henry L. McIlwaine, State librarian was the principal speaker at the public gathering Saturday night in the S. T. C. auditorium, at which time Mayor E. W. Sanford extended a welcome on the behalf of the town of Farmville. Mr. Alfred H. Strick played a piano solo at this meeting. The Choral Club sang a selection.

Sunday morning, the delegates made a pilgrimage to Manakin church, Powhatan county. Rev. C. J. Gigson, rector of St. James Church, Richmond, and Rev. C. P. Sheton, rector, Manakin Episcopal Church presided.

At the University of Chicago groups of 150 to 300 students attend lectures conducted by the University's leading authorities and specialists, and then break up into smaller groups, each in charge of an instructor. The subject just heard is then discussed, the instructor merely answering questions when necessary. Grades, class attendance, have been abolished.

Added Chapter 2 "AIR MAIL MYSTERY"—Thrilling excitement for old and young. Do not miss a chapter.

NEXT WEDNESDAY—"THE IMPATIENT MAIDEN" with LEW AYRES, MAE CLARKE and UNA MERKEL. From the most discussed book of the year—now the sensation of the screen. Imagine a fellow saying to a girl he had never met before: "Don't worry; I wasn't looking at your leg."' But the girl knew the ropes—and roped the men. This is all about a handsome young doctor and his beautiful patient. Is physical love a necessary part of all-satisfying love between sexes? Is there a distinction between physical love and 'animal affection?" This picture tells you, peppy, snappy and daring. And Una Merkel will bowl you over with her comedy. Real entertainment here—but you must be broadminded. Hey, hey! Also a surprise two-reel comedy. See Nancy DeBerry for tickets.

Daily Matinees at 4 p. m. Every night at 8 o'clock. Saturday matinee continuous from 2:15 to 6 P. M.

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

The Talk of the Campus —

BALDWIN'S "Once-in-a-Lifetime Sale"

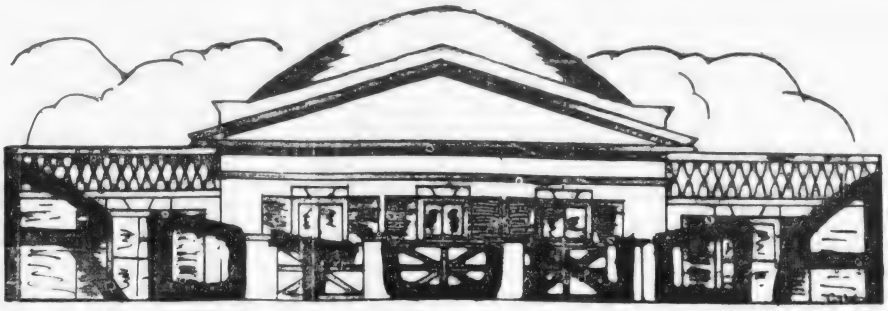
An event that will interest every college girl. Things to wear an dfor your room will be found at this unusual event.

Tell your roommate too, she will want to attend.

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

THEY'RE SO SMART

That's what you will say about the lovely new frocks just arrived this week You will be amazed at the exceptional values we offer.



New spring frocks for all occasions.

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

DON'T FORGET
MAY DAY
PRACTICES

COME OUT
FOR FIELD
AND TRACK

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1932 No. 26

Installation of New Student Council

New President Gives Inspiring and Original Talk To Incoming Officers

A very impressive installation service was held in the auditorium on Monday evening when the members of the Student Council of 1931-'32 retired from office, giving their places and the opportunity for true service in their Alma Mater to the new Council.

The old and new Councils entered together with the playing of the Alma Mater and the student body remained standing for the invocation which was given by Rev. Redhead.

The retiring president expressed the sincere love for the work that she and her Council had done, and the joy that had come to them through the rendering of service to others. She also thanked the student body as well as the administration, faculty, and home department, for its cooperation during the past year, stating that whatever success her Council had, came through their help and sympathy. The new president expresesd her appreciation for the honor that had been conferred upon her and her pleasure in being given the privilege to serve in an institution which was very dear to her. She then installed the Council .

The installation service was brought to a close with a brief talk by Dr. Jarman. He congratulated the old Council on the splendid work which it had done and stated that the new Council would find pleasure and enjoyment in its tasks because of the many services which it will render to others.

'Happy' Bill Cope Entertains Crowd

An entertainment sponsored by the Southside Hospital was given last Wednesday night in the large auditorium. The program featured "Happy" Bill Cope in various forms: as a pianist, a banjo picker, and as a player of the guitar and accordian The pieces were mostly of the modern jazz type which was made more amusing by the antics of the performer. Of especial delight to those present was "Happy" Bill Cope's version of Ethel, a small girl, taking her music lesson. A clever comedian, "Happy" Bill Cope entertained for an hour a large crowd which exceeded the seating capacity of the auditorium.

S. T. C. Has Varsity Tennis

The first varsity tennis team of S. T. C. went to Blackstone College today for the first match of the season. Those representing S. T. C. are:

Dorothy Snedegar
Frances Edwards
Jennie Hurt
Doreen Smith
Mary B. Nelson

COLLEGE ORCHESTRA

The Orchestra has had a successful year. The members are planning other trips to be taken before June.

MEMBERS OF S. T. C. TAKE PART IN PROGRAM AT DRAKES BRANCH

Members of the S. T. C. administration, faculty, and student body took part in the Rally Day at Drakes Branch on Saturday, April 23.

In the morning, Dr. J. L. Jarman gave an address to the Junior Leaguers and another to the Senior League members. In the county "Sing" in the afternoon Robert Burger of Farmville played a harmonica solo with Miss Norris as accompanist; Dorothy Field played a cello solo; Gertrude Manners played a violin solo; and the string trio from here gave three selections.

In the play program in the afternoon, Misses Barlow and Iler were the directors. Miss Iler and Miss Hatchett were the managers of the field and track events. They had Dorothy Snedegar Hildegarde Ross, Duvahl Ridgeway, Lucile Crute, and Goldie Boggs to umpire the ball games. Anna M. Ward and Frances Graham conducted the games for small children.

The Home Economics Class served lunch.

PI KAPPA DELTA ANNOUNCES MEMBERS

The Virginia Alpha Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta announces the following new members:

Martha Gunter

Margaret DeShazo

GAMALIEL BRADFORD DIES APRIL 11TH

Gamaliel Bradford, biographer, editorial writer, playwright, novelist and poet, died on April 11 at his home in Wellesley Hills, Miss.

S.T.C. Orchestra Broadcasts

The College Orchestra broadcast a program from Station WRVA, Richmond, Virginia, last Friday evening The program consisted of compositions by the orchestra and string trio and solos by Miss Mary Moss of the Schemmel Conservatory of Music, Gertrude Mannes and Dorothy Field.

The orchestra has received many favorable comments on the program and has also received invitations to give concerts elsewhere.

Those who went to Richmond were: Gertrude Mannes, Mildred Steere, Dorothy Field, Virginia Williams, Bessie Lynch, Alice Grainger, Thomas Fallwell, Esther Haskins, Lena M. Gardner, Fay Little, Christine Seay, Christian Reynolds, Jane Royall, Mildred Lancaster, Mary Moss, Will Putney, Alice Blankenship, Nellie Davis, Martha McCorkle, Mr. W. V. Lynn, Mr. McNamee, Mr. Rogers Mr. Graham and Miss Lizabeth Purdom, director.

FRESHMEN AND SOPHS HONORED BY KAPPA DELTA PI THURSDAY

Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi held its annual reception in the Student Building lounge Thursday evening, April 21 for freshmen and sophomores in the upper quartile of the school.

The lounge was beautifully decorated with flowers, violets and dogwood blooms. Susie Floyd, Dr Jarman, Miss Nichols, Mss Carrie B. Taliaferro, Sara Hubard, Anne Rice Miss Moran, Eleanor Davis, and Bessie Lynch were in the receiving line. Members of the faculty and administration, members of Kappa Delta Pi, and nineteen freshmen and sophomores attended the reception. After a number of musical selections, refreshments were served. The color scheme carried out in the refreshments consisted of jade green and

(Continued on page 4)

NEW Y. W. C. A. CABINET GOES INTO OFFICE TUESDAY

The installation of the new officers and members of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet took place Tuesday night at 7 oclock in the auditorum. Lighted candles provided the only illumination and the services were carried out before the blue triangle which is the Y. W. symbol.

The new cabinet will be composed of the following:

President	Winston Cobb
Vice-President	Sue Yeaman
Secretary	Edith Shanks
Treasurer	Lucille Ingram
Undergrad. Rep.,	Virginia Hamilton
Conference & Conven.,	Doreen Smith
World Fellowship	Margaret Jack
Social	Frances Ratcliffe
Service	Pauline Jones
Prayers	Sara James
Sing	Justine Cutshall
Church Coopera.	Lois Cox
Music	Joyce Stearns
Publicity	Dot Bloomfield
Town Girls	Imogene West

DEBATE CLUB HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The Debate Club held its regular meeting on Thursday night, April 21 and elected its officers for the coming year. The following officers were elected:

President	Margaret Hix
Vice-President	Carrie DeShazo
Secretary	Lottie Dixon
Treasurer	Esther Haskins
Chmn. Debate Council,	Grace Rowell
Members Council	Margaret Hunter Alice Rowell
Reporter	Mildred Shelton

The Club is looking forward to a very successful year.

Choral Club To Sing in Richmond

Twenty-Five Girls Selected to Usher In Performance Given in the Mosque

The Senior Choral Club will appear on the program which will be presented at the Mosque in Richmond tomorrow night. This program is to be the largest of the many programs which are being presented during the Thirteenth Annual Convention of the Virginia Music Teachers State Association and the Federation of Music clubs.

Mr. Alfred H. Strick who is State Choir Festival Chairman will be the Presiding Chairman during the evening.

The evening will be called Choir Festival Night. On the program will be nationally and internationally known artists, Madame Joanne de Nault and Major Charles T. Tittmann. Both artists have appeared in this college and will lend added interest to the program.

One of the most interesting features will be a massed chorus sung by about 800 people representing all parts of the state. These two numbers are: "Unfold Ye Portals" by Gounod and the "Hallelujah Chorus" by Handel. Both the Choral Club and the Farmville Business Men's Chorus will participate in this part of the program.

Much interest concerning this program has been aroused throughout the state and it is expected that about 5,000 people will be in attendance.

Twenty-five girls have been selected from the student body to act as ushers.

The program will be as follows:

Part I.

Remarks ..... Miss Julia Fuqua
State Pres. Fed. of Music Clubs
Unfold Ye Portals ..... Gounod
Massed Choirs of Virginia
Director, Edwin Feller
150th Psalm ..... Cesar Franck
Choir of Hollins College
Director, Eric Rath
1.—Arias from works of Johann Sebastian Bach (1865-1750)
The Lord is Sovereign
(From the Cantata "Praise the Lord")
The Mighty Ones Hurls He From Their Thrones.
(From the Cantata "My Soul Doth Magnify the Lord")
2.—Biblical Song ..... Anton Dvorak
Clouds and Darkness Are Round About Him
Lord, Thou Art My Refuge and My Srength
Hear My Prayer, Oh Lord
The Lord is My Shepherd
I Will Sing New Songs of Gladness
Major Chas. T. Tittmann
(bass-baritone)
Duet: "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains", F. Flaxington Harker
Mrs. Edwin Feller (soprano)

(Continued on page 4)

Freshman Class Sings in Chapel

Freshman Class under the directionof Miss Purdom sang two songs in chapel Tuesday morning. The first number was a new hymn the student body joining them in the last stanza, and the second was Barnby's arrangement of "Crossing the Bar."

The class sang with excellent interpretation, tone quality and phrasing, and received very generous applause from their audience. The String Trio played the accompaniments.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

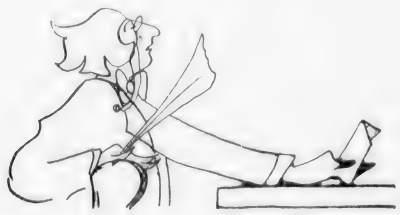
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will

The Old and the New

"The old order changeth giving place to the new."

Old officers are going out of office; new officers are coming in. Monday evening, the old Student Council gave place to the new; Tuesday evening, the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet of 1931-32 retired and the Cabinet of 1932-'33 came in. Tonight, the new House Council succeeds the Council of this year.

It all marks the end of an era and the beginning of another. The old officers have served faithfully, learned to love their work, and feel sorry that the time has come to retire. The new officers feel honored to be the chosen ones, and look forward eagerly and perhaps a trifle anxiously to the duties of the year that is ahead of them. The pathos of giving up things to which they have become attached is overbalanced by the pleasure which the old officers feel that they have had in the year's service. They pass on to the new officers the words of Lincoln: "I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true; I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live up to the light I have. I must stand with anyone who stands right—stand with him while he is right and part from him when he goes wrong.' "

The old order gives place to the new. Life, in which we succeed by giving our best, goes on.

SO AM I

God's works have been many and his creations great and excellent. It must have been He who first conceived the idea of blessing man with Spring, with its awakening with its freshness, and with its joy. Animals and plants show themselves to have been formed by some master mind, some perfect genius, some eternal creator. Watch the growing plant, examine the depths of a pond with its abundance of life, look into the heart of the rose (or of any flower); notice the great size and strength of the mighty oak, and you will see God's hands at work on them all. All such things are certainly of His creation, and so am I.

As I walk quietly along on the beautiful earth, I behold many wonders on all sides. I glimpse the feet of a scurrying rabbit, seeking safety in the woods. I chance upon a beautiful water lily, filling the small pond with its odors. I hold to me the faint glow of the sun as day slowly mingles in with the darkness of the night. I clutch at the blue of the sky filling the dome of the heavens with its hurt, but I can never catch it and hold it to me. The various tints of flowers fill me with awe. The croaking of the frog has the charm of music for me. The bird notes that fill the air bring joy to my heart and raise me to heights unknown. The world seems to me to be alive, bright, fresh, rejoicing that there is life. Animals run about, nestle deep in the earth, and play as if they cannot possibly control their exuberant spirits. Plants lift their shining countenances and seem to say, "God's in His heaven, all's right with the world." The wonders of creation are springing forth and are giving hope and joy to everyone. Man is happy in his new gifts. The world is overflowing with brightness; it's new creations startle. Everyone is happy, and so am I!

I rush swiftly along over the earth, mixing my soul with that of God and my heart with that of Nature. I behold God in everything. Nature seems to be a part of me rather than separate and distinct from me. I rush along and mix with it. Down the road I hurry—seeming to fly—into the blue of the blue sky. I shall not live on the earth. Swifty I leave the road and plunge into the whiteness of a cloud that conceals the blue for a minute. I ride along on the billowy pillow and never wish to return to earth. The cloud dips down near the earth and just misses the top of the tall gleaming trees. They don't want me to go back to earth; they say I belong to the blue of the sky. They want me to live in the skies forever. Human beings who are mortals cannot stay in the blue skies forever, for that is paradise, perfect bliss, man's unattainble Utopia. It is a reward that man can never attain. He is fated to earthly life until Death's doors shall open for him, and so he must accept earth's actualties and realities. He cannot live in the clouds and enjoy a rollicking life up there. He must live on earth. Thus is man punished; thus is he held off from that blissful life in the fast-moving clouds by day and with the bright stars by night. So is man forced to live and so am I!

"Laugh and the world laughs
with you,
Weep and you weep alone."

Bathe the earth with joy's laughter, not with sorrow's tears. Lizette Reese wants to know why we waste our lives, already too short, with vain tears. Look out of your window at the beauties of life, and you'll ask yourself the same question. Why cry when others are laughing? Why cry when God is laughing through the things he has made and put on this earth? There is laughter in the air; there is laughter in the heart. While the laughter in the air fills us with joy, the laughter in the heart fills us with peace. The laughter is not loud and harsh; it is soft, low and wonderful to hear. It is melody; it is music; it is a last straw for the drowning man to clutch at; it is hope for the hopeless. The world is laughing, and so am I!

All men are at peace with one another and have love for all around them. They cannot help but follow God's words, "Love thy neighbor." They see good in one another now where good is not. They see no harm, no evil in any man; their eyes are

(Continued on page 3)

Among Our Caps And Gowns

FRANCES EDWARDS

Frances Edwards is a splendid example of the power of the will to do, to be, something. When she first came to Farmville, known by practically nobody, she was unnoticed. But before the fall was over, the student body knew her as a freshman who was an excellent goal-keeper on the varsity hockey team. She has been one of the most outstanding athletic leaders all four year; playing varsity hockey, basketball, volley ball, baseball, tennis, and being on her class teams in every sport. Last year, as treasurer of the Athletic Council, Frances did good work. That, joined to her all round ability as an athlete and her capacity as a leader gave the students the right and the joy of making her President of the Athletic Association for this year. And the athletic program for this year has been one of the most successful in years. A further faith in her athletic ability was shown this year when she was eelcted to Vanity Fair as most athletic.

Last spring Alpha Kappa Gamma, recognizing her leadership and her wide but quiet influence, elected her to membership.

There are girls who get to the top because someone is either pushing or pulling them up. There are others who get there on somebody else's resources. But Frances' success here and wherever she may go will always bea result of her own ability, her own work, her own high standards.

CHARLOTTE HUTCHINS

A girl who has made a success of her four years here, a girl who has served faithfully, given her best, whom we all like is Charlotte Hutchins. She is kind, gracious, and a good mixer.

That she has been a capable leader during her school years is confirmed by the fact that she was elected to be editor-in-chief of the 1932 Virginian and was chosen to be a member of Alpha Kappa Gamma. We look forward to seeing and possessing the annual which she has edited this year. As business manager of the Virginian in her junior year, Charlotte ably performed the numerous tasks required of her. That she has integrity of character is shown in the fact that her class

Continued on page three

TO THE GODDESS OF SPRING

Eostre has arrived
To clothe Nature's trembling form
In designs of dogwood—
Pink and white
And red bud of the softest lavender and rose.
She's trailed the pale azalea
Through her hair
And sandaled her feet
With violets of the tenderest lines
And delicate forget-me-nots.
She's touched her cheeks
And lips with wildest cherry
And in her eyes she's Scattered tiny star flowers
Which deepened their blue iris
And attract attention of all
Those who pass by.
Oh welcome Eostre
Look what wonders
She has wrought
All about us everywhere
With one stroke
Of her artistic touch!

V. L.

You are afraid of Life! You merely touch
The surface things with an indifferent art—
Dear, tell me; is the pang of it too much
For you to bear? And so you close your heart?
Then open it again! ou can forego
Such small content, to find what
Life's made of—
I'll introduce it to you—and you'll know
The joy of sorrow and the pain of
love . . . .
God will come down and dwell within your soul;
You'll share Him with each person
that you meet,
And find Him in all things; and at the goal
Of Heaven you'd lay a full life at
His feet.

For this ecstatic hour's eternal gain
I can endure all Life's exquisite pain.

LINES

I rose because he sank
I thought it would be Apposite,
But when his power bent,
My soul stood straight.
I told him Best must pass
Through this low arch of Flesh;
No casque so brave
It spurns the grave—
I told him worlds I knew
Where monarchs grew
Who recollected us
If we were true.
And so with themes of hymns
And sinew from within
In ways I know not that
I knew, till then—
I lifted him.

E. D.

IMPROVISATION

Wind:
Why do you play
that long beautiful adagio,
that archaic air,
tonight.
Will it never end?
Or is it the beginning,
some prelude you seek?

Is it a tale you strum?
Yesterday, yesterday—
Have you no more for us?

Wind:
Play on.
There is nor hope
nor meeting
in you.

FIRE AND SEA

Some say the world will end in fire,
Some say in ice.
From what I've tasted of desire
I hold with those who favor fire.
But if it had to perish twice,
I think a know enough of hate
To say that for destruction ice
Is also great
And would suffice.

SOCIALS

The following girls spent the week-end in Charlottesville: Virginia Lowe, Virginia Thornhill, Nancy DeBerry, Ambler Lee, Polly McMurdo and Julia Faris.

* * *

Frances Rawlings, Lillian Hogan, Frances Ratcliffe, Margaret McCoy, and Helen Cover were also in Charlottesville last week.

* * *

Catherine Jones was in Appomattox this week-end.

* * *

Ruth Gaines and Frances Horton were in Roanoke this week-end.

* * *

The following girls spent the week-end in Norfolk: Cottie Willis, Anne McGann, Fannie Mae Colonna, and Mary A. Billups.

* * *

Martha Barker and Nancy Boykin were in Emporia this week-end.

* * *

Virginia Bryan spent the week-end in Washington.

* * *

Margaret Parker spent the week-end in Suffolk.

* * *

Elizabeth McCaulley was in New Hope this week-end.

* * *

Those who spent the week-end in Richmond are: Nancy Burgwyn, Frances Dorin, Janice White, Lucille Tiller, Elizabeth Field, Evelyn Knaub, Celia Jones, Mary Artis Danner, Mary Ellen Johnson, Martha Watkins, Virginia Fox, Alice McKay, Ann Davis and Dorothy Leonard.

* * *

Lucille Ingram, Mary Burgess Fraser and Frances Horton attended the Academy of Science at Hollins College this week-end.

* * *

Agnes Lee Grigg and Ella Mallory were in Lawrenceville this week-end.

* * *

Charlotte Hutchins spent the week-end with Virginia Gee in Kenbridge.

* * *

Lillian Womack spent the week-end in Keysville.

* * *

The following girls spent the week-end in Lynchburg: Thelma Walsh, Margaret Barker, Helen Harris and Jo Snead.

* * *

"Chic" Mosby spent the week-end in Lexington.

* * *

Grace and Alice Rowell were visiting Mary K. Taylor this week-end.

* * *

Miss Potts and Frances Potts motored to Charlottesville Friday.

* * *

Clara MacKenzie was in Portsmouth this week-end.

* * *

Mary Gregory spent the week-end in Amherst.

TRI SIGMA BANQUET AT LONGWOOD

The banquet table at Longwood was laid for thirty-eight people Saturday evening, April 23, 1932 in celebration of the thirty-fourth anniversary of the founding of Sigma Sigma Sigma. The colors of the sorority—purple and white were beautifully carried out in the decorations. The alumnae present were Misses Frances Thornton, Banna Price Massey, Elizabeth Newton, Amanda Gray, Virginia Potts, Martha Ann Laing, and Mrs. Evelyn Beckham Broaddus. Among the other guests were Mrs. J. J. Kelly, Mrs. Justin Prescott, Mrs. Potts, Mrs. Laing, Mrs. A. B. Marchant, and Mrs. Harry Shawen.

PI KAPPA DELTA HAS BANQUET

The Virginia Alpha Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta held its initiation of new members in the Y. W. C. A. at 4 o'clock, Saturday, April 23 in the reception room. The new members of Pi Kappa Delta are Martha Gunter and Margaret DeShazo.

Immediately after initiation, installation of officers was held.

These services were followed by a banquet in the Tea Room at 6 o'clock. The colors of Pi Kappa Delta, red and white, were carried out in candles, flowers, favors and place cards. The Tea Room was very attractively decorated. After the banquet, Pi Kappa Delta attended a debate in the large auditorium between H. S. C. and University of Pennsylvania.

ALUMNAE NEWS

At a recent meeting of the Music Club in Emporia Addie Walker was elected vice-president and Mrs. Robert Safelle (Virginia Vincent) was elected secretary.

Mrs. William Cabell Flournoy, state historian of the U. D. C. delivered the address at the divisional conference held at Standardsville, April 16.

Ida Hill is corresponding secretary for the Alexandria Business and Professional Woman's Club. She will be one of the delegates from that chapter to the Virginia Federation of Business and Professional Woman's Clubs to be held in Suffolk May 20 and 21.

Elizabeth Jarrett was an instructor in the Blackstone Standard Training School for Sunday School Teachers which met in the college April 10 to 16.

Garland R. Quarles, husband of Nancy Crisman, for nine years connected with the Handley Foundation in Winchester, has been appointed general superintendent of the city school board, effective July 1.

Katherine F. Perry, of Culpeper, has completed and published a play, "Marse Robert at Appomattox."

Miss L. L. (Ottie) Thorpe, general director of Physical Education in Richmond, is chairman of the Marble Tournament in the Public, Parochial and Private Schools of that city. The winners of this contest go to the national finals at Ocean City, N. J., in June.

Mrs. A. D. Watkins of Hampden-Sydney returned home Wednesday from a visit of several weeks in Anderson, Ind. Mrs. Charles Hall Davis and daughter returned with her.

The marriage of Miss Virginia Boykin Turman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Turman, of Atlanta, and niece of the Governor of Virginia, to Mr. Ralph Randolph Quillan, of Augusta, Ga., was solemnized last Wednesday afternoon in the home of Miss Turman's cousins, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Murrell, on the River Road, in Richmond. Mrs. Turman, mother of the bride, was Miss Maude Garland Pollard of the class of 1894, and was the speaker when her class presented the portrait of Dr. Cunningham to the college.

Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Faris of Charlottesville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Martha Edge Faris to William Burwell Ware, of Beckley, W. Va.

Mildred Morris, of Waynesborough, a graduate of the class of 1927, was married to Vincent Sexton, Jr., of Bluefield, W. Va., on April 12.

Mary Morton Riddle ,daughter of Mrs. Morton Riddle of Norfolk, became the bride of John William Clemens, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Clemens of Leesburg on April 16 in St. Andrews Episcopal church, in Norfolk. The bridesmaids included Miss Mary Austin Mann of Richmond; Miss Jane Riddle of Danville; Miss Nancy Peebles of Norfolk; Miss Audrey Chewning of Richmond.

We are sorry to announce the sudden death of Evelyn Wisecarver of Winchester which occurred following a throat infection after an operation for appendicitis. Funeral services were held April 23.

MOTHERS DAY BAZAAR

There will be a Mother's Day bazaar in the little sitting room on Thursday, April 28 from 4 until 6 o'clock. There you will find the answer to your Mothers Day gift problem in brass, kerchiefs, candy and linens. Orders for roses will be taken.

CHARLOTTE HUTCHINS

Continued from page two

chose her as student council representative for three years. Her interests are varied. She is a member of Pi Gamma Mu and is active socially.

We feel confident that in whatever she does in the coming years she will be liked by her fellow-workers and will be honored.

SCHEDULE OF MAY DAY PRACTICES— MAY 2 TO MAY 6

Monday night, May 2—Rehearsal in the big gym at 8, promptly. Miss Wheeler and Miss Barlow inspecting.

Tuesday night, May 3 — Dress rehearsal in the big gym at 8:00. Everyone must be in costume and in place ready for complete rehearsal. Miss Wheeler, Miss Robertson, Miss Bedford and Miss Barlow, inspecting.

Wednesday afternoon, May 4—Rehearsal at Longwood, 3:15. (Includes people not having classes after 3:00). Those who have 3:00 o'clock classes, come to Longwood after classes.

Thursday and Friday afternoon, May 5 and 6—Those who do not have 2:00 classes be ready to take 2:30 bus from the big gym. Those having 2:00 classes, leave the gym on the 3:00 bus and be at Longwood by 3:15 o'clock.

Everyone participating in May Day will be excused from classes after 3:00 oclock on these last two practice days and must be at Longwood on time.

May 7 at 4:30 is May Day—(In case rain prevents any of the above practices at the designated time, practices will be held the night of the same day in the big gym).

As a reminder, tack this schedule in a conspicuous place and don't forget practices.

SO AM I

Continued from page two

only for good. Man is in love with mankind. I, too, am in love. I love the earth; I would like to hold it to me forever. I love the greenness of grass, the gold of the sun, the flight of the bird, the swish of the swirling waters. I love all men because they are God's handiwork. I love you especially because you are one of the best of God's creations. I love you for the way you speak, for the delicate simplicity of your greatest thought, for the beauty of your life and the purity of your heart. I love you because you have a soul. I love you because you cause me to have faith, and few others in this good world give me such faith, I love you because you love me in return, and never before have I been so loved. Man loves God because God loves man. God is love. Man loves man because all life is filled with purity and goodness. All men are in love with life and man, and so am I!

The world is good and causes man to rejoice in living. When the outer world is beautiful, is bursting forth in flame and brightness after dullness, is arising in all greenness and freshness, man must have joy and love in his heart. Too often man forgets, though, that this brightness is always there, but is for a while hidden from view. Men are too prone to forget the beauty of things and the joy of life, and so am I!

Nell Dickinson, Essay Class

Fischer's

Records

Sheet Music

Instruments

Novelties, etc.

Repairing

Third Street

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community

For Over Half a Century

Finest Toilet Requisites

Drugs and Stationery

CABINET IS ENTERTAINED

Immediately following installation of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet on Tuesday evening, the old Cabinet was invited to meet in the Y. W. C. A. reception room. A few minutes later the Cabinet girls were further asked to adjourn to the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet room. The soft candle light wade it difficult to see what was before them. As soon as the eyes of everyone became adjusted to the change in light, a most delicious repast was seen spread before them on the table. A. J. Scott was hostess to a party for her cabinet, while Miss Nichols was the honor guest. Reminiscences rather than witticisms seemed to be the topic for discussion. Sad—but true the old must give place to the new.

When we reach the end of of a year at school
We are happy, and yet sad, too
We've lived so long by chart and rule
That the days just fairly flew.
But most good things will reach an end
And we go steadily on.
So all our energies we'll bend
To help those who'll carry on.

Thus we pass along the light
Always keep it burning bright,
Ever follow the gleam!
Never obstruct its beam
Sometimes discouragement may visit you,
For the way's not one of ease.
For what are troubles that make you blue
But learning our Master to please?
We give you too, the ideals and aim
Of our beloved Y. W. C. A.
Don't neglect them for praise or fame
Or pass them by for play.
And if sometimes the toil and cares
Almost bear you down,
Remember that your earnest prayers
Will help your labors crown.

To those who've helped thru thick and thin
We thank each and everyone;
May you meet life's problems and win
As past battles we've won.

These above words A. J. Scott, the retiring president of the Y. W. C. A.

(Continued on page 4.)

Willis.... Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON

A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices

WEYANOKE HOTEL

Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Manageemnt

W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE

Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR

and

COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES

WHILE YOU WAIT

BEST WORKMANSHIP

AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For

The best fountain drinks

The best sandwiches

The best lunch plates

The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S

The Home of the Needs

Would you like to earn all or a part of a delightful motor trip thru the West or eastern Canada this summer? Write for particulars to:

THE SOUTHERN TOURS, INC.

Box 727b Chapel Hill, N. C.

WHITE

GREEN

RED

BLUE

$1.59

U. S. SPORT SANDALS

Davidson's

HOUSE OF QUALITY

FARMVILLE. VIRGINIA

Lovely new two piece suits, all pastel colors Very special $1.98

Hats to Match 1.00

The new basket weave shoes to match $1 & $1.98

We have reduced pajamas You will love them at $1

White, blond, and brown crepe sole oxfords $1.98 & $2.98

The Hub Department Store

JOKES

A MERYKAHNA

Gasleen
Bizness Mannigers
Awthurs
Potes
Liberrians
Fuzzishuns
Minnusters
Kleckshun plates
Plitikay Dellagitts
Military Kaddameez
Winda Blinds
Serch Warnts
Thamometers
Institooshuns

He: "Why do you always answer a question by asking one?"
She: "Do I?"

Frances: "Newspapers are one-sided."
Nellie: "How's that?"
Frances: "They always make a fuss when a famous man dies but never when a famous man is born."

A scientist declares fish are the only living creatures never troubled with influenza. This is probably because of the ample opportunity they have for gargling.

His Wife (boarding the train): "Write often dear, if it's only a check."

Rector: "Now, Molly, would you rather be beautiful or good?"
Molly: "I'd rather be beautiful and repent."

Tommy: "Do you believe in fairies, Mrs. Brown?"
Mrs. B.: "Certainly not!"
Tommy: "I'm so glad you're truthful about it. There's such a pose among grown-ups nowadays to pretend they do."

Secretary: "There's a lady here to see you."
Professor: "Tell her I'm engaged."
Secretary: "So she said; and she wants to know why you didn't show up for the wedding."

Sonny: 'Mr. Butcher, have you a sheep's head?"
Butcher: "I have no head but my own."
Sonny: "Well, mamma wouldn't want yours. She wants one with brains in it."

Satan (to new arrival): "Say you act as if you owned this place."
Hubby: "I do, my wife just gave it to me."

First H. S.: "My girl's nose reminds me of a cue stick."
Second Ditto: "Why? Because it's so long and shiny?"
First H. S.: "No, because she spends so much time chalking the end of it."

Landlady: "Go, and never blacken my bathtub again."

SENIOR CHORAL CLUB TO SING IN RICHMOND

(Continued from page 1)

Mrs. W. S. Wilder (mezzo)
Silver Offering
Part II.

Panis Angelicus ..... Cesar Franck
Choral Club, S. T. C., Farmville
Director, Alfred H. Strick

1. (a) People Victorious, H. W. Parker
(From "Hora Novissima", being in Rythm of Barnard de Morlaix on the Celestial Country)
(b) But the Lord is Mindful of His own ..... Mendelssohn
(From the Oratorio "St. Paul")
(c) Alleujah ..... Mozart
(From the Motet "Exsultate, Jubilate")
2. (a) Fac ut portem ..... Rossini
(From "Stabat Mater")
(b) All in the April Evening, Diack
(After poem by K. Hinckson)
(c) Cathedral MSS ..... Parr-Gere
(The idea came to the composer while visiting Canterbury, Cathedral, England).
Joanne de Nault (contralto)

Hallelujah Chorus ..... Handel
Massed Choirs of Virginia
Director, Edwin Feller
Organist and accompanist for Mme. de Nault, Eric Rath
Accompanist for Major Charles T. Tittmann, George Harris
Director of Massed State Choirs, Edwin Feller.

Girls who will sing are: Ruth Atkins, Virginia Bailey, Jeanalien Bowles, Louise Clayton, Helen Crute, Jestine Cutshall, Hanna Crawley, Eleanor Davis, Ruth Ford, Ruth Hunt, Ruth Jordan, Jenilee Knight, Lucy Ann Lane, Katherine Marchant, Margie McManus, Mary McCarn, Clara Mistr, Margaret Murray, Lucille Owen, Velma Petty, Frances Potts, Anne Putney, Nancy Putney, Anne Rice, Marianna Robinson, Heren Smith, Mildred Steere, Joyce Sturm, Sarah Hyde Thomas, Woodruth Towler, Helen Ward, Jennie Wheeler, Lindsay White, Jane Witt, Virginia Williams, Anne Woodson, Sue Yeaman and Margaret Addleman.

Girls who will usher are: Winston Cobb, Catherine Cogbill, Helen Cover, Henrietta Cornwell, Mary Artis Danner, Louise Elliott, Doris Ewers, Ruth Floyd, Virginia Hamilton, Charlotte Hutchins, Pela Kutz, Dorothy Leonard, Elizabeth McCauley, Jane Royall, Catherine Royster, A. J. Scott, Martha von Schilling, Mary Shelton, Betty Watts, Nell Weaver, Martha Scott Watkins, Margaret Stiff, Grace Virginia Woodhouse, Margaret Young and Medora Ford.

Y. W. C. A. COLUMN

Continued from page three

Cabinet, spoke to Winston Cobb, the new P. W. C. A. president upon being installed. The words hold forth a challenge for the new cabinet, which already renders service, to ever keep on serving Alma Mater as well as humanity—to follow the gleam and keep it burning and bright as it were. Much success for the new Cabinet members is the heartfelt desire of every girl who served her Alma Mater through the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet this year.

The United States government acting through the Radio Division of the Deparment of Commerce, is conducting an investigation of the system of radio broadcasing to determine whether the radio serves the interests of the people as well as it might.

FIELD AND TRACK BEGIN MONDAY

Field and track began last Monday when a large number of girls came out for the first practice. Libby Berger is manager for this season. During the past two years Libby has shown outstanding interest and ability in all phases of athletics. We are confident that her work as manager of field and track will be excellent. But—remember that Libby cannot make the season a success by herself. Your cooperation, interest and backing are absolutely essential. If you have not been out for sports this year, come out for field and track. You may find it interesting and enjoyable as many others do.

ATHLETIC SCHEDULE IS ARRANGED

The arrangements of the athletic schedule for the spring has been completed, and meets will be over by May 16. Shortly after this, the points will all be counted and the awards of the year be given out. Following is the schedule:

May 10—Freshman-Sophomore baseball game
May 11—Junior-Senior baseball game
May 12—Archery tournament.
May 13 — Championship baseball game.
May 16—Field and track meet.

BASEBALL!

Keep on coming out for baseball. General practices are held every Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from four to six. Come out on these afternoons and make up your practices.

Don't forget the class games. Dont let your class be the one to be defeated.

Green and White
Red and White
Which will be on top?

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM APRIL 28 TO MAY 4

THURS. & FRIDAY—"TARZAN, THE APE MAN" with JOHNNY WEISSMULLER, MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN and NEIL HAMILTON in Edgar Rice Burrough's newest Tarzan thriller. Here's the "Trader Horn" of 1932 with that Adonis Swim Champ, Johnny Weissmuller, selected for his wonderful physique. A new kind of love thrill! The law of the jungle is nature's truest law. When Tarzan saw the woman he adored –he abducted her—and she loved it. Girls, would you live like Eve if you found the right Adam? Would you give up the luxuries of civilization for the primitive love in an African jungle? The critics has pronounced this boy Weissmuller "beautiful" because of his Adonis-like body. Your eyes will see new screen wonders—your heart will know a new love thrill. Here's the kind of picture you have been waiting to see and what a picture! Also Aesop Fable Cartoon.

SAT.—CHESTER MORRIS and BILLIE DOVE in "COCK OF THE AIR". Can you imagine Chester Morris spanking beautiful Billie Dove?—and what a darn good spanking he gives her! The aviator risked everything for her love and she risked everything to tame him. He promised her the Eiffel Tower with her name on it and she promised him everything but what he wanted. A bombshell of high explosive hilarity that bursts with a bang in the bright spots

FRESHMEN AND SOPHS HONORED BY KAPPA DELTA PI THURSDAY

Continued from page one

violet, the colors of Kappa Delta Pi.

The following sophomores and freshmen were invited to the reception:

Virginia Brinkley
Elizabeth Burger
Carmen Clark
Martha Cross
Pela Kutz
June Oney
Grayson Pratt
Winnifred Pugh
Anne Putney
Maude Rhodes
Alice Rowell
Grace Rowell
Edith Shanks
Lois Tharrington
Anna Frances Taylor
Anna Elizabeth Vassar
Katherine Lee Walton
Dorothy Weems
Birdie Woodin

of the Italian Riviera and the Rue de la Romance. You'll like it plenty. Also Scr en Song, Souvenir and Fox Latest News. Matinee this day from 2:15 to 6.

NEXT MON. & TUES.—GLORIA SWANSON in "TONIGHT OR NEVER", supported by Melvyn Douglas in a Chanel Fashion Show of dazzling gowns created especially for Miss Swanson. And the story—lessons in love for the girls, and you can learn plenty. Tonight or never—that was his daring ultimatum. Remain in his arms, a slave to the magic spell of their strange romance—or—close the door on Paradise. Remain and live—or leave and forget! And he gave her just ten minutes. In the silence of the night she came alone to keep a rendezvous with love—this woman of ice who turned to fire. A woman who feared love, but was brave enough to steal it. Undoubtedly Gloria Swanson's best picture. It's your treat. Also Chapter 3 of "Air Mail Msytery", 20 minutes of intense excitement, and Paramount News.

NEXT WED.—"THE BROKEN WING" with LUPE VELEZ and LEO CARRILLO. Romance to set your heart afire. Adventurous thrills and laughter. He didn't know his name, he didn't know where he came from; he didn't know whether he was a single or married man—but he did know that he loved this warm-blooded Spanish charmer—and that he'd get her, in spite of Hades and high water. The queen of Zeigfield's "Hot Cha" Lupe Velez, with two ardent lovers fighting for her. Adventures that make your blood tingle. Romance that sets your heart aflame. A picture to send you away smiling, happy and romantic, so watch your step. This picture would not be approved by some. Also Dane and Arthur in "Summer Daze" and single reel.

MATINEE DAILY at 4 P. M. and at 8 o'clock. Continuous matinee on Saturday from 2:15 to 6 p. m.

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency
(Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We like the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSIN

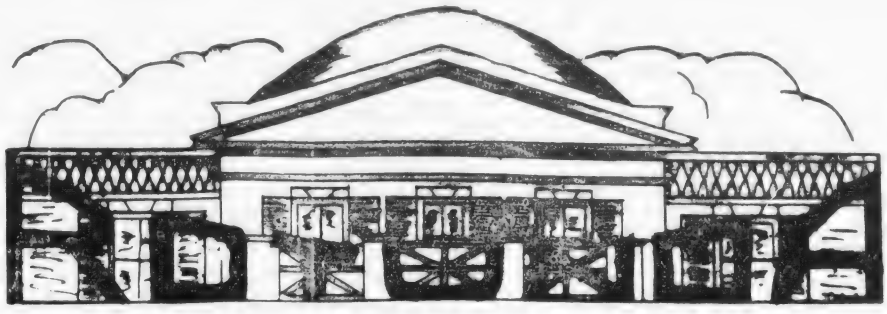
Farmville, Va.

"THE STYLE SHOP FOR LADIES"

That is the slogan we are proud of. College girls are quick to sense the value of style-right apparel . . . therefore they invariably make their selections at

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

GRADUATION DRESSES



We are glad to announce that our Graduation dresses are now on display. The kind you will want to wear to the exercises and the Baccalaureate Sermon. So many beautiful styles to select from, but only three prices.

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

DON'T FORGET
MAY DAY
PRACTICES

COME OUT
FOR FIELD
AND TRACK

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, 1932 No. 27

Sigma Pi Rho, National Latin Fraternity, Is Founded at S. T. C.

Farmville and Fairmont Unite Local Clubs to Form National Society

Sigma Pi Rho, first national honor Latin fraternity, for four year standard Teachers Colleges, was founded at Farmville State Teachers College Friday, April 29th.

This national fraternity grew out of the Tri V Latin Club of Fairmont State Teachers College, Fairmont, West Virginia, and Sigma Pi Rho, local fraternity of State Teachers College.

The national officers chosen for the fraternity are: national president, Joseph Fordyce, of Grafton, West Virginia; national vice-president, Lois Cox, Norfolk, Virginia; national secretary, Mary Margaret Wrick, Fairmont, West Virginia; national treasurer, Hattie Gilliam, Wise, Virginia; national historian, Ruth Riheldoffer, Fairmont, West Virginia; and national counselor, Dr. James Elliott Walmsley, Farmville, Virginia.

The first meeting of the national convention was called to order by Miss Bessie Lynch at 2:30, Friday afternoon. Before the regular business was entered upon the following members from West Virginia were initiated:

Miss Alice V. Cook
Mary Margaret Wrick
Ruth Riheldaffer
Joseph T. Viggiano
Joseph Fordyce
Edward Carroll

The business of adopting a national constitution was transacted during the afternoon. During this time much discussion of various phases of the constitution was held. At 4:45 the business meeting adjourned.

After the afternoon's hard work the convention assumed a more festive air when the members of Sigma Pi Rho assembled at Longwood for their first national banquet. The banquet table was beautifully decorated with the colors of the fraternity, gold, white, and purple. Toasts befitting the occasion were given between the courses of the delicious dinner. This part of the day's program was brought to a fitting close

Continued on page three

New House Council Pledges Its Support

The new House Council for the coming year was installed last Wednesday night. Louise Woodson, the old president, told of the pleasure she had experienced during the past year in working for and serving the student body in the office which she pledged her best support to the work held. Hattie Gilliam officially took over the duties of the office and and appealed to the student body for t he students' cooperation and backing.

Following is a list of the members of the House Council for next year:

President ..... Hattie Gilliam
Secretary ..... Sara James Hall
Presidents:

Jenny Wheeler
Mary J. Richmond
Marguerite Massey
Belle Lovelace
Judith Taylor
Helen Smith
Louise Ridgway
Audrey Mattox
Mary E. Norman
Christine Childrey
Mildred Lipscomb
Virginia Guy
Lucy Reed

Choral Club Performs at The Mosque

The Choir Festival program given in conjunction with the Choral Festival concerts and sponsored by the Federation of Music Clubs was presented April 28th in the Mosque in Richmond. The presiding chairman was Alfred H. Strick, State Choir Festival Chairman and National Chairman of Junior Festivals of the Federated Music Clubs of America. In Introducing Mr. Strick, Miss Julia Fuqua, state president paid him a beautiful tribute, presenting him as an adopted son of Virginia who has given much of his time and talents to the cause of Virginia's music, and particularly as a lover of children.

Massed choirs from all over the state numbering several hundred presented "Unfold Ye Portals" by Gounod, and the great "Hallelujah Chorus" by Handel under the direction of Edwin Feller of Norfolk. Interspersed in the choral division was the presentation of two numbers of Cesar Franck by the Hollins College Choir under the direction of Erich Rath and the Farmville State Teachers College Choral Club directed by Alfred H. Strick. Both of these choirs sang with musical taste and feeling and gave adequate interpretation to these masterful compositions. The following tribute was paid the Farmville group by Mme. Joanne de Nault: "The Farmville Choral Club gave a most inspiring and professional presentation of their number."

Soloist on the program were Joanne de Nault and Major Charles T. Tittmann, national artists, who rendered selections with authority and finesse. Their accompanists were Erich Rath of Hollins and George Harris of Richmond respectively.

COLLEGE ORCHESTRA TO GIVE MANY PROGRAMS

The College Orchestra will go to John Randolph tonight to give a musical program. Thursday night, the orchestra will give a program at Appomattox.

MISS ILER ELECTED SENIOR CLASS MAN

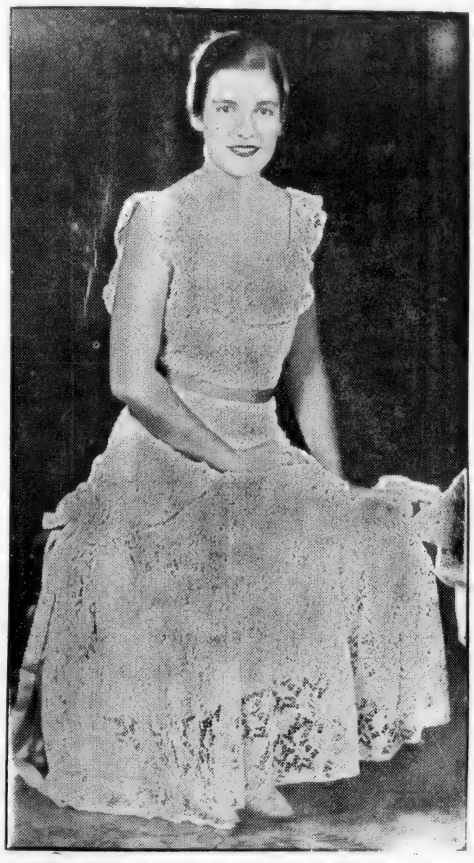
The Senior Class of 1933 unanimously elected Miss Iler as their classman. The class is very happy in having Miss Iler as their adviser. The members of the class realize that they could not have accomplished what they have in these last three years if it had not been for her faithful and true guidance.

The Class of '33 is looking forward to a successful Senior year with Miss Iler as their leader.

HONOR GRADUATES ANNOUNCED TODAY

The honor graduates for this year were announced as follows:

Degree Class



First Honor ..... Bessie Lynch
Second Honor ..... Easter Souders

Diploma Class

First Honor ..... Dorothy Weems
Second Honor ..... Grayson Pratt

The first honor graduate of the Senior Class will be valedictorian; the first honor graduate of the Sophomore Class, salutatorian.

MAY FESTIVAL QUEEN

Miss Medora Ford, of Lexington, will reign as May Queen Saturday.

INSTALLLATION HELD OF ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION OFFICERS

The installation of officers for the Athletic Association was held on Thursday evening, April 28, in the college auditorium. After the retiring and incoming officers had marched in and taken their places on the stage, Dr. Walmsley offered a prayer.

Frances Edwards, retiring president, in a short talk expressed the feelings of the outgoing officers—a feeling of sadness at giving up the work they love, yet a feeling of happiness in passing the work on to such a capable and promising Council.

Dorothy Snedegar, the new president, was then installed. She thanked the outgoing Council for their confidence in the new officers, and said that the incoming Council, inexperienced, yet teachable, was accepting the challenge to loyal service given them by the retiring officers. The new officers an dmanagers of sports were then installed.

The old and new Council marched out to the strains of "Onward Farmville."

The following are the A. A. officers for next year:

President ..... Dorothy Snedegar
Vice-President ..... Hildegarde Ross
Secretary ..... Mary B. Nelson
Treasurer ..... Mildred Gwaltney

Managers of Sports

Hockey ..... Elizabeth Burger
Basketball ..... Mary B. Fraser
Volley Ball ..... Nannie Ruth Cooper
Baseball ..... Dorothy Davis
Field and Track ..... Jennie Hurt
Tennis ..... Doreen Smith
Archery ..... Alice Collins

NATIONAL BICENTENNIAL Y. W. C. A. CONVENTION TO BE HELD

The National Y. W. C. A. holds its regular bicentennial convention in Minneapolis, Minnesota from May 5 to May 11.

Mrs. Charles W. Gilkey, president of the Y. W. C. A. of the United States will be there. Jonkvrown C. M. Van Asch Van Wyck of Holland, who is the world Y. W. C. A. president will also be present. Both of these personages, along with many others very prominent in Y. W. C. A. fields, will occupy a large part on the programs. Delegates will be there from Y. W. C. A.'s all over the country.

Winston Cobb, the new Y. W. C. A. president for next year, and A. J. Scott, the recently retiring president, will represent State Teachers College, Farmville. The delegates to the convention will be entertained in the leading hotels of Minneapolis. These hotels have been approved and chartered by the National Committee of the convention.

MISS POTTS CHOSEN JUNIOR CLASS MAN

Miss Virginia Potts was unanimously elected classman for the Junior Class of '33. She has been the devoted classman of the Sophomore Class through the year 1931-'32. She has given her untiring efforts toward making this year a successful one, and it has been through her and her helpers that the class has achieved what it has. As this year comes to a close it is to her that the incoming Junior Class turns unanimously as the pilot for the year 1932-'33.

May Festival To Be Held Here on May 7

Old Indian Legends Will Be Theme of Beautiful Production at Longwood

Saturday, May 7th, the amphitheatre at Longwood will furnish a natural setting for one of the most colorful and beautiful May Day festivals given by the students of the college.

The theme to be carried out is taken from two old Indian legends and depicts the fantastic life of the Indians. It is the story of a star who wished to come to earth and assume an earthly form among the Indian people. She appeared to a sleeping young warrior as a beautiful maiden and told him her wish. The youth appealed to the Chieftains at Council who gave their consent, and the maiden considered taking several forms but only one appealed to her. Finally she came to live in the heart of a water lily and was happy in that she might watch her sister stars by night and the Indian children who played along the edges of the lake by day.

Under the direction of Mrs. W. C. Fitzpatrick and the May Day committee the story has been worked out in careful detail, and it gives promise of being an unusual and lovely festival. Medora Ford, the queen, will take the role of the "Star Flower", and the character part of the Young Indian will be taken by Mary Shelton.

The festival will begin at 4:30, and the faculty, student body, friends, and the people of Farmville are cordially invited to attend. In case of rain, the program will be postponed until Monday, May 9th.

Tennis Teams Win Matches

State Teachers College scored successes in their first intercollegiate tennis, winning 5 out of 7 matches last Wednesday against Blacksone College. Both colleges exhibited good playing. The following is a summary of the scores by matches:

Singles:

Dorothy Snedegar vs. Anna Gates, 6-0, 6-4.

Jennie Hurt vs. Virginia Barrow, 6-3, 6-0.

Mary B. Nelson vs. Nichols, 1-6, 5-7.

Frances Edwards vs. Ora Deane, 6-4, 6-0.

Doreen Smith vs. R. Gray, 1-6, 4-6.

Doubles:

Hurt and Snedegar vs. Gates and Deane, 6-2, 6-2.

Nelson and Edwards vs. Barrow and Gary, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3.

Return matches will be played at Farmville, May 24.

BETA PI THETA HAS NEW MEMBERS

The Pi Zeta Chaper of Beta Pi Theta announces the following new members:

Charlotte Parrish
Virginia Brinkley
Sarah Rowell
Agnes Smith

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

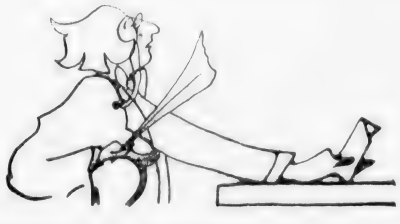
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOUISE ELLIOTT, '32
Associate Editor ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34
Literary Editor ..... VIRGINIA LOWE, '32
Athletic Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY, '33
World News Editor ..... SARA HUBARD, '32
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARTHA BROTHERS, '34
Social Editor ..... DOROTHY PRESCOTT, '34
Art Editor ..... KATHRYN ROYSTER, '33
Feature Editor ..... MARTHA WALTERS, '32
Humorous Editor ..... EVELYN JONES, '32
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



CLEO QUISENBERRY, '32 DOT SNEDEGAR, '33
DOROTHY WOOLWINE, '34
CARRIE DESHAZO, '33
Proof Reader ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY, '34
Associate Proof Reader ..... ALICE ROWELL, '34

Managers

Business Manager ..... DOREEN SMITH, '34
Assistant Business Manager ..... MILDRED GWALTNEY, '34
Circulation Manager ..... MARY GREGORY, '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... HILDEGARDE ROSS, '33

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Our Festival

The sound of Indian music emerging from the scenes of practices tells that the May Day Festival of this year has an unusual and different theme. The costumes and the dances are unlike those of past years and promise to be even more beautiful. The theme taken from an Indian legend has been carefully worked out. The amphitheatre at Longwood will be an ideal setting for the councils of the braves and the dances of the Indians. The Festival promises to be among the best that we have ever done.

By cooperating with the able directors we, as students, can help make the May Day a success. We can do this by attending practices faithfully and promptly and by doing our particular parts in the best way we can. Many visitors will be present, Saturday. Let's do everything that will make this May Day Festival of 1932 beautifully successful.

Appreciation

A year ago today the Rotunda Staff of 1931-32 met and planned their first issue of the paper. Today the last Rotunda issued by the staff is published. As members of that staff, we wish to express our appreciation for the cooperation and help that have been given us. We have enjoyed this year. It has been a pleasure to be able to write and edit the news of the school.

To the new staff, we give our best wishes. With a band of capable members and with the cooperation they will be given, we feel confident of the success of the Rotunda of 1932-33.

DAY DREAMS

Who is there who has never dreamed I dare say that even our most profound realists have had some moments of day dreaming in their lives; while many of our famous men have been very idealistic. Some one has said that all the real things in the world have been made by dreamers. This seems to be very true when we consider some of the things that we think are great in the history of our world.

Suppose we begin with Noah and his ark. Who but visionary people would trust themselves to a wooden ark, and that before the rain began. They were dreamers, and did not stop for reasoning.

Take our late President Wilson, for example. He was a dreamer in a true sense. His League of Nation plan shows this clearly. He looked forward and dreamed of a time when there would be perfect peace among the nations of the world through this union.

Edgar Allan Poe, our poet, has been called "the dreamer." His works owe much to his feverish dreams, as they express his dreams of something he has not attained; and his yearning for the ideal was both of the heart and of the imagination.

Cecil Rhodes, the great British statesman, who did so much toward uniting the British Empire, was idealistic. He believed that an association of races was necessary for the peace of the world. He dreamed of creating a connecting chain of British possessions.

Dreams and ambitions are so closely correlated that it seems that anyone with ambition is, of necessity, a dreamer. He dreams of the time when his ambition will be realized. The dreams of these great men helped accomplish what they did by looking forward and glimpsing a vision of the future.

However, I did not mean this to be a discussion of dreamers, but of day dreaming itself. It has its advantages and disadvantages as does everything else; and I warn you, Reader, before I begin a discussion of these, that I am slightly inclined to be an advocate of day-dreaming.

I shall have to admit the relative value of my adversarie's point that day dreaming often hinders success rather than aids it. This is true when the person tends to dream so much that he fails to act. He may have an ambition which is worth striving toward; yet, in his pleasure of dreaming that the ambition has already been realized, he may forget to strive. Are his dreams here sufficient recompense for the goal he has failed to reach, you ask? Of course, I may answer that in dreaming he does not realize his loss; yet, I admit that not only his loss is concerned, but loss of benefit others may have derived from his success.

I realize also that the physical and mental reactions to day-dreaming are not always the best. A person who dreams too much may become moody and nervous. My answer to this is that with the swiftness of the change of thoughts that pass through our minds, we are not apt very often to dream so much of one thing that it will unbalance us permanently. There may be exceptions, turbed temporarily either mentaly or however, and often one may be disphysically.

Then, day-dreaming often makes us temporarily lazy. An example of this may be found here at school. We may be studying and suddenly think of something that happened Easter. When this happens, dear Reader,simply put your books away and enjoy yourself in the re-living of a wonderful holiday. I say this because anyone who has had the experience will know that it is useless to try to resume studying. Just be sure that this door does not occur too often.

(Continued on page 4)

CORRECTION

In last week's Rotunda, Honey Hamilton was named as Undergraduate Representative of the Y. W. C. A.

This should have been: Honey Hamilton, Freshman Counselor, and Grace Rowell, Undergraduate Representative.

Among Our Caps And Gowns

EASTER SOUDERS

When one thinks of Easter, he is reminded of sturdy white dogwood in a rough setting, of hair blown back from a frank, open face—of high-necked sweaters and American girlhood in all its glory. People never question Easter's ability to do anything requiring either ingenuity or hard work—she fairly breaths activity and is unquestionably one of the most versatile and accomplished of this year's "Who's Who". She is dramatic, having done splendidly as one of the characters in the spring production by the Dramatic Club, "The Ivory Door." As Literary Editor of this year's annual, she has shown remarkable ability along the line of writing. Easter's poetry, contributed to the Rotunda and other literary productions, has long since been recognized as a part of her talented self. Yet when she dons her gym clothes and flashes in and out down the smooth floor with a basketball tucked under a muscular and capable arm, one would never guess the myriad of beautiful thoughts she carries in her head—embryonic verse ready to jot down at odd moments in a busy lifetime. She is musical, and her intellectual abilities have been recognized in her election to Kappa Delta Pi, Beta Pi Theta, and Pi Gamma Mu. She is one of Alpha Kappa Gamma's outstanding leaders, and the spirit of Joan of Arc has truly become embedded in her heart. Above all things she is true to her Alma Mater, and the honors placed upon her all during her four years' career have been well deserved.

Many years from now, memories of ivy-covered walls, perennial blossoms, and quiet columns will still be redolent with those of a girl whose character and deeds have been such an integral part of our school.

CLEO QUISENBERRY

It was once said of Cleo that she was a person who did a great many worthwhile things without credit—little things that nobody thinks of thanking people for, but things that require time and painstaking attention.

Continued on page three

AND THEN CAME DAWN

Dreamless, sleepless night
When staring eyes saw not the beauty of the night.
Limitless, endless night
When dawn seemed to stop in the distance.

Then—
Starless, clear blue sky
When night seemed to cover all in a thick veil.
Wondrous, beautiful thought
That caused me to wander to the open window—.
Looking, seeing nothing

Except the clear dark expanse of night
Miracles, ever happening—
For such a one God wrought in the coming of dawn.

Quiet—calm—peace—
No sign of life—the darkest hour had come.
And then—as one who sees a vision
I saw the veil of night lifted and—
Gradually it was carried out of sight
As quietly as the coming of fog.
The gentle, easy lifting
As though some Knowing Hand
Pulled back the curtain
And revealed the picture God had painted.

At first it seemed dull-gray—
Then a yellow glow—of warmth—of love—
That suffused the world
With the knowledge of its beauty.

I drew back—
Had I the right to enjoy so lovely a thing
When all the world was sleeping?
But yes—I saw—I felt—
"I was a part of all that I had met."
So I turned to enjoy the rosy hue of the coming of dawn.

D. V. R.

A DREAM

Scarce had soft slumbers
Sealed my weary eyes,
Subdued my troubles
Calmed my anxious sighs,
Ere there arose
Before my fancied view
An Angel form—
For it resembled You!

M. P. L.

ON GEORGE WASHINGTON

Hail Washington,
Columbia's glorious chief—
Immortal hero
Who rests beneath this stone
While Columbia mourns
In plaintive sighs of grief
Her friends, her father
And her founder gone.

M. P. L.

TO YOU

Just as I look
Through my window pane
At a Spring storm
With its cooling rain,
I'll look at the anger
In your eyes
Which makes me half afraid
Then again more wise.

V. P. L.

DISILLUSIONMENT

While reading o'er your old love letters
The nasty shock of disillusionment
Comes with a blow that stuns and kills
All hope for the future except that of a cynic.—
You did this to me, this cruel thing,
But I'm not blaming you—you and your pride.
You're stronger than I, and that's the reason why
You and your dreams live on and I and mine die.

Jac Morton, '34

SCENES FROM MAY DAY

THE FRESHMAN SING

The Freshman Sing
Showed the coming of Spring.
Each flower had long been asleep.
The rain and the sun
In a dance—well done—
Awakened those slumbering ones.

Then urged by the maiden—
They seemd to be laden
With songs and dances of spring.
These they happily shared
With all the crowd there
And seemed to enjoy their parts.

And then as each finished
She helped to fill the space
In the basket—her place
And part of good wishes—
To the Juniors and
Best of all to—Miss Moran.

CABINET HOLDS MORNING WATCH

Last Thursday morning, just at the beginning of a day's work, the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet met in the little sitting room for a few moments of devotional service.

Sue Yeaman told a beautiful little story illustrating the fact that every kindness, no matter how small, appears large in the eyes of Jesus. After the story, a short prayer found its way to the Father's throne.

CLEO QUISENBERRY

Continued from page two

Outstanding in athletic and literary circles, she has served her school long and well. For four years she has been on her class teams in every sport and has played varsity hockey, volley ball and baseball. Playing for the joy of playing and to add glory to her colors, red and white, or blue and white, she has helped to maintain a high standard of sportsmanship and all that that means. President of the Monogram Club her Junior year, she was re-elected for this year by a group proud of her leadership. Alpha Kappa Gamma, recognizing her ability and influence elected her to membership last fall.

Serving on the staffs of all three of the school publications she has shown both business and literary ability. She has led in many other lines as vice-president of her literary society, as publicity manager of the Dramatic Club and most efficiently as treasurer of the Senior class.

One of Cleo's greatest abilities is that of being a friend. When one has her friendship, one has something strong and true and everlasting.

SENIOR-SOPHOMORE PICNIC AT LONGWOOD

"We are the Seniors, Sophomores are we"—if you don't believe it, just ask someone who attended the picnic at Longwood Friday evening! The sister classes went back to their childhood days and played "Keep Away," "The Farmer's in the Dell" and other games.

The amphitheatre was the scene of great festivity. The splashes of color from the costumes of the gypsies, against the green setting made a picture worthy of any artist's paint brush. From this happy throng arose excited laughter and yells made by the seniors and sophomores as they played "Keep Away."

Soon the gypsy call sounded, and the happy girls clambered up the hill to find a table beautifully decorated with dogwood blossoms and heavily ladened with delicious hot dogs, rolls, mustard, dopes (more than you've ever seen before!) bananas, and marshmallows. Just back of the tables a crackling fire invited the girls to roast the weenies and marshmallows in its flames.

While everyone was eating, a most original gypsy orchestra under the direction of Alma Foster played with the same genuine "pep" that was dis-

Continued on last page

LILY PONS WILL SING MAY 13TH IN LYNCHBURG

Lily Pons, world famous coloratura soprano, will sing in the Lynchburg auditorium, May 13, at 8:30 P. M.

Lily Pons was born in Cannes of an Italian mother and a French father. When a girl she studied piano at the Paris Conservatoire. She only recently took up the study of singing and made her debut less than four years ago in Lokme at Mulhouse. From then on she has sky-rocketed in popularity and fame.

This is now her second American season, which ushers her in as the most talked-of singer of our day. This slight, almost childlike little prima donna has captured the imagination of the public. Superlatives are showered upon her and record-breaking demonstrations of applause of quarter-hour duration are given to her.

In a word, as the critic of the Cleveland Plain Dealer remarked, "A great public is hers, to have and to hold."

WORLD NEWS Clipped Here and There

When a man buys a meal in the Canadian Province of Quebec he is not only appeasing his own hunger, but aiding the hospitals. Not that restaurant food has been found to keep the sick lists down, but, under a measure passed by the last Legislature a 5 per cent tax must be paid on all meals costing thirty-five cents or more.

Startling news for America is the omission of any provision for war-debt payments from the British budget.

Ireland has the pleasure of worrying over a deficit just 2 per cent of that of Uncle Sam.

Columbia University will celebrate the 100th anniversary of Professor Dodgson, who wrote "Alice in Wonderland" and signed it "Lewis Carroll" thinking it too undignified for a professor of mathematics. Sometimes undignified things are more important than others.

The learned Dodgson will be remembered for his "Alice" not for his books on Euclid.

Mrs. Hargreaves, the original "little Alice" for whom the book was written, now 80 years old, comes to celebrate the anniversary of one who made her famous.

Was Shakespeare laughing at us when he spoke of times "as flush as May"?

Richard Louis Sprague, American Consul, recently received hundreds of congratulations on the anniversary of American Consular representation at Gibraltar by the Sprague family.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing

Third Street

SOCIALS

Those who spent the week-end in Lynchburg are: Louise Van Lear, Janet Harris, Frances Bosworth, Charlotte Parrish, Margaretta Brady, Alice McKay, Ellen Earle Jones, Hanna Crawley, Harriet Branch and Virginia Bledsoe.

• • •

Ruth Atkins spent the week-end in Martinsville.

• • •

Helen Shawen was in Newport News this week-end.

• • •

Medora Ford and Catherine Marchant spent the week-end in Lexington.

• • •

Mary Burgess Fraser was in Blackstone this week-end.

• • •

Mary Shelton, Honey Hamilton and Irwin Staples were visiting in Burkeville this week-end.

• • •

The following girls spent the week-end in Richmond: Kathryn Rogers, Betty Watts, Martha Sanders, Emma Littleton, Margaret Young, and Inez Martin.

• • •

Elma Rawlings was in Lawrenceville this week-end.

• • •

Charlotte Oakey spent the week-end in Salem.

• • •

Mary Ellen Johnson, Helen Smith, Alice Marshall, Elizabeth Mason, Justine Cutshall, Mary Howard, Lucille Owen, Garnett Hodges, Mamie Barnes, Emily Meadows, and Frances Graham were in Roanoke for the week-end.

• • •

Winifred Pugh and Ambler Lee were in Charlottesville this week-end.

• • •

Jean McClure spent the week-end in Spottswood.

• • •

Patty Ellison, Nancy Boykin, Ruth and Mamie Showalter were vistors in Kenbridge this week-end.

• • •

Sara Beck was in Dinwiddie this week-end.

• • •

Thelma Walsh, Vernie Oden "Chic" Mosby and Margaret Barker attended the dances in Chapel Hill this week-end.

• • •

Margaret Banks, Mary Conway, Celia Jones, and Mary Scott Martin were in Orange this week-end.

• • •

Anna Knox spent the week-end in Norfolk.

• • •

Thelma Stevens, Virginia Lamb and Jo Congdon were in Petersburg this week-end.

• • •

Margaret Jack, Charlotte Hutchins and Grace Virginia Woodhouse spent the week-end in Portsmouth.

This seems to be a year of celebrations—now Scotland celebrates the centenary of the death of Sir Walter Scott.

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

SIGMA PI RHO MADE NATIONAL FRATERNITY

Continued from page one

by two addresses, "The History of Sigma Pi Rho" by Dr. Walmsley, and "Roman Architecture" by Miss M. W. Coulling.

The last session of the convention convened at nine o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. reception room. The constitution was read, discussed, and voted upon. The national officers were elected. Other important matters of the fraternity were decided. After which the first national convention of Sigma Pi Rho was adjourned.

Willis.... Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

Would you like to earn all or a part of a delightful motor trip thru the West or eastern Canada this summer? Write for particulars to:
THE SOUTHERN TOURS, INC.
Box 727b Chapel Hill, N. C.

WHITE
GREEN
RED
BLUE
$1.59
"U. S." SPORT SANDALS
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

Lovely new two piece suits, all pastel colors Very special $1.98
Hats to Match 1.00
The new basket weave shoes to match ..... $1 & $1.98
We have reduced pajamas You will love them at $1
White, blond, and brown crepe sole oxfords $1.98 & $2.98
The Hub Department Store

JOKES

Waitress: "Order, please."
Jean: "Whazzamatter? I'm not making any noise."

Cecil: "Billy, how would you define the word 'nothin'?"
Smart Child: "A bladeless knife without a handle."

Singer: "I say, old chap, what shall I do if they ask me to sing?"
Candid Friend: "Why, sing of course—it will be their own fault."

Teacher: "Are you laughing at me?"
Class (in chorus): "No!"
Teacher: "Well, what else is there in the room to laugh at?"

Professor: "Please follow the work on the board."
Student: "Where is it going?"

What about the co-ed who, for six days, wrote in her diary: "Went to bed early"? The seventh day there was one word—"Suicide."

One reason for the depression is that so many people follow Webster—they put "invest" before 'investigate."

INTERCOLLEGIATE

"Ring Around the Rosey", "Farmer in the Dell" and other children's games are reported to be popular at fraternity and sorority parties at the University of Washington.—Campus Comments.

"The early bird gets the worm" must be the spring motto of the West Point cadets, who have succeeded in changing their rising hour from 6:20 to 5:50 A. M.—Exchange.

According to the Dean of the University of Nebraska, love, intoxication, and faculty intelligence are the reasons for freshmen flunking out of college.—The Sun Dial.

At Louisiana Tech the craze of magazine cover artists for a prevailing type of feminine beauty has taken its toll of the campus. Red hair is the fad.

Yale College has a sophomore who is paying much of his way through college by washing dogs.—N. S. F. A.

Emory University

According to Coach Jeff D. McCord the athletic association is planning on bringing to Emory next year for the benefit of the students a series of instructive moving pictures of sports, how they should be played, and how they are played by the experts of today.—The Emory Wheel.

Six hairs said to have been cut from George Washington's head have been given to the New York Public Library.—Tulane Hullabaloo.

ANOTHER DEATH BLOW

Red and Whites and the Green and Whites are going to play baseball next Wednesday. It's an old Farmville story, but it is still a good one. "Come out and yell for your team." It takes more than team to win the game. The old Thanksgiving spirit is still vibrating. They are going to be good games.

Don't forget:

Sophomores vs. Freshmen	May 10
Seniors vs. Juniors	May 11
Championship games	May 13

What color will be on the color cup?

DAY DREAMS

Continued from page two

I have apparently made the disadvantages of day-dreaming appear as semi-advantages; ye, didn't I warn you at the beginning that I was in favor of it? Here are my reasons.

First, dreams are to me inspirations I dream, and I am inspired to make that dream come true, to make it real. I think I must have lived on dreams; for, as long as I can remember I have dreamed and worked with realization of these dreams in view. At present, to the world, my dreams appear to be centered around teaching school, as that seems to be what I am striving toward. Of course, I do dream of that; but I have another dream which inspires me. Promise not to tell? Well, I dream of being a news reporter; and I work with that end in view; hence, this discussion which will aid me in my future writings.

I dream also to "Chase Away the Blues." Who doesn't get blue once in a while when he is away at school? When I feel the blues coming I begin dreaming. Strange to say, at these times I had rather dream of something sad; my pet story being—oh, I must keep some things to myself.

I dream for consolation. When we have lost a class game; for instance, the hurt is eased by imagining that we won, and soon the loss is forgotten.

The last advantage of day-dreaming is for pastime. When everyone else is away, and I've read all the books in my room, and I've completed my studying, and I begin to feel bored, I dream! When I have gone to bed, and my roommate drops off to sleep immediately, while I am restless and cannot sleep, I dream! This is when I enjoy dreaming the most. I make up the most pleasant and exciting stories, and, of course, I a malways the heroine. While these dreams will never come true they afford me the greatest amount of enjoyment possible at this time.

Probably you will not agree with me when I say that the advantages of day-dreaming overbalance the disadvantages. I think that they do, if day-dreaming is not carried to such an extent that it will be harmful rather than helpful. There should be some limti to it. I am sure, however, that you will all agree with me as to the truth of the line of one of our older popular songs, "I'm a dreamer, but aren't we all' to a certain degree?

Nell Clingenpeel, Essay Class.

Marshall College students who made a trip to Harlan, Kentucky, to see mining conditions, report that the so-termed "bloodthirsty" Harlan does not exist, and that the only really "tough" looking man they saw proved to be an iceman.

FIELD AND TRACK PRACTICES HELD

The last part of the athletic season is given to field and track. Here is a chance for everyone. If you run, jump and throw, then just come out and see how much you really can do. A schedule for field and track has been posted so come out and practice from 4 to 6 P. M. every afternoon. Only ten practices are required for eligibility in Field Day. Come and and break a college record and in so doing give yourself 25 points toward a blazer, and give your class a few points toward the color cup.

If you are tired and worn out, if you don't know what to do with yourself, and if you did know, you would want to do it—if in other words you have contracted a severe case of spring fever—here's the cure—come cut on the athletic field and work!

The fourth anniversary of the founding of Freshman Barefoot Day by Kappa Sigma Kappa was observed today when the first-men shed their shoes and welcomed spring in a hilarious manner. Back in 1929, the local spirit fraternity, after prolonged consultations with medical authorities and specialists on athletes' foot, inaugurated the first Barefoot Day in the history of the institution. —The Gamecock.

We sometimes wonder how students at other colleges manage to get up in time to get to 8 o'clock classes when there is no such thing as the reveille squad to pour forth questionable harmony upon the unoffensive and slightly startled atmosphere. At Marshall College some of the devices used to brew up the bewitching spell of Morpheus include: alarm clocks clattering in dish pans, clothes soaked in ice water, concentration on the time of attempted rising before going to sleep, and noises conveniently made by neighbors. — "Va. Tech.

The results of a questionnaire submitted to the girls at Stephens College show that "dates" were the least popular pastime. Dancing led the list of hobbies. We may be wrong, but it seems as though dates usually have some connection with dancing, or sumpthin'.—Wo-Co-Ala.

SENIOR-SOPHOMORE PICNIC AT LONGWOOD

Continued from page three

played by all the Seniors and Sophomores.

Miss Potts announced a treasure hunt after everyone had finished eating. Very soon the pot of gold was discovered by Velma Petty. As a reward, she was crowned "Queen of the May". The orchestra played, the court entered, and Miss Bedford crowned the queen with garlands of wild flowers!

Just before leaving Longwood, everyone enjoyed playing some more games and then began the homeward journey, feeling tired but happy! Who says the Seniors and Sophomores aren't a happy crowd? The Sophomores made delightful hostesses and gave a most attractive party. The Seniors feel very proud of their sister class.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM MAY 5 to 11

THURS. and FRIDAY.—ROBERT MONTGOMERY in "BUT THE FLESH IS WEAK," with Nora Gregor, Nils Asther and Heather Thatcher. A new love technique has reached the screen and it threatens to become popular. It's a bit daring—some may think it fresh—try it and see what happens to you. The daring of a Casanova; the finesse of a Don Juan. Love-making is brought up to date as Bob Montgomery, as a light-hearted, devil-may-care lover, who wouldn't take "no" for an answer, woos one woman for her wealth and another for her caresses. Your own flushed cheeks will remind you of the moments you've missed when you see Bob charm hearts. Racy, rollicking romance that's delightfully different and—deliciously daring. Also specially selected comedy.

SATURDAY—JOAN BENNETT & JOHN BOLES in "CARELESS LADY." RETURN ENGAGEMENT by POPULAR DEMAND! This picture was so well liked that we are returning it for one day only. Don't miss it. It is the story about the hilarious mix-up that follows a young girl when she pretends to be married in order to enjoy a Paris vacation, only to have a persistent "husband" appear on the scene. She assumes his name and he assumes hers. It's some scramble but a wonderfully happy ending. Well worth seeing twice; and John Boles sings. Also Aesop Fable, Fox News and Pitts-Todd Comedy—a great show.

NEXT MON. and TUES.—JOAN BENNETT in "THE TRIAL OF VIVIENNE WARE," supported by a splendid cast of players. The most amazing and breath-taking inside story of men, women, caught in a whirlwind of passion, detouring the wheels of justice—or desires that changed the lives of eight people. Love in her eyes—murder in her heart—she was envied by every woman, and a match for any man. A picture that is sensationally different. You will be thrilled, dazzled. You will wonder how it is all done, and you will shout its praises. A new era in entertainment, setting an unprecedentedly furious pace. FIRST RUN IN SOUTHSIDE VIRGINIA! Also Paramount Latest News.

CHAPTER 3, "Air Mail Mystery," entitled, "A Leap for Life." The most thrilling and interesting serial ever produced. See every chapter.

NEXT WEDNESDAY—"THE WISER SEX" with CLAUDETTE COLBERT, LILYAN TASHMAN and MELVYN DOUGLAS. Here's the beautiful Colbert as both blonde and brunette. What won't a woman do for her man—reputation, money, comfort, pride—nothing matters to a woman in love. Lovers may kiss and swear their fidelity. But can love stand up under the smashing blows of fate? Here's a big shock for cynics. If you are one of the wise boys who says, "She's just another dame," this picture will change your outlook on love. Also Aesop Fable and comedy, "Light House Love."

MATINEES DAILY at 4 p. m. Evenings at 8 o'clock. Every Saturday continuous matinee form 2:15 to 6 P. M.

ADMISSION—Adults 35c at nights and 25c at matinees; children under 12, 15c to each show.

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE

YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

AW, BE A SPORT

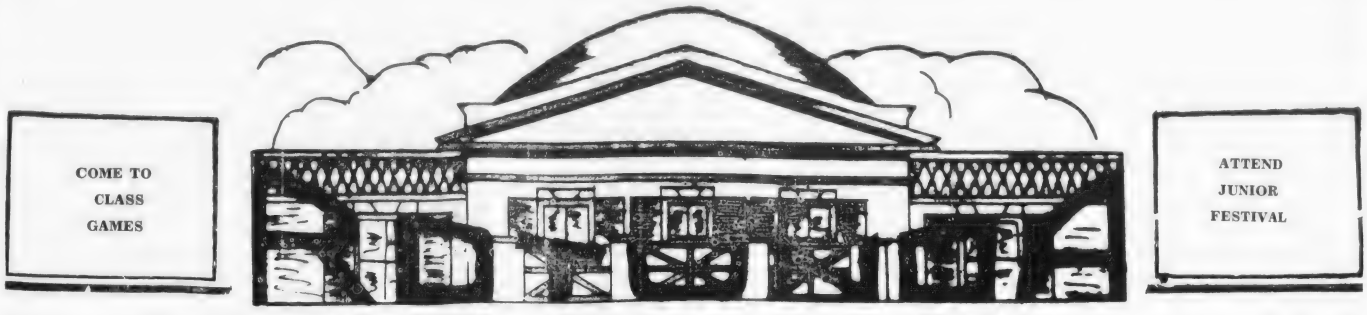
Our millinery section offers as an extra special for this week, six dozen adorable sport hats in white and pastel shades. Made of wool knit and silk and wool. They are brand new, too. Just arrived this week and featured at the exceptionally low price of

$1

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

FROCKS FOR THE PARTY AND SORORITY DANCES



and frocks for street wear too. Our buyer just returned from New York where she bought many lovely creations that we invite you to see.

Remember, we feature just three low prices.

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 1932 No. 28

Junior Festival of Music to be Held Next Saturday at Longwood Estate

Six Counties Represented in Festival of Southside Virginia May 14th

The Junior Festival of Music, of Southside Virginia, will be held Saturday, May 14.

Commencing at 9:45 o'clock the Farmville Silver Band will give a program on the College Campus, and the Richmond Boys Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Sidney Swann, will sing the "Crusaders Hymn" during chapel period.

Following the usual chapel exercises a recital will be given by the distinguished American tenor, Maurice L. Tyler, accompanied by Mrs. Channing Ward of Richmond.

Continuing the program in the auditorium; eighteen units from six counties will offer a program from 11 o'clock until 10 o'clock.

The program will include three Toy Symphony Orchestras from the Training School of the College; Charlotte county and Victoria, Lunenburg County. Junior Choirs: Harmonica Band, Folk Groups, Negro Spirituals, singing of rounds, Rhythm unit, interpretative dancing with College orchestra, piano solo by gifted student from Victoria, boy soloist from Richmond, boys choir and group singing.

This Festival promises to be one of the most delightful ever staged in Farmville and all programs are free to the public.

Distinguished musicians from all points of Virginia are planning to attend.

One of the most interesting numbers on the Junior Festival program will be a solo by a very gifted boy soprano from Richmond. Mrs. Sidney Swann, first vice-president of the Federation of Music clubs, and teacher of this young musician, has selected the beautiful song "Trees" for her boy soloist.

Monogram Club Changes Its Rules

The Monogram Club held a call meeting on Friday, May 6, in the little sitting room to pass on a revision of the requirements for admission to the club. A committee, consisting of Theodocia Beacham, chairman, Frances Edward, and Marguerite Massey, had been appointed at the last meeting to make some clause that would not be too lax and not too severe for new members to be brought in.

Due to the fact that some of the requirements for admission to membership were thought rather difficult and impossible to be done by some girls interested in athletics, this committee was appointed to do something about this.

The following statement was presented to and passed on by the club:

Continued on last page

JUNIOR QUARTETTE SINGS AT CENTER CROSS

The Junior Quartette composed of Sue Yeaman, Mary McCarn, Anne Putney and Margaret Murry sang several numbers at the Essex County Festival of Music held at Center Cross last Friday, May 6. Mr. Strick, national chairman of Junior Festivals of the Federated Music Clubs of America, made the festival address and directed 500 children in the singing of one of his compositions "Sing Young America Sing," which is the national song of the junior division of the Federation of Music Clubs.

Jongleurs to Perform Here

Three plays will be given by the Jongleurs on May 17 in the S. T. C. auditorium for all students who are looking for choice entertainment of the year to which one can afford to take dates.

This production is unique in its entirety. It composes a larger cast than is customarily used in Jongluer plays.

The first play is "The Lost Silk Hat," a comedy in the modern manner by Lord Dunsany. The parts are taken by Roger Young, James Ireland, Henry Mosby, David Ross Dingwall, and Venable Martin. The play is being produced by the talented student director, Mr. Roger Young. Last year a play by Lord Dunsany, "A Night in an Inn," was presented by the club and proved to be an amusing and thrilling episode.

"The Hour Glass," by William Butler Yeates, which is a modern morality play, has as characters, Earl Discus, Ralph O'Hair, Greoge Wall, Bob Griswall, Charles Scott, Francis Whitehouse, and Venable Martin. This play is being directed by Prof. Nelson.

"French Without a Master" is a French farce, and the cast includes William Greenlees, Jack McCurdy, Russell McAllister, Fred Reed, Merle Smith, John Wagner and Woodrow Mackey. This play is being directed by Dr. Bell.

The program will show a very balanced production with three types of plays, a modern morality, an ironic comedy, and a farce by two authors who are unknown Irish Play writers, and the third is also well known.

RUFFNER SOCIETY HAS NEW MEMBERS

The Ruffner Literary Society announces the following new members:

Esther Haskins
Margaret Murray
Duvahl Ridgway

CALENDAR FOR WEEK MAY 12TH TO 18TH

Thursday, May 12
4:00 P. M. Archery tournament
5:00 P. M. Student Standards Committee Meeting.
7:00 P. M. A. A. Council Meeting
8:00 P. M. Orchestra to play at John Randolph.

Friday, May 13
4:00 P. M. Baseball game.
7:00 P. M. Dramatic Club meeting (Election of officers)
7:00 P. M. Monogram Club meets.

Saturday, May 14
11:00 A. M. Junior Music Festival
6:30 P. M. Sing (stunt night)

Sunday, May 15
8:30 A. M. Morning watch
6:30 P. M. Vespers.

Monday, May 16
7:00 P. M. Virginian Staff meets
2:30 P. M. Track meet

Tuesday, May 17
7:00 P. M. Class meetings
7:30 P. M. Cunningham Literary Society Installation of officers

Wednesday, May 18
5:00 P. M. Y. W. C. A. meeting
8:00 P. M. Rotunda Staff meeting

LOUISE ELLIOTT

DEDICATION

The new Rotunda staff wishes to dedicate this their first issue of the Rotunda to Louise Elliott who has served so capably and faithfully as Editor-in-Chief the past year.

Distinguished Tenor to Give A Recital

Maurice Tyler, one of the finest tenors in the music world today is coming to Farmville Saturday, May 14. He will give a recital at the chapel hour preceding the Junior Festival of Music. Born and reared in the South Mr. Tyler gave a great deal of his time and beautiful talent to the church until he was discovered by the composer, Harriet Ware and persuaded to go to New York City where he was given a tremendous welcome by critics. He soon became prominent in radio and concert circles, and his work with the National Broadcasting Company and quartette work with Mme. Joanne de Nault have given him a national reputation.

His program is as follows:

Ah Love! but a day ....
Mrs. H. H. A. Beach
Londonderry Air ..... Old Irish
When I think upon the Maidens
O Paradise ..... Meyerbeet
Michael Head
Vaghissima sembianza ..... Donandy
Amore! Amor! ..... Tirindelli
Quelle Souffrance ..... Lenormand
Ah, mon of my delight ..... Lehmann
From "In a Persian Garden")
The Last Hour .... A. Walter Kramer
Iris ..... Damiel Wolf
Take Joy Home ..... K. W. Bassett
At the Piano .... Mrs. Channing Ward

Indian Story Makes Theme for a Beautiful May Day Festival Program

Costumes and Dances From Indian Legends Are Excellent and Beautiful

The May Day celebration, held at Longwood last Saturday, was the most unusual and one of the most beautiful ever given here. The natural amphitheatre with its background of trees was just the right place for the performance, the theme of which was the story of a star maiden who came to earth, dwelling in the heart of a water lily that she might be near the Indian children whom she loved.

Medora Ford, star maiden, crowned queen with a simple wreath of yellow flowers woven by the children, came to the heart of the lily as a most royal, most stately, and most beautiful queen. Jenilee Knight was her maid of honor. Each person in the court stood in a huge white water lily. All the attendants wore yellow making a very pretty and effective scene.

Mary Shelton, as the young warrior, took the leading dramatic part. The part of Indian chieftain was done by Henrietta Cornwell.

Especially well done was the eagle dance, by Grace and Alice Rowell, the water lily dance by Mary Winston, and the bow and arrow dance by Glenn Perry Colonna.

Of the group dances, all of which were beautifully done, the reflection of the stars in the lake was the prettiest. The ceremony of the peace pipe was especially effective.

Of the people who are responsible for the brilliant success of May Day, Ruth Floyd, manager, and her assistant, Elizabeth Drewry, deserve a great deal of credit. Working out the dances and planning all the various effects took the work of many hours.

The costumes made the festival a success. All hand-painted in Indian colors, they made the occasion a very colorful one. Sarah Hyde Thomas had charge of costumes, with Miss Bedford as art adviser.

Mrs. Louise Robertson Fitzpatrick

(Contniued on page 3)

S. T. C. Orchestra Goes on Tours

The College Orchestra is making a series of tours to the principal high schools in this vicinity.

In spite of unfavorable weather conditions, on last Thursday night they spent a very successful evening at Appomattox. The program was splendidly rendered and seemed to be enjoyed by all.

The Orchestra will give another concert at John Randolph High School tonight. On their tours they plan to visit Pamplin, Worsham, and a few other towns if time permits.

The program is as follows:

I—Cabin Song ..... White
At Sunrise ..... Grunn
Death and the Maiden .... Schubert
Japanese Sunset ..... Deppen
Prelude in C minor, Rachmaninoff
Orchestra
II.—Piano Solo.
Valse Caprice ..... Newland
Miss Mary Moss (of the Schemmel Conservatory of Music)
III.—Cello solo
The Swan ..... Saint Saens
Dorothy Field
IV—Violin Solo
Samson and Delilah .... Saint Saens
Gertrude Mannes
V.—Londonderry Air .... Irish Melody
Songs My Mother Taught Me
Dvorak
In Elizabethan Days ..... Kramer
String Trio: Gertrude Mannes
Dorothy Field
Mildred Steere
V.—In a Moonlit Garden .. Oehmler
From the Red Mill ..... Herbert
Indian Trail ..... Delamater
Alma Mater ..... Potts
Orchestra

DR. JARMAN AND DR. WALMSLEY GIVE TALKS

Last Wednesday night Dr. Jarman delivered an address on "Citizenship" to a graduating class of eighteen members at Boydton, Virginia. An unusually large crowd come for the unusual treat of hearing Dr. Jarman The exercises were held in the town hall in order to accommodate more people.

Dr. Walmsley will address the high school graduating class at Dillwyn tonight and the one at Worsham a little later. His addresses are always inspirational, and the high schools are fortunate in securing him.

The New Virginian, Issued Last Friday, is Highly Commendable

The 1932 Virginian is even better than the Virginians of the past have been. This the student body discovered last Friday at eleven o'clock when they got their annuals in the Science Hall.

This year the theme of the Virginian is Alice in Wonderland; it is carried out in all the drawings, in the poems, and even in the dedication and foreword. And the owners of this year's annuals are just as curious as Alice ever was and luckier—they look here and there through the annuals and find lovelier things than she found in Wonderland.

Everyone on the Virginian staff for 1932 is to be praised for the good work done on the annual, but more especially do the student body and the faculty congratulate Charlotte Hutchins, who, as editor-in-chief, was responsible for the annual as a whole and who gave us such an excellent annual; Easter Souders, who, as literary editor, chose the theme and showed great originality in the literary parts of the annual; and Patty Ellison, who, as art editor, drew the artistic and appropriate sketches in the annual. The advisers, Miss Bedford, Mr. McCorkle, and Miss Jennings, also are to be thanked for the help they gave the staff. Without them the annual could not have been the success that it is.

Hollywood Representatives' Program

Yesterday morning in chapel Mr. Marshall from Hollywood gave an educational and entertaining talk on sound and sound activities. He invited the students to have their voices recorded over a microphone in the Eaco Theatre yesterday afternoon and last night.

He was assisted by Mr. Walker Reed, who played several popular selections on the piano.

Mr. Mansell and Mr. Reed are members of a group from Hollywood who are making a cross-country tour to discover good recording voices.

NEW YORK CRITIC PRAISES CHORAL CLUB

The following write-up appeared in the Musical Courier, a New York publication (with offices all over Europe) concerning the appearance of the Farmville State Teachers College Choral Club at the Mosque in Richmond, April 28:

"An extremely interesting feature of this musicale was the appearance of the vested choir from the State Teachers College at Farmville, which sang Cesar Franck's "Panis Angelicus' with a specially arranged light falling on the soloist, a young woman with a beautiful voice. The ensemble work of the chorus was markedly fine with Alfred H. Strick directing."

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

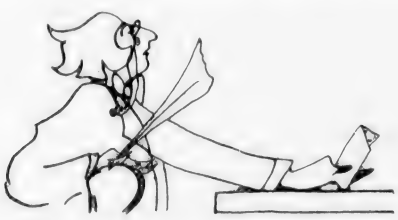
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
Associate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... LELIA MATTOX, '35
Literary Editor ..... NELL DICKINSON '34
Athletic Editor ..... MARY JESS RICHMOND, '33
World News Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY '33
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY KATHERINE TAYLOR '35
Social Editor ..... DORINE SMITH '33
Art Editor ..... GERTRUDE SUGDEN, '34
Feature Editors ..... BIRDIE WOODING '35
MARY SHELTON, '34
Humorous Editor ..... BELLE LOVELACE '35
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



PELA KUTZ '35 DOROTHY WOOLWINE '34 SARAH ROWELL '33
WINIFRED PUGH '35 CARRIE DESHAZO '33
MARGARET COPENHAVER '34
Proof Reader ..... ELIZABETH VASSAR '35
Assistant Proof Reader ..... KATHERINE WALTON '35

Managers

Business Manager ..... FRANCES POTTS '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY '34
Circulation Manager ..... ELIZABETH WALTHALL '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... FRANCES HORTON '34

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Service

Service has been defined as work or labor performed in the interest of or for benefit of others. Outstanding service in any field has always eventually had its reward. Distinguished service in the army, navy, or business world finds its reward in an open acknowledgment of the services rendered or in a promotion in rank. But, sometimes the service of some who serve faithfully may be unnoticed or unknown by the outside world. In this case, the individual who has served by the outside world. In this case, inner satisfaction and in a richer experience.

When we find instances of outstanding service in our student body, it is only fitting that we should acknowledge this service in some way. Among our Seniors we find many who have served in the truest sense of the word—for they have given their time and effort in labor performed in the interest of the entire student body.

To Louise Elliott, editor of the Rotunda, we wish especially to pay tribute for her loyal and devoted service to her Alma Mater in making the Rotunda such a success. Elizabeth Drewry, Ruth Floyd, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, and many others have also served faithfully and untiringly in making our May Day so beautiful. In Mr. Strick we find an exemplar of true service, for he has done so much toward gaining recognition for our Alma Mater through her excellent music department.

IMPRESSIONS ON GRADUATING

The campus doesn't seem so wide now—or half so awe-inspiringly large. It seems to have a look of home for me, and all its daughters.

The Rotunda, Auditorium, even the Dining Hall seem comparatively small when once they loomed gigantic to me, a freshman.

Joan, once a mere statue in the middle of the Rotunda, now really is an inspiration, ever there, serene, looking far beyond the throngs of people that pass through the Rotunda and the daily incidents there, to heights we cannot reach. Nevertheless, we try to reach them, and I think our visions succeed.

There aren't so many strange faces, either. Everyone seems a friend. I laugh and talk with almost every one.

My teachers—why did I ever think them formidable? Underneath their formality, sometimes even serenity—what sympathy they have for us in our struggles and successes!

Just as I am really learning to enjoy this way of living, living among youth and kindred souls, I must leave And in my heart, I do not feel a growing pain, customary to such situations, but a little melancholy wisdom and an understanding that the world is small and friendly, and yes, a sigh of regret that friends must part, and this place where I have known pleasure, a little pain, much laughter—I am leaving.

Pearl Johnson

WAY OF LANCER BOLESLAVSKI-WOODWARD

Helen Woodward here relates Richard Boleslavski's conception of Poland's side of the war with Germany. While a volunteer in the Russian army, he was in the regiment of the Polish Lancers who, after the war attempted to return to their native land. Throughout the book he gives us the picture of army life, in the army vernacular, and with the army reasoning. The depiction is vivid, the action rapid, and the story fascinating. The Lancers were a group by themselves, fighting with enthusiasm for their country which had been absorbed by surrounding powers, but which still lived in spirit. At no time are the Poles shown to be anything but of the highest character, both morally and mentally. In contrast to the Russians they are irreproachable. In following their wanderings we realize the humanitarianism of this people, their sincerity, and their perseverance. It is a war story that is history which reads like fiction.

OUR LIFE

Only last summer was I awakened to a profound truth—our life is given to us, and we must live it, but we cannot live it by ourselves. No matter what we do or how we do it, we can hardly escape touching some other person in some way.

I was brought to such a realization by a curious incident that affected me deeply. There was a party at home on a hot sultry day—one of those affairs in which a group of people, generally femimine, get together on the excuse of playing a few games of bridge, for the real purpose, however, of talking over the chief concerns of their neighbors. Perhaps I wasn't feeling well that day. Perhaps the heat irritated me more than usual. Whatever it was, I began to notice that gossip seemed to reign more supreme than ever. I wandered around (seeing that each table had mints and peanuts) and (recovering pencils when mislaid). At each table I took note of the trend of conversation.

"My dear, did you hear! Joe Brown's wife left him because . . ." "I got it straight, though I'm really not supposed to tell . . ." Can you stand the way she does?"

In a few minutes I felt positively contaminated. Gossip—gossip—gossip. Was there no end to it? Suddenly I turned and ran from the room. A silent stormy prayer rose to my lips.

"Oh, God," I cried, "let me get away from it all. Why can't we own our own lives and live them to ourselves?"

Rushing blindly, anywhere, anywhere to get away from that eternal buzz-buzz of scandal, I found myself presently in a quiet shady spot beside a tiny stream.

Continued on last page

Among Our Caps And Gowns

RUTH C. FLOYD

Ruth Floyd—May Day, a picturesque figure in yellow carrying an old-fashioned bouquet; a creator of beautiful verse; music, dancing, and color; a fireside and friendship; the intellectual donned in a cap and gown.

Ruth well merits her place of honor "Among Our Caps and Gowns." Through her many services to her Alma Mater she has endeared herself to all who know her.

The successful manner in which she served as chairman of May Day exhibited her many talents and real qualities. Her artistic ability plus her willingness to work makes the impossible seem plausible.

Ruth excels along aethetic lines. Her contributions of poetry to the Rotunda and other publications have been enjoyed by many. She served as editor of "The Voice" last year and is a member of the Ruffner Literary Society. Her dancing and singing have added much to the enjoyment of "Sing" and class productions.

As a member of Pi Gamma Mu, Alpha Phi Sigma, and as Prseident of the Association of Childhood Education, she has been recognized in the academic field.

Ruth is most interesting as a personality. She is one of the most charming and loved S. T. C. girls. Always happy and smiling, bubbling with wit and humor, she is welcomed into every group. She is still the little child grown up—abounding in joy and sincerity with the wisdom of a sage. She has [illegible] the threads of friendship which bind her to her Alma Mater.

LOUISE WOODSON

As we go down the list of outstanding girls we come to the name Louise Woodson. Louise has much capability and determination to carry on as is shown by her work as President of the House Council during the past year. In scholarship she has been outstanding which is proven by her membership in numerous honor societies including Kappa Delta Pi, Pi Gamma Mu, Beta Pi Theta and Alpha Phi Sigma. She has ability and persistence which she has not allowed to idle, but placed with willing hands at the disposal of the student body.

The her friends she is just another good pal; lovable and sincerely so. She goes her way quietly and unobtrusively but underneath lies that clear thought and strong conviction with which she upholds her ideals.

COME WITH ME TO THE HEIGHTS

Come with me to the heights
And I will show you all of Life and Beauty.
You will be thrilled with joy divine;
You will be moved to run—to jump—
Yes, and even to fly!
You will be filled to the brim
With love of living
Your soul will be near to bursting,
Even as mine.
For it's good to live!

Easter Souders

TO THE GRAND-DAUGHTERS CLUB

From a loving mother after receiving a Mother's Day card
You are the dearest daughters
That mother ever knew
And I am glad my girl is one
Who has good times with you.
I thank you for your message sweet
And sent in such a way
To tell me I am in your thoughts
On this glad Mother's Day.

—A Mother

A BROKEN DREAM

Oh, what is worse than a broken dream?
A broken heart is not,
For a broken heart will mend with time,
But a broken dream will not.

The world that you know the sun shines on,
You see as cloudy and grey,
And the happiness that you thought was yours
Has gone—it would not stay.

'Twas maddening to find that your golden god
Had only feet of clay
When he tumbled from off his little throne
And crumbled to dust that day.

Ah, naught is worse than a broken dream,
A broken heart is not,
For a broken heart will mend with time,
But a broken dream will not.

D. R., '35

PERSPECTIVE

Each leaf is so perfect,
Every flower so divine
That I feel each has a spirit
And each is a god.
Indeed, I would worship
The very earth and sky,
Did not a broader view reveal
The Maker of it all.

B. O. W., '35

TO A HYACINTH

Ah, perfumed flower
With thy velvety softness
And tiny bell-shaped beauty
Thou hast caught my heart.
And with they heavy,
Heavenly, too rare for earth
Perfume, thou keepest it.
I can never travel far away
While you do live
But must ever bend down
To the earth to catch
Thy pure heaven-given breath.
I grudge all others even a
Look at you. And one, just one
Good breath of the perfume
With which you are made sweet
Would bring all mortals ever to your feet.
Ah, hyacinth, royal purple,
A queenly thing thou art.
And pink, too dainty for this world.
But when, perfumed flower,
Thou art white, so pure
Art thou. 'Tis then when I
Most worship thee.
Perfumed flower, none
Other can surpass they
Beauty and the odor that
Comes from thy beauty . . . .
Hyacinth, thou art a flower that fell from heaven.

A. E. V., '35

Y. W. C. A.

Mother's Day was observed by a special prayer service Sunday night, May 8, at ten o'clock in the Student Building auditorium. Jane Royall led the devotions taking as her topic "Mother." Mary McCarn sang "That Wonderful Mother of Mine."

On Wednesday and Friday Susie Floyd and Grace Virginia Woodhouse talked on "Mother" in prayers.

These services were very impressive.

DR. WALMSLEY TALKS IN PRAYERS

Dr. Walmsley gave a very interesting and helpful talk in prayers Thursday night, May 5, on "Being Snooty."

SOCIALS

Helen Cover attended the dances at V. M. I. last week-end.

* * *

Nancy DeBerry, Betsy Wilkinson, and Anna Macon Ward went to the National Primary Council Convention in Washington, D. C., last week.

* * *

Mary Ellen Johnson, Irene Cunningham, Flora Bischoff, and Virginia Fox were in Richmond last week-end.

* * *

The following girls were in Lynchburg: Doris Ewers, Dorothy Wingfield, Elizabeth Steptoe, Charlotte Parish, Annie Hall Perkins, and Kathleen Petree.

* * *

Nannie Belle Stainback spent the week-end with her parents in Alberta, Virginia.

* * *

The following girls spent the week-end in Charlottesville, Va., Polly Brock, Ambler Lee, Margaret and Carrie DeShazo.

* * *

The following girls were in Roanoke last week-end: Kathryn Brown, Dot Snedegar, Margaret Stiff, and Lillian Hogan.

* * *

Elsie Wright and Ethel Creedle spent the week-end at Luray.

* * *

Mary Artis Danner, Margaret McCue, and Frances Ratcliffe spent the week-end at Staunton.

* * *

Katherine McLemore and Martha Cross visited at Fredericksburg S. T. C. last week-end.

* * *

Those who were in Dillwyn last week-end were: Ildergirt Dunn, Estelle Jones, Catherine Wilbourn, Elizabeth Ranson.

* * *

Lillian Womack and Jane Carter spent last week-end in Keysville, Va.

* * *

Mary Elizabeth Driscoll spent the week-end with her parents in Salem.

* * *

Fay Fuller and Mary J. Richmond attended the dance at Fork Union Friday night.

* * *

Louise Hartness attended the graduation exercises of the nurses at the University last week-end.

* * *

Emma Littleton and Margaret Young were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Hopkins at Cumberland, Va.

* * *

Polly McMurdo, Judith Hardy, and Maynie Showalter were in Kenbrige last week-end.

* * *

Charlotte Oakey was the guest of Banna Price Massey at Hampden-Sydney.

* * *

Delia Grant visited friends in Roxboro, N. C., last week-end.

* * *

Ann Davis and Elizabeth Fitzgerald spent the week-end in Blackstone, Va.

THE MAY COURT

From left to right: Ruth Floyd, Lindsay White, Celia Jones, Virginia Fox, Doris Ewers, Betty Watts, Medora Ford, queen; Jenilee Knight, maid of honor; Grace Woodhouse, Jane Royall, Margaret Gathright, Helen Cover.

GAMMA THETA HAS BANQUET

The Gamma Theta Sorority celebrated its twenty-first birthday on April 3 at a banquet at Longwood The alumnae heartily responded to the invitation of the present chapter to return and make the occasion a true event in Gamma Theta history. Thirty-six of them, a representative from almost every year since the sorority's founding, returned to spend the week-end here. On Sunday morning from 9 until 11, breakfast was served in the chapter room.

Among those back were: Joe Lyne, Pat Cowherd Atkins, Mary Friend, Marion Chewning, Audrey Chewning, Louise Jones, Polly Smith, Ettie Jane Hughs, Sara Baker, Elizabeth Ball, Elsie Burgess, Louise Foster Armistead, Mary Elizabeth Gannaway, Mebane Hunt Cabell, Dolly Latane, Jacque Lee, Margaret Loving, Martha MacKenzie, Martha Moore, Jeannette Morris, Evelyn Peake, Margaret Priest, Mary Priest, Emmy Lou Pulliam, Julia Reid Crumpler, Dolly Reed, Kathryn Thompson, Fanny Warren Thwing, Nina Lookridge Sexton and her daughter Berveerly Sexton.

VIRGINIAN STAFF HAS BANQUET

Thursday night in the tea room the Virginian staff of this year entertained next year's staff at a banquet. Each girl found beside her plate a long-stemmed pink rose-bud. As she pulled out her chair, each found a brand new annual there. There was entertainment aplenty in looking at them. Charlotte Hutchins, out-going editor, and the staff advisers, Mr. McCorkle, Miss Jennings, and Miss Bedford, were presented with gifts. Mrs. McCorkle was also a guest of the staff.

Decorations were of tapering white candles and a centerpiece of tulips, iris and ragged robins.

Before leaving Charlotte Hutchins expressed her appreciation for the work of her staff and gave their good wishes to the staff of 1933.

Sara Hubard and Nannie Steger were in Buckingham last week-end.

* * *

Cecil Talley spent last week-end in Clarksville, Va.

* * *

Belle Lovelace was the guest of her parents in South Boston, Va.

* * *

Lelia Lovelace spent the week-end with her parents in Halifax, Va.

* * *

Emily Meadows was the guest of Margaret Perkins at her home in Virgilina, Va., last week-end.

* * *

Alice McKay and Mary Thomas Rawls were guests in the home of Mrs. B. F. Crowder in Petersburg last week-end.

* * *

Frances Dillon visited her parents last week-end.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

INTERCOLLEGIATE

At Boston University, note-taking has been forbidden by one of the professors. He says that it substitutes the hand for the brain, which oers a poor reproduction of his lectures.

Dr. Marston at Radcliffe College, Tuffs College and Columbia says, "men have a better opinion of themselves and a lower one of the opposite sex." In reply to a question, "Would you prefer a perfect love affair or a million dollars?", every man took the million, while 92 per cent of the women chose the love aair. Answer this one for yourself.

Here's an idea given by Coe's College, Iowa, The popular event of the year is what is known as the "Flunker's Frolic", a dance given to make the final farewell a happy one.

A new planet, Pluto, has been discovered in the Harvard observatory. For the last eighteen years it has been on the slide unrecognized.

At Georgia Tech, the May Queen selection seems to be quite a serious matter, judging from the amount of protection used around the ballot. It is only guarded by a committee of six with two machine guns and five rifles.

A college bugle corps has been installed at New Jersey State College for Women. One purpose is to sound "taps" every night.

Because students at Johns Hopkins University have a general horror of lectures, the professors disguise them. The latest is, "Electrons at Work and Play" in two acts. This is by a research engineer.

Several students in California seem to have beat all records as to ways of working through college. It has been found that by the sale of "blood transfusions", they have been staying in college. The question is: How long will they last?

A waitress training school the first institution of its kind in the country is about to be launched on the campus of Ohio State University. "Here after," The Reveille remarks there will be no excuse for waiters spilling soup in customer's laps or jabbing stray forks in people's eyes."

C. E. Chapell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Century
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

INDIAN STORY MAKES LOVELY MAY DAY

Continued from page one

directed the whole thing and supervised the teaching of the dances. Miss Wheeler gave invaluable help as dramatic adviser.

The music was unusually fitting. The beating of tom toms could be heard throughout.

It would be impossible to mention here all those people contributing to the success of May Day. Every one who took part and everybody that helped in any way deserves thanks.

"Dear May" wrote the young man. "pardon me, but I'm getting forgetful. I proposed to you last night, but really forgot whether you said yes or no."

"Dear Will," she replied by note, "so glad to hear from you. I knew I said 'no' to someone last night, but had forgotten who it was."

The president of the California Fruit Growers exchange has prepared a bottle of citrus juices for the christening ceremonies of the new liner S. S. Santa Paula, second of four sister "Santa" ships being built. The other ships to follow are the S. S. Santa Lucia and the S. S. Santa Elena. If the christening fluid grows weaker each launching we expect ginger ale on the third and good old aqua pura on the last launching.

The student body wishes to extend its sympathy to Ruth Hall in her recent bereavement.

Willis.... Florist
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 255

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Electric Shoe Shop
WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go to Wade's
For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

Would you like to earn all or a part of a delightful motor trip thru the West or eastern Canada this summer? Write for particulars to:
THE SOUTHERN TOURS, INC.
Box 727b Chapel Hill, N. C.

WHITE
GREEN
RED
BLUE
$1.59
U. S. SPORT SANDALS
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

Lovely new two piece suits, all pastel colors Very special $1.98
Hats to Match 1.00
The new basket weave shoes to match $1 & $1.98
We have reduced pajamas You will love them at $1
White, blond, and brown crepe sole oxfords $1.98 & $2.98
The Hub Department Store

HUMOR

Somebody—while in the act of sticking an inquisitive nose in Somebody Else's room: "Hugh—I smell smoke."

Somebody Else returning the compliment: "Ugh—I smell night-riders."

Time out at this point for the battle that followed. Send a self-addressed envelope for specific information. We guarantee you won't get it.

Yes, humor, like history, repeats itself.—Exchange.

Cottie: "How far are you from the correct answer?"

Clara (in muffled tones): "Exactly two seats."—Exchange.

All the new Cotillion Club members, as well as the rest of student body realize now why they were dubbed "goats" during the recent initiation.

Have you ever smelled a worse combination than onions and asafedita?

Anna Knox is Scotch without a doubt. She even hates to lose a bridge game.

Frances Dillon insists that:
"Girls who give advice to others
Go to proms with their brothers."
(Well, it must work. We haven't noticed her brother doing charity work.)

—Literary Digest

Eley: "I wonder if you'll love me when my hair has turned to gray."

The Only One: "Why not? I've loved you every time you've changed colors so far."

Capper's Weekly

A TRAGEDY IN THREE ACTS

Act I.—
Scene is laid on the Athletic Field during a class period.
Antoinette Jones picking daisies: "He loves me, he loves me not—"

Act II—
Scene is still laid on the Athletic Field.
Antoinette Jones picking daisies: "He loves me, he loves me not—"

Act III.—
If you must know, the scene is laid on the Athletic Field, several hours later.
Antoinette Jones picking daisies: 'He loves me, he loves me not, he loves me!"
In the far distance an ambulance is heard, its siren blowing at full blast. Antoinette, in weakened condition is heard to scream between the gasps of the siren, "He loves me, he loves me, he loves me!"
(Curtain drops in utter disgust)

"What did you do when you were invited to join the strip poker game?"
"I shed plenty."

TENNIS DOUBLES TOURNAMENT THIS WEEK

The Tennis Doubles Tournament has entered into the semi-finals, and the last matches will be played off this week if the weather permits. Quite a lot of interest has been shown in tennis this year, and now that the semi-finals and final matches have been reached, it is hoped that even more of the students will come out and support their colors.

A return match with Blackstone College has been tentatively scheduled for May 24 here.

ARCHERY TOURNAMENT

The time: Thursday, May 12, 4 to 6 p. m.
The place: Athletic field.
Characters: S. T. C. Archers.

William Tell split the apple and Robin Hood shot the deer. Girls are we going to let the men put one over on us. Of course not. So be sure to sign up on the bulletin board and let's show them what good shots we are. Besides the satisfaction we'll get we'll also help to put our colors on the color cup. Don't forget.

WORLD NEWS

The guardian of the Olympic gates in 1932 will erect no bars o fsev in the face of the entering throng. His sole interest will be 15 tons of beautifully steel-engraved tickets delivered to the patrons in souvenir leather pocket-cases. The printing of each of these tickets costs as much as the printing of a U. S. twenty-dollar bill and they sell at prices from 25 to 40 per cent lower than any in modern Olympic history.

Economists Preach, Politicians Practice

The calm observer of the current performance in Congress is more than ever impressed by the ever-widening rift between what the economists write and what the politicians do. For example, Senator Barkley of Kentucky has been chosen temporary chairman of the Democratic National Convention, and will deliver, of course, the usual party diatribe against the Republican Hawley-Smoot tariff act. But whose name do we see in the list of Democratic Senators who are trying to hitch-hike some protective tariffs onto the current tax bill? None other than that of the senator from Kentucky, and he wants a tariff on coal!

What is needed is less talk and more do!

Fashions in Hobbies

The modern hurly-burly of life has affected even the gentle hobby. No longer is the collecting of china teapots, antique mantlepieces and rare engravings the passion it was a decade or two ago. Now, with homes growing smaller and women interthings rather than amassing them. ests wider, hobbies center about doing High up in the list of them comes tap dancing. After eight or ten hours a day in an office, business women find an outlet in the tap for all their suppressed energies. To walk a mile or two a day is work to many, but to dance a mile or two an evening to lively music and in the company of others intent on mastering the tap-tap-tap is most exhilarating.

She: "I see you have a little burn on your hat."
He: "Yes, just a little bat-headed."

OUR LIFE

Continued from page two

"Here is peace," I said and flug myself down upon the ground. Peaceful indeed did it seem. The cool ripple of the water, mingled with friendly greeness of the trees above, seemed to soothe me into a calm satisfaction. Here no insidious voice broke the serenity of the atmosphere. Why couldn't all life be as full of tranquiltiy?

But the stillness did not last. I was abruptly aroused by the sharp chatter of a nimble little squirrel in one of the trees. A lazy bee lounged by, droning sleepily to a companion. A jay cried noisily across the stream. In each call of each animal — the chatter of the squirrel, the buzz of the bee, the cry of the jay—I seemed to hear echoes of gossip.

"Did you hear about my friend, Mrs. Bushtail?" "Have you heard about the scandal of Fuzzy-wuzz and the honey?" " Did you see Sister Blue-Jay flirting yesterday?"

I sprang to my feet, but again a sweet satisfaction lay in me. I began to awake to life and to see things as I had never tried to see them before. Life is real, I realized and inevitable. It cannot be escaped, and it is utterly impossible for one person to live her life all to herself. Other people are interested; other people are influenced; other people are touched. It is not pure malice that makes women gather together over some flimsy excuse to gossip. It is a good healthy interest in their fellow-man. And this interest is natural to all. It is usually when we do try to live our lives to ourselves, when we try to hide things from others, that it develops into something harmful, and the person discussed becomes someone to be avoided.

Just why I started thinking such thoughts I do not know, but I am sure of one certainty now, and I think I am better off for knowing it. Our life is ours and we must live it, but we must not be selfish; it must be shared with others.

When I had thought out these facts fully I returned to the party, much wiser. As I heard the little snatches of scandal float around, a knowing little smile played over my face, and I joined in with an animated tongue.

MONOGRAM CLUB CHANGES REQUIREMENTS

Continued from page one

that, Any person who has 600 points to her credit, who has made a real, genuine effort to pass off her Monogram tests, and who is passed on for her sportsmanship may be made a member of the Monogram Club. Of course, the former requirements are likewise adhered to. This resolution was passed, and it was decided that it should go into effect this year, so any one who passes these requirements may be voted into the club before the end of the year.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM MAY 12 to 18

THURS. and FRIDAY — "THE WET PARADE" with DOROTHY JORDAN, NEIL HAMILTON, LEWIS STONE and a great cast of players. This picture is twice as long as the usual picture—and every moment of it is crammed full of thrills—and has something to say. Sweethearts are torn apart by it. Mothers guard their sons from it. Fathers warn their daughters against it. Everybody is either for or against prohibition. This picture takes no sides of the question, but leaves it up to the audience to decide. There are thrills galore, plenty of comedy and a beautiful love romance between Dorothy Jordan and Neil Hamilton against a background of tense drama of today. Don't miss this picture for it is one you will applaud, then talk about. It will make screen history. Also Aesop Fable.

SATURDAY — LEW AYRES and MAE CLARK in "NIGHT WORLD." Would you know what goes on behind the scenes in Broadway's pleasure palaces—the night clubs? What really happens in the "cafe racket"? This picture reveals the seething undercurrents beneath the surface in the cafe, telling the story which lay bare the conditions which are totally unsuspected by the roistering patrons. The story covers the events of a single night and it is a night filled with a swift succession of exciting events, climaxed by a most remarkable and happy ending. Of course, there is a real love story with Ayres and Mae Clark as the principals. Screen Souvenir, Fox News and Comedy.

NEXT MONDAY and TUESDAY—"THIS IS THE NIGHT," with LILY DAMITA, CHARLES RUGGLES, THELMA TODD and ROLAND YOUNG. If you like a sophisticated picture—here it is —in fact, it is somewhat naughty. Girls, there hasn't been such a sensation in dresses and gowns since Eve donned the fig leaf . She was the best dressed woman in Paris, and when her train got caught in the door of the taxi, and she left it behind—she was still the best dressed woman in Paris. Naughty? Yes. Musical? Certainly. Romantic? Positively. Funny? Superlatively. A comic love affair that's intimate in Italy; peppery in Paris, and volcanic in Venice. The hottest mix-up roar since women put Cupid's bows on their lips. If you're looking for fun that's fast, frothy, frisky and French—"This is The Night." Also Paramount News and Chapter 5, "AIR MAIL MYSTERY." Each episode more exciting and thrilling.

NEXT WEDNESDAY — CLAUDETTE COLBERT, EDMUND LOWE and STUART ERWIN in "THE MISLEADING LADY." Miss Colbert plays Edmund Lowe for a dupe to make him propose in order to win a bet and the result is: See her get chained to a fireplace in a lonely mountain cabin. See a run-away "nut," (Stuart Erwin) from an asylum try to rescue her. See how a handsome man-of-the-world handles the situation. A he-man duped into a proposal; a society beauty kidnaped and tamed; roars of comedy, and a real romance with a happy ending. Stuart Erwin will bowl you over as the lunatic who thinks he is Napoleon. Also "Color Scales," a Fisherman's Paradise subject, and Flip the Frog.

MATINEES DAILY at 4 P. M. Evenings at 8. Continuous matinee every Saturday from 2:15 to 6 P. M.

ADMISSION—Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years, 15c to each show. Inquire at the box office regarding book tickets at reduced prices.

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

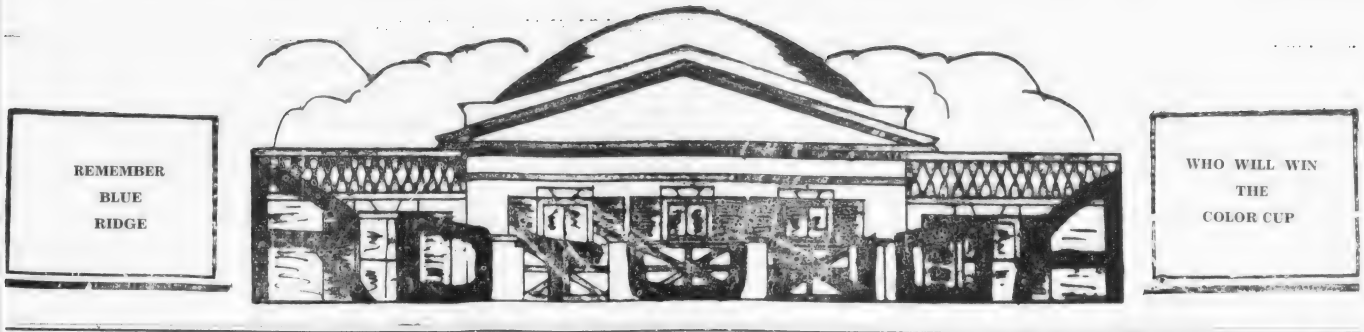
GRADUATION DRESSES—SHOES—AND WRAPS

Baldwin's takes pleasure in presenting the finest array of graduation apparel ever offered by us. Every school and college appreciates such fine things when they come from "The Style Shop for Ladies."

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

COMMENCEMENT DRESSES



Our buyer has just returned from New York where she bought the latest style Commencement Dresses. They are on display at our store now.

Come in and see the wonderful variety which we offer at just three low prices .....

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 1932 No. 29

Nat'l Convention Of Y.W.C.A. Meets Minneapolis,Minn.

A. J. Scott and Winston Cobb Represent Farmville at National Meeting

The National Convention of the Y. W. C. A. held its twelfth biennial session in Minneapolis, Minnesota, May 5-11. One thousand ninety-nine delegates registered. This number was inclusive of the voting and visiting delegates, special representatives, fraternal delegates, guests and speakers.

The program of the convention was so arranged that from May 6-8 the delegates met in the following assemblies, acording to the kinds of associations they represented.

Communities up to 15,000.
Communities, 15,000—60,000.
Communities, 60,000—100,000.
Communities, 100,000—metropolitan cities.
Metropolitan cities.
Business and Professional Assembly
Industrial Assembly
Girl Reserve Leaders
Student Assembly

Winston Cobb and A. J. Scott represented State Teachers College, in the Student Assembly.

With Daphne Hughes, president in the chair, it was explained that the National Student Assembly for the Student Young Women's Christian Association of the United States has the power to outline program policies, and plans for the coming two years. All of the meetings were held on the campus of the University of Minnesota.

The president emphasized the fact that members of the Student Association should be participants, not spectators, in the whole Y. W. C. A. work. And there was much "participation" in the discussions! Many suggestions for the partial solution of these problems of religion, disarmament, social life within colleges, and the student's economic life were given.

The Student Council, we learned,

Continued on page four

Mathematics Club Has a Meeting

The Mathematics Club held its regular meeting Monday, May 16 in Room 19. The program was concerned with "Alice in Wonderland." The members were shown the life of the real "Alice" and the author, Lewis Carroll.

The following girls were on the program:

Poem to Lewis Carroll .... Bertie Price
The Real Alice in Wonderland at 80 Years Old .... Frances Lancaster
Lewis Carroll, Mathematics Teacher Mrs. Conant
Mathematics as Shown in 'Alice in Wonderland ..... Laurie Boush
Poem by student ..... Va. Brisentine

The program was most interesting and all the members enjoyed it very much.

JUNIOR CHORAL CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

At a meeting of the Junior Choral Club on last Thursday the following officers were elected for 1932-'33:

President ..... Nell Weaver
Vice-President ..... Esther Haskins
Secretary ..... Ruth Haskins
Treasurer ..... Pela Kutz
Librarian ..... Virginia Puckett

The accompanist will be elected at a later date.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET

Standing, left to right: Margaret Jack, Lois Cox, Pauline Jones, Frances Ratcliffe, Imogene West, Sarah James, Jestine Cutshall, Doreen Smith, Dorothy Bloomfield, Joyce Sturm.

Kneeling: Honey Hamilton, Lucille Ingram, Edith Shanks, Grace Rowell, Winston Cobb, Sue Yeaman.

Sigma Pi Rho Gets Recognition

The following was taken from "The Column" college newspaper of Fairmont State Teachers College.

After the organization of the local club got underway the desire arose to affiliate with a fraternity which would promote the interests of Latin among various schools. Since Eta Sigma Pi, the only honorary Latin fraternity in United States, does not admit teachers colleges to membership it was decided to organize a group for teacher colleges only, and plans to establish such an organization were begun.

Six delegates who went to Farmville found arrangements made by the Farmville group much in keeping with their own plans, and the organization was formed. Initiation ceremonies were held and a national constitution was drawn up and approved. The guests were entertained on the beautiful campus at Farmville, with a banquet of elaborate appointments, and also accorded other social courtesies.

Sigma Pi Rho is planning to hold their initiation in the form of a Roman banquet at which time the members of the Tri V Latin club will become members.

ATHLETIC YEAR CLOSES THIS WEEK

The athletic year of 1931-'32 closes this week with the tennis tournament, baseball games and track meet. The athletic issue of the Rotunda will be published next week.

Officers Elected For Next Year

Meetings of the various clubs and organizations in school were held this week to elect officers for next year. The following were elected:

Spanish Circle:
President ..... Sara James
Vice-President ..... Sarah Russell
Secretary ..... Carrie DeShazo
Treasurer ..... Margaret McNamara

Palette Club:
President ..... Kathryn Royster
Vice-President ..... Mary E. Hill
Secretary ..... Gertrude Sugden
Treasurer ..... Dorothy Bloomfield

Cunningham Literary Society:
President ..... Leah Jane Shaw
Vice-President ..... Madge Blalock
Secretary ..... Evelyn Williams
Treasurer ..... Elizabeth Walthall
Scrap-booke keepr, .. Lillian Woodley

Roanoke Club:
Vice-President ..... Garnet Hodges
Secretary-treas. ..... June Oney
President ..... Helen Smith
Reporter ..... Lois Rhodes
Historians—Frances Horton and Edith Shanks.

Cotillion Club:
President ..... Martha Sanders
Leader ..... Jenilee Knight
Secretary and chairman of dance Committee ..... Chic Mosby
Reporter ..... Mary Shelton

Granddaughter's Club:
President ..... Alice Rowell
Vice-President ..... Nell Oakey
Secretary ..... Lucille Crute
Treasurer ..... Christine Childrey

Junior Festival of Music Held Last Saturday Proves a Great Success

Recital Is Given By Maurice Tyler of Richmond, Well-Known Tenor

It will go down in history that the Junior Festival of Music, which was given in the college auditorium on Saturday morning, May 14 was a successful festival in every way. The weather man, the interested audience from all parts of Southside Virginia, conspired to add harmony and melody to the delightful occasion. The festival of 1932 developed with the thought that student teachers can with united effort, organize and present units of a splendid variety and give their different presentations with successful results.

The Junior Festival this year, although belonging to the people, was largely the result of the supervisors and their assistants with Mr. Strick working out the plans and details of the entire program, and to their credit, let it be said that each unit was given with quite a remarkable degree of finish. Commendation from Mrs. Channing Ward, leading music critic of Virginia, said: "This kind of work is constructive and only goes to prove that with organization and leadership, teachers and student teachers can assemble groups of different variety and balance to lend interest and charm to a music festival."

The program started promptly at 9:30 with a very delightful band concert by the Farmville Silver Band and their numbers were enjoyed by the large crowd assembled on the college campus from the various sections of Southside Virginia. This band has developed wonderfully in the past year, and their playing had in it a professional interpretation that augurs well for its future.

The chapel period opened with the regular processional by the Senior class in their academic robes each carrying a red rose, the gift of Mr. Strick. A quartet from the Boys Choir of Richmond, under the direction of Mrs. Sidney Swann, sang "Crusader's

Continued on page four

Jongleurs Present Three Short Plays

The Jongleurs presented three one-act plays in the S. T. C. auditorium last evening at eight o'clock.

"The Hour Glass," a modern morality play by W. B. Yeats, was directed by Prof. Nelson. The characters were:

Wise Man ..... Earl Discus
Fool ..... Ralph O'Hair
Angel ..... Robert Griswold
Pupils—Robert Scott, Francis Whitehouse, J. C. Waggener.
Wise Man's Wife ..... George Wall
Children—Spencer Wilson, Asa Watkins.

"The Lost Silk Hat", an ironical comedy by Lord Dunsany, was directed by Mr. Roger Young. The characters were:

The Poet ..... Roger A. Young
The Caller ..... James D. Ireland
The Clerk ..... Henry Mosby
The Policeman .. Everette Greenlees
The Laborer ..... D. R. Dingwall

"French Without a Master", a French farce by Tristian Bernard, was directed by Dr. Bell. The characters were:

Gerald ..... R. W. McAllister
Seraphine ..... W. W. Mackey
Percy ..... Fred Reed
Chanoine Malherbe ..... Merle Smith
Officer ..... Everette Greenlees
Porter ..... J. A. Waggener
Cashier ..... J. C. McCurdy

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet Chooses Advisers

The president of the Y. W. C. A. and her cabinet hope to further the Christian work with the help of the following advisers.

President ..... Miss Nichols
Church Cooperative ..... Mr. Holton
Conference & Conventions Dr. Walmsley
Freshman Counselor .... Miss Moran
Music ..... Miss Potts
Prayers ..... Miss Hiner
Publicity ..... Miss Coulling
Service ..... Miss Rice
Sing ..... Miss Henry
Social ..... Miss Jennings
Town Girls ..... Miss W. London
Undergrad. Rep. ..... Dr. Walmsley
Memb. & Alumnae ..... Mr. French
World Fellowship ..... Dr. Walmsley

DRAMATIC CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

At the regular monthly meeting of the Dramatic Club, held in the little auditorium last Friday night, May 13, the following new officers were elected for next year.

Jenilee Knight ..... President
Mary Winston ..... Vice-President
Cecil Talley ..... Secretary
Martha Scott Watkins .... Treasurer
Mary Shelton ..... Head of Acting
Ruth Ford ..... Head of Make-up
Frances Ratcliffe Head of Costumes
Mae Downs ..... Head of Lighting
Virginia Guy ..... Head of Properties
Martha Sanders .... Head of Staging
Mary K. Taylor ..... Head of House
Sue Yeaman ..... Head of Music
Frances Coleman ..... Head of Room

Following the busines meeting Miss Wheeler gave a very interesting talk on the coaching of plays.

Honorable Mention Given C.H.S. Girls

In the annual tournament of the Virginia Classical Association conducted a few weeks ago, Miss Margaret Payne of the College High School won honorable mention on the first year test.

The two highest awards which were $150 scholarship to any Virginia College, were won by Albert S. Roe of Episcopal high school, Alexandria, and Esther Walsh of Thomas Jefferson high school, Richmond.

The other winners were: Junior high schools, Gertrude Van, Ruffner, Norfolk.

First year high, Bettie Cowie, Maury, Norfolk.

Second year, Oliver Messner, Thomas Jefferson, Richmond.

Third Year, Walter Keen, Maury High, Norfolk.

ARCHERY TOURNAMENT HELD THURSDAY

The annual archery tournament was held on Thursday afternoon, May 12, from four to six o'clock. More interest seems to have been manifested in archery this year since seventeen girls took part in the tournament.

First place was won by Laurie Boush, second place by Dorothy

Continued on page four

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921 at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

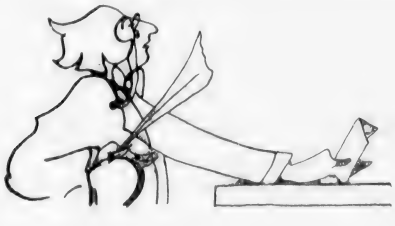
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
Associate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... LELIA MATTOX, '35
Literary Editor ..... NELL DICKINSON '34
Athletic Editor ..... MARY JESS RICHMOND, '33
World News Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY '33
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY KATHERINE TAYLOR '35
Social Editor ..... DOREEN SMITH '33
Art Editor ..... GERTRUDE SUGDEN, '34
Feature Editors ..... BIRDIE WOODING '35
MARY SHELTON, '34
Humorous Editor ..... BELLE LOVELACE '35
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



PELA KUTZ '35 DOROTHY WOOLWINE '34 SARAH ROWELL '33
WINIFRED PUGH '35 CARRIE DESHAZO '33
MARGARET COPENHAVER '34
Proof Reader ..... ELIZABETH VASSAR '35
Assistant Proof Reader ..... KATHERINE WALTON '35

Managers

Business Manager ..... FRANCES POTTS '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY '34
Circulation Manager ..... ELIZABETH WALTHALL '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... FRANCES HORTON '34

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Graduate With Honors

There has been some question as to whether or not it is profitable to do Honors work. A great many people seem to be getting the idea that it is too much work and too much strain for the value received.

But the tangible reward is not the only good that comes of doing this work. The student who does it has the chance to do a piece of research work that is not possible in any other undergraduate course. There is also a chance for real initiative on the part of the student. She can show what is in her, what she is worth, what she can do.

It has been said that the work is too long drawn out, too exacting, that it might become boring. But if the student chooses her subject with care, finding one that she is interested in and then devotes enough time to it to do it well, she will thoroughly enjoy it. Whether it be doing something entirely original or something in the field of research and compilation, she will experience the joy of doing something on her own, of accomplishing things. She will have taken a step toward wisdom, which is greater than knowledge.

HOW WE WILL REMEMBER OUR SENIORS

Martha Baker—talking about Emporia.
Virginia Bledsoe—loving "Page."
Ethel Boswell—shooting goals.
Harriet Branch — climbing the heights of New York.
Louise Clayton—singing.
Frances Crawford—being sweet.
Hanna Crawley—trying to decide which one is the sweetest.
Gwendolyn Daniels—drawing.
Eleanor Davis—being teased.
Nancy DeBerry—smiling.
Elizabeth Drewry—dancing.
Ruth Floyd—wise-cracking.
Medora Ford—tripping around bare-footed.
Virginia Fultz—keeping up with the athletes.
Hazel Halloway—being an end man
Sara Hubard—being demure.
Kathleen Hundley—breaking her own record.
Ruth Hunt—using big words.
Ellen Jones—laughing.
Virginia Lowe—raving on and on.
Bessie Lynch—teaching Latin.
Catherine Marchant—giggling.
Nan Mears—dissecting worms.
Velma Petty—being "May Queen."
Cleo Quisenberry—making a varsity.
Catherine Ritter—asking questions.
A. J. Scott—being late to government meetings.
Easter Souders—writing poetry.
Mildred Steere—playing the fiddle.
Martha Walters—yelling "Big bad Billy."
Lindsay White—leading cheers.
Virginia Williams—dancing the star dance.
Jane Witt—being on "opera singer"
Louise Woodson—being cute.
Anne Woodson—being ready to answer any question in class.

ALUMNAE NEWS

As part of the "Farmville Week" program put on by the Portsmouth alumnae, a beautiful banquet was held on the evening of May 10. Dr. Jarman was invited to be present, not only at this banquet but for a talk to the girls of the Senior class of Woodrow Wilson High School in the afternoon, and to an alumnae tea following this talk.

The banquet was the most enjoyable ever given by this chapter and those in charge of it are due sincere thanks from all who had the pleasure of attending it. The decorations were in the blue and white of Farmville; the central theme was that of the lighthouse: several lighthouses in the college colors graced the tables, and the little white ships on a sea of blue served as place cards. When the guests were assembled, Dr. Jarman was escorted to his seat by the President of the chapter, Miss Virginia Hanrahan, while seventy-five happy voices made the welkin ring with "What's the mater with aJrman?"

Besides Dr. Jarman and members of the Portsmouth chapter, the following guests were present: Supt. H. A. Hunt of Portsmouth, Mr. R. L. Sweeney, Assistant principal of the Woodrow Wilson High School, Miss Jennie M. Tabb, Miss Virginia Potts, and Miss Grace Virginia Woodhouse of State Teachers College, Mrs. Futrell and Mr. Reed Wilkins of Portsmouth who added much to the enjoyment of the evening through their delightful music.

Miss Etta Marshall acted as toastmistress and after the welcome by Miss Hanrahan, she introduced the first speaker, calling attention to the lighthouse which is represented by Alma Mater with her guiding light: this toast was most aptly worded by Miss Elsie Clements. The next toast was to Dr. Jarman, "the keeper of the light," by Miss Pearl Etheridge. After this Miss Tabb was called upon for a few words of greeting to the alumnae present; she also brought to them the good wishes of the college.The other toasts of the evening were: "To the Alumnae," by Miss Sue E. Roper, and this was responded to in very happy vein by Miss Zaidee H. Smith; Miss Grace A. Moran toasted "The Guests" and Supt. Hunt made a delightful response in wnich he paid such high tribute to Dr. Jarman that he brought down the house with applause.

The last number on the program was the singing of "Alma Mater," the accompaniment being played by the composer, Miss Potts, but before this,

(Continued on page 4.)

Among Our Caps And Gowns

LOUISE ELLIOTT

People like Louise because of the quiet grace and unobtrusive manner which become her, and her intellect and ability which lend an elevation neither haughty nor superior in its effect. She probes deeply into things with the quality of a true thinker and acts with the ease and poise and confidence indigenous to one who has the distinction of being Vanity Fair's "Most Intellectual". The honor was fittingly bestowed upon her in this year's election. She reminds one of a snatch of poetry from a single line, "the quiet beauty of a nun's face". In its placidity is a wealth of tolerance and kindliness to all. Very seldom is there a hint of emotional perturbance nor of anger.

As editor-in-chief of the Rotunda, no one could have been more faithful in the service which she has rendered throughout the year — tirelessly and good-naturedly. Only those who worked with Louise can appreciate the value of her worth as editor—her perfect humor and diligence together with a natural literary talent and a gift for judging values. Her services to her Alma Mater and her scholastic standing have been recognized by Kappa Delta Pi, Pi Gamma Mu, Sigma Pi Rho and Alpha Phi Sigma.

Louise is true and sincere in her friendships and many seek to be included in the wide circle of those whom she favors. Her personality is one which inspires because she herself is so fine that others both respect and love her. There is nothing sardonic about her brunuette loveliness—only sweetness, strength of character and good will shining through a pair of beautiful brown eyes—and a smile which Da Vinci might have painted.

JANE WITT

How many of us can say that when our name is mentioned it always produces a smile, and never a frown? This is the case with our Jane. One never thinks of her as anything but happy. She may shed a tear or two but a laugh inevitably follows.

Four years ago Jane came to Farmville a stranger to all of her classmates. But she soon won her way into the hearts of those who knew her even in the most casual way. She became interested in the Y. W. C. A. and held the office of vice-president her senior year. Jane has been active in the Debate Club as well as in the Choral Club and is a member of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

All who know Jane admire her, and those who have not had that privilege admire her for her laugh that is so typical of her attractive character.

But Jane, "It's the song you sing,
And the smiles you wear,
That make the happiness everywhere",
And we love you.

Continued on page three

THE MYSTERY IN YOUR EYES

The mystery in your eyes, dear heart
Seems as if it were a part
Of that great mystery of life and love
That beats about one from the start
Until the finish.
The mystery of the dawn in its warm splendor,
The radiance of the last pale lingering star,
The passion and the grandeur of the sunset,
And the gleaming of the moon that fails to mar
The tantalizing mockery of the sea.
All these I find there and I wonder
At the wisdom of the ages in your eyes.
Tell me please, the secret, dear.
No, don't—should I know that—
'Twould forever spoil for me
Woman's fascinating mystery.
Dorothy Roberts

DESIRE

I want to mix with the thudding rain,
With all things wild and free;
I want to go where the wind goes,
After bending a great tall tree.

I want to be, for one good long time,
Away from littleness and lies.
I must get out where I can be
A part of the thundering skies!
Easter Souders

THE JOY OF LIVING

Where is the joy in living
When your work, to you, means to drudge?
What is the joy in learning
If you study with a grudge?

Why look toward the future
When today is when you live?
Why not take all you can get
And never think to give?

I only have one life to live,
And only one to make
Why can't I think of myself
Instead of for other's sake?

Sit down, my child, and listen.
It is plain if you think it clear thru,
If you give to the world the best that you have,
The best will come back to you.
Esther Haskins

TENNIS MATCH

Oh, those days of that young-old sport!
The glorious hours on the tennis court
The trampled prints on the hard-packed clay—
The straight lines blending in orderly way—
A white-hot sun in blue heat above,
A vigorous serve, "score, fifteen love."
The craning of necks—the umpire's call,
"Well played, sister! Fifteen all."
The misjudged smash; the trembling net—
The players dripping with cooling sweat—
The crowd perspiring, streaked, and dirty;
The shining sun—score, forty-thirty.
The desperate playing, fast and loose,
The satisfied smile—Ah, there, it's deuce.
That firm set look—I'm out to win—
The neat little cut—Advantage in!
The swish of the racket—ball in the net,
The glad, warm grin—"My game and set!"
Virginia M. Fultz

SOCIALS

Jerry Lee has returned from New York where she visited with her mother.

* * *

Winston Cobb and A. J. Scott have returned from Minneapolis, Minn., where they attended a Y. W. C. A. conference.

* * *

Margaret Parker and Elizabeth Williams visited Mrs. F. W. Beck at her home in Dinwiddie, Va., during the week-end.

* * *

Sarah Beck visited Ella Mallory at her home in Lawrenceville, Va.

* * *

Myrtha Watkins and Elma Rawlings also spent the week-end in Lawrenceville.

* * *

Gazelle Ware attended the dances at V. P. I. last week-end.

* * *

The following girls spent the week-end in Lynchburg: Thelma Walsh, "Chic" Mosby, Margaret Barker, Celia Jones, Polly McMurdo, Doris Ewers, Elizabeth Steptoe, Alice Blankenship, and Clara Mistr.

* * *

Martha Cross and Kitty McLemore spent the week-end at her home in Suffolk.

* * *

Judith Taylor visited Miss Elizabeth Singleton in Pamplin.

* * *

Virginia Fox and Burnley Brockenbrough were the guests of Elizabeth Brockenbrough in Staunton. Others who spent the week-end in Staunton were: Frances Crawford, Frances Ratcliffe, and Tots Smith.

* * *

Virginia Moses was the guest of Frances Dawson at Hollins College.

* * *

Ruth Hunt attended the medical dance at the University of Virginia last week-end.

* * *

Louise Van Lear and Fannie Bosworth visited Mrs. Chambliss at Rawlings, Virginia.

* * *

Elizabeth Kelly and Dot Prescott spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harris in Kenbridge.

* * *

The following girls spent the week-end in Richmond: Lucille Tiller, Dot Leonard, Frances Dorin, Elizabeth Fields, Evelyn Knaub, Mary Spiers, Margaret Copenhaver, Mamie Barnes, Mildred Mountcastle, Vernie Oden, Kitty Waters, Anne Davis, Anne Woodson, Kathryn Rogers.

* * *

The following girls were in Petersburg last week-end: Jo Congdon, Helen Westmoreland, Virginia Lanier, Ethel Creedle, Anna Frances Traylor, Nell Fischer, Elsie and Ruth Wright, Annie Hall Perkins, Maury Leigh Lyons and Katherine Crowder.

* * *

Jennie Wheeler and Mary Winston spent the week-end at their home in Hopewell.

* * *

The following girls spent the week-end in Norfolk: Margaret Eley, Mary Arthur Billups, Frances Rawlings, Helen Warren, Glenn Colonna.

* * *

Ambler Lee and Jean McClure visited in Charlottesville.

* * *

Virginia Bailey spent the week-end with Mary Gregory at her home in Amherst, Virginia.

* * *

Sarah Saunders was the guest of her parents in Suffolk during the week-end.

* * *

Phyllis Denit spent the week-end with her parents in Salem.

FRESHMAN CLASS PRESENTS ORCHESTRA

The freshmen have an orchestra! And oh, what an orchestra. If you'd been among those present at the Freshman Class meeting Tuesday night, you would have agreed with everybody else that the orchestra was grand, peppy, and all other such complimentary adjectives. A glance at the list of these jazz-makers will convince you that it must have been good. Players: Garnet Hodges, pianist; Esther Haskins, xylophone; Ruth Haskins, kozoot; "Gin" Guy, kozoot; Lottie Dixon, kozoot; Dot Davis, kozoot; Mary E. Norman, kozoot; Lena Mac Gardner, triangle; Libby Mason blocks; Margaret De Shazo, uke; Bessie Graybill, uke; Dot Waynick, director.

Besides that, there's a freshman quartet, Dixon, Norman, Weaver, R. Showalter, with R. Floyd as director, who really have got harmony.

It rather looks that somebody in the class has originality. At any rate, originality was one reason the class was winner of the class "sings."

There will be a weenie roast Friday afternoon at five o'clock at Longwood.

AMONG OUR CAPS AND GOWNS

Continued from page two

NANCY SHANER

Impetuous, kind-hearted Nancy! To have her for a friend is to have a staunch supporter and ally brough all one's ups and downs Thoroughly sincere in every thing she says and does, she goes along her way happily and lightheartedly, but with an undercurrent of serious thought and feeling.

Nancy has been especially interested in Y. W. C. A. and church work in school, having given fine service on several committees. She is also secretary of the Senior class, and has been acting treasurer since March.

Sincerity is the keynote to Nancy's character. Whatever she believes she believes in all of the way. Whoever she trusts should be proud of that trust. And we believe in Nancy. She's one of the finest.

MR. J. M. GRAINGER REPRESENTS FARMVILLE

At the centennial celebration of the founding of Richmond University, held in Richmond on May 8, 9, and 10, the Farmville State Teachers College was represented by Professor J. M. Grainger. On Sunday afternoon, May 8, a beautiful program of sacred music was followed by the centennial sermon. Monday morning, May 9, was taken up with round table discussions on the general theme "One Hundred Years of Higher Education in America," participated in by alumni of the university. After luncheon there was a baseball game between Randolph-Macon and Richmond and an athletic meet at Westhampton College.

Tuesday was the prinicpal day of the celebration. An ecademic procession made up of the speakers, delegates from nearly 200 other institutions, the faculty, alumni, and the senior class, arrayed in vari-colored academic regalia, marched across the beautiful campus to the Henry M. Cannon Memorial Chapel. Here the principal address was delivered by Dr. James R. Angell, president of Yale University

A luncheon to delegates and invited guests, followed, at which greeting from the colleges and universities were delivered.

Fischer's

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing
Third Street

BLUE RIDGE

"God is in His Holy Temple
Let all the earth keep silence before Him."

The spiritual life and atmosphere of Blue Ridge are the keynotes of its awe-inspiring appeal. One lives there indeed on the heights, in close communion with God. One is brought closer to the intangible values of life and to a keener interest in personalities which draw strength from the power of God's love and spirit.

The conference program aids in personal growth by giving a new version of life and its responsibilities, and by advancing thought provoking questions under expert guidance and with adequate opportunity for solving. The sharing of experience and thought with world wide leaders as well as with Y. W. C. A. directors and other girls, opens new vistas of life.

Quoting from a student from Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C., one reads: "Blue Ridge accomplishes three things for students who are there to find new experiences: first, the discovery of new fields of opportunity for service; second, a new appreciation of other people, both on and off the campus: third, a closer and more intimate experience of the reality of Jesus Christ and of God."

Such experiences are invaluable to those who would do God's work.

At Blue Ridge one worships together with all, not one for another; one sings with feeling from the heart; one prays an expression of the soul's reactions; one learns the sources of religious experiences in unselfish giving, personal praying, and living the abundant life. One goes spiritually adventuring and finds that adventure and security meet only in God. The trails of adventuring lie in making a working philosophy for life, in pooling all resources for god, and in cultivating and finding interesting people. The means of adventuring call for a penetration of the modern thickets of perpetual going ,of insincerity, of traditional and personal vanities, of a rocking chair attitude toward life. The results of adventuring bring one nearer to God in an abundant life of well chosen values; values that increase when shared as knowledge and love do.

From last year's conference the Blue Ridge mountains yet echo the theme of the whole idea of spiritual adventuring, "There is something astor in the world, it may be your soul. God is at the heart of it. Only the sensitive and ready can bring it to pass!

Miss Peck gave an interesting talk on the Church Universal Friday night at Prayers. She brought out the fact that before there can be a Church Universal prejudice against small sects must be removed. This, she emphasized, can be done only by educating the individual; for the Church Universal depends on each and every one.

Miss Irene Leake, accompanied at the piano by Miss Ruby Moss gave a delightful program at "Sing" Saturday night. Miss Leake dedicated one of her numbers "Until" to the Senior Class.

The Freshman Class was presented a prize of one dollar for having the best "sing" during the year.

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community For Over Half a Century

Finest Toilet Requisites

Drugs and Stationery

CALENDAR FOR WEEK MAY 19TH TO 25TH

Thursday, May 19
6:45 P. M.—Association of Childhood Education meets.
7:00 P. M.—Palette meets.
7:00 P. M.—Debate Club meeting
8:00 P. M.—French Circle meeting

Friday, May 20
4:00 P. M.—Championship baseball game.
7:00 P. M. —Latin Club meets.

Monday, May 23
7:00 P. M.—Virginian Staff meets

Tuesday, May 24
7:00 P. M.—Class meetings

Wednesday, May 25
5:00 P. M.—Y. W. C. A. Cabinet meeting
7:00 P. M.—Ruffner Literary Society meeting.
8:00 P. M.—Rotunda Staff meets.

Virginia Tech stated that new rules had been laid down for initiation to Monogram Club. The most notable change was that the old tradition of "the paddle line" had been abolished. It added that costumes were not to be burlesque, but modest and humorous. Just another good idea.

Last week's Rotunda told of a novel way of working one's way through college. Here is another: all you have to do is write clever advertisements for Colgate, Palmolive-Peet Company in their shaving cream "blurb" contest. Let's all get busy and win $26,000 in cash. So far honors are divided between Princeton, Columbia, Duke, and a few other colleges.

A COLLEGIATE INSTITUTION
For
BUSINESS TRAINING

Qualify for business opportunities with professional training offered in Secretarial Science. Placement service for graduates, with the number of employment calls showing an increase in 1931.

Accounting and Business Administration Courses leading to B. C. S. and M. C. S. degrees given under an able staff of Certified Public Accountants, University Graduates and Attorneys-At-Law.

Write or call for information about summer session courses.

204 Colleges and Universities Represented in Annual Student Body Enrollment of 1,600.

STRAYER COLLEGE
719 13th St.—National 1748
WASHINGTON, D. C.
Catalog Upon Request

At Melbourne College in Australia, the co-eds took up football as a major sport. To get even the men retaliated by starting to knit. I wonder if their pocketbook industry is progressing as favorably as ours.

Willis .... Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 258

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

WHITE
GREEN
RED
BLUE

$1.59

"U. S." SPORT SANDALS

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

Lovely new two piece suits, all pastel colors Very special — $1.98

Hats to Match — 1.00

The new basket weave shoes to match — $1 & $1.98

We have reduced pajamas You will love them at — $1

White, blond, and brown crepe sole oxfords — $1.98 & $2.98

The Hub Department Store

HUMOR

Dot Davis: "Where are my golf socks?"

Frances McDaniel "What golf socks?"

Dot: "The ones with eighteen holes."—S. C. Wampus.

Somebody (to Martha Sanders' brother): You're an apt boy. Is your sister apt, too?"

Brother: "If she gets a chance, she's apt to."—Exchange.

Sign on highway: "Drive Slow School Ahead."

We wonder if S. T. C. graduates would change this to: "Keep going, no jobs here."—Exchange.

Fatted Calf: "I wonder how Thanksgiving originated?"

"It was probably instituted by parents whose sons had survived the football season."—Exchange.

Miss L.: "If I subtract seventy-nine from twenty-three, what's the difference?"

Dot Waynick: "Yeah, I think it's a lot of bunk, myself."—Annapolis Log.

Miss Jennings: "Robert Burns wrote 'To a Field Mouse'."

Voice (from rear of room): "Did he get an answer?"—Syracuse Orange Peel.

Martha Kello (on the bench): "Please Miss Iler what're you saving me for?"

Miss Iler: "For the flower show, Martha, for the flower show."—Kansas Sour Owl.

Add Dumb belles: The gal who went to the radio show to see the copyright owners.—College Humor.

Stranger to S. T. C. student: "Do they have any restrictions at your college?"

S. T. C. student: "Only one stranger."

Stranger: "What is it?"

She: "Don't get caught."—Washington U. Dirge.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY:

Many a good beau plays second fiddle.

A bigamist is one who makes the same mistake twice.

'Tis better to be well informed than informed.—Clarkson Green Griffin.

ARCHERY TOURNAMENT HELD THURSDAY

Continued from page one

Snedegar, third place by Estelle Jones. Everyone taking part in the tournament made some score, which is an improvement over last year's tournament.

Archery practices do not end with the tournament, but will continue to be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from four to six o'clock. Anyone interested in archery is urged to come out for practice.

JUNIOR FESTIVAL A GREAT SUCCESS

Continued from page one

Hymn." This was followed by the reading of the Scripture and the invocation by Dr. Frederick Diehl, rector of John's Memorial Episcopal Church. President Jarman gave a greeting of welcome to the distinguished guests who were present and in his delightful manner made everyone feel that the college always had the latch-string on the outside.

Mr. Strick then introduced the guests and stated that the recital to take place was the last musical attraction to be given under his direction during the present school year. Continuing, Mr. Strick remarked, "That the Seniors were going out, and that Mr. Tyler's recital was a little gift of appreciation and contribution from the general festival."

He then introduced Mr. Maurice L. Tyler, nationally known tenor, who gave a magnificent program and it was received by the entire student body, faculty, and friends with acclamation. Mr. Tyler sang five groups of songs, and it would be hard to comment on any one number but his spontaneity was quickly caught by his audience when he sang "When I Think Upon the Maidens" by Michael Head. His rendition of the different songs in English, Italian, and French were sung with distinction and artistry.

Following the recital the various units from the training school and the rural schools presented their attractive and well-planned numbers, supplemented by units from Victoria, Appomattox, and Richmond. The Richmond units, the Boys Choir, under the able direction of Mrs. Sidney Swann, first vice-president of the Federated Music Club of Virginia, was outstanding in its program of three well chosen numbers. "Trees", was appealingly rendered by Chon Crymes, who received a tremendous ovation. Another interesting feature of the program was a group of piano solos by little Charlotte Hawthorne, of Victoria. The tiny little miss seated at the grand piano presented a charming picture. Climaxing the program were two delightful numbers, interpretative dance under the direction of Mrs. Louise Robertson Fitzpatrick with orchestra accompaniment and a number by the college orchestra under the direction of Miss Lizabeth Purdom. To bring the program to a fitting close Mr. Tyler led the vast audience in singing "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny."

In the conclusion of this Junior Festival was written another page in the great development of Southside Virginia's music through that splendid organizer, Mr. Strick, who has given unselfishly and tirelessly of his time and talents in the service of the community in general, and the college in particular.

NATIONAL CONVENTION OF Y. W. C. A. MEETS AT MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

Continued from page one

is responsible not only for social experiments and twelve summer conferences, but also for the sending of literature to local associations and for helping in the preparation for the biennial convention.

The student was only one part of the convention. This phase however is the most vital to students here.

But it was not all business! Sightseeing tours to St. Paul, to Minnehaha Falls, and to various other points of interest were arranged for the delegates by some of the members of the University of Minnesota Y. W.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Continued from page two

Dr. Jarman sang, at the urgent request of the alumnae, "The End of a Perfect Day."

After the "Alma Mater" was sung, Dr. Jarman asked that "the girls" remain standing where they were so that he could go around and greet each one personally.

The Portsmouth chapter has recently reorganized and gives promise of great accomplishments. The alumnae present at the banquet were:

Felicia Green, 1927, Lois Westbrook, 1926, Marjorie Westbrook, 1927, Maxine Lucas, 1927, Margaret French, Elizabeth Downey, 1913, Elsie Clements, 1929, Marjorie Codd, 1929, Mildred Deans, 1929, Virginia Buxton, 1928, Bernice Harris, 1924, Ella Louise Moore, 1928, Sally Jackson, 1928, Harriett Brown, 1928, Sallie Perkins Oast, 1916, Olive Brook Dorin, 1902, Blanche Conwell Hanbury, Frances Spicer Goodson, Penelope White West, 1911, Mrs. Peter Mennen, 1911, Louise Poindexter, 1911, Katie Porter, 1912, Bettie Sue Jernigan, 1928 Margaret Lester, 1931, Sue Roper, 1925, Grace George, 1927, M. Lee Malbon, 1927, Virginia Rice, 1928, Marjorie Goodwin, 1928, Ella Carroll, 1929, Ellen Hardy, 1909, Nan Stewart, Christine MacKan, 1916, Audrey Chewning, 1926, Dorothy Diehl, Pearl Etheridge, 1929, Lillian Barham, 1925, Katherine Dashiell, 1928, Annie Tignor, Eleanor Dashiell, 1931, Isabel Bilisoly, 1925, Ellen Lash, 1916, Zaidee Smith, 1902, Lois Williams, 1924, Mabel Mays Scott, 1924, Virginia Hanrahan, 1927, Mary Codd Parker, 1915, Estelle Ray Melcher, 1919. Mary Ray Stewart, 1924, Birdie Holiowell Caudell, 1918, Elizabeth Ewald Lively, 1915, Mary Monecott Newsome, 1916, Louise Deans, 1925, Portia Spencer, Mildred Holmes, Laura Holmes, 1911, Margaret Johnston, 1927, Gretchen Mayo, 1927, Mary Mills, 1913, Dorothy Watkins, 1927, Esther Blackman, 1928, Etta Marshall, 1930, Genevieve Gresham White, 1915.

Ruth Campbell was recently elected vice-president of the Community League of Culpeper.

On April 29 the annual Orange County Elementary School Day was held at which time a pageant written by Mary Morris and Mary Saunders was presented. The celebration this year was in honor of the George Washington Bicentennial.

The Hampden-Sydney Young People's Conference for Roanoke and West Hanover Presbyteries will be held at the college June 15-22. The Home Missions course will be taught by Miss Mary Dupuy of faculty of Berea College, Ky.

C. A. Luncheons and a student banquet at the Leamington Hotel were held. An afternoon tea was given by Mrs. Coffman, wife of the President of the University.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM MAY 19 to 25

THURS. and FRIDAY. — "SKY BRIDE" with RICHARD ARLEN, JACK OAKIE and ROBERT COOGAN. Here's Dick Arlen and his "Touchdown" playmates in an aerial thrill romance. A traveling air circus; an ace stunter who loses his nerve; a girl who gives him his courage in a soul-stirring, dare-devil come-back. Here's a story that's real; it's human, the men and women say and do the things that are said and done in real life. There is no phooey. It has comedy a-plenty and drama without being over-dramatic. It's swell entertainment. You see most breath-taking, thrilling climax ever screened, when Arlen rescues his sweetheart's kid brother (Robert Coogan) clinging aloft on the struts of a run-away plane. Also Paramount News.

SPECIAL ADDED ATTRACTION—The Hampden-Sydney Glee Club will appear on the stage both matinee and night on Friday only. Come out and support these boys who won the Virginia State championship. There will be no advance in prices!

STURDAY.—SALLY EILERS, EL BRENDEL and SPENCER TRACY in "DISORDERLY CONDUCT." "I'll pay any price for a thrill." And she was rich enough to do what she wanted, and pretty enough to get away with it. To her, bad behavior meant a good time. She was too bored to be good. She went from indiscretion to misdemeanors; then a handsome man made her fall in line and fall in love. If you like a fast-moving, snappy, romantic picture with plenty of comedy, here it is. El Brendel, the Swede, will bowl you over in this one. Also Screen Song, "Shine On Harvest Moon" and Fox News.

NEXT MON. and TUES.—"THE MIRACLE MAN" with SYLVIA SIDNEY and CHESTER MORRIS. Thirteen years ago this picture was the talk of the country. It made stars of Lon Chaney, Thomas Meighan and Betty Compson. The new talking edition is said to be even better. Soul-wrenching drama; heart-healing romance. The bitter and the sweet of life unfolded before you as a miraculous melody of the actor's art—warming the very fibres of your life with the benediction of its power, its glory, and its majesty. Two lovers in a world of sin and gin. Who'll set them right, who'll show them the glory of a life without greed, the happiness of a love without jealousy? The Miracle Man. This picture has a message of joy and love for every person in Farmville. Don't miss it. Also Chapter 6, "Air Mail Mystery," and Paramount News.

NEXT WEDNESDAY — ELISSA LANDI, NEIL HAMILTON and MERNA LOY in "THE WOMAN IN ROOM 13." A midnight rendezvous, in the room of an exclusive hotel, where the walls have ears and eyes, a shot is heard, and then the question, Who was the Woman in Room 13? This picture relates the experiences of a young wife who divorces a philandering husband to search for happiness with a new mate. The venture is satisfactory in every way until the jealous, revengeful ex-husband plots to prove her unfaithful. In the meantime the audience is carred through a breath-takng story of love, mystery and thrils, ending with Elissa Landi in Neil Hamilton's arms. Also Charlie Chase in "In Walked Charlie" and Rudy Vallee in "Musical Justice."

MATINEES DAILY at 4 P. M. Evenings at 8. Continuous matinee every Saturday from 2:15 to 6 P. M.

ADMISSION—Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 15 years, 15c to each show.

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

GRADUATION DRESSES—SHOES—AND WRAPS

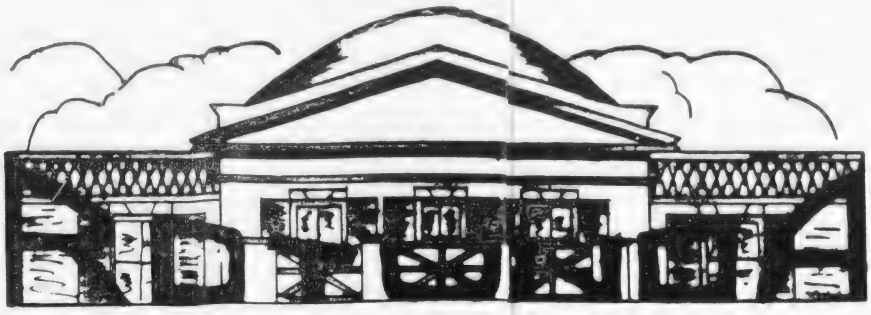
Baldwin's takes pleasure in presenting the finest array of graduation apparel ever offered by us. Every school and college appreciates such fine things when they come from "The Style Shop for Ladies."

BALDWIN'S

QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

COMMENCEMENT DRESSES

Our buyer has just returned from New York where she bought the latest style Commencement Dresses. They are on display at our store now.



Come in and see the wonderful variety which we offer at just three low prices . . . . .

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

GOOD LUCK
TO THE SENIORS

STAY
FOR COMENCEMENT

Volume V. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 25, 1932 No. 30

Classes Tie In Clash For Color Cup

Blazer Awards Given in Chapel This Morning

Souders, Edwards, Hundley and Quisenberry Receive College Seals

At the close of each year, athletic awards are presented to those girls who have fulfilled certain standards and requirements.

To be the wearer of an S. T. C. blazer a girl must not only have points which are obtained by participating in sports but she must be physically fit; a good sport; and have a scholastic standing. These awards are given not in recognition of athletic ability alone, for a girl must be a true representative of the blue and white and a credit to her Alma Mater.

A girl fulfilling the required scholastic standing character, physical fitness and having the number fo points is awarded as follows:

Class colors with old English F .. 700
Class colors with numerals 1000
Class colors with S. T. C. 1300
Navy blue with S. T. C. 1600
Navy blue with college seal 2000

The following girls received awards:

Alma Foster 716 1-4
Nell Dickinson 720
Nannie Ruth Cooper 735
Ruth Wright 760
Louise Clayton 800
Nell Clingenpeel 800
Mary B. Fraser 821 1-4
Hildegarde Ross 860
Theodocia Beacham 900
Elizabeth Burger 1010
Ethel Boswell 1110
Laurie Boush 1115
Elizabeth Walthall 1125
Marguerite Massey 1196 1-4
Lucille Crute 1275
Duvahl Ridgway 1472 1-2
Martha Gunter 1485
Dorothy Snedegar 1576 1-4
Mary Gregory 1687 1-2
Kathleen Hundley 2020
Cleo Quisenberry 2025
Easter Souders 2307 1-2
Frances Edwards 2400

Radio Program by Jr. Woman's Club

The Junior Woman's Club will sponsor a program to be given Friday evening, May 27 in the college auditorium. Stunts from many of the organizations in town will take part.

Leaders in the novel movement are Miss Nichols of State Teachers College and Mrs. Walter Putney, and they have enlisted the services of Mr. Alfred H. Strick, who will direct the program and broadcast each presentation.

The program is worked out on the WRVA plan and each unit will be presented by Mr. Strick a la WRVA. It is to be understood that this program is not being broadcast but is merely a unique way of presenting each number.

The people of Farmville are cordially invited to attend the concert, which will begin promptly at eight o'clock.

Continued on last page

Commencement Program Planned

Program:

Saturday, June 4

9:00 P. M., Reception, Student Building Loung.

Sunday, June 5

800 P. M., Baccalaureate Sermon, Auditorium.

Monday, June 6

10:00 A. M., Sophomore Class Day, Auditorium.

3:30 P. M., Senior Class Day, Amphitheatre, Longwood.

8:15 P. M., Class Play.

10:30 P. M., Senior Lantern Parade.

Tuesday, June 7

10:30 A. M., Graduating Exercises, Auditorium.

The baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, June 5, will be preached by Dr. R. A. Lapsley, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Roanoke, Va. Dr. Lapsley of Staunton is well known in Farmville, having preached here on several occasions.

The address to the graduating class will be delivered by Judge George L. Browning, of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals. Judge Browning, formerly a member of the House of Delegates, is one of the outstanding orators in the state.

Of the graduating classes 76 are members of the degree class, and 112 are members of the diploma class.

Tuesday, June 7, will officially bring to a close the school session of 1931-1932 when the diplomas and degrees will be awarded and honors for the senior class will be stated. Miss Bessie Lynch, of Portsmouth, will deliver the valedictory and Miss Dorothy Weems of Big Stone Gap, the salutatory.

Miss Jennie Tabb Is Sponsor

Instead of the usual meeting of the choral groups last Thursday a committee on arrangements had an informal but very beautiful service in which Miss Jennie Masters Tabb was the central figure. For many months the thought of selecting a sponsor had been in the minds of the officers and when Miss Tabb was approached she kindly consented to act as official sponsor.

Carrying out the thought of 28 years of service seven selected girls, each representing four years and dressed in the costume of the years 1904, 1909, 1914, 1919, 1924, 1928, 1932 presented Miss Tabb with a rose for each year, and beautiful basket of roses as a token of love and affection.

Mr. Strick in presenting Miss Tabb as official sponsor said that he had noted three outstanding virtues aligned with Miss Tabb's personality: she calls "a spade a spade," her love and devotion to the administration and the college, and her unselfish service to a great cause.

Miss Tabb(in replying, said that it was a pleasure to be the sponsor and that the girls in costume brought back many happy memories, particularly the years each represented, for they had been perhaps the happiest years of her life.

MISS OLIVE ILE

DEDICATION

To one whose guiding hand as led us over rugged paths to success; whose words of courage have spurred us on, and whose high ideas have been a challenge to each of us, we dedicate this, our athletic issue of the Rotunda.

Reds and Whites Are Winners in Baseball Games

The Juniors and Seniors met in their last combat for the year Wednesday afternoon on the baseball diamond. Their spirit was at its height and everyone was ready to enter into the game with the old class fighting and determination that is always shown.

At the beginning, the teams were playing right together for the score was 2 to 2 at the end of the first inning. Both pitchers were doing excellent work and were receiving strong support in the field. For two runs was the largest number made in any inning except the sixth. The Seniors made five runs this inning. When the Juniors came to bat, they were determined to make more. Violet Hoffa knocked a home run bringing one person in from the bases. At this time the Juniors rallied and made several scores but they were unable to catch up with the Seniors. When the last out was called, the score stood 14 to 9 in favor of the seniors.

The line-up was as follow:

Juniors		Seniors
Beacham	c	Edwards (c)
Snedegar	p	Hundley
Gregory	1b	Souders
Gunter	2b	Boswell
Boggs (c)	3b	Clingenpeel
Crute	ss	Clayton
Ridgway	lf	Fultz
Walthall	cf
Hoffa	rf	Branch

Officials—Mr. Graham, umpire; Miss Iler, scorer.

PI GAMMA MU HAS NEW MEMBERS

The Virginia Gamma Chpter of Pi Gamma Mu announces the following new members:

Lois Cox
Annie Lee Jones
Martha Gunter

Officers Are Elected For Organizations

Le Cercle Francaise

President ..... Margaret Jack
Vice-President ..... Annie Anderson
Secretary ..... Ann Pritchard
Treasurer ..... Alma Foster
Reporter ..... Anne Putney

Monogram Club

President ..... Elizabeth Burger
Vice-President .... Elizabeth Walthall
Secretary ..... Mary Gregory
Treasurer ..... Nell Dickinson

Latin Club

President ..... Irwin Staples
Vice-Pres. ..... Mildred Linthicum
Secretary ..... Winfred Pugh
Treasurer ..... Lila Jacob
Historian ..... Lady Boggs
Editor Tributum ..... Edith Shanks
Bus. Manager ..... Carmen Clark
Typist ..... Nell Dickinson

College Choir

President ..... Ruth Ford
Secretary ..... Sara H. Thomas
Bus. Manager ..... Frances Potts
Librarian ..... Mary McCarn

The treasurer and vice-president will be elected at at later date.

N. B. B. O.

President ..... Elizabeth Kelly
Treasurer ..... Josie Spencer

Farmville Wins Tennis Match

Yesterday our varsity tennis team met Blackstone on our courts for their return match of five singles and two doubles. The excellent condtion of the courts was surely a great help. The matches were all hardly contested and proved most interesting to the spectators.

Anna Gotts and Ora Dean, members of the Blackstone team were unable to come.

Mr. Barton, the coach of the Blackstone team, accompanied the team.

The players and their scores are as follows:

Singles

D. Snedegar won from E. Nichols, (6-2) (6-4.

E. Walthall won from E. Lumpkin, (6-0) (6-2).

F. Edwards won from M. Epes, (6-2) (6-3).

M. B. Nelson won from V. Barrow, (6-3) (6-1).

J. Hurt won from R. Gary, (6-2) (6-1).

Doubles

Nelson and Walthall defeated Epes and Lumpkin (6-2) (7-5).

Hurt and Snedegar defeated Barrow and Gary (6-1) (6-2).

Greens and Reds Each Receive 65 Points

First Time in the History of the School Points Are Even

Hockey

The athletic season for the year 1931-32 opened September 26. A group of determined upper classmen set out to play hockey on a field with grass knee-high. Strokes could not be perfected under such difficulty, but by September 30, the field was in playing condition and practice for the freshmen started.

A few weeks later varsity try-outs were held. From those trying-out, a squad of twenty-six was selected. Our first and only varsity game was with Westhampton on November 13 with Frances Edwards as our captain. Those making the team were, Elizabeth Burger, Frances Edwards, Martha Kello, Martha Gunter, Lelia Mattox, Cleo Quisenberry, Duvahl Ridgway, Easter Souders, Dot Snedegar, Elizabeth Wheeler.

Thanksgiving day, the Freshmen played the Sophomores and the Juniors played the Seniors. The Juniors and Sophomores were victorious. On November 30, the championship game was played between these two classes. The Juniors were victorious, thus giving Green and White ten points for class hockey to add to the ten points for varsity hockey.

Hockey season closed with a twenty point lead for Green and White—a challenge to each class to give her best.

Basket Ball

The next sport after hockey season closed was basketball. Great interest was shown in the games leading up to basket ball, which constituted the first two weeks of practice. After Christmas, in order to sustain interest, a hall tournament was held, ten halls competing. In the finals, the team composed of the Town Girls

Continued on page three

New Members for Alpha Phi Sigma

The Delta Chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma wishes to announce the following new members:

Apprentice Degree:
- Isabelle Allegree
- Burnley Brockenbrough
- Martha Cross
- Margaret Copenhaver
- Mary Elizabeth Driscoll
- Gertrude Mannes
- Louise Ridgway
- Georgianna Sinclair
- Doreen Smith

Masters Degree:
- Maude Rhodes
- Lois Tharrington

The following members received the honor of promotion:

To Apprentice Degree:
- Lois Cox
- Lucy Fitzgerald
- Mildred Steere

To Masters Degree:
- Pela Kutz

Continued on page four

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia

Published Weekly by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879

Subscription, $1.50 per year

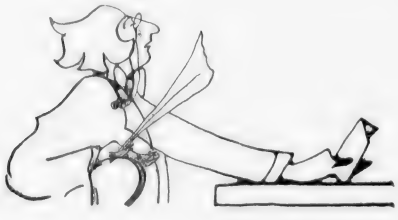
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
Associate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... LELIA MATTOX, '35
Literary Editor ..... NELL DICKINSON '34
Athletic Editor ..... MARY JESS RICHMOND, '33
World News Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY '33
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY KATHRYN TAYLOR '35
Social Editor ..... DOREEN SMITH '33
Art Editor ..... GERTRUDE SUGDEN, '34
Feature Editors ..... BIRDIE WOODING '35
MARY SHELTON, '34
Humorous Editor ..... BELLE LOVELACE '35
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



PELA KUTZ '35 DOROTHY WOOLWINE '34 SARAH ROWELL '33
WINIFRED PUGH '35 CARRIE DESHAZO '33
MARGARET COPENHAVER '34
Proof Reader ..... ELIZABETH VASSAR '35
Assistant Proof Reader ..... KATHERINE WALTON '35

Managers

Business Manager ..... FRANCES POTTS '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY '34
Circulation Manager ..... ELIZABETH WALTHALL '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... FRANCES HORTON '34

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matter should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Sportsmanship

Sportsmanship! Just what does that word mean to you? It is often thought that only in athletics can sportsmanship be tested and shown; but that is not true, for in every phase of life one comes into contact with it in some form or another. Sportsmanship is thought of in its truest sense as meaning to do your best regardless of the tasks or conditions, and then accepting the outcome with head up and hand outstretched.

The greatest game of all is the game of Life which should be played fairly and fought to be won; but the winning must be fair, and through fighting only have we achieved success

An attempt is made through the sports which the Athletic Association fosters here at college to instill the highest type of sportsmanship, to attain physical fitness and to inculcate clean and alert minds in the student body and especially those taking active part in these sports. The working with the construction gang and not the crew is something we must keep forever foremost in our minds and actions.

"For when the Great Scorer comes
To write against our name—
It matters not whether we won or lost,
But how we played the game."

Among Our Caps And Gowns

FRANCES CRAWFORD

To find a person who is absolutely dependable is hard; to find one whose dependability is combined with genuine ability both to do things and to understand things is harder. But to find one who is both these things and who has a wide but quiet influence is most difficult. Such a superlative person is Frances. But that is not all. Besides these things, Frances has the admirable quality of being able to get long with people. That evasive trait called charm is a possession of hers to an abundant degree.

Frances has been interested in a great many campus activities. Her scholarship has been recognized by Sigma Tau Rho and Pi Gamma Mu. Alpha Sigma Gamma has seen her leadership and her influence in making her a member. She has been especially outstanding in Y. W. C. A. work, having been a very efficient treasurer the past year.

Frances has, for four years, been a real part of Farmville. The spirit of Farmville is and always will be a real part of Frances.

BESSIE LYNCH

One on whom you may depend, one who puts duty before pleasure, one who is conscientious and works for the goal obtained, and one who is willing to lend a helping hand—such a one is Bessie.

Those who know Bessie realize that she is a good all round girl. When she works she works—when she plays she plays." She has learned the value of college life and she realizes that we get out of it what we put into it. Bessie has put herself into her work. Her ability, her scholarship standing and her qualities of leadership were recognized when she was chosen first honor graduate of the degree class.

Bessie does not consciously work for honors but her work is so thorough that the natural result is a recognition of her abilities. In Kappa Delta Pi Pi Gamma Mu, Beta Pi Theta, Sigma Pi Rho, and Alpha Phi Sigma, she has shown her ability as a leader. She has made a contribution to her Alma Mater that will not soon be forgotten. Brilliant, sweet, versatile, and "true to the end," is—Bessie.

HANNA CRAWLEY

Sweet dignity, gentle grace—all the loveliness of the old South tint the character of Hanna Crawley.

True to the Southland, it is not what Hanna does that charms one, but what she is. Her mild leadership is felt rather than seen. Hanna listens to the music of her own soul and although she leaves others to keep step with the drummer they hear, she unconsciously makes many hear her rhythm and fall in step with her. In Hanna's duties as president of the House Council, 1930-'31, and vice-president of the Student Council, 1931-'32, she has made penitents by gentleness rather than hyprocrites by severity.

Hanna shares her musical ability with others. As shown in her outstanding Choral Club and Senior Choral Club work her place in the College Orchestra, and her successfully filled position on the Y. W. C. A. music committee, of 1929-'30.

There will be a bit of sweet sunshine and happiness missing—when Hanna has gone.

HOW WE WILL REMEMBER OUR SENIORS

Continued from last week

Margaret Addleman—knowing the numbers.

Virginia Bailey—having a heavy spring schedule.

Frances Barrett—speaking three languages.

Nancy Boykin—being a senior "chaperone."

Mary Alice Bristow—knowing the way to a man's heart—cooking.

Kathryn Claud—looking pretty—even at breakfast.

Nell Clingenpeel—loving that man.

Mary Conkley—being a conscientious student

Frances Edwards—having school spirit and the pep to put it over.

Louise Elliott—being intellectual.

Margaret Fisher—correcting history papers.

Lucy Fitzgerald—speaking the language of Caesar.

Susie Floyd—being a good sport.

Virginia Gee—knowing French.

Agnes Lee Grigg—suiting the song, "Five Feet Two With Eyes of Blue."

Charlotte Hutchins—"being true to the navy."

Louise Johnson—quoting Dr. J. E. Walmsley.

Evelyn Jones—being a second Sylvia Sydney.

Lucie Anne Lane—studying in the library. (Lucie, I hope this will impress the faculty.)

Irene Meador—talking in the true Southwest Virginian manner.

Elizabeth McCauley—being engaged.

Bertie Price—being a native of this fine town.

Ruth Reynolds—having a "calculating" mind

Anne Rice—being a many-sided "Greek".

Doris Robertson—being happy.

Nancy Shaner—using those eyes.

Lillian Shepherd—coming back to us.

Martha Von Schilling — looking stylish.

Flosise Smith—being a good listener.

Margaret Stiff—getting specials.

Grace V. Woodhouse—being a pal to everyone.

Anne Wodson—having hair that Jean Harlow would like to own.

Mary Alice Young—knowing the ropes.

Henrietta Cornwell—having the good old red and white spirit.

H. S. C.

(Retort to A. W. DeMuth's "S. T. C." Villanelle)

The piece of verse you must have coined
From vacant thought of paying court
Is every bit impertinent
And merits woman's quick retort.

The economic value placed
Upon the "clinging vines"
Is mere excuse for lending choice—
Rationalization for your lines.

You sit upon the walls by day—
En masse you saunter by;
On night around Joan you cluster—
There is a reason why.

You vitalize the romance of our dear old institute
Autumn, winter and intoxicating spring—
But perchance you're playing substitute,
You know—"it's quite the thing!"

R. F.

I PASSED YOU BY

I passed you by on the street today,
And my pulse beat fast with the same old thrill ,
You must not have remembered our nights so gay
For the way you spoke filled my heart with chill.

You spoke as though we had never shared
The ecstacies on love's sweet height,
Your eyes were dull for they didn't care.
They sparkled not with love's delight.

My hand clenched tight for I couldn't show,
The pain it caused to pass you by,
Why did you ever leave me so
All alone—too hurt to cry?

Ah, couldn't you see that I needed you then,
Needed you more than ever before?
Why with a word did you pass me when
My heart cried out for your love once more?

Dorothy Roberts

SPRING FEELING

Low-hanging trees of pale green buds
Near the close of an April day
Fill me with the feel of an aching heart
To last through the flowering of May.

It's mixed of the joy of being alive
And pain at the tree's rebirth.
Of the longing to breathe with all things new—
To violently hug the earth.

Easter Souders

CINQUAIN

This day
The remembrance
Of weeping must suffice—
Because my eyes have grown too old
For tears.

Easter Souders

DAWN

When the blackness of the night has ended
Which has seemed so long to you,
Which has made you think
All life was futile, lonely, and blue,
One sees a ray of purest light
'Way out in the Eastern sky
Which seems to say with its firm support
"Take heart, 'tis not time to die."
O, life is like that, as well we all know
We've experienced it o'er and o'er;
When times seem the hardest and we sink in despair
Help comes thru some unseen door.

Ruth Haskins '35

At Ohio Wesleyan University, Dr. Harlan T. Stetson, director of the Perkins Observatory, finds that 1932 is to be swell for radio listeners. Sun spots are on the decrease, which means that radio rumblings will also be on the decrease. Good news, for those who want to hear S. T. C.'s broadcast next year.

SOCIALS

Julia Faris, Mary Custis Burwell, and Virginia Thornhill, spent the week-end with Janet Harris at her home in Lynchburg. Others who were in Lynchburg this week-end were: Louise Van Lear, Dorothy Woolwine, Dorothy Wingfield, Helen Inge, Ruth Watts, Betsy Ross, Alice V. Abernathy, and Elizabeth Eubanks.

• • •

Mae Groseclose spent the week-end with Mary Mustard at her home in Cismont.

• • •

The following girls were in Richmond this week-end: Dot Leonard, Mary K. Taylor, Iris Hart, Kitty Waters, Thelma Croye, Nancy Burgwyn, Imogene Rufty, Virginia Thornton, Helen Smith, Nancy Ross, Ava Simmons, Flora Bischoff, and Janice White.

• • •

Catherine Jones and Margaret Copenhaver were the guests of Virginia Lowe at her home in Charlottesville. Others who were in Charlottesville for the week-end were: Mary Jones, Frances Barrell, Ambler Lee, Margery Quarles, Velma Quarles, Cornelia Quarles, and Josie Spencer.

• • •

Virginia Guy was the guest of Mrs. F. F. Fleming in Cartersville.

• • •

Mary Alice Young visited Mary Arthur Billups at her home in Norfolk.

• • •

Polly McMurdo was the guest of Judith Hardy at her home in Kenbridge.

• • •

Vernie Oden spent the week-end in Appomattox.

• • •

Lindsay White spent the week-end in Arrington, Va., where she visited her parents.

• • •

Mildred Lovelace and Virginia Moses visited in Danville.

• • •

Margaret and Carrie DeShazo were the guests of their parents last week-end in Sutherland, Va.

• • •

Delia Grant spent the week-end in Durham, N. C., as the guest of Mrs. J. J. Duke.

• • •

Mary Harrison and Marguerite Poole were in Petersburg over the week-end.

• • •

Mildred Perdue, Lou Covington, and Nancy Shaner visited in Pamplin.

• • •

Alice Marshall was the guest of her parents at her home in Newport News.

• • •

Pauline Broadwater and Cornelia Watts visited in Big Island during the week-end.

• • •

Kathryn Brown visited her parents in Roanoke.

• • •

Catherine Wilbourne was the guest of Elizabeth Ranson at her home in Dillwyn. Others who visited in Dillwyn during the week-end were: Ildergirt Dunn and Estelle Jones.

• • •

Margaretta Brady spent the week-end in Portsmouth.

• • •

Esther Pugh spent the week-end at her home in Phenix, Va.

• • •

Jessica Jones was the guest of Elizabeth Hardy at her home in Wattsboro.

• • •

Hanna Crawley spent the week-end with her parents in Cumberland. Lucie Anne Lane visited Miss Georgia Putney, also in Cumberland.

• • •

Ann Wingo spent the week-end in Jetersville.

• • •

Doris Robertson and Mildred Shelton visited at their homes in Church Road.

• • •

Elizabeth Fitzgerald visited in Blackstone during the week-end.

The annual freshman barefoot day was observed recently at the University of South Carolina. Here's hoping all glass, nails, splinters, etc., were gotten out of the way before hand. This isn't a suggestion to anyone around here, please.

VARSITY TENNIS TEAM

Top row left to right: Mary B. Nelson, Mary B. Fraser, Gertru Sugden, Frances Edwards, Doreen Smith, Jennie Hurt. Botton row: Lel Mattox, Dorothy Snedegar and Elizabeth Walthall.

CLASSES TIE FOR THE COLOR CUP

and those on Tacky Alley defeated the team belonging to first floor Senior Building. About seventy girls made class squads. The captains of the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior teams were respectively, Jenny Hurt, Mary Burgess Fraser, Dot Snedegar, and Ethel Boswell. In the class games, the Seniors defeated the Sophomores to gain ten points for the Red and White on the color cup.

On the varsity basketball squad, there were seventeen girls who worked hard all season and all of whom contributed to its success. The scores of the varsity games were:

Richmond Normal 12. (there); Farmville 69.

William and Mary 17. (there); Farmville 20.

Sweet Briar, 17 (here); Farmville 35.

Harrisonburg, 32 (there); Farmville 25.

Easter Souders was captain of the 1931-32 team. The girls making the team were Easter Souders Dot Snedegar, Frances Edwards, and Mary Burgess Fraser. This gave another ten points to Red and White.

Volley Ball

There were 60 who came out for volley ball, 23 Freshmen, 14 Sophomores, 14 Juniors and 9 Seniors. During the season, the Round Robin Tournament was held; that is, every hall played every other hall. There were 72 games played. The third floor Senior Building won the most games and Gym Hall and Annex tied for runners up. On March 17 the interclass games were played, the Sophomores and Seniors being the winners. On March 18, the Sophomores and Seniors played the championship game. The seniors were victorious. Volley ball was a most successful season—both the Red and Whites and Green and Whites worked hard.

Base Ball

On March 21 about fifty girls rushed eagerly out on the athletic field between four and six with determination to enjoy baseball season. To create more enthusiasm after Easter hall tournaments began. After several weeks of playing, Gym Hall and the Town Girls were victorious.

The girls from each class began to practice more vigorously than ever the last week in order that they might be well-fitted to mee their competitors.

The Sophomores were victorious over the Freshmen after a lon hard fight. The Seniors defeated th Juniors. The championship gar was very exciting. In the sixth inng the Sophomores managed to tie thscore. The Seniors were more determed to win than ever. Thus, defeatg the Sophomores they won the chapionship. Since Red and White we victorious ten points were addedo the color cup in their favor.

The varsity team was ected which included:

Dorothy Davis
Jennie Hurt
Blanche Mottley
Goldie Boggs
Ethel Edmunds
Mary Burgess Fraser
Dorothy Snedegar
Frances Edwards
Kathleen Hundley

The Red and Whites gettg the majority on varsity received te more points on the color cup.

Archery

Although archery is only aninor sport, much interest has beenhown in it this year. Contrary to thusual custom, practice was carried (during the entire year. At the beaning of the fall quarter, Mr. Deane presenting "The Archers Compay" of Pinehurst, North Carolina, monstrated the point of aim sysm of shooting to all who were intested. This system was taught throughout the year by Laurie Boush, manger of archery. The shooting ran was changed this year from sixty et to seventy-five feet. Although thange was longer, the shooting as awhole was very good, as everyone earing the archery tournament whic culminated the season, made somecore. This shows an improvement ov last year's tournament. Laurie Bou won first place in the meet with 64 ints; Dot Snedegar second and stelle Jones, third.

Tennis

Tennis for 1931-'32 came to very satisfactory conclusion with thending of the annual spring uubles tournament.

Throughout the year unusl interest has been taken in tens—in the tournaments and otherw—as evidenced in the fact that so lge a number of students took part.

In the fall quarter, the nual singles tournament was outstding. About fifteen girls signed up r it,

Continued on last page

AN APPRECIATION

The Athletic Issue of The Rotunda would hardly be complete without some mention of the splendid work accomplished by the sports managers of the year 1931-1932. The managers and their assistants have shown unusual ability, initiative, cooperation and untiring willingness to work and I congratulate them on ths success. An expression of appreciation and thanks for this outstanding work is not amiss, I'm sure.

Olve T. Iler

Fischer's

Third Street

Records
Sheet Music
Instruments
Novelties, etc.
Repairing

C. E. Chapell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books ad
School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Sot
Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co

Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community
For Over Half a Centur
Finest Toilet Requisites
Drugs and Stationery

Y. W. C. A. CABINET HOLDS OPEN MEETING

The new Y. W. C. A. Cabinet held its first open meeting Wednesday afternoon, May 18, in the Stuednt's Lounge. The chairmen of the various groups gave reports of the work being done by their respective committees. Winston Cobb, the president of the Y. W. C. A., announced that Grace Rowell, Honey Hamilton, Sue Yeaman, and Edith Shanks would be delegates to the Blue Ridge Conference. She, also, gave a most interesting account of the National Y. W. C. A. Conference.

At the close of the meeting the social committee, under the leadership of Frances Ratcliffe served refreshments.

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet Meets

Later a special meeting was held. At this meeting the president announced that Dr. Walmsley had been elected as representative to the Blue Ridge Conference and that another, Lucille Ingram, would be added to the delegates representing the Y. W. C. A. at Blue Ridge.

The student body wishes to extend its sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. M. Boyd Coyner in their recent bereavement.

A COLLEGIATE INSTITUTION for BUSINESS TRAINING

QUALIFY for business opportunities with professional training offered in Secretarial Science. Placement service for graduates, with the number of employment calls showing an increase in 1931.

Accounting and Business Administration Courses leading to B.C.S. and M.C.S. degrees given under an able staff of Certified Public Accountants, University Graduates and Attorneys-At-Law.

Write or call for information about summer session courses.

204 Colleges and Universities Represented In Annual Student Body Enrollment of 1,600.

STRAYER COLLEGE
719 13TH ST.-NATIONAL 1748
WASHINGTON, D.C.
CATALOG UPON REQUEST

The principal was testing the knowledge of the kindergarten class, slapping a half dollar on the desk, he asked sharply, "What is that?"

A shrill voice from the rear immediately answered, "Tails."—Annapolis Log.

Willis.... Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-272

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service at Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville, Va.

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Manageemnt
W. T. SMITH, Mgr. and Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 255

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From

Verser's

THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Electric Shoe Shop

WILL FIX YOUR SHOES
WHILE YOU WAIT
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go to Wade's

For
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

WHITE
GREEN
RED
BLUE
$1.59
U.S. SPORT SANDALS
Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

Lovely new two piece suits, all pastel colors Very special $1.98
Hats to Match 1.00
The new basket weave shoes to match ..... $1 & $1.98
We have reduced pajamas You will love them at $1
White, blond, and brown crepe sole oxfords $1.98 & $2.98

The Hub Department Store

GREEN AND WHITE WIN FIELD DAY

Green and White won the Field and Track meet held Monday at 2:15 P. M. The Red and White furnished close competition ending with total points of 51 as compared with the 52 points of the winning colors.

The outstanding features of the meet were the breaking of two college records. Kathleen Hundley bettered her own record of 198 ft in baseball distance throw to 207 ft. Mary Gregory broke the shot put record of 29 ft. 3 1-3 in. in a throw of 32 ft. 3 in.

Mary Fraser took second place in baseball distance throw, G. Boggs, third, and L. Mattox, fourth.

Second place in shot put was won by Burger, third, by Cooper and fourth, by Mattox.

Goldie Boggs made a jump of 14 ft. 4 in. for first place in running broad jump. Souders and Ridgway tied for second place and Edwards took fourth.

Souders came up with a jump of 31 ft. 4 in. taking first place in the hop-step-jump. Ridgway took second, while Wright and Dickinson took 3rd and 4th respectively.

Gregory and Hutchinson jumped 4 ft. 4 in. tieing for winner in the running high jump. Massey, Snedegar, Fraser and Foster tied for second place with a jump of 4 ft. 2 in.

The winner in hurdles was Lucille Crute. Marguerite Massey came in second. Cooper, third, and Walthall, fourth.

Frances Edwards won the javelin throw with a record of 63 ft. 3 in. Dot Snedegar came in second. Hurt, third and Burger, fourth.

Gregory ran up with first place in the 100 yard dash. Burger came in second, Boggs, third and Crute, fourth.

The Juniors won in the class relay. The winning team consisted of Gregory, Crute, Massey and Walthall. The Sophomore team took second place with Boggs, Fraser, Wright and Burger running.

The individual winner of the meet was Mary Gregory with 14 points. Goldie Boggs took second place, Souders, third and Burger, fourth.

The points according to classes were:

Freshmen—8.
Sophomores—32 1-2.
Juniors—44.
Seniors—18 1-2.

These results speak for themselves of the work in field and track done by all four classes.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB TO GIVE RADIO PROGRAM

Continued from page one

The program:

Orchestra
News of the day ..... Lowell Thomas
Kate Smith ..... Mrs. Lewis Dahl
Wills Bros. ..... Billy Burger
Ray Perkins ..... Mrs. W. Gould
Rudy Vallee ..... George Young
Flame Dance, Mrs. W. C. Fitzpatrick
Eddie Cantor ..... Delia Grant
Legion Quartet ..... American Legion
International Chorus .. Bus. Quartet
Part II—Farmville Silver Band
Roses of Arcady .... Miss Irene Leake
Rose of No Man's Land ..... Solo
Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses
Mrs. O. H. Whitten
My Wild Irish Rose ..... Solo
When You Love a Tulip ..... Dance
Mighty Lak a Rose .... Mrs. McClintic
Moonlight and Roses Alice Hardaway

Jerry: "I had to walk seven miles last night to get back to school."
Joe: "For goodness sake."
Jerry: "Of course."

SOPHS AND FROSH PLAY BASE BALL

The Sophomores defeated the Freshmen in a hard-fought and interesting game Monday afternoon. At the end of the first inning the score stood 3-0 in favor of the Freshmen, and they stayed ahead until the end of third inning when the score was tied. After that the Sophomores continued to raise their score, and at the end of the game it stood 13 to 8. Both teams played an excellent game.

The line-up was as follows:

Freshmen		Sophomores
Davis	c	Burger
Hurt	p	Boggs
Mottley (c)	1b	Nelson
Wheeler	2b	Gwaltney (c)
Williamson	3b	Fraser
L. Mattox	ss	Dickinson
A. Mattox	lf	Edmonds
Hutchinson	cf	Kello
McDaniel	rf	Wright

Y. W. C. A. GIVES SING SATURDAY NIGHT

The topic of the week, the Blue Ridge Conference, was carried out in "Sing" Saturday night. Clever stunts brought from the Conference were given.

The closing feature was the crowning of the most popular girl of the four classes, Belle Lovelace, freshman; Martha Kello, sophomore; Alice Moore, junior; Ruth Floyd, senior.

This program afforded much pleasure and amusement to the student body.

Miss Nichols Talks at Prayers

Miss Nichols brought a message from the Blue Ridge Conference to the girls at prayers Wednesday night. In her talk she reflected a great deal of the spiritual feel inf an inspiration found in the atmosphere of Blue Ridge.

SACRED RECITAL AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The last sacred recital of the school year will be given in the Presbyterian church following the regular service Sunday evening, May 29. Included in the program will be several organ solos, among them Schubert's Serenade, and selections by the Hampden-Sydney Glee Club, Business Men's Chorus, College String Trio, Junior Quartet, Farmville Male Quartet, Mrs. C. B. Beck, and an invitation has been extended to Mr. Whittemore of Richmond to take part.

The recital promises to be one of the best ever given in this series.

Faculty, students, and friends are cordially invited.

NEW MEMBERS OF ALPHA PHI SIGMA

Continued from page one

Winifred Pugh
Ann Putney
Louise Woodson
Katherine Walton
Dorothy Weems
Birdie Wooding

The chapter is pleased to announce that Dr. J. L. Jarman and Miss Jennie M. Tabb have been chosen as honorary members of the organization.

"Uhuh!" she replied, slipping a piece of broiled himi into her mouth.—Clinton (Mo.) Democrat.

Epitaph for a Janitor

Inured to dust
I may continue
Sleeping. —Life

ECO THEATRE

PROGRAM MAY 26 TO JUNE 4

THURS. & FRI.—JOAN CRAWFORD and ROBERT MONTGOMERY in "LETTY LYNTON". Beautiful Joan Crawford here gives what many critics believe to be the most impressive performance of her career. Fired by her former lover and her husband-to-be, she takes a course that leads to the very brink of tragedy. Put yourself in her place—a girl's dream of love realized—only to be enacted by a past indiscretion. A thrilling, moving love story with the two stars at their very best. It's hot, so be careful. EXTRA ADDED ATTRACTION—BING CROSBY in "DREAM HOUSE."

SAT.—PEGGY SHANNON, JAMES DUNN and SPENCER TRACY in "SOCIETY GIRL". Here's the picture of romance and punches revolving about the tangled hearts of a boy of the masses and the girl of the classes. She was a bored heiress looking for a thrill. He an ambitious youth eager for life. Fate threw them together and love did the rest. It's fast; it's snappy, and Spencer Tracy is all there in this one. You'll like it immensely. Also Screen Souvenir, Fox News and Aesop Fable.

NEXT MON. & TUES.—"NIGHT COURT" with ANITA PAGE, PHILLIPS HOLMES, WALTER HUSTON and LEWIS STONE. "I am innocent. I tell you—I never saw the man in my life." Framed! Such things can be and you'll be intensely interested in this absorbing story of a happily married young couple whose lives are accidentally shadowed by the Vice Ring. A pretty young wife framed. A husband who backed his faith with fists. So true, so tender, so touching is their love, that their joy is your joy; their tears are your tears. From a true story and enacted by a great cast of players. A grand picture you should not miss. Also Chapter 7 "Air Mail Mystery" and Paramount News.

NEXT WED.—ROBERT MONTGOMERY in "BUT THE FLESH IS WEAK." Return showing by popular demand. If you missed this splendid picture when it was shown here recently, now is your chance to see Bob Montgomery in a picture made to order for him. It's fast, spicy and romantic. Also Boy Friends Comedy, "Too Many Women."

NEXT THURS. & FRI.—RAMON NAVARRO in "HUDDLE" supported by Madge Evans and that funny Southern girl, Una Merkel. Here's an up-to-the-minute college story with the handsome Navarro as the hero and Madge Evans as the sweetheart. It is made to order for a college town and every student here will appreciate and thoroughly enjoy this picture. We had difficulty securing it before school closes and it will be shown here almost before the rest of the country sees it. A farewell treat before you leave Farmville. ADDED ATTRACTION—BING CROSBY in "The Bill Board Girl." Hear and SEE Bing sing.

NEXT SAT.—WARNER BAXTER in "MAN ABOUT TOWN," supported by KAREN MORLEY and CONWAY TEARL. Here you will see the inner circle of aristocratic and diplomatic Washington, with Warner Baxter in an entirely different role than he has ever appeared in; and you'll like him more than ever, as the man about town. Women are his pawns when he plays his game of romance and intrigue, yet the lips of the girl he loved guarded a secret that threatened to rock the embassies and inner sanctums of the Capital. Also Aesop Fable, Fox latest News and Comedy.

DAILY MATINEES at 4 P. M. Evenings at 8 o'clock. Saturday matinees continuous from 2:15 to 6 P. M.

ADMISSION: Adults 35c at nights and 25c at Matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

MONOGRAM CLUB ELECTS NEW MEMBERS

On May 24, the Monogram Club formally initiated the following new members:

Laurie Boush
Louise Clayton
Nell Clingenpeel
Annie Ruth Cooper
Mary Burgess Fraser
Mary Gregory
Delia Mattox
Chrystie Stokes

CLASES TIE FOR THE COLOR CUP

Continued from page three

and, after a series of elimination matches, the semi-final and final matches were reached. The singles championship was won by Snedegar.

With the spring quarter, came, perhaps, the most important part of the whole tennis season. The doubles tournament was held, and the championship was won by Snedegar-Hurt. Twenty girls signed up for this tournament, and a great deal of interest was taken in it.

A varsity tennis team was selected for the first time, this year, and the first intercollegiate match was played at Blackstone on April 27. The S. T. C. team won 5-2.

The 1931-1932 tennis season has been very successful, and with the interest and cooperation of the entire student body, the season of 1932-1933 will prove even more so!

DEBATE CLUB HAS PICNIC ON THE RIVER

If you want to have a lot of fun next year, start thinking right now about trying out for the Debate Club next fall. The old members can testify to this after the delightful time they had down on the Appomattox River roasting weenies last Thursday afternoon.

The there were jokes by Margaret DeShazo and Margaret Banks that gave a hints about the happenings in the private affairs of some of our popular members, Mr. Holton and Dr. Walmsley. After the laughing died away everyone joinined singing old familiar songs until time to return to school.

Margaret Hix, the new president has inpired the club members with new zal and enthusiasm. Next fall the club expects to start out early to work. Much material is needed as there will be three questions debated next year. Begin thinking right away about trying out for varsity. This is an excellent opportunity and we want many others to join us in our work and in our play.

Epitaph for a Mystery Story Writer

The usual plot . . .
X marks
The final spot —Life

Southside DrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh Films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We Use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best SANDWICHES —and— DRINKS —in— FARMVILLE

Martin the Jeweler

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia.

C. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD THINGS TO EAT AND DRINK

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice Phone 98

S. A. Legus

TAILORING
CLEANING
AND PRESSING

Farmville, Va.

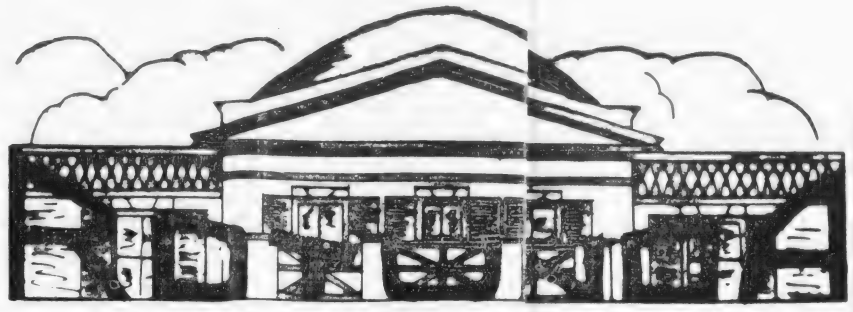
GRADUATION DRESSES—SHOES—AND WRAPS

Baldwin's takes pleasure in presenting the finest array of graduation apparel ever offered by us. Every school and college appreciates such fine things when they come from "The Style Shop for Ladies."

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE · STORE

COMMENCEMENT DRESSES

Our buyer has just returned from New York where she bought the latest style Commencement Dresses. They are on display at our store now.



Come in and see the wonderful variety which we offer at just three low prices . . . .

$2.88 $4.88 and $7.88

NEW YORK DRESS STORES

FARMVILLE, VA. DANVILLE, VA.

SENIORS! DON'T FORGET!?

COME OUT FOR HOCKEY!

Volume VI. THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1932 Number 1

S. T. C. WELCOMES FRESHMEN!

Student Governm'nt Will Conduct Classes For The Freshmen

Orientation Classes For New Students To Be Held September 26-October 1

HONOR CODE SIGNED OCT. 3 & 4

The Student Government Association will conduct a series of orientation classes for all new students, September 26-30 from 6:45 to 7:30 P. M. An examination on the material covered in these classes will be given on Saturday, October 1 at 2:00 P. M. The signing of Honor Code will take place in the Student Council room on October 3 and 4 at 11:00 P. M.

The object of the orientation classes is to familiarize new students with the Honor System, whose purpose is "to preserve the student honor and to unite the students of the school for efficient living and for training in personal responsibility, self control, and loyalty in the student body," to teach the Handbook, and to acquaint them with the customs and traditions of S. T. C. It is the purpose of the Association to eliminate by these classes any questions from the minds of new students and to help them become acclimated as quickly as possible.

The Association also wishes to establish in the heart of every new girl the respect that every old girl has for the Honor Code. Each old girl feels her responsibility in helping the new students understand and love the Code to such an extent that she will never fail to uphold it in any phase of student life.

The Freshman Advisory Board, composed of twenty outstanding and capable Juniors and Seniors will conduct the class with the aid of faculty members whom they have chosen to advise them.

The Association feels that one week is inadequate orientation so will continue these classes at intervals throughout the first quarter. Plans are being made for these classes which promise to be most interesting and beneficial.

Log Cabin is Built At Longwood for S.T.C. Recreation

A log cabin presented by last year's sophomore and senior classes has made Longwood, already a favorite spot of recreational interest and beauty to S. T. C. students and friends, even more atractive.

This 24. ft by 36 ft. log cabin built this summer has been made most natural looking by the color of its painting, its large rock fire-place, and hearth, and its railed-in porch. The location of the cabin among the shrubs and trees also adds to its beauty.

This historical spot has already been the scene of many memorial social functions. With such a lovely log cabin, Longwood will continue to be a recreational center. Besides its natural beauty, there is Longwood

Continued on page three

Farmville Students Attend Conference At Blue Ridge

The annual conference of the Y. W. C. A. of the Southern District was held at Blue Ridge, N. C., June 7-16. Among the delegates from the colleges of this district were seven delegates from S. T. C.: Winston Cobb, Sue Yeaman, Edith Shanks, Lucille Ingram, Honey Hamilton, Helen Smith and Dr. J. E. Walmsley.

Those attending the conference were fortunate in having the privilege of listening to many prominent speakers of the day. Their messages sank deep into the hearts of their audiences and there kindled a flame that will burn towards the solution of vital problems that confront the world today.

Miss Winifred Wygal gave the opening address of the conference. She urged each student while attending the conference to make a map of her own private life. The adventurer along life's pathway must have a map; he must carefully watch his right and left turns.

Probably the most inspiring and beneficial phases of each day's program were the discussion groups conducted by such men as Mr. Raymond Currier, Student Volunteer Secretary of New York; Dr. Sylvanus Duvall of Vermont; Dr. Robert Miles of Lynchburg; Mr. Raymond Paty of Emory University, and Dr. Willard Uphaus of Yale. Each person attending these groups was urged and encouraged to speak frankly her own thoughts. Thoughts too deep for words were planted, which may in the future "spring forth an abundant harvest."

The Association Hours were very helpful. These were discussion groups conducted especially for Y. W. C. A.

Continued on page three

College Choir Will Give State Concerts

The College Choir, the outstanding musical organization of the college, has already made plans for its work which will bring more glory and recognition to our Alma Mater Carrying out the plan inaugurated last year, the choir expects to give three broadcasts and six or more concerts in various cities of the state In presenting these broadcasts and concerts, an interest unattainable by any other measure is focused on the college. This is the first time a college choir has been organized at S. T. C. Only upperclassmen who have shown outstanding ability in the choral club are eligible to become members of this choir. The Choral Club will still be in operation, however, and will serve as an apprenticeship to those underclassmen who aspire to membership in the choir, and also will be an outlet for those lovers of music with not quite so much ability.

Ruth Ford who has already shown her ability as a leader in other collegiate activities is president of the choir. With so capable a president and the cooperation of the student body the choir should be able to serve nobly for her Alma Mater.

JOAN OF ARC

Just as Joan led her people to victory in days of old—so she stands today—the patron saint of S. T. C.—to lead her daughters onward and upward in loyalty, success and happiness!

CALENDAR

Thursday, Sept. 22
Regular class work begins

Friday, Sept. 23
Y. W. C. A. reception ..... 8 P. M.

Saturday, Sept. 24
Sing immediately after dinner

Sunday, Sept. 25
Morning Watch immediately after breakfast.

Monday, Sept. 26
6:45-7:30—Orientation classes begin and continue through

Wednesday, September 28
Prayers every night immediately after dinner.
4 P. M.—Hockey practice
7:00 P. M.—Virginian staff meeting

Tuesday, Sept. 27
10 P. M.—Student Council meets.

Wednesday, Sept. 28
7:00 P. M.—Rotunda staff meeting

Patronize the advertisers of The Rotunda!

Work on 'Virginian' Is Well Under Way

The 1933 Virginian—college annual had its official beginning last May. All of the old girls are rather familiar with the workings, but to the freshmen, they may be a bit strange. This annual is not published by a small group of girls in entirety but by a group of girls selected by the student body, working for the student body. The staff tries to make it a book, truly representative of S. T. C. This is impossible without the help of every student—quite a number of opportunities to help are furnished everyone.

Every staff begins its work with "achievement" as its goal—greater achievement than those that have preceded. The 1933 staff put their heads together long ago, and planned features that will interest every one. Whether these plans can be carried out is yet to be seen!

About the middle of October, "The Virginian photographer will come to S. T. C.—and she's expecting to take a large number of pictures. Freshmen! and old girls—make a place in your colege budget for the photographer's fee and, incidentally a subscription fee, too!

New Students Are Welcomed by the Student Body

School Opens With Large Enrollment Of Freshmen From All Parts of the State

PEP MEETING IS HELD

During the whole of yesterday old students, faculty, and administration were welcoming an unusually large number of freshmen and new girls to S. T. C. Members of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet met each train, showed new girls where to matriculate, took them to their rooms, and gave them any information needed. Signs put up by the Y. W. C. A. pointed out important parts of the college, such as the post office, the auditorium, and the dining room.

Dr. Jarman, Miss Jennie, Miss Shelton and others of the administration were present to greet incoming students, while Mr. Bell, representing the faculty, remained all day in the Rotunda for that purpose.

At the student body meeting last night, after the "Alma Mater" was sung, Miss Potts expressed pleasure at having so many new girls at college. Jane Royall told how glad the student body was to receive the new girls and introduced the following "celebrities": Winston Cobb, Dorothy Snedegar, Hattie Gilliam, Martha Gunter, Mary Thomas Rawls, Helen Cover, Margaret Gathright, Margaret Parker, and Mary Hood. Each of these extended a hearty welcome to the new student from their respective organizations.

Then Jane introduced another "famous" person—Alice Moore—who led the old girls in fifteen "rahs" for the freshmen. There were more yells and

Continued on page three

President's Message To New Students At Start of Session

Dr. Jarman extends the following mesage to our new students:

"You are entering college, most of you, for the first time; you are going into new surroundings, new work, new experiences and have before you a year that is rich in opportunities—how are you going to use them?

We bid you, individually and collectively, a hearty welcome; we are glad to have you with us and hope that from the very beginning you will feel that you a part of the college—you are an important unit of the student body and have it in your power to make yourself felt as an influence among your fellow students.

I like to know the students, especially the new ones, and hope you will feel free to come to my office at any time and to call on me if I can be of any assistance to you in any way.

Wishing for you a very happy and successful year,

Yours very truly,
J. L. JARMAN, President."

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia.

Published by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year.

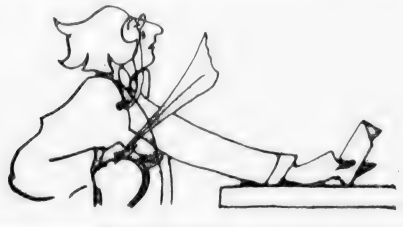
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
Associate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... LELIA MATTOX, '35
Literary Editor ..... NELL DICKINSON '34
Athletic Editor ..... MARY JESS RICHMOND, '33
World News Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY '33
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY KATHRYN TAYLOR '35
Social Editor ..... DOREEN SMITH '33
Art Editor ..... GERTRUDE SUGDEN, '34
Feature Editors ..... BIRDIE WOODING '35
MARY SHELTON, '34
Humorous Editor ..... BELLE LOVELACE '35
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



PELA KUTZ '35 DOROTHY WOOLWINE '34 SARAH ROWELL '33
WINIFRED PUGH '35 CARRIE DESHAZO '33
MARGARET COPENHAVER '34
Proof Reader ..... ELIZABETH VASSAR '35
Assistant Proof Reader ..... KATHERINE WALTON '35

Managers

Business Manager ..... FRANCES POTTS '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY '34
Circulation Manager ..... ELIZABETH WALTHALL '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... FRANCES HORTON '34

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matters should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Bon Voyage!

This French idiom has been adopted all over the world as an expression of good wishes or literally "good voyage." It is used in many ways—to wish one well on a voyage, to wish one well in an undertaking, and to wish one well in life. The expression really conveys the thought of wishing one to possess the qualities necessary for a "bon voyage." Let us think of these qualities. The first is honesty, in every sense of the word: in business, on the play-ground, and in private life. Cooperation and consideration for others are two other qualities without which a "bon voyage" is impossible. Selfishness is almost a universal fault, but when we are selfish, our conscience pricks. If this happens and one heeds the warning he is said to be "filled with consideration" for others. "Man cannot live alone" may be applied in a new sense here, for one must cooperate with those with whom he comes in contact in order not to hit the rock of desolation and friendlessness. Consideration and cooperation is hard to develop but with will power and willingness to work one finds himself possessed not only of these but also that invaluable one—loyalty. This bring to mind those two desirable characteristics known as wil power and willingness to work—without which we find ourselves a dismal failure. In starting a task, a job, a life's work, or anything worth while if we remember these virtues: honesty, loyalty, cooperation, unselfishness, will power and willingness to work, we may avoid many rocks on which our ship would otherwise strike, and in the end we can say thankfully "I really had a "bon voyage."

To Freshmen who are just starting their college career, we sincerely and earnestly wish them all of these qualities that make up a truly great person, and with these qualities we wish and predict for them a "bon voyage."

DOT AND DASH

So This Is College!

Sobdy pinch me; I can't take it itaybe it's a reality, but I'm doul. Honestly, I never dreamed so nr girls even existed, much less got ather at one time. I've seen som the grandest looking clothes todI wonder who those people are ing in now. Bet they're old girlsey seem so glad to see everybodyouldn't it be mar-ve-lous to see ebody you know? This room surelks queer sans curtains and the al junk. Just needs some pennand pillows and snapshots and thinto give it that collegeiate atmosre that you read about. Funny, shouldn't have expected to findngs looking like a picture in a magne, but I did.

Mhat campus looks huge. And the ldings, they're positively enormous. hat on earth do they do with so m house? Well, I guess it takes a loor all the girls around here. ThoY. W. girls were the swellest thin They must have been Freshmence, because they didn't take for nted that I knew what to do and ere to go, etc. I'm dizzy now fronhasing down halls and up stepsarching for this room. Wonder w long it would take you to go over this place. I'd be scared to down the hall without a string tied my finger and my door knob, but at if the string should break!

Hens, what became of those pape "Don't dare lose them." Lost, surehot, but for the life of me I can'nink where I put them. Oh, yeahf course, here they are.

Wl Wh-where's the fire?? Great day, m scramming. Why hello! Whe am I going in such a hurry? Leav,—the building's on fire. Didn't y hear that bell?

Noe? Just the dinner bell! I was all rey to skip this place. What did you ? Yeah, I'm Torchie Travers. You y big sister! Greetings; how are u? Just a minute, and I'll be readto go down to dinner.

Sa did it make you feel sorta funnnside last year when you first got he? I had the queerest sensation wen I entered the Rotunda today. irls, swarms of them, and I didn know a single one. The halls just ade my head swim.

Soose men are some of the college ofessors, eh? 'Deed they do look holastic.

Aryou quite sure there's not a fire mewhere around? Just listen to althat din and clatter. Somethingxciting is happening. No, about to hapen? Well, of all things, eating nst be one of the main sources of extement here.

Soe I'll think so, too? Well, maybe. I pretty keen on eats. O, listen, do allcollege girls get fat? They tell me ty do. I've sworn not to, but gee, m starving. How long before we ed?

AEN'T YOU GLAD TO?

Beack in college.

Spk to Dr. Jarman and Miss Jennie.

SeeMiss Mary and the Home Office aff.

Me the faculty members on the halls.

SeeWinston Cobb and Jane Royall and te others.

Haz your favorite pictures again.

Tal things over with your best pal.

Get your favorite drink at the Southide.

Goto the post office just before dinne.

Shv off a new frock by promenading in front of the college.

Buter a delicious Farmville roll.

SeeMr. McCorkle with stacks of program cards.

Devur the "for sales" on the bulletin oard.

Chae all over school for a second hand overnment book.

Jokewith Cousin Tommy.

Rollout of bed five minutes before breakfast.

Dancein the rec after dinner

Atend your class meeting.

Be with the old gang.

—Ad read a Rotunda.

SO AM I!

Sir ames Barrie has proposed a three-round boxing match between himself as chancellor, and the principal of the University of Edinburgh, in Edinburgh, Scotland, but has received no reply to his challenge.

The first dictionary was one in the Chinese language.

AROUND CAMPUS
With the Gossiper

We have some new girls from the Ueanut City! We should worry about nuts, so far Petersburg has been good to us!

Speaking of Petersburg, reminds me that the nearby town of Waverly is sending some new scholars, and quite a fair one at that, when you see Jane Coulbourn.

We have a large number of freshmen from Norfolk, SSuffolk, Newport News, Portsmouth and Smithfield. Not a bad looking group, either!

From the ocean and from the mountains they come, all gathering at Ye Olde College.

From out of the west comes Louise Whiteheartse,
A little freshman who has outgrown her nurse;
But considering eve nthat you can not bar
From flocking around her more than one Lochinvar!

The ole Gossip Hound is getting poetic! (The Lochinvars, referred to are some of those dashing H. S. boys.)

We have a large crop of bright freshmen this year.

Which brings to mind the freshman, who when asked what —XXX meant, answered "Love and kisses."

WHO THEY REALLY ARE

Honey Hamilton .. Virginia Hamilton
Barney Barnes ..... Lois Barnes
Roho Barker ..... Margaret Barker
Tots Smith ..... Josephine Smith
Jennie Knight ..... Jenilee Knight
Tony Jones ..... Antoinette Jones
Knubby Knaub ..... Evelyn Knaub
Bock Copenhaver .....
..... Margaret Copenhaver
Berk Nelson .... Mary Berkley Nelson
Con Conway ..... Mary Conway
Wyc Scott ..... Wycliff Scott
Roomie Gwaltney, Mildred Gwaltney
Empty Rawls .... Mary Thomas Rawls
Jake Woolwine .... Dorothy Woolwine
Chick Mosby ..... Corrine Mosby
A. Moore ..... Alice Moore

ACCOUNT OF THE GRADUATES OF 1932

Although news has not been received from all the graduates in the degree class of 1932, those from whom word has come are:

Virginia Bailey, teaching in Isle of Wight;
Frances Barrel, teaching in Buckingham;
Virginia Bledsoe, dietician in the Maryland School for the Blind;
Louise Clayton, teaching in Crewe;
Ella Sloms Clore in Madison;
Frances Crawford in Portsmouth;
Nancy DeBerry in Portsmouth;
Louise Elliott in Naruna;
Susie Vann Floyd in Darlington Heights;
Virginia Fultz in The Hollow;
Hazel Galloway in Amelia;
Ruth Hunt in Calloway;
Louise Johnson in Skipwith;
Ellen Earle Jones in Sperryville;
Frances Lancaster in Herndon;
Lucie Anne Lane in Powhatan;
Irene Meador in Wise,
Nan Mears in Accomac;
Mary Pearson in Bristol, Tenn.;
Eloise Perkins in Blackstone;
Cleo Quisenberry in Moneta;
Anne Rice in Blackstone;
Doris Robertson in Church Road,
Katherin Rodgers in the training school of Virginia Intermont College;
A. J. Scott in Jewell Ridge;
Nancy Shaner in Murot;
Lillian Shepherd in Bluefield, W. Va.
Flossie Smith in Hillsville;
Annie Laurie Stone, supervisor at Cumberland;
Chappell Weisiger in Schoolfield;
Lindsay White in Montebella;
Annie V. Williams in Norfolk;
Jane Witt in Alexandria;
Coralelle Womeldorf in Glasgow.

One tim to another, from the sanctuay of a park bench: "Come, and see me, old man. Bench number nine. (True Southern hospitality, what??). —College Humor.

WELCOME

With a sadness and a gladness
With a cheer for old and new
We gather again at old S. T. C.
Friendships and tasks to renew.

A cheery welcome to our new friends
A warm greeting to them all
May they have such bright happiness
As on us others does befall.

May those who are returning
Help others through joy and sorrow
And cause these other adventurers
To se glory in the morrow.

SEPTEMBER

Silky white seeds of the thistle float through the air.
Quietly blowing, the warm west wind
Caresses the graceful golden-rods glowing along the lane.
Over the earth the mellow sunshine lies like a halo of glory.

A. E. V., '35

YOUR LETTERS

The little chest you gave to me
Contains your letters now;
They're all there—thirty-four and three.
(I shall not croy—I vow).

Each is a little part of you.
Each little letter sweet;
I wonder why I feel so blue
And life seems incomplete.

I wonder too, since you have gone
Why all my days are sad
And seem to last so very long
And nothing makes me glad.

I read your letters every one,
And end each with a sigh.
A tear escapes when I am done.
(I knew that I would cry.)

D. C. R., '35

REVERIE

There is a moon tonight . . . .
There is a silver star . . .
And you have promised, dear,
That you would come from far
Again to me, if bright
There shone a moon, if clear
There was an evening star . . .
The star is clear . . .

A. E. V., '35

To you—little Freshmen—so sad and so lone
Sure—you're feeling, oh, so terribly blue
But—cheer up—smile and be happy whew!
Look what this old world might be doing to you!

S—Miles—S

BLUE RIDGE

(With apologies to Tennyson)

Mountains to right of them,
Mountains to left of them,
Straight up to Blue Ridge
Rode seven delegates.

What should they meet there?
Whom should they greet there?
What work complete there?
Asked they these questions.

Up to the Lee Hall
Blue sky above all,
Near trees and waterfall—
Thus did they enter.

There, with their guidign hands,
Leaders from many lands
Forged strong and friendly bands
With other nations.

And with their truth and might,
Guided Youth's thought aright,
Showed Youth the Shining Light.
Wonderful Blue Ridge!

They'll always love it there,
Haven of peace and prayer,
With friendship's ties so rare,
Beautiful Blue Ridge!

In this time of depression,
Ill fate and destitution,
Let us give some expression
Of gratitude, and restitution
To do our best.

Let's serve our Institution
And each organization
To avoid disillusion.
And will find inspiration
To do our best.

Y. W. COLUMN

The following girls will lead prayers next week:

Wednesday, Sept. 21—Jane Royall.
Thursday, Sept. 22—Winston Cobb.
Monday, Sept. 26—Hattie Gilliam.
Tuesday, Sept. 2—Dot Snedegar.
Wednesday, Sept. 28—Mary Rawls
Thursday, Sept. 29—Martha Gunter.

Freshmen! And new girls! Watch for the "tours" on Wednesday afternoon. Learn about your school!

And come to Sing Saturday night—No, you don't have to sing.

Have you any questions you wish to ask? Make use of the Y. W. Information Desk.

BLUE RIDGE

High up on a hill
Amazed, I stood still
And gazed into the great beyond,
Where mountains rose and kissed the sky,
And Blue Heavens encircled them on high.
Stately trees near by me stood—
And wonderment held me fast.
A lake I saw in a ravine below
The sunlight glistening and creating a show
By reflecting these beauties of earth and sky
And returning them to the watcher's eye.
I could not help but look up there
To Him who made these glories here.

Helen Smith

"HIGH TOP"

After leaving a note to the night watchman to be called at 3 A. M. the Farmville delegation at Blue Ridge slept peacefully.

"Honey, get up! Didn't you hear the night watchman knocking and my alarm clock ringing? Winston and I are almost dressed," yelled Edith.

"Ho hum! This mountain climbing is great, but I was just dreaming about the nice trip we had over to Montreat yesterday and the talk we had coming home. Get up! Helen, here come Sue and Lucille after us. Are you going to wear a sweater?"

"Sure, I'm going to wear a sweater, but I still insist this climb up the mountain is too much for one who is to play in the tennis tournament. You'd better be resting up yourself, Honey, for the swimming meet."

"Gee! aren't there a lot of people going? Why here comes Dr. Walmsley and he's all dressed up for mountain climbing."

So the half asleep and half awake crowd left Robert E. Lee Hall and started up the mountain. It wasn't long until Winston and Dave, Sue and Arberry, Honey and Bod (needless to mention last names) found mountain climbing much easier in groups of two.

"Look out! Lucille slipped. But who wouldn't on a straight up climb at 3:30 A. M.? The climb continued over rocks that grew bigger and bigger until finally a little cabin was reached. At last! a real mountain top and at just the right time to see the sunrise.

Seated and resting, our party discussed the usual topic of how good that Blue Ridge breakfast would taste when we returned. Someone was so tired that she even suggested sleeping during the morning devotionals. Winston, however, was sure they would miss something good and everyone agreed with her.

Mr. Matthews' wonderful talk of the previous evening on "Race Relations" was next discussed. Hans Strok, a German student in the crowd gave some interesting comments.

Soon in all its splendor Sol appeared. For a moment all was silent.

Blue Ridge is a wonderful place, and more than ever on High Top we were conscious of the divine power we worship there.

Helen Smith

DRAMATICS

Of course you are interested in dramatics! And why shouldn't you be? Is there anything as exciting and enticing as the thought of your acting before a large crowd or of seeing someone you know perform on the stage? Here at S. T. C. you have an opportunity to do just that thing for there exists a wonderful Dramatic Club that produces wonderful plays which are directed by a wonderful coach, Miss Leola Wheeler. Each year two plays are given—one in the fall and one in the spring. In the fall play the male parts are taken by member of the Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs. However, in the spring play there are only girls, which provides a chance for more of our girls to act.

What makes our club a success is its unique management. There are six groups or departments: acting, stage setting, make-up, costuming, lighting, and business. The names of these departments give you some idea as to the work of each. You not only learn how to act but how to coach a play. You have a splendid opportunity to use your own ingenuity in the way of making stage scenery and costumes. You will be fascinated with the new lights which we have just bought and paid for by ourselves. Therefore, if you are willing and interested, you may become a member of this club without possessing any outstanding qualities of an actor. In the beginning of school you enter the group or groups you wish where you will act as a sort of an apprentice for a certain length of time. During this time you are given a fair chance to show your ability, and if the executive committee thinks you are capable, you may be duly initiated as a member!

Be thinking about this and listen for the notices which will tell you when and where to come to hear more about this interesting subject.

Also, if you haven't an over-supply of money, start saving your pennies now for the plays! Freshmen, take this as a tip from an upperclassman—they're plenty good and you will not want to miss them!

FRESHMEN!

Beware lest thy breakest the law which has been decreed and demanded of thee:

Thou must extinguish thy light at 10:30 P. M.

Thou shalt go shopping but twice a week.

Thou shalt not go to town on Saturday night.

Thou mayest go to movies on Saturday night.

Thou must "know thy Handbook" and heed its teachings.

Thou must attend prayers and thy church.

Thou must study hard.

Thou must attend all metings demanded of thee.

Thou shoulds't take part in some phase of extra curricula activities.

Thou must not loaf.

S. T. C. STUDENTS ATTEND BLUE RIDGE CONFERENCE

Continued from page one

presidents, treasurers, freshman councilors, and those interested in work related to programs world fellowship, and worship.

Mr. J. B. Matthews, secretary of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, New York City, brought his hearers face to face with the serious situation in which the world finds itself today. The picture was dark, but true.

The conference was delighted to have Hans Strok a student from Germany, in their midst for a few days. He presented some of Germany's problems in vivid language.

Although the serious side of the conference was wonderful the social phase was not neglected. Those who attended will never forget the climb to High Top, step sing, tennis matches, social gatherings during the day, and above all—friends.

"The mountains brought far-off heavens near; falling waters offered a hint of universal symphony; thoughtful messages called to adventure in a mystic power-filled realm of realistic unseen. Laughter and song, fellowship and prayer, the light of new vision in the eyes of youth . . . and in the midst of it all the quiet compelling words of One who "saw life and saw it whole" as no man ever did, "I am the Way, the Truth, the Life . . . . Come, follow Me."

WORLD NEWS

Good times, and bad, are comparative, of course. Still we help rejoicing over the philosophy outlook of one son of wealth found the "depression" beneficial cause, he says, "You've no idea how nomically we can have fun nowadays if we have to. Why, I used think nothing of spending a hundred on a little party and now I manicely on a mere twenty-five!"

Ocean waves created earthquakes sometimes travel at incredible distances. A number have been known to start from South America and reach Japan, a distance of 10,000 miles.

London, it is said has 30 occupations. Probably true! There are numerous old trades still intence, one of which is "knocking"—the job of going around at dayk and awakening patrons by shooting peas at their bedroom windows

In many countries throughout the world graves and crypts still rented by the year. If payments discontinued the caskets are removed and the space relet.

Today's college students who as mere children when prohibition went into effect, "were never taught to know anything about liquor—now have 103 slang words and phrases for intoxication.

Leonardo da Vinci, when painting Mona Lisa, the most famous portrait in the world, worked 12 years on the lips.

At an extremely low temperature snow has such an absorbent quality that it will dry clothes.

When a young lady in the Matia Mountains of Hungary dresses for a party, fashion demands many starched petticoats that she enable to get through the doorway with all of them—dons the last few on the back yard.

One of the most beautiful sights in the night sky is the moonlight rainbow. It is often seen in the Hawaiian Islands and far surpasses the day rainbow in delicacy and softness.

A recent survey made among a large group of American psychologists revealed that 92 per cent of them believe human nature be free of anything instinctive which might make a war between nations inevitable.

NEW STUDENTS ARE WELCOMED AT STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

Continued from page one

songs, and finally there was a yell for the "celebrities" themselves.

State Teachers College
Farmville, Virginia
September 21, 1932

Dear Freshmen and New Girls:

It is with the keenest pleasure that we welcome you to S. T. C. You are a very large part of our Student Body and have an important part to play. Alma Mater has much to offer you and expects your best in return.

We sincerely trust that your stay with us will be most enjoyable and profitable. May you learn to love the Blue and White as we who have been here before do.

Sincerely,
THE STUDENT BODY

BEAUTIFUL LOG CABIN

Continued from page one

Tea Room with its buns and other delicious things to eat.

As the students visit the log cabin this session and in the future, they will want to thank last year's graduating classes for their thoughtfulness and lovely gift to the school.

A COLLEGIATE INSTITUTION
For
BUSINESS TRAINING

QUALIFY for business opportunities with professional training offered in Secretarial Science. Placement service for graduates, with the number of employment calls showing an increase in 1931.

Accounting and Business Administration Courses leading to B.C.S. and M.C.S. degrees given under an able staff of Certified Public Accountants, University Graduates and Attorneys-At-Law.

Write or call for information about summer session courses.

204 Colleges and Universities Represented In Annual Student Body Enrollment of 1,600.

STRAYER COLLEGE
719 13TH ST.-NATIONAL 1748
WASHINGTON, D.C.
CATALOG UPON REQUEST

MR. A. T. GRAY WEDS MISS FLEETA COOPER

Miss Fleeta Cooper of the History Department of the State Teachers College of Farmville was married to Mr. Alexander Trent Gray on Tuesday, September 6 at her sister's home in Atlanta, Georgia.

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service At Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville Va.

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Management
MRS. MARY ROUNDY, Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

TRY A PAIR OF DEXDALE
Beautiful Silk Stockings From
Verser's
THEY GIVE THE BEST WEAR
and
COULDN'T LOOK BETTER

Electric Shoe Shop
Will Fix Your Shoes
While You Wait
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go To Wade's
—For—
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. E. Chappell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
MAIN STREET
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community For Over Half a Century
FINEST TOILET REQUISITES
DRUGS AND STATIONERY

Mack's
"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"
We use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty
BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP
323 Main Street

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE
Lovelace Shoe Shop
110 Third Street

Ezvidson's
HOME OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
Is headquarters for class room needs, bed room furnishings and stylish apparel.
A HEARTY WELCOME TO OUR MIDST
FARMVILLE

"Farmville's Best Place to Shop"
—is at—
—THE HUB—
Come in and get acquainted with us. We welcome you to S. T. C. and Farmville!
MAIN STREET FARMVILLE

JOKES

Alice: "What is your daughter taking up in college this year?"

Mr. Moore: "Space, nothing but space."—Pickin's.

Wife (apologetically): "I took the recipe for this cake right out of the cook book."

Husband (tactfully): "You did quite right, darling. It never should have been put in."—Montreat Star.

Mary Custis fell overboard, and her lover, with her on the excursion, leaned over the side of the boat as she rose to the surface and cried, as she sank for the second time.—"Give me your hand!"

"Please ask Father," she answered, College Humor.

He: "Haven't I met you before? At the Ritz, New Year's eve?"

Dillon: "So that's where I was!"—Pitt Panther.

Coed: "Ted told me you love tomatoes and are a very restless sleeper."

Second Ditto: "I wonder how he knows I love tomatoes."—Cornell Widow.

Freshman from deah old Hampden-Sydney: "May I have the last dance with you?"

Doreen: "You've had it."—W. R. R. C.

Jane Royall's father, touring Europe sent back to his daughter a picture post-card which bore the following message: "Dear Jane: On the other side you will see a picture of the rock from which the Spartans threw their defective children. Wish you were here. . . . Your Dad."—Illinois Siren.

INDIAN WORDS THE TOURISTS SHOULD KNOW

Punjab—To hit a humorist in the jaw.

Pariah—One who prys.

Sikh—Indisposed.

Burma—A kind of shave lather.

Himalaya—Bad English for "he's a lawyer."

Brahma—Our Indian play in two acts.

Burban—A mechanical contrivance run by steam.

Sahib—To sniffle with tears in the eyes.

Rajah—What you get in barber shops.

Ceylon—The top of a room.

Hindustan—To get what a person is saying—Pitt Panther.

Miss Tucker: "Do you know what happened in 1776?"

Freshman (still in a daze over the Y. W. spirit): "1776? Good gosh! I can't even remember what happened last night.—College Humor.

Miss Moran: "What kind of rock is this?"

Harriet Moomaw: "Oh, I just take it for granite."—Northwestern Purple Parrot.

"Well, who do you think of my game?" said the enthusiastic golfer to his girl.

"Oh, it's all right," replied the little darling, "but I still prefer golf."—College Humor.

1933 Hockey Season to Be a at The State Teach College Soon

HOCKEY SEASON TO BEGIN SOON

Freshmen and New Students Are Urged To Come Out and Play

The hockey season for the year 1932-'33 will open September 26 at which time regular practices will begin for everyone.

Freshmen and new students are urged to come out and share the good times enjoyed on the athletic field. The freshman class is expected to bring in a suply of new material, and it is hoped that those upperclassmen who have been interested in sports but who have not taken an active part will do so this year. Many beginners have made the varsity squad, and some have learned to play well enough to make the varsity team.

Many of last year's varsity players graduated. Those on the team who graduated are Cleo Quisenberry, Easter Souders, Frances Edwards and Martha Kello. Other members of the varsity squad graduated, and still others are not returning to school this season. Our varsity goal-keeper of last year, Elizabeth Berger, is not in school this session. This leaves many places open for freshmen and upperclassmen who are willing to work hard and who are interested.

But the varsity is not the only attraction in hockey, for the greatest thrill of one's college career comes on Thanksgiving when one is able to fight for his class, and his colors on the athletic field. The freshmen have won, and every one has an equal chance.

The greatest benefit of hockey, however, is that inner feeling of fun, laughter, health and good sportsmanship that it brings. Who could have evil thoughts with a hockey stick in her hand on a cool autumnal afternoon, and the sweet encouraging voice of Miss Iler making her forget all cares and worries. "Play is a fit preparation for more important tasks." Come out and let us show you how to play!

Hockey Schedule

Freshmen:
4 o'clock—Mon., Wed.
5 o'clock—Tues., Thurs.
Upperclassmen:
4 o'clock—Tues., Thurs.
5 o'clock—Mon., Wed.
General Practice:
4 o'clock and 5 o'clock—Fri.

TENNIS BECOMES MAJOR SPORT AT S. T. C.

Tennis, during the past year, has become a major sport at S. T. C. This year at least two days a week wil be given to practice with instruction as to form, and rules of play. Anyone interested, especially freshmen and new students, is urged to take advantage of this practice.

Each Saturday there will be what is known as a one-day tournament. Those entering wil draw for partners, then playing doubles, play one set to a match. At the end of the day the team having the greatest number of games wins.

Later in the season a varsity team will be selected to represent the school. At present the schedule has not been fully arranged.

Regular practice will begin next week. Sign up for courts on the athletic bulletin board.

American-made corsets are still worn extensively in India.

Fifteen Boy Scouts from London recently took an airplane trip to Paris.

Crime costs Ohio $30,000,000 yearly, according to scoiologists' estimates.

THINOGRAM CLUB

Many you freshmen wil be interested thletics and thus in the Monogr lub. Membership in this club me that one is entitled to wear th hool letters, S. T. C., in monogr orm as well as enjoying other pages of the members.

Requirements

The st ards of the Club are high but with each of all who are willing to y to attain them. To be eligible membership, one must have 40 ints, have passed the physical ficiency tests, have a scholast rage of C, and be passed on sportsship by each member of the clu

Sportsship is emphasized a great deon our college campus. "Play thme to win and play your best, but you lose, be a good loser. It is eas win and smile, but to lose and ile means more" is our motto or other words "sportsmanship alw".

The pical efficiency tests listed in the rments are composed of stunts, f and track events, badge tests, an ten mile hike. Practices for these sponsored by the Monogram Cl every week. Then at certain tim the tests are passed off by Miss r. Everyone should begin coming to these practices early so he wi ave time to pass them all.

Hikes led by members of the club nea every Saturday. There will be ive mile hike this Saturday. Lis to the notices read in the dining r on that day and you will hear the ne and place of departure.

This ne way of winning points towards hletic awards. Be sure to go on five-mile hikes and you will hav 0 points to your credit.

Hiking

Hikin makes one freer and puts the mind leisure. For girls who are not int sted in competitive sports, the Morram Club offers hiking.

There ill be two hikes a week. On Wednesy the hikers will leave at 4 o'clock On Saturday there will be two hik one leaving at 2 o'clock and the ther leaving at 4 o'clock. These hik will differ from those of last yea and will be taken to many differen places.

Freshm, the members of the Monogra Club are expecting great things o you this year. Begin right by comi out to the first Monogram practice at is held and joining us on our be Saturday.

NOTICE

For rther information regarding all sports, read notices posted on the athletic bulletin board, r ask a member of the Athleti Council.

Importe of typewriters into Czecho-Slova a must, according to a new decr , secure permits from a governme commission before they may purcase foreign exchange to make pay ents.

When 4 bookmakers were tried on gambling harges in Belfast, Ireland, police cou recently, 21 justices of the peace and a resident magistrate were on th bench, all declaring the men guilt and 13 voting for fines of $25 eac while 9 favored fines of $50 each.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM SEPT 22 TO 28

WELCOME BACK S. T. C. STUDENTS. BEST WISHES FOR THE COMING TERM!

Thursday, Sept. 22
ROBERT MONTGOMERY
MARION DAVIES
BILLIE DOVE in
"Blondie of The Follies"
SCREEN SOUVENIR—CARTOON

Friday, Sept. 23
MARION NIXON
RALPH BELLAMY
"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm"
FOX NEWS
BETTY BOOP—SCREEN SONG

Saturday, Sept. 24
TOM BROWN
RICHARD CROMWELL
—in—
"Tom Brown of Culver"
Made at Culver Military Academy! A Picture Everyone Should See!
NEWS CARTOONS & SONG

Next Monday and Tuesday
September 26 and 27
JANET CHARLES
Gaynor—Farrell
—in—
"FIRST YEAR"
AESOP FABLE AND NEWS

Next Wednesday, September 28
RICHARD ARLEN
VICTOR McLAGLEN
EDMUND LOWE
—in—
'GUILTY AS HELL'
Chapter 11
RIN-TIN-TIN in the
'Lightning Warrior'
BETTY BOOP CARTOON

Burglars who recently raided historic Bell Inn, Epping, England, are reported to have stolen "2,000 cigarettes, a quantity of spirits, the contents of two hospital collection boxes and the front door key."

High taxation is blamed for the decline of talkie shows in Finland.

India expects a heavy deficit in its railroad budget.

Old Lady: "Why, you bad little boy—throw that cigarette away!"

L. B.: "Lady, are you in the habit of speaking with strange men on the street?"—W. R. R. C.

Two fair hitch hikers were overtaken by darkness and stopped an officer to inquire as to nearest farmhouse that would provide as night's lodging.

"Just take the road to your right," directed the stranger, "and you can't go wrong."

"Are there any other roads?" asked the co-eds in chorus.—Clarkson Green Griffin.

Willis . . . Florist

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Martin JEWELER

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice

PHONE 198

SouthsideDrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

ONE DAY SERVICE

Complete Line Greeting Cards

Just One Block From Campus

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Virginia

G. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us!

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE!

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK

Please send THE ROTUNDA to the address below, for which I am enclosing one dolar and a half ($1.50) which pays my subscription until June, 1933.

Name _____

Address _____

Send blank to FRANCES POTTS, Bus. Mgr. of The Rotunda

BALDWIN'S

"THE STYLE SHOP FOR LADIES"

WELCOME S. T. C. STUDENTS!

We invite you to visit us often

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

RAT WEEK IS COMING!

THE ROTUNDA

POE

CLASS WORK BEGINS IN EARNEST

We Teach To Teach

Volume XIII | THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1932 | Number 2

V. I. P. A. Homecom'g Convention To Be Held at S. T. C.

Over Two Hundred Delegates From Other Colleges and Universities Expected

DOREEN SMITH IS PRESIDENT

A chance to discuss college journalistic problems with students from other institutions in Virginia and the District of Columbia will be one of the detailed projects at the sixth annual convention of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association to be held in Farmville on October 21 and 22, with the Farmville State Teachers College and Hampden-Sydney College entertaining. Indications are that over 200 delegates will be in attendance.

Announcement has been made today of the appointment of Albert Ritchie Gillespie, editor of the 1933 Kaleidoscope at Hampden-Sydney College, as secretary and treasurer of the organization to succeed Joseph E. Lacy, who did not return to college this fall.

Miss Doreen Smith, the president, of the Farmville S. T. C., and Mr. Gillespie are active in making plans for the "home-coming" convention. A full program will be announced at an early date.

It will be remembered that the association was organized in Farmville in February 1928 by Miss Evelyn Dulaney of Roanoke and Alexander Hudgins of Richmond. Both were then students, Miss Dulaney, a senior at the Farmville S. T. C. and Mr. Hudgins a senior at Hampden-Sydney College.

The second convention, February, 1929, was excellently attended and was held at the University of Richmond with Emanuel Emroch, now an attorney in Richmond, as president.

J. T. L. Dickinson, Jr., at one time executive secretary and now honorary president of the association, guided the work of the third convention held jointly at Blacksburg and East Radford with the V. P. I. and East Radford S. T. C. as the entertaining schools. This was in November, 1929.

The fourth convention, held at the College of William and Mary, had William F. Rountree as the directing head. It was at that time that the position of executive secretary was made.

The fifth convention, last November in Lynchburg, with Randolph-Macon Woman's College and Lynch-

Continued on page three

Dramatic Club Begins Its Work

The Dramatic Club held its first meeting on Thursday evening, September 22 for the purpose of introducing itself to the new girls on the campus who are interested in that form of activity. The president, Jenilee Knight, presented the officers of the club and leaders of the various departments, and also the sponsor, Miss Leola Wheeler, who discussed briefly the work and purpose of the club.

Any student may register for the apprentice of three months. Those who have shown interest, faithfulness and ability, are elected into the membership of the club, and are placed in one or more of the departments.

A large number of freshmen attended this meeting. Over eighty

Continued on page three

Senior Class Has Unique Experience

The Senior Class of S. T. C. began their last year at school with a wagon ride to a farm about 2 miles from town Saturday afternoon, September 24.

Leaving college about 3 o'clock, the first two loads rode down Main street behind two prancing teams. The horses disregarded traffic lights and rushed headlong through town bearing the screaming girls on the first weinie roast of the season.

It was necessary for some of the seniors to scramble down and walk up the hills to rest the horses; this was only part of the fun. They finally reached the appointed place, a very beautiful spot beside the Appomattox River where the fun really began. As to that, ask Margaret Bell! Margaret was very individual and succeeded in exciting the group by falling into the river and getting her shoes damp.

Firewood was gathered, the huge bonfires were lit and the toasting of the weinies began. Weinies and dopes began to disappear so fast that

Continued on page three

College Choir Has Its First Meeting

On Tuesday night the newly-organized College Choir met for first time. The following girls compose the membership of the choir:

Jeanallen Bowles
Carrie DeShazo
Lottie Dixon
Ruth Ford
Edna Hatcher
Louise Hyde
Ruth Jordan
Dorothy Justus
Barbara Kester
Mary McCarn
Clara Mistr
Margaret Murry
Mary Norman
Frances Potts
Anne Putney
Marian Raine
Lois Rhodes
Mary Jess Richmond
Marianna Robinson
Alice Rodgers
Bernice Scott

Continued on page three

FRESHMAN INITIATION? YES OR NO?

Next week, starting Oct. 3, will be Debate Club week. Freshmen tryouts will be held on Thursday night, October 6 at 7 o'clock in the Student Building auditorium.

The question for debate is: "Resolved, That there Should be Freshman Initiation." Each person will speak not more than five minutes, one minute of which is to be used for rebuttal.

Initiation of new members will be held on Friday night following tryouts. Every freshman or new girl that is interested in debating or public speaking is urged to try out.

COLLEGE ORCHESTRA PLANS BIG PROGRAM

The State Teachers College Orchestra held its regular try-outs Monday afternoon at which time a number of new members were added. This year promises to be one of the most successful in the history of the organization. Plans have been made for an extensive program, which includes concerts in the college and surrounding communities, and a broadcast from WRVA Richmond, Va., at an early date.

AL GILLESPIE

Secretary and Treasurer of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association.

PRESS ASSOCIATION HAS NEW SECRETA'Y

Al Gillespie, of Hampden-Sydney, has been recently appointed to fill the office of secretary and treasurer of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association. Joe Lacy, who was elected secretary and treasurer this organization at the convention in Lynchburg last fall, did not return to Hampden-Sydney this year.

Mr. Gillespie, who is a native of Tazewell, Va., is an outstanding member of the senior class belongs to the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity, and is editor of the Hampden-Sydney Kaleidoscope.

Plans are being completed for the sixth annual convention of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association which will be held here Oct. 21 and 22. Nearly a dozen cups and several special awards are to be offered this year for excellence in the collegiate journalistic work of the state. Over two hundred delegates are expected to attend from every college and university in Virginia, several in the District of Columbia, a more than a dozen junior college and prep schools in the state.

The Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association was founded in Farmville in 1928 by Alexander Hudgins, of Hampden-Sydney, and Evelyn Dulaney of State Teachers College. For five years it has promoted the journalistic work of the colleges and universities throughout the state, and has endeavored to instill in the minds of the college people the vastness of the scope, and the great opportunities in every phase of the field journalism.

THE VIRGINIAN RUN "DEPRESSION" RATES

Everybody knows what the most popular word in our present vocabulary it—"depression." The publicans say it will soon be over and the Democrats are sure it will vanish completely after November 4 so to be a sport the Virginian staff is running depression rates on its photographic work. $1—just a dollar—will pay for having a picture made and will take care of every cut any one may want for use in the book, even if here be ten! Never before has so much been offered for so little money!

Subscription rates remain the same —very reasonable! $5, one of which is made as first payment and the rest any time between now and June, 1933.

Do you think the Virginia staff is playing fair with you? Meet it halfway, won't you?

Lyceum Opens With Boston Sinfonietta

The first of the entertainments for this session will be afforded by the Boston Sinfonietta presented under Demeter Zachareff, concert management in the college auditorium on Thursday, September 29. The Demeter Zachareff, concert managers presented the Boston Light Opera in "Robin Hood" on February 10 as one of last year's entertainments.

The Boston Sinfonietta, an ensemble of prominent members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, was organized five years ago by Mr. Arthur Fiedler who is its present conductor. Mr. Fiedler has established for himself an enviable reputation as a conductor and musician of the first order.

The Sinfonietta has appeared with conspicuous success in many of New England's cities and towns, and its concerts in Boston have received praise from the critics and the public. Dr. Koussevitzky, the noted conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra wrote, "It will give many people the opportunity to hear fine music finely performed."

Aerial Trip Award Offered

Two round trip tickets by air from Richmond to New York over Eastern Air Transport lines, used by hundreds of students every year to go to and from school, are offered this fall by the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association. Every student in a college, university or preparatory school in Virginia or the District of Columbia is eligible.

The award is to be made to the writers of the best two papers on the subject: "A New Service the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association Can Render the College Publications."

The next convention of the association is to be held in Farmville, October 21 and 22. Information may be had from any of the editors of publications on the campus.

The essay is to be approximately 500 words in length and must be in the hands of Alexander Hudgins, executive secretary, P. O. Box 885, Rich-

Continued on page three

GRAND OPERA IS COMING TO FARMVILLE

On October 5 in the college auditorium the opera Paglaicci will be presented on the screen with a cast of 150 and an orchestra composed of 75 musicians. As far as is known by S. T. C. authorities this is the first presentation of grand opera in the movies in Virginia. This masterful production will be given just as it is on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City. It is to be one of the features of the season with one afternoon and two evening performances.

GIRLS BEGIN WORK ON HONOR COURSES

The first general meeting of the Senior honors course group was held Tuesday, September 27 at 7:30 p. m. in the Y. W. C. A. reception room with Mr. J. M. Grainger presiding. All candidates for honors and their advisory committees were present. General directions were given for the honors courses and lists of candidates, (about 30 in number), their subjects, and their advisory committees were announced. It was decided that other meetings would be held in November, February, and April.

Orientation Classes Are Being Held For Freshmen

Freshman Advisory Board Is Instructing New Students In Self Government

LOIS COX IS CHAIRMAN

The Freshman Advisory Board, a branch of the Student Government Association, is conducting "concentrated orientation" classes for all the freshmen and new girls during each evening of this week (Sept. 26-30) from 6:45 to 7:30 o'clock. These classes, which meet in the college class rooms, are taught by the twenty juniors and seniors on the Freshman Advisory Board, of which Lois Cox is chairman.

Monday—Study of organization of Student Government Association; explanation and discussion of the association and of the part each girl plays as a member. Study of organization of House Council. Explanation of House Council regulations and of general regulations.

Tuesday—Study of Y. W. C. A. and the part it has in school. Study of Athletic Association, of other school organizations, and of school publications.

Wednesday—Explanation of the citizenship responsibility of each student in this college.

Thursday—Study of Honor Code—its history in this school, its development, and its place in our Student Government Association.

Friday—Learning "Alma Mater". General discussion in which all "loose ends" may be picked up. (On this night all the groups of orientation classes will meet together in the large auditorium.)

On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock an examination on the Handbook, which is used in teaching the orientation classes, will be given to the new students.

On Monday and Tuesday nights at 10 o'clock all new students will be required to wear white and to sign the Honor Code in the Student Council Room and in the presence of the members of the Council.

The intensive study of the Handbook for one week only is not thought to be sufficient orientation for the new girls at college. Accordingly, throughout this quarter it is planned to hold further orientation classes and to teach principally the customs and traditions of the school, these having ben touched upon in the classes this week.

Conference Committee Announced

The conference committee for the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association has been recently announced by Doreen Smith and Al Gillespie, president and secretary and treasurer, respectively, of the association. The committee is composed of four S. T. C. girls and five Hampden-Sydney boys, who are:

Mary Shelton
Mary Thomas Rawls
Frances Potts
Mary Diehl
Jimmy Hemphill
H. T. Mosby
J. I. Armstrong
H. M. Owen
Johnny Shirley.

This committee will assist the president and the secretary-treasurer at the sixth annual convention of the V. I. P. A. which will be held here October 21 and 22.

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia.

Published by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year.

ROTUNDA STAFF

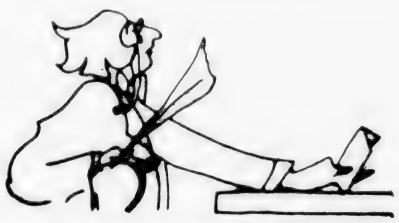
Editor-in-Chief ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
Associate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... LELIA MATTOX, '35
Literary Editor ..... NELL DICKINSON '34
Athletic Editor ..... MARY JESS RICHMOND, '33
World News Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY '33
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY KATHRYN TAYLOR '35
Social Editor ..... DOREEN SMITH '33
Art Editor ..... GERTRUDE SUGDEN, '34
Feature Editors ..... BIRDIE WOODING '35
MARY SHELTON, '34
Humorous Editor ..... BELLE LOVELACE '35
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

PELA KUTZ '35 DOROTHY WOOLWINE '34 SARAH ROWELL '33
WINIFRED PUGH '35 CARRIE DESHAZO '33
MARGARET COPENHAVER '34



Proof Reader ..... ELIZABETH VASSAR '35
Assistant Proof Reader ..... KATHERINE WALTON '35

Managers

Business Manager ..... FRANCES POTTS '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY '34
Circulation Manager ..... ELIZABETH WALTHALL '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... FRANCES HORTON '34

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matters should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Our Honor System

The honor system, which is the basis of our college life, is something which every student when entering Farmville must understand—and accept as her personal "honor code."

To live life at its best, to grow into wider freedom, to make and accept the pervasive college spirit, to leave Farmville a little stronger than we found it—for this the honor system came into its being. And for this the student government exists.

The purpose of this honor system is to preserve the student honor and to unite the students of the school for efficient living and for training in personal responsibility, self-control and loyalty in the student body.

The code is divided into two parts—one dealing with that breaches of social regulations and the other with those that come under the heads of cheating, stealing, and the violation of one's word of honor. In academic matters the honor system covers all outside written work, class recitations, quizzes, examinations, and other work which, according to the professor's announcement, is to be performed by the individual herself.

Each student is required not only to report any violation of the honor code which she herself has committed but also any violation which she has sufficient reason, after careful investigation, to believe some one else has committed.

It is for the purpose of understanding this honor system and making it a part of every student at S. T. C. that orientation classes are given for freshmen. After the honor code is fully appreciated by new students through this study, the following pledge is signed by each one, witnessed by the student council.

I, , having a clear understanding of the basis and spirit of the honor code created and accepted by the student body of State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia, pledge myself to govern my college life according to its standards and to accept my responsibility for helping others to do so, and with sensitive regard for my college, to protect the honor code at all times.

NEW ECTIVES IN CIOLOGY OFFERED

In reise to frequent requests of studentnd because of the great emphasthat is being placed on such pas of education as the socializat of the public school curriculumie schools as a social group and so agency, and the child as a persoity, the following new electives ociology are being offered for thesion 1932-1933:

Socicy 301, Social Progress.
Socicy 302, Social Psychology
Socicy 303, Educational Sociology.

In thall quarter a study will be made the various concepts of social press and the value basis upon whiprogress must be made and the me whereby it may be obtained, thelation of progress and developm to the important principle of socicuidance and to social science the supreme means of achievent.

Somopics for study are: "The Histori Development of the Theory of Progs", "The Present Concept of SociProgress", "Attitudes and Process, "The Agents of Progress: Sciencnd Invention", "The Relation ofvolution and War to Progress."

Dr. Imsley has arranged for these cses to be given. They will by taui by Miss Stubbs.

WORLD NEWS

Mahaa Gandhi, the famous Indian Nonalist has declared that he will st to death unless the British govment dropped its election plans fIndian communities—plans which rved certain rights and sections ogislative halls for the untouchah.

It wan ill wind that carried Ben Rouilla veteran prospector to what he belis is a rich find of gold. He had fiseven claims today on an island a lake in Western Ontario. A storrced him to beach his boat on this and where he was marooned threays without food. While here heicked up a patch of moss under ich he found a gold vein from 2 12 inches wide and around 200 feeong.

A tra accident occurred when Gehrig Hamond, Indiana sat down to enjoan after-dinner cigarette. Gehrig advertedly swallowed the lighted garette and strangled to death in paroxysm of coughing.

The Ramptas of India, a tribe of heredita thieves, comprise today the largt and best organized gang of train robbers in the world.

More an half of the people in the priss of England today are not real crimals but only poor and friendliemen and women who have committ minor offences and are unable tpay the small fines imposed uponem.

Betwe 500 and 1200 A. D. in Europe, thcustom of bringing back religiouselics from the millions of pilgrimas which took place during thateriod resulted in an extensive relimanufacturing industry.

Dagge and sword duels between women id even between women and men occred frequently in the 17th and 18thcenturies in France, Italy, and Spa. One French actress, who dueled t the slightest provocation, challeng and killed three men in one evenq.

For ery $1,000 worth of paper currencyssued by Uncle Sam, $5 of it is nev returned for redemption, having en destroyed by fire or wreck o forgotten in some secret place.

Some bernating animals pass into such profound sleep that their breathinand rigidity are suggestive of death nd considerable time is required torouse them. The dormouse cannot b awakened in less than 20 minutes.

Duringhe past year and a half decided ste have been taken for the introductn of the use of radio into the publi schools of Providence, R. I. Approxnately three hundred class rooms inseventeen of the schools have lou speakers connected with central rdio sets in the principals' office.

AROUND CAMPUS
With the Gossiper

It seems there are no dumb freshmen here—or what do you think? Nevertheless, there are some things that some of them should know. Some would like to know—they said so!

Mary Virginia Miller wants to know why Miss Taliaferro became peeved just because she had torn up her package slip.

Sarah Sykes wants to know where S. T. C. students assemble on Sunday morning to march to church.

Doris Eley wants to know if she may sleep after the 6 a. m. bell rings.

One freshman wants to know how much salary each member of the House Council receives. Who can tell her.

Another would surely like to learn where to place hankies, hose, etc., to dry after washing them.

Many, many freshmen want to know:

What to do for sore muscles from climbing steps, how to find one's way around to class rooms. Why they can't have as nice rooms as seniors, and will they possibly live through rat week.

Not all freshmen want to know. Some of them want to tell—Kitty Woodson does. She is the one Lucille Tiller and seventeen hard-boiled sophs are out for. What do you think, Kitty told Tiller to stop by her room and take the laundry down for her.

And speaking of laundry—washing is next to wearing, and have you noticed the wearing? Virginia Brinkley says that this place is practically "jumping with jumpers."

Wait—you've got to catch a phone call? If it's a bid to openings you can get a rid—or did you know that S. T. C. had a "Model T". And can that "Model T" make time? The license tag says 'Nellsomes."

Upperclassmen, don't smile you were just as green, and don't forget that when a Virginian staff girl comes to your room this week you are supposed to give her a dollar—Freshmen and Upperclassmen!

LETTERS BACK HOME

Farmville, Virginia
September 27, 1932

My dear Papa and Mamma:

This is the biggest place I have ever seen and I get lost all the time. Everyone is very nice, but I miss you all. We have electric lights and running watr—hot and cold!

I have been to two parties—one was a reception. I wore my white graduation dress with the rosettes. Some of the girls danced and kicked their feet around, but they didn't do the Paul Jones at all. At the party Saturday night we played games. They gave us ice cream on sticks and it was good.

On Saturday and Sunday nights a lot of boys who live out in the country from Farmville came up to the schoo. I didn't go down and talk to them because I had to study.

Tell all the folks howdy, and please take care of my little pet pig.

Your loving daughter,
Sadie

Tuesday

Hi folks:

Is this place a honey—well I should think so! Of course don't tell anyone I said so, but I'm going over in a big way! All of the girls are being perfectly swell to me. I wouldn't be back home for anything, though of course I'd love to see you. By the way, please come up and take me over to the hotel fordinner. You are considered quite ritzy if you rate the hotel! Then, too, I could sit over on the porch ner those precious Hampden-Sydney boys, much to the envy of the row of femmes on the other side. Maybe I could make some time with that cute Jack Gray! The upperclassmen cal him "the freshman's delight," and he really is!

Wish you could have seen the grand reh I got at the Y. W. reception. I really did shine with all my Virginia Beach steps. Wore my new scarlet dress with those shiny sleeves, and everyone said I looked like a honey! We had a swell party Saturday night, given by the A. A.—lots of excitement.

Any food that you'd like to send would be appreciated! The books are very hin—how 'bout a little extra cash!

Jackie

WONDERS

O, the green grass growing
Is a wonder of the world,
And the sun and moon in Heaven
And the sky with stars impearled.

There's the mystery of the bee hive,
There's the beauty of the rose,
And a thousand other wonders,
About which nobody knows.

But of all the many wonders
Of the world, both great and small,
The love of God for mankind
Is the greatest one of all.

E. S. S., '34

SIMILE

A yellow marigold
Is a sturdy farmer lad,
Tanned and strengthened
By the suns and winds
Of summer.

—Book Worm

LITERARY COLUMN

Who said this?

"O dear me,
That I could be
A sailor on the rain pool sea
A climber in the clover tree"—

"True, disgrace were hard to bear; but no such rush against God's face."

"Love looks not with the eyes, but with the mind;
And therefore is wing'd Cupid painted blind."

"Full many a gem of purest ray serene
The dark unfathom'd caves of ocean bear;
Full many a flower is born to blush unseen,
And waste its sweetness on the desert air."

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime;
And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time."

"Cowards die many times before their deaths;
The valiant never taste of death but once."

"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!"

JOY

"Just what is joy?" the maiden asked
The sense of fulfillment—of a task well done;
The contentment that comes with a serene peace of mind;
The realization that through my efforts others are happy;
The smile that comes when one is loved;
The peace "I am content and I envy no one else";
The brightness that comes with loyalty and goodness;
These things are joy.

I THINK OF YOU AT TWILIGHT

When the sun and I work, I don't think of you, sweet;
I think of you only when soft twilight creeps
O'er the land, when the first bright star peeps out
On the world with its pain and its joy and its doubt.

My days are filled with work and play and all the things
I have to do, but always now the dusk time brings
Old thoughts of that happiness we once knew,
It's twilight time when I think of you.

My days aren't filled with tears and loneliness
It's never the noon time when you I miss,
It's only when earth and the setting sun meet
That my life seems lonely and incomplete.

D. C. R., '35

SOCIALS

Jean McClure spent the week-end in Charlottesville and attended the football game. Other girls who were in Charlottesville during the week-end were: Isabell Allegree Winifred Pugh, Margaret Copenhaver, Mary K. Taylor, and Polly Brock.

• • •

Agnes Shaner was the guest of friends in Pamplin last week-end.

• • •

Lillian Womack and Maude Watts spent the week-end at their home in Keysville.

• • •

Belle Lovelace was the guest of her parents last week-end in South Boston.

• • •

Nannie Steger and Odell Lewellyn visited in Buckingham.

• • •

Iris Hart spent the week-end at Hampden-Sydney.

• • •

The following girls spent the week-end at their homes: Lois Bradshaw, Ruby Blanton, Katherine Chappell, Elizabeth Fitzgerald, Dorothy Ranson and Dorothy Allen.

SENIOR CHAPERONES ARE ELECTED

The Senior Class held a meeting last evening and elected the following girls senior chaperones: Lillian Womack, Kitty Porter, Jenilee Knight, Mary Thomas Rawls, Margaret Jack, Margaret Gathright, Jane Royall, Doreen Smith, Dorothy Snedegar, Lois Cox.

ATTRACTIVE SING IS PRESENTED

The first Sing of the new school year was held in the large auditorium on Saturday night. It started out with a bang, when Hodges played the piano and Bessie Graybill sang. The main part of sing was a take-off on the freshmen. With Thornhill acting as the dumb, but entertaining newcomer and Jordan as her stammering roommate, the program proceeded amid the screams of mirth by the audience. Thornhill showed her ability in acting, and displayed not only a dual but triple personality as she played the parts of the sweet young thing, the hero and the villian by simply changing hats and facial expression. When Jordan began singing it was just too much and Sing drew to a close.

MONOGRAM CLUB HAS LONG HIKE

About fifty girls accompanied the Monogram Club on the first hike of the season Saturday. After walking to Longwood, each girl was served apples, and many had "Longwood buns". Many freshmen who had not seen Longwood before were shown the cabin, open air fireplace, and the mansion by the old girls. Everyone began planning more good times at the cabin.

Freshmen are cordially invited to go with the Monogram Club and any others who wish to go, on another hike this Saturday.

CALENDAR

Thursday, Sept 29

Vespers immediately after dinner
6:45-7:30—Orientation classes.
8:00—Lyceum number (Boston Sinfonietta).

Friday, September 30

Vespers
6:45-7:30—Orientation classes

Saturday, October 1

2:00—Examination on orientation course.
6:45—Sing.

Monday, October 3

6:45—Student body meeting
10:00—Signing of Honor Code

Tuesday, October 4

6:45—Class meetings
10:00—Signing of Honor Code

Wednesday, October 5

7:00—Rotunda staff meeting.

Y.W.C.A.

PRAYERS

Prayer services were begun this year by Jane Royall on Wednesday evening followed by Winston Cobb on Thursday evening. The candle light service and the soft music together with the talks of the girls made a beautiful and lasting impression.

Dr. Jarman led prayers Friday night. He suggested that each girl read the 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians at least once a month in order that she might learn from this chapter how to really live.

Y. W. C. A. GIVES RECEPTION

The Y. W. gave its annual fall reception for freshmen and new girls Friday evening, September 24, in the Student Building lounge and gym. The new students were accompanied by their "big sisters". Each student wore her name on her right shoulder, and in this way, the freshmen and new girls became acquainted with the old girls.

The Sophomore Orchestra furnished music by which many students danced and learned to know each other that way.

The very enjoyable program consisted of the following numbers:

Song ..... A. Mattox
Reading—I Doubt It ..... L. aBrham
Song ..... Bessie Graybill
Reading ..... Virginia Thornhill
Duet ..... Haskins Twins

The reception committee of the Y. W. served refreshments in the lounge. Dr. Jarman, Miss Jennie and the Y. W. officers received the guests as they arrived. A majority of the faculty the evening. A majority of the faculty and nearly all of the students attended this very delightful reception.

V. I. P. A. HOME-COMING TO BE HELD HERE

Continued from page one

burg College as the entertainers will always be well remembered by those connected with the association. Due to the efforts of M. Waller Belcher, Jr., the president and Miss Ann Hargrave, the secretary and treasurer, a unanimously approved program was offered, spiced with social and entertaining features.

The meeting next month in Farmville will, more or less, mark a second series of progressive movements in the organization. The Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association is one of the largest organizations of its kind in the United States hoding annual conventions.

WORLD NEWS

When brother meets brother on the field of battle, we title the fray a civil war. But when Coach Tad Jones, Yale's retiring veteran coach and chairman of the coaching staff for the eastern Olympic football team, met his "bud", Coach Hawed Jones of the 1931 undefeated University of Southern California squad, low head coach for the western Oymic gridiron outfit, at the Olympic stadium in Los Angeles on the evening of Aug. 8, the result was the Olympic night football game—the first pigskin tussle ever to be placed on an Olympic games bill-of-fare.

In Connecticut fish are layng eggs on trees. They are not high flyers, the State Board of Fisheries reports, merely perch which lay their eggs during flood time in the rives when trees and bushes are inundated.

To the colleges of the country, the Red Cross looks for its trained leadership. The real importance of enrolling college students as members is not merely to obtain memberships from among a particular group but to spread knowledge of the aims and objects of the Red Cross and to arouse the lasting interest of the young men and women who are soon to become actors in the public life of their communities.

DRAMATIC CLUB BEGINS YEAR WORK

Continued from page one

girls enrolled in the various departments to receive instruction; acting under the director of Marion; in Stage Setting under the direction of Martha Sanders; in Make-up under the direction of Ruth Virginia Properties under the direction of Virginia Guy; in Costumes under direction of Frances Ratcliffe; Music under direction of Sue Y in Business and in Lighting the direction of Martha Scott and Mae Downs.

The enrollment in the departments were as follows:

Acting—Claudia Barleon, elia Booker, Katherine Chappdrey Clements, Doris Coates, Ronquest, Frances Crawford, Eubank, Claudia Harper, Marlarvery, Louise Hyde, Crenshnes, Rachel Joyner, Margaret Foor, is Eley, Dorothy Justis, Bong, Eva Owen, Ernestine Pavirginia Payne, Nancy Parker aret Pollard, Mary Lee Powell, etta Salsbury, Alliene Saunders, eth Renfre, Jane Alyce Mainion Umberger, Mary Virginiaker, Beverly Wilkinson, Lula ley, Elizabeth Welch, Margaretood.

Properties—Mary Louise lty, Elizabeth Rogers, Addie eet, Dorothy Eubank, Emma B.

Business—Emma Bingha rothy Eubank.

Music—Julia James, Mamberger, Dorothy Justis.

Lighting—Alice Strock, ene West, Margaret Brown, Fraforton.

Make-up—Custis Carter ude Deekens, Mildred Fuller, aret Hurtt, Mary Virginia Johnllen Mason, Mary Louise McNuallen Owen, Elizabeth Rogers, eth Steptoe, Marion Raine, thy Stone, Gladys Taylor, Elsuly, Elizabeth Wall, Kitty Wa ula Windly.

Costumes—Jessie Lee Swibetty Barleau, Evelyn Massitty Hoyle, Irwin Staples, Agnes ett, Ellen Simmerman, Susie Wargaret Perkins, Emily Meador othy Stone.

AIR TRIP AWARDS ARE OFFERED STUTS

Continued from page

mond, Va., by midnight, Nov 15, 1932.

Officers of the Associatid be the judges and emphasis wlaid on the practical suggestion, anner in which it is written the general value it will be to ssociation. The award will be narly in December.

SENIOR CLASS HAS UNIQUE EXPERIENCE

Continued from page one

Miss Iler had to hide some behind a tree to save for the second load of girls. When they did arrive, it was farewell to the eats. In fact, the senior class proclaims it a delightful weinie roast, eats and everything!

To round up the gang "coffee pot" was played. Gathright, Jenilee Knight, Lois Rhodes, and others kept the class in gales of laughter trying to guess the secret. Still laughing, the seniors boarded their respective wagons for the trip back to S. T. C. in plenty of time to see the Freshman sing. The seniors still talk about it as the most unique experience of their years at S. T. C.

COLLEGE CHOIR HAS FIRST MEETING

Continued from page one

Christine Seay
Ruth Showalter
Doreen Smith
Helen Smith
Joyce Sturm
Sarah Hyde Thomas
Woodruth Towler
Nell Weaver
Jennie Wheeler
Bessie Mae White
Lottie Whitehurst
Dorothy Woolwine
Sue Yeaman

Only about one-third of the boys who leave English schools each year have a prospect of any proper training, declares an English educational expert.

New methods of shoe repairing in Czecho Slovakia cut the footwear repairing bill of the country $9,000,000 last year.

Liverpool, Eng., is inoculating its policemen on nght duty to keep them from sneezing.

The British war office will discharge 890 men and women in its tailoring departments and will have uniforms made by outside tailors.

Arrange color and texture contrasts of food when planning the menus.

NOTICE TO DEBATE CLUB MEMBERS

There will be a meeting of the Debate Club, September 29 at 7 o'clock in Student Building auditorium. This is a very important meeting and every member is urged to be present.

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK

Please send THE ROTUNDA to the address below, for which I am enclosing dollar and a half ($1.50) which pays my subscription until June 1933.

Name _____

Address _____

Send blank to FRANCES POTTS, Bus. Mgr. of The Rotunda

Taylor Mfg. Co.

Contracting and Building

Phone No. 260

N. MAIN ST. FARMVILLE

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON

A Complete Beauty Service At Moderate Prices

WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville Va.

"Farmville Best Place to Shop"

—is at—

—THE HUB—

Come in and get acquainted with us. We welcome you to S. T. C. and Farmville!

MAIN STREET FARMVILLE

A COLLEGIATE INSTITUTION for BUSINESS TRAINING

QUALIFY for business opportunities with professional training offered in Secretarial Science. Placement service for graduates, with the number of employment calls showing an increase in 1931.

Accounting and Business Administration Courses leading to B.C.S. and M.C.S. degrees given under an able staff of Certified Public Accountants, University Graduates and Attorneys-At-Law.

Write or call for information about summer session courses.

204 Colleges and Universities Represented In Annual Student Body Enrollment of 1,600.

STRAYER COLLEGE
719 13TH ST.-NATIONAL 1748
WASHINGTON, D.C.
CATALOG UPON REQUEST

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Management
MRS. MARY ROUNDY, Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

Electric Shoe Shop

Will Fix Your Shoes While You Wait

BEST WORKMANSHIP AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go To Wade's

—For—

The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S

The Home of the Needs

C. E. Chappell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

MAIN STREET
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community For Over Half a Century

FINEST TOILET REQUISITES
DRUGS AND STATIONERY

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

JOKES

Irate Father (to slightly inebriated daughter entering at 3 a. m.): What does the clock say?

Daughter: Tick-tock, and the dogs say bow-wow, and cats meow. —Boston Beanpot.

Sue Hume: Did you vote for the honor system?

Little Rawlins: You bet I did—four times.—Carnegie Tech Puppet.

The Kiss.

A kiss is a peculiar proposition. Of no use to one, yet absolute bliss to two. The small boy gets it for nothing, and the young man has to lie for it. The baby's right, the lover's privilege, and the hypocrite's mask. To a young girl, faith; to a married woman, hope; and to an old maid, charity.—V. P. I. Skipper.

Glossary for Young Peebles.

Course: Two or more receptacles for the game of tennis.

Tuition: Uncontrollable movement of the muscles; a sudden tuition of the nerves.

Dormitory: Specie of camel; also a dessert fruit in cardboard boxes.

Scholar: One who stands in the stern of a scow and produces forward motion thereof by horizontal movement of a large oar.

Roster: Fowl. Also a device for roasting the roster.—Drexel Drexero.

Dr. Stevens: I would like a preparation of phenylisothiocyanate.

Drug Clerk: Do you mean mustard oil?

Dr. Stevens: Yes, I can never think of that name.—Coe Zip 'N Tony.

Knox: Who invented work anyway?

Henrietta: You should worry; you'll never infringe on his patent. —Northwestern Purple Parrot.

"Red" Ridder: I don't see how football players ever get clean.

"Girt" Parker: Silly! What do you suppose the scrub teams are for? —Annapolis Log.

"The neighbor's tub ran over yesterday."

"What did she want to borrow?" —W. R. R. C.

Higby: Watchagotnapachidge?
Biggs: Sabook.
Higby: Wassanamuvritt?
Biggs: Sodichushurery fullinaims. Gonna gettapoodledog andgottagetta naimferim.—Zip 'N Tong.

"Are you a clock watcher?" asked the business man of the haggard graduate who had just applied for a job.

"No," replied the average (but honest) student, "I'm a bell-listener."—Colorado Dodo.

Byron swam the Hellespont,
Ederle the English Channel;
I merely waded in the lake,
And am all wrapped upin flannel.
—W. R. R. C.

HILDEGARDE ROSS IS MANAGER OF HOCKEY

The Athletic Association Council has appointed Hildegarde Ross manager of hockey to fill the place of Elizabeth Burger who did not return this fall. To the upperclassmen, it is needless to say that Hildegarde is competent, interested, and a willing worker. In a few weeks freshmen will see this, too.

Last year, Hildegarde was secretary of the council and also manager of basketball. She now holds the office of vice-president of the council. Ever since she entered S. T. C., she has come out for every phase of athletics showing great interest and skill in all of them. She has given much of her time and energy in promoting athletics at S. T. C. and she truly deserves the honors that have come to her.

COMING UP THE STEPS

"Didn't we have a swell time playing hockey, today?"

"I'll say! But gee, won't we be sore tomorrow!"

"Oh! That won't last long! And then-"

"I hope just oodles of new girls will come out. All the old ones'll get here sooner or later and the more there are the better times we'll have. You ned enough for varsity and all, you know."

"What do you think? A freshman told me the other day that she didn't know how to play, so she wasn't coming out!"

"Huh! I'll bet there aren't ten of them out there that do. You just tell her to come and she'll learn how in a jiffy. Let's see? The freshmen are supposed to practice at 4 o'clock on Mondays and Wednesdays and at 5 o'clock Tuesdays and Thursdays and then everybody practices from 4 to 6 on Friday."

"Let's go on a campaign after the upperclassmen! Seems like with the depression hitting the pocketboks, they'd get lonesome in the afternoons. If they would, they could have one gorgeous time whacking at each other and incidentally help their classes along when Thanksgiving gets here. You know . . . . "

"There's the bell! We'll never in the world get dressed for supper! And I wanted to get a book too!"

"S'long, see you tomorrow at four."

STARS

Ye stars! which are the poetry of heaven,
If in your bright leaves we would read the fate
Of men and empires—it is to be forgiven
That in our aspirations to be great
Our destinies o'erleap their mortal state,
And claim a kindred with you; for ye are
A beauty and mystery and create
In us such love and reverence from afar,
That fortune, fame, power, life have named themselves a star.

CHA[N]GE ARE MADE [I]N POINT SYSTEM

The [s]ystem of the athletic awards is the [s]ystem. Since last year certain [c]hanges have been made. The point [s]ystem as it stands is as follows:

I—Physical efficiency Test.
A.—Girls with 4 stunts and 4 field track events 75
B.—Girls with 7 stunts and 7 field track events 100
II.—Team having participated in 60 per cent of games played):
A.—Class team any sport 50
B.—Class team 25
C.—Attendance at 50 per cent practice hockey, basket ball, baseball 25
Field track, volley ball 15
D.—Championship team 50
E.—Girls up 25
F.—Winning team 50
Varsquad 25
G.—Leader of sport 10
III.—Hiking
A—Three hikes, per year .. 50
IV.—Tennis.
A.—First place in any individual event 15
B.—Second place in any individual event 10
C.—Third place in any individual event 5
D.—First place in relay 10
E.—Second place in relay 5
F.—Breaking college record 25
G—Participating in meet 5
H.—First place in meet 50
V.—Tournament (tennis, archery):
A.—Championship
Singles 50
Doubles 15
B.—Runners up:
Singles 25
Doubles 15
C—Third in after first match 5
D.—Winning team 25
Varsquad 15
VI.—Sportsmanship.
A—Average 25
B.—Average 50
C.—Average 75

SPORIGHT IS SUCCESS

What a happy sport night we had! Everyone acquainted—really acquainted with the new girls. It was so funny to see the attempts of the girls to learn in three minutes all the rats had met. Imagine Jane Royall's surprise to hear her name heard thr[ough].

After exciting relays everyone settled down and began eating delicious lo[ads].

Such a night of fun should come oftener-can't forget it!

What did—Oh yes!—jack rabbit relay, bbag relay created great competition and those contests were great. Congratulations A. A.!

William: Father, don't you think that two can live as cheaply as one now?"

Father: No! I don't think it; I know it your mother and I are living no cheaply as you are."

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM SEPT. 28 to OCT. 4

WED.—"GUILTY AS HELL" with RICHARD ARLEN, EDMUND LOWE and VICTOR McLAGLEN, supported by a cast of 20 sterling players. Be an eye-witness to this sensational crime. See the cunning killer plant the guilt on an innocent man. You know from the first who the murderer is. And you sit thrilled and amused as the police bungle the clues. You'll get shivers, laughs and thrills galore as you witness the amazing proof that murder will out. Also the final chapter of RIN-TIN-TIN in "The Lightning Warrior" and a Mickey McGuire Comedy entitled "Mickey's Side Lines."

THURS. & FRI. — MAURICE CHEVALIER, supported by JEANNETTE MacDONALD and CHARLES RUGGLES in "LOVE ME TONIGHT" Oh, boy! Is he good! Oh girls! Will you love him. As the Paris tailor who sets the style in love, he's twice as human, twice as charming and ten times as irresistible as ever before. He was naughty—she was haughty, but they fell in love. Here's a gay comedy of Paris. Gay songs; gay love; gay laughs—it's the gayest, most human picture of the year and you'll love it, for Maurice kisses like a prince and loves like an Apache. And you'll see Paris night life, too. Critics say it is Chevalier's best picture, so you're in for a real treat. Also another one of those excruciatingly funny Screen Souvenirs.

SAT. — CONSTANCE BENNETT, NEIL HAMILTON and LOWELL SHERMAN in "WHAT PRICE HOLLYWOOD." Here's a heart-gripping drama of the world, the flesh and the movies. Pronounced the best picture about Hollywood that Hollywood has ever made. When you see Neil Hamilton grab Constance out of her bed and carry her bodily to a dinner in her night clothes, you'll shriek with glee. The story concerns itself with an ambitious girl who crashes the studio gates, and her spectacular rise from a waitress who enchants a famed director to gain top honors on the screen. Plenty of comedy and a heart-touching love story between Constance and Neil Hamilton. Extra! THE MILLS BROTHERS in the screen song, "I Ain't Got Nobody." Also Fox News.

NEXT MON. & TUES—"HORSE-FEATHERS" with the FOUR MARX BROTHERS. Here it is the greatest feast of comedy the screen has ever offered. They are off again on all eight feet, and Heaven help girls with cracked lips. Here's a college yell of joy. The faculty steals a speakeasy football game, while the love-mad bootlegger mixes the co-ed's signals to the dog-catcher's donkey. All endin in happy dancing as the college burns to the ground. See these four clowns with the co-eds pester the profs caper over the campus and turn a champion football game into a roaring riot. Here's a picture you'll have to see twice to catch all the jokes. Don't miss it, also "Hollwood on Parade", with Bing Crosby, Stuart Erwin and a host of top-liners. Hear Bing sing "Auf Weidersen". Aesop Fable.

DAILY MATINEES at 4 P. M. Evenings at 8 o'clock.

ADMISSION—Adults, 35c at night, and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

Red Rose Store

LUNCHEONETTE

Cut Rate Drug Sundries

New headquarters for S. T. C. Girls

SODAS SANDWICHES

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS

Willis

FARMVILLE FLORIST VIRGINIA

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
PHONES 181-273

Martin JEWELER

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
PHONE 198

SouthsideDrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

Filler Paper—7 cents each
3 for 20c

Just One Block From Campus

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Virginia

G. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us!

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE!

Davidson's

HOUSE OF QUALITY

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

Is headquarters for class room needs, bed room furnishings and stylish apparel.

A HEARTY WELCOME TO OUR MIDST

FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

"THE STYLE SHOP FOR LADIES"

WELCOME S. T. C. STUDENTS!

We invite you to visit us often

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

VARSITY TRY-OUTS TO BE HELD!

THE ROTUNDA

POE

THE CIRCUS IS COMING!

We Teach To Teach

Volume XIII THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 5, 1932 No. 3

Pi Gamma Mu Gives Bids to 5 New Members

Five Seniors Given Honor of Membership in Pi Gamma Mu

REQUIREMENTS ARE HIGH

Last week the Virginia Gamma chapter of Pi Gamma Mu extended five seniors the privilege of membership.

Pi Gamma Mu is the national honorary society for history and social science. To this organization are bid only those juniors and seniors who have a general high scholastic standing, who show an outstanding interest in social science with special ability in this subject and who have shown themselves worthy of honor.

The following S. T. C. girls were bid to Pi Gamma Mu: Mary Swift, Lucille Ingram, Lillian Womack, Sara James, and Doreen Smith.

Mary Swift is a member of Sigma Pi Rho and Alpha Phi Sigma; her average on history and social science is almost A. Lucille Ingram is treasurer of the Y. W. C. A. and is an assistant in the biology laboratory. Lillian Womack has been outstanding in college activities since her entrance here. She is at present chairman of the Student Standards Committee, one of the most important organizations in school. Sara James is a member of Kappa Delta Pi and Alpha Phi Sigma, besides being active in other student organizations. Doreen Smith has shown unusual ability as a leader in various college activities and is at present president of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association.

Virginian Photographers to Begin Work

The Virginian photographer, Mr. Kruger from J. P. Bell Co., in Lynchburg, will be ready to begin work on the annual pictures Wednesday afternoon, October 12. In order that the work may go off systematically, a table will be kept in the hall Monday and Tuesday where everyone can make an appointment for her sitting. Ten minutes are allowed for each person, beginning at 8:30 till 12:30 o'clock, and from 2:00 until 5:00 o'clock. Mr. Kruger has quite a reputation as a photographer and the Virginian staff thinks itself very fortunate to have him to do the work for the 1933 book.

Remember the price—$1 for the sitting and all necessary cuts.

On the table in the hall of the library the 1933 staff has placed a copy of the 1932 Virginian for the benefit of the freshmen and new girls who may not have seen one. This copy is to be kept in the library always; take a few minutes from study and look it through. In fundamental plan, the 1933 Virginian will be like this one, but in detail it will be very very different. The pictures of every individual will add to it, make your appointment Monday or Tuesday at the table in the hall.

Miss Mary Addreses The Student Body

At the regular monthly student body meeting Monday evening, Miss Mary gave a very inspiring and useful talk to the student body. In it she set forth the principles which she wished each student to uphold. She urged each student to remember those rules and regulations necessary in a student body of this size. The girls were asked not to do those things which tend to make S. T. C. a less attractive place for cultured girls. Miss Mary closed her address by saying that observance of these things would help us to avoid the pitfalls of life and aid us in living a full Christian life beneficial to every one.

After Miss Mary's address Miss Snead, librarian, reminded students of certain regulations regarding the library. She cautioned us to remember that pink slips mean reserve books and white slips two - week books.

After this the routine business of the meeting was taken up. Hattie Gilliam, Winston Cobb, Nell Weaver and Martha Gunter made announcements in regard to their various organizations. Jane Royall discussed the student body affairs after which lost and founds were heard, and the meeting adjourned.

Dean's List For The Fall Quarter

The Dean's List for the fall quarter has just been announced by Miss Tabb. This is composed of the Seniors who do not make a grade below B on any subject except physical education.

The list:

Frances E. Armistead, Farmville
Elizabeth W. Cobb, Sebrell
Lois Virginia Cox, Norfolk
Carrie H. DeShazo, Sutherland
Willie Elizabeth Doyne, Farmville
Catharine E. Gannaway, Delton
Margaret E. Gathright, Dumbarton
Martha Gunter, Evington
Lucille Bernice Ingram Dundas
Sara James, Dendron
Doris Lane, Elberon
Marguerite Massey, Post Oak
Mary Thomas Rawls, Ivor
Gay Richardson, Charlotte C. H.
Sarah Smith Rowell, Surry
Jane Royall, Tazewell
Emily Mildred Shelton, Church Rd.
Sarah Agnes Smith, Mullins, S. C.
Josie Spencer, Lynchburg
Mary Elizabeth Swift, Farmville
Kathryn Waters, Onley
Imogene C. West, Farmville
Wilma E. Williams, Roanoke
Ann Wingo, Jetersville
Lillian E. Womack, Keysville
Laura Margaret Young, Boxom

DEBATE CLUB TRY-OUTS TO BE HELD

The Debate Club will hold its try-outs on Friday night, October 7 instead of on Thursday night in the Student Building auditorium at 7:00 o'clock.

Freshmen are urged to try out and all old members are invited to the try-outs.

MISS DOREEN SMITH

President of Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association.

Doreen Smith Is V.I.P.A. President

Miss Doreen Smith, State Teachers College senior, is president of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association which is to hold its homecoming convention here October 21 and 22.

Miss Smith has been making extensive plans for the convention which promises to be the best ever held. She is well equipped for the office of president, having had experience in journalism for several years. Last year she was business manager of The Rotunda; this year she holds the office of social editor. Doreen has shown her abilities as a leader in other college activities. She is head of the Conferences and Conventions Committee of the Y. W. C. A. and manager of tennis. Rrecently she was elected to membership in Pi Gamma Mu, the National Social Science Honorary Society. Miss Smith is also a member of Alpha Phi Sigma, National Honorary Scholastic

It is fitting that the president of the V. I. P. A. should come from Farmville State Teachers College, for it was here that the V. I. P. A. was organized. Miss Evelyn Dulaney, at that time editor of The Rotunda, was its founder and first president. Since that time conventions have been held each year throughout the state, and this year unusually big plans are being made for the homecoming convention here in October.

UNEXPECTED UPSETS OF THE PASSING YEAR

Not only in politics, but also in sports has this been a "great year for upsets." Surprises have come thick and fast, especially during the summer months. In the sport world, Schmeling lost the heavy-weight crown to Sharkey; Cochet, the tennis championship to Vines, and Ouimet is no longer golf champion.

The upsets and surprises in national life and politics have been no less than those in the sport world. Mayor Walker resigned, and not only New York but the whole of America, questioned and talked! Maine sprang the biggest upset of all and went Democratic. In Wisconsin La Follette toppled from his throne.

Astonishments have come thick and fast! And the year is not over yet! Will October, November and December unfold events as surprising and unexpected as the previous

Continued on last page

Set Up Conference Held at Longwood

The Y. W. Cabinet will hold its "set up conference" at Longwood on October 7 and 8. The purpose of this conference is to make plans and a program for the remainder of the year and to bring about a closer relationship among cabinet members, committee members, and Advisory Board.

The conference opens Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with a picnic. The cabinet will have as its guests the Advisory Board and committee members.

A business meeting of the Y. W. C. A. will be held from 7:30 to 10:00 Friday evening, with Winston Cobb, president, presiding. Mr. H. B. Lipscomb, pastor of the Methodist Church, has been asked to lead devotionals. The main business of the evening will be the reports of the committee chairmen.

At 10:00 o'clock, Friday evening, the social committee has planned an informal gathering around a campfire near the cabin. This will be followed by ceremonials which will be held on the amphitheatre stage.

Morning watch will be led Satur-

Continued on last page

Government Representatives Chosen

Mary Shelton has been appointed treasurer of the student council to fill the place left vacant by Betty Watts, who will not return to school for the fall quarter, but hopes to return in January.

According to a clause in the student government association constitution, the executive board of the council has the authority to act in an emergency. Betty will resume her duties after Christmas, but if she does not return, Mary will continue to act as treasurer.

Mary has been active in such college activities as the dromatic club, college publications, and library work. The council made a wise choice in selecting her for this vacancy.

At class meeting on Tuesday night, September 27, the sophomores elected Winifred Pugh as their representative on the Student Council. She fills the place on the Council left vacant when Pela Kutz did not return to college this fall.

Pela, who was on the Council during her freshman year here, was an excellent representative for her class. The sophomores, while regretting the fact that Pela did not return, feel that in Winifred they have recured as able a representative on the Student Council.

MUSICAL PROGRAM IS PRESENTED IN CHAPEL

The old custom of having the local talent perform every Saturday morning is not being neglected this year. Under the direction of Mr. Strick, professor of music, many delightful programs have been presented.

Saturday morning, October 1, the programs began. Miss Gertrude Mannes presented two violin solos, and the senior quartette sang two numbers.

The programs for this year are very promising. Among the attractions planned are selections by the following:

Dr. Joseph L. Jarman; flutist from Bolling School, Richmond; baritone soloist, Mr. Thomas Bullock; pupils of Mr. Edwin Feller, Norfolk; pupils of Mr. Quincy Cole and Mrs. Channing Ward, Richmond.

Boston Sinfonietta Scores Big Success At S. T. C. Sept. 29

The Initial Number of Our Lyceum Year Is Interesting Classical Program

FIEDLER IS LEADER

The Boston Sinfonietta, under the direction of Arthur Fiedler, gave a most inspiring and delightful program in the S. T. C. auditorium, Thursday evening, September 29. The Boston Sinfonietta is an ensemble of picked members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. This orchestra was organized some five years ago in view of the need of adequate music in smaller communities where it would be inadvisable to take the larger symphony.

Mr. Fiedler, founder and conductor of the Boston Sinfonietta, has established for himself an enviable reputation as a conductor and musician. His greatest achievement was the series of outdoor concerts on the Boston Esplanada. Mr. Fiedler showed his fine feeling for rhythm and his keen understanding of music throughout the evening concert presented in the college auditorium. It was indeed a pleasure to see him as he conducted his great Sinfonietta through its splendid program which was applauded most heartily by the audience.

The program which consisted of selections by great artists in the field of music is as follows:

Three ballet pieces .... Rameau-Mattl

Continued on last page

The Rotunda Staff Adopts a New Plan

Beginning next week the Rotunda staff is adopting a new plan of collecting material for the paper. Each Monday evening and Tuesday morning, one member of the staff will stay in the publication office and receive any news that any one wishes to go in that week's paper. This staff member will also give information concerning anything about the paper. The editor requests that all material be brought to the publication office during this time. Students are also requested to write open forum letters giving constructive criticism on any school problem they wish improved. The letters should be addressed to "The Editor." Don't gossip— give constructive criticism through your college newspaper in the form of the open forum.

FRESHMEN AND NEW GIRLS SIGN CODE

Freshmen and new girls, having passed examination on orientation classes, signed the honor code in the Student Council room on Monday and Tuesday nights at 10 o'clock.

The signing of the honor code was very impressive. The freshmen and new girls, dressed in white, filed in the Student Council room in the presence of the Student Council and signed the following pledge attached to the honor code:

"I, ..., having a clear understanding of the Honor Code created and accepted by the Student Body of State Teachers College, Farmville Virginia, pledge myself to govern my college life according to its standards and to accept my responsibility for helping others to do so, and with sensitive regard for my college, to uphold and protect the Honor Code at all times."

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia.

Published by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year.

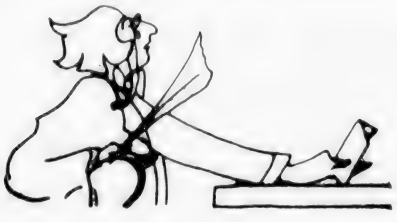
ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
Associate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... LELIA MATTOX, '35
Literary Editor ..... NELL DICKINSON '34
Athletic Editor ..... MARY JESS RICHMOND, '33
World News Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY '33
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY KATHRYN TAYLOR '35
Social Editor ..... DOREEN SMITH '33
Art Editor ..... GERTRUDE SUGDEN, '34
Feature Editors ..... BIRDIE WOODING '35
MARY SHELTON, '34
Humorous Editor ..... BELLE LOVELACE '35
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters



GERTRUDE MANNES 35 — DOROTHY WOOLWINE '34
SARAH ROWELL '33 — WINIFRED PUGH
CARRIE DESHAZO '33 — MARGARGET COPENHAVER '34
Proof Reader ..... ELIZABETH VASSAR '35
Assistant Proof Reader ..... KATHERINE WALTON '35

Managers

Business Manager ..... FRANCES POTTS '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY '34
Circulation Manager ..... ELIZABETH WALTHALL '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... FRANCES HORTON '34

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matters should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

The Reward Is Worth the Winning

To have one's colors on the Athletic Association loving cup is the hope of each girl at S. T. C. The spirit that prevails in the Athletic Association is the determining factor that develops sportsmanship here. To win this cup, requires a great deal of hard work and cooperation. The right kind of school spirit can be promoted through the Athletic Association better than in any other way. On the tennis court, hockey field and basket ball court we learn to face victory and defeat. It is as hard to take victory as it is defeat, but under the system here one defeat does not bring discouragement. We may lose the points in one sport, but there is always the hope of winning the next one. In the class games the girls meet each other in friendly rivalry and develop closer friendships for each other than they would otherwise.

All the year the sister classes struggle together working hard to win the honor of placing their colors on the color cup.

Not only do they try to win the color cup but they try to have their colors waving Thanksgiving, and they try to make their colors stand for the best in all college activities.

It takes time and united effort to win the reward. The time to start is now, for every day counts, and make one team forge ahead. What an honor! What exultation—when spring comes to be able to see your colors waving high!

The way to win this cup is through hard work. The athletic field invites all students to participate in its pleasures. They help one physically and mentally and it is for the students' own pleasure that she is urged to start now to win the color cup. "Have fun while you seek your goal" is the slogan advocated by the Athletic Association; and then the reward, or the winning of the color cup, is worth the winning.

Value of Honor Societies

Honor societies are of great value to every institution of which they are a part. In them we find a source of inspiration for those who seek membership. The standards and ideals are always high. With these ever before the students, they are led onward striving for bigger and better things.

There are honor societies in many different fields including scholarship, leadership, social sciences, and different subjects. This affords a student an opportunity to strive to excel in whatever she is most interested and most gifted in.

Not only do honor societies challenge students to do their best in order that they may become members of a society, but they afford the members a great opportunity for growth and development. They come in close contact with the other members of the society, some of whom are faculty members. Through this association and work together, the members of the honor society are encouraged to go onward and upward with their tasks of life.

Appreciation For Better Things

The Boston Sinfonietta afforded students an excellent opportunity to appreciate real art. This artist number is something that we can remember with pride and emotion in the years to come. It is not often that such an opportunity comes and the fact that S. T. C. appreciated this concert to the extent they did proves that students here realize the opportunity given them. One can find mediocre entertainment at the movies, but for real culture such entertainments as the Boston Sinfonietta find their place. The fact that we remember such entertainment is an assurance of its real value in the world of fine arts.

It is not often that we are favored with such a performance, and any time spent in hearing such artists is time saved. Those students who were unable to attend really missed the treat of a life time. It is hoped that the next time such a concert is presented in the S. T. C. auditorium every student will be present.

Although Mr. Fielder and his musicians presented and played programs which, although more popular than some of the symphony concerts, nevertheless have required the highest artistry. May we always be able to discriminate between the cheap amusement and real art for it is "Not what we see, but what we choose—

That mars or blesses our happiness."

WORLD NEWS

Moonlight bathing in the Dead Sea has been one of Palestine's popular pastimes this summer.

An oil station manager, in Wisconsin, awoke from a trance with this story of a new wrinkle in banditry:

"It was getting along about closing time when a man with eyes like a Svengali came in. He hypnotized me with his sharp look and a waving of his hands, then compelled me to lend him $27. He waved his hands some more. I tried to resist, but his hypnotic stare was too strong and I didn't wake up until today."

An Austrian inventor made a hobby of loosening the bolts and rivets of railroad tracks, causing scores of wrecks and catastrophes, in order to promote his device for preventing railroad accidents.

San Francisco has the largest number of telephones in proportion to its population of any city in the world. with 40.2 telephones to every 100 persons.

A lion and a cage attendant staged an unscheduled show at a county fair in Pennsylvania, but the spectators didn't wait around to see it. The beast escaped from his pen and the attendant grabbed him by the tail. The lion got the best of the tug-of-war and started towards the stands. The spectators left.

Due to the depression, four men of Brownsburg, Quebec have gone in for playing cards in a big way. They have just finished a 73-hour continuous session. They just didn't have anything else to do.

New Hampshire may have a brother and sister in the next Senate. Haven Doe has been nominated by the Democrats and his sister, Jessie Doe, has received the Republican nomination.

Robert Kronfield, veteran glider pilot put his new sail plane through six successive loops in a flight in Vienna. It is believed to be the first time this has been done in a motorless plane.

KUZIN KITTY KOUNSELS

Dear Girles:

Here's your loving old Kuzin Kitty, who didn't get down to see you before you left home, just dropping you a line to let you know she hasn't forgotten you. It broke my heart to have you, poor little things, leave home without my getting a chance to give you one word of parting advice. You know your Kuzin Kitty has lived quite a long time and she really has some good advice for girls leaving home. Poor things, they have to be snatched away from their dear papas and mammas, but then, it all comes in a lifetime, I suppose. But as I was saying, I wanted to warn you about transferring to the wrong bus or leaving your suit case on the train, and things of that sort. And by all means, you should n-e-v-e-r get familiar with people on the trains. Let me tell you, once I knew a girl who was traveling alone and on the train she commenced a conversation with a strange man and bless your life, she married him before she had known him two days! Shocking, shocking! Shame on me; I shouldn't put such ideas into your pretty heads. But I trust you all got to college safe and sound, so I should worry.

Now that you are at college though, you will still need advice—I'm sure. In case you have a puzzling love affair or something of the sort just drop Kuzin Kitty a line. She'll be able to straighten you out and tell you what to do. (Don't forget that I had a beau once, myself, girls. Ah, such tender, painfully sweet memories which engulf me!) Let me in on all your school-girl problems, dears, and remember, every thing is strictly confidential.

Your affectionate,
Kuzin Kitty

P. S.—Be sure to let me hear from you in time to get my replies in next week's Rotunda.—K. K.

The War Lace of Tokio has issued a statement declaring that if the assembly of the League of Nations acts in the spirit of the Lytton report, Japan will have no alternative but to withdraw from the League and to oppose its action with the firmest determination.

THESE THREE

To feel though years in mystic silence pass,
That all is right;
To know that each long, speechless month but leads
Toward the light—
That, dear, is Faith.

To think with each new morn may-hap some word
Will come today,
Yet bearing disappointment with a smile
At each delay—
That, dear, is Hope.

To trust through evil days, forgiving all
That may have passed;
To hope, to trust, to know that life and strength
Will come at last—
That, dear heart, is Love.

—Jennie Masters Tabb

TIME PASSES

Time passes, the years roll on,
The bright day comes with the rosy morn,
A child plays by the garden wall
'Till twilight deepens, and shadows fall;
Time passes—a day is done.

A gardener old trims the hedge by the lawn,
His shoulders bent, face care-worn,
But over the years his memory plays,
To the airy castles of childhood days.
Time passes—a life is gone.

Over the past a curtain is drawn,
Old age and youth in its early morn
Are screened within by its silken folds,
Only the future the lives would hold
Time passes—the years roll on.

M. D. H., '34

ON HEARING BOSTON SINFONIETTA

Violins; soft, high, and shimmering—
The soft throb of a cello
That tugs at your heartstrings.
One breathless moment—then
A mighty crash of cymbals—
The "Sinfonietta" has begun.

G. M., '34

LINES

It is a glorious privilege to live,
To know, to act, to listen,
To behold, to love.
To look up at the blue summer sky,
To see the sun sink slowly
Beyond the line of the horizon;
To watch the worlds come twinkling into view,
First one by one—then myriads that no man can count,
'Til lo! the universe is white with them,
—And you and I are here.

THE KEEPER OF THE STARS

An old woman
Sits by the lotused banks
Of the River of Heaven
Cutting old moons into stars . . . .
At nightfall
She arises
And tosses them before her
Into the water to light
Her way
Homeward . . . .

—From the Chinese

When a bit of sunshine hits ye,
After passing of a cloud
When a fit of laughter gits ye,
And ye'r sprine is feelin' proud
Don't forget to up and fling it
At a soul that's feelin' blue,
For the minit that ye sling it
It's a boomerang to you.

The April 1 edition of the Temple University News was a take-off on the Philadelhia Record, whose style of type and makeup was followed throughout. On the same day the Record published a story jokingly threatening to sue the News for a million dollars for libel. The editor of the News sent 6 cents to the editor of the Record.

SOCIALS

The following girls attended the V. M. I. dances last week-end: Lucille Rock, Dot LeGare; Frances Dillon.

• • •

Margaret Copenhaver was the guest of Virginia Lowe at her home in Charlottesville during the week-end.

• • •

Margaret Gathright, Jenilee Knight, Jane Royall, and Kathryn Royster, spent the week-end in Petersburg.

• • •

The following girls attended the dances at V. P. I.: Katherine McLemore, Fannie Mae Colonna, Mary Louise McNulty, and Elizabeth Mason.

• • •

Margaret McCue and Iris Hart were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Hart at Hampden-Sydney.

• • •

Celia Jones spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

• • •

Martha Nottingham, Jac Waters, Kitty Waters, Helen Cover and Dot Leonard were in Richmond last week-end.

• • •

Jo Snead of Lynchburg was the guest of Mildred Gwaltney and Doreen Smith during the past few days.

• • •

Elizabeth Steptoe, Eileen Howard, and Ellen Mason spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

• • •

Belle Lovelace was the guest of her parents in South Boston.

• • •

Dot Thomas spent the week-end in Lexington.

• •

Winifred Pugh and Isabelle Allegree visited their parents in Charlottesville.

• • •

Carroll Jane Bibb spent the week-end at her home in Greenfield.

• • •

Judith Hardy spent the week-end in Kenbridge.

• • •

Lillian Womack visited her parents in Keysville last week.

JUNIORS ENTERTAIN FRESHMEN IN THE GYM

The gymnasium was a gala scene, Saturday evening at ten o'clock, when the freshmen gathered with their sister classmen, dressed as kids.

As each "child" came down the stairs, she was presented with a lollipop, which added to her childish babble. Dolls, bunny rabbits, brought back childhood memories to the freshmen, and they were mere children again.

The sopohomore orchestra delighted the crowd with their peppy music, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Waynick. The "children" showed their apreciation by their dancing to the strains of the little jazz band, and by their enthusiastic applause.

Miss Frances Horton, of the Junior Class taught the children a get-acquainted game, which was thoroughly enjoyed. Then each child chose a partner and marched in review of the judges, Miss Hattie Gilliam, Miss Alice McKay, and Miss Margaret Parker, president of the Junior Class. After much consideration and debating the judges selected the cutest couple, and they were presented with prizes.

The food came next on the program. Each couple was served its portion as they marched by the door to the "little gym."

A tired crowd of children, climbed the stairs at eleven o'clock to the strains of "Home Sweet Home". Each child loudly claimed that it was great fun to forget the grown-up college girl, if just for an hour.

B. S. U. HOLDS MEETING

The Baptist Student Union held its regular bi-monthly meeting Sunday afternoon in the little auditorium.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss plans for the State B. S. U. conference which is to be held at Blacksburg, November 4 to 6. Much interest was shown by those present and several of the girls are planning to make the trip. The payment of dues was also discussed, and each Baptist girl was urged to subscribe to the Student Magazine.

DR. WALMSLEY'S S. S. CLASS HAS PICNIC

Last Saturday afternoon a happy group left the Rotunda on their way to the log cabin for a picnic. This group was composed of Dr. and Mrs. Walmsley and Dr. Walmsley's Sunday School class.

After reaching the cabin, the group gathered around the outdoor fireplace and as the fire sang its jolly song they engaged in playing certain games. As this was a Sunday School picnic, the first game was intended to test the knowledge of the group on characters in the Bible. Well—most of us passed at least.

At the close of the game, someone spied something that looked like hot dogs, and everybody scampered off to get a substantial "pole" to roast these palatable animals upon. Then the fun began — everybody crowded around and the hot dogs marshmallows, grapes, dopes, etc., soon disappeared.

Food gone—the group gathered around the fireplace and in the quiet of the twilight hours, lifted their voices in song. What a fitting close for a perfect afternoon.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS

According to one Dr. Pressey, of the Ohio State University, psychological department, the great cause of men flunking out of school is bad teeth rather than stupidity or lack of study. He doesn't say, though, whether he is a doctor of dentistry or philosophy.—Ring-Tum Phi.

A little ditty called the hit of the week, or the Freshman Song, is being sung by all green-topped marvels at the Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S. D. It is a take-off on the popular song, "You've Got Me In the Palm of Your Hand."

Dr. E. K. Plyer, of the University of North Carolina physics department, has announced discovery of the "atomerg," the smallest unit of matter thus far known. Its probable size is illustrated by a decimal point and 47 ciphers and the figure 7—which is pretty small.

Dr. Campbell, who retired last June from his position of dean of the University, is the only faculty member who went all the way to Maine to see the eclipse of the sun.—Ring-Tum Phi.

What is believed to be an all-time record for delayed mail delivery was brought to light when letters mailed in 1904, 1906, and 1919 to W. Walton Edwards, a Washington lawyer who died five years ago were placed in the mail box of Mrs. Edwards in Los Altox, California.

Sue Yeaman said: "When I am sad I sing; then others are sad with me."

CALENDAR

Thursday, October 6

7:00—Freshman Debate Club Try-outs
7:00—A. A. Council meeting.

Friday, October 7

4:30—Y. W. C. A. Picnic held at Longwood.
7:45—Recognition service, Y. W. C. A.
5:00—Student Standards Committee Meeting.
7:00—Monogram Club meeting

Saturday, October 8

2:00—Monogram hike
6:45—Sing

Monday, October 10

4:00—Varsity Hockey tryouts
7:00—Virginian staff meeting
8:00—Alpha Kappa Gamma meeting.

Tuesday, October 11

4:00—Varsity Hockey try-outs
7:00—Senior Installation
10:00—Student Council meeting

Wednesday, October 12

7:00—Rotunda Staff meeting
7:30—Pi Gamma Mu meeting

OPEN FO

Dear Editor:

Now that the freshm S. T. C. are full fledged memb the student body, having sig he honor code and having attend entation classes, a grave respo ity rests upon them. There is n se now, for any misdemeano e have studied, and we have ged our word of honor that we reak no rules of the school.

To some students, ne the idea of an honor system or ior code, this seems strange or ridiculous—"Why should I any old pledge?"—or "Why sho t study any rules?" seems to be predominant thought. The si of the honor code seemed to to be a huge joke. Perhaps this because they did not understand

Honor is too great a t for any of us to try to understa ally and completely. It takes in that is noble—all that is good ne in a person. Since time im rial, a man's honor has been hi prized possession and many tim n days of old knights gave their in protection of their honor. W en this brief statement of the ness of honor, we begin to have w conception of what honor mean to us.

Let us pledge oursel s ourselves to support the h ode to the best of our ability—he improvement of our charac nd the strengthening of our hon

Hazel th, '36

SENIOR CLASS BEGI ORK

The Senior Class held ist regular meeting Tuesday nig number of plans for the co year were discussed. First a most, was that of Senior instan, for no one feels that she is a r until Dr. Jarman has placer cap upon her head. This cer y will be held next Tuesday nig seven o'clock in the large audito. Everyone is invited to attend

A committee was appo to work on our class product which will be presented some time first part of December. Be sure ave a quarter, because you can afford to miss this when it is sta Committees to work on the circuntants, arrange program of Seniotallatoin, and Thanksgiving appointed.

The Senior dues for this are $3—one dollar to be paid term. Every Senior is urged to pers as soon as possible. As a mea making money, the Seniors sandwiches and dopes in the en of the Senior building at 10 o'clock each night. If you are hungry at this time, come around and buy something that is good and appetizing.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

The Y. W. C. A. Cabinet will hold its annual "Set Up Conference" at Longwood October 7 and 8. The chief work of this conference will be discussion of the plans submitted by the heads of the various committees. Including the Cabinet and committees there are about one hundred girls who will help carry out these plans.

Thursday evening, October 6, the Y. W. will formally recognize freshmen and new girls as members. All new girls will wear white and sit in reserved seats. The faculty and student body are cordially invited.

MORNING WATCH

The Service Committee urges students to attend morning watch. These services are held each Sunday after breakfast in the Student Building lounge. The programs consisting of talks and musical selections, are short and impressive.

These are the things that I shall not forget
When the day's work is done;
The little kindness I may have shown
To some;
The burdens that I may have helped to bear
Through the day,
For comrades walking with me down the way.

I shall know I'd not done too much,
Where there was much to do;
But this I hope, when the long hours pass
In swift review
I shall look back and wish that I had done
Oh, so much more,
When I turn at evening to my door.

Professor (endeavoring to impress on the class the definition of cynic): "Young man, what would you call a man that pretends to know everything?"

Senior: "A professor."

SUBSIPTION BLANK

Please send THETUNDA to the address below, for which I am enclosing dolar and a half ($1.50) which pays my subscription until e, 1933.

Name _____

Address _____

Send blank to FRAN POTTS, Bus. Mgr. of The Rotunda

Taylor Mfg.

Contracting ilding

Phone No. 260

N. MAIN ST. FVILLE

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON

A Complete Beauty Service At Moderate Prices

WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville Va.

"Farmvils Best Place to Shop"

—is at—

—HE HUB—

Come in and g quainted with us. We welcome you t T. C. and Farmville!

MAIN STRE FARMVILLE

A COLLEGIATE INSTITUTION for BUSINESS TRAINING

QUALIFY for business opportunities with professional training offered in Secretarial Science. Placement service for graduates, with the number of employment calls showing an increase in 1931.

Accounting and Business Administration Courses leading to B.C.S. and M.C.S. degrees given under an able staff of Certified Public Accountants, University Graduates and Attorneys-At-Law.

Write or call for information about summer session courses.

204 Colleges and Universities Represented In Annual Student Body Enrollment of 1,600.

STRAYER COLLEGE
719 13TH ST.-NATIONAL 1748
WASHINGTON, D.C.
CATALOG UPON REQUEST

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Management
MRS. MARY ROUNDY, Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

Electric Shoe Shop

Will Fix Your Shoes
While You Wait

BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go To Wade's

—For—

The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S

The Home of the Needs

C. E. Chappell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies

Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

MAIN STREET
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community For Over Half a Century

FINEST TOILET REQUISITES
DRUGS AND STATIONERY

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

SLAMS AND GRAND SLAMS

Jean McClure and "Preacher" Bouldin are still very, very much that way about each other. (Oh, Mistah Winchell, where art thou?). She even rates with prospective mothers-in-law. Jean, Jean, do be careful . . . We nominate Dillon and Burgwyn for champion college widows—and what a platform we could give them . . . And how does Jenilee Knight crash through the one and only Redhead as victim of the spoils? . . . Nancy Parker, there oughta be a law! What will all that hundred and ninety-nine other freshmen do if you insist on monopolizing Jack Grey? . . . And Antoinette Jones has transferred permanently from Annapolis to W. & L. She must like the fraternity houses better than those simply precious uniforms . . . What freshman was that who registered excitement with such abandon that she rushed down through the Rotunda pajama-clad to catch a long distance call? Um—bet that wasn't one of those "reverse the charges" messages . . . . Dot Waynick says her temperature still shoots up when she opens a letter from Ed. And when she says up she means up. He's a constant affliction to that—and, more power to him, if he needs it . . . Shades of dear old McGann, we now have Sue Hume to keep Ann's Bucky Lewis in circulation . . . And by the way, A. Moore—gym hall seems a ghost of its old self with you in Junior-Senior building. The House Council is putting in a petition for more work to do . . . Just a minute—does Charlotte Oakie like red hair or does she like red hair? Last year it was J. B. Massey of the flaming locks, and this year she's making a shining Roanokese sit up and say his alphabet. Charlotte, Charlotte, is it a gift? . . . And ahuh—we hear that gal Jennie Hurt made time and more time this summer under the influence of ye ol'de moon at ye olde beach— and er —maybe under the influence of one, 'Scotty" Copeland.

Recommended to diversion seekers: Shannon's—when the call of the Camel becomes too strong . . . .

Mrs. Tabb's tea room whenever there's an extra dime or two in the roommate's pocket-book . . . . .

Hampden-Sydney when little girls want to be veddy, veddy bad and defy dat ol' davil, Government . . . .

S. T. C.'s library when the new copies of "Life" and "Judge"' make their monthly appearance.

"Thus ends ye olde colyumn!"

To Our Editor

"What have you done," the angel asked, "That I should admit you here?"

"I ran a paper," the editor said, "For my college for one long year."

The angel pityingly shook his head and gravely touched a bell.

"Come in, poor thing, and select your harp; you've had your share of hell."

AWARDING COLOR CUP IS CLIMAX OF A. A. YEAR

A silver loving cup a reward of the A. A. adorns the fine place in the Rotunda. This cup is given to the color, green and white or red and white which receives the highest number of points.

The cup was first placed there in 1927 with the green and white colors waving the first year. Since that time the possession of the cup has alternated from year to year. The season 1932 resulted in a tie, therefore, both red and green colors are found on the cup this year.

The athletic season for 1932 has just begun. No points have been awarded toward the cup. Hockey, tennis, and archery are fall sports, and the class which gains points from these will have a running start toward victory.

It has been predicted that the fight for the color cup will be a close one. Which will be on the cup, Red and White, or Green and White?

Your support and enthusiasm will be a determining factor. How will you meet this challenge?

A. A. SPONSORS FUN ON SATURDAY EVENING

All of us have heard the expression that no play makes dull teachers.

The Athletic Association has a remedy to suggest for dullness. Each Saturday evening from eight o'clock to 10 o'clock the gymnasium will be turned into a recreation center. Such games as ring tennis checkers, ping pong, volley ball and Jack rocks will be played.

The student body is cordially invited to come and spend an enjoyable evening in play.

TENNIS AND ARCHERY TO LAST WHOLE TERM

This year tennis and archery are being conducted throughout the year. Hockey season is here too, so take your pick and come out for at least one sport. Louise Walmsley is Doreen's assistant for tennis. Louise is a freshman and very much interested in athletics. She showed great interest in athletics in the College High School. Frances Horton is the assistant in archery. Alice and Frances should develop William Tells out of us all. Lelia Mattox is assisting Hildegarde Ross in hockey. Lelia has shown her ability and willingness to work. We should have a most successful season with Hildegarde and Lelia as managers of hockey.

BOSTON SINFONIETTA PRESENTS PROGRAM

Continued from page one

Minuet from "Platee"
Musette from "Fetes d'Hebe."
Tambourine from "Tetes d'Hebe"
Symphony No. 104 in D major, Haydn
Adagio—Allegro
Andante
Menuetto
Allegro spiritoso

VARSITY-OUTS TO BELD NEXT WEEK

Varsity outs will be held Monday and day of next week. The object of e try-outs is to pick a varsity s of about twenty-five girls, fro ich a varsity team will be picked.

Everyo urged to try out. It certainly t hurt you and you may get a plt surprise. Freshmen, you won' judged in comparison with upp men, but by how much pre you show, so don't be afraid to e.

Let's s ery upperclassman and freshman is interested in athletics out o athletic field next Monday and day any time from four to six.

COLLE HIGH HAS HOCKEY TEAM

For thit time the College High School ote Teachers College has an inter astic hockey team. This team is ized under the auspices of the hchool physical education and Atc Association departments. Is Duvahl Ridgeway and Lucille s, college seniors who are teac physical education in the Tra School will coach the team.

Franc Burger is manager of hockey, Kate Matherly is president o e Athletic Association. Games been arranged with Petersburgh School whose team is coached Miss Mary Frances Hatchett, a er student and professor of State chers College.

This ct is a worthy one and will tend improve the physical education rtment of both the College Hi chool and the State Teacher lege. The college athletic field wi used for practices. This experien ill enable these girls to be bette ckey players when they enter co , and will be a source of pleasure hose who may be unable to atter llege.

UNEXCTED UPSETS OF'E PASSING YEAR

Cued from page one

months they do, the world will probabl her throbs of excitement, forget tepression.

"SET CONFERENCE" LD AT LONGWOOD

Cued from page one day mog by Jane Royall, ex-officio mer of Y. W.

Busin will be resumed at 10:00 o'clock, urday morning, with devotional by iMss Nickols, chairman of isory Board. Reports by the chan of the committees will be follow by a general discussion.

Petite S ..... Debussy
En Ba
Corte
Ballet
Second ment "Andante Cantabile", Shony No. 5 Tchaikovsky
Spanish ce "Jota"' .... Granados
Dance o Hours ..... Ponchielli

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM OCT. 5 TO 11

WED. — TOM MIX in "THE FOURTH HORSEMAN". This latest picture of the most popular Western Star on the screen is packed full of action from beginning to end. The plot is one that will interest the grown folks as well as the youngsters, for there is a love story, a heroine, the villian and his cohorts and, of course Tom and his horse Toney to make things right and happy .Tom's pictures are being shown in the biggest and best theatres of the country therefore you should not confuse them with the ordinary "Westerns." Also Mickey McGuire comedy and the last episode of RIN-TIN-TIN in "THE LIGHTNING WARRIOR."

THURS. & FRI.—"THE BLONDE VENUS" with MARLENE DIETRICH supported by the coming personality of Hollywood, CARY GRANT. This is the picture that nearly split Director Joseph Von Sternberg and Paramount, with Dietrich threatening to return to Europe. What could she do but flee from love? She loved two men at once—her husband and the man who helped her to save her husband's life. She pitied one so much that she loved him. The other pitied her so much, she loved him, too. Here's the love secret no woman dares to admit—even to herself. Every man and woman will be fascinated by Dietrich's intensified glamor in her first American role. A picture not to be missed. Extra! Screen Song featuring Irene Bordoni in "Just a Gigolo."

SAT.—D. W. GRIFFITH'S "THE STRUGGLE" with HAL SKELLY and ZITA JOHANN. Wet or dry, red, white or blue-nosed. Whatever your opinion you'll be startled, held tense by the sheer daring of this hundred-proof drama of America. Here is youth rising above temptation; love accomplishing what laws fail to achieve. Not a preachment but a mighty story of a man of steel and a woman with a heart of gold. Temptation beckoned its finger and held in its hand a vial of delight. Into a seething sea of folly he plunged, only to burn a brutal scar on the heart of the woman he loved. Another monument of glory moulded by that genius, D. W. Griffith. Also Fox Latest News and Aesop Fable.

NEXT MON. & TUES.—"BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE." Here are sights See him capture a baby elephant. See thrills you may never behold again. The sensation picture that has made cosmopolites gasp and broken theatre records all over the country. Every foot of the picture was made in the Malayan jungle by Frank Buck. See him capture a baby elehant. See a 30 foot python at death's grip with a Royal Bengal tiger. See the fight to a finish between a black panther and a jungle tiger. Here's a marvelous picture for every member of the family, and one you will never forget. The management guarantees this picture absolutely. How would you like to see a lone white man in the heart of the jungle entrap a 25-foot bone-crushing snake with his bare hands—and live? We advise you not to miss the greatest picture ever made. Also Mickey McGuire Comedy and Paramount News.

DAILY MATINEE at 4 p. m. Evenings at 8 o'clock.

Red Rose Store

LUNCHEONETTE

Cut Rate Drug Sundries

New headquarters for S. T. C. Girls

SODAS SANDWICHES

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS — Willis — FARMVILLE FLORIST VIRGINIA

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

PHONES 181-273

Martin JEWELER

Gifts of Lasting Remembrance

317 Main Street

Farmville, Virginia

Kleanwell

CLEANERS AND TAILORS

Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments

Special prices for cleaning and remodeling

Main Street, Opposite Postoffice

PHONE 198

SouthsideDrugStore

Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh films)

LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS

Filler Paper—7 cents each 3 for 20c

Just One Block From Campus

S. A. Legus

TAILORING

CLEANING

AND PRESSING

Farmville, Virginia

G. F. Butcher & Co.

The Convenient Store

FOR GOOD

THINGS TO

EAT AND DRINK

Gray's Drug Store

QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE

Come in and Get Acquainted

We Are Glad to Have You With Us!

Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's

Is Headquarters for the Best

SANDWICHES

—and—

DRINKS

—in—

FARMVILLE!

Davidson's HOUSE OF QUALITY

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

Is headquarters for class room needs, bed room furnishings and stylish apparel.

A HEARTY WELCOME TO OUR MIDST

FARMVILLE

BALDWIN'S

"THE STYLE SHOP FOR LADIES"

WELCOME S. T. C. STUDENTS!

We invite you to visit us often

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

HAVE YOUR PICTURE MADE

THE ROTUNDA

POE

ENTER THE TENNIS TOURNAMENT

We Teach To Teach

Volume XIII | THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1932 | No. 4

First Pictures Are Made For "The Virginian" Today

Annual Staff Gives Minute Instructions For Taking Pictures

The first pictures were made for the 1933 Virginian today in the Little Sitting Room, now, an improvised studio. Anyone who did not make an appointment either Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday morning may make one now at the studio; some member of the staff will be there every period to help the photographer.

All senior's pictures are taken in black velvet drapes; since it takes a few minutes to put these on, it will help the photographer if seniors will come to room 87 Main—on the corner next to the Little Sitting Room—a little ahead of their appointment, to be draped.

Juniors, sophomores, and freshmen may wear any dress they prefer; just as a suggestion, howrver, a dark sport dress shows up decidedly better. Make-up should be used very sparingly!

At the studio, there will be two ledgers—one in which all orders for extra cuts are recorded; the other for sophomore and senior write-ups.

By extra cuts, one means all individual pictures to be used in the book with the exception of the one in the class section. As has been the custom each year, under each senior's and sophomore's name, there will be placed her address and the organizations to which she belongs. Please write these in the ledger when you have your sitting at the appointed time. A copy of all appointments will be placed upon the small bulletin board; if any one has forgotten her time, she may refer to this list.

Try to remember all of these little things that save quite a bit of time for other people!

Dr. Jarman Installs Class of 1933 In Formal Exercises

At a memorial service last night in the college auditorium Dr. Jarman installed 103 S. T. C. students as seniors.

The Senior Installation Service began with the seniors followed by their "little sisters" marching in to the tune of the "Alma Mater" played by Miss Virginia Potts.

After the invocation by Dr. Frederick Diehl of the Episcopal church, a quartet composed of Jennie Wheeler, Ruth Ford, Doreen Smith, and Frances Potts, members of the senior class, rendered a musical selection.

Each senior, with her "little sister" carrying the cap, knelt before Dr. Jarman who installed her as a senior by placing the senior cap on her head.

In a short but helpful talk to the seniors, Dr. Jarman reminded them of their position of responsibility and dignity in being "leaders of our big family."

The recessional march of seniors and "little sisters" concluded the program.

STUDENTS FIND IDEAL COLLEGE PROFESSOR

The ideal college professor has been found. Anyway, the students of a certain class in Ohio State thought so when they were served tea and cakes at the close of one of his examinations.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET

Standing, left to right: Margaret Jack, Lois Cox, Pauline Jorances Ratcliffe, Imogene West, Sarah James, Jestine Cutshall, Doreith, Dorothy Bloomfield, Joyce Sturm.

Kneeling: Honey Hamilton, Lucille Ingram, Edith Shanks, Gtowell, Winston Cobb, Sue Yeaman.

Straw Vote To Be Held At S. T. C.

Beginning Thursday morning, October 13, a straw vote for the presidency, will run at S. T. C. for two weeks under the auspices of "The Rotunda."

The object of this vote is to give students an idea of what real voting is like and also to encourage a study of the presidential campaign.

The three outstanding candidates are Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democrat; Herbert Hoover, Republican, and Norman Thomas, Socialis.

S. T. C. is near enough to Republican territory to make the contest keen and interesting.

In order to avoid confusion a box will be placed at the table in the hall immediately after each meal in which students may place ballots.

Every student is urged to take advantage of this opportunity which comes only once in a life time.

The election closes at noon Wednesday October 26 and the results will be published in the Rotunda that evening.

COLLEGE HIGH GIRLS ORGANIZE BOOK CLUB

The first and second year girls of the College High School met Friday night in the Student Building lounge to organize a book club. A short autumn program was given, and plans for more definite organization were made.

The girls plan to read not only the suggested parallel books but also other widely-read books, current events, and outstanding magazine articles.

The organization will hold meet-

Continued on page three

Y. W. C. A. Plan the Year's Work

The Young Women's Christian Association of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia, its second annual conference at Longwood on October 7 and 8. aim of this conference is to formand discuss association plans forear.

The conference was finally opened with a picnic supper Friday evening, with the Cabinet the Advisory Board, committee chairmers, and Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Combs present. Games were played supper (served in cafeteria style) was eaten before a fire in the rock-built-out-door fireplace, and later, songs were sung before an open fire in the bin.

The formal business session opened at 7:30 p. m. in the library at Longwood with Winston Cobb, president of the Y. W., presiding. Rev. Combs led devotionals. Miss Margaret Nichols, chairman of the Advisory Board, briefly told the officers and Cabinet members the purpose of the conference and their duties in regard to this purpose. The committee on revision of the local constitution made its report, and the yearly budget was explained. Reports of the membership, social, town girl, and other committees were then made.

After the business meeting adjourned at 10:00 p. m., a social hour was enjoyed at the cabins. The recreational period was followed by a "Candlelight Service" at which time the delegates at the conference holding lighted candles, formed a circle and sang "Follow the Gleam" and "Bless Be the Tie That Binds."

Jane Royall, ex-officio member of the Cabinet, led morning watch on

Continued on page

Rat Week Begins With Fun For the Sophomores; Fear For the Freshmen

Sophomores Lay Down Set Rules By Which "Rats" Must Abide

Rat Week starts Wednesday, Oct. 19. The rules issued by the mighty Sophomores, read:

I.—These rules must be carried out by every freshman living either in school or in town. No rules are in effect after six p. m., any day.

II.—General Rules: (which must be carried out every day, beginning Wednesday of next week 7:30 a. m., and ending Tuesday of the next wek at 6:00 p. m.)

All freshmen must—

1. Make up the right side of the face only.
2. Wear one earring and that on the right ear.
3. Part hair in the middle.
4. Not enter doors before upperclassmen.

III.—Special rules for each day in the week are as follows:

Monday

1. Do not enter the Rotunda door or the front door of the dining room.
2. Wear a bow of red ribbon or red paper four inches wide on the right side of the hair.

Tuesday

1. Do not talk within campus bounds, except in rooms and class rooms.
2. Do not speak to any boy on the street.

Wednesday

1. Talk baby talk all day except in classes.
2. Carry a clock around so that all upperclassmen can tell the time.
3. Meet in the gym at 7 o'clock dressed like babies for the Baby Parade. A prize will be offered for the best baby costume.

Thursday

1. Carry a doll or boudoir pillow under the arm all day except in class

Continued on page three

Alpha Kappa Gamma Sponsors Circus

Anticipated with keen interest by all old students and eagerly looked forward to by new, one of the great events in student life is about to take place—Perhaps, already, the whispers of popcorn, peanuts, pink lemonade, elephants, sideshows, sawdust,—circus! have reached you. Yes! The circus is coming—and coming in a big way—We hear promises of midgets, trapeze artists, cabaret dancers, horseback riders, everything—even that tang of circus atmosphere found in the big tent of the real thing seems to be in the air.

The circus is coming to Farmville November 5. There will be a big parade in the afternoon—clowns, monkeys, happiness and general "Good Time" will lead the parade, and, it is told, laughter, too will play a prominent part.

The circus is sponsored by Alpha Kappa Gamma, and all organizations are urged to start planning their part of the big show and not to forget the unusual and adorable prizes which will be given to the best.

The spirit of the old time is in the air. The circus band plays in the distance—the laughter of crowds comes to our ears, and the delicious swish of many feet over deep sawdust. We see a kaleidoscope of color—moving—beautiful—happy — alive! The circus is coming!

Varsity Debate Questions Given

At the regular meeting of Pi Kappa Delta Monday evening, the subject for varsity debates for the current session was announced.

The subject is "The Cancellation of War Debts." Whether or not we could cancel our war debts will be proved by Pi Kappa Delta debates throughout the country. S. T. C. is planning to have two subjects debated on the affirmative and negative sides if possible.

Any student interested is urged to try out for the varsity debate team. These try-outs are to be held November 14. S. T. C. is also planning to send delegates to the Pi Kappa Delta convention to be held in Nashville this year.

GIRL SCOUT COURSE GIVEN BY MISS BORN

A course for training Girl Scout leaders will be given the first week in November, beginning October 31. The class will meet every day for one week. The course will be conducted by Miss Born from the Girl Scout National Headquarters, New York City. The fee charged for taking the course will be $1.00, which is to be paid at the business office. Those interested in taking this course please sign name on the bulletin board in the gymnasium.

PHYSICAL INSPECTION OCTOBER 12 AND 13

All old students are asked to notice the hours when they are scheduled for rphysical inspection October 12 and 13. Dr. Field expects to complete inspections this week. Every student must have one or the other. A fee is charged for either a physical examination or inspection after this week.

Curriculum Meeting Held at S. T. C. Mon. and Tues.

Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, October 10, and Tuesday, October 11, the high school and grade teachers of the counties of Southside Virginia met at State Teachers College, Farmville, to discuss the reports of the various committees on the State Curriculum program. The committees which had made their reports were the committees on principles, aims, definitions, and procedures. These plans and reports were made during the first week in May, when curriculum conferences were held at the State Department of Education. In order to extend further the opportunity to teachers for curriculum study, each higher institution of the state increased its offering by extension courses and regular summer school courses.

The conference held at the college proves the eager interest of the teachers of Southside Virginia in curriculum plans and reports. The conference was attended by a large group of interested teachers from surrounding counties.

DE-HO-EC CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The De-Ho-Ec Club held its first meeting to elect officers.

Lillian Woodley	President
Sally Perrow	Vice-President
Tac Waters	Sec.-Treas.
Hortense Miles	Reporter

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia.

Published by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year.

ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
Associate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... LELIA MATTOX, '35
Literary Editor ..... GERTRUDE MANNES '34
Athletic Editor ..... MARY JESS RICHMOND, '33
World News Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY '33
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY KATHRYN TAYLOR '35
Social Editor ..... DOREEN SMITH '33
Art Editor ..... GERTRUDE SUGDEN, '34
Feature Editors ..... BIRDIE WOODING '35
MARY SHELTON, '34
Humorous Editor ..... BELLE LOVELACE '35
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

LOTTIE WHITE '35 HAZEL SMITH '36 DOROTHY WOOLWINE '34
SARAH ROWELL '33 WINIFRED PUGH '34
CARRIE DESHAZO '33 MARGARET COPENHAVER '34
Proof Reader ..... ELIZABETH VASSAR '35
Assistant Proof Reader ..... KATHERINE WALTON '35

Managers

Business Manager ..... FRANCES POTTS '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY '34
Circulation Manager ..... ELIZABETH WALTHALL '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... FRANCES HORTON '34

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matters should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Farmville Prestige

During the past year, Farmville has played an important part in the educational system of Virginia. Today, her part is greater than ever.

The curriculum meeting for this section of the state was held here Monday and Tuesday of this week. State Superintendent Hall was here to address the County Superintendents and teachers. All who attended the meeting derived much benefit from this and the departmental discussion groups which were led by outstanding educators of Virginia. The fact that Farmville is the center of these activities adds to her prestige.

Another honor and privilege comes to Farmville in being joint hostess with Hampden-Sydney for the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association which will be held at S. T. C. October 21 and 22. Student representatives from almost all of the colleges of the state will be present to participate in every phase of the convention. Through this meeting the colleges will be brought closer together and encouraged to strive for better publications. The object of the convention is to foster journalism and literary productions among college students throughout the state.

Farmville does not overlook the development of sports. A golf course is being started at Longwood. An instructor will be engaged once a week to aid the girls in improving their game of golf. This is an excellent opportunity for the girls who play golf to better their game and for those who do not play to lear how. Although there is only a driving tee at Longwood now, it is hoped that in the near future a complete course will be completed.

The Straw Vote

It is hoped that every student will vote for her candidate in the presidential straw vote to be held at S. T. C. in the next two weeks.

This vote enables students to get a glimpse of the time when they will be real voters and in that way help determine the fate of the na

The e student today is the nation's leader of tomorrow. His and ideas are being formed now, and it is with the great terest that these views are noted throughout the country t

Ther special reason why the votes this fall are watched by advoc f both parties.

For years the Republican party has been in control, and very hanges have occurred in government. The depression is o United States has a high tariff, she is watched skeptical certain European countries. A change of party is inevitabl wouldn't it prove a good thing?

Soci ally, we know that new people bring progressive ideas. Is sensible to try that which has not failed—and hope—th continue with that which has failed?

For reason, each student is urged to vote and boost the cand she thinks should occupy the White House the next fou rs.

W'S WHO

Beginnith this issue, a series of articles he various honor societies wi inted. The object of these arti to bring the honor societies t the student body, also to make i their contribution to college ji jectives and to let everyone why they are known as honor ties.

ALPHAPPA GAMMA

The Jo cle of Alpha Kappa Gamma mville is one of the three circ this organization for leadership omanly service. With Joan of A its patron, the Circle hopes to his college to be "an institutio ich looks forward to an ideal, raises high its sword in battle st illiteracy, which inspires yo omen to leadership in their co nd which prepares its daughter in the citizens of tomorrow." idealism is expressed in the C gift to the college—the equa Joan of Arc which stands in olonnade.

Togeth h the fostering of high ideals an preserving of college tradition a Kappa Gamma has as its p the recognition of construc adership among the students, ordination of campus activities the bringing together of stude faculty leadership on a basis dual understanding.

Eligibi membership requires full jun anding, good citizenship, a olarship, constructive leadershi effective service in the college a s and life. "One must have ca the spirit of the institution a ve made the college a better p because of her serviceable citiz ."

Alpha a Gamma, active members:

Wi Cobb
Met Gathright
H Gilliam
Je Knight
AlcKay
M'homas Rawls
Jaoyall
Hirde Ross
Dedegar
Mer
Mix
Motts

Associ embers:
Mubbs
Mary Clay Hiner

Honor embers:
Mila Andrews
Mary White Cox
Milen Glasgow
Minnie M. Tabb
Mina Hyatt Huntington

Amae News

The T-Dispatch sponsored a bridge ament in Richmond which wen to all readers of the paper. Tournament was played in the Jo arshall Hotel and drew contestan om Richmond and all nearby es. Farmville alumnae were am he players. Mrs. P. P. Lipscomb the winner of a handsome cup

The en faculty and a number of patron armville High School greeted new president of the league, M. H. Cocks (Gretchen Obenshain a recent meeting. The president ed her sincere efforts in behalf e league and expressed appreci of the cooperation shown he the organization of committee the year.

We have ived announcements of th following marriages:

Juli Faris to William Brockwell Trevilan, Rockville, Md., Sept. 22.

Mar aret Daniel to Richard Henry Fes on September 17.

Miss Edna and Lena Welchlin are in Richmond taking a business course at the Pan-American Business School

Invations have been issued for the edding of Mary Rutherfoord Bernard and Alexander Hamilton on Satuay, October 29.

MUCH ADO 'BOUT NOTHIN'

A freshman wants to know what the student body is. For her information, it's the unknown student who died from too much studying. Her body is stored in the senior basement along with the trunks.

Dot Snedegar asked Hildegarde if she recognized the tune she was singing. Hildie didn't, but no wonder, she was singing a monotone.

Martha Gunter is acquiring the habit of talking in her sleep. Who could blame her for this? She doesn't get a chance to get a word in edgeway during the day. The reason being this: Liz Walthall, better known as Pathe or eyes and ears of the world, is her roommate.

Then there's the freshman who wants to know if Little Sisters have to carry their Big Sister's cap on the five mile hikes.

Gazelle Ware wanted to know why she didn't get her senior mail box sooner. She was expecting mail, but forgot that M. K. T. still ran that department.

We hear there's a senior who has taken up crocheting on the side.

Alice Moore has at last gotten her teeth clean.

JUST WHO ARE THESE RATS

Doris Eley—small edition of "Maggie" with just as much pep. Seen often with "Rah-Rah" Parker and "Little" Hall—not to mention a following of H. S. C. men.

"Red" Reddick—just another "Annie P." from Suffolk. Known as Wrigley's best advertiser, or is it Beechnut?

Ann Irving—a double for Dorothy Jordon. Seen smiling innocently into the eyes of some member of the stronger sex.

Ellen Simmerman—hails from the good ol Southwest and has the well-known brogue. Is causing upperclassmen concern over a couple of H. S. C. guys.

Margret Webster—five feet two, eyes of blue, and a cute little turned-up nose. Seen often with the Norfolk Frosh.

Mary Elizabeth Alexander—well, we had better ask "Bo" about her, for he seems to have a monopoly.

Nanc Parker—Miss Josephine College in person! Has our "Honey" worried. Oh, yeah!

Jessi Lee Swisher—from East Radfor, but don't hold it against her. She's O. K.

Frances Crawford—an ideal freshman! Knows the status of a rat!

Virginia Hall—the little curly-headed blond. Seen often with a flutter of eyelashes.

Mar Gin Miller—last but not least the litle "love bird." Seen often with a certin red-headed H. S. C. frosh.

THE PSALM OF A HISTORY STUDENT

Dr. Walmsley's my teacher, I shall not pass.
He requireth me to answer strange questions;
He assigneth me parables which he
He giveth me low grades for my own never discusseth; sake.
Yea, tho' I wade through the pages of monotonous books, the words do not linger:
For soon I forget,
His smile and wink should comfort me;
But he prepareth those tests for me heeding not my entreaties;
He chuckles at my answers:
My hope runneth away.
Surely History shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I must dwell in this State Teachers College forever.

L. W. W., '35

EGOTISM

There should have been a moon
And a gloriously star-lit night—
A scent of jasmine in the air
When you went away from me.

Our romance had been a fragile
Thing in itself—
Tender with youth and laughter and Temperamental silences
Soon dispelled.

Don't you see, 'twas unkind
Of you
To choose your leave-taking
By the piercing light of noon-day?

There's nothing but heat and glare
And a maze of half-choked words—
A crushing hand-clasp
To remember—

You were trembling when you held
My hand in yours—
Your voice was bewildered and heavy
And there was pain
In your eyes.

I'm just a bit glad you had
Such a hard time of it.

'Twas quite unnecessary—honestly—
Because
You'll be coming back to me,
I think,
Very soon.

AUTUMN RAIN

The gentle swish of the trees,
The soft splash on the window,
The slow drip from the eaves,
The continuous pater on the roof,
The silence of all wild life,
And the peacefulness of the whole world
Cause me to love the autumn rain.

E. W.

SUNSET

Such magnificence, such splendor—
The brush of man could never paint
The pen of man could never tell,
Only God in his glory and love
Could paint such perfection.

E. W.

ON HEARING DR. JARMAN SING IN CHAPEL

I saw the day drawing to a close,
Sunset across the vast expanse of sea.
Two lovers, alone on the sands,
Imploring, begging
That their love continue forever,
On through the ages.

I saw two grenadiers
Returning from prison.
Hopeless and despairing.
Hark! the stirring "Marseilles"
And hope springs anew
In each breast.

I saw a mother—
Gentle, patient, sacrificing,
She of the "silver threads in her hair"—
Heart so full of love and hope.
Resolves spring anew in our hearts.
And "Mother Machree" is being sung.

M. G., '34

SOCIALS

The following girls spent the week-end at South Boston: Belle Lovelace, Martha Cross, Margaret Parker, Katherine McLemore, and Lelia Lovelace.

• • •

Virginia Hodnett was the guest of Edith Dudley at her home in Staunton.

• • •

Ruth Showalter, Maymie Showalter, and Jennie Hurt spent the week-end in Kenbridge.

• • •

Page Luck and Frances Barrell were in Ashland during the week-end.

• • •

The following girls spent the week-end in Richmond: Rebecca Owen, Elizabeth Field, Margaret Gathright, Frances Dorin, Gracie Virginia Bass, Evelyn Knaub, and Lucille Tiller.

• • •

Susan Gresham was the guest of her parents in Portsmouth during the week-end.

• • •

Virginia Thornhill was the guest of Janet Harris at her home in Lynchburg. Others who were in Lynchburg this week-end were Iola McIntyre, Billy Wilkinson, Mary Harris, Betty Tice, Kitty Waters, Elizabeth Steptoe, Dorothy Woolwine, Celia Jones, Betsy Ross, and Dorothy Woolwine.

• • •

Margaret Hamlet spent the week-end with her parents in Phenix.

• • •

Louise Bullock, Dorothy Davis, Emily Meadows, and Lucille Good spent the week-end in Roanoke.

• • •

Virginia Guy, Anna Knox, and Kate Porter visited in Norfolk.

• • •

Cora Lee Briggs and Sarah Pittman were the guests of their parents in Suffolk.

• • •

Elizabeth Wall spent the week-end in Bristol.

• • •

Phyllis Denit and Mary Louise McNulty spent the week-end with friends in Lexington.

• • •

Margaret McCue and Iris Hart were the guests of Jean Massey at Hampden-Sydney.

• • •

Margaret Young and Mildred Hope visited Louise Clayton in Crewe.

• • •

Dorothy Ranson was the guest of her grandmother in Worsham during the week-end.

• • •

Sarah Sykes was the guest of friends in Danville.

• • •

Virginia Lanier spent the week-end at her home in Petersburg.

• • •

Jennie Wheeler and Mary Winston visited in Hopewell.

• • •

Mary Mustard and Harriet Hankins spent the week-end at their home in Cismont.

COLLEGE HIGH GIRLS ORGANIZE BOOK CLUB

Continued from page one

ings every two weeks in the lounge, where these girls will have the opportunity of spending a happy and cultural hour around a big fire in that cozy room and where they give reports, opinions, and discussions.

After this hour of discussion, the social hour will add its enjoyment.

OPEN FORUM

Dear Editor:

Several things have been happening around campus that annoy me a great deal.

The first is this habit of gossiping. It seems to have spread in almost every group. One freshman was heard to remark that she didn't like the Rotunda, but the Open Forum—is for just that purpose. Why not address your criticism to the editor instead of gossiping about it in the dark? Not only is there a habit of gossiping about but something similar to it—the spreading of propaganda. Already all over school one hears discussions of girls for Vanity Fair—This is all right in its place, but when a few girls do nothing but talk for their candidate and declaim all virtues of any others, then it should be stopped. In this way a group of girls often gets a girl elected who does not deserve the honor. Why not let the thing be done in an honorable way and let the best man win? The writer has a secret suspicion that these few girls are jealous of someone—is that the right spirit?

And last, but not least. It does seem that girls who have dates could get to church on time. It is very annoying to have "dates" straggling in after the second song or during reading of the Scripture. Those girls who claim to be so polite and courteous—and graceful—might think about this and improve.

Yours in good faith,

A Senior

ALUMNAE NEWS

Danville's alumnae of the Farmville State Teachers College entertained at a dinner on Monday evening, Oct. 3, at the Country Club Inn, in honor of Dr. J. E. Walmsley, who was the guest speaker that afternoon at a meeting of the Danville Education Association.

The table was decorated with fall flowers and orange colored candles. Covers were laid for fifteen. Those present included Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Walmsley, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Diddick, Mrs. Nora Payne Hill and the following alumnae: Mrs. Ruby Redd, Anne Ferree, Dorothy Myers, Peggy Walton Suzanne Holland, Virginia Raine, Mary Duncan, Harriet Foster, Antoinette and Greenhow Parker.

RAT WEEK BEGINS WITH FUN FOR SOPHOMORES

Continued from page one

and chapel.

2. Curl the hair on the right side and have it straight on the left side.

Friday

1. Wear hats and gloves all day. Take hats off upon entering class room but wear gloves.

2. Carry a photograph of a boy and show it when asked. If the picture is a small snapshot, pin it on the person where it can be easily seen

3. Meet in the gym at 7 o'clock to be presented rat caps and also class colors. Wear white.

All rat caps must be worn at all times (except after 6 o'clock) every day except Sundays, and except in chapel and to class. If freshmen win the hockey game Thanksgiving, they no longer have to wear caps but if they lose, they must wear those caps until Christmas. If a freshman is caught thre times without a rat cap, her name will be put in the rat box, and a punishment will be provided for breaking the rule.

Y. W. C. A.

RECOGNI

The Service Commi[tt]ue Yeaman, chairman, Fran[ces] ton, Elizabeth Vassar, Helen and Ida Mason Miller, arrang impressive candle light rec[og] service. Oct. 6. The committee[e]rs gave the new girls candles entered the auditorium. Wins[lo]bb gave the welcome and Dr. [Ja]ck Diehl the invocation. The ne[w] lit their candles from the can[dle] the Y. W. Cabinet. Winston and Dr. Diehl led the recession[al] he campus. The singing of[the] ow the Gleam" expressed the of the Y. W. C. A.

PICNI[C]

The Y. W. Cabinet a[d]mittees had a picnic at the c[ot]t Longwood, Friday, October [7] members were received by [fi]tal committee. A blazing log [fi]ade the cabin very cheerful and[en]t. The Advisory Board and st[u]showed playful spirit in the g[a]id contests. A delicious supp[er] served in cafeteria style at the[ir] oven.

The Y. W. Cabinet in[vi]of the Student Body wishes [to] nk Mr. Strick for the beautif[ul] sic at vespers, October 4.

Y. W. C. A. PLANS FOR YEAR WORK

Continued from pa[ge] Saturday at 8:30 a. m. breakfast the business session[s] opened by the president. Mi[ss] ols led devotionals. After devi[ns] the following reports were [pu]blicity, music, prayer, servi[ce] ch co-operative, conference [Con]vention, and world fellowsh[ip] siness meting adjourned [at] 0.

The Advisory Board, C[ab]inet members, Reverends Redhea[d] Lipscomb, and Dr. Jarman enter[ta]ined at a luncheon in [Lo]gwood Tea Room at 1:30.

The last business sess[ion] the conference was opened [by] president at 3:00 p. m. Dr. [Ha]ley of the Advisory Board le[d de]votionals. Winston Cobb, after the [ro]ll is called, gave a resume of th[e w]ork done at the Friday evening and Saturday morning sessions. Each chairman then gave her report in [a] brief and concise manner. Comments suggestions were made by [me]mbers of the Advisory Board. [Th]is was completed at 5 o'clock punch and wafers were served.

Those attending the conference left it with a feeling of greater knowledge, love, and inspiration for work in which they are engaged.

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM OCT. 13 TO 19

Thurs. & Fri., Oct. 13 & 14
Dorothy Wilson, the studio stenographer, Richard Cromwell and Eric Linden in
"The Age of Consent"
The story of a co-ed who thought she had to be a bad girl to make good. It takes place in college
Also First Chapter "The Last Frontire" Thursday Only!

Saturday, October 15
PHILLIPS HOLMES, DOROTHY JORDAN, JOHN MACK BROWN in
"70,000 Witnesses"
A mystery football picture that will grip you.
Also Gus Edwards' "School Days" and Fox Latest News

Next Mon., Oct. 17
HELEN TWELVETREES, ROBERT YOUNG, LEWIS STONE, JEAN HERSHOLT in
"Unashamed"
Also Aesop Fable and Sport

Next Tuesday, Oct. 18
LAUREL AND HARDY in
'Pack Up Your Troubles'
This is a feature picture and a scream
Also Flip the Frog and News

Next Wednesday, Oct. 19
CLIVE BROOK, LILA LEE, GENE RAYMOND, FRANCES DEE in
"The Night of June 13"
"I am a married man—she is my neighbor's daughter." What went on behind the blinds of respectability? See for yourself.
Also Chap. 2 THE LAST FRONTIER

Daily Matinees at 4 p. m. Evenings at 8 o'clock.
Admission, Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

The University of Kansas publication prints a "block list" of those professors who keep their classes after the bell rings.

It is whispered around that the Physical Education department at Ohio State has announced that incoming women are thinner since the depression.

At Bryn Mawr a recent survey shows that the sophomores work the most, seniors next, then juniors, and lastly freshmen.

Taylor Mfg.
Contracting ilding
Phone No. 26
N. MAIN ST. VILLE

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service At Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville Va.

A COLLEGIATE INSTITUTION for BUSINESS TRAINING
QUALIFY for business opportunities with professional training offered in Secretarial Science. Placement service for graduates, with the number of employment calls showing an increase in 1931.
Accounting and Business Administration Courses leading to B.C.S. and M.C.S. degrees given under an able staff of Certified Public Accountants, University Graduates and Attorneys-At-Law.
Write or call for information about summer session courses.
204 Colleges and Universities Represented In Annual Student Body Enrollment of 1,600.
STRAYER COLLEGE
719 13TH ST.–NATIONAL 1748
WASHINGTON, D.C.
CATALOG UPON REQUEST

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Under New Management
MRS. MARY ROUNDY, Lessee
208 Third Street Phone 355

Electric Shoe Shop
Will Fix Your Shoes While You Wait
BEST WORKMANSHIP AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go To Wade's
—For—
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made plies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. E. Chappell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
MAIN STREET
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community For Over Half a Century
FINEST TOILET REQUISITES
DRUGS AND STATIONERY

Mack's
"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"
We use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty
BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP
323 Main Street

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE
Lovelace Shoe Shop
110 Third Street

THE STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE POLL

(Leave your ballot at table in hall after meals)

FOR PRESIDENT

(Place X in square before name of your candidate)

[__] FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT (Dem.)

[__] HERBERT HOOVER (Rep.)

[__] NORMAN THOMAS (Soc.)

Name .....

"Farmvis Best Place to Shop"
—is at—
–HE HUB—
Come in and quainted with us. We welcome you T. C. and Farmville!
MAIN STRE FARMVILLE

SLAMS AND GRAND SLAMS

Martha Cross and Eddie Bell are romancing in the worst way . . . . Little Rawlings seems to be making time and more of it. Ask her who's taking her to Hampden-Sydney openings? . . . . And does Helen Cover get mail from Tennessee? John Grant —and be sure to use that broad A —is keeping Miss Tallaferro busy putting his epistles in just the right box . . . And we heard a good one the other day. Miss Coulling wants to know why they let the army and navy compete in football when the navy positively has no place to practice. And they shoot marbles! . . . . A. Moore is busy recognizing those fascinating "spit" tournaments that occupied library loafers all last year . . . .That gal Kitty Waters is still wearing the same fraternity pin—and ask her does she like it! . . . .Carol Jan Bibb has a positive faculty for going home for good and showing up at the end of the week-end ready to do the whole thing over in six more days . . . Celia Jones and Captain Joe Broadnax of V. M. I., if you don't mind, are flaming higher than ever before. Celia, Celia, how long is it going to last? . . . Katherine Young and "Buddy" Schirmarcher ('pon my word, Alphonse, is that spelled correctly?) are still on the up and up—and one of these cotillion-made romances at that! . . . Nubby Knaub's theme song has lasted through another year. "My Tommy" seems to hold all blue ribbons. And may his agony last . . . We want to know what attracts 'Bock" Copenhaver so irresistibly to either Richmond or U. of Va. every week-end? . . . And Jane Royall and Al Gilliespie, that Hampden-Sydney celebrity, are still veddy, veddy much that way about each other . . . Did Alice Rowell have a method in her madness last week-end, or did she? . . . . And ask "Libby" Mason if dat ol' davil Romance is still playing love songs for "Peachy" and her? . . . Is Honey Hamilton wearing a K. A. pin, or was it our imagination? . . . From all reports of summer activities Iola McIntyre beat Patty Ellison's time in a rather patent way . . . Lucille Tiller and Charlie Hecker, that big blond brute from Richmond, Va., are also romancing every chance they get . . And until next week, "Thus ends ye olde colyum."

In China millions believe that everyone has a guiding star which appears in the heavens at the time of his birth; in India wealthy families still drink scented water having a rose or jasmine fragrance and in Italy many people still leave their calling cards when visiting tombs.

Radio stars now advertise religion. Three San Francisco churches recently established the practice of using vaudeville acts as "added attractions" on their Sunday morning broadcast.

Varsity Hockey Squad Selec From Which Team Will Bcked Soon

The Varsity Hockey Squad for the season 1932-1933 has been chosen. It is is follows:

Billups, Elizabeth
Buchanan, Margaret
Clements, Audrey
Cooper, Catherine
Cooper, Nannie Ruth
Crute, Lucille
Davis, Dorothy
Fleet, Ruth
Fraser, Mary Burgess
Gunter, Martha
Gregory, Mary
Hutchinson, Ruth
McDaniel, Rachel
McDaniel, Frances
Mattox, Lelia
Massey, Marguerite
Ranson, Kathleen
Putney, Martha
Ridgway, Duvahl
Ross, Hildegarde
Snedegar, Dorothy
Sugden, Gertrude
Taylor, Gladys
Taylor, Mary
Walmsley, Louise
Walthall, Elizabeth
Wheeler, Elizabeth
Williamson, Jane.

(This list is subject to change at any time.)

FRESHMEN PLAY HOCKEY

Have you noticed those freshmen practicing hockey? Well, if you have not, you ought to see them. The freshmen have some very good material, and with more experience, the upperclassmen will have to play their hardest to keep up with them. The seniors have more girls out now in proportion to any other class, but they had better watch, the other classes are planning to give them a race. If you have not been out for hockey yet, come this week; it is not too late to start now. An average of five practices every two weeks is required; therefore, come out and support your team—start today.

The schedule:

Thursday—4 o'clock, general practice; 5 o'clock varsity.

Friday—4 o'clock, varsity; 5 o'clock, general practice.

Monday—4 o'clock, general practice; 5 o'clock, varsity.

Tuesday—4 o'clock, varsity; 5 o'clock, general practice.

Wednesday—4 o'clock, general practice; 5 o'clock, varsity.

Of every 1,000 square miles in Africa today, France governs 366, Great Britain 348, Belgium 81, Portugal 69, Italy 59, Egypt 31, Abyssinia 31, Spain 12 and Liberia 3.

Orthodox Mohammedans seldom construct a building, weave a rug or make other things with straight lines or flawless symmetry, because they believe that only Allah is perfect and that any human attempt to achieve perfection would be sacrilegious.

S. T. C. HOLF FOR FIRST TIME

For the fine students interested in golf who have not had a chance to practice while at S. T. C. are this opportunity.

A driving has been put at Longwood which ive excellent practice for the enthusiasts.

Girls, sene for your golf clubs. The tic Association is furnishing but each student furnishes he clubs.

One after a week there will be an instr there to help you to improve ame or if you're a beginner to you!

Come one all—enjoy this new attract Longwood.

FALL TE SEASON S THIS WEEK

The fall for tennis is opening this wod it is hoped that many girls old and new—will come out. hew girls have not found whe courts are, any of the old girlstell them.

The annles tournament will be one of outstanding sport events of th and everyone who so desires nble for participation. Watc further announcement cond the tournament. Don't forge tennis is one of the major sport let us have your support aneration to make this year a big s.

'HERY

Have you the girls out shooting with hnd arrows back of Cunninghal? They are taking advantage good weather, and are turninbin Hood", at the same timeg a good time and making nends.

The archason opened October 10 with quew girls out for practice. The pr practice this year has been need. As it now stands, thager, Alice Collings, and assistanager, Frances Horton, will gtruction on Monday and Tuesdernoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in toint of Aim" system of shootina system is the one used throu the United States in tournamenches. Anyone wishing to pract any time may get the equiprom the basement of Cunninghal by signing for it at room 19, floor, Cunningham Hall.

Give arcl try! Your ancestors did and lik

In the four months of this year, Germupped 13,000 tons of tin plate tan, this being eight times as mu in the same period of 1931.

"DOT GETS JOE OUT FOR HOCKEY"

Scene: (At the scales in the gym).

Joe: "Dot! Will you look? I have gained five pounds since I've been down here! Isn't that ridiculous? If I keep on gaining this much every three weeks I'll be as fat as Aunt Eppie Hogg by Christmas and when I go home Mamma won't even know me. M-er-cy! What on earth must I do? I just know I could never go on a diet."

Dot: "I've told you a dozen times what to do—Go out for hockey! You will have the best time and can run off some of that surplus fat, too."

Joe: "Shucks! I don't believe it'll do any good, but I'll try anything once."

Scene: (In the hall the next day).

Joe: "Hey, Dot! Wait up! I 'clare I had more fun out at hockey practice yesterday. Why didn't you just make me go out before now? Shucks! All these afternoons I've been going to the show or just sitting around not doing anything much, and just think! I could have been out having a good time playing hockey. Well, you just see if I don't come out every afternoon from now on. You can bet I'm going to work hard to be on the class team, too. Boy, oh, boy! I'd give anything if I could make the varsity! I bet those that made the varsity squad are pretty proud of themselves, don't you? And why not?"

Dot: "Proud, did you say? I guess they are, but you just wait till those on the varsity team get to go to Sweet Briar November 12, then they will be somekinda glad! Oh, yes, I haven't told you 'bout the tournament have I? Everybody ought to know about that. There's going to be a hockey tournament at Sweet Briar Nov. 11 and 12. It's for all the colleges in the State and S. T. C.'s varsity is going to enter, too. Isn't that grand?"

PLAY NIGHT IS A SUCCESS

Saturday night a very energetic crowd of girls met in the gym for two hours of recreation. Did we have fun, or did we have fun? There were games for everyone. Ring tennis was enjoyed by many, to some of whom it was new, as the number of girls increased other activities were begun, volleyball being the most exciting game of all. For the less energetic girls, checkers bob jacks, and horseshoes were played. To complete the evening, there was music and dancing for all. These and other similar games will be played every Saturday night from eight to ten o'clock in the gym. If you find yourself broke on Saturday night and anxious for entertainment just come to the gym where you will find fun for the asking.

Inside a crocodile, 15 feet long, shot in West Africa were found eight long rows of beads, which when worn with a girdle, formed the walking costume of missing native women. The huge reptile had also swallowed a pair of silver earrings, a bead of a pattern which had been out of style for 150 years, a jam jar, and the neck of a bottle.

The municipality of Muscle Shoals, Alabama—situated near the world-famous Wilson power plant—does not boast a single electric light.

Mrs. A B. Keam of St. Paul has succeeded in shelling fresh peas with a common washing machine wringer.

Red Rose Store
LUNCHEONETTE
Cut Rate Drug Sundries
New headquarters for S. T. C. Girls
SODAS SANDWICHES

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
Say it with Flowers — Willis — Farmville Florist Virginia
PHONES 181-273

Martin Jeweler
Gifts of Lasting Remembrance
317 Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

Kleanwell
CLEANERS AND TAILORS
Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments
Special prices for cleaning and remodeling
Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
PHONE 198

SouthsideDrugStore
Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh films)
LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS
Filler Paper—7 cents each 3 for 20c
Just One Block From Campus

S. A. Legus
TAILORING
CLEANING
AND PRESSING
Farmville, Virginia

G. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Gray's Drug Store
QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE
Come in and Get Acquainted
We Are Glad to Have You With Us!
Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's
Is Headquarters for the Best
SANDWICHES
—and—
DRINKS
—in—
FARMVILLE!

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
DOLLAR DAYS
SATURDAY, OCT. 15 - MONDAY, OCT. 17
DON'T MISS THIS
DOLLAR ITEMS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT

COLLEGE FOOTWEAR
Do of new models, made to our own order because NOW what the college girls demand in stylish foot
We invite you in to see the members now on dis Priced upward f
.59
Hosto match

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY PRICE · SERVICE STORE

VOTE YOUR STRAW BALLOT TONIGHT

THE ROTUNDA

DON'T FORGET TO BE FRIENDLY!

We Teach To each

Volume XIII | THE ROTUNDA, WEDNE, OCTOBER 19, 1932 | No. 5

V. I. P. A. Convention To Meet Here

"Tac" Waters is President of the Freshman Class

Class of 1934 Chose Miss Bedford As Their Class-man

"Tac" Waters of Onley, Va., was elected president of the freshman class at their election Wednesday night, October 12. Other officers elected were: Mattie Lula Cooper, Anniston, Ala., vice-president; Lula Windley, Suffolk, Va., treasurer, and Grace Eubank, Newport News, Va., secretary. Miss Grace Bedford was chosen class man.

"Tac" Waters is an outstanding member of her class at S. T. C. While at Onley High School, she was vice-president of her class, salutatorian, a member of the debate team and secretary of the literary society. She was one of the most popular girls in her high school class.

Mattie Lula Cooper was president of the Senior Girls Reserve Club at Anniston High School, Anniston, Ala. She was also the assistant editor-in-chief of her annual. Her charming southern drawl and her personality have made her known to many students at S. T. C.

Lula Windley, while in high school, was the editor-in-chief of the high school paper, "The Peanut Hull". She too, is making a large number of friends here, due to her charming personality and ability to work.

While a student at the Newport News High School, Grace Eubank was school pianist; a member of the glee club and the Girl Trio; business manager of the annual, "The Beacon"; a member of the newspaper staff, and an honor student. Grace is particularly interested in dramatics and music.

Hazel Smith and Helen Boswell were elected Student Government representatives for the freshman class.

Choral Club Plans For Full Program

The Choral Club, which is now under the direction of Miss Purdom, has a full program planned for the year. At its first regular meeting held last Tuesday in the Student Building auditorium a concert of well-known compositions was discussed. The College Orchestra will also participate in this concert. The Choral Club will make other appearances this year, one of which will be a broadcast with the orchestra from WRVA in Richmond.

The Choral Club for 1932-1933 includes the following:

Nell Boswell
Helen Boswell
Ruth Cecil
Katherine Chappell
Margaret Clark
Sara Coleman
Josephine Clayton
Catherine Davis
Vivian Davis
Grace Eubank
Faith Fuller
Margaret Fuller
Lulu Gravely
Ruth Gaines

Continued on last page

OFFICERS OF VIRGINIA INTERCOLLEGIATE PRESS ASSN.

DOREEN SMITH
President

AL GILLESPI
Secretary and Tre

ALEXANDER HUDGINS
Executive Secretary

"TRIBUTUM" GETS HIGH PRAISE

The Sodalitas Latina and Sigma P Rho publish, three times a year, a magazine known as "Tributum". This magazine is composed of the work of the students in prose and poetry.

Last year Miss Jennie Tabb sent a copy of the "Tributum" to D. John W. Basore, professor emerius of Princeton University. In reply, he wrote a very complimentary and encouraging letter. Since he has shown a decided interest in the wck, the editor sent Dr. Basore copies of the next two issues of the "Trilutum". In the summer the editor received the following letter from Dr. Basore:

June 6, 1932

My dear Miss .....:

I am much flattered by your compliment in sending me the copies of "Tributum", and I hope you will pardon my tardy acknowledgment when you know that my excuse has been a protracted absence from Princeton.

The humanistic attitude toward the classics, I believe, is their sole salvation, and your publication is so human and delightful that I am cheered to believe you think so too!

Continued on last page

Singing Boys of Vienna Coming To the College

Famous Choir Dating Fr98 To Visit Farmville Nover Under Choir Ausp

There is no organizati the world quite comparabl that unique company of boys, Vienna Saengerknaben—or the S Boys of Vienna—who will engage attention of Farmville wley give their performance of opr chorral work and songs on Nvr 3 in the college auditorium.

They are members musical hierarchy that was foun 1498 by the imperial decree nporer Maxmilian when a group singers were ordered to sing mass under the auspices of tirt orchestra of Vienna. For five hundred years, up to the time the traditions of this ation have been kept intact andideals inviolate. Under the care telage of the state, their reasobeing

Continued on last

SIGMA PI RHO BIDS NEW MEMBERS

Last week the Virginia Alpha Chapter of Sigma Pi Rho extended to four outstanding girls the privilege of membership.

Sigma Pi Rho is a national honor society for Latin. Its purpose is the fostering of a love for the classics, the inculcating of ideals of scholarship, and the promotion of training for teachers of Latin. To this organization, are bid only those students who have a high general scholastic standing and who have shown special ability in Latin.

The girls who were bid to Sigma Pi Rho are: Josephine Wooding, Margaret Jack, Edith Shanks, and Virginia Brinkley.

Josephine Wooding has shown keen interest in all Latin work and was last year assistant editor of the "Tributum". Margaret Jack is chairman of the World Fellowship Committee of the Y. W. C. A. and was literary editor of the "Tributum" last year. Edith Shanks is a member of Alpha Phi Sigma, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. and editor of the "Tributum". Virginia Brinkley is a member of Alpha Phi Sigma and is on the "Virginian" staff and also the "Rotunda" staff.

Press Executive Board Will Meet Thurs. Oct. 20

Conference Committe Completes Plan For Entertainment of Delegates

The Executive Board of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association will hold its business meeting on Thursday night, October 20, to draw up recommendations to be presented to the conference at the first business meeting Friday, October 21, at 2:30 P. M. This board is composed of Miss Doreen Smith, of Farmville S. T. C., president of the Association; Frank McCarthy of V. M. I., first vice-president; Miss Catherine Board of Harrisonburg S. T. C., second vice-president; Al Gillespie of Hampden-Sydney, secretary and treasurer; Alexander Hudgins of Richmond, executive secretary; John A. Culley of Washington and Lee University; Lindsay J. DeFrees of V. P. I.; Edwin S. Cohen of University of Richmond, and Louis M. Wheary of Lynchburg College.

Plans for the sixth annual meeting of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association have been brought to a close by the conference committee of the Association. Those on the committee from Farmville S. T. C. are: Mary Thomas Rawls, editor of the 1933 Virginian; Mary Diehl, associate editor of the Rotunda; Frances Potts, business manager of the Rotunda, and Mary Shelton, feature editor of the Rotunda. Those on the committee from Hampden-Sydney are: James E. Hemphill, editor of the Hampden-Sydney Tiger and Magazine; John G. Shirley, associate editor of the Kaliedoscope; Howard M. Owen and Henry S. Mosby, assistant editors of the Kaliedoscope, and John I. Armstrong, news editor of the Tiger.

New Members for Alpha Phi Sigma

The Delta Chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma, national honor fraternity for scholarship, announces the following valedictorians from high schools as members of the Apprentice degree, and the following salutatorians as members of the Novice degree.

Valedictorians: Gracie V. Bass, Louise Brown, Mae Burch, Isabel Calhoun, Elizabeth Coleman, Winnie F. Eubank, Mary Alice Glass, Sara Goodwin, Neil Harrell, Katherine Hoyle, Virginia Hooke, Addie Le Jarman, Mary V. Johnson, Jeanette Jones, Julia Jones, Evelyn Phillips, Margaret Pollard, Edith Samford, Gray Switzer.

Salutatorians: Dorothy Allen, Ruby Blanton, Margaret Buchanan, Margaret Clark, Kemper Cobb, Sarah Coleman, Maud Deekens, Nan T. Edmunds, Jean Galey, Ellen Gibson, Louise Gathright, Bessie Hart, Maude A. Jones, Evelyn Massey, Grace A. Olgers, Ernestine Payne, Kathleen Ranson, Elsie Truly, Elizabeth Walton, Itasca Waters, Sara Wooding.

President Jarman Approves Student Day; Dot Prescott is Named Chairman

CIRCUS PROMISES TO BE BETTER THAN EVER

Plans are being completed for a bigger, better and "realer" circus than ever this year. Alpha Sigma Gamma sponsors the circus annually and this year's plans are better than usual. Information regarding any special phase of the circus can be obtained from these girls:

Chairman ..... Dorothy Snedegar
Publicity Committee, Hattie Gliam
Adv. Committee ..... Winston Cobb
Ticket Com. ..... Margaret Gathright
Stunt Com. ..... Jenilee Knight
Class Booth Com. .. Hildegarde Ross
Side Show Com. ..... Jane Lyall
Decoration Com. ..... Mary T. Lewis
"Zoo" Committee ..... Alice McKay

Dr. Jarman approved plan of having assembly hour Wednesday conducted by the ss. The students will lead the ionals, the singing, and are resle for any program rendered. urpose of student day is to act upplement to student body igs, to foster instructional and resting programs on the colle urrent events, and special occa to unify the student body in and other common interests to develop leadership, initia nd responsibility in the stud

Dorothy Prescott has chosen chairman of student day e Student Standards Commi on her committee will be Se Rowell,

(Continued on la e)

PRESIDENT TALKS TO THE STUDENT COUNCIL

At a recent meeting the Student Council was honored by the presence of Dr. Jarman who talked to the girls about the duties and responsibilities which they, as representatives of the student body, held. Dr. Jarman told something of the history of student government at S. T. C., how it was instigated by the administrator, and how the students, weren't ready, at the time, for the type of control. In consequence of this, the Council was disbanded until the students themselves asked for it, which was several years later.

Dr. Jarman particularly requested that the Council maintain an attitude of friendliness and cooperation with the students and help them with their problems and difficulties. Indeed, the prime duty of the Council,

Continued on last page

THE ROTUNDA

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia.

Published by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year.

ROTUNDA STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
Associate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... LELIA MATTOX, '35
Literary Editor ..... GERTRUDE MANNES '34
Athletic Editor ..... MARY JESS RICHMOND, '33
World News Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY '33
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY KATHRYN TAYLOR '35
Social Editor ..... DOREEN SMITH '33
Art Editor ..... GERTRUDE SUGDEN, '34
Feature Editors ..... BIRDIE WOODING '35
MARY SHELTON, '34
Humorous Editor ..... BELLE LOVELACE '35
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

LOTTIE WHITE '35 HAZEL SMITH '36 DOROTHY WOOLWINE '34
SARAH ROWELL '33 WINIFRED PUGH '34
CARRIE DESHAZO '33 MARGARET COPENHAVER '34

Proof Reader ..... ELIZABETH VASSAR '35
Assistant Proof Reader ..... KATHERINE WALTON '35

Managers

Business Manager ..... FRANCES POTTS '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY '34
Circulation Manager ..... ELIZABETH WALTHALL '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... FRANCES HORTON '34

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matters should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

Friendliness

One characteristic of our college of which we are most proud is friendliness. We, the student body of 1932-'33, have our responsibility in keeping this an institution of friendliness. The week of October 17-22 has been dedicated to the making of friends.

Do you speak to everybody? If not, begin today. How many people in your class do you know by name? It is not hard to know them all. Upperclassmen, how many freshmen do you know? Here is your chance of making two hundred and fifty more friends. Freshmen, how many upperclassmen do you know? They can prove real friends to you if you will let them. Students, how many faculty members do you know? They would like to know you. How do we treat alumnae and visitors to our school? Do they call us friendly? Let us make our friendliness campaign a success. May we catch the spiirt of friendliness this week and keep it throughout the year.

Wherein Lies the Best Leader?

The presidential campaign this year has probably caused more real thought and real speculation on the outcome than any campaign for many years. The Republicans have won every election since 1916, but the depression has hit everyone now, and many are the criticisms against Hoover and against his administration. Both parties have definite clear-cut platforms, and both are openly declaring their stand on prohibition and the depression. These two topics overshadow all others right now.

For the first time since 1860, the Democratic party has broken away from tradition, and now it has an independent progressive stand. This, in itself, shows that a leader is in their midst—a leader in whom they have great confidence. At the convention, they knew that complete cooperation was essential; therefore, they threshed out their problems thoroughly and finally nominated the candidate who is best fitted to carry out the policies of the party.

Roosevelt once responded to the spirit initiated by the Democratic convention. He made a personal appearance at the convention, defying all traditions and proving that his physical handicap was no handicap. As to the leader of the Democratic party he took a decisive and complete stand. He set forth his aim in a straightforward way so that everyone knew he meant to do nothing, and that the nation would know his principles.

Hoover stand on the defensive affirmed the fact that not only his party ticket of 1928 has failed, but that the slogan "Vote for Hoover and stay dry" had changed. Hoover even took a stand against his prohibition policy of 1928 in his acceptance speech.

All of these things go to prove the fact which everyone carries in the back of his mind: The Democratic party is at last making up change is inevitable, and the Republicans recognize this even though they fight hard against it.

WHO'S WHO

PI KAPPA DELTA

The honorary forensic society at Farmville, Pi Kappa Delta, is one of 136 chapters of this fraternity in the United States.

It is the aim of this organization to stimulate and promote the interests of intercollegiate oratory, debate, and extempore speaking by encouraging the spirit of intercollegiate fellowship and cooperation. Badges of distinction are awarded and graduated according to merit and achievement, are conferred upon deserving candidates.

To be eligible for membership, one shall be a regular collegiate student of good standing, or a graduate of some institution of college rank, and shall have represented his college in intercollegiate oratorical contests or debates as described by the constitution of the society.

The local chapter of Farmville has been most active in its ever constructive work. The biennial convention of the Southern Province in 1931 Margaret Dix and Carrie DeShazo were announced as the champion debaters. The convention will be held the latter part of March, in Asheville, N. C.

Active members for this chapter are:

Willie Dobb
Carrie DeShazo
Margaret Hunter
Mary Dix
Mr. Hal Holton
Dr. Elliot Walmsley
Honoraramber: Dr. Jarman.

HAND CONDUCTED

It's fine now that we have at least one member of the student body who don't mind expressing her opinion in black and white, instead of going around mumbling criticisms and congratulations, "Senior"—we for you!

Sunday evening found many girls suffering cricks in the necks, after peering over the Rotunda Saturday night to see Red Bair's All-American football—what a man!

Where is man Depression? He certainly smiles away last week end, judging from the crowds at the Hampden-Sydney dances.

It was rough on the freshmen who turned out in the rain Monday a.m. with their "bows" and came with red streaks in their hair.

The Senate is going strong—"comfort, economy, etc., are all there," says Mr. Moore, the taxi driver. "O'Lee" on with the chauffeur!

There are many kinds of fans, but "Custis," " and Betsey Wilkinson are original in their enthusiasm They are charter members of the Laurel and Ivy Fan Club!

One Senate heard to remark that she'd be installed, draped and punched—so had her "picture took." A senior indeed!

In the fourth century B. C. an Athenian permitted by law to bequeath his to a friend in the same way as he willed away his other property—houses, ornaments, and .

KUZIN KITTY KOUNSELS

Dear Girls,

Your Kuzin Kitty is ever so gratified to see the reliance you place in her in confiding your inmost secrets, so she'll try to offer you the best of advice in return. I can't answer all the letters I get right away, but will have to take the most urgent and distressing one's first.

Don't forget that I'm always eager to help you.

Confidentially yours,
Kuzin Kitty.

My dear Kuzin Kitty,

I'm so relieved to have someone to tell my troubles to—you know there are some things you can't even let your roommate in on. But I won't mind at all just confessing my problem to you.

Since this cold weather came on lately, I find myself in a bad fix. You see yesterday I went to take my red flannels out of moth balls and—oh, what a state they were in? In fact, if I were to wear them I'm afraid I might take cold from over exposure—I have an awfully delicate constitution, don't you know. I tried to buy some new ones right away, but Davidson's didn't have 'em, and Baldwin's didn't, and none of em did. What must I do? I don't know how I'll manage to live through the winter.

Frigidly yours,
Hattie Gilliam

Dear Hattie:

I'm surprised that you didn't check over your winter clothes—particularly the most essential items before you came down here. And moreover, you should never even think of using moth balls, for all they do is just to stimulate the moths' appetite.

But I must advise, not scold. In the first place, it's useless for you to go to Baldwin's for what you want. Instead, I suggest that you try an antique shop. Maybe you'll have better luck there. With warmest regard—you'll need them.

Kuzin Kitty

Dear Kuzin Kitty,

I had the most humiliating experience the other day. It does seem that I should have walked through the auditorium enough times to have a well worn path by now, but here's what happened. When I crossed in front of the stage before song class last Monday, my foot slipped and "flop" went. Guess what? One of those freshmen said: "There goes the downfall of the student government." Now is that terrible?

Flatly yours,
Jane Royall

Dear Jane,

Don't take the casual remark of a freshman so to heart. She will soon learn that that was quite uncalled for and never do it again. Anyhow, I'm sure she was talking of the literal meaning of the word, downfall, as—"a fall or descent," and not the figurative interpretation of fall as "ruin," or the downfall of Rome."

I hope you didn't tear that new pair of hose you got last week.

Your Kuzin Kitty

Dear Kuzin Kitty,

I'm in an awful predicament, but I don't know what I can do about it. Perhaps you've gotten wind of all this rat week stuff. Well, I'm a rat and this is my trouble. I positively, absolutely can not wear red. Yet those high and mighty sophomores here decree that we wear a red bow of ribbon on our hair. I think they might have chosen a color more flattering to my complexion, don't you.

Glowingly yours,
A. Rat

Continued on last page

HARBORS

I think of harbors when the day is done
And clouds of silver fret the tawny west;
Bee to the hive, bird to the hidden nest,
Heart to its home and vessels one by one
I think, to the waiting quay; while ships of gray
With wind-torn sails, and great boats dark as night
Move quietly around the harbor light
To drop their anchor in the friendly bay.

VIRGINIA LEE

I know a tiny girlie
With eyes so shining and blue
That you think a bit of the clear sky above
Is looking out at you.

Her smile is so sweet and sunny
And her feet are never still,
She's happy from morn 'till night
In the big house on the hill.

Thus she bids me play "the music"
So she can dance and sing,
She wants a gay tune, she tells me.
Oh, shes a dear little thing.

ON HEARING THE CARILLON RECITAL

Twilight—
A soft glow over the city
Homing things—
Going to rest.

Crowds—
Hushed, expectant.
Reverent stillness
Over all God's world.

Light—
Slowly, softly stealing
Up a slender shaft—
The carillon tower.

A long, deep note—
Vibrant, rich,
Comes to us
Faintly at first—
Then swelling
Into a glorious hymn.

Dear God, we hear
Their voices—those who died—
But not in vain.
From the "Singing Tower"
They bid us—
"Carry on."

G. M., '34

MUSIC IN CHURCH

Stillness—breathless and expectant—
Softly comes the faint tones of an organ,
Scarcely audible at first
Then gradually swelling into a mighty crescendo—
Now it fades into a whisper
And pauses—
Clearly, with velvety tones
A voice begins—breaks into the strains of an age-old anthem—
We are at peace with all mankind.

FRIENDS

Life is sweet just because of the friends we have made,
And the things which in common we share.
We want to live on not because of ourselves,
But because of the people who care.
It's giving and doing for somebody else—
On that all life's splendor depends,
And the joy of this world when you've summed it all up,
Is found in the maknig of friends.

J. B. R., '33

"If you have a friend wor loving,
Love him. Yes, and let him know
That you love him, ere life's evenings
Tinge his brow with sunset glow;
Why should good word ne'er be said
Of a friend 'till he is dead?"

J. B. R., '33

SOCIALS

Mary Custis Burwell was the guest of Betsy Wilkinson at her home in Lynchburg. Sallie Perrow also spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

• • •

Virginia Moses spent the week-end at her home in Norfolk.

• • •

The following girls spent the week-end in Richmond: Belle Lovelace, Ophelia Booker, Helen Smith, Margaret Murray, Mary Thomas Rawls, Mary Denny, Mae Burch, Mary Louise McNulty, Christian Reynolds, Sara Goodwin, Mary Livingston, Mildred Fuller, Elizabeth Steptoe, Claudia Harper, Margaret Eley, Doris Eley, Margaret Copenhaver, Leonora Long, Dorothy Thomas, Dorothy Prescott, Thelma Croye, Dorothy Legare, Virginia Bryan, Margaret Herndon, Rebecca Owen, Lucille Tiller, Anna Knox, Kitty Waters, Susie Webb, Virginia Walker, Margaret Jack, Dorothy Dix Allen, Tac Waters, Martha Nottingham, Elizabeth Whitehead, Anne Thomas, Mamie Barnes, Beulah Travis, Mary Howard, Mary Alice Farrell, Elizabeth Field, Kathryn Woodson, Evelyn Knaub.

• • •

Mary Burgess Fraser spent the week-end in Blackstone.

• • •

Mattie Lula Cooper was the guest of Katherine Chappell at her home in Drakes Branch.

• • •

Nell Weaver spent the week-end with her parents in Martinsville.

• • •

Mary Conway and "Wyc" Scott were guests of Sarah Beck at her home in Dinwiddie.

• • •

Nancy Parker spent the week-end in Newport News.

• • •

Winifred Pugh visited in Charlottesville.

• • •

The following girls spent the week-end in Roanoke: Jestine Cutshall, Dot Davis, Hildegarde Ross, Dot Snedegar, Garnett Hodges, Inez Martin, Louise Whitehurst, Hazel Smith, and Ruth Gaines.

OPENING DANCES HELD AT HAMPDEN-SYDNEY

The dance floor at Hampden-Sydney was practically filled to its capacity both nights of the opening dances. The local girls and their dates who attended are as follows:

Lorena Bland—Ed Paulette
Nancy Burgwyn—Ben Franklin
Helen Cover—Franklin Younger
Martha Cross—Eddie Bell
Frances Dillon—Norris Blake
Frances Dorin—Tommy Toone
Virginia Hamilton—Bob Kinnaird
Celia Jones—Jimmy Hemphill
Mildred Lipscomb—Lewis Roach
Margaret Parker—Alfred Blake
Doreen Smith—L. T. Yowell
Mary C. Miller—William Flemming
Jean McClure—Edwin Bouldin
Katherine McLemore—J. J. Lawson
Elizabeth Rawlings—Jack McCurdy
Jane Royall—Al Gillespie
Martha Sanders—Percy Harris
Dorothy Stone—Gabel Hemmilright.
Dot Waynick—Floyd Merrey
Helen Westmoreland — Winston Matthews.
Billy Wilkinson—Ashby Jones
Mary B. Sullivan—Larus Reed
E. Katherine Young—Marshall Wilson.
Anne Irving—Charles Howles
Virginia Marchant—Bill Cabell

N. B. B. O. MEMBERS

Edna Hatcher, Elizabeth Wall, Onne Irvine, Lucille Wilkinson, Susan Gresham, Elsie Truly, Florence Tandard, Virginia Walker, Jane Main, Helen Westmoreland, Jennie Wheeler, Dot Eubank, Caroline Byrd, Kitty Hayle, Ernestine Payne, Mary Miller, Alfreda Shields, Claudia Harper, Maude Deekins, Grace Eubank, Jane Colbourn, Virginia Widgeon, Dot Stone, Beulah Travis, Mattie Cooper, Eileen Howard, Dorothy Allen, Ruth Fleet, Julia Jones, Mary Mitchell, Agnes Shaner, Elizabeth Billups, Florence Raney, Carol Bibb, Kathryn Eggleston, Betty Barden, Agnes Crockett, Elizabeth Hyse, Hazel Smith, Allene Saunders, Louise Bullock, Louise Van Lear, Virginia Bagar, Virginia Brinkley, Lucille Meacham, Stuart Quaintance, Margaret Clark, Elmer Foster, Maymie Showalter, Jessie Watkins, Elizabeth Rogers, Louise Whitehurst, Susie Webb, Virginia Bagar, Lottie Whitehurst, Claudia Barleon, Marion Wright, Anne Darden, Mildred Fuller, Betty Tice, Sara Goodwin, Mary McNulty, Elizabeth Worrell, Lucille Story, Mary Powell, Rachel Joyner, Doris Eley, Virginia Hall, Nancy Parker, Henrietta Taylor.

FOURTEEN CLUB BIDS NEW MEMBERS

Helen Boswell, Nell Boswell, Margaret Brown, Helen Conquest, Frances Crawford, Thelma Croye, Mae Downes, Mary Burgess Fraser, Lily Farrar, Margaret Farrar, Louise Floyd, Dot Glover, Louise Gathwright, Rosa Mae Gunter, Harriet Hankins, Margaret Hurt, Sue Hume, Louise Hyde, Mary Virginia Johnston, Page Luck, Jean McClung, Hortense Mills, Frankie Minter, Alice Moore, Addie Norfleet, Martha Nottingham, Sally Perrow, Elizabeth Phillips, Lucy Potter, Mildred Potter, Marion Raine, Elizabeth Rawlings, Elizabeth Perdue, Red Riddick, Billie Rountree, Henrietta Salisbury, Ellen Simmerman, Elizabeth Steptoe, Mary Banks Sullivan, Sara Sykes, Jessie Lee Swisher, Frances Terrell, Ann Thomas, Maron Umberger, Tac Waters, Sue Wako, Margaret Webster, Libba Whitehead, Lula Windley, Billy Wilkinson, Duckie Woodward, Kitty Woodson, Lillian Womack, Lucy Shields.

NEW COTILLION CLUB MEMBERS

New members of the Cotillion Club are: Ruth Showalter, Maymie Showalter, Emma Littleton, Mildred Hope, Henrietta Taylor, Margaret Young, Alice Moore, Margarett Browne, Mamie Barnes, Mary Conway, Louise Coleman, Alice McKay, Mildred Gwaltney, Virginia Moses, Jestine Cutshall.

SATURDAY MUSICAL CHAPEL PROGRAM GIVEN

Under the direction of Mr. Strick delightful programs have been presented each Saturday morning in chapel.

Saturday morning, October 15, the student body was favored with a fine program which consisted of: "I Pass By Your Window", vocal selection by Alfred Strick; Quartet Peter Pan and "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life" by Miss Carrie LeShazo; Waltz, piano selection by Miss Edna Hatcher.

This program was enjoyd immensely, and everyone is looking forward for further attraction in Saturday's chapel exercises.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE OF V. I. P. A.

The conference committee of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association is shown with two officers of the organization as they planned the sixth annual convention to be held on Oct. 21 and 22 in Farmville. Left to right, standing, they include: Miss Mary Thomas Rawls, Howard M. Owen, Mary Diehl, John G. Shirley, Miss Mary Shelton, John I. Armstrong, Miss Frances Potts. Miss Doreen Smith, president of the association, Albert Ritchie Gillespie, secretary and treasurer, are shown sitting. Women in the picture are students at the Farmville State Teachers' College and all men are registered at Hampden-Sydney College.

TEA AT LONGWOOD FOR CHILDHOOD EDUCATION ASSOCIATION GIRLS

Thursday afternoon, Longwood Miss Mary B. Haynes gave a very delightful tea for the girls of the Association of Childhood Education and the honorary faculty members. The big log fire added cheer to the spacious room into which guests were taken.

It is pleasant to note that twenty-five old members are in school this year.

Before tea was served a short discussion of plans for the year was held, and committees were elected.

After this short session guests were served tea, sandwiches, buns, nuts and mints.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA ENTERTAIN TEA

In the Student Building on last Thursday afternoon October 13, from five to six o'clock the old members of the Delta Chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma entertained the new members at a tea. Dr. Jarman, honorary member of the chapter, and Miss Draper, advisor, were present to welcome the members. During the hour music rendered by Gertrude Manner, Louise Hyde. Refreshments — sandwiches, and peanuts—served.

The Student Body extends sympathy to Mary Hu[nt], Margaret Gathright, and Mary Kathryn Taylor in recent bereavement.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

"The Charge of the Light Brigade" an instrumental, institutionalized and very wonderful symphony orchestra entertained the faculty and students Saturday night. Mr. Strisosky, the director, followed by Mr. Bellinsky made announcements concerning this internationally famous Russian orchestra. Following the first selection of the orchestra, Sin, Fon, and Etta, three well known artists gave a special selection.

Under the direction of Mr. Strisosky each member presented his instrument with a short selection. By special request the quartet, followed the presentation with "Blue Danube". En route to America the orchestra had picked up an artist of France, Madame Paris Fitzpatrick, who gave a character dance.

This wonderful program was brought to us through the efforts of the sing committee: Jestine Cutshall, chairman, and Virginia Thornhill, Margaret Copenhaver, Garnet Hodges, Mae Downs, Laeta Barham, Frances Dillon and Belle Lovelace Mrs. Taylor, of the faculty was in charge of the sing last Saturday night.

DR. SIMKINS SPEAKS

Dr. Simkins gave an interesting talk on "Why Go To College" at Prayers Friday night. He brought out the broadening effect of college on our viewpoint which tends to lead to world fellowship.

Taylor Mfg. Co.

Contracting Building

Phone No. 2[6]

N. MAIN ST. [FARM]VILLE

Weyanoke

BEAUTY SALON

A Complete Beauty Service At Moderate Prices

WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville Va.

A COLLEGIATE INSTITUTION for BUSINESS TRAINING

QUALIFY for business opportunities with professional training offered in Secretarial Science. Placement service for graduates, with the number of employment calls showing an increase in 1931.

Accounting and Business Administration Courses leading to B.C.S. and M.C.S. degrees given under an able staff of Certified Public Accountants, University Graduates and Attorneys-At-Law.

Write or call for information about summer session courses.

204 Colleges and Universities Represented In Annual Student Body Enrollment of 1,600.

STRAYER COLLEGE
719 13TH ST.-NATIONAL 1748
WASHINGTON, D.C.
CATALOG UPON REQUEST

Joe Poole

ODORLESS CLEANING

Under New Management
MRS. MARY ROUNDY, Lessee

208 Third Street Phone 355

Electric Shoe Shop

Will Fix Your Shoes
While You Wait
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS

Go To Wade's

—For—

The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made pies and cream

WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. E. Chappell

COMPANY

Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda

MAIN STREET
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.

Established 1868

The Confidence of the Community For Over Half a Century
FINEST TOILET REQUISITES
DRUGS AND STATIONERY

Mack's

"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"

We use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty

BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP

323 Main Street

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE

Lovelace Shoe Shop

110 Third Street

THE STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE POLL

(Leave your ballot at table in hall after meals)

FOR PRESIDENT

(Place X in square before name of your candidate

[__] FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT (Dem.)
[__] HERBERT HOOVER (Rep.)
[__] NORMAN THOMAS (Soc.)

Name .....

"Farmville's Best Place to Shop"

—is at—

—THE HUB—

Come in and get acquainted with us. We welcome you T. C. and Farmville!

MAIN STREET FARMVILLE

THE SINGING BOYS OF VIENNA COMING HERE

Continued from page one

has been to sing fine musical works—choral, operatic and religious—without professionalism or a need for the glory..

The members of the Saengerknaben live today—as always—in the ancient imperial castle, the Vienna Hofburg, where once Hapsburg royalty tread its venerable corridors. Here these boys work and study, eat, play, and sleep. They pay nothing, but they have dedicated their boyhood to music. It is the dream of countless thousands of Austrian boys to be invited to join the Saengerknaben.

Crowned heads and presidents of nations have invited and listened with admiration to these little songbirds in their charming costumes, white wigs, and curly chignons. Recently, His Holiness, Pope Pius XI called for them, and after their performance in the Vatican were awarded a parchment testimonial proclaiming their voices "so flute-like and sweet, like angels voices in paradise."

Haydn, Schubert, Mozart, and other illustrious composers received musical training from the Saengerknaben institutions. Every year they are invited to sing with the entire Vienna State Opera and the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra. The average age of the company is twelve years.

"THE TRIBUTUM" GETS HIGH PRAISE

Continued from page one

So I send my very sincere congratulations upon the spirit and quality of your work, and in like measure my thanks.

Macte virtute! Fac us semper optimos amicos habeas Ciceronem, Vergilium, Horatium—Senecam! Sic his temporibus, quibus hau! omnia pessima periculosaque floreant, tibi non deerunt boni duces. Vale.

Faithfully yours,
John W. Basore

The staff is grateful to Dr. Basore for showing such an interest in its work and feels encouraged as it begins its work for this year. Those on the staff this year are:

Editor ..... Edith Shanks
Asst. Editor ..... Katharine Walton
Literary Editor ..... Anne Putney
Bus. Mgr. ..... Carmen Clark
Asst. Bus. Mgr. ..... Maud Rhodes

CHORAL CLUB PLANS FOR FULL PROGRAM

(Continued from page one)

Mary Glass
Martha Grainger
Esther Haskins
Ruth Haskins
Mary Harris
Margaret Herndon
Katherine Haife
Lila Jacobs
Crenshaw Jones
Betsy Long
Ruth Macom
Nancy Noel
Addie Norfleet
Grace Olgers
Emma Payne
Virginia Puckett
Eva Owen
Elizabeth Rogers
Lucy Read
Elizabeh Ransom
Alice Strock
Freda Shields
Marion Umberger
Janice White
Lottie Whitehurst
Susan Webb
Nell Wampler
Dot Wingfield
Nell Weaver
Mary Elizabeth Wood

CORRECTION

In last week's Rotunda the following name was omitted from varsity hockey squad: Martha Nottingham.

PRESIDENT TALKS TO STUDENT COUNCIL

Continued from page one

according to Dr. Jarman, is not to punish persons for misconduct and for breaking rules but, by tolerance and justice, to develop so strong a regard for regulations on the part of the students that they will not wilfully break them.

HOCKEY SCHEDULE

Our first varsity game will be played November 5 at three o'clock on the athletic field. The team from Westhampton College is coming at that time.

Saturday, November 12, our team will journey to Sweet Briar to participate in the Virginia intercollegiate tournament.

Come on, and support the Blue and White!

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION TO HAVE MASQUERADE

Monday, October 31 the Athletic Association is giving a masquerade party in the gym from 8 to 10:30. Both the faculty and student body are invited to come.

Anyone coming on the floor must be in costume. If you do not have a costume, send home for one at once.

Costumes will be censored at the door; if in doubt about your costume see Miss Iler.

Come one, Come all!
Come to our Masquerade Ball!

CALENDAR
October 19-26

Thursday, Oct. 20
4:00—Choral Club practice
4:00—Hockey practice
7:00—Dramatic Club meting
7:30—A. A. Council meeting
Friday, Oct. 21
2:30-5:30—Business meet-V.I.P.A.
4:00—Hockey practice
7:00—Monogram meeting
7:00—Cunningham Literay So.
7-12—Dinner and Dance— V. I. P. A.
8:00—Sigma Pi Rho
Saturday, Oct. 22
9:00-11:30—Business meeting of V. I. P. A.
Monday, Oct. 24
4:00—Hockey
7:30—Pi Kappa Delta
7:00—Virginian staff
7:00—French circle
10:00—House Council
Tuesday, Oct. 25
6:45—Class meetings
4:00—Choral Club
10:00—Student Council
4:00—Hockey
Wednesday, Oct. 26
4:00—Hockey
5:00—Y. W. Cabinet
7:00—Rotunda staff
7:30—Pi Gamma Mu meeting

METHODIST GIRLS INVITED TO DISCUSSION

The Wesley Student Association invites all the Methodist girls and their friends, Hampden-Sydney included, to a discussion group and social hour to be held in the Sunday School room the Methodist church at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening, October 22.

KUZIN KITTY

Continued from page two

Dear Mousie,

(For I'm sure you can't be a full grown rat—you who have nerve and lack of discretion enough to grumble under Rat Week rules). If you would only read a little more closely the ordinances whereby the freshmen are to be governed this week, you would find that the red ribbon affair was for Monday alone. Even if you did look a little flushed that day, it did not last long, so you should worry! I only hope that you find that an alarm clock made a handsome accessory to your costume today.

Cattily yours,
Kuzin Kitty

Telegraph companies use less electricity when sending messages, than when the lines are idle.

MANY PRACE ARCHERY

Archery is in full sway in the back of Cunnm Hall. Practices lasting from 3:l 4 o'clock every afternoon are attended by the members of ases, but the freshmen, so far, ading the others in attendance. E dignified member of the Englisartment has joined the ranks e youthful archers and is giving a run for their errors. Come and try your luck, Bull's eyes ang shot these days. days.

PLAY NIGHT GYM; RIVAL DEPRESSION

Everyone sne depression is on—have you thought that there's a means of ig S. T. C.—especially when and allowances are low? Play nts to help all those who are suff from depression or who would l good time.

Games of s, ping pong, volley ball and evour grandmothers' games of beks and checkers are played. r a night of sport and fun, th dancing for those who wish it—better still—singing.

And isn'is called friendly week? Comen to gym Saturday night at 8 pand let's prove that we're all friCome on, everyone! Let's prove old man depression can't bothenn Saturday night, and let's hame fun together!

WO NEWS

A police large enough for a city of 10,0ople patrols one of Hollywood'sios.

Experimee being made by the forest reseanstitute of the government ofa to produce rayon from bamb

Every moman and child in the village entihegy, Austria, is drinking wistead of water, since the town wnt dry.

E. C. Paas en route home in Washingtonte with a bale of hay on the bumper of his automobile whe exhaust set it on fire. A fire any caught up with Parks, who unaware of the fire and extingd the flames.

Our polia butted into trouble today—and the trouble returned the compli In the darkness two patrolmen l a noise in a vacant lot. Theyitiously investigated, creeping u their best sleuthing manner. Sdy they were attacked from thr. They turned about and learnedanswer to "what goes a-buttin'," is a goat.

Happy dee here again for Chicago scholhers. The $2,400,000 school pya or the first half of April was by the sale of tax warrants tal banks, and they were rejoici the knowledge that money is a welcome even if it does arrive

EACO THEATRE

PROGRAM OCT. 13 TO 19

Thursday, October 20
Clive Brook, Lila Lee
Frances Dee, Gene Raymond in
"The Night of June 13"
What went on behind the walls of respectability? See for yourself!
Also Charlie Chase Comedy

Friday, October 21
JEAN HARLOW
With Chester Morris in
The Red-headed Woman
The most despicable character the screen has ever shown.
Fox News and Aesop Fable

Saturday, October 22
GARY COOPER
with Tallulah Bankhead
in
'The Devil and the Deep'
Desperate years with a madman; then one perfect night with a stranger under desert skies.
Also Fox News and "Sea Spiders"

Next Mon. & Tues., Oct. 24-25
WILL ROGERS
With DOROTHY JORDAN and IRENE RICH in
"DOWN TO EARTH"
Will at his very best
Also Flip the Frog and News

Next Wed., Oct. 26
RICHARD DIX
With TOM BROWN and ROCHELLE HUDSON in
"HELL'S HIGHWAY"
Drama to send the blood pounding through your veins. A story of prison camps.
Also Chapter 3 "The Last Frontier"

Daily Matinees at 4 p. m. Evenings at 8 o'clock.
Admission, Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

DR. JARMAN APPROVES STUDENT DAY

Continued from page one

chairma of devotionals; Mary McCarn, chairman of music; Lillian Womack chairman of Student Standards Committee, and Jane Royall, presiden of student body, with Miss Mix as faculty adviser.

The program this week centers around Friendliness", Miss Wheeler gave a very inspiring talk on this subject his morning.

COLLEGE FOOTVEAR

Do of new models, made t our own order because NOW what the college irls demand in stylish foor.

We inyou in to see the numbers now on dis, Priced upward t

1.59

Hos to match

BALDWIN'S
QUALY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

Red Rose Store
LUNCHEONETTE
Cut Rate Drug Sundries
New headquarters for S. T. C. Girls
SODAS SANDWICHES

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
SAY IT WITH FLOWERS
Willis
FARMVILLE FLORIST VIRGINIA
PHONES 181-273

Martin JEWELER
Gifts of Lasting Remembrance
317 Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

Kleanwell
CLEANERS AND TAILORS
Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments
Special prices for cleaning and remodeling
Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
PHONE 198

SouthsideDrugStore
Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh films)
LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS
Filler Paper—7 cents each 3 for 20c
Just One Block From Campus

S. A. Legus
TAILORING
CLEANING
AND PRESSING
Farmville, Virginia

G. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Gray's Drug Store
QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE
Come in and Get Acquainted
We Are Glad to Have You With Us!
Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's
Is Headquarters for the Best
SANDWICHES
—and—
DRINKS
—in—
FARMVILLE!

COME TO THE MASQUERADE

THE ROTUNDA

POE

PREPARE FOR THE HOCKEY GAME

We Teach To Teach

Volume XIII | THE ROTUNDA, WEDNSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1932 | No. 6

Kappa Delta Pi Announces Five New Members

Two Seniors and Three Juniors Are Given Privilege of Being Members

The Beta Epsilon chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, at a recent meeting, extended to five S. T. C. students the privilege of membership. Those students who were elected are Evelyn Williams, Grace Rowell, Lucille Ingram Virginia Brinkley and Edith Shanks.

Evelyn Williams is a member of Alpha Phi Sigma, and has taken an active part in the Mathematics Club, and in committees of the Y. W. C. A.; Grace Rowell is Undergraduate Representative of Y. W. C. A., and secretary of Student's Standard Committee, besides taking an outstanding part in other school organizations; Lucille Ingram is doing very efficient work as treasurer of Y. W. C. A., and is also a member of Pi Gamma Mu and Alpha Phi Sigma; Virginia Brinkley has proved her efficiency in several organizations. She is a member of Alpha Phi Sigma and Sigma Pi Rho, assistant business manager of the Rotunda and photographic manager of the Virginian; Edith Shanks, secretary of Y. W. C. A. has shown her ability and interest as editor-in-chief of the "Tributum", a member of Alpha Phi Sigma and various other student activities.

John Randolph To Be Given Library

A library will be presented to the John Randolph School, Saturday morning, October 29, at ten o'clock, by the Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority. Miss Mabel Lee Walton of Woodstock, the national president of the sorority, will make the formal presentation.

The John Randolph School was selected, because it was the first school to be connected with the purposes of rural teacher training for this college, where the sorority was founded.

The library, now consisting of about four hundred volumes and many magazine subscriptions, will be added to each year by the sorority.

TRAINING SCHOOL COURSE OF STUDY OFF PRESS

The "Training School Course of Study for Kindergarten, First, Second and Third Grades," published by Farmville State Teachers College has just come from the press. Both teachers and students are glad indeed that the book has been completed and is ready for use. This represents a powerful piece of work which will prove of great benefit, no doubt, not only to the training school but also to the State of Virginia.

DRAMATIC CLUB HEARS FINE DRAMA TALK

All who came to Dramatic Club last Thursday were delighted with Miss Wheeler's talk on drama. She told something of theatres and plays from the time of Shakespeare up to modern times, and led an open discussion of modern play writers and the best productions of the past few years. Enthusiasm was aroused to study and read more of modern dramas.

MANAGERS OF FALL SPORTS

Left to right: Hildegarde Ross, Doreen Smith and A: Collings

Faculty Advisers For the Circus

The following faculty members of Alpha Kappa Gamma have been named faculty advisers for the various committees for the circus to be held November 5. Chairman of the circus committee is Miss Olive Iler; publicity and advertising is in charge of Miss Mary Nichols; side shows are under the supervision of Miss Virginia Potts. Miss Mix will have charge of the brass booth.

Under such interested and capable faculty advisers for various committees, the circus promises to be successful. The students appreciate greatly their kind efforts to make this annual student gathering a success.

The circus queen—that lady of fun and happiness is to be elected soon, also the ring master will soon be appointed. Various college organizations are busily engaged in preparing hilarious stunts for that gala night of nights.

Be there to see the circus and join in the fun! Don a costume of lotous color and a mask of beauteou grin, and come!

LOCAL ARTISTS PERFORM IN CHAPEL

Saturday morning at the regular weekly musicale the student body had the pleasure of hearing two of Farmville's promising musician. Little Helen Wiley Hardy, granddaughter of our beloved president and pupil of Mrs. Schroeder, of the Stemmel Conservatory, gave the following program of piano numbers: "Mnuet in G" and "Ruer Alise" by Beetloven and "Avalanche" by Heller. She responded to an encore by playin the well-known "Humoresque" by Dvorak. Staten Noel, tenor soloist o the Hampden-Sydney Glee Club delighted his audience by singing "Secret of Mine" by Ferris, "Trees" by Rasbach, and, as an encore, "God Keep You Dear" by Ellis.

Vienna Sining Boys Coming Noember 3

The following is a program for the Vienna Choir wh is to be here November 3.

Doorfchen .....ranz Schubert
Chorus of the Messers of Peace from "Rienzi" ..... R. Wagner
Zion hoert die Wnter singen Dich Buxtehude
Ascendit Dues .....acobus Gallus
Four folk songs:
Schlafe mein Prinzei Bernard Flies
Jubilate ..... Frrich Burkhart
Aber Heidschi
Der Jaeger aus Kurp
Intermission of minutes
Part 1
Bastien and Bastien opera by Wolfgang adeus Mozart
Intermission of minutes
Part I
Finale from "The Ma Flute" W. A. Mozart
Spinning Song from The Flying Dutchman" ..... Wagner
Engelterzett .....Mendelssohn
Halleluja ..... F. Burkhart
Four folk songs: Fitz Krull
Es hat sich halt erfnet—
Es wollt' ein Jaegen jagen—
Der Tanz .....anz Schubert
Der Wanderer in henegemeuhle

Ticket sale opens Ober 31 at the White Drug Compan

Governor Rosevelt Winner In Stw Ballot Held at the College

Roosevelt won a deve victory at the polls of S. T. C. l week receiving 395 of the 519 vs cast in our straw vote. Hoover, wever, came in for quite a numbe votes as 104 girls cast their ballot favor of his continuing to ride thorse across the stream for they ink it would be dangerous to chann the middle. Socialists are here iur midst for Norman Thomas ha0 loyal supporters in our studepody.

The head table disced S. T. C. by voting almost sol' Republican. Hoover received nine of the ten votes, the other one going for Roosevelt. Table thirty-one divided their votes giving Roosevelt five, Thomas three, and Hoover, two. These figures were counterbalanced by a large number of loyal Democrats who voted the straight Democratic ticket.

While very few S. T. C. girls will vote in the presidential election, they represent the feeling of all parts of the state. It is not suprising, then to find that Virginia is standing loyal this fall and is in no danger of bolting her party again.

Farmville S. T. C. and Hampden-Sydney Are Joint Hosts to V. I. P. A. Convention

Over 200 Delegates Attend Annual Intercollegiate Press Association

The seventh annual convention of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association met at Farmville State Teachers College, October 21 and 22. Over 200 delegates from colleges in the state of Virginia attended the convention. Miss Doreen Smith of S. T. C., Farmville, Va., presided over the delegation which was composed of editors and the members on the various staffs of collegiate publications of the state.

The press convention was divided into two parts: the business sessions and discussion groups. The opening business session was held Friday afternoon. At this meeting delegates, speakers, and officers were introduced and announcements made. The business session Saturday morning consisted of reports from committees, announcement of plans and of officers for next year's convention.

Friday afternoon, discussion groups were held for editors and those working on annuals, on newspapers, magazines, and for business managers. These discussions were continued Saturday morning.

The object of the press convention was to discuss journalistic problems which arise in collegiate publications.

Continued on page three

Virginian Staff To Take Photo Orders

Th photographer for the annual, left S. T. C. last Saturday after having taken nearly four hundred pictures. Within two weeks from the last day of work, these proofs will be returned to the staff and from the staff referred to students for approval.

After the proofs have been checked, Mr. Kruger will be back at the college for at least one day, at which time any student, who did not have a sitting due to absence from school or any other reason, may have one. If there are any such students, they may get more definite information from Virginia Brinkley, photographic editor.

Everybody likes to receive photographs for Christmas presents—and likes to give them, too. For the convenience of the students, the Virginian staff will handle such orders for J. P. Bell Studio, who guarantees that all photographs ordered will be ready before Christmas holidays begin. This studio does beautiful work at reasonable prices, in fact, quite a bit lower than some. Wait until you see the samples sent from this studio before giving orders to any other.

Rabbi Calisch Speaks Here

Rev. Edward N. Calisch spoke in chapel October 25 and 26 and at prayers October 25. Since this is world-fellowship week, his talks were on world-fellowship. Each talk was a unit of the whole. The first one was "An Introduction;" the second, "The Problem"; and the third, "The Solution." Dr. Calisch in his talks showed that science and the Bible were collateral in opinion as to the origin of man. Government, territory and language separate people and nations, but these barriers can be crossed by a broad knowledge. One needs to know one another and nations better in order to bring about world fellowship. "You cannot hate a person, if you know him." In addition, Tuesday night, Dr. Calish hel da discussion in the Student Building lounge during which he answered and discussed questions asked by those present.

This outstanding speaker was here under the auspices of the World-Fellowship Committee: Dr. Wamlsley, adviser, and Margaret Jack, chairman.

Try-Out to be Held For Ruffner Society

The Ruffner Literary Society invites all freshmen and upperclassmen to try-out for membership into the society. Try-outs will be held from November 1-14, and all papers may be put in Margaret Hix's senior mail box. Any original poem, essay, play, or story may be submitted.

This year the programs will consist of contributions of Virginia to American literature. Girls from different parts of the state will discuss the literature that represents their section of the state.

Don't be bashful, freshmen, hand in your articles. You might be surprised to find how much literary value they contain.

DR. JARMAN ATTENDS METHODIST CONFERENCE

The 150th annual Virginia Methodist conference met at Centenary Methodist church, Richmond, Va., last week beginning Friday and ending Monday, October 25. The conference disposed of many reports, named a new presiding elder for the Portsmouth-Newport News district, and announced more than 50 pastoral changes.

The conference was a great success, getting much work done of a useful and beneficial nature.

MISS JENNIE TABB HAS RESTFUL VACATION

Leaving behind clicking typewriters and noisy girls, Miss Jennie Tabb, S. T. C. registrar, sought quiet and rest on her annual vacation from October 7 to October 21.

Miss Tabb spent her vacation with Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Irving at Amelia Court House, a small rural village about thirty miles from here. The quiet call of the village was evidently greater for Miss Tabb than the call of the mountains of seashore.

The student body welcomes Miss Tabb back in their midst and is very glad she had such a delightful vacation.

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia.

Published by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year.

ROTUNDA STAFF

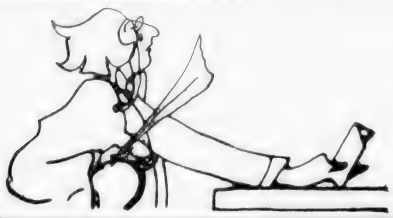
Editor-in-Chief ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
Associate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... LELIA MATTOX, '35
Literary Editor ..... GERTRUDE MANNES '34
Athletic Editor ..... MARY JESS RICHMOND, '33
World News Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY '33
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY KATHRYN TAYLOR '35
Social Editor ..... DOREEN SMITH '33
Art Editor ..... GERTRUDE SUGDEN, '34
Feature Editors ..... BIRDIE WOODING '35
MARY SHELTON, '34
Humorous Editor ..... BELLE LOVELACE '35
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

LOTTIE WHITE '35 HAZEL SMITH '36 DOROTHY WOOLWINE '34
SARAH ROWELL '33 WINIFRED PUGH '34
CARRIE DESHAZO '33 MARGARET COPENHAVER '34



Proof Reader ..... ELIZABETH VASSAR '35
Assistant Proof Reader ..... KATHERINE WALTON '35

Managers

Business Manager ..... FRANCES POTTS '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY '34
Circulation Manager ..... ELIZABETH WALTHALL '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... FRANCES HORTON '34

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matters should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

These Advertisers

Perhaps the old student publication war cry is becoming more than a little trite. "Patronize our advertisers" may be losing its force and only serving to bore you readers but the expression is still one of vital importance and we implore our subscribers not to overlook it.

The greater part of the expense of publishing this paper is covered by the sale of advertising space. It is therefore simple to see to what extent the college newspaper must depend upon the support of advertisers.

The biggest argument the advertising manager has to meet is the all too common protest of "Why advertise? The students will buy anywhere, and the ad will only be a donation on my part with an unsatisfactory return." The students themselves are responsible for this attitude because too many of them do fail to consider the ads in the college paper when they do their buying.

It has been alleged to us that in the very town of Due West, the very place where we should receive the greatest support of all, that one of the business men declared he received as much student trade if not more than any other man in his line and yet had not given any advertising to any of the student publications in years. We plead and insist that every Erskine student take note of this before it is too late, and your publications are forced to be done away with because they cannot find sufficient support among advertisers to meet expenses. Keep watch in our columns as to who gives us the best support, and patronize our advertisers for a mutual benefit.—J. Mc. D.

Value of the Depression

Very few students realize that the present depression is a great opportunity to those who wish to make it so. College students are beginning to think for themselves. They are developing the art of good management. If times were prosperous they would, no doubt, miss this great opportunity. The hardships which we are undergoing should be considered valuable rather than a plague. Students do not squander their nickels and dimes foolishly now. The young people who make the most of circumstances today will be leading the country in future years. —K. K.

Help for Everybody

Campus organizations desirous of advancement may well take advantage of the opportunity to have news of their activities appear in the college newspaper. With more than fifty groups of the campus, it is well-nigh impossible for The Technician to cover the many meetings and doings of all of them, even though it is anxious to make the paper complete as possible.

Ordinarily, the only place where news of a campus organization appears in this paper and the only way it can be known is through the publicity thus obtained.

If every organization would appoint an officer to attend to its publicity, both the paper and the organization will profit. Although sometimes space limitations prohibit lengthy stories, no bona-fide news matter will be omitted unless absolutely necessary.—The Technician.

Sunday Studying

Recently D. Dondthaler expressed his views upon studying on Sunday, which, as coming from a man known to be broad-minded and sincere, cannot be disregarded. He was not dogmatic, and he was not ultra-conservative. As a Christian gentleman he simply stated a commandment of God and his own interpretation of it as applied to students.

Should college students study on the Sabbath day? At present it is a customary practice to prepare Monday's assignments on Sunday afternoon, and perhaps the reasons for the custom are logical. The objections to Sunday study were so well founded on truth that they ought to be considered with deep thought. Everygirl should arrive at some decision for it is a serious matter.

What are your views on Sunday study? Custom can be broken if the people who practice it make an effort to break it. Rather than to print the personal opinions of the editorial staff, the Salemite prefers to be the voice of the student body. The Open Forum is at your service.—The Salemite.

WHO'S WHO

KAPPA DELTA PI, NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY IN EDUCATION

In order to organize scholarship, service and leadership in this college there was formed in 1918, an honor society known as Pi Kappa Omega. After ten years of service this organization was merged with Kappa Delta Pi, a national honor society in education which strives to maintain the same high ideals of citizenship established by its predecessor. The plaque in the Rotunda commemorates this union.

Kappa Delta Pi aims to encourage in its members a higher degree of devocation to social service by: (1)—fostering high intellectual and personal standards during the period of preparation for teaching; and (2)—recognizing outstanding service in the field of education. To accomplish these aims the organization invites to membership those juniors and seniors who exhibit worthy educational ideals, sound scholarship, and who have made some definite contribution in the form of service to the intellectual and social life of the college.

In order that this spirit of service may continue to develop, the chapter selects each year some piece of work either of research or original nature, which will make definite contribution to the perpetuation of the ideals of both Kappa Delta Pi and the college. At the present time a history of the college is being compiled which, it is hoped will prove helpful in the writing of pageants for the anniversary celebration in 1934.

The encouragement of high ideals of scholarship among freshman and sophomores constitutes another purpose of Kappa Delta Pi. To this end the organization sponsors a formal reception each spring to which it invites those students in these classes who are in the upper quartile of scholastic average.

Thus it may be said that membership in Kappa Delta Pi implies training for service not only while in college, but also for service in the larger outside world. Its membership includes:

Active student members:
Mary Thomas Rawls
Winston Webb
Marguerite Massey
Lois Rhea
Sara Jane
Active faculty members:
Miss Dreyer
Mrs. Jeffries
Miss Bess Gordon Jones
Miss Nida
Miss McIver
Miss Hiner
Miss Talerro
Miss Pierce
Miss Hess
Miss Hayes
Associate Members:
Dr. Wynne
Miss Waters
Mr. Holton
Miss Bierbower
Honorary members:
Dr. Jarman
Miss Jennie Tabb

ALUMNAE NEWS

Co-Operative's Manager Dies At Prospect, Virginia

Mr. Bennett T. Taylor, husband of an alumna of S. T. C. (Miss Bessie Carter), president of the Taylor Company of Prospect and the Taylor Manufacturing Company of Farmville died at his home at ten o'clock on October 22. Mr. Taylor was one of the most extensive business men in Southside Virginia.

Funeral services were held at the Prospect Methodist church on Monday, October 24 at four o'clock. Mr. Taylor was director of the First National Bank of Farmville, member of Prince Edward County Agricultural Advisory Board and was identified with various civic organizations.

He had just assumed the duties of general manager of the Dark-Fired Tobacco Growers Association and it was while speaking at Blackstone that he was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage from which he did not recover.

In Mr. Taylor's passing the church, the town and the community have lost a valuable man whose place as friend and citizen will not be filled.

Mrs. W. H. Decker, formerly Florence Boston, lectured at the Woman's Club on "China—Yesterday and Today." Mrs. Decker was in China for five years, from 1920-1925.

Among the wedding announcements this week are those of Helen Gertrude Hall to Herbert Allen Pickford on October 1 and of Mabel Yancie Brooking to William McLemore Birdsong, which wedding will take place in Charlottesville.

EXTRACTS FROM A STUDENT'S DIARY IF THIS WERE YEAR 1900

Wednesday, October 26, 1900,

I have been extremely sleepy all day, because we stayed up till 10:30, actually, watching the girls who were called up before the Student Council last night. I shivered with fright even though I had on my heavy night dress. I felt so guilty because I walked from my room to the end of the hall with my limbs bare last week. I was lucky not to have been seen.

There were four girls who were caught disobeying rules last week. Alice Lee Moore was called up for having some paint on her face last week. That is quite a common thing with her; therefore, her punishment was very severe. She cannot come to chapel for two whole weeks.

Helen Cover was caught crocheting during study hour. I can't understand her attitude; I fear she must be con-

Continued on last page

DREAMS

Dreams are crystal bubbles,
Spinning, showing all their hues—
Lovely rainbow colors—
All night they spin.
Then break.

OBLIVION

Have you ever followed a deer trail
Leading you know not where
And felt your troubles float behind you
Into the crystal air?

It instills the wanderlust,
A light feeling, free from care.
This sense comes only to privileged ones,
It's a joyous feeling—but rare.

MISSING YOU

I miss you when shadows lengthen
And night begins to fall,
I miss you when twilight deepens
And silence covers all.

I look intently at every face,
Each one that I meet in the street.
Hoping and watching always
For a glimpse of your smile so sweet.

The days grow longer and longer,
The months stretch on into years,
I miss you more with the passing hours
And my eyes are filled with tears.

I miss your hand-clasp so tender;
And in every thing I do,
Always my heart is longing
Just for the sight of you.

REFLECTIONS

Today I went for a walk—
Just walking—
Nowhere in particular,
With only one companion—
My dog.

Against the dark green pines
In clear silhouette—
Graceful, yet with stately grandeur,
So beautiful it made an ache
In your heart
And a catch
In your throat—
A silver birch.

Dear God—
Not until
I witnessed that
Divine Picture,
Did I realize
Life was worth living—
After all.

GYPSIES

Campfires gleam thru the trees,
Air—hazy with smoke.
Dark faces—glowing, rapturous.
Eyes—intent
On a graceful, standing figure.
Violin—held lovingly under his chin,
As a mother
Holds her child
Gently, carressingly, he draws
The bow, and notes—
Haunting-sweet, weird,
Shimmering, high,
Come on the breeze.
Wilder and wilder—
Soaring to the clouds,
Until they fill the sky.
Breathless, spent with emotion—
I listen—
It is the mighty creation—
The "Hungarian Rhapsody."

AUTUMN

The high, shrill call of wild geese
Flying southward—
Hear the whirr of their wings
As they rise from their feeding place
Into the clear sky above?
Leaves—gorgeous yellows and reds,
Sunshine—warm and clear—
And air, cool and bracing
Thus—Autumn comes.

SOCIALS

The following girls spent the week-end in Richmond: Virginia Riddick, Dot Leonard, Lois Rhodes, Margaret Gathright, Margaret Parker, Connie Quarles, Ruth Ford, Gazelle Ware, Elizabeth Field, Alice Rowell, Betty Tice, Mary Virginia Walker, Frankie Minter, Tac Waters, Margaret Young, Margaret Woodward, Margaret Eley, Jane Royall, Nedra Bair, Laeta Barham, Helen Rose Cunningham, Grace Rowell, Frances Potts, Mary Virginia Miller, Mary Conway, Kitty Waters, Mary Berkeley Nelson, Nancy Burgwyn.

• • •

Dot Snedegar, Rachel McDaniel, Hildegarde Ross, and Dot Davis were in Roanoke during the week-end.

• • •

Claudia Harper, Grace Eubank, and Dot Stone, spent the week-end in Newport News.

• • •

Lelia Lovelace spent the week-end with her parents in Halifax.

• • •

Margaret McCue and Iris Hart were the guests of Professor and Mrs. Freeman H. Hart at Hampden-Sydney. Jean McClure spent the week-end at Hampden-Sydney.

• • •

Marion Eller, Kate Porter and Lottie Whitehurst attended the concert in Lynchburg.

• • •

Ruth Macom spent the week-end with friends at Mary Baldwin.

• • •

Dot Eubank visited at Madison Heights.

• • •

Willie Rountrees spent the week end in Suffolk.

• • •

Alfreda Shields spent the week-end at Salem. Betsy Wilkinson and Mary Custis Burwell also visited in Salem.

• • •

The following girls attended the dances at V. M. I.: Mary Louise McNulty, Tony Jones, Frances Dillon, Carroll Jane Bibb.

• • •

Frances Ratcliffe, Belle Lovelace and Sarah Elam visited in South Boston during the week-end.

• • •

The following girls spent the week-end in Roanoke: Dot Waynick, Elizabeth Mason Jeanallen Bowles, and Lois Barnes.

• • •

Delta Sigma Chi announces the following new pledges: Sarah Hyde Thomas, Harriet Moomaw, Ida Miller, Mary Easley Hill and Gertrude Sugden.

• • •

The Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority announces the following new pledges: Gloria Mann and Phyllis Denit.

FARMVILLE S. T. C. AND HAMPDEN-SYDNEY ARE HOSTS TO CONVENTION

Continued from page one

and to promote and foster journalism in the various colleges of the state. Problems were presented and threshed out in the discussion groups.

The discussion groups for the association this year were led by the following: Mr. J. L. L. Dickinson, Jr., newspapers; Mr. Samuel Holton, Jr., magazines; Mr. J. B. Wall, business managers and Mr. Hurt, annuals.

Friday night a banquet and informal dance were given to the delegates and visitors to the press convention. At the dinner, trophy cups, were awarded and certificates of honorable mention given. "The Flat Hat" of William and Mary College received the cup for the best newspaper and Washington and Lee won the cup for the best annual.

The next annual convention was scheduled to meet at Richmond College with the University of Richmond and Westhampton College acting as joint hosts. The officers for this convention are as follows:

Honorary president, Miss Evelyn Dulaney, Roanoke; President, Beverly Britton, Richmond University; First Vice-President, Mary Burgess Fraser, Farmville; Secretary-Treasurer, Elizebath Claybrook, Westhampton; Executive Secretary, Alexander Hudgins, Richmond.

ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA BIDS NEW MEMBERS

The Joan Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma wishes to announce the following new members:

Helen Cover
Martha Gunter
Doreen Smith

CLASS NOTES

SENIOR CLASS MEETS

At the regular Senior Class meeting Tuesday night, Mary Winston, chairman of the class production committee announced that plans for the minstrel which will furnish entertainment including snappy dances, catchy songs, and mirth-producing jokes were progressing rapidly. Also preparations were made for the presentation of Miss Iler, the classman. "Dot" Snedegar has written the words and Ruth Jordan the music for the classman song. Other business consisted of dividing the class into groups. Mary Gregory gave a list of the group captains. Each captain will choose ten girls to work with her. After the motto was repeated the meeting adjourned.

MARGARET ELEY CHOSEN JUNIOR CHEER LEADER

The Junior Class is relaxing a bit after getting their sister class, the Freshmen started on their college career. By the unanimous vote of the class Margaret Eley was elected class cheer leader. Eley then led the class in the Junior Red and White song.

As there are several Juniors in the infirmary, a committee was appointed to write letters to their unfortunate classmates. Those on the committee are: Louise Van Lear and Virginia Brinkley.

Thanksgiving is approaching fast and the Junior Class committee is busy making banners. The industrious girls are Mildred Gwaltney, Frances Horton, Ruth and Margaret Rucker, and Helen Allen. Every Junior, come, and lend your aid in helping them.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

Now that Sophomores have finished thinking of cute ways in which the rats could prove themselves the jolly good sports they really are, they turn to the next big event on the school calendar—the circus. Schemes are now in order for a bigger and better circus stunt. The theme for the stunt, now definitely decided upon, has all the earmarks of being one of the cleverest performances yet attempted.

Already the Sophomores are thinking of money matters. Their big attempt this year to fill the treasury will be a play to be given sometime in the near future.

And speaking of the very near future "sing" this Saturday night will be plenty good, for it will have sophomore originality and ingenuity plus the sophomore pep toput it over big.

FRESHMAN CLASS MEET IN AUDITORIUM

The Freshman Class met in the large auditorium Tuesday night. Several matters of business were discussed. Nominations for the Freshman Commission were made. "Tat" Waters reminded the girls of the importance of this commission and that capable girls who are willing to work should be selected. She also explained that it was a part of the Y. W. C. A. and that Freshmen who are on this commission and prove to be good workers are likely to be on the Y. W. Cabinet next year.

"Red" Riddick was elected cheer leader for the Freshman Class. She has plenty of energy and pep and is popular with her classmates so you know she will be an excellent cheer leader. Some one remarked that she was the "A. Moore" of the Freshman Class, so that means a good cheer leader.

A committee of three girls was appointed to decide the amount of class dues to be paid by the Freshmen this year. The treasurer was appointed chairman of this committee.

The student body extends sympathy to Kitty McLemore.

DEBATE CLUB MEETS

The Debate club will have a regular meeting Friday night at 7 o'clock in Student Building auditorium. This will be an important meeting and the roll will be taken at this time.

The club will now meet every second and fourth Friday night at seven o'clock. Everyone is urged to attend regularly and make this the best possible year for the club. All meeting will be over by seven-thirty o'clock.

TEN O'CLICK REFRESHMENTS

Are you hurry? Come to the senior kitchen, second floor, Cunningham Hall where cold drinks, hot dogs and variegated sandwiches are served between ten and eleven P. M. Oh, yes! Don't foet that Mr. "Lee" Moore is still running the taxi to Longwood.

FACULTY MEMBER HAS ACCIDENT

Mrs. and Mr Chas. French, their son, Charlie, th friends, had a slight accident while on their way to the V. P. I. football game Saturday. They were slightly cut and had to be taken to the hospital for bandages. However they continued on their way and enjoyed the football game after all.

The truck which hit them did not stop but kept going. The audacity of some people. Imagine an S. T. C. student who'd beat a faculty member that way.

Dr. Pressey of the Ohio State University psychology department, tells us that all students who flunk out of college are neither dumb nor lazy, but might only have needed a tooth pulled. This should cure the "depression" for the dentists.—Virginia Tech.

Co-eds at the University of Melbourne, Australia, have included football in the woman's list of major sports, and the men not be outdone, have added knitting.

Y. W. RECEPTION

The student body is enjoying the talks now being given by Dr. Calisch. The World Fellowship Committee, composed of Margaret Jack as chairman with Lucille Tiller, Mary Catherine Taylor, Martha Higgins, Louise Bullock, and Emma Littleton is responsible for his being here.

The Y. W. C. A. held a reception in the lounge Tuesday night in honor of Dr. Calisch. An informal discussion was held. After the discussion, tea and cakes were served by the Y. W. Committee.

The Y. W. held an open cabinet meeting last Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Grace Rowell led devotionals on friendship. "Honey" Hamilton gave a talk from "The Woman's Press." Jane Royall then read a poem on friendliness.

Everyone enjoyed the fashion show of sing Saturday night. The success was due to the generosity of Baldwin's

THE WORLD'S NEED

So many gods, so many creeds,
So many paths that wind and wind,
While just the art of being kind
Is all the sad world needs.
Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Two enterprising students at the University of Idaho built a house on a trailer and hauled it to college with them. They are now living comfortably in these quarters defying the depression.—Mills College Weekly.

S. T. C. is just finding out that it is against the law in Virginia to paste a college sticker on the windshield of a car. Aw shucks, ya' can't be collegiate anymore.

NOTE BOOK FILLERS FREE!!

To ach S. T. C. student viisting our store this week, w will give you one note book filler ABSOLUTEL FREE!

Davidson's
HOUSE OF QUALITY
FARMVILLE. VIRGINIA

Taylor Mfg. Co.
Contracting Building
Phone No. 260
N. MAIN ST. FARMVILLE

Weyanoke
BEAUTY SALON
A Complete Beauty Service At Moderate Prices
WEYANOKE HOTEL
Farmville Va.

"Farmville's Best Place to Shop"
—is at—
—THE HUB—
Come in and get acquainted with us. We welcome you to S. T. C. and Farmville!
MAIN STREET FARMVILLE

A COLLEGIATE INSTITUTION for BUSINESS TRAINING
QUALIFY for business opportunities with professional training offered in Secretarial Science. Placement service for graduates, with the number of employment calls showing an increase in 1931.
Accounting and Business Administration Courses leading to B.C.S. and M.C.S. degrees given under an able staff of Certified Public Accountants, University Graduates and Attorneys-At-Law.
Write or call for information about summer session courses.
204 Colleges and Universities Represented In Annual Student Body Enrollment of 1,600.
STRAYER COLLEGE
719 13TH ST.-NATIONAL 1748
WASHINGTON, D.C.
CATALOG UPON REQUEST

Joe Poole
ODORLESS CLEANING
Sponsored by
THE ROTUNDA
Campus Representative Will Take Orders.

Electric Shoe Shop
Will Fix Your Shoes
While You Wait
BEST WORKMANSHIP
AND LEATHER USED

S. T. C. GIRLS
Go To Wade's
—For—
The best fountain drinks
The best sandwiches
The best lunch plates
The best home-made plies and cream
WADE'S
The Home of the Needs

C. E. Chappell
COMPANY
Stationery, Blank Books and School Supplies
Cigars, Cigarettes and Soda
MAIN STREET
Farmville, Virginia

White Drug Co.
Established 1868
The Confidence of the Community For Over Half a Century
FINEST TOILET REQUISITES
DRUGS AND STATIONERY

Mack's
"WE NEED YOUR HEAD TO RUN OUR BUSINESS"
We use the Frederick Method Hair Cutting and Thinning a Specialty
BARBER AND BEAUTY SHOP
323 Main Street

YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOUR SHOES FIXED AT THE
Lovelace Shoe Shop
110 Third Street

JOKES

Freshman: "Mr. Bell, would you mind if I digressed a moment and asked a question about today's lesson?"—The Carolinian.

Mae Downs: "I walked three miles yesterday."

"Skinny" Brown: "For goodness sake!"

Mae: "For what other reason, I'd like to know?" —V. P. I. Skipper

"I always was fond of children,' said the old cannibal chief as he slowly stirred the soup. — Illinois Siren.

Your Move, Sir

In a country newspaper appeared the following ad: "The man who picked up my wallet on Fourth Street was recognized. He is requested to return it."

In the next issue this reply was published: "The recognized man who picked up your wallet requests the loser to call and get it."—Log.

Love to the emotionally unborn is merely a coldly calculated tour through the easiest paths of life.

An ardent kiss is a scintillating contact between two live wires.

A woman is like an elevator to a man; whither he goes depends on which way she is moving.

Chinese Patient Over Telephone: "Doc, what time you fixee teeth for me?"

Doctor: "Two-thirty, all right?"

Chinese Patient: "Yes, tooth hurty me all right, but what time you want me to come?"—Tiger.

Famous Three Little Words

Three's a crowd
Off and on
I'm terribly misunderstood
You must go
Just one, please.
What's that, mamma?
Don't bother me.
Who was he?
I don't wanna.
Let's go slumming.
No parking here.

—Shine

Famous Summers

Summer right and summer wrong.
Summer here, please
The canoe was summerged
Down with Fort Summer.
"Summervelous—s'wonderful."
Summer sweethearts.
And summer not.

Illinois Siren

Mistress (indignantly): "Just look at the dust on this side-board. It's at least six weeks old."

Mary: "Itt's at least six weeks old."

Mary (calmly): "Then it ain't nothin' to do with me, mum. I've only been here four weeks."

—Leigh Burr

Knox: "I can tell you the score of the game before it starts."

Henrietta: "What is it?"

Knox: "Nothing to nothing—before it starts."

—Clarkson Green Griffin

The average student in this institution studies at least six hours a day. The other seven hundred and ninety-nine do not study at all.

—Drexel Drexard

Mr. Bronson died very suddenly and an important business letter was left unmailed.

Before sending it off, his secretary, who was Irish and who had a passion for explanatory detail, added the following post-script below Mr. Bronson's signature:

"Since writing the above, I have died." —Illinois Siren

S. T. C. TENNIS TEAM WHIPS BLACKSTONE THIS AFTERNOON

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Dot Snedegar, Jennie Hurt, Elizabeth Walthall, and Mary Barkeley Nelson, members of the S. T. C. varsity tennis team, played four Blackstone racqueteers in single matches at Blackstone.

Besides the regular team and its coach, Miss Iler, representing S. T. C., there were other S. T. C. students who went along to cheer our team on to victory.

The following are the players and scores at press time:

Snedegar vs. Kellam (7-5), (6-2).
Hurt vs. Barrow (6-1), (6-2).

ARCHERY TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD HERE

Beginning this Saturday, from 4 until 6 o'clock, archery tournaments will be held on one Saturday in every month whenever the weather permits. Everyone is invited to come out and shoot in the tournaments. Then, next spring, when the class tournaments are held, each class will have experienced archers to represent it in the fight for the color cup. An archer may be like a genius, born, not made, but experience can help immensely! Come out, and practice.

MISS BORN OFFERS GIRL SCOUT COURSE

Have you ever felt a desire for nearer companionship and a thorough conception of just what real camp-fire life is; what it is to understand the beauties and advantages of nature; how to get the most out of life? If so, a wonderful opportunity is to be offered in a class beginning next Monday and extending through the week. The class is to meet every night at 7 o'clock for an hour. A certificate of attendance will be given at the end of the week. The course is to be conducted by Miss Born from the National Girl Scout Headquarters.

Those desiring to take the course leave their name at the business office by Thursday of this week and pay fee of $1.00.

Come on, all who are looking for a good time with lots of information thrown in, and let's see what good scouts we can be.

A new element has been discovered in the space surrounding the sun and stars. This element is called neutron and is so heavy that a thimble full weighs as much as thirty battleships.

CALENDAR

OCTOBER 27-NOVEMBER 2

Thursday, Oct. 27
4:00—Hockey practice
4:00—Choral Club
7:00—Debate Club meeting
7:30—A. A. Council meeting

Friday, Oct. 28
4:00—Hockey practice
7:00—Palette Club meeting

Saturday, Oct. 29
6:45—Sophomore sing

Monday, Oct. 31
6:45—Student body meeting
7:00—Virginian staff meeting
7:00—Pi Kappa Delta
10:00—House Council

Tuesday, Nov. 1
4:00—Choral Club
7:00—Class meetings
10:00—Student Council

Wednesday, Nov. 2
5:00—Y. W. Cabinet meeting
7:00—Rotunda staff meeting
7:30—Pi Gamma Mu

MASQUERADE TO BE GIVEN MONDAY NIGHT

The Athletic Association invites the student body to attend a masquerade party given in the gym Monday night, October 3 from eight to ten-thirty o'clock.

The Hampden-Sydney orchestra will furnish music for the occasion. Prizes will be awarded to the ones wearing the cutest and the most original costumes, and to the best dancers and to the lucky numbers.

Even if you never have been to a masquerade, come and see what it's like, and you'll have good time, too. There is no admission charge. All you have to do is get a costume and come to the gym at 8 o'clock, sharp.

EXTRACTS FROM A STUDENT'S DIARY IF THIS WERE YEAR 1900

(Continued from page 2

templating matrimony. She has to write, "I will be a good girl"—one thousand times.

Nancy Burgwyn was heard to say, "Gosh" when she tripped on her petticoat, so of course she has to walk around the campus ten times a day for three weeks.

Helen Shawen dropped a book in the Rotunda, Wednesday morning on her way to chapel. She reprimanded her for carrying so many books; she will not be allowed to carry more than four books at a time for a whole week. That will be hard on her I know.

The music in chapel was so sweet this morning. A quatet consisting of Mae Downs, Martha Sanders, Mary Berkley Nelson and Alice McKay sang, "O! Listen to the Mocking Bird."

We are all so excited over the croquet match. Naturally, I am hoping that the Red and Whites will win, but with such athletes as Frances Dorin, Lillian Womack, Frances Coleman, and Gazelle Ware on the opposing side we will have a hard fight.

Oh, dear me, it's growing late, my faithful little alarm clock is pointing to the nine o'clock hour. The oil in the lamp is getting low, so good night dear diary!

SENIOR TAXI!

For style and comfort take the senior taxi to Longwood—A. Moore cab driver! Be collegiate, be stylish, be at ease in the Longwood taxi every Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Just think what awaits you at the end of the luxurious ride—Longwood buns! Surely, that will cause you to race for the senior taxi which leaves S. T. C. every Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon and only five cents a trip. Come early and call for a taxi!

Especially high poles are used for stringing telephone wires from Nairobi to Mombaso, Africa, in order to place them beyond the reach of giraffes in the game country.

EACO THEATRE

Week of Oct. 27-Nov. 2

Thurs. & Fri., Oct. 27-28
The Greatest Picture of All Time!
GRAND HOTEL
With These Stars
Greta Garbo
Joan Crawford
Lionel Barrymore
John Barrymore
Wallace Beery
Lewis Stone
Jean Hersholt

Saturday, Oct. 29
Lew Ayres
Maureen O'Sullivan
in
"OKAY AMERICA"
The best columnist story to date! Written for Walter Winchell.
Extra—Arthur Tracy, the Street Singer, in "ROMANTIC MELODIES" Souvenir and Fox News

Next Monday & Tues.
John Barrymore
Billie Burke,
Katherine Hepburn
in
"The Bill of Divorcement"
Barrymore pours his burning soul into one of the finest living documents ever given the screen!
Betty Boop Cartoon & News

Next Wed., Nov. 2
Joel McCrea
FAY WRAY
in
"The Most Dangerous Game"
A thrill-charged romance of fabulous adventure. It will grip you from beginning to end.
—Also—
An Our Gang Comedy

Daily Matinees at 4 p. m. Evenings at 8 o'clock.
Admission, Adults, 35c at nights and 25c at matinees. Children under 12 years of age, 15c to each show.

MOON

I am standing here at my window—
And the noon
Is a silver twist—
Whilst—
I dream and dream of you.

L. H.

The University of Buenos Aires is the largest educational institution in South America.

COLLEGE FOOTWEAR

Dozens of new models, made to our own order because we KNOW what the college girls demand in stylish footwear.

We invite you in to see the new numbers now on display. Priced upward from

$1.59

Hosiery to match

BALDWIN'S
QUALITY · PRICE · SERVICE STORE

Red Rose Store
LUNCHEONETTE
Cut Rate Drug Sundries
New headquarters for S. T. C. Girls
SODAS SANDWICHES

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
Willis
FARMVILLE FLORIST VIRGINIA
PHONES 181-273

Martin JEWELER
Gifts of Lasting Remembrance
317 Main Street
Farmville, Virginia

Kleanwell
CLEANERS AND TAILORS
Expert Cleaning, Repairing and Remodeling of Ladies Garments
Special prices for cleaning and remodeling
Main Street, Opposite Postoffice
PHONE 198

SouthsideDrugStore
Direct Eastman Kodak Agency (Fresh films)
LET US DEVELOP YOUR FILMS
Filler Paper—7 cents each 3 for 20c
Just One Block From Campus

S. A. Legus
TAILORING
CLEANING
AND PRESSING
Farmville, Virginia

G. F. Butcher & Co.
The Convenient Store
FOR GOOD
THINGS TO
EAT AND DRINK

Gray's Drug Store
QUALITY—PRICE—SERVICE
Come in and Get Acquainted
We Are Glad to Have You With Us!
Farmville, Virginia

Shannon's
Is Headquarters for the Best
SANDWICHES
—and—
DRINKS
—in—
FARMVILLE!

COME TO THE CIRCUS SATURDAY NIGHT

THE ROTUNDA

POE

ONLY 10c BRING YOUR DATE!

We Teach To Teach

Volume XIII | THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 2, 1932 | No. 7

Tri Sigma Sorority Present Library To the John Randolph High School

DR. JARMAN AND MR. DICKINSON SPEAK ON THE PROGRAM

Miss Mabel Lee Walton of Woodstock, National President Is Here

A library consisting of three hundred books and magazine subscriptions was presented to John Randolph School by Sigma Sigma Sigma, a national education sorority, Saturday, October 29, 1932.

Students of John Randolph, patrons, and members of the faculty gathered with the members of Alpha Chapter of Tri Sigma, with the representatives from other chapters, and with the alumnae in the school auditorium at ten o'clock Saturday morning to hear the presentation exercises, over which Mr. E. Armstrong Smith, principal of John Randolph, presided. The program was as follows:

Invocation—Rev. R. G. Hutcheson, pastor, Browns Presbyterian church.

Song—"Did You Ever Hear the Story?"—Alpha Chapter of Sigma, Sigma Sigma.

John Randolph School Library—A National Social Service Project—Miss Pauline Camper.

John Randolph School — One Among Thousands, Dr. J. L. Jarman.

The Significance of Sigma Sigma Sigma's Library Project to the Educational Progress of Virginia, Mr. C. W. Dickinson, Jr.

Presentation of the Library—Miss Mabel Lee Walton.

Acceptance for John Randolph School, Mr. Andrew Anderson.

Acceptance for Cumberland County, Mr. O. G. Bailey.

America, audience.

Miss Pauline Camper, who is faculty adviser of Alpha Chapter of Tri

Continued on page three

Community Sing Held in S. T. C. Auditorium

Friday evening, October 28, a delightful community sing led by Mr. A. H. Strick was held in the auditorium of S. T. C. Long before the appointed hour of 8 o'clock, families from far and near had arrived. And how their faces lit up when they began singing the old songs!

Dr. Jarman's solos were enjoyed immensely. Much talent was displayed other poems and selections given.

The following is the program:

1—Selection, Farmville Silver Band

2—Community sing, "Old Folks at Home."

3—Business Mens Chorus: (a) 'Uncle Ned". (b) "Flow Gently Sweet Afton".

4.—Community sing: "Old Black Joe."

5—S. T. C. Quartette.

6—Selection: Farmville Silver Band

7—Hampden-Sydney Quartet.

8—Farmville Male Quartet: "Moonlight and Dreams of You."

9—Poem—E. A. Schiller.

10—Solo: "Toreador" from the Opera 'Carmen" (Bizet), Dr. J. L. Jarman.

11—State Teachers College Choir.

12—Business Mens Chorus: (a)—"I Aain't Gwine Study War No More," (b) "The Bells of St. Mary's".

13—Community sing: "When You and I Were Young, Maggie."

14—Hampden-Sydney College Glee Club.

15—Community sing: (a) "My Wild Irish Rose," (b) "Long, Long Trail", (c) "Pack Up Your Troubles", (d) "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

Musical Groups At Chatham, Va.

On Monday, October 24, the Third District Federation of Music Clubs met at Chatham, Va. The Junior Choral Club and Orchestra of the college were represented by their presidents, Nell Weaver and Gertrude Mannes, and the Schemmel Conservatory by Miss Mary E. Moss, each giving a detailed report of the work of their organizations. Miss Purdom, State Chairman of Junior Orchestras, gave an interesting and inspiring message, urging the heads of the music departments to organize and encourage ensemble playing. A lecture by the State President Miss Julia Fuqua, of Norfolk, Va. and several delightful musical members were other outstanding features of the program.

On Friday, October 28, the Orchestra was again represented by Miss Purdom at Norfolk, Va. She, as a member of the Board of Directors of Virginia Federation of Music Clubs, reported on orchestral work and asked that a survey be made to ascertain the number of intruments, particularly old violins, that could be

Continued on page three

Student Body Meeting is Held

The Student Government Association held its regular monthly meeting Monday night, October 31, in the large auditorium. The meeting was called to order by Jane Royall and the minutes of the last meeting read by Alice McKay. Jenilee Knight told us something about May Day and introduced the chairmen of the various committees: Mary Jess Richmond, music committee; Mary Winston, dance committee, and Frances Ratcliffe, costume committee. Questionnaires were then passed and each student was asked to check all phases that she was especially interested in and willing to help with for May Day.

Winston Cobb read some changes in the Y. W. C. A. constitution which were voted on and passed.

Miss Potts read an announcement from Miss Mary's office concerning office hours and class excuses.

Dot Snedegar invited the student body to the masquerade party Monday night October 31, to the circus Saturday night, Nov. 5, and to the hockey game with Westhampton Saturday afternoon, November 5.

Jane Royall emphasized the circus and urged that everyone go if possible. Announcements were read and the meeting was adjourned.

DR. IRONSIDES SPEAKS AT CHAPEL

Dr. Ironsides, pastor of the Moody Memorial Presbyterian Church in Chicago, Illinois, spoke to the student body at chapel Thursday morning, October 27. He has been holding a series of metings at Hampden-Sydney for the past week and was brought to S. T. C. by the World Fellowship Committee of the Y. W. C. A.

Dr. Ironsides gave a most interesting and inspiring talk in regard to world fellowship. Through his Scripture reading and illustrations he gave the idea that no one has ever seen God but that God is made known by manifesting divine love.

MISS ILER

Miss Iler who has faithfully and intelligently piloted the destinies of the Class of '33 since their entrance to S. T. C.

Senior Class Presents Miss Iler For Last Time

Program Centers Around the Idea of Music And Harmony of School Life

For the fourth and last time the Class of '33 presented Miss Iler as classman Saturday morning in chapel. Marching in step to the Alma Mater, the Senior Class in cap and gown, followed Miss Iler and Margaret Gathright, their president into the auditorium.

Immediately after devotionals the Senior Class rose and sang the class song which has been their anthem for three years. Margaret Gathright then gave a beautiful and heart-felt speech in honor of their classman. The class remained standing while Margaret spoke. As she came to the close of each part of her reminiscences, the class sang again the song they used to sing to Miss Iler when they were freshmen, sophomores, and juniors, respectively. "With love and with sadness" they presented Miss Iler to the faculty and student body as their guide and ideal for their last year at S. T. C. She has enabled them truly 'to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield." For four years Miss Iler has led the Class of '33 in the right path. She has guided them, encouraged them, and given them vision. The last song to her was sung in a tone that disclosed all the love and feeling which the class holds for her.

As a tribute to Miss Iler, the Sophomore Class, clad in white for the occasion, rose in a body as the seniors removed their caps and sang their classman song.

In response to requests from the student body parts of Margaret Gathright's speech are quoted:

"If the history of the Class of '33 could be written in a piece of music it would begin with a simple melody . . . We chose for our guide some one

Continued on page three

C—is for circus that's coming to town.
I—is for interest that's going around.
R—is for a rousing good time on that night.
C—is for carnival spirit; the lights will be bright.
U—is for unusual stunts will be given, and there'll be a band.
S—is for —guess—Why, Shelton, of course—a ring master grand.

November 5 Ushers in the College Circus With Lights and Music

S. T. C. Student Struck by Car

An automobile struck Catherine Cooper S. T. C. freshman, while on a monogram hike on the Lynchburg road Saturday afternoon, October 29, about 2:20 o'clock.

Catherine, with Louise Walmsley and Annie B. Anthony, about fifty feet in front of the other hikers, was running behind and holding on to a wagon headed toward Lynchburg. Louise ran across to the left side of the road, but just as Catherine attempted to cross, she was struck and knocked to the side of the road by an automobile coming from Lynchburg.

The driver, a Lynchburg man enroute to Crewe, was traveling at a moderate rate of speed when the accident occurred.

Catherine was taken immediately to the Southside Community Hospital where x-rays were made, and the report from the hospital was that several bones were broken in the region below the right knee, and several teeth were knocked loose. The x-rays showed a good general condition and no internal injuries.

Treatment was given, and school authorities and Catherine's sister, Nannie Ruth, a junior here, were notified as soon as possible.

The operation made on the injured leg Saturday night was successful, and her condition now is very favorable.

State Board of Ed. Meets Here

The regular meeting of the State Board of Education was held at the State Teachers College, Farmville, on Thursday, October 27.

The following represenatives were present: Superintendent Sidney B. Hall; Mr. Thomas D. Eason, supervisor of higher education; President S. P. Duke, of Harrisonburg; President M. L. Combs of Fredericksburg; President J. P. McConnell of East Radford; Mr. R. W. Moore of Fairfax, Va.; Mr. Robert W. Daniel of Brandon, Va.; Mr. Herbert M. Harris of Lynchburg Va.; Judge Robert M. Huges of Norfolk, Va.; Miss Rose McDonald of Berryville, Va.; Hon. E. Lee Trinkle of Roanoke, Va., and Superintendent Joseph W. Saunders of Newport News Va. The last seven names are the members of the Virginia State Board of Education.

The morning business session began at 11:30. Luncheon was served at Longwood, after which the business meeting was resumed.

MUSICAL PROGRAM GIVEN SATURDAY

In chapel Saturday morning Mr. Strick presented Mrs. Baldwin, soprano, of Farmville, and Mr. Lloyd Logwood, tenor of Bedford, Va., as guest soloists. Mrs. Baldwin rendered first "L'Amour Toujours, L'Amour." This was enthusiastically applauded. Mr. Logwood, the "Virginia Caruso," then followed with "A Dream," by Bartlett, and as an encore sang that favorite, "Without a Song." The next number was an especial treat—a duet, "O Solo Mio."

Every number was received with appreciation. Thanks, Mr. Strick, for arranging such an enjoyable program.

THE CIRCUS QUEEN WILL BE PRESENTED

Room For Dancing With Music Furnished by An Orchestra—Great Time Planned

Mary Shelton, well known to the student body of S. T. C. as an unusually good actress and the possessor of pep and personality, has been chosen ringmaster of the circus to be held here Nov. 5. Acting this role, Mary will usher in the various stunts —and announce the items on the program.

Plans for the election of the Circus Queen have been completed. The student body elected her yesterday—however, the identity of this lady of lights and music will not be disclosed until the gala night.

Can't you smell the sawdust and hear the noises that are so typical of a circus? This one, too, is versatile—something for everybody—for those who love color and spectacle, the big show; for those who love to dance—an attractive room especially for this; for those who love to eat, loads and loads of food. Surely from this list you will find something to make your heart beat faster. Remember—Nov. 5, at 8 in the gym!! Be there!

Student Day Programs Prove Very Interesting

Student day, a new venture at S. T. C., promises to be a howling success. Today a very interesting program was presented. Dr. Walmsley gave us some unusual aspects of the political campaign. He told us of all three candidates Roosevelt, Hoover, and Thomas. Judging from his talk, the student body concludes that Roosevelt has a big chance. However, those Hoover enthusiasts need not lose hope as there are still more Republicans than Democrats in our country. The community singing in which every one took part was immensely enjoyed because it was something of a novelty and also something that the students like. Marguerite Massey led devotionals.

The program for next Wednesday, November 9 has not been definitely planned, however, the committee is working on it now. A report of the election will be given also an armistice day program will be presented.

The committee with Dot Prescott as chairman meets once a week to plan programs for each week in advance. They try to plan programs which interest the students which suit the season at the same time programs which will be instructive.

The object of student day is to bring the student body together in a common interest. On student day each student feels that she has a part in the program. It also eliminates the neecssity for called student body meetings, as business can be attended to and announcements made at student day chapel.

THE ROTUNDA

Newspaper — National Scholastic Press Association — Member

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Newspaper Association
Member Intercollegiate Press Association of Virginia.

Published by Students of the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia

Entered as 2nd class matter March 1st, 1921, at the Post Office of Farmville, Virginia, under Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription, $1.50 per year.

ROTUNDA STAFF

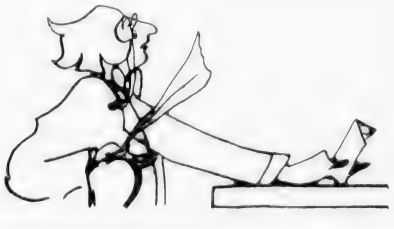
Editor-in-Chief ..... MARTHA GUNTER, '33
Associate Editor ..... MARY DIEHL, '34

Board of Editors

News Editor ..... LELIA MATTOX, '35
Literary Editor ..... GERTRUDE MANNES '34
Athletic Editor ..... MARY JESS RICHMOND, '33
World News Editor ..... MARGUERITE MASSEY '33
Intercollegiate Editor ..... MARY KATHRYN TAYLOR '35
Social Editor ..... DOREEN SMITH '33
Art Editor ..... GERTRUDE SUGDEN, '34
Feature Editors ..... BIRDIE WOODING '35
MARY SHELTON, '34
Humorous Editor ..... BELLE LOVELACE '35
Alumnae Editor ..... MISS VIRGINIA POTTS

Reporters

LOTTIE WHITE '35 HAZEL SMITH '36 DOROTHY WOOLWINE '34
SARAH ROWELL '33 WINIFRED PUGH '34
CARRIE DESHAZO '33 MARGARET COPENHAVER '34



Proof Reader ..... ELIZABETH VASSAR '35
Assistant Proof Reader ..... KATHERINE WALTON '35

Managers

Business Manager ..... FRANCES POTTS '33
Assistant Business Manager ..... VIRGINIA BRINKLEY '34
Circulation Manager ..... ELIZABETH WALTHALL '33
Assistant Circulation Manager ..... FRANCES HORTON '34

The Rotunda invites letters of comment, criticism, and suggestions from its readers upon its manner of presenting and treating them. A letter, to receive consideration, must contain the name and address of the writer. These will not be published if the writer objects to the publication.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matters should come to the Editor-in-Chief. Complaints from subscribers as regards irregularities in the delivery of The Rotunda, will be appreciated.

We'd All Like To Have An Annual

One of the problems that faces the students on coming to school in the fall is that of buying an annual. In the first place one must decide whether or not it is really worthwhile to buy a year book. To the freshmen and juniors especially, is this a problem, for they feel as though they can wait until their sophomore and senior years to buy one. Many feel that this is a luxury which they can do without, and hesitate because of the expensiveness of the annual. Even though one derives a great deal of pleasure from a year book, five dollars seems too much to pay for it.

Everyone wants an annual and one way of eliminating this problem of whether or not to buy an annual would be to include the price of the book in the fees which everyone pays to the college upon entering. Then every student would be entitled to a copy of college memories to take away with him without feeling that he was being robbed for it. With everyone buying one, the price of the annuals could, no doubt, be reduced and no one would have to be taxed to heavily. At the same time a load would be lifted from the shoulders of the annual staff and with more money and time to put on it, a bigger and better year book could be printed.

Many people these days are following Gandhi's example and are fasting—but obviously not for the same reasons.

FORUM

Dear Editor,

Three staunch Democrats wish to enter this Open Forum and publicly correct an atrocious mistake that was made in last week's Rotunda. The Rotunda, we feel, has made a blunder—one so important that the Democrats of the head table must rise up and openly declare themselves to be loyal members of its party. Quoting from last week's issue of the school paper:

"The head table disgraced S. T. C. by voting almost sodily Republican. Hoover received nine out of ten votes, the other one going for Roosevelt."

Fortunately (for Roosevelt and what he represents) three of the fair young voters are loyal Democrats, true daughters of the Southern soil; but, unfortunately, two of these were not able to be at the precinct at voting time. Therefore the results of the straw balloting as declared by the Rotunda, we declare to be false and unfounded. Had this been a true election the absentees would most certainly have been among the "presentees" to vote for the President post haste.

Yours in sympathy with the Rotunda as it prints false news.

Winston Cobb
Margaret Gathright
Kitty Lee Young

Dear Editor,

Now that rat week is over I think that the Seniors should at least be recognized as such. We have been

Continued on page three

KUZIN KITTY KOUNSELS

Dear Kuzin Kitty:

I'm doing my practice teaching this quarter and am not only wrapped up, but literally piled up and hidden in the work. In fact, I'm actually getting the reputation of being snooty, just because I don't speak to people on my way to and from the training school. But how can I, when I'm so loaded down with books that I can't even see whom I meet? And my room stays a perfect sight! There's a layer of home work an inch deep over all of it, and in some places there are drifts a couple of feet deep. People never come to see me any more because the very sight of my room makes them seasick. I'm drowning in a sea of test papers; please be a life-saver.

Frantically,
A SOPHOMORE.

Dear Sophomore:

Before you go under the third time I hope I can rescue you. My suggestion is that you hire the Senior taxi to do your wholesale moving back and forth from the training school. A. Moore seems to be a very reliable chauffeur, so I think you can trust all your valuables to her care. And once back in your room, just borrow a few library experts and have them classify and file your papers. I'm sure you'll have time to be a little more sociable.

Yours,
KUZIN KITTY.

Dea-dear Ku-u-u-zin Ki-kit-ty,

I've n-ev-er been so m-m-mortified in all my l-l-life as I have been since c-coming to F-ar-Farmville to s-chool. It's a-a-wful, but I d-don't get a-any more mi-mind paid me than if I w-w-weren't on the campus. M-m-my trouble is this: when I get ready to s-s-say anything the a-a-audience is s-spellbound for a s-s-second and th-them a gr-great racket breaks lose! An-And nobody seems to w-want to l-listen to my fluent attempts at sp-speach. Wh-what do An-and my lit-tle heart is br-breaking at the l-lack of at-tention I receive.

Please advise im-immediately,
H-h-hesitatingly y-yours,
Fa-Fanny.

Dear little Fanny:

You poor heart-broken so-and-so. If only I can do something to assist you in some way. Now let me think! Oh, I have it! Have you noticed how very "elegantly" everyone seems to be stammering around here this year? Well, now here's the idea—the very plan, in fact, for you to try out! Just try stammering and stuttering for a change, and there's no reason why you shouldn't have attentive listeners. Let me know how successful you uare after adopting this method.

Hopefully,
Kuzin Kitty

HOOVER, ROOSEVELT, AND THOMAS

Which Do You "Choose to Run" For You?

It is a perfectly natural desire to want to know something of the personality and character of the man whom you are supporting or whom you would like to see President for the four years beginning March 4, 1933. Of the three who easily stand at the head of the list, no one can say evil personally. Each is a clean, straight-forward, patriotic American citizen. Ech would give his best service to his apointed job. Each would be "safe" so far as his intentions go. But there is a difference.

Of Hoover one might say, in the terse phrase of Tacitus, "capax impen, nisi imperasret," "capable of rule had he not ruled." No one has ever come to the office better heralded. The idol of the independent voter, who favored him, when no one, not he himself, knew his party affiliations. Brought up in the orthodox American presidential patch, poor boy from Iowa, working his way through college days, graduating with honor, finding the good fairy, who led him into mining engineering and promoting, he was soon a shining example of the reward of virtue. Cast into public eye by Mr. Wilson's choice he showed almost superhuman ability as an administrator, faith in Belgian Relief, then in American Food Control, lastly in the Department of Commerce, which first formed itself under his directorship.

Then a new man appears. As President he has failed to arouse enthusiasm, either with party leaders, Congress, or the public. A certain inhibition, a thin-skinned sensitiveness, has made him fail in the gift of leadership. Faced with a world-wide economic crisis he has not been able to escape from the glowing promises made by his party in 1928. Mr. Hoover is not quick of decision, as Theodore Roosevelt; not gifted with idealized rhetoric, as Woodrow Wilson; not blessed with a radiating goodwill, as William H. Taft. He is a good honest man tied down to a job that no one could have handled with perfect success.

Franklin D. Roosevelt (Roze-y-velt, if you please), is by contact a child of fortune, "a Ha'hvad man," a member of the more aristocratic branch of the Dutch or Huguenot Roosevelts. He has had no struggles to win education or wealth, his only handicap has been his attack of infantile paralysis when he was over forty years of age. Afflicted in legs but not in brain or pocketbook, a fifth cousin of President Roosevelt, and married to the ex-president's niece, he is a romanitc and appealing figure. With more personal charm than Hoover and less than Thomas, he would rank along in the list of handsome presidents, such as Arthur and Wilson, in ability above our weak Buchanans and Grants, below our strong Wilsons and Jacksons.

